

Beast Tamer 90

Chapter 90 Money is Not Everything!

In this life, the Beastmaster world that Fang Mu belonged to put into practice a phrase even more so than in his previous life.

The phrase is 'money isn't everything'!

The items auctioned at the beginning of the trade show were of lower tier.

So ten items were auctioned off at the same time, and if you saw something you liked, you could bid on it directly.

If no one topped the bid after one minute.

The item would naturally fall into the lap of the bidder.

Lu Yuyu and Luo Su watched these auction items with a lack of interest, and Fang Mu also pretended to be indifferent.

But actually, every auction item here was a good thing for the current Fang Mu.

However, even if Fang Mu was interested in something, he wouldn't bid on it.

For a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator to bid for these kinds of supplies, it would be like a wealthy woman dressed in brand-name clothes and dripping with jewels rummaging for chewed gum in a trash can – totally demeaning!

Fang Qin didn't pay attention to the trade show.

Even though he knew that Luo Su wouldn't encounter any danger here.

And even if Luo Su really did encounter danger, he wouldn't be able to protect Luo Su himself.

Yet, Fang Qin still carried out his duty as a guard and an assistant.

The auction items were presented one by one, then bid on and sold after some competition.

There were many spiritual materials and guardian beasts that Fang Mu didn't know the specific prices of.

But for the ones Fang Mu knew the price of, they were basically all bid higher than the market price.

This explained why the Lionheart Brigade was so willing to hold this kind of trade show.

In this atmosphere, it was rather a social event.

Few people were unwilling to spend an extra amount of money to demonstrate their strength and foundation to others.

Thus, gaining more opportunities to be approached by other powers.

After all, when it comes to finding allies, everyone prefers strong ones.

No one would choose to associate with a weak ally.

Luo Su took a liking to a platinum spiritual instrument that he could use with his Guardian Beast.

This platinum spiritual instrument was one of the five grand finale auction items prepared by the Lionheart Brigade.

Lu Yuyu originally planned to pay for it and buy it for Luo Su.

But Luo Su didn't give Lu Yuyu the chance and paid for it himself.

From the recent conversation between Lu Yuyu and Luo Su, Fang Mu knew that Luo Su's background was not inferior to Lu Yuyu's.

Origin Construction is a consortium that can compete with Keystone Construction.

Like the Lu family, the Luo Family is also a craftsman family with a history of over a hundred years.

Lu Yuyu and Luo Su were indeed a perfect match!

No wonder they were engaged at a young age!

As for why Luo Su would choose to join the Jinghai Army, the reasons were probably the same as Fang Qin's.

It was due to the responsibility and belief he carried in his heart.

The first three of the five grand finale auction items had already been auctioned off, and Fang Mu hadn't made a move.

The fourth item was then the Frost Language Snow Dragon's turn.

A huge iron cage was brought in, carried by four members of the Lionheart Brigade, with Golden Grade Guardian Beasts known as Terrifying Claw Ground Bears.

A pale blue creature was lying in the cage.

Occasionally, it violently struck the cage with its tail, letting out a hissing sound like a snake, but more majestic and authoritative than a snake! Four sharp talons lay under the serpentine body of this creature.

If it wasn't for the absence of horns on this creature's head.

Even if the creature was lying in water without soaring into the sky, it would instantly be recognized as a Jiaolong in Fang Mu's previous world!

Lu Yuyu stared at the creature in the cage for a long time, then sighed with a sense of awe.

"If it wasn't for the fact that I don't resonate with the Frost Language Snow Dragon, I'd bid on it and make a pact with it no matter what!"

"This iron cage contains a mixture of trapped dragon gold, which suppresses the power of the Dragon Race bloodline."

"The fact that this Frost Language Snow Dragon still has such an impressive aura shows that its bloodline power is certainly extraordinary."

As Lu Yuyu was speaking, Luo Su subconsciously turned his gaze to Fang Qin.

He noticed that Fang Qin's eyes had glazed over looking at the Frost Language Snow Dragon!

Luo Su couldn't help but sigh.

There must be countless people attending this trade show specifically for this Frost Language Snow Dragon.

This Frost Language Snow Dragon has such a strong Dragon Race bloodline that it's just one step away from evolving into a Jiaolong and is a Bronze Tier existence.

At the very least, it could sell for more than 15 million Dragon Soaring Coins.

If there's a child of a certain power who really needs this Frost Language Snow Dragon.

It's quite possible that the price could double.

And this auction would definitely involve resources for a Crafting Master.

In fact, even if you really won the bid for this Frost Language Snow Dragon, it would just be the beginning.

If you want to improve the bloodline of the Frost Language Snow Dragon, you would definitely need to use a high concentration Life Elixir.

As well as some spiritual materials that would aid the Dragon race Guardian Beast to break through its bloodline.

The price of these things may well be higher than the final price of the Frost Language Snow Dragon.

Fang Mu also noticed Fang Qin's look.

The desire and longing shown in Fang Qin's eyes gave Fang Mu a jolt.

In terms of their family's economic conditions, the Frost Dragon Fish and the Frost Language Snow Dragon would be no different to Fang Qin.

Both were out of his family's financial reach.

Perhaps Fang Qin had looked at the Frost Dragon Fish with the same level of longing in the past!

