Emelia nodded, sobbing quietly.

She would not get anything if she stayed.

She realized it was hard to deal with Sophia now.

Sophia withdrew her gaze with disdain and looked at the producer politely.

“Sorry to spoil your mood. I’ll make it up to you. How about you get changed first?”

The producer nodded and looked at Pierce in fear.

Pierce pressed his lips. He hung up after calling someone to pick Emelia up. Then he looked back at the producer with deep eyes .

“I’ll find the truth out.”

As soon as he left, the producer was relieved and couldn’t help complaining.

“Who sent him here? Emelia is such a drama queen. I’ve worked for so many years. No one framed me like that!”

Sophia sneered.

She was impressed by Emelia, who was able to make Pierce trust her all the time. She really knew how to manipulate him.

The dinner party ended in this case.

Sophia and Aylen sent them away.

As they walked out of the elevator, Sophia's high heels were stuck. Aylen supported her subconsciously and squatted to help her out.

Sophia was relieved and smiled.

"Thank you, Aylen."

Aylen was stunned by her smile. He lowered his head shyly.

"My pleasure."

Pierce saw everything, which made his face dark.

The next second, he strode over.

His tall figure suddenly appeared, startling Sophia.

Seeing Pierce's face, Sophia frowned warily.

"Mr. Clement, I thought you had left."

It was so late. How could he bear to let Emelia go home alone?

Pierce glanced at Aylen hostilely. His eyes were cold.

"Kylan, and then this man. How many men do you have by your side?"

Chad said that she chatted and laughed with a man. Aylen must be that man.

His anger came out of nowhere.

He had explained about the misunderstandings. Why didn't she forgive him?

Sophia's face darkened. Her pure eyes were cold.

“Pierce, do you need me to remind you of our divorce? It has nothing to do with you no matter how many men I have by my side!”

Her mentioning their divorce made Pierce’s face gloomy.

Thinking of how he was forced to sign his name on the divorce agreement, he felt suffocated.

His eyes became dim. Gritting his teeth, he took a step forward.

“Don’t go too far. We haven’t announced our divorce yet. You’re now betraying me in this case!”

Sophia looked at him, feeling ridiculous.

He got the cheek to say that!

The truth was he betrayed her. But he blamed her!

Sophia thought, “Is he an idiot?”

She couldn’t help rolling her eyes and glanced at Aylen.

“Let’s go.”

Aylen nodded slightly. Just as he was about to help her carry the handbag, he felt a strong punch before he reached Sophia’s bag.

Seeing how close they were, Pierce was enraged for some reason and thus pulled Aylen to give him a punch in his face.

Aylen had blood at the corner of his mouth. He looked at Pierce in shock.

Pierce loosened his sleeves slowly with a strong cold vibe. He looked down at Aylen, who seemed close to Sophia. His anger didn't fade away at all.

“Pierce, are you crazy?”

Sophia stood before Aylen with a cold face. Seeing that Pierce walked over gradually, she raised her head to slap him.

Her hand felt numb.

It turned Pierce's face dark. There was an obvious mark on his face.

Pierce stared at her with deep and dark eyes in which a touch of cold loomed.

“Sophia...”

Pierce was also shocked that he would attack an insignificant man in public.

It never happened before.

Pierce was confused as to why he would lose control.

But Pierce couldn't control his anger and cold attitude.

Sophia actually slapped him for that man!

Sophia pulled Aylen up and pressed her lips apologetically.

“Wait for me outside.”

Aylen glanced at Pierce, nodded, and left.

He couldn't persuade Pierce to apologize to him. It was impossible.

Sophia and Pierce confronted each other. An argument was about to Occur.

Pierce's expression was more complicated and gloomier.

"I don't know why I would fall for you. Pierce, one should never appear in front of his ex. You understand?"

She expressed all her feelings.

"Please marry Emelia as soon as possible and stay away from me. I feel disgusted to look at you."

Pierce's face was pale. His face tensed up as he looked at her with dark eyes.

"You hate me, right?"

"Yes." She didn't hide her hatred for him.

He took a step forward, staring at her. He observed her expression and said bluntly.

"You love me. Admit it. You're just jealous. You want to attract my attention in this way. You want to annoy me by fooling around with these men.

