

Beast Tamer 98

Chapter 98: Blood-coloured Fang Mu and Pupils!_I

Fang Mu stood on the terrace, the Heaven Fragrance Peony swaying its flower branches comfortably under the moonlight.

The blossoms were about the same size as Fang Mu's head and there started to be a faint accumulation of pollen on them.

Perhaps in another two days, Fang Mu would be able to collect pollen from the stamens of the Heaven Fragrance Peony!

Inhaling the fragrance of the Heaven Fragrance Peony, Fang Mu dialed Fang Qin's number.

As soon as the phone rang, Fang Mu heard Fang Qin's voice on the other end.

Fang Mu could imagine a picture.

That is, Fang Qin must have been holding her mobile phone, sitting there waiting for his message!

"Little Wood, you bid for a Frost Language Snow Dragon for me at the auction.

Can your master accept this?"

"If you get scolded, I'll ask Deputy Corps Commander Luo for half a day off tomorrow morning and send the Frost Language Snow Dragon over to you!"

Hearing this, Fang Mu knew that Luo Su must have already given the Frost Language Snow Dragon and Sea Heart Pendant to Fang Qin.

“Big sister, you don’t need to worry about me!”

“I happen to have something to talk to Brother Lv about tomorrow.” “Sister Luo wants to bring her Beast Control Shimmering Python over.”

“At that time, I will take a few bottles of high purity Life Elixir and Water Elemental Potion from my master for you.”

“After you have contracted the Frost Language Snow Dragon, first use these resources that I gave you to cultivate the Frost Language Snow Dragon.”

“As for the spiritual materials to induce the Dragon Race Beast to upgrade its bloodline, I will let Brother Lv deliver them to you after I find them!” Hearing Fang Mu say this, and there was no reluctance in his tone,

Fang Qin finally set her half-suspended heart back in her stomach.

She clearly saw the attitudes of Luo Su, Lv Yuyu, and Liu Jihui towards Fang

Through these people’s attitudes towards Fang Mu, Fang Qin knew that Fang Mu’s master must be treating him well.

If Fang Mu could not bring out high star Creator resources, these people would not choose to be around Fang Mu, trying to get into his good books.

Thinking of this, her heart tightened, and she spoke very seriously. “Little Wood, I know you’ve been sensible since you were a child!”

“But you are still young and do not know the dangers of society!”

“Even if your master is a Grandmaster Creator, you still have to understand the principle of not flaunting wealth!”

“Not everyone around you may truly care for you!”

Saying this, Fang Qin was afraid that Fang Mu still did not understand.

So she simply used a different way to say it.

“Little Wood, in the future, no matter who you interact with, take your sister’s word and guard against them as if they were bad people first!” “Don’t ever let yourself be taken advantage of!”

Fang Qin seldom lectured Fang Mu when he was growing up.

Except for when he was very young and pretended to wet his pants and drool to avoid appearing too different,

By the time Fang Mu was eight, he was able to manage everything by himself!

Basically, there was hardly any chance for Fang Qin to lecture him.

Whereas when Yan Wood started junior high school and got into non-mainstream culture and became rebellious,

Fang Qin was quite worried about her.

Fortunately, Yan Wood did not neglect her studies, and naturally passed that stage in high school.

As a seasoned person, Fang Mu had mingled in the academic world in his past life.

One could say he had seen all types of people.

But Fang Mu listened very seriously to what Fang Qin had to say to him, not just as a warning, but also as a sign of her care and love for him.

Home was a pure land in Fang Mu's heart.

The moon is said to be rounder on the sixteenth than on the fifteenth.

Looking at a moon that was rounder than yesterday, Fang Mu's heart was very bright.

Meeting Fang Qin by chance today at the Swiss Lion Garden was definitely a good thing for him.

Fang Mu did not want to keep hiding the changes in him from his family.

Now that Fang Qin knew, Fang Mu was completely relieved.

After talking to Fang Qin for a while, just before hanging up the phone, Fang Qin reminded him seriously again.

"Little Wood, always consider your master's feelings in everything you do!"

"If your master lets you use the pseudonym Jianmu, don't tell Xiao Yuan and Xiao Yan about your situation yet!"

"Always put yourself first!"

"Xiao Yuan is like a man on fire these days with your help!"

"Xiao Yan has also been able to go to the Contemplation Hall once a week recently and try to understand new secret patterns! "

Hearing Fang Qin say this, Fang Mu planned to continue according to his original plan.

“Sister, Brother Lu helped me get a piece of land from Keystone Construction.” “This piece of land is right next to Jinghai Tianyu University.”

“The Grandmaster Craftsman of Keystone Construction leads a team, using various Beast Controls to assist in building houses.”

“Brother Lu said it would be completed by November.”

“When the New Year comes, the four of us can have a good get-together.”

