

Beast Tamer 961

Chapter 961: Vicious Illusion Sparrow Transforms!

The autumn wind shuttled up the mountainside, swaying the flowers and plants halfway up the mountain.

But the autumn wind was not strong enough to break the plants, instead it helped clear the dust that had settled on them throughout the day.

Su Qing gazed at the peony garden before her, her bare hand gently plucked a peony flower and she began to savor it closely.

Tonight was an extraordinary day for Su Qing, Shui Miao, and Shu Liangjun.

Fang Mu hadn't known Shui Miao, Shu Liangjun, and Su Qing for very long.

It had been less than five months since he became acquainted with these few individuals.

...

However, Su Qing, Shui Miao, and Shu Liangjun had known each other for several decades.

Fang Mu could be said to have facilitated a reunion between old friends.

Fang Mu had not revealed Su Qing's identity to Shui Miao and Shu Liangjun.

Su Qing had told Fang Mu of her origin from the Double Flower Fairy Residence as a sign of trust.

If Su Qing wanted Shui Miao and Shu Liangjun to know her identity, she would naturally tell them herself.

There was no need for Fang Mu to act as a messenger.

When old friends reunite, the outcome can either be a falling out or a deepening of friendship.

Clearly, the trio fell into the latter category.

Fang Mu handed a Legend Butterfly to Shui Miao, ensuring that all three of them owned Legend Butterflies to facilitate future communication with ease.

After Su Qing learned that Shu Liangjun and Shui Miao had met Jin Ya in reality, who sits on the Gemini chair, she felt extraordinarily amazed.

Su Qing believed that Fang Mu's presence had completely transformed the Starwheel organization.

Had it not been for Fang Mu, it would have been difficult for Star Wheel members to meet in private.

Over the years, Star Wheel members had reached a tacit understanding, mainly conducting transactions within the organization.

They rarely involved themselves with reality.

Otherwise, Su Qing, Shu Liangjun, and Shui Miao would not have gone so long without meeting each other.

It had been necessary for Fang Mu to facilitate this meeting.

Not being greedy, Su Qing returned to her room prepared by the butler Lu Xiaoyin after consuming two peonies, as arranged by Fang Mu.

Su Qing was very grateful she had chosen to trade with Fang Mu.

On this trip, she not only struck a deal with Fang Mu but also became closer with Shu Liangjun and Shui Miao.

This would indirectly facilitate resource sharing between Double Flower Fairy Residence, Twelve Pavilion, and Golden Toad Manor!

Su Qing found it hard to sleep in a new environment.

Therefore, she sat cross-legged on the bed and began to meditate.

Just then, there was a light knock on Su Qing's door.

With a brief gesture from Su Qing, a tangible spiritual power emanated from her body.

This spiritual power opened the door from the inside.

Su Qing saw an extremely beautiful woman, standing at the door with a tray.

Su Qing nodded to She Wan.

She Wan quickly stepped in, took two cups off the tray, and set them in front of Su Qing.

"Good evening, Virgo. I too am a member of Star Wheel, codenamed Yingxian."

“This is the flower honey Master specially prepared for you.”

“Given your preferences, there really isn’t much in the entire manor that could be used as your dessert after a meal.”

Having said this, She Wan did not linger in the room to chat with Su Qing but left the room very politely and gently closed the door.

She Wan was well aware of her primary identity within the Mountain Manor.

Her foremost identity in the Mountain Manor was as Fang Mu’s guard, not as a Star Wheel member.

Her visit to see Su Qing was on behalf of Fang Mu.

Since Fang Mu and Su Qing were peers, She Wan did not exhibit too low a stance before Su Qing.

Otherwise, it would be as if she were undermining Fang Mu’s prestige!

Before Su Qing could carefully identify the golden substance in the cup on the table, she smelled the fragrance of the Brilliant Rose.

Su Qing immediately knew the cup contained Brilliant Golden Honey.

As She Wan mentioned, due to her unique body constitution, she was essentially unable to eat any delicacies of human cuisine.

However, the Brilliant Golden Honey, a substance produced by the Brilliant Rose, was something she could consume.

Brilliant Golden Honey was exceedingly rare.

Fang Mu's use of such a precious item to entertain her delighted Su Qing immensely.

After Su Qing consumed the Brilliant Golden Honey with water and resumed her meditation, her spiritual power became much more active than before.

Internally, Su Qing eagerly anticipated Fang Mu's response the next day.

Su Qing was eager to learn how many Heaven Fragrance Peony flowers Fang Mu could provide her with at one time.

If the number of Heaven Fragrance Peonies was sufficient, perhaps her special Guardian Beast could even breakthrough!

Fang Mu was likewise sleepless that night.

Because the drop of Covenant Blood Essence Fang Mu had been preparing had finally solidified.

The moment the Covenant Blood Essence solidified, Fang Mu summoned the Vicious Illusion Sparrow.

[Vicious Beast Name]: Vicious Illusion Sparrow

[Vicious Beast Species]: Thought Sparrow Family / Illusion Sparrow Genus

[Vicious Beast Level]: Copper Level (9/10)

[Vicious Beast Element]: Metal/Terrain

[Vicious Beast Potential]: Silver Stage

[Vicious Beast Quality]: Standard Quality

Abilities:

[Illusion Divide]: Uses its imagination to multiply individuals. As long as its brain has not been damaged and its imagination is not restricted, it can create nearly an infinite number of individuals based on its imagination.

[Leap Thrust]: Transforms itself into a Sparrow Spear to pierce targets from high above. In the process of piercing, it has the ability to penetrate targets beyond its own level, and the effects of the Sparrow Spear vary based on the different Spiritual Materials absorbed by the imagined individuals.

When Fang Mu first received the Vicious Illusion Sparrow from the Yin and Yang Limau Leopard, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow was seriously injured, appearing as a dreary clump with dark red blood stains all over it.

Chapter 962: Vicious Illusion Sparrow Transforms!_2

If one were to describe the appearance of the Vicious Illusion Sparrow, it's simply a filthy, standard bird.

One that would be snatched away by a passing stray cat if it fell beside the road.

The Vicious Illusion Sparrow had been in Fang Mu's possession for a month now.

During this month, although Fang Mu had not advanced its level, he had cured the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's injuries.

He also genuinely took a bath for the Vicious Illusion Sparrow.

Only after washing the Vicious Illusion Sparrow did Fang Mu discover that not all of the redness on its body was blood.

...

Instead, there were some dark red spots on the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's body.

After being cleaned, these dark red spots didn't make the Vicious Illusion Sparrow look dirty, but instead added a different kind of beauty to it.

Vicious Beasts are very special; although they also have elements and quality, their quality improvement does not grant unique traits, but rather strengthens their existing abilities.

And this type of lifeform, the Vicious Beast, does not have an Evolutionary Path; its Bloodline cannot continue to evolve!

Fang Mu touched the little guy, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow.

Although the Vicious Beast's intelligence isn't high, after following Fang Mu for a month and being cared for by him, fed, and having its wounds treated, the little guy, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow, had developed quite a dependence on Fang Mu.

Based on the existing abilities of the Vicious Illusion Sparrow, Zhuo An rated it as an SS-Level Vicious Beast.

This was enough to prove the potential of the Vicious Illusion Sparrow.

A creature that could enhance its strength through imagination was something Fang Mu was seeing for the first time.

To enhance the Vicious Illusion Sparrow, all that was needed was the use of pure Life Energy, as well as Spiritual Materials of both the Metal/Terrain elements.

Fang Mu took out a bottle of Life Elixir with a hundred percent purity.

The moment the bottle was opened, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow instinctively flew towards the Potion Bottle in Fang Mu's hand.

It was exceedingly eager, sticking its little head forward, wanting to guzzle the Life Elixir in the bottle.

In its excitement, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow showed a tendency to split.

Fang Mu quickly took out the Contracting Blood Essence and presented it to the Vicious Illusion Sparrow.

The Contracting Blood Essence was even more attractive to the Vicious Illusion Sparrow than the hundred-percent-pure Life Elixir.

After the Vicious Illusion Sparrow swallowed the Contracting Blood Essence, a faint golden-red light immediately burst forth from its body.

Fang Mu then took out the Blood Aged Wine and poured both it and the Life Elixir into the mouth of the Vicious Illusion Sparrow.

Fang Mu could feel a contract forming between himself and the Vicious Illusion Sparrow.

This contract made the Vicious Illusion Sparrow, with its incredibly simple thought process, see Fang Mu as its mother.

It vigorously flapped its wings and landed on top of Fang Mu's head, beginning its life transition.

Fang Mu did not disturb the Vicious Illusion Sparrow at the critical moment of its advancement.