"I've explained everything before. I can give you a chance to come back to me.

“As for Emelia, if you’re so jealous, I’ll send her away soon. What else do you want?”

He hid his anger and stared at her, hoping that his words would move her.

Sophia sneered, surprised by his shameless words.

He said she was jealous!

It seemed that he wanted to keep her and Emelia by his side.

He felt no conflicts would be there as long as Sophia and Emelia didn’t meet. How ridiculous!

Sophia didn’t know why she would fall in love with him.

She didn’t want to go back to the old days. It was disgusting.

Their marriage made her suffer a lot.

Sophia took a deep breath. Her calm voice was cold. Strong hatred filled her eyes.

“I won’t be happy unless you two go to hell.”

Someone needed to pay the price for the death of her baby.

16,000 dollars couldn’t compare to her baby’s life.

Pierce’s eyes shrank greatly. His heart twisted as if he had been engulfed by her hatred.

He felt his blood spoiled. Then he suppressed his anger.

He tensed up, clutching his fists.

In the face of her, he didn’t know how to explain.

He saw the hatred in her eyes and pressed his lips.

His eyes dimmed.

She might be so mad that she cursed him. But she would bear a grudge against him because of the lost baby.

She used to love him. But now, she wouldn't forgive him within a short time.

Sophia took a disdainful look at Pierce. Then, she turned around, walked past him, and left.

Sophia thought, "How could I actually fall in love with Pierce?"

"I was so stupid."

Aylen was standing beside the car and waiting. Seeing Sophia, he immediately opened the rear door.

"Ms. Cruise..."

Sophia took a look at Aylen's face. Aylen had bruises and blood around his mouth. Sophia bent and got into the car.

In the car.

After a pause, Sophia said, "Aylen, you can take a day off tomorrow. Go to the hospital and see a doctor. I'll pay for the medical bills."

Aylen smiled. There was no one else, so they were casual.

“Ms. Cruise, don’t worry about me. I’m fine. I’ll apply ice, and it won’t be so swollen tomorrow.

“I was too careless. Mr. Cruise told me to keep Mr. Clement away from you. I’ll pay more attention.”

Sophia raised a smile. Hearing what Aylene said, she was relieved.

However, the next day, public opinion online became negative and strong again.

“Emelia was oppressed by the unspoken rules of showbiz and almost got hurt!”

“She just joined the company, while the company made her drink with a man. Do the showbiz newcomers have no dignity?”

“Eagle Entertainment has always been oppressing the newcomers!”

There were a lot of similar comments.

In the picture that was posted online, Emelia angrily poured wine on the film producer.

The producer looked disgusting, while Emelia looked brave.

The comments were violent. People criticized the unspoken rules of showbiz. They felt sorry for Emelia and supported her, thinking that she was brave enough to break the rules.

Eagle Entertainment was criticized, and it became a trending topic.

Eagle Entertainment’s stock price was falling. Sophia got a lot of calls.

Aylene called Sophia.

“Ms. Cruise, I’m downstairs. The reporters were gathering at Mr. Brant’s door. He had a heart attack in anger and was sent to the hospital. The company is in a mess now.”

Sophia frowned. “I see. I’ll come over right now.”

Sophia changed her clothes simply and went downstairs with her purse.

Aylen looked upset. In the car, he reported to Sophia.

“I have asked the platform to cancel the posts. But the news is getting more and more attention. Canceling the posts doesn't work.”

Sophia pressed her lips.

“What did the producer and his team say?”

“They are more anxious and don't know how to explain it. The producer closed his comment area. He wants us to clarify it.”

After a short pause, Aylen continued, “By the way, I found out who exposed the picture.”

Sophia pursed her lips and frowned.

“Emelia did it, didn't she?”

Aylen nodded. “She put a mobile phone in the private room in advance and took the picture secretly.”

Sophia raised her eyes, a little surprised.

“Is it possible that someone else helped her do that?”

After all, there were a lot of people at the scene.

Aylen smiled, took out a spare phone from his chest pocket, handed it to Sophia, and reported honestly.

“Ms. Cruise, it was your first business party yesterday, so I was very careful.”

