

Beast Tamer 83

Chapter 83: Spoil Yourself!_I

From observing and understanding Fang Mu over this period, Lu Yuyu had discerned that Fang Mu was not the kind of person who liked to take advantage of others.

As long as Fang Mu accepted his efforts, there would surely be reciprocation.

In fact, more than Fang Mu's reciprocation, what Lu Yuyu really hoped for was to become friends with Fang Mu.

Fang Mu looked at Lu Yuyu earnestly, then smiled and said.

"Brother Lv, you used to call me 'brother', but lately, you've started to call me

'Mr. Jianmu', it feels a bit strange!"

"I indeed need that piece of land, thank you, Brother Lv!"

"In fact, there is another favor I would like to ask you."

"I've recently partnered with someone to start a commerce association."

"Once we've chosen a location for the association, I hope to entrust the construction to Keystone Construction."

Upon hearing Fang Mu's words, Lu Yuyu felt exhilarated, the sensation shooting straight from his tailbone to the top of his head.

In the past, during his interactions with Fang Mu, it was always him who was reaching out.

Despite numerous proposals to host banquets for Fang Mu at Sea Banquet Palace, Fang Mu never provided an opportunity.

This made Lu Yuyu realize the distance between himself and Fang Mu.

It allowed Lu Yuyu to understand that although Fang Mu showed exceptional politeness when dealing with others, he never behaved arrogantly due to his status, quite the opposite.

But, in reality, the undercurrent behind his politeness was aloofness.

Getting Fang Mu's approval and being considered his friend was challenging.

But now, he had finally taken the first step!

Fang Mu was willing to ask him for help, which meant he recognized his value.

Finally, he was eligible to reach out to Fang Mu whenever he needed something.

"What favor is this!"

"Brother, if you're willing to entrust Keystone Construction, it shows your trust in me and Keystone Construction!"

"Just in time, the family hasn't taken on any major projects recently, and the three Grandmaster Craftsmen are all idle."

"When I get back to my family, I will ask these three seniors to come out of retirement."

“Two of them will help to build the commerce association’s headquarters, and one of them will bring a few construction teams to build the manor according to your requirements.”

Fang Mu had just emphasized his way of addressing him and expressed his intention to become friends.

Lu Yuyu seized the opportunity and stopped calling Fang Mu “Mr. Jianmu”.

Instead, he switched back to calling him ‘brother’!

Fang Mu thought to himself.

Connections really are important!

If it weren’t for knowing Lu Yuyu, even if he offered Dragon Rising Coins to seek land near Jinghai Tianyu University, it would still be almost impossible to find such a well-located vacant land!

In the world of Beast Masters, Dragon Rising Coins are simply a unit of value.

Many high-end supplies cannot be bought simply with Dragon Rising Coins alone.

With the help of Keystone Construction on Fang Yuan’s side, things should be less burdensome!

Fang Mu was well aware of Lu Yuyu’s consistent efforts to win his favor and why.

Looking at Lu Yuyu, with his silver hair and imposing stature standing by his side,

Fang Mu extended his hand and lightly patted Lu Yuyu’s shoulder.

If anyone else did this to him, Lu Yuyu would certainly feel indignant and insulted.

But coming from Fang Mu, Lu Yuyu considered it a great honor.

“Brother Lv, my master is very good to me! He always gives me some elixirs.”

“I still have a few bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of 80 percent. Are you interested?”

Upon hearing this, Lu Yuyu’s eyes sparked brightly.

A grin spread across his face as broad as a bear’s.

Happiness came so suddenly!

Such resources usually created only by a Master Creator were needed by every faction!

Without him even asking, Fang Mu had already begun to share high-tiered creator’s resources with him proactively.

Fang Mu’s way of handling things made Lu Yuyu realize, aside from all the factors of status, judging purely on character, Fang Mu was indeed a person worth befriending! “Brother, I will take as many Life Elixirs with 80 percent purity as you have!”

“If your master gives you more elixirs in the future, be sure to remember me!”

