Chapter 464: Gathering of Forces (1)

Divine Realm, the square in front of the Drunken Immortal Restaurant After the Sacred Dragon Empire's powerful arrival, the divorce papers on the square began to discuss.

"Look, isn't that the young master of the Azure Sword Pavilion?"

A voice slowly sounded among the group of cultivators.

Then, everyone followed the cultivator's finger and looked over.

At this moment, a youth dressed in blue clothes was floating in the air, his hair falling to the back of his head.

He still looked very handsome.

After this cultivator appeared, the female cultivator on the square looked at him with shining eyes.

"Azurepeak, Azurepeak, I love you!" "Azurepeak, you're so handsome. I want to have a baby with you." As they spoke, those female cultivators were even dancing with joy.

Some of the male cultivators looked at the young master of Green Sword Pavilion, who was like a male celebrity, and slowly lowered their heads.

He had no choice. After all, he had both strength and background.

Looking at Azurepeak's appearance, it was simply every male cultivator's dream.

At this moment, Azurepeak's figure slowly landed on the ground. Then, he waved his hand at the surrounding cultivators.

"Thank you, everyone! Thank you!"

At this moment, the Third Prince of the Sacred Dragon Dynasty slowly opened his eyes and looked at Azurepeak, who was surrounded by people.

He slowly said.

"Just like the rumors say, this person is quite popular." "Unfortunately, he is not the one participating in this test. Otherwise, I would like to see what he would do in the Drunken Immortal Restaurant." As he spoke, the Third Prince of the Sacred Dragon Dynasty also had a playful tone.

At the same time, on Azurepeak's side, Azurepeak waved at the surrounding cultivators.

"Thank you, everyone. However, our Azure Sword Pavilion is participating in the test this time."

"However, our Azure Sword Pavilion directly controls the Evergreen World below."

Azurepeak pointed at a space above him as he spoke.

Then, from that space, cultivators stepped on their flying swords and slowly flew toward the location of the green peak.

This was the entire force of the Green Sword Pavilion.

It was also because Azurepeak did not like to walk with groups that he was the first to arrive.

At this moment, a man with an imposing appearance and a carefree appearance slowly appeared in front of everyone's eyes.

The man had clearly never seen such a big scene before.

He walked down from under the sword and came in front of Azurepeak. He bowed respectfully to him.

"Young Master Azurepeak."

"Qing Yun, since the pavilion master bestowed you with this name, it means that Qing Jian Pavilion has already treated you as one of their own."

"Since we are a family, there is no need for us to be so polite. Azurepeak looked at Qingyun in front of him, and there was some admiration in his eyes.

Some time ago, he had also received a mission from Green Sword Pavilion to go to the lower realm to find a hot shot.

Coincidentally, there was a lower realm that believed in their Green Sword Pavilion.

Azurepeak naturally made a trip to the Evergreen Realm and immediately discovered this hot shot, Qingyun.

The two of them regretted not meeting each other earlier. Azurepeak brought him to look for the pavilion master of Green Sword Pavilion on the spot.

Under the operation of Azurepeak, the Green Sword Pavilion Master also bestowed the name of Green Cloud to this hot shot of Evergreen Field.

He was accepted into the Green Sword Pavilion.

Azurepeak also wanted Qingyun to come with him to the Drunken Immortal Restaurant this time.

However, the elders in the pavilion kept saying that the Drunken Immortal Restaurant was related to the hundred-year-old plan of the Green Sword Pavilion.

He couldn't be careless. In the end, he really couldn't say it.

Qing Yun still came to the Drunken Immortal Inn under the protection of the elders of the Qing Sword Pavilion.

At this time, Azurepeak and Qingyun also began to talk.

"Qingyun, let me tell you, your strength is definitely the best among this group of people."

"Your chances of winning are very high. Just pay attention to these few people." While Azurepeak and Qingyun were talking, another huge spirit ship floated over in the air.

The spirit ship was wrapped in a stream of water and looked very gorgeous. When they saw the spirit ship appear, those cultivators began to sigh.

"Isn't this the Flowing Cloud Sect's Flowing Light Spirit Ship? I didn't expect the Flowing Cloud Sect to participate in this test."

“It doesn’t matter if I participate in the test or not. What’s important is that I can see the fairy maiden of the Flowing Cloud Sect.

-It is said that there are all female cultivators in the Liuyun Sect, and all of them are very beautiful.”

Hearing this, all the cultivators present looked at the spirit ship in the air. On the flowing light spirit ship, there were women with beautiful figures standing on it.

At the center of the spirit ship, a woman in blue was talking to a woman in white beside her.

“Sister Bai Yi, this time, we’re counting on you. Don’t lose to those men.’ “Otherwise, Yi Hong Restaurant will be your home in the future.

As she spoke, the blue-clothed woman stretched out her hand and brushed it across the woman’s cheek.

They had snatched this woman in white from the hands of other forces. Due to the special constitution of this woman in white, it was very suitable for their Flowing Cloud Sect.

Therefore, after being seized by the Flowing Cloud Sect during this period of time, his strength had also increased rapidly under the cultivation of the Flowing Cloud Sect.

He was representing the Flowing Cloud Sect to participate in the test of the Drunken Immortal Restaurant.

At this moment, the spirit ship of the Flowing Cloud Sect slowly stopped in midair.

Some cultivators looked at the spirit ship above and sighed.

“If I could become a disciple of the Flowing Cloud Sect, how wonderful would my life be?”

“Come on, look at yourself. You’re just a daydreamer.”” At this moment, a cultivator beside him also said mockingly. As the Flowing Cloud Sect and the Green Sword Pavilion slowly arrived, the cultivators participating in the Drunken Immortal Restaurant were almost all present.

At this moment, on the floating island above the Drunken Immortal Restaurant,

Looking at the people who had almost arrived, he slowly said to Xiao Changtian,”

“What do you think of this test?”

This time, the Drunken Immortal Restaurant’s plot involved the secrets of the Elysium.

The divine eye also asked. He also wanted to know how much Xiao Changtian knew about their plan.

Xiao Changtian was stunned when he heard the divine eye’s words.

This big shot wanted to ask for his opinion. It seemed like the Li Fire Sect still valued a mortal like him.

Since he wanted to say it himself, he would say it himself.

At this moment, Xiao Changtian also told Huo Ling ‘er what he had talked about earlier.

“I think Futian will be able to take the lead this time.”

Through the bronze mirror, he had seen all kinds of gorgeous appearances of those cultivators.

However, in Xiao Changtian’s eyes, those were all flashy things. In the online novels he had read in his previous life, these were all cannon fodder.

Coupled with what Huo Ling 'er had said previously, now that he thought about it, those online novels in his previous life did make sense..
