

Beast Tamer 91

Chapter 91 Fang Mu, Mom's Good Son!_1

As early as when the Frost Language Snow Ch'i was brought up, Fang Mu had already used the Eye of Omniscience to investigate the Frost Language Snow Ch'i.

[Beast Name]: Frost Language Snow Ch'i

[Beast Species]: Scale Ch'i Family/Young Dragonling Genus

[Beast Level]: Bronze (5/10)

[Beast Element]: Ice Type

[Beast Potential]: Silver

[Beast Quality]: Perfect

Skill:

[Frostfall]: Converts water element in the air into the ice element by chanting Frost Language, dropping frost to freeze the target.

Exclusive Feature:

[Frost Mark]: During battle, each time the water element is converted to ice element, a frost mark will be condensed, each frost mark can speed up the next element conversion, and expand the range of the ice element.

Evolutionary Path:

①: Frost Tone Snow Dragonling, ②: Blizzard Ice Ch'i, ③: Frost Sword Fish Ch'i

The skills and exclusive features of the Frost Language Snow Ch'i are one of the reasons why Fang Mu believes it's a must to win this auction for Fang Qin.

Just like when Fang Mu redeemed the domain-type Wood Beast Eden GreenLand from the Merit Hall of the "Scavenger".

Rare beasts are often re-evaluated for their value before they are sold.

The best way is to elevate their quality to a Perfect quality, acquiring the first exclusive characteristic.

If the exclusive characteristics are valuable, the price of the beast could easily double.

This is precisely the case with the Frost Language Snow Ch'i!

The Lionheart Brigade raised the Frost Language Snow Ch'i to perfect quality to boost its value.

It's clear that the Lionheart Brigade's gamble paid off.

The exclusive characteristic [Frost Mark] enables the Frost Language Snow Ch'i to constantly amplify its power in battle.

The longer the battle, the faster the Frost Language Snow Ch'i can launch elemental attacks, and the range will also continually expand.

This ability is not particularly dominant in a one-on-one duel.

But in team battles or large-scale campaigns, it can often achieve unexpected effects.

Even though the current strength of the Frost Language Snow Ch'i is only at the bronze level, it already has decent combat capabilities when combined with the skill [Frostfall].

The attack mode of the [Frostfall] skill, even if it cannot cause damage when facing an enemy far stronger than the Frost Language Snow Ch'i, can still have a certain controlling effect.

In an army corps like Jinghai, each person has a different positioning in the team because of their different beast equipment.

After contracting with the Frost Language Snow Ch'i, Fang Qin will inevitably have to alter his current status.

By commanding the Frost Language Snow Ch'i to strike the enemy from a distance, Fang Qin can ensure his personal safety to the utmost extent.

As for the resources the Frost Language Snow Ch'i will need for its future strengthening, Fang Mu plans to provide them for Fang Qin.

Life Elixirs and Water Attribute Medicines can be made by absorption.

As for other spiritual materials that can enhance the dragon bloodline, combined with the secondary materials of a life elixir and a water element potion.

Fang Mu only needed to take out a few bottles of life elixir with a purity of 80% to easily exchange them at the Creator's Guild.

The supplies required for the Frost Language Snow Ch'i to be promoted to the gold level are guaranteed to be available in the Creator's Guild!

If he is afraid that such behavior is too conspicuous.

He would simply tell Lu Yuyu, and Lu Yuyu would certainly help him search.

The Lu Yuyu and Luo Su of today owe him a big favor.

Luo Su has accomplished his goal of coming to Lionheart Brigade, and also obtained a spiritual instrument that suits him perfectly. He is more than satisfied.

So Luo Su is now completely in a melon-eating mentality.

Especially since Luo Su knows that Frost Language Snow Ch'i suits Fang Qin very well.

Luo Su's eyes have been on Fang Qin.

Luo Su noticed that when Jianmu was bidding, Fang Qin glanced at Jianmu.

And Jianmu responded.

These were eye movements that were too conspicuous!

Luo Su always thought that Jianmu was mature for his age, but this is the first time he has seen such a youthful side of Jianmu.

The phrase "Overbearing Boss and his Little Wife" instantly popped into Luo Su's mind.

The exchange of gazes between the two suggested to Luo Su that Jianmu might have bid for the Frost Language Snow Ch'i for Fang Qin.

Lu Yuyu also noticed the scene, which took him by surprise.

Lu Yuyu always thought that Luo Su's thinking was abnormal, but it appears that Luo Su was the normal one all along!

Lu Yuyu must be the ignorant one who was blind to the bright spots!

Fang Mu does not deliberately hide the relationship between him and Fang Qin.

When Fang Qin forms a contract with the Frost Language Snow Ch'i.