Otherwise, Fang Mu certainly wouldn't want the Vicious Illusion Sparrow to spoil his hairstyle.

Because of the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's identity as a Vicious Beast, Fang Mu couldn't easily expose it to others.

So having the Vicious Illusion Sparrow perched on his head couldn't be considered a good habit.

Fang Mu waited quietly for the activity of the Vicious Illusion Sparrow on his head to calm down.

When Fang Mu reached up to take the Vicious Illusion Sparrow down, he found that its size was indistinguishable from before its advancement.

It could still be easily cradled in the palm of his hand.

Even Fang Mu could wrap the Vicious Illusion Sparrow inside his clenched fist!

The Vicious Illusion Sparrow had previously been a mixture of gray and red.

Now, the red spots on the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's body accounted for almost all of its feathers.

This made the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's body display a gradient of red from its beak to its wings.

This color of red was not like a gemstone, but rather like congealed blood.

In terms of looks alone, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow was indeed much better than before.

After Fang Mu took the Vicious Illusion Sparrow down from his head, it frantically beat its wings against the empty Potion Bottle that had just contained the Life Elixir.

Fang Mu knew that the Vicious Illusion Sparrow needed to continue using Life Energy to improve itself.

Fang Mu hurriedly took out another bottle of Life Elixir for the Vicious Illusion Sparrow to drink to its heart's content.

When the Vicious Illusion Sparrow could drink no more, Fang Mu could feel its aura strengthen from its original state.

This indicated that the Vicious Illusion Sparrow had likely successfully advanced in tier.

Fang Mu hurriedly examined the Vicious Illusion Sparrow after its evolution.

[Vicious Beast Name]: Vicious Illusion Sparrow

[Vicious Beast Species]: Thought Sparrow Family/Illusion Sparrow Genus

[Vicious Beast Level]: Golden Stage (2/10)

[Vicious Beast Element]: Metal/Terrain

[Vicious Beast Potential]: Platinum Tier

[Vicious Beast Quality]: Epic Quality

Abilities:

[Illusion Divide]: By using its own imagination to multiply individuals, as long as its brain remains undamaged and its imagination is unrestricted, it can divide into nearly infinite individuals based on its imagination. These individuals can assemble into various imagined things and designate a set of things as a battle template.

[Leap Thrust]: Transforms its body into a Sparrow Spear to strike down from the sky, possessing the ability to pierce targets beyond its level during the strike. The Sparrow Spear, based on the different Spiritual Materials absorbed by the imagined individuals, has varying effects. It absorbs the target's Life Energy during the penetration, converting it into Destruction Energy for use in subsequent attacks.

Fang Mu hadn't expected that after drinking five or six bottles of Life Elixir with a purity of one hundred percent, a drop of Covenant Blood Essence, and two thousand milliliters of Blood Aged Wine, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow would directly advance from a Standard Quality, ninth level Silver Stage to an Epic Quality second level Golden Stage!

Because he had known in advance that the Vicious Illusion Sparrow wouldn't gain new skills or exclusive traits upon ascending in rank and quality,

Fang Mu wasn't at all surprised that no new skills or unique attributes appeared with the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's ascension in rank and quality.

However, he was genuinely astonished by the upgrades to the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's two abilities.

Previously, [Illusion Divide] simply allowed the Vicious Illusion Sparrow to multiply its numbers through its own imagination.

As long as its brain wasn't under attack, and its imagination was strong enough, it could theoretically divide into infinite individuals.

This constituted the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's method of combat.

But now, these individuals born from imagination could be assembled like building blocks into various things.

And among these assembled things, it could choose multiple to form a set template to be applied in subsequent battles.

Once a set of things was designated as a template, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow no longer needed to use individuals to assemble it.

Instead, it could directly create the things specified in the template through imagination.

This enhanced the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's overall ability.

If Fang Mu desired, he could even have the Vicious Illusion Sparrow assemble a fortress, a chariot soaring through the skies, or even a boundless, blood-red ocean by splitting off individuals.

Imagination should be inherently unbounded.

It can be innate, but also honed through cultivation.

Bodhi's elevation of the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's Spiritual Intelligence essentially also improved the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's imagination.

Creatures with higher Spiritual Intelligence throughout history have been known to possess a richer imagination, applying it to tangible creations.

If the change in [Illusion Divide] added functionality to the Vicious Illusion Sparrow, then the change in [Leap Thrust] plainly amplified the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's offensive capabilities.

[Leap Thrust] allows the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's body to become a blood spear that launches an attack on the target, forming billions of arrows that fall from the sky.

However, from the ability description of [Leap Thrust], it is explained that the Vicious Illusion Sparrow possesses an effect that allows it to break defenses beyond its level.

A being naturally capable of fighting beyond its level, upon ascending in rank and quality, can now absorb the target's Life Energy during its attacks, transforming this Life Energy into Destruction Energy to enhance subsequent assaults.

Firstly, absorbing the target's Life Energy can inflict secondary damage on the target.

Destruction Energy is not just an interpretation and summary of the Vicious Illusion Sparrow's abilities by the Fool's Shadow's Eye of Omniscience.

Destruction Energy naturally exists in the world and is a type of energy matter that is the complete opposite of Life Energy.

It is highly destructive to living beings, Dead Creatures, or elemental life forms.

Very few Guardian Beasts can control this kind of energy and apply it in combat!

Fang Mu reached out to touch the little fellow, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow.

In his future career as a Beast Master, the Vicious Illusion Sparrow would always serve as one of Fang Mu's trump cards.

Chapter 963: The Hunt Begins!

After rearing the Vicious Illusion Sparrow, Fang Mu, as usual, succumbed to a deep sleep under the urging of the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen.

It could be said that in this world, the one who worried the most about Fang Mu not sleeping was the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen.

The Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen was truly concerned about Fang Mu's rest.

Within Fang Mu's soul, the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen had completely built her nest.

To the nest she had meticulously crafted, the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen was exceptionally satisfied.

However, Fang Mu's soul energy was the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen's only source of energy.

...

If Fang Mu did not provide energy to the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen, both the nurturing of Soul Parasite Ant progeny and nest building would be affected.

The Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen had thoroughly familiarized herself with Fang Mu.

Whenever Fang Mu chose to stay up late and not provide soul energy to her, the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen would go mad within his soul.

Without a trace of the dignity befitting a queen ant.

Instead, she resembled a haggling streetwise girl.

The Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen's nest served as the outer shell of Fang Mu's soul defense.

The more robust the nest constructed by the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen, the stronger Fang Mu's soul defensive power became.

Therefore, Fang Mu was quite willing to allow the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen to urge him on.

Fang Mu had just lain down on the bed.

Under the extraction of his soul energy by the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen, he fell into a deep sleep.

The next morning, as soon as Fang Mu got up, he received a communication from Shu Liangjun.

“Little Wood, the Blood Race has already started to move to the outskirts of the city!”

“The hierarchical nature of the Blood Race is much stronger than ordinary Beast Taming Tribes.”

“To welcome the Blood Race Queen, it’s not impossible for these Blood Dukes to wait a day in advance for her arrival!”

“I propose that we set off to the outskirts of the Dragon Rising Federation in five hours.”

“You need to borrow that treasure from your master, otherwise, you probably won’t be able to lure these Blood Race members outside of the Dragon Rising Federation’s territory!”

“If we don’t lure these Blood Race members out of the Dragon Rising Federation before we take action against the Blood Race Queen,”

“the Dragon Rising Federation will inevitably face retaliation from the Blood Race!”

Shu Liangjun has never been a man of many words, but for the sake of clarifying the stakes to Fang Mu, Shu Liangjun was very detailed in his explanation.

This was also part of his care for Fang Mu as a Dao Protector.

Fang Mu pursed his lips upon hearing this.

“Elder Shu, please continue to keep an eye on things for me.”

“Five hours seems a bit too long, I’ll use the Beastmaster Alliance’s Teleportation Array to teleport based on the location you provided in three hours.”

“Then I’ll arrive in the area closest to those Blood Race members and use that treasure to attract them.”

Shu Liangjun was very satisfied with Fang Mu’s response.

Even though they had gathered three Order Strong individuals, Fang Mu still took this operation seriously enough.

He was not arrogant enough to underestimate the Blood Race.

Actually, even with three Order Strong individuals taking action together, Shu Liangjun still couldn’t guarantee that they would be able to capture the Blood Race Queen alive, as Fang Mu required.

To know there is a completely different level of difficulty between killing the Blood Race Queen and capturing her alive.

After ending the communication with Shu Liangjun, Fang Mu immediately set out for the dining room.

He then unhesitatingly used the Butterfly of Whisper to contact Shui Miao, Su Qing, and the four members of the Brilliant Race, including Jin Zhaoyan.

