

Beast Tamer 85

Chapter 85: Fang Mu About to Fall Off the Horse! 1

So Liu Jihui took the initiative to speak.

“The whole fifth floor of Swiss Lion Garden has been transformed into a tea room.”

“The environment there is nice, and there will be no interruptions! It’s very convenient for you guys to meet with friends.”

“Let me take you there now.”

Having said this, Liu Jihui made a gesture of invitation.

Then he quickly lead the way.

Swiss Lion Garden covers an area of nearly 10,000 square meters.

Besides the main building, the rest of the area is filled with statues of Lion

Type Beasts.

The primary material for these statues is Yellow Fluorite.

Yellow Fluorite is a pricey Golden-Earth-Attribute material.

The Yellow Fluorite sculptures of various Lion Type Beasts were made lifelike.

If these statues were placed in the wild, they could definitely scare away the herbivorous Guardian Beasts within several kilometers.

Seeing Fang Mu observing the courtyard layout of Swiss Lion Garden, Lu Yuyu said directly without giving Liu Jihui any face.

“The materials used for these statues are good!”

“Whole pieces of Yellow Fluorite weighing over a hundred jin can sell for a high price of two to three million Dragon Rising coins!”

“It’s a pity that only advanced craftsmen were employed for carving, which is really a waste!”

“If master craftsmen were carving, the aura of these stone statues would be at least ten times stronger!”

“Don’t worry, brother, whether it is building your manor or constructing the company’s facilities.”

“At least a master craftsman will handle the detail work!”

In truth, Keystone Construction in the Capital has even more influence than the Lionheart Brigade.

Moreover, Keystone Construction is a craftsman family that has been passed down for hundreds of years.

So, Lu Yuyu is qualified to make judgments in this regard.

Just like Liu Jihui who only nodded slightly at him and has been trying to please Fang Mu.

Lu Yuyu also had no need to care about Liu Jihui’s opinion of him.

His primary task was also to deepen his relationship with Fang Mu.

So to please Fang Mu at this time, Lu Yuyu didn't mind offending the entire Lionheart Brigade.

Liu Jihui didn't care much about Lu Yuyu's words.

As the deputy head of the Lionheart Brigade, Liu Jihui had the necessary demeanor!

Because Lu Yuyu was able to invite Jianmu to attend the Lionheart Brigade's trade meeting, the Lionheart Brigade owed Lu Yuyu a favor.

Through Lu Yuyu's words, Liu Jihui knew that Jianmu was planning to create a company.

If a company is to be established, military support is inevitable.

Perhaps he could start from this aspect to help the Lionheart Brigade establish a good relationship with Fang Mu.

Liu Jihui was not in a hurry to please Fang Mu.

After the trade meeting, Jianmu would stay to observe the Lionheart Brigade's collection.

Waiting until then to say anything would be more appropriate.

Now he just needed to express his attitude and provide Jianmu with the best service and environment!

When they entered the building, Fang Mu found that the Lionheart Brigade had obviously put more thought into the decoration.

A large number of exquisite jade stones were carved into the shape of Lion Type Beasts.

Among them, Fang Mu even saw sculptures of the Flame-winged Lion Scorpion and the Giant Scorpion Lion.

These carvings were fitted on the walls and stone pillars, giving the entire hall an opulent and magnificent feel.

This highlighted the depth of the Lionheart Brigade.

However, Fang Mu did not like this kind of decoration.

Instead of displaying so many jadeite carvings, it would have been better to place rare Guardian Beasts like the Heaven Fragrance Peony inside the room.

The more he looked at the interior of Swiss Lion Garden, the more Fang Mu felt that it reeked of a heavy hotel vibe.

At this moment, Lu Yuyu's phone rang.

Lu Yuyu answered the call, and his usually hearty voice immediately softened.

It seemed as if he heard something from the other end, and his expression momentarily stiffened.

He quickly turned around to look.

He saw a middle-aged woman wearing a Lionheart Brigade uniform followed by two young women.

One of the women had a smart and capable look. Her already short chestnut hair was tied up high.

The end of her ponytail just passed the hairline at the back of her head.

She wore a dark purple half armor, and the lower half was a pair of black tight pants.

At the sight of this woman, a warm smile appeared on Lu Yuyu's face.

The figure of the other woman was a bit taller than the woman next to her, probably about 1.72 meters.

The deep blue uniform she wore looked very plain.

Her brown hair hung to her waist, and her face was gentle and calm.

