

Beast Tamer 94

Chapter 94: The Double Tremor of the Destiny Guardian Beast! 1

Feng Lin was in the midst of forging spiritual instruments.

Ever since she learned of Fang Mu's true identity and confirmed the internal ratings of him by "Scavengers",

Feng Lin has been wondering how she could gain more favor from Fang Mu. There is a golden rule in the world of Beast Masters: resources from Creators are earned!

To obtain resources from the Creator, no act is considered disgraceful!

The resources from Inside "Scavengers" for Creators are limited.

The precious Grandmaster Creator resources were previously sustained by fixed monthly allocations from the Creator's Guild and the Dracoid Research Institute.

There simply wasn't enough to go around!

After the three Bishops of Flowers divide these Grandmaster Creator resources,

The several Green Screen Knights, like Feng Lin, depended on their own abilities to get a share!

No one would stand on ceremony when faced with the opportunity to gain a Grandmaster Creator channel.

Feng Lin thought about it and decided to create spiritual instruments for Fang Mu's siblings instead of Fang Mu himself.

She figured that Fang Mu would be happier this way.

Feng Lin dispatched people to bid for the Ling Poison Dark Lotus, both for its utility in "Scavengers" and because it reminded her of Eden Greenfield, which Fang Mu walked away with.

The two exclusive features of the Bronze-grade epic quality Ling Poison Dark Lotus align well with the [Above the Green Field] feature of Eden Greenfield.

The Ling Poison Dark Lotus demands high cultivation costs and the efficiency of its large-scale cultivation is far from ideal.

Despite that, Feng Lin still commanded her people with a life-or-death order.

Even spending her own money as chips for the auction,

The main reason was just to deepen her relationship with Fang Mu.

Upon hearing Li Liang's report, Feng Lin rubbed her forehead in disbelief.

She had not anticipated that Fang Mu would also participate in the Lionheart Brigade's auction. The reputation of the Lionheart Brigade was truly significant!

It was such a coincidence that her arrangements clashed with Fang Mu's!

Since Fang Mu wanted her to win the bid for the Ling Poison Dark Lotus, there was no need for her to fight for it anymore.

Her decision only resulted in Fang Mu having to spend more resources. This was clearly a case of good intentions leading to bad outcomes.

"Li Liang, cancel the mission!"

“I will use my own merits to compensate for the five merit points I promised.

You don’t need to bid anymore!”

Upon hearing Feng Lin’s response, Li Liang let out a breath of relief.

To be made to bid against a disciple of a Grandmaster Creator was pressure he could not bear!

Before Li Liang could hang up the phone, the voice of the person who just made the bid sounded again.

“Three bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of eighty percent!”

Fang Mu’s bid made everyone in the room, including Lu Yuyu and Luo Su, twitch at the corners of their mouths.

Was this the grandeur of a Grandmaster disciple? The opening bid was a Master Creator-level resource!

Fang Mu chose to use Life Elixirs with a purity of eighty percent as chips based on his own deliberations.

Through previous communication with Lu Xiaoyin, Fang Mu knew that Senior Creators who joined the Creator's Guild had the privilege to purchase five Master-level Elixirs each year.

This led to occasional transactions of Master-level Elixirs in the market.

However, these transactions were limited to the higher echelons of society.

Therefore, Fang Mu used the Life Elixir with a purity of eighty percent as a chip to bid for precious supplies.

This was not too outrageous, yet it implicitly showed the deep affection and appreciation that Fang Mu had for the Grandmaster Creator behind him.

Putting it plainly, if Fang Mu is seen as a piece of pork, his current actions raised the price of that pork.

Based on the reactions of others at the auction, Fang Mu knew that his objective had been achieved!

Fang Qin pinched his thigh several times, doubting if he was dreaming!

After Liu Jihui said a few words, he once again personally delivered the Ling Poison Dark Lotus to Fang Mu's private room.

Fang Mu took out four bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of eighty percent and threw them to Liu Jihui,

And in a sweeping gesture, took the Ling Poison Dark Lotus into his Purple Ice Crystal Ring.

Catching the elixirs flung by Fang Mu, Liu Jihui felt his heart pounding in his chest.

He was afraid that if he didn't hold it steady, the Crystal Bottle containing the Life Elixir would fall and shatter on the ground.

This sort of casual treatment of Master Creator resources

Made Liu Jihui feel like he was nothing more than an ignorant country bumpkin in the face of Fang Mu.

However, such understanding and handling of resources are not something that just anyone could possess.

