

Beast Tamer 87

Chapter 87: The Happy Snake of Party A!_1

This familiar voice made Fang Qin instantly release the force she was about to exert from her hand.

Subconsciously, Fang Qin coiled her arms around, reciprocating Fang Mu's hug.

Only after these unconscious movements was completed, did an overwhelming wave of surprise, shock, and disbelief flood Fang Qin's mind.

Compared to the shock and disbelief, joy enveloped Fang Qin's heart even more.

It's like someone hearing that their father had won five million from a lottery ticket.

The initial instinctive feeling is definitely happiness, followed by surprise!

Fang Qin finally understood why she felt a sense of familiarity when she first saw Jianmu.

The one sentence "Sister, I missed you" just now verified that Jianmu is her little brother Fang Mu!

Since Fang Qin was the eldest sister in the family, Fang Yuan preferred to discuss work-related matters with her.

Instead of putting pressure on the little siblings who were still in school. So Fang Qin knew that Fang Yuan and Jianmu had set up a business association together.

During this mission with Luo Su, Fang Qin had wanted to find an opportunity to thank Jianmu.

Fang Qin had always acknowledged Fang Yuan's abilities.

But there are way too many capable people in this world.

There were others more capable than Fang Yuan!

Fang Yuan receiving such an opportunity out of nowhere always made Fang Qin nervous.

Especially when Fang Yuan made a large sum of money during this period and divided the money among them.

Now Fang Qin finally understood the reason behind it.

It turned out that Fang Yuan's opportunity was given by their younger brother!

But, when did her little brother become a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator?

At this moment, Fang Qin felt Fang Mu loosen his hug around her.

Then, he directly took off the mask on his face.

A face that was familiar to the bone appeared before Fang Qin.

Fang Qin couldn't help but instinctively pinch Fang Mu's face, just like she used to do when he was young.

The sudden surprise and shock caused Fang Qin to forget that her habitually used left hand was missing two fingers.

Just as Fang Qin realized and prepared to retract her left hand.

Two cold mechanical fingers had already touched Fang Mu's cheek.

Even though he had known about Fang Qin's lost fingers earlier.

But when he truly saw Fang Qin's hand, Fang Mu couldn't help the pain in his heart.

Fang Mu grabbed Fang Qin's hand.

Yet many words came to his lips, but Fang Mu didn't know how to say them!

Because his current situation is very hard to explain to Fang Qin.

Fang Mu despised lying to his family members the most.

Because one lie often requires many more lies to cover up!

Just as he was at a loss, Fang Mu saw that Fang Qin took the mask from his hand and gently placed it back on his face.

"Little Wood, your master asked you to come here, he must have arranged something for you!"

"Go get busy, don't delay your work!"

“Call me after you’re done with your work tonight.”

Fang Mu paused in surprise at Fang Qin’s words.

Turns out, in front of their closest family, they don’t have to explain many things!

Because Fang Qin had already thought of the answer from his perspective.

Although she really wanted to spend more time with him now, she didn’t want to delay him.

So she chose to let him take care of everything first and contact her later.

Fang Mu straightened the jacket that was disheveled from the hug and said to her.

“Sister, Master is very good to me!”

“Otherwise, I wouldn’t have been able to start a business with Big Brother!” Despite hearing Fang Mu say this, Fang Qin still shook her head.

Fang Mu becoming a disciple of the Grandmaster Creator was due to his own destiny.

Even if others begged, they couldn't secure such an opportunity!

He must not become arrogant and complacent, just because he has won the favor of the Grandmaster Creator!

And forget about doing what should be done!

"Little Wood, no matter how good your master is to you, don't forget to respect your elders!"

"And help at home within your means!"

Fang Qin gave Fang Mu lectures very rarely.

But every time she did, it was completely from the perspective of Fang Mu.

Fang Mu knew if he stayed here longer, Fang Qin would surely worry. Instead of letting Fang Qin worry, it would be better to go back first.

“Sister, I will call you tonight!”

Fang Mu, who was just about to turn around, suddenly remembered something.

In a very serious tone as he faced Fang Qin, he said.

“Big sister, I am now a Beast Master!”