Earth Evil Spirit Liu Xi, under Fang Mu's arrangements, also departed The Capital with Mr. Zi and Beast Witch Mengsha.

They prepared to have Liu Xi join this operation as well.

Fang Mu had no hesitation in troubling Shui Miao, Su Qing, and the four members of the Brilliant Race.

Because they came here for the express purpose of helping him.

Whether it was Shui Miao or Su Qing, they both had many things to do.

There was no time to dwell longer than necessary.

The sooner the matter was resolved, the sooner Shui Miao and Su Qing could leave.

Soon, Shui Miao, Su Qing, and the four members of the Brilliant Race gathered in the dining room.

Lu Xiaoyin had already asked the servants of the manor to prepare the meal.

The expressions of Shui Miao, Su Qing, and the four Brilliant Race members were all very solemn.

They had long been aware that Fang Mu intended to take action against a Blood Race Queen.

But even when the time for action came, they could not help but consider the consequences of their actions.

However, since this operation hadn't been leaked out and the Blood Race Queen hadn't heard any advance news to prepare,

there should be no major problems!

Among everyone present, it was Fang Mu who appeared quite calm.

“We won’t be leaving for another three hours, so everyone might as well have some food first.”

“There’s no reason to go into action on an empty stomach!”

In front of Su Qing was a plate with several precious flowers on it.

These flowers were extraordinarily delicate and obviously had just been plucked from their stems.

In Fang Mu’s Mountain Manor, beyond the Peony Garden, there was also a garden where other auspicious plants were cultivated.

The meal for Su Qing was specially prepared by Lu Xiaoyin.

It was neither overly prestigious nor unduly modest.

As a host, there are many subtleties in preparing a meal.

Even if some guests have unique dining habits,

the overall preparation of the meal should not be uneven.

Otherwise, it could easily lead to discontent among other guests!

As a personal butler, these considerations had to be thoroughly accounted for.

Su Qing sat at the table with a smile and said to Fang Mu,

“It’s thoughtful of you, Ah Mu, to remember my dining preferences.”

“Just wondering if you’ve already asked Master Qixing about the deal?”

Hearing Su Qing’s reference to Qixing, Shui Miao realized that Su Qing already knew Qixing was a Saint Creator.

Chapter 964: The Hunt Begins!_2

As for Su Qing’s desire to trade with Fang Mu, Shui Miao wasn’t surprised at all.

It could be said that anyone in the world who could establish a relationship with a Saint Creator would want to engage in trade with them.

It's just that Su Qing was somewhat too eager.

Based on Shui Miao's understanding of Fang Mu, if Fang Mu agreed to this trade,

Even if not mentioned proactively, Fang Mu would bring it up on his own initiative.

Fang Mu wasn't the kind of person who liked to leverage his position to coerce others.

...

Especially considering that the relationship between Su Qing and Fang Mu was rather good!

Fang Mu had originally planned to bring up this matter with Su Qing during their meal.

Now that Su Qing had taken the initiative, Fang Mu went along with it and said,

"Last night, I talked with my master for a long time and only then did I receive thirty-seven Heaven Fragrance Peony flowers from him."

"I will give you all thirty-seven Heaven Fragrance Peony flowers at one time, and thereafter you can have someone collect about fifteen such flowers from me each month."

"The flowers of the Heaven Fragrance Peony are produced by the Flower Beads themselves, so I cannot directly guarantee a fixed output."

"I trust you understand this point, A Qing!"

Not only did Fang Mu readily agree to the trade with Su Qing, but he also mentioned the subsequent deals to Su Qing.

This greatly pleased Su Qing.

It also made Su Qing fully aware that Fang Mu was a straightforward person.

If previously, Su Qing's association with Fang Mu was over ninety percent due to Qixing,

Then now, Su Qing's continued association with Fang Mu was even more so because he greatly admired Fang Mu as a person!

Su Qing cleared his throat, then asked Fang Mu,

"Yesterday, I have already spoken with you about the supplies for the trade, do you need so many of this kind of supplies?"

"If you don't, I can make a change to the supplies from my side."

Su Qing's choice not to bring up the Bodhi fruit directly at the dinner table meant that he didn't want Shui Miao or the people of the Glorious Race to know his identity.

Naturally, Fang Mu wouldn't expose Su Qing's identity.

"The supplies we agreed upon before are excellent, there is no need to change."

"We'll proceed with the trade as we've decided previously."

By trading thirty-seven Heaven Fragrance Peony flowers, Fang Mu could directly obtain thirty-seven Bodhi fruits.

Afterward, with about fifteen each month, he could get roughly one hundred and eighty Bodhi fruits a year.

Feeding the Vicious Illusion Sparrow one Bodhi fruit every two days was just perfect!

After the meal, Shui Miao, Su Qing, and the four people from the Glorious Race all expressed the need to make some preparations.

Two hours later, everyone convened in the first-floor lobby.

After communicating with Shu Liangjun through his soul and learning that these Blood Race members were in the dense forests of the Summer Capital Hidden Dragon Canyon,

Fang Mu felt a rush of joy.

Summer Capital wasn't far from JA City; it was considered the southernmost city of the Dragon Rising Federation.

Normally, cities on the fringes tend to be relatively desolate.

However, the prosperity of Summer Capital was in no way inferior to that of the Province of Pure Sea.

The reason for this was the Hidden Dragon Canyon outside of Summer Capital!

Hidden Dragon Canyon produced an abundant array of Earth Dragons, with over four hundred varieties available.

Among these, the bloodline of some Earth Dragons was very precious and held the potential to become Master Dragons.

As the saying goes, "One makes use of local resources."

Located next to Hidden Dragon Canyon, Summer Capital relied on it for substantial revenue each year.

Moreover, the space near Summer Capital was relatively stable, with Dimensional Rifts rarely opening.

Every time a Dimensional Rift opened, it caused tremendous losses.

Such occurrences were rare in Summer Capital.

Not only did this save Summer Capital from extra expenses, but it also attracted many wealthy individuals to choose to settle in Summer Capital.

The reason for Fang Mu's delight wasn't due to the stunning scenery around Summer Capital.

Rather, it was because the Hidden Dragon Canyon connected with the Soaring Dragon Plains.

The Soaring Dragon Plains bordered six federations, and the border between the Soaring Dragon Plains and Hidden Dragon Canyon was like a bottleneck, extremely narrow.

At this bottleneck, whether attracting Blood Dukes or ambushing the Blood Race Queen,

It was an extremely advantageous location!

The Blood Race choosing this location actually did Fang Mu a huge favor!

Fang Mu headed to the JA City Beastmaster Alliance.

To avoid drawing attention, Fang Mu had Shui Miao, Su Qing, and the others enter the Mechanism Fortress inside the Abdominal Territory Worm.

Otherwise, transporting seven or eight people in a grand manner to Summer Capital would be too conspicuous!

If things don't go smoothly, there's a very high chance that people could trace this clue back to himself.

Fang Mu teleporting on his own won't attract attention.

Regardless, Fang Mu is just a junior.

Even with the identity of a Grandmaster Creator Disciple, his power is still considered weak in the eyes of outsiders.

Even if his whereabouts were truly exposed, no one would associate this incident with himself.

After arriving in the Summer Capital, Fang Mu will also use Noface Star Paper to conceal his face.

Lu Yuyu returned to JA City just two days ago.

Lu Yuyu had always wanted to invite Fang Mu for a meal, but alas, Fang Mu really didn't have the time.

Fang Mu rushed to the Beastmaster Alliance without notifying Lu Yuyu in advance.

However, as soon as Lu Yuyu learned that Fang Mu had arrived at the Beastmaster Alliance to teleport, he immediately set off for the teleportation room.

As expected, he found Fang Mu in the teleportation room.

Seeing Lu Yuyu, Fang Mu smiled and said,

"Brother Lv, it's really nothing serious. I just need to make a trip to the Summer Capital."

“You really don’t need to be so polite!”

Upon hearing these words, Lu Yuyu grinned and reached back to tousle his hair at the nape of his neck.

The Mu Commerce Association was recently building a Contemplation Hall, and Fang Yuan had specifically named Keystone Construction to lead the project.

Lu Yuyu and Fang Yuan didn’t have much of a personal relationship.

The reason Fang Yuan made such arrangements was entirely because of Fang Mu’s sake.

Keystone Construction’s reputation in Lu City had been on the rise due to its association with the Mu Commerce Association.

Lu Yuyu was deeply touched upon learning about this, and had been thinking about how to repay Fang Mu.

Lu Yuyu gave his assistant a meaningful glance.

Lu Yuyu’s assistant quickly cleared the surrounding people away.

In the JA City Beastmaster Alliance, Lu Yuyu was the de facto second in command.

