Chapter 84: Special Treatment for Fang Mu! 1

Just as Fang Mu was thinking about choosing a high-end personal driver soon.

Lu Yuyu said to Fang Mu somewhat embarrassingly.

“Young brother, a vice legion commander from the Jinghai Army would like to meet with you!”

“She will also attend the trade meeting held by the Lionheart Brigade.” “Hehe, I wonder if you would be willing to grant her a meeting?”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu was piqued.

Jinghai Army!

His elder sister, Fang Qin, was in the Jinghai Army, and she is currently a special operation squad leader.

Fang Mu had a profound respect for the Jinghai Army.

As a child, Fang Mu had been saved by the Jinghai Army.

The year his parents died in an accident.

When Fang Qin took siblings Fang Yuan, Fang Mu, and Yan Wood to sort out their parents’ relics in a factory.

A dimensional rift had just opened in the city.

If the Jinghai Army had not arrived in time, not only Fang Mu.

The entire Fang family of four would have been annihilated and become food for the alien beasts.

That's why Fang Qin resolutely joined the Jinghai Army after graduating from college.

They were people silently shouldering the safety of the entire city!

There was no reason for Fang Mu to refuse a meeting with the vice legion commander of the Jinghai Army.

Moreover, Fang Mu really wanted to establish a working relationship with the Jinghai Army.

Perhaps besides the material aspect, he could help Fang Qin on another front someday.

Having decided to meet with the vice legion commander of the Jinghai Army.

Yet, Fang Mu still looked at Lu Yuyu with a teasing gaze.

Lu Yuyu explained with an honest smile.

"We have some acquaintanceship, and I wouldn't have opened this request to anyone else!"

"She probably wants to use you to order a potion from your master to help her

Guardian Beast Bloodline Transformation.'

Fang Mu had never taken on such a job before.

As the vice legion commander of the Jinghai Army, her Guardian Beast's level must be very high!

The method he uses to assist the Guardian Beast in upgrading their bloodline is to use the Blood Aged Wine.

Fang Mu was keen to try this way, to know how much Blood Aged Wine consumption it takes to assist Guardian Beast in purifying its bloodline. At the same time, it would also showcase his capabilities to the outside world.

"Fine! Brother Lv, you can arrange it when the time comes!" "However, I can't guarantee that my master will agree."

Fang Mu didn't want to commit himself fully.

He was a disciple of [Stellar Start] in the eyes of the world, so it was not up to him to make decisions for his master!

Hearing this, Lu Yuyu joyfully responded. "Young brother, I owe you a big favor for this!"

"Just tell me if you need anything in the future!"

Upon hearing Lu Yuyu's words, Fang Mu had a thought.

How had he aided the vice legion commander of the Jinghai Army in upgrading the Guardian Beast bloodline somehow turned into Lu Yuyu owing him a big favor?

There must be something fishy about this!

But Fang Mu didn't delve deeper.

If there were any problems at the meeting, he would definitely be able to spot them!

The Beast Car, pulled by four Wind Step Antelope, soon arrived at the iron gate of the Swiss Lion Garden.

Hundreds of Beast Cars were parked at the Swiss Lion Garden's entrance.

Even the lowest-grade Beast Car was being pulled by a Silver Peak Beast.

The Lionheart Brigade sure had a lot of face! So many prominent figures are here!

As Fang Mu and Lu Yuyu were about to get up, the car door was opened by two men from the outside.

These two men looked rather ordinary and wore a purple robe.

A majestic lion was embroidered on the robe.

The lion was bearing its fangs and claws, in the middle of pouncing on its prey in front, exuding extreme ferocity!

Fang Mu felt a chilling aura from these two men the moment he saw them.

People with such aura were mostly those who had a tough life and death experience.

No need for Lu Yuyu to introduce these two to Fang Mu.

These two first greeted Fang Mu, saying.

"Welcome, Sir Jianmu, to our trade meeting!"

“On behalf of all the members of the Lionheart Brigade, we express our gratitude for your arrival!”

Only after greeting Fang Mu did these two men greet Lu Yuyu, saying.

“Executor Lv, thank you for gracing us with your presence!”

These two people spoke to Lu Yuyu very respectfully.

However, anyone who heard their conversation could feel the difference in their attitudes towards Fang Mu and Lu Yuyu. Lu Yuyu showed no abnormal reaction to this.

First, he nodded at them as a courtesy.

Then he spoke to Fang Mu.

“Brother, these two men were specifically sent to greet you.”