As Luo Su's guard, Luo Su can't possibly be kept in the dark.

Lu Yuyu has seen Fang Mu's real appearance. Taking advantage of the connection with Fang Qin, Lu Yuyu would definitely be able to uncover Fang Mu's real identity.

Since Luo Su is to be Lu Yuyu's husband, if Lu Yuyu finds out, Luo Su will naturally come to know as well.

It was precisely what Fang Mu intended to see.

Russell now knew his identity and that he had helped him enormously.

Naturally, Russell would pay back his debt in his day-to-day life by favouring Fang Qin.

As for why Fang Mu recognized Fang Qin upon seeing her, both Lu Yuyu and Russell should be able to deduce the reason with a bit of thinking.

He went by Jianmu when he was out, not Fang Mu.

The purpose was to hide his identity!

Many Creators, when acquiring an assistant, prefer not to declare their assistant's identities openly.

They're afraid others might interfere with their assistants in an attempt to obtain the Creator's resources.

If this is the treatment towards assistants, it would be even more so towards a disciple.

All the discrepancies will be taken by the Grandmaster Creator, [Stellar Start].

After all, nobody would dare to question the logic of a Grandmaster Creator.

Thinking of this, Fang Mu frankly took out the Sea Heart Pendant from the Purple Ice Crystal Ring, a sequential spiritual instrument.

He handed it over to Russell, then said,

"Russell, keep the Frost Language Snow Dragon well for me."

"When the time comes, hand them both to the right person!"

Fang Mu did this to create an illusion that he deliberately avoided Fang Qin and that they didn't know each other.

Even though Lu Yuyu and Russell could figure out many things, he still had to perform the full act!

But it was not because Fang Mu was a drama queen, but because he had severe obsessive-compulsive disorder!

Russell suddenly wished that Lu Yuyu was a few years younger than him.

This boy not only knew how to care for people, but also how to act shy!

This was too enticing!

Fang Qin, come and be an "older sister who rides the wind and breaks the waves"!

Win this boy over! Show him how happy it is to embrace comfort and wealth!

In his mind, Russell had already named the children of Fang Qin and Jianmu.

Yet, he accepted the Sea Heart Pendant very solemnly and said,

"Rest assured, both of them will be handed over to the right person!"

While speaking, Russell purposely turned his head towards Fang Qin.

As if making a final confirmation to Jianmu.

Fang Qin always regarded Fang Mu as the "milk dumpling" in her arms.

She watched Fang Mu grow up bit by bit, unlike when Fang Yuan was born when she was still young.

In her memory, the earliest image of Fang Yuan was that of a tiny kid who drooled all day, wiped his nose with his sleeve, and fought her for toys!

It's said that kids at seven or eight are too annoying!

But at that time, Fang Yuan, at two or three years old, was even more troublesome than that!

Now, Fang Qin suddenly found out that the "little dumpling" that needed her care had transformed.

He started to take care of and pamper her.

This feeling was peculiar, resplendent and heartwarming.

What a great "mother's" child!

No! A good brother to a sister!

Ever since Fang Qin became a Beast Master, she has fought hard alone without any support.

The only things she could rely on in the initial few years were her talent and hard work.

On top of that, she had to take on the responsibility of supporting the other three mouths in the family.

It wasn't until later, when Fang Yuan chose to join the Ten Thousand Treasures Commerce, that their family's conditions slightly improved.

However, faced with the promotion of the Beast Masters, their saved up funds seemed pitifully insufficient!

A Frost Language Snow Dragon on the verge of transformation and a golden prime spiritual instrument served to remind Fang Qin.

In just a couple of months, Fang Mu, who became the disciple of the Grandmaster Creator, has altered the growth trajectories of the entire family.

It also allowed Fang Qin to finally focus solely on service in the Jinghai Army.

Becoming a Jinghai soldier without any burdens!

Normally, after successfully bidding for an item.

One had to wait till the end of the trading conference to exchange the resources they bid for the item from the Lionheart Brigade.

However, without Fang Mu providing the Life Elixir with a purity of eighty percent,

Liu Jihui personally brought people to deliver the cage with the Frost Language Snow Dragon in it to Fang Mu's private chamber while the fifth item was being auctioned.

Then, he didn't say much and directly went back on stage to host the rest of the auction.

It's always better to take action than making empty promises!

He could express his stance by acting, and Jianmu would sense it.

Speaking too much would make one's intentions too obvious, causing more harm than good.

Russell utilized his space series spiritual instrument to store away the Frost Language Snow Dragon in the iron cage.

He planned to ask Fang Qin how she got acquainted with Jianmu when he handed her both the Frost Language Snow Dragon and Sea Heart Pendant once they got back.

Right now, Fang Mu's attention was completely drawn by the light green lotus on stage.