Because Lu Yuyu was strong enough, and with the Vice President of the Beastmaster Alliance, Qian Yan, intentionally promoting him, Lu Yuyu had even more authority than the Vice President of the JA City Beastmaster Alliance.

Qian Yan, that old mercenary who loved to cling to the powerful, would promote someone like himself.

It was clear that it had an inseparable relationship with Fang Mu.

Fang Mu had exemplified what it meant to be a benefactor to Lu Yuyu.

Ever since he met Fang Mu, both he and his family had been steadily rising in a positive direction.

“Brother Fang, thank you for everything you’ve done for me during this time!”

“There’s no need to thank me for such a great favor; if there’s anything you need in the future, just ask!”

“I have an old friend in the Summer Capital, just like me, an external Executor.”

“When you’re there, feel free to reach out to him for anything!”

Upon hearing this, Fang Mu raised his hand and patted Lu Yuyu’s shoulder.

In Lu Yuyu’s eyes, he was always helping him.

Indeed, that was true.

But in Fang Mu’s view, what he had done were just some trivial matters of lifting a finger.

Fang Mu, after arriving in the Summer Capital, would first receive a teleportation from Shu Liangjun’s Sky-Silver Spine Vine and didn’t need to get to know the external Executors of the Beastmaster Alliance in the Summer Capital.

“Brother Lv, I’m a bit pressed for time.”

“I have to run a deal in the Summer Capital for my master.”

“When I return, I will invite Brother Lv to visit my estate!”

Having said that, Fang Mu nodded to Lu Yuyu and then stepped into the Teleportation Array.

Lu Yuyu personally activated the array and helped Fang Mu to teleport.

Protected by the Star River Messenger, Fang Mu felt no discomfort at all upon arriving in the Summer Capital.

After Fang Mu left the Beastmaster Alliance of the Summer Capital, he went to the location designated by Shu Liangjun.

Then, a portal of silver light appeared beneath Fang Mu’s feet.

Fang Mu took a step forward, and immediately his figure vanished into thin air within the Summer Capital.

When Fang Mu reappeared in the real world, he looked up to see Shu Liangjun standing in front of him.

With a serious tone, Shu Liangjun said to Fang Mu,

“Ah Mu, I have two new discoveries here.”

“One is good news, and the other is bad news.”

“Which would you prefer to hear first?”

Chapter 965: The Queen Arrives!

Fang Mu smiled upon hearing this, knowing that the current situation was not too serious.

Otherwise, Shu Liangjun would never joke with him at such a crucial time!

“Elder Shu, let’s hear the bad news first!”

Fang Mu planned to take action against the Blood Race Queen and had decided to take over all of her resources.

This included the Blood Race Queen’s Red Moon Castle.

All that belonged to the Blood Race Queen would be his.

...

If it were merely a simple gain, it could not be considered a benefit.

So the advantage Shu Liangjun mentioned was most likely the advantageous war situation on his side.

Fang Mu asked Su Qing, Shui Miao, and the four members of the Glorious Clan to help him, seemingly only making a clear transaction with Su Qing, who paid with resources.

But in fact, Fang Mu's interactions with Shui Miao and the four from the Glorious Clan were also transactions.

In the future, when they needed Fang Mu's help, he would be obliged to assist them because of this transaction!

Therefore, the advantageous battle situation was good news for Shui Miao, Su Qing, and others, but not for Fang Mu.

As a transmigrator, Fang Mu was influenced by his previous life's values.

Many of his ideas differed somewhat from those of the people in this world.

Now that the Blood Race Queen had not yet arrived, knowing the bad news allowed Fang Mu to make preparations accordingly in advance.

"According to my tracking and investigation of those Blood Dukes, there should be a Mr. Zi from the Evil Heart Sect accompanying the Blood Race Queen this time."

"It's even possible that there is a Mister Hei involved as well!"

Fang Mu's heart stirred upon hearing this.

It seemed that the Blood Race Queen had a close relationship with the Evil Heart Sect.

Previously, they had joined forces to launch an attack on JA City.

Now that the storm had passed, the Blood Race Queen was still intertwined with the Evil Heart Sect.

Mr. Zi of the Evil Heart Sect was mostly at the pinnacle of Sequential, just a step away from Order.

Given the current situation, even if there was an additional Mr. Zi, it wouldn't be a cause for concern.

But the strength of Mister Hei was at least at the level of Order!

Shui Miao, Shu Liangjun, Su Qing, and this Mister Hei were all Order Strong, and Fang Mu could not be sure who was stronger.

This really was bad news!

Fang Mu pursed his lips, then seriously said to Shu Liangjun,

“Elder Shu, I might need you to expend some energy to help me summon a strong being!”

“I will give you the coordinates of this strong being.”

While talking to Shu Liangjun, Fang Mu connected with the Covenant Servant Soul Ant Queen to contact the Yin Yang Leopard.

He instructed the Yin Yang Leopard to find a secluded area immediately and wait for teleportation, no matter what it was doing.

Zhuo An, the Guardian Beast who had stepped into Order, was not as powerful as a true Order Strong.

Because an Order Strong would have at least two Guardian Beasts under their contract.

However, Zhuo An could be of great help to Fang Mu.

Zhuo An had been waiting for a message from Fang Mu, worried that Fang Mu might forget it.

Zhuo An's status in the Emperor Beast Court had risen, and it had become a new favorite within the court.

Flattered wherever it went, Zhuo An was enjoying its moment of glory.

In the Beast Controlling Force, the stronger the mighty, the more free they were.

Receiving Fang Mu's message, Zhuo An immediately found a deserted place.

Then it responded to Fang Mu.

Fang Mu gave Zhuo An's Soul Parasite Ant coordinates, located inside its soul, to Shu Liangjun.

Shu Liangjun used the Sky-Silver Spine Vine to trace space-time and directly teleported the Yin Yang Leopard over.

The Yin Yang Leopard was surprised to see the familiar faces of Shui Miao and Shu Liangjun.

Shu Liangjun and Shui Miao were also quite surprised to see Zhuo An.

Shu Liangjun and Shui Miao had explored the Ancient Battlefield with Fang Mu and could confirm that Fang Mu did not know Zhuo An, the powerful beast from the Beast Controlling Force.

The only intersection between Fang Mu and Zhuo An was that Heritage Land.

Therefore, something must have happened in the Heritage Land for Zhuo An to choose to follow Fang Mu.

Otherwise, an Order Strong from the Beast Controlling Force would not have immediately agreed to head to the Human World upon receiving Fang Mu's message.

Apart from Zhuo An, Fang Mu also had the Crescent Moon Pendant and the purple Small Tower at his disposal.

Both objects were hidden cards Fang Mu could play.

He was unclear about the power of the Crescent Moon Pendant, but the purple Small Tower could easily suppress an Order Strong!

Zhuo An itself had almost perished under that purple Small Tower.

Fang Mu's unabashed presence in front of these human strong beings suggested that they were trustworthy enough for him.

It also indicated that he did not need to hide his identity from them.

Zhuo An bowed to Fang Mu and asked respectfully,

“Young Master, may I ask for what purpose you have summoned me?”

Hearing Zhuo An’s words, Shui Miao and Shu Liangjun were even more astonished.

If Zhuo An were a prior participant in this incident, having been invited by Fang Mu in advance, then its arrival here would be understandable.

From what Zhuo An said, Shui Miao, Shu Liangjun, and the others understood that Zhuo An had been specifically summoned by Fang Mu after hearing the bad news and was not aware of the purpose, still addressing him as “young master.”

Its demeanor was no different from that of a servant.

Fang Mu then seriously said to Zhuo An,

“Our opponents will soon be a Blood Race Queen and possibly a Mr. Zi or Mister Hei from the Evil Heart Sect.”

“Get ready in advance!”

Zhuo An immediately entered a state of battle readiness.

Su Qing had thought that Zhuo An would show displeasure upon hearing of the intended move against the Blood Race Queen,

Chapter 966: The Queen Arrives!_2

No matter whether it's the Yin Yang Lian Leopard Clan or the Emperor Beast Court, provoking the Blood Race brings no good fortune.

Yet, Zhuo An didn't even ask any questions before he took a stand beside Fang Mu.

What exactly did Fang Mu do to this Order-level Beastmaster Warrior, Zhuo An, to earn such unwavering loyalty?

In fact, Zhuo An was indeed taken aback when he learned that Fang Mu planned to make a move against the Blood Race Queen.

How could targeting the Blood Race Queen be an easy task?

However, his own life and the future of the Yin Yang Lian Leopard Clan were now tied to Fang Mu's hands.

...

From any aspect, Zhuo An had no choice but to follow Fang Mu's arrangements.

If Fang Mu intended to take action against a Blood Race Queen, he must have been confident in his success.