“I will tell Second Brother and Third Sister everything when the time comes.”

“I just found a leopard Beast here with the Lionheart Brigade that suits Second Brother very well.”

“I plan to give this leopard Guardian Beast to Second Brother as Jianmu!”

As Fang Qin and Fang Mu were chatting, they had no idea that Fang Yuan was planning to come home for a visit soon!

Fang Mu, who had returned to the workshop after hanging up the phone, saw that Xixi had already cleared at least five square meters of rubbish!

Since Xixi was upgraded to elite quality, the speed at which it handled rubbish had become faster and faster!

Fang Mu’s claim to Liu Jihui that he had no Dragon Rising Coins was not to show off.

It was simply the truth.

Fang Mu planned to go all in with the few Dragon Rising Coins in his Dragon Cavalry Black Gold Card to buy Bronze Spirit Artifact Fragments.

Seeing Fang Mu coming, Xixi picked out the toughest fish skin and happily went up to Fang Mu, making human-like sounds by turning the wheels on its body.

“Fang Mu, can you hold Xixi’s handle and accompany it to eat for half an hour before you go to sleep today?”

Fang Mu chuckled and held Xixi’s handle, saying.

“There’s no problem in accompanying you for an hour!”

“I will read a book for two hours later. Might as well hold your handle and accompany you. ”

“But before that, Xixi, eat these first!”

As he spoke, Fang Mu took out the box of Black Nightmare Snake venom sacs and placed it in front of Xixi.

Xixi made a sound of human joy with its gears.

“Xixi likes to eat new things the most!”

Xixi’s metal filaments were quickly wrapped around the box containing the Black Nightmare Snake venom sacs.

Xixi, along with the box, ground them to pieces and swallowed them.

Fang Mu waited for Xixi to purify the venom sacs of the Black Nightmare Snake and collect the special Toxic System Crystals.

At the same time, Fang Mu himself was also busy, directly summoning the Fool's Shadow and the Blood of Abundance.

After Fool's Shadow appeared, it stood quietly at Fang Mu's side,

As if Fang Mu's shadow had stood up from the ground!

The whole body's aura was unusually restrained, making it impossible for anyone to see anything special about it.

However, Blood of Abundance was completely different.

The red mist emanating from Blood of Abundance dyed the whole workshop red!

If a seasoned escapist were to enter the workshop at this point,

Seeing the scene in the workshop would probably be enough to knock them out cold.

Fang Mu took out the heart of the Blood Count and the Shadow Eye Stone he had paid a hefty sum for.

One went into the well of the Blood of Abundance, the other went into the shadow formed by the Fool's Shadow, just like how Kong Rong would yield the larger pears.

The moment the heart of the Blood Count fell into the well, the well was filled with the intense sound of the heart beating.

This beating was much stronger and more frequent than before the heart of the Blood Count was thrown into the Blood of Abundance.

At the moment when the beating of the heart reached its limit, the sound of the heart bursting came out.

Next, there was the sound of blood flowing from the bottom of the well.

The sound of the blood flow was like a pleasing note to Fang Mu's ears.

The blood-colored mist instantly filled the entire workshop.

Fang Mu felt as if he had turned into an indescribable beast under the moonlight.

Amidst the amplification of the blood-colored mist, Fang Mu casually picked up a metal rod in the workshop.

Without much effort, Fang Mu heard a "crack," and the metal rod was easily broken by him!

You have to know that this metal rod made of bronze elemental spiritual material manganese iron, although fragile,

Without a great force of a thousand jin, it would be very difficult to break a metal rod made of manganese-iron.

What Fang Mu did not notice was that his hair had turned a pure red in the blood-colored mist, and his originally jet-black eyes seemed to have two even darker patterns slowly rotating inside them.

However, these two patterns were very faint.

Even if Fang Mu looked carefully with a mirror, it would be very difficult for him to see what the two patterns in his eyes actually were!

After a while, Blood of Abundance seemed to have digested all the blood energy in the heart of the Blood Count.

The blood-colored mist was drawn back into the well.

Fang Mu's hair and eyes also returned to their original color.

Fang Mu originally wanted to check on the Fool's Shadow's condition.

Because after the Shadow Eye Stone was sent into Fool's Shadow's body, it decomposed very slowly.

Just at this moment, Fang Mu's stomach let out a loud gurgling sound!

Subconsciously, Fang Mu rubbed his stomach, feeling incredibly hungry.

Fang Mu was a bit confused. Before he went to the Swiss Lion Garden to participate in the Lionheart Brigade's trade fair, he had clearly eaten quite a lot of food!

Only a few hours have passed!?

Suddenly Fang Mu noticed something, and his mind shook.

Fang Mu found that the Blood of Abundance, which had been mediocre at normal quality, had all its data as question marks despite its variety, element and potential,

But its beast quality had been upgraded from standard quality to elite quality!