Lu Yuyu was a genuine character.

Once Lu Yuyu confirmed that Fang Mu could trade, he entirely let go of his reservations.

Fang Mu raised an eyebrow upon hearing this.

You're pretty greedy, aren't you?

If Lu Yuyu could afford the price, Fang Mu didn't mind trading some extra elixirs he had on hand.

But even with three Grandmaster Craftsman in Keystone Construction, they might not be able to handle his output!

"Brother Lv, I can't let you help me for nothing," Fang Mu stated.

"The piece of land next to Jinghai Tianyu University, plus the supplies from Keystone Construction."

"I'll provide you with fifteen bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of 80% and fifteen bottles of Element Potion with properties of your choice, all within two months!"

As Lu Xiaoyin had mentioned to Fang Mu before, the price of Life Elixir with a purity of 80% hovers around twenty million Dragon Rising Coins.

The price for various Element Potions with the same purity is a little lower than the Life Elixir, but not by much.

In total, Fang Mu had essentially offered Lu Yuyu a reward worth half a billion Dragon Rising Coins.

This price was more than enough to match Lu Yuyu's contribution!

Fang Mu was well aware that Lu Yuyu definitely preferred Life Elixir with a purity level of 90% over 80%.

However, after his previous interaction with Shui Miao, Fang Mu had made up his mind.

In future trades, he would not readily use elixirs with a purity level of 90% as rewards.

Whilst pleasantly surprised, Lu Yuyu was also amazed.

Fang Mu could obtain so many elixirs from his master during this two-month period.

Fang Mu's master must really spoil him!

Every day, Fang Mu would send out one hundred doses of Life Elixir with a purity of 60%.

This concentration of Life Elixir could not possibly be concocted by Fang Mu's master.

His master probably had a group of creators at his disposal.

Fang Mu could be considered a child spoiled by a group of creators!

If Fang Mu knew of Lu Yuyu's thoughts, he would surely want to give himself a comforting hug.

After his visit to Swiss Lion Garden tonight, he still had to go to the old factory to clean up the garbage.

Where was the supposed group of creators who pampered him?

It seemed like he was the only one spoiling himself!

Fang Mu, on his way to attend the trade fair at Swiss Lion Garden, did not make a special wardrobe change.

He was dressed in his usual clothes, looking youthful as ever!

Lu Yuyu pulled out two masks from his pocket.

He put one on his own face and handed the other to Fang Mu, saying,

“Little brother, these two masks were specially delivered to me by the Lionheart Brigade!”

“They are honored to hear that you’re attending, and if you don’t want to be bothered by people at the trade fair, you can put this mask on.”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu immediately accepted the mask from Lu Yuyu, marked with a lion symbol, and put it on.

Social interaction and being hassled by people are two different things.

If there were people he needed to meet, Lu Yuyu would specially introduce them to him.

He didn’t need to interact actively.

Fang Mu had known from early on that Lu Yuyu viewed him as a social resource.

Having a disciple of a high-star creator attend the trade show was something the Lionheart Brigade would make a fuss about.

People who still had the courage to approach him even after knowing he was not interested in socializing were probably those he needed to meet!

Lu Yuyu’s Beast Car, powered by four platinum-grade Wind Step Antelope, was quite impressive!

Its speed was a multitude of times faster than that of the Six-Hoof Dish Sheep.

If Fang Mu wanted to get to Dinghai Mall, riding on Lu Yuyu’s Beast Car would only take about ten minutes.

Fang Mu was contemplating hiring a high-end private coachman.

Each industry in the Beastmaster world was closely related to Guardian beasts.

Just as some Beast Masters chose to become “scavengers,” some Beast Masters would contract several similarly powered or matching stylish Guardian Beasts, and become professional high-end coachmen.

Hiring such a high-end coachman would cost at least several hundred thousand Dragon Rising Coins per month.

And there were certainly those who demanded up to a million!

Fang Mu didn’t stand a chance to touch this level before.

But now, Fang Mu was a contender!