Otherwise, even the Infinite Tower would struggle to withstand the Blood Race's retaliation!

Zhuo An believed that Fang Mu wouldn't bring trouble to the Infinite Tower.

As for Mr. Zi and Mister Hei from the Evil Heart Sect, Zhuo An didn't take them seriously.

Not to mention that the Evil Heart Sect and the Blood Race weren't operating on the same level of power.

The Evil Heart Sect was far from as united as the Blood Race.

Even if one Mister Hei died, the first thing the Evil Heart Sect would consider was not revenge.

Rather, they would be thinking about how to divide the inheritance left by the deceased Mr. Zi or Mister Hei.

Zhuo An paid attention and inquired about the Evil Heart Sect because he bore a grudge against them due to Fang Mu.

The disappearance of Mr. Zi initially caused quite an uproar within the Evil Heart Sect.

But the Evil Heart Sect wasn't looking to find Mr. Zi.

They made a token effort to trouble the Panfeng Federation.

After being stopped by the Ten-thousand Nations Federation, they ceased all further actions.

Half a month ago, some problems erupted internally within the Evil Heart Sect.

It's said to be caused by the uneven distribution of the inheritance left by Mr. Zi.

The Yin Yang Leopard was pondering how to please Fang Mu, yet couldn't stay by Fang Mu's side.

No matter how much Zhuo An thought, it was futile.

Now that he finally had the chance to stay by Fang Mu's side, Zhuo An was determined to perform well no matter what!

"Ah Shui, Elder Shu, A Qing, Old Jin, I will choose a spot shortly and take out the relic from my teacher to attract these Blood Race members."

"My teacher has always disliked showing off his relics, so I hope you will refrain from prying into this relic when I take it out!"

"Otherwise, I will have to report the situation truthfully to my teacher."

"He may get angry and decide to terminate his cooperation with any of you."

"I am essentially using myself as bait, so I hope you can ensure my safety!"

Having said that, Fang Mu leaped onto the back of the Abdominal Territory Worm and started directing it towards the Soaring Dragon Plains.

Fang Mu rarely spoke so sternly.

Shu Liangjun, Shui Miao, Su Qing, and others completely understood Fang Mu's words.

The young Fang Mu was carrying out his teacher's orders, and he definitely had to adhere to the rules set by his teacher.

They all had a good relationship with Fang Mu and naturally wouldn't want to make things difficult for him.

Nor did they wish to sever their future dealings with Saint Creator's resources!

The Hidden Dragon Canyon ran deep into the Soaring Dragon Plains, which greatly affected the terrain of the plains.

Soon, Fang Mu found a suitable ambush spot in the Six Nations Core Area and then sent instructions to the Mechanism Fortress.

Immediately, the Mechanism Fortress disassembled into a sky full of Mechanical Gears.

After Fang Mu brought the Mechanical Heart of the Mechanism Fortress to the chosen location, the sky filled with Mechanical Gears reassembled into the Mechanism Fortress.

Fang Mu stored away the Abdomen Environment Worm and entered the interior of the Mechanism Fortress.

Fang Mu did not summon the Blood of Abundance but simply raised his hand to let the blood red fog fill the Mechanism Fortress.

Fang Mu's appearance immediately changed.

Using the long mirror formed by the Mechanical Gears inside the Mechanism Fortress, Fang Mu glanced at his new appearance.

He could confirm that he looked very different from a traditional member of the Blood Race.

The elusive bubble shadows within his blood pupils and the Black Goat Skull made him appear to have a sinister aura.

Yet, the energy amplified under the blood red fog was perfectly under Fang Mu's control.

There was no issue like in some literature from his previous life, where the force influenced one's sanity.

The Mechanism Fortress could indeed shield the internal aura, but it could also choose to release the internal aura.

Fang Mu did not let the Mechanism Fortress conceal its internal aura at this time.

Shui Miao, Shu Liangjun, and others were ambushed around the Mechanism Fortress.

They did not feel any energy fluctuations coming from within the Mechanism Fortress.

Instead, an indescribable scent began to faintly permeate the air.

This scent was very subtle and somewhat similar to blood, yet not as foul-smelling as blood.

It carried a full-bodied sense of vitality.

Just from this aroma alone, it was certain that the treasure Fang Mu had taken out inside the Mechanism Fortress was not ordinary.

Otherwise, it would not have caught the attention of a Blood Race Queen!

Before long, those Blood Dukes who had been previously trailed by Shu Liangjun arrived at Fang Mu's location.

Seeing all four high-level members of the Blood Tribe had arrived, Shu Liangjun's heart settled.

Shu Liangjun had been afraid that only two or three of the high-level Blood Tribe would come and that one or two would not show up.

With the Blood Race Queen likely to arrive at any moment, they simply could not spare the effort to capture those two Blood Dukes.

It was highly possible that these two Blood Dukes would hide during their move against the Blood Race Queen.

And then pass the information on to the Blood Race internally.

Now that all four Blood Dukes were here, it was convenient for them to capture everyone in one fell swoop.

The wisdom of high-level Blood Tribe was exceptional, and these high-level members had come here precisely because they detected the scent that stirred the Bloodline Power within them.

This scent made it nearly impossible for the four Blood Dukes to maintain their composure.

However, upon realizing that the scent was emanating from a nearby Mechanical Beast, all four Blood Dukes sensed that something was amiss.

Previously, this aroma had always been detected within the Dragon Rising Federation, concentrated around the outskirts of JA City.

How could it be that, just as they were ready to welcome the Queen, this scent suddenly appeared close to their location?

Almost instantly, the word “bait” flashed through the minds of all four high-level Blood Tribe members.

The four Blood Dukes exchanged glances, yet didn’t take immediate action.

Rather, they adopted an extremely leisurely demeanor.

The four Blood Dukes thought the other party was fishing for them, unaware that a Blood Race Queen was soon to arrive.

They had used the Blood Race's internal means of communication to contact Lady Yisi.

The person trying to bait them couldn't possibly be aware!

Soon, the positions of the bait and the hunter would be reversed.

With Lady Yisi's bloodline, she would inevitably detect the presence of this scent.

There was no need for them to lead the way anymore.

The four Blood Dukes did not act, and neither did Shui Miao, Shu Liangjun, Su Qing, and the others.

They were in a state of readiness to strike.

In a moment, even if the Blood Race Queen arrived, the first to appear and obstruct the Blood Race Queen would be the brilliance-led team of four headed by Jin Zhaoyan, along with the Void Beast Witch Mengsha and Mr. Zi, who were controlled by Liu Xi.

Fang Mu had his own reasons for allowing these two puppets controlled by Liu Xi to intervene.

The person from the Evil Heart Sect, be it Mr. Zi or Mister Hei, would surely sense the presence of this Mr. Zi.

The existence of this Mr. Zi was bound to prompt the person from the Evil Heart Sect to conduct a thorough investigation into the matter.

They wouldn't just escape as soon as an Order Strong appeared.

Among the four Order-strong, including the Yin-Yang Lian Leopard, one had to stay in the shadows to oversee the situation and prevent anyone from escaping.

The Yin-Yang Lian Leopard was particularly well-suited for this task.

Another had the responsibility to assassinate, to unexpectedly inflict a lethal wound on the Blood Race Queen.

Fang Mu had not expected Su Qing to be the most suitable Order-strong for the role of the assassin!

Suddenly, a large area outside the Mechanism Fortress darkened significantly.

A dense smell of blood wafted in from the depths of the night.

The ground at their feet began to sprout unusually beautiful roses formed from condensed blood energy.

In the sky, a red moon rose without warning.

The red moon fell from the sky, ultimately transforming into a massive and powerful Floating Castle!

A tall woman with pink hair, floating in the air, was gazing down contemptuously at the earth beneath her.

Chapter 967: Bone Marrow Terrorist!

The High-level Blood Tribe values dignity above all.

Not to mention the Blood Race Queen, even a Blood Race Prince wouldn't easily show themselves without attendants surrounding them.

The woman before them, clearly of the High-level Blood Tribe, had reacted in a manner that did not conform to reasoning.

It was because her disdainful gaze hid a profound intoxication.

This woman was none other than Yisi, the Blood Race Queen.

Only Yisi, the Blood Race Queen, had the privilege to behave this way upon Red Moon Castle.

...

Yisi took a deep breath, involuntarily letting out a sigh of enjoyment.

Soon, Yisi forcibly suppressed the intoxication that could dominate her actions.

The source of this intoxication came from the body of the Mechanical Guardian Beasts below.

Anything she set her sights on must become hers.

Yisi had great confidence in this.

Upon seeing Yisi on top of Red Moon Castle, the four Blood Dukes leapt to her side.