But between her brows and eyes, there was an indescribable determination. Looking at the woman's beautiful features, Lu Yuyu suddenly felt a sense of familiarity, as if he had seen her somewhere before.

Suddenly, Lu Yuyu noticed that the woman's left hand actually had two mechanical fingers.

Luo Su's youthful appearance was due to his consistent use of Firming Palm Oil for skincare.

Though he was about the same age as me, he looked to be just in his early twenties.

To know that Luo Su had carried out many tasks, combating against the Dimensional Rifts.

The woman beside Luo Su must be the girl he recently took fancy to!

Such a young age and already missing two fingers, it's quite pitiful!

In this world, there are no Guardian Beasts that can regenerate severed limbs.

As Lu Yuyu turned around, Fang Mu also turned his body.

Fang Mu's gaze didn't linger on Luo Su, it was entirely drawn to the woman beside him.

Fang Mu didn't expect to see his older sister, Fang Qin, here!

When Lu Yuyu glanced at her left hand, Fang Qin sensitively withdrew it into her sleeve.

No one wouldn't care about the incompleteness of their body.

However, there are even bigger concerns.

In life, there are always responsibilities that force you to put aside your own concerns at crucial moments!

This made Fang Mu unable to see the two mechanical fingers on Fang Qin's left hand as he turned his head.

Although Fang Mu was wearing a mask, Luo Su, who had been observing him, noticed his gaze towards Fang Qin.

This look was both passionate and focused, definitely filled with emotions!

Suddenly, a phrase popped up in Luo Su's mind.

Love at first sight!?

Fang Qin was no longer young, in a few more years, she'd be in her thirties!

If she didn't find someone soon, she'd be an old maid.

If Lu Yuyu knew what Luo Su was thinking at this moment, he'd definitely spat a mouthful of blood onto Luo Su's feet.

Damn it! You're almost forty!

We've known each other since we were kids, and we've been together for decades.

When will you start thinking about your own life and stop meddling in others'!?

Fang Mu forcibly suppressed his emotions, lest he accidentally blurt out "older sister"!

Fang Mu didn't mind letting the "Scavenger" know his true identity, but he didn't want to reveal it in public.

Feng Lin had already told him that the "Scavenger" had falsified a lot of his information.

Now the identities of Fang Mu and Jianmu had been clearly separated!

Given Fang Qin's rank in the Jinghai Army, she was able to accompany the deputy commander-in-chief to private parties.

She likely served as a guard or assistant to this deputy commander-in-chief.

Luo Su gave Lu Yuyu a sign, then stepped forward. He warmly extended his hand to Fang Mu.

“Hello, Jianmu, I’m Luo Su.”

Fang Mu, who had regained his senses, lightly shook hands with Luo Su.

He then lowered his voice and said solemnly.

“I’m Jianmu. If there’s anything, let’s discuss it separately inside.”

Listening to Fang Mu’s deep voice, Luo Su didn’t think anything was unusual.

But Lu Yuyu looked at Fang Mu with a surprised face.

Bro, why are you suddenly lowering your voice?

Your sister-in-law can’t stand such a suave playboy tone!

Without a mask on Lu Yuyu face, Fang Mu would have basically been exposed. Hearing Fang Mu’s deliberately lowered voice, Fang Qin’s ears moved slightly.

She then looked at Fang Mu with a surprised expression.

Fang Qin found the voice of this Grandmaster Disciple to be very familiar.

Made her think of the person she kept in her heart!

In the past few days, Fang Qin had been praying that the elixir she exchanged for her merits would stimulate her spiritual power effectively.

Fang Qin's gaze stayed on Fang Mu, who was wearing a mask.

The more she looked, the more Fang Qin felt that the figure in front of her was blending with the figure in her heart.

The height and body shape were too similar!

But quickly, Fang Qin shook her head slightly.

According to Xiao Yuan, Little Wood is now attending public lectures for Junior creators.

He dreams of becoming an assistant to a Junior Creator.

Yet, the person in front of her is a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator, standing at the top of her brother's dream.

According to Luo Su, Jianmu is also a teenager.

Such a teen is indeed a favored son in the clouds.

But in Fang Qin's heart, Fang Mu was never inferior to anyone!

Fang Mu's perseverance and hard work after failing to become a Beast Master, pulling himself from the mire, and his courage and determination to forge ahead.

This young man named Jianmu may not possess these qualities!