“Had it been anybody else, they would not warrant the vice-leader of the Lionheart Brigade and his assistant waiting at the entrance!”

Fang Mu’s mind kept spinning.

From the attitude of the vice-leader of the Lionheart Brigade towards Lu Yuyu, Fang Mu clarified the positioning of the Lionheart Brigade in his heart.

The Lionheart Brigade was even more prestigious than he had imagined!

Otherwise, the vice-leader of the Lionheart Brigade would be warmer towards Lu Yuyu.

Lu Yuyu, as the executor of the Beastmaster Alliance, did not need to return the courtesy.

Fang Mu, who stood up, also made a gesture of greeting to the two people like

Lu Yuyu had done earlier, and subsequently said,

“I hope I can find something of interest to me in the Lionheart Brigade!”

As he was speaking, Fang Mu leaned his left hand, adorned with the Purple Ice Crystal Ring and the Spider Flash Ring, against the railing and climbed out of the Beast Car.

The dimensional rift in the Spider Flash Ring and the dark light of its water attribute, along with the aura of the Purple Ice Crystal Ring, were immediately perceived by the two members of the Lionheart Brigade.

The two knew that Lu Yuyu would not lie, otherwise they wouldn't have greeted Fang Mu in such a high manner.

But hearing about it and seeing with their own eyes are two different things.

The young man was boldly wearing a sequential spiritual instrument as a piece of jewelry, what an extraordinary style!

From Lu Yuyu's address to Fang Mu, their gaze towards Lu Yuyu was a bit puzzled.

They didn't understand how Lu Yuyu had established a strong relationship with this high-star Creator's disciple!

Liu Jihui, the vice-leader of the Lionheart Brigade, had an unconscious desire to learn from Lu Yuyu.

However, obtaining wisdom from Lu Yuyu would probably come at no small cost.

Liu Jihui sharply captured Fang Mu's needs from his words.

The disciple of the high-star Creator attending the exchange meeting was interested in the collection of the Lionheart Brigade.

The Lionheart Brigade had a numerous collection of which only a small part was prepared for auction this time.

If the collection of the Lionheart Brigade can win the favor of the young man in front of him, Liu Jihui feels it is totally worth it!

A large number of people in the Lionheart Brigade have already elevated their strength to that of a Five-pointed star Beastmaster.

In theory, a Five-pointed star Beastmaster should already have a sequential level guardian beast.

But all the guardian beasts of the Five-pointed star Beastmasters in the Lionheart Brigade are stuck at the Diamond Rank.

To evolve towards a sequential species and promote their guardian beasts to Sequential Nine, a large amount of high-star Creator resources would undoubtedly be required.

The influence and ability to explore the wilderness of the Lionheart Brigade have reached a bottleneck.

Only by breaking through with the brigade members' guardian beasts can the Lionheart Brigade change the existing status quo.

Liu Jihui carefully said,

"Sir Jianmu, after the exchange meeting is over, would you be interested in taking a look at our collection in the Lionheart Brigade?"

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu nodded slightly.

Fang Mu directly stated his intentions, which was to achieve his goals.

The vice-leader of the Lionheart Brigade in front of him seems quite accommodating!

The assistant beside Liu Jihui promptly chimed in.

“Originally the leader wanted to personally receive you!”

“However, our leader was cursed while exploring and is still unconscious.”

“Later, the vice-leader will host the exchange meeting. If you have any needs, you can speak directly to me!”

“I will serve you!”

Hearing this, Fang Mu did not reject the enthusiasm of the Lionheart Brigade.

The Lionheart Brigade wants to embark on mercenary business and accept military hire.

Establishing a relationship with such a force would only benefit Fang Mu.

Maybe in the future, he will need the Lionheart Brigade!

Lu Yuyu ruffled his silver broken hair.

Damn it! I can understand treating me differently.

But you should also pay attention to other people's feelings!

At this moment, many passing guests had their eyes on Fang Mu.

However, it must be said that the majority of these guests do not even qualify to be jealous of Fang Mu.

Because Fang Mu and these people are not on the same level at all. "There should still be over an hour before the exchange meeting officially starts, prepare a quiet room for us!"

"We'll meet a friend later. We don't wish to be disturbed by others!"

On a regular day, Liu Jihui would not personally arrange anything in response to a request by Lu Yuyu.

But now, Lu Yuyu and Fang Mu are tied together.. Serving Lu Yuyu was equivalent to serving Fang Mu!