In the presence of others, the usually haughty Blood Dukes now performed ancient noble rituals before this girl who looked to be fourteen or fifteen.

While displaying gentlemanly demeanors, they also showed great humility.

Yisi's arrival with Red Moon Castle eased the sense of fear in the hearts of these four Blood Dukes.

Just moments ago, they themselves were the prey.

But now, the roles of hunter and prey had swapped.

"Lady Yisi, this object here is precisely the source of the aura I reported to you earlier!"

"Initially, this aura should have been within the Dragon Rising Federation, I don't know why it appeared here!"

"It must have been intentionally done by someone!"

Upon hearing this, Yisi's eyes twinkled twice, and soon a mocking smile appeared on her face.

"Oh? So there are rats lurking here?"

"Now that this Queen has arrived, won't the rats come out and let this Queen quietly see who dares to be so bold!"

While Yisi spoke, two young-looking but imposingly built High-level Blood Tribesmen took their place by her side.

The four Blood Dukes who had just greeted Yisi also humbly initiated the ritual toward these two male members of the Blood Clan.

One could tell at a glance that these two males were Blood Race Princes.

In a place like the Blood Race, where bloodline hierarchy was strictly adhered to and with the Blood Race Queen present, only the Blood Race Queen could refer to herself as a queen.

The Blood Race Princes no longer held the title of kings.

Generally, Blood Race Princes did not wish to accompany the Blood Race Queen.

For it would diminish their own majesty.

Having two Blood Race Princes by her side indicated that this new queen surely had the backing of a well-established queen.

However, whether it was Su Qing, Shui Miao, Shu Liangjun or the four from the Brilliant Clan,

None of them cared in the slightest.

An established Blood Race Queen indeed often chooses to support a talented Blood Race female of her own bloodline.

This act by the old queen is not for the sake of passing on her bloodline.

The lifespan of the High-level Blood Tribe is extremely long, nearly eternal.

There is no need for the succession of bloodlines.

An established Blood Race Queen often regards the Blood Race females she supports as tools.

This results in those Blood Race females who are fortunate enough to ascend to the role of Blood Race Queen, often bearing a deep hatred for the Blood Tribe that supported them.

The unity of the Blood Race lies in their contention with other groups, and various Blood Race powerhouses will collectively uphold the overall interests of the Blood Race.

In the individual games within the Blood Race, it is common to see both sides fight to the death.

This is the complexity of high-wisdom life forms on a social level.

These two Blood Race Princes were just one step away from the Order in terms of strength.

Jin Zhaoyan, having recovered, was capable of contending with these two Blood Race Princes.

Shui Miao and Shu Liangjun paid no mind to the Queen's manner of addressing them.

The Blood Race Queen has always acted arrogantly, and using 'rat' to describe enemies couldn't be more common!

The wings of the Blood Race bear a strong resemblance to the wings of bats.

Moreover, the Blood Race has the ability to transform into bat-like creatures.

This led humans, upon first discovering the Blood Race, to often describe them as flying rats.

Hearing this term, the Blood Race also learned to use it to insult other beings.

While Shui Miao and Shu Liangjun were indifferent to such titles, it didn't mean that others felt the same.

Indeed, Su Qing's eyes sharpened.

A fierce light flashed across her beautiful eyes.

Internally Su Qing thought, 'Soon I'll tear off your wings and let everyone see who truly resembles a rat!'

Jin Zhaoyan had seen the Blood Race Queen before.

He had already anticipated the grandeur of the Blood Race Queen.

However, Jin Xuan, as the steward of Brilliant Castle, rarely had the chance to venture outside.

Surveying the resplendently dressed and imposing Blood Race Queen, he felt somewhat panicked deep down.

But quickly, Jin Xuan suppressed all the turmoil within him.

With four Order Strong ones on his side, there really was nothing to be alarmed about!

Also, from Fang Mu's intentions, it seemed that Fang Mu had other methods to control the situation!

Jin Xuan shifted his gaze towards Shu Liangjun.

In Fang Mu's absence, Shu Liangjun, as Fang Mu's Dao Protector, became the de facto leader to issue orders.

Shu Liangjun gently shook his head.

“Let’s wait a bit longer, the people of the Evil Heart Sect have yet to show themselves!”

“Once the members of the Evil Heart Sect appear, we’ll make our move!”

“As a Blood Race Queen who chose to collaborate with such human forces as the Evil Heart Sect, she wouldn’t let the Sect quietly hide behind her.”

“Instead, she will drive the Evil Heart Sect to showcase the nobility of the Blood Race bloodline.”

Hearing this, Jin Xuan nodded heavily.

Chapter 968: Bone Marrow Terrorist!_2

Seeing that no one responded, Yisi raised her hand and pointed toward the sky.

A thick, turbid stream of blood energy emanated from Red Moon Castle.

“Since the mice won’t show themselves, I will pull each one of them out one by one!”

“I want to see where you can hide under the cover of the Crimson blood domain!”

Feeling a fluctuation in the space not far from her, Yisi forcefully swung her hand downward.

A Blood Coloured Whip appeared in Yisi’s hand.

...

Just as the whip was about to strike that area of space, a pair of hands emerged from it.

The originally pale palms were instantly covered with brown-green scales.

After grabbing the Blood Whip, the hand exerted force and snapped it.

“Yisi, it was you who chose to cooperate with our Evil Heart Sect.”

“We from the Evil Heart Sect are not your minions; don’t mistake us for someone else!”

“As the saying goes, split it half on meeting.”

“This item isn’t necessarily yours just because your Blood Race needs it!”

“Let me help you tear open that iron lump below and take out whatever is inside!”

Upon hearing this, Yisi looked up with her enchanting red eyes.

“What is the Evil Heart Sect? Nothing but a group of monsters who manipulate corpses and turn themselves into neither human nor ghost trash!”

“Don’t forget that your Evil Heart Sect still needs something from me!”

“Otherwise, why the need to act together with me?”

“If you want to compete with me for this item, don’t blame me for not being polite!”

Yisi’s eyes seemed to ripple like spring water.

But those familiar with Yisi from the High-level Blood Tribe knew that she was now intent on killing.

The creatures of the Evil Heart Sect were utterly shameless.

Even though they were in need of favors from the Blood Race, they still put on such an attitude in front of Lady Yisi!

The figure enshrouded in a black robe shook the wrist that had just grabbed the Blood Whip.

The scales retracted, revealing the pale palms once again.

“Yisi, to refer to yourself as your majesty just a century after being promoted to a Blood Race Queen is somewhat presumptuous!”

“It’s not as if your Blood Race has only one queen; if I don’t deal with you, other Blood Race queens are surely willing to contact our Evil Heart Sect!”

“However self-important the Blood Race may be, in this world, it ultimately remains heretical.”

“Contract Garden may allow your existence in this world but will not tolerate your Blood Race causing trouble!”

“This time, I’ve brought two Bone Marrow Terrorists.”

“You undoubtedly know what a Bone Marrow Terrorist is.”

During these words, two figures with a faint blue glow appeared behind this Mister Hei.

Both bodies were comprised entirely of bones.

Every bone emitted a distinct, ghastly shriek.

Thousands of different shrieks merged together, creating an indescribable, eerie sensation.

Upon feeling these two presences, Liang Jun's heart suddenly sank.

Bone Marrow Terrorists could be described as the strongest military weapons of the Evil Heart Sect.

Bone Marrow Terrorists used bones from Order-level beings as raw material, then used the souls of Order beings to power these bones.

Sealed in the bones in a peculiar way.

The cost of creating a Bone Marrow Terrorist that could rival an Order Strong was enormous.

Mister Hei being able to produce two at once, and furthermore summoning nearly two more Bone Marrow Terrorists behind him, clearly showed his intent not to be suppressed by this Blood Race queen during the transaction and to avoid being at a disadvantage.

Liang Jun had not previously considered this.

Counting this way, the enemy's Order units also had four members.

His side could no longer expect an advantage!

Liang Jun wasn't exactly afraid.

Even though Bone Marrow Terrorists possessed Order-level power, they still couldn't match a living Order-level being.

In truth, his side could still be said to have the upper hand.

However, aside from needing to defeat their enemy, they also had to ensure Fang Mu's safety.

Fang Mu's presence could become a vulnerability exploited by the enemy.

Liang Jun contacted Fang Mu immediately.

The true decision-maker on Fang Mu's side was Fang Mu himself.

After Shu Liangjun relayed the situation to Fang Mu, it was necessary for Fang Mu to make a choice.

Whether to continue treating the Blood Race Queen as prey for hunting.

If they chose not to hunt the Blood Race Queen, with their current strength, they could definitely retreat unscathed.

Shu Liangjun relayed the information to Fang Mu very quickly.