Sophia was a little shocked. She took over the phone and watched the

She looked at Aylen and gave him a thumbs-up.

“Aylen, you are a genius.”

With a red face, Aylen touched his head shyly.

“I don’t know how to tell people this. After all, I filmed it secretly.”

Sophia grinned, “I’ll figure out a way.”

Aylen suddenly remembered something and immediately said.

“By the way, the Clement Group is controlling public opinion.”

Just as Aylen finished his words, Sophia’s phone rang.

It was a familiar number.

Pierce called.

Sophia didn’t answer the phone. She rejected it directly.

However, her phone kept ringing.

Sophia put Pierce’s number on the blacklist directly. But not long after that, Chad called her.

Sophia paused. Among Pierce’s friends, Chad was the one close to Sophia.

Sophia answered Chad’s call, but she heard Pierce’s hoarse voice.

“Sophia, don’t respond to the comments online yet. I’ll solve the problem.”

“Stop pretending. You know you are the bad guy.”

After a few seconds of silence, Pierce said, “My mother did that. I have. nothing to do with it.”

Pierce explained and wanted Sophia to know that he was innocent.

Sophia chuckled and then hung up.

It didn't matter who did that.

Chad looked at Pierce's sulky face and complained.

“Pierce, you are putting me in trouble too. What if Sophia doesn't answer my call anymore?”

Pierce glanced at Chad coldly and threw the phone back.

He was angry that Sophia picked up Chad's call.

Eagle Entertainment was overwhelmed by the comments online.

But Sophia didn't let people post the video quickly.

She was waiting for a chance. When her enemies thought they were about to win and people all defended them, it would be the best time for Sophia to fight back.

So, even though the company received a lot of calls, Eagle Entertainment's headquarters did nothing as if it was no big deal.

At noon.

Sandra invited Sophia to lunch.

They went to the restaurant they usually went to.

“I went to your home, but your parents said you live outside. So, I came to your company.”

“Were they worried?”

Sandra said with a smile, “They trust you a lot. They didn’t say a lot and just asked me to take you to a nice meal.”

Sophia was relieved. They went into the restaurant arm in arm. There were few people. Sophia and Sandra chose a table beside the window.

Sandra ordered food quickly. When she and Sophia were waiting, they heard a baby babbling at the door.

They turned around and saw Emelia come in with Pierce’s mother, Ava. Emelia and Ava pushed a baby carriage. Luke, who looked like Pierce a lot, was sitting in it.

Emelia and Ava looked very intimate.

Sandra recognized them immediately. She cursed in a low voice.

“Damn! What a bad day. Now I have lost my appetite.”

Sophia withdrew her gaze and lifted an eyebrow casually.

“Just pretend they are not here.”

Sophia said that.

Then immediately, Emelia saw Sophia. She held Ava’s arm and spoke in a pathetic way

“Ava, isn’t it Ms. Cruise? What a small world. I didn’t expect to meet

Seeing Sophia, Ava immediately became unhappy as if she had seen some trash.

“She took my son’s money to eat at such an upscale restaurant and embarrassed the Clement family online . What a bitch.”

Sophia paused. Opposite her, Sandra couldn’t contain her anger and stood up.

“You old vixen, who took your son’s money? Your son cheated and got an illegitimate kid. He humiliated your family. How dare you blame Sophia for that?”

The silence in the restaurant was broken.

Ava’s face looked funny. She was used to people flattering her and wouldn’t give in.

“She was too useless to keep her husband. It was shameless that she threatened my son to marry her. And after three years, she still couldn’t be pregnant. How dare she show up?”

“You really show me what a vixen looks like. Sophia, what have you gone through in the past three years?”

Sophia wanted to ignore Emelia and Ava, but they did make her lose her appetite.

With a cold smile, Sophia stood up. She took a glance at Emelia and Ava, walking over slowly.

“Mrs. Clement, you disdain my family. But when you slept with Mr. Clement and got pregnant with his child, you were just his secretary, and Mr. Clement was still married. So, I guess women who marry into the Clement family have to be such people. And I’m not like you.”

After Sophia finished talking, Ava’s face immediately turned pale, and Ava shivered in a rage.

People around were whispering and gossiping. It was big and shocking news.