Unless you are also able to engage with resources from a Grandmaster Creator every day!

Facing the four bottles of Life Elixir at hand, Liu Jihui slightly pondered.

Then, he clenched his teeth, cradling the four bottles of elixir as he approached Fang Mu.

The stern-faced man wore a smile like a bitter chrysanthemum that hadn't yet been summed with soybean paste fish.

Sir Jianmu, the Lionheart Brigade takes great pride in having something in our collection that you are interested in!"

"The trade show is just a formality, it's our honor that you value these two pieces!"

"Please, take them outright!"

Luo Su had always despised such insincere ways of interaction.

Liu Jihui knew very well that, given Jianmu's status as the Grandmaster's Disciple, he couldn't possibly accept goods from the Lionheart Brigade during the trade show for free.

Saying such words now was nothing but a display of flattery without a bottom line!

If Luo Su were Jianmu, he would definitely reclaim these four bottles of Life Elixir.

He wanted to see how the smiling Liu Jihui would wither!

Lv Yuyu and Luo Su had completely different views.

Lv Yuyu thought that Liu Jihui was a smart man who understood the importance of pleasing Jianmu!

The Lionheart Brigade was on a wider path!

Although the captain of the Lionheart Brigade was still in a coma due to a curse.

However, Liu Jihui's ability to deal with social interactions was even stronger than that of the captain of the Lionheart Brigade.

Under Liu Jihui's leadership, the Lionheart Brigade continued to climb uphill over the years.

Upon hearing Liu Jihui's words, Fang Mu gave him a playful look.

Feeling Fang Mu's playful gaze, Liu Jihui's hands holding the four bottles of the Life Elixir slightly trembled.

"These items belong to your Lionheart Brigade, you should hold onto them properly!"

What, does the Lionheart Brigade think they could easily dismiss the resources offered by a Master Creator!?"

Fang Mu was a provider of Creator resources.

He preferred fair trades and did not like owing anyone favors!

Especially those intentionally instigated by others!

He was going to look at more goods from the Lionheart Brigade later, so he decided to take this chance to remind Liu Jihui.

So that when Liu Jihui spoke with him later, he could speak frankly!

Fang Mu, who had been through two lives, was not some spring breeze fortunate youngster who enjoyed flattery!

Liu Jihui took Fang Mu's words as a clear sign of how he should interact with him.

At the same time, Luo Su formed a strong positive impression of Fang Mu due to his words.

Luo Su quietly gave Fang Mu a thumbs-up in his heart.

Such a young man resisting the flattery disguised as kind gestures! A true "tea taster"!

Fang Mu's manner of handling things was different from Lv Yuyu's.

But Lv Yuyu didn't feel that there was anything inappropriate about Fang Mu's words!

At the stature and level where Fang Mu stands, he was absolutely entitled to speak such words!

After the trade show ended, Luo Su chose not to stay behind, and directly took Fang Qin back to the Quiet Sea Army Headquarters.

Jianmu had promised to help him by acting as a go-between with his own master.

Before the bloodline of the Shimmering River-swallowing Python could evolve, Luo Su had to prepare a series of items.

Luckily, after Fang Mu had informed him of what spiritual materials he needed, he could prepare it as soon as possible.

Certainly, he could not allow a Grandmaster Creator to wait because his preparations of spiritual materials were insufficient.

Moreover, after returning, Luo Su had many questions he wanted to ask Fang Qin.

Otherwise, Luo Su could hardly restrain the flame of curiosity in his heart.

Lv Yuyu, who had invited Fang Mu to participate in this trade show on his own reputation, naturally had to leave with Fang Mu.

“Take me and my Brother Jianmu to the quiet room upstairs first!” “Then compile a list of the items you wish to show my Brother Jianmu.”

Hearing this, Liu Jihui felt a little annoyed.

If Lv Yuyu leaves now, it would undoubtedly be more conducive for him to get acquainted with Jianmu.

But since Lv Yuyu has spoken and Jianmu did not refuse, it meant that Jianmu tacitly agreed with Lv Yuyu!

Liu Jihui plans to present all collectibles in the Lionheart Brigade that he wants to liquidate to Jianmu.

Being able to exchange these collectibles for high-end Creator resources would be maximizing their value.

As soon as Fang Mu and Lv Yuyu entered the quiet room.

Before they could engage in conversation, Fang Mu suddenly noticed that his Destiny Guardian Beast, the Blood of Abundance, had started to stir intensely.

Even the Fool's Shadow, which had been unresponsive, was giving off noticeable vibrations..