However, Shu Liangjun did not offer any suggestions to guide Fang Mu's decision.

Fang Mu was a person with strong opinions, and this operation also carried a mission arranged by Qixing.

Shu Liangjun felt that Fang Mu, upon knowing the situation, would most likely contact Qixing first to explain the current circumstances.

Then it would be up to Qixing to make a decision.

Even with Qixing's favor toward Fang Mu, it would be very difficult for Fang Mu to decide on a conflict involving eight Order Strong figures.

The current situation had not only exceeded Shu Liangjun's judgment but also Fang Mu's.

Fang Mu had not anticipated such a turn of events!

However, the main purpose of establishing this operation was not to capture the Blood Race Queen.

But rather for self-preservation.

Fang Mu did not want to be targeted by a Blood Race Queen.

Especially after she knew about their combat strength.

Once she realized that she could not succeed with her own strength, she would most likely share the situation with other Blood Race Queens.

By then, Fang Mu would face harassment from the entire Blood Tribe!

Rather than that, it was better to take a risk.

Even if someone escaped and leaked the information, the outcome would be no different from the other choice!

Fang Mu reached for the Crescent Moon Pendant he always wore on his chest.

Like the exclusive trait of Blood of Abundance, [Ash-Dyed End], the Crescent Moon Pendant was Fang Mu's lifesaving ace.

It would trigger automatically when faced with external attacks.

This could not be used by Fang Mu as a means against an enemy.

But the purple-black mini tower hidden inside the Crescent Moon Pendant could be.

Fang Mu still remembered how Zhuo An, an Order-level strong, was subdued by that purple-black mini tower.

Unable to move at all!

This indicated that the purple-black mini tower possessed a power that exceeded Order.

After contracting with the Crescent Moon Pendant, Fang Mu could just happen to use the purple-black mini tower.

With this purple-black mini tower, if used correctly, Fang Mu could potentially control an Order unit.

Fang Mu tried to keep his voice calm as he asked Shu Liangjun,

“Elder Shu, who is stronger between this Mister Hei of the Evil Heart Sect and the Blood Race Queen you mentioned?”

Shu Liangjun had thought Fang Mu would make a decision directly.

But he did not expect Fang Mu to ask such a question.

By asking this question, Fang Mu essentially revealed his decision.

Fang Mu still intended to take action against both the Blood Race Queen and Mister Hei of the Evil Heart Sect.

Shu Liangjun replied very confidently.

“With the enhancement of Red Moon Castle, this Blood Race Queen, with all of her tribe’s capabilities, is definitely stronger than Mister Hei of the Evil Heart Sect!”

“Otherwise, Mister Hei of the Evil Heart Sect wouldn’t have brought two Bone Marrow Terrorists just to contend with the Blood Race Queen!”

Fang Mu asked solemnly,

“If I can control this Blood Race Queen, with our current strength, can we completely eliminate the other members of the Blood Tribe and the Evil Heart Sect?”

“Elder Shu, I hope you can answer my question cautiously.”

“Your answer will influence my next decision!”

Upon hearing this, Shu Liangjun was secretly surprised.

Shu Liangjun could be sure that since Mister Hei of the Evil Heart Sect appeared, there had been no more spatial fluctuations in this area.

It was clear that Qixing had not dispatched any reinforcements to Fang Mu's side from elsewhere.

This indicated that Qixing had given Fang Mu an object that allowed him to directly suppress an Order-level strong figure.

This was sufficient to show the depth of Qixing's resources.

Shu Liangjun reflected for a moment, considering the situation on the field, and then said,

"Little Wood, if you can control this Blood Race Queen, I can swear on my lifespan."

"Even if it costs us something, we can definitely hold onto Mister Hei of the Evil Heart Sect and the numerous Blood Tribe members!"

Chapter 969: The Hooked Blood Race Queen!

Fang Mu clenched his fists tightly upon hearing this, sternly telling himself.

It's do or die!

It had been exactly a month since the last activation of the [Ash-Dyed End], a unique feature of the Blood of Abundance.

The cooldown of [Ash-Dyed End] was ready.

By the time the [Ash-Dyed End] of the Blood of Abundance was effective, Fang Mu had already obtained the Crescent Moon Pendant.

The judgment of [Ash-Dyed End] precedes the Crescent Moon Pendant.

...

If any Order Strong truly made a move against him, he might be able to take down one more person relying on the judgment of [Ash-Dyed End]!

Fang Mu was a man with a plan.

It was precisely because he had a plan that Fang Mu dared to make such a decision.

“Elder Shu, once you confirm that all members of the Evil Heart Sect and the Blood Race are present,”

“take action immediately!”

“Remember, don’t let anyone escape from here!”

“If someone truly pays a price for this, I will discuss with my master afterwards and repay him manifold!”

The few Order Strong present, besides Shu Liangjun, who as his Dao Protector was responsible for his safety, and Zhuo An, who was fully under his control with no other choice, the others were here to help on the face of chance.

Shui Miao was the same.

Even though Fang Mu had a deep relationship with Shui Miao, he didn’t believe Shui Miao would bear the cost of a fundamental injury for him!

The favor Shui Miao owed him from the protection in the “Underground Palace” had already been fully repaid.

Shu Liangjun would definitely pass on the latter part of what Fang Mu said.

This was the Calming Pill Fang Mu gave to Shui Miao, Su Qing, and the four strong members of the Glorious Clan.

With this Calming Pill, Shui Miao, Su Qing, and others could fight without any reservations against Mister Hei of the Evil Heart Sect and the Blood Race Queen!

In the eyes of the crowd, they were helping not just any Beast Master but Qixing, the Saint Creator.

As a Biologist in his previous life, Fang Mu understood the brutality of the law of the jungle better than anyone.

Fang Mu was not the type to think that just because he had a good relationship with someone, that person would certainly sacrifice for him.

This speech by Fang Mu completely reassured Shu Liangjun.

Shu Liangjun conveyed Fang Mu’s words through Soul Sound Transmission.

It wasn't until then that Shui Miao, Su Qing, and Jin Zhaoyan, leading the members of the Glorious Clan, finally felt relieved.

The conflicts among Order Strong were no minor matter.

One could end up wounded and fundamentally damaged by the opponent's tactics.

The previous condition of Jin Zhaoyan was a living example.

Now, with Fang Mu's backing, everything was different!

Qixing not only could prolong life but also had the ability to regenerate limbs.

The double compensation mentioned by Fang Mu was definitely effective.

If it weren't for Qixing's mandate, how could Fang Mu dare make such a promise?

After sensing the situation, Shui Miao said,

“Elder Shu, all members of the Blood Race and the Evil Heart Sect are now within two kilometers from here, within our capability to strike!”

“Proceed according to the original plan!”

Upon hearing this, Shu Liangjun immediately motioned to Jin Zhaoyan and the group of four from Jin Xuan.

Jin Xuan, leading the four members of the Glorious Clan, promptly moved and surrounded the Mechanism Fortress.

Encircled the Mechanism Fortress.

Standing atop Red Moon Castle, the Blood Race Queen Yisi, looking down at Jin Zhaoyan and others, spoke disdainfully,

“It turns out that the strength of these little mice is only at the Sequential level!”

“Not even a big rat without reaching the peak of Sequential.”

“And you dare scheme against the Blood Race here!?”

Among the four members of the Glorious Clan, Jin Zhaoyan was the strongest.

But Jin Xuan was undoubtedly the best actor among them.

With a face full of shock and determination, Jin Xuan said,

“You four Blood Dukes have been coveting the treasure in our hands.”

“We wanted to lure those four Blood Dukes to appear and clarify the situation.”

“Aren’t you, a Blood Race Queen, afraid of provoking the Contract Garden by bringing the Red Moon Castle to the Human World?”

“Once the Contract Garden learns of this, they will certainly hold your Blood Race accountable!”

Yisi’s facial expression visibly changed upon hearing Jin Xuan’s words.

Even though she was prepared to venture into the Human World, the newly ascended Blood Race Queen Yisi could not entirely ignore the presence of the Contract Garden!

Despite the dispute with the Blood Race six hundred years ago ending with the Contract Garden's retreat, the Blood Race suffered much more than the Humans!

But soon, Yisi regained her seductively noble demeanor.

"Hehe, if the Contract Garden finds out about my presence in the Human World, they will naturally cause trouble!"

"The Contract Garden won't let things go easily!"

"But you bunch of rats need not use the Contract Garden to pressure me, because you will not have the chance to spread the news."

"Today, you must all die here!"

Yisi's statement was a virtual death declaration to the humans below her.

The moment Yisi finished speaking, her Blood Knights along with the accompanying members of the High-level Blood Tribe left Red Moon Castle.

They encircled the Mechanism Fortress defended by the four members of the Glorious Clan.