“It was only two months ago!”

Fang Mu thought of the elixir that Fang Qin had exchanged for with the Frost Dragon Fish, which had the effect of stimulating spiritual power at low frequencies, after he had told her about his accomplishment.

He embraced Fang Qin once again.

Then he turned around, crossed the long corridor, and returned to his quiet room.

At the very end, Fang Mu said these words to Fang Qin.

On one hand, he was sharing the good news with Fang Qin.

On the other hand, it was Fang Mu's explanation to Fang Qin.

He wanted Fang Qin to know around which time he had been recognized by the so-called Grandmaster Creator.

After Fang Mu left, a big smile spread across Fang Qin's gentle face.

She forcibly held back her teary eyes, but a drop managed to slip down her nose.

When their parents died, Fang Qin became the pillar of the family in her teens.

She knew then that she had to be strong!

No matter how tough or difficult it was, she could not cry in front of her younger siblings.

But Fang Qin didn't expect that being so overjoyed could also make one cry!

These two drops of tears fell on the floor made of Soft Kite Wood, washing away the last lingering fog between Fang Qin's brows.

And for Fang Qin, there could be no better news than Fang Mu becoming a Beast Master!

Thinking of the determination Fang Yuan showed when he called her every day.

Fang Qin decided not to tell Fang Yuan that Jianmu is Little Wood yet!

If one day Fang Yuan found out himself, surely his reaction would be priceless!

Of course, that was not the main reason.

The main reason why Fang Qin chose not to tell Fang Yuan the truth was that she was uncertain if it would impact Fang Mu if she did.

Little Wood's teacher had him change his name to Jianmu, which probably means he didn't want others to know about Little Wood's situation.

Fang Mu was initially unable to awaken his Destiny Guidebook, and she wasn't able to help then.

But now that Fang Mu has become the disciple of a Grandmaster Creator and started using his own resources to help the whole family.

Fang Qin still doesn't know how else she could help Fang Mu.

But no matter what, as his sister, she would do her best within her capabilities!

Looking at Jianmu who had returned to his seat at the table, Lv Yuyu and Luo

Su both noted that Jianmu's demeanor seemed to have shifted.

Previously, Jianmu appeared to be somewhat preoccupied.

But now, Jianmu seemed as if he had come to life!

Luo Su coughed lightly, ready to continue discussing Fang Qin's situation based on the topic they had just been talking about.

But before Luo Su could speak, Lv Yuyu took over the conversation.

“To be honest, Luo Su is my fiancée!”

“She reached out to you, hoping you could help and ask your master to assist in enhancing her Guardian Beast’s bloodline!”

Knowing Luo Su well, Lv Yuyu was sure that Luo Su, being straightforward as she was, would likely continue discussing the earlier topic.

Miss Luo, do you really think the time of a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator isn’t valuable?

I had already laid the groundwork in the car.

The fact that he is willing to help is already a favor!

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu looked at Lv Yuyu and Luo Su.

No wonder Lv Yuyu said that he owed him a favor after he agreed So this was the reason!

Fang Mu had already decided in his heart to help Luo Su with this.

The reason he made this decision was not that he felt particularly attached to Lv Yuyu.

Fang Mu and Lv Yuyu were at best ordinary friends or, more appropriately, partners.

There was no need for him to do Lv Yuyu this favor!

The secondary reason he decided to help Luo Su was because she was from the Jinghai Army.

The main reason was because Luo Su was extremely good to Fang Qin!

Otherwise, a vice-commander of the Jinghai Army wouldn't possibly know so much about Fang Qin.

Let alone showing such affection and value towards Fang Qin in her words!

Although Fang Mu had decided in his heart to help, he didn't immediately agree, but instead asked,

"May I know what's the Guardian Beast whose bloodline Miss Luo wants to enhance?"

Upon hearing this, Luo Su didn't hesitate and summoned the Guardian Beast whose bloodline she wanted to enhance.

A small ink-colored snake appeared, coiling around Luo Su's wrist.

The scales on the little ink-colored snake gleamed with a multi-colored light.

Looking at the little ink-colored snake from different angles, its color looked slightly different.

What a Happy Party Snake!
