

Beast Tamer 93

Chapter 93: King Lotus Bloodline! _1

Fang Mu couldn't help but furrow his brows upon hearing the conversation between Luo Su and Lv Yuyu.

He had to get the Ling Poison Dark Lotus no matter what.

If he missed this Ling Poison Dark Lotus now...

Fang Mu wouldn't know when he would find another Wood System Guardian Beast that could connect with the Eden Greenfield and the Clean Water Spirit!

Even if he could find one, its effectiveness might not be as good as the Ling Poison Dark Lotus.

Under the Eye of Omniscience, Fang Mu could clearly see the evolutionary path of the Ling Poison Dark Lotus.

The King Lotus was one of the four strongest bloodlines among the lotus Guardian Beasts.

Once a lotus Guardian Beast evolved into a King Lotus, its size would increase several times, even tens of times, in an instant.

At the same time, it would greatly enhance its existing abilities.

The enlargement of the lotus leaves and flowers would enhance the effect of the exclusive characteristic, Leaf Lotus Dance.

Furthermore, after the Ling Poison Dark Lotus evolved into the Ling Poison King Lotus, we have the possibility of enhancing its exclusive feature, Cicada, Frog, Lodging on Lotus.

The “Scavenger” would specifically send someone for the Ling Poison Dark Lotus, they would have likely studied the Ling Poison Dark Lotus already.

A high-level creator with little effort will discover the potentials of the Ling Poison Dark Lotus to evolve into a King Lotus.

The Lionheart Brigade could not possibly keep from giving face to the “Scavengers”.

Even the Jinghai Army had heard news about this Ling Poison Dark Lotus, the “Scavengers” must be aware of it as well.

But compared to the Ling Poison King Lotus, the “Scavengers” should prefer the Ling Poison Expelling Dark Lotus evolution path.

Once the Ling Poison Dark Lotus evolved into the Ling Poison Expelling Dark Lotus, its ability to cleanse toxins would be greatly enhanced.

This is the ability that the “Scavengers” needed most.

The Frog Breeding Dark Lotus evolution path is also highly valuable.

With its lotus seeds, one can cultivate frog Guardian Beasts, allowing them to grow quickly.

This increases the possibility of frog Guardian Beast bloodline evolution and mutation.

For Beast Masters who have contracted with frog Guardian Beasts...

If they could own a piece of Frog Breeding Dark Lotus, it would be equivalent to owning a channel of creators.

However, compared to the two evolution paths of the Ling Poison King Lotus and Ling Poison Expelling Dark Lotus, the Frog Breeding Dark Lotus seemed rather mediocre!

Fang Mu had already joined the “Scavengers”, and yet, he was the one who broke the “Scavengers” record.

Feng Lin had promised Fang Mu to keep his information secret.

So, it’s impossible for any of these “Scavengers” to know Fang Mu.

Fang Mu now needs to compete with the “Scavengers” if he wants to win the bidding for the Ling Poison Dark Lotus.

On some level, this could be seen as an internal competition within the “Scavengers”.

Indeed, Fang Mu could choose to give up on the competition for the Ling Poison Dark Lotus, allowing the “Scavenger” team to win the bid.

After the auction, when Fang Mu leaves the Swiss Lion Garden, he could simply call Miss Feng Lin.

Miss Feng Lin probably wouldn’t mind gifting this Ling Poison Dark Lotus to him.

But Fang Mu knew well that life was filled with unpredictables.

To minimize the chance of unexpected events, we mustn’t leave room for uncertainties.

What if someone forms a contract with this Ling Poison Dark Lotus as soon as it is won in the auction?

Then Fang Mu would truly miss his fate with the Ling Poison Dark Lotus.

The arrival of the Ling Poison Dark Lotus brought the auction to an unparalleled climax.

Even Yu Zirou, the nearshore business lady who failed to win the Frost Language Snow Dragon, was tempted by the Ling Poison Dark Lotus.

The participation of the “Scavengers” in the Lionheart Brigade auction is equivalent to launching a task.

This has the same nature as Fang Qin accompanying Luo Su.

Therefore, just at the beginning of the bidding for the Ling Poison Dark Lotus... A third-tier “Scavenger” with three flowers and two green leaves on his badge directly held down the bidding device.

The price was pushed up to a high price of forty-five million Dragon Rising Coins.

At the same time, Liu Jihui subtly nodded to the third-tier “Scavenger” as he made his bid.

Fang Mu observed this from afar.

Compared to the Frost Language Snow Dragon, which has a very broad compatibility, the Ling Poison Dark Lotus seemed quite niche.

In such a temporarily held private auction, it might not sell for the desired price.

Luo Su’s previous words might only be half correct.