Back then, when Sophia insisted on marrying Pierce, the Cruise family did a thorough survey on the Clement family.

Ava's disgusting past was the biggest reason why Sophia's parents didn't want her to marry Pierce.

Standing aside and hearing it all, Sandra directly snorted.

"No wonder that Mrs. Clement likes Ms. Wilson. They were both mistresses. Of course, they are fond of each other."

Ava's humiliating past was exposed in public.

Ava was so angry that she opened her eyes wide. Her face was pale and looked ugly. Ava pointed at Sophia with her finger and wanted to kill Sophia.

"You bitch!"

Ava wanted to slap Sophia, but Sophia suddenly grabbed her wrist and pushed her back coldly.

Ava couldn't stand steadily and stepped back a little. She almost tripped over the carpet and fell to the floor.

Ava glared at Sophia in shock, who used to be humble. She felt like she didn't know Sophia now.

Sophia walked over, stood there aloofly, and looked indifferent.

"Mrs. Clement, keep your tricks. Use them against Ms. Wilson. If you want to insult me, you will pay, and you will regret it."

Sophia glanced at Emelia. Emelia panicked and stepped back in fear. She held her son.

Sophia even dared to fight with Ava. Emelia didn't want to be beaten.

After Sophia and Sandra left, Emelia went to help Ava.

“Ava, are you all right?”

Ava recalled Sophia’s words. She gritted her teeth and gave Emelia a slap.

It was a very hard slap.

Ava certainly disdained Emelia. If it weren’t for her grandson, she didn’t even want to look at Emelia.

Ava wanted her daughter-in-law to be pure and from a good family.

Emelia bit her lower lip and nodded sadly. She spoke tamely.

“Don’t worry. I won’t tell anybody.”

Ava gnashed her teeth and took out her phone. Of course, she was humiliated and wouldn’t let it go easily.

At night.

Fewer people were criticizing the hidden rules in showbiz. Then, another piece of news was getting people’s attention.

The news was about Pierce’s wife cheating on him. Sophia’s name was actually exposed.

“Pierce’s wife cheated on him“, “Sophia is in charge of Eagle Entertainment and the planner of the drinking affair”...

There was a picture of Sophia attending the party arm-in-arm with Kylan.

Because of Kylan’s power, the Clement family covered his face.

But Sophia's face was/exposed directly.

Before, people accused Sophia of having a wild private life before getting married. Now, she was accused of cheating on her husband.

11:16

Chapter 18 Both Mistresses

It seemed that they wanted to ruin Sophia.

When Sophia was lost in thought, Kylan called. She sounded furious and serious.

"Did you see the picture online? I'll let people deal with it and reveal your identity. They will keep their smelly mouths shut."

Sophia wasn't very angry. She scolded Ava today. Ava was petty and mean. She certainly would do something.

Sophia knew that the news was probably made by Ava.

She chuckled and said in a light tone.

"Kylan, don't get involved. I'll solve the problem. My identity must be a secret. I don't want the Cruise family to be mentioned with those people. I will feel humiliated."

Kylan found Sophia's words reasonable, so he agreed.

"If you need help, tell me. I'll unconditionally support you."

"Thank you, my dear brother."

Sophia hung up.

Then, Sophia called one person in. It was one of the female interns, Monica Howe.

. Monica was younger and had a supple mind.

After Sophia told her what to do, Monica said yes immediately.

"I must help. I'm worried about the company. With the video, people will know the truth. Emelia is so evil. She lied and used public opinion to bully the company."

11:16

Chapter 18 Both Mistresses

Sophia smiled, "Don't worry. The minute you post the video, the company will respond immediately. There is no need to say more."

Sophia and Monica reached a consensus. Then, Monica could leave.

It was already dark at seven to fifty in the evening.

Monica used her personal account to post a video that was ten minutes long, celebrating that she entered the company.

The title of the video is: "First day at work, are there dirty hidden rules?"

As expected, the video caused a stir.

In the video, Emelia sat the furthest from the producer. She acted weirdly and kept pretending.

However, the other four interns chatted and laughed in a decent way.

The producer and other employees told them things to notice on the show. The atmosphere was relaxing and harmonious.