Seeing this, Jin Xuan maintained his expression, but his heart was filled with joy.

He didn't expect that his provocation would yield such excellent results!

The Blood Race Queen thought she was the hunter, but she forgot the principle of the mantis stalking the cicada while the oriole waits behind.

By ordering her Blood Servants and accompanying High-level Blood Tribe to surround the area, she reduced the range of people.

Chapter 970: The Hooked Blood Race Queen!_2

At the same time, it restricted the actions of the Evil Heart Sect's Mister Hei.

Clearly, the Blood Race Queen did not trust Mister Hei, fearing that he would compete with her for the treasures inside the Mechanism Fortress!

The Blood Race Queen was really unlucky.

Unwilling to offend the Contract Garden, yet she had offended a Saint Creator!

What is the difference between offending a Saint Creator and offending the Contract Garden?

Especially since Qixing, the Saint Creator, was not stingy with resources and was very willing to trade with others.

...

It was hard to imagine how extensive Qixing's connections were!

Just as Jin Xuan was about to speak again, a pleasant voice sounded from behind him.

"We admit defeat!"

"If we are willing to hand over the item that attracts you Blood Tribe to you,"

"Would you spare our lives?"

"Otherwise I will only have to destroy it!"

With that, Fang Mu flipped his hand, and a purple-black Mini Tower appeared in his hand.

The moment Fang Mu took out the purple-black Mini Tower, all the Blood Tribe members present were immediately drawn to it.

An energy scent enough to intoxicate the Blood Tribe emitted from the Mini Tower.

Yisi even felt that the scent from the Mini Tower was several times more enticing than the scent in the air just a moment ago!

Just the scent from the Mini Tower made Yisi shiver uncontrollably.

Just one glance was enough to see that the purple-black Mini Tower in Fang Mu's hand was no ordinary object!

It was clearly a fine treasure!

However, if he hadn't known in advance that Fang Mu was determined to fight the Blood Tribe and the Evil Heart Sect to the end,

Planning to capture the Blood Race Queen and kill Mister Hei of the Evil Heart Sect,

Jin Xuan would have thought that Fang Mu really intended to surrender to the Blood Race Queen!

At that moment, Jin Xuan suddenly felt a spine-chilling sensation.

How deep must Fang Mu's schemes be at such a young age for him to have such acting skills that even he was deceived!

If Jin Xuan had realized from the beginning that Fang Mu was good at acting, he would have analyzed every sentence from Fang Mu, always scrutinizing his actions.

But now, after so much had happened, Fang Mu had made a deep impression in Jin Xuan's mind.

This made Jin Xuan, even though he felt amazed by Fang Mu's acting and scheming, not doubt him in his heart!

Anyone familiar with Fang Mu would not question his identity as Qixing.

If there wasn't a Saint Creator behind him, could these resources just appear out of nowhere?

The attraction of the purple-black Mini Tower in Fang Mu's hand to the Blood Tribe was simply too strong.

Even with Yisi, the Blood Race Queen present, the other Blood Tribe members nearby couldn't help but become restless.

Yisi let out a sharp scream, and the Blood Race Queen's oppressive aura rolled outwards.

Finally stopping the presumptuous actions of the other High-level Blood Tribe!

The aura of the purple-black Mini Tower itself was extremely restrained.

It had no attraction to the Blood Tribe at all.

If Fang Mu had simply taken out this purple-black Mini Tower, even an Order Strong would hardly have been able to detect its scent.

If the Mini Tower could emit a dangerous scent, Zhuo An would not have been subdued by it.

Fang Mu believed that Zhuo An, who often explored large ancient battlefield relics, must be extremely cautious.

Fang Mu had compressed the concentrated Blood Red Fog into the Mini Tower.

He also placed a bottle of Blood Aged Wine in a special reagent bottle inside the Mini Tower.

This type of reagent bottle could also release the scent of Blood Aged Wine.

Fang Mu had discovered before that the volatile Blood Aged Wine also had a surprising attraction to the Blood Tribe.

The combined effect of the two, Fang Mu was not afraid at all that the Blood Race Queen before him wouldn't take the bait.

Yisi was able to perceive how weak Fang Mu's strength was.

With such weak strength, she could easily snatch the purple-black Mini Tower from him without him noticing his own actions.

But Fang Mu's statement about destroying the Mini Tower truly stilled Yisi.

Wanting to destroy this treasure obviously was not something the boy in front of her could do with foreign force.

Yisi was certain that if she absorbed the scent from the Mini Tower, it would immediately enhance her Bloodline!

In this situation, Yisi did not want the Mini Tower to be destroyed at any cost.

So Yisi did not act immediately, but instead prepared to adopt a delaying tactic.

“We, the Blood Race, do not wish to cause unnecessary slaughter on your human territory.”

“Like this, place the Mini Tower in your hand ten meters ahead on the ground,”

“After I receive the Mini Tower, I will immediately let you go!”

Fang Mu heard this but did not heed Yisi’s words.

Instead, he pointed at Mister Hei, who was manipulating two Bone Marrow Terrorists.

“Even if your Blood Race does not attack us, this person from the Evil Heart Sect is very likely to kill us!”

“I need your Blood Race’s help to drive away this person from the Evil Heart Sect!”

“Only then will I engage in the trade with your Blood Race as you mentioned!”

Upon hearing Fang Mu’s statement, the four Order Strong members of the illustrious clan were all taken aback.

Hadn’t Fang Mu intended to wipe out both the Blood Race and the Evil Heart Sect people before? Why was he now asking the Blood Race to drive away Mister Hei from the Evil Heart Sect?

This would cause the two groups to scatter.

Although they were puzzled by Fang Mu’s approach, Jin Xuan quickly adapted and spoke to Fang Mu.

“Young Master, we have never traded with the Blood Race, and we cannot be sure of the Blood Race’s integrity!”

“But the Evil Heart Sect has always been notorious for not keeping promises.”

“If this Blood Race Queen does not drive away the person from the Evil Heart Sect, you might as well destroy this treasure.”

“It’s better than letting the treasure fall into foreign hands for no reason!”

“We four are all prepared to make the ultimate sacrifice!”

Jin Xuan’s words were resolute, causing Yisi a moment of headache.

Yisi knew very well that if she did not drive away Mister Hei, she would not be able to obtain the Mini Tower that could enhance her own bloodline!

According to the Blood Dukes who followed her, this Mini Tower could continuously emit an attractive force.

This indicated that the enhancement of the Blood Race’s bloodline by this Mini Tower was long-lasting!

Yisi had no intention of letting those humans, who were negotiating terms with her, survive.

Even if later the Contract Garden found out, it would still be a considerable trouble.

She thought that driving Mister Hei away did not necessarily require conflict; she could also negotiate with him.

Later, she would supply resources to Mister Hei as a condition for his cooperation.

Thinking of this, Yi Sha turned her momentum towards Mister Hei, and while twirling her hair with her left hand, she made a “three” gesture.

Seeing this, Mister Hei bellowed.

“Yisi, we are in a cooperative relationship.”

“You wouldn’t turn against me over these few fellows, would you?”

While speaking, Mister Hei’s palm slapped onto a Bone Marrow Terrorist, producing a sound like metal clashing.

Seeing Mister Hei’s open five fingers, Yisi’s brows furrowed sharply.

She then gradually relaxed them.

“If you still wish to cooperate with me, leave immediately!”

“And don’t lay a hand on these humans afterwards!”

Mister Hei’s face revealed a smile that was not quite a smile.

He then led his two Bone Marrow Terrorists and the twenty or so members of his team who controlled other Terrorists, away from the area.

But Mister Hei didn’t go far.

Because he knew that once Yisi got her hands on the Mini Tower, she would immediately make those humans her lunch.

The delicate, tender-skinned youths were precisely to Yisi’s taste.

Just as Mister Hei was planning to wait ten minutes before returning, his sharp gaze suddenly turned in a direction.

He then waved his hand and said.

“Follow me; I want to see what exactly Little Five is up to!”

“He clearly didn’t die, so why hasn’t he returned to the organization!”

Upon hearing Mister Hei’s words, his subordinates eyes gleamed with unusual light.

They quickly followed Mister Hei towards the distance.

This situation arose because Fang Mu and Shu Liangjun had discussed and reset the plan after.

The Evil Heart Sect’s Mister Hei and the Blood Race Queen might not get along.

But once they face a common enemy, they would immediately unite and help each other.

It was better to separate the two and surround them for a kill!

Even if someone from the Evil Heart Sect truly managed to escape, they would likely not dare to spread the news of the Blood Race Queen Yisi’s death.

The Blood Race, unable to find the mastermind, would very likely vent their anger on the Evil Heart Sect!

Mister Hei was well aware of this point.