The courage and determination Fang Qin must have had to bring herself to give up when faced with the Frost Dragon Fish.

The price of the Frost Language Snow Dragon had already escalated to 17 million Dragon Rising Coins.

When someone bid 17 million,

An old man immediately chose to offset the price with two hundred bottles of Life Elixir, with a purity between fifty and fifty-five percent.

The price gap for Life Elixir concocted by an Intermediate Crafting Master was not substantial.

Average down to 60,000 Dragon Rising Coins a bottle.

The price for two hundred bottles was around 12 million Dragon Rising Coins.

This old man was willing to offer up two hundred bottles of Life Elixir with a purity between fifty and fifty-five percent, plus six million Dragon Rising Coins.

This was enough to prove the old man's determination to win the Frost Language Snow Dragon.

Creators entering the auction with their resources caused many who wanted to bid for the Frost Language Snow Dragon with Dragon Rising Coins to back down.

But soon, another elegantly dressed lady bid twenty bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of sixty percent, plus 12 million Dragon Rising Coins.

Upon seeing this, Lu Yuyu softly remarked.

“The young master of the Coastal Commerce is rumored to be fond of Dragon race Guardian Beast, for which the Coastal Commerce even held a banquet.”

“I did not expect the leader of the Coastal Commerce to attend the Lionheart Brigade’s auction!”

“She bids so fiercely, using so many high-level Creator resources.” “It seems she is determined to get this Frost Language Snow Dragon!”

Hearing this, Fang Mu pursed his lips beneath his mask.

The head of the Coastal Commerce cares greatly for her son, as much as Fang Mu cares for his sister!

Fang Mu had not been in a hurry to bid because he knew that once he did, Those who knew his identity might refrain from bidding out of respect for his identity.

This would essentially be blocking the Lionheart Brigade’s path to fortune.

Now that people had brought out high-level Creator resources, it was time for him to bid!

Twenty bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of sixty percent, according to the price Fang Yuan reported to him, is 7 million.

Plus a total of 12 million Dragon Rising Coins.

That is to say, the head of the Coastal Commerce called for a price close to 19 million Dragon Rising Coins!

Fang Mu raised his hand to press the bidding button beside him.

A pleasant, gentle voice immediately sounded throughout the hall on the first floor of the Swiss Lion Garden.

“I bid one bottle of Life Elixir with a purity of eighty percent!”

Fang Mu’s offer made Liu Jihui both happy and anxious.

He was delighted that Fang Mu brought out a bottle of Life Elixir that only a Master Creator can concoct.

In the entire JA City, or even the entire Jinghai Province.

Master Creator resources have already topped the Creator resources!

Such high-level resources are difficult for the Lionheart Brigade to acquire even at great cost!

What made Liu Jihui anxious was that if he had known earlier that “Jianmu” was interested in the Frost Language Snow Dragon, he would not have auctioned it!

When he has a private meeting with “Jianmu” later, gifting it to him will undoubtedly win “Jianmu’s” favor more!

Yu Zirou, the head of the Coastal Commerce, came for two purposes.

The first purpose was for the Frost Language Snow Dragon.

The second was hoping to make connections with Jianmu, a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator.

Yu Zirou never imagined that she would become a competitor of Jianmu.

Without needing to weigh in, Yu Zirou immediately removed her hand from the bidding button.

Firstly, even the most precious Dragon race Guardian Beast is not worth offending a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator over.

If she offended such an influential figure, even if Jianmu did nothing,

Other forces would distance themselves from the Coastal Commerce to avoid involvement.

Secondly, even though she prepared 28 million Dragon Rising Coins worth of resources,

But the highest level stayed at the level of advanced Creators.

She didn't have the means to compete with Master Creator resources.

Understanding these two points, Yu Zirou boldly stood up.

She faced the compartment where Fang Mu's voice came from and said,

"The Coastal Commerce wishes to congratulate Mr. Jianmu in advance on adding the Frost Language Snow Dragon to his collection!"

Yu Zirou was well aware that the people in the room who hadn't heard the news or were unaware of Jianmu's identity simply couldn't afford to bid.

Those who knew Jianmu's identity wouldn't be foolish enough to compete with him.

As Yu Zirou anticipated,

Fang Mu claimed the Frost Language Snow Dragon with one bottle of Life Elixir with a purity of eighty percent.

Fang Qin had never yearned for a Guardian Beast like the Frost Language Snow Dragon.

But the moment she heard Fang Mu's bid, Fang Qin tensed up.

Turning her head to look at Fang Mu, she found him winking at her.

Apart from joy, Fang Qin felt a sense of urgency.

She was afraid that Fang Mu casually taking out a bottle of Life Elixir of such high purity to win the Frost Language Snow Dragon auction for her Would upset the Grandmaster Creator behind them!

Through Fang Qin's eyes, Fang Mu quickly grasped her thoughts.

Fang Mu had heard an old saying in his previous life.

The love of parents for their child is far-sighted and deep-rooted!

Fang Qin, as a sister, probably feels the same way about Fang Mu.

In that moment, Fang Mu felt as if he had been stripped of his fatherly mindset unilaterally.

He truly became a child under Fang Qin's protection!