Monica and another girl toasted politely with their orange juice. They gave Emelia a look, gesturing for her to join them. Emelia's drink was also orange juice.

However, Emelia suddenly went crazy. She stood up and snapped.

"I'm not here to drink with you! Why do I have to drink wine? Sophia set me up on purpose..."

Other people looked at Emelia in shock. Emelia walked to the producer, picked up the wine in front of him, and directly poured it onto his head.

The producer jumped up in disbelief and started yelling.

map 10 Alises

The video stopped.

People stopped cursing Eagle Entertainment.

Instead, they found Emelia's account and questioned her.

"What's wrong with you? Are you crazy or an egoist? Did you intentionally make people defend you and curse other people?"

"The producer and Eagle Entertainment did nothing. Without the video, how could they prove their innocence and keep working in showbiz? Your weakness doesn't make you the right."

"Eagle Entertainment is a great company. It's okay that girls drink orange juice."

"You are Pierce's mistress, aren't you? You framed Sophia because you wanted to marry Pierce. Shame on you!"

"What a scene! If there were really dirty hidden rules, you must be the first one using them!"

Very soon, public opinion reversed.

And Sophia didn't stop. She directly took a picture of her divorce decree and posted it online.

"Already divorced, I'm working intently now."

The announcement directly proved that people who accused her of cheating were wrong.

But that wasn't enough.

The official account of Eagle Entertainment posted a message.

Chapter 18 Both Mistresses

"We refuse all dirty hidden rules and care about office ladies.

"If women see every male partner as a bad person, how can they get promoted at work?"

Chapter 19 Suddenly III

Eagle Entertainment's announcement made it a big deal.

The more "Emelia" there were, and less "Sophia" there would be.

The curses during the day suddenly all disappeared.

People who had felt sorry for Emelia were crying foul for Sophia.

Problems that had been deliberately hidden were exposed.

Office ladies' trouble and sadness were shown.

Big celebrities in Eagle Entertainment also made announcements one by one.

They said that the company protected its employees very well, that they went to parties with companions, and that there were no hidden rules.

It wasn't a peaceful night.

Emelia had trouble sleeping.

People on the Internet started digging into her past. Emelia panicked.

She called Pierce a thousand times but got no response.

Emelia looked at her kid, who was sleeping soundly on the bed. She gritted her teeth, directly took off Luke's clothes, and put him on the balcony.

Three o'clock in the morning.

Pierce got a call from the hospital and heard that Luke had a high fever.

Pierce frowned and came with Devan anyway.

He didn't expect public opinion during the daytime would reverse.

When

Sophia was in trouble, Pierce planned to let Emelia explain it to the public when people calmed down. It would take at least two days.

However, Sophia fought back in a perfect way.

Pierce felt complicated. He was both depressed and impressed.

Once again, Sophia surprised him.

But with Emelia, Pierce was very disappointed.

That night, when Emelia called him for help, Pierce actually believed that she was in danger.

But it turned out to be a play made by Emelia.

So, the whole day, Pierce didn't pick up Emelia's calls.

The Clement Group held shares in the private hospital. Getting a call at midnight, Pierce came.

Outside the ward.

Pierce saw Emelia. Emelia wore pajamas. Her hair was messy. Because of all the tears, her eyes were red and swollen. Emelia sat in the chair like a hopeless mess, looked sad and sorry, and was sobbing.

Her lonely and pathetic look made her look like a tender mother instead of a bitch.

There was a complicated look in Pierce's eyes, but Pierce walked over anyway.

Chapter 19 Suddenly III

Emelia raised her head. When she saw Pierce, more tears rolled down her face. Emelia reached out to hold Pierce's waist tight.

It was like she finally had someone to rely on. Emelia couldn't help but sob.

"Darion asked me to take care of the kid before he died. But I didn't do it well. I'm so sorry. If anything happens to Luke, how can I live?"

Hearing Darion's name, Pierce frowned solemnly. He patted Emelia's shoulder and said in a deep voice.

"Luke will be fine. Don't worry."

When Pierce was speaking, the doctor came out.

"Mr. Clement, Mr. Luke got a sudden high fever. He was sent over too late. There are symptoms of inflammation in his lungs now. After the rescue, his condition is still not stable. We need to wait and see if the fever will be gone tomorrow."