Apart from the Lionheart Brigade wanting to quickly cash out their mercenary business, they must have also reached a previous agreement with the “Scavengers”.

They had the “Scavengers” set a base price.

After the third-tier “Scavenger” called out a bid of 45 million Dragon Rising Coins, the atmosphere suddenly quieted down.

Many individuals and forces that had their eyes on the Ling Poison Dark Lotus retracted their intentions.

45 million Dragon Rising Coins was not a small amount after all.

Moreover, the funds given to the Lionheart Brigade must be liquid, and cannot use assets as collateral.

Competing for the item with “Scavenger” does not entail severe consequences as it might have in a competition with Sir Jianmu.

However, if the price is bumped up, “Scavenger” will certainly counteroffer.

Unless they are willing to accept a price even up to twice the asking price.

Otherwise, bidding would not carry much significance!

Just when Liu Jihui, the Deputy Head of the Lionheart Brigade, was about to decide the ownership of the Ling Poison Dark Lotus.

To declare the closing of the trading meeting and to entertain Sir Jianmu peacefully.

He heard a familiar voice, as gentle and pleasant as before say.

“I’ll bid two bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of eighty-percent, to add to the price of the Ling Poison Dark Lotus! ”

Fang Mu’s sudden bid drew the attention of everyone in the venue towards the partition where Fang Mu was sitting.

Lu Yuyu, Luo Su, and Fang Qin, who were all inside the partition, all looked at Fang Mu.

At this time, all three had the same guess in their hearts.

That is, Fang Mu's bidding for the Ling Poison Dark Lotus could very likely be the task of the Grandmaster Creator behind him.

Fang Mu had just won the bid for the Frost Language Snow Dragon with a bottle of Life Elixir with a purity of eighty-percent, and gifted it to someone else.

Even a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator should not have so many high-level Creator resources to dispense freely.

Moreover, every action of a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator represents the one behind him.

So it is improbable that Fang Mu would compete with a formal organization like "Scavenger" unless instructed by his Grandmaster Creator.

At this time, Liu Jihui only felt as if he was sitting on pins and needles, as though he had a fishbone stuck in his throat...

What the heck!?

Sir Jianmu is also interested in this Ling Poison Dark Lotus!?

If he had known this earlier, he would never have agreed to "Scavenger" to auction off the Ling Poison Dark Lotus!

Good heavens!

Out of the few items casually selected by his side, two happened to catch the attention of Sir Jianmu.

This amounted to the Lionheart Brigade missing two opportunities to establish a good relationship with Sir Jianmu for nothing.

Li Liang originally thought that he came to participate in this trade meeting to simply complete a task.

At the same time, to experience the pleasure of being a tycoon.

In one night, he could earn five merit points, which brought him a step closer to his goal of obtaining a gold spiritual instrument from the Merit Hall.

But he never expected, just as the task was about to be completed, his bid was outbid by someone else!

Moreover, the other party offered two bottles of eighty-percent pure Life Elixir.

When did Master-level Creator resources become so worthless!?

Good lord! How can he counter such a bid!?

Of course, Li Liang, who is representing “Scavenger” in the auction, still has more chips in his hand for emergencies.

Thinking of the instructions he received, to obtain this Ling Poison Dark Lotus at any cost.

These instructions were personally given by Miss Feng Lin.

Li Liang gritted his teeth and pressed the bidding device again.

“I follow with two bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of eighty-percent, and an additional 20 million Dragon Rising Coins!”

Li Liang’s voice trembled slightly as he spoke.

The value of 60 million Dragon Rising Coins was the maximum that Li Liang could bid.

Any more, and he would need to make a phone call to apply!

On his way here, Li Liang had never heard of someone called Jianmu.

But through Yu Zirou’s reaction just now, wife of the head of the nearby merchant association, Li Liang could tell that Jianmu was definitely someone with a formidable background!

Just as Li Liang was about to see if Jianmu would continue to bid.

He heard a hearty voice of a person he had met a few times before.

“Brother Li, your ‘Scavenger’ organization takes the Ling Poison Dark Lotus so seriously that you even dare to outbid the offer of a Grandmaster’s disciple!”

Li Liang was startled at this remark.

At this moment, Li Liang suddenly understood why Yu Zirou addressed Jianmu as ‘Sir’.

Li Liang had no time to ponder, he immediately dialed the Jing Hai “Scavenger” branch before Fang Mu could even place a bid.

He requested to speak directly to Miss Feng Lin.

Damn it! If he had known earlier that Jianmu was a Grandmaster's disciple.

Then when Jianmu first placed a bid, he should have immediately reported it to Miss Feng Lin!

Very quickly, Li Liang's call was transferred to Feng Lin..