Pierce looked serious. The doctor sighed.

"The kid suddenly got ill. The physical check a few days ago showed that he was very healthy."

“This is odd. If the fever isn’t gone tomorrow, there may be other symptoms, and both his lungs and brain will be affected. By then, it will be a serious problem.”

Emelia shivered. Then, her body became stiff. Emelia raised her pale face, tears falling down.

“Pierce, save Luke. Please...”

With a worried face, Pierce looked at the doctor.

15:52

“Save him at any cost.”

The doctor knew it was a serious matter. After all, Luke was the Clement family’s first grandkid. The doctor must be careful.

After the doctor left, Devan went to go through the formalities.

Pierce looked at Emelia with his deep eyes.

Emelia pressed her lips, sobbing.

“Luke started to have a high fever in the afternoon. I called you, but you didn’t answer. People online were scolding me. I was afraid that if people saw me with Luke, Luke might get hurt. Thus, I didn’t dare to take him to the hospital.”

The look on Pierce’s face was cool. His voice was deep and aloof.

“Did you watch the video?”

Hearing that, Emelia knew that Pierce suspected her.

Emelia cried sadly, looking very pathetic.

“You know Sophia hates me a lot. I didn’t want to drink it because I thought they put medicine in it. I was afraid...”

Hearing that, Pierce found it ridiculous.

He knew that Sophia wouldn’t play such a dirty trick against Emelia.

After a while of silence, Pierce frowned and said in a deep voice.

“I told you that I wanted you to go abroad. Why did you ask my mother to help you enter Eagle Entertainment?”

Emelia paused. Then, she looked at Pierce with red eyes.

“What if I tell you that I don’t want to leave you?”

Pierce squinted his eyes, in which there were mixed emotions. But there was most indifference.

“You should know that I take care of you and Luke because of my brother, Darion.”

Darion was Pierce’s brother. But no one knew that he was a member of the Clement family.

Because Darion was born after Kamden divorced his first wife, Gina Clement.

Gina left with Darion. It was too late when Kamden regretted divorcing her. Luckily, Ava gave birth to Pierce the next year.

Darion and Pierce met at a foreign university and got on well with each other.

Three years ago, Emelia went abroad and quickly started dating Darion. The next year, Luke was born.

Sadly, Darion died in an explosion accident.

To take care of Emelia and Luke, Pierce brought them back to the country and told people that Luke was his illegitimate son.

He would tell people who Luke really was because Ava wouldn’t agree.

The past flashed through Pierce’s mind. There was a sad look in his eyes.

When Emelia heard what Pierce said, her body was a little stiff. But Emelia forced a smile.

getting into danger abroad.

“Pierce, can I leave after Luke grows up a bit?”

Emelia looked at Pierce expectantly with her watery eyes, begging him.

Thinking of his dead brother, Pierce couldn't say no,

It was on the news the next day that Pierce and Emelia took Luke to the hospital.

But it was withdrawn soon.

It was probably because Pierce didn't want people to discuss Luke a lot. So, he reacted fast and decisively.

Eagle Entertainment's crisis was over.

Kylan asked Sophia to meet an important client with him.

The Cruise Group took the meeting very seriously, so it must be a big shot.

Sophia knew it would be a good chance to learn, so she didn't refuse.

It was solemn in the meeting room.

Sophia attended it as an employee of the Cruise Group.

The mysterious and noble client arrived. He came in, surrounded by a crowd. Sophia paused slightly and was a little confused.

The man had deep and delicate features. He was tall and looked like a restrained gentle man. The look in his eyes was cool and deep. People couldn't see him through.

Chapter 19 Suddenly !!!

The man seemed to be mixed-blood.

But Sophia found his eyebrows and eyes familiar.

He looked a little like Pierce.

The man came in. His every movement was domineering and noble.

The man looked at Sophia with his deep eyes and then nodded slightly.

The others didn't notice the detail.

Sophia paused slightly and then immediately looked down to read the background information about that man.

The Woodward Group was pretty powerful abroad. Its background was mysterious. Derick Woodward, who just came to the throne of the Woodward Group, was tough and decisive. He made it through the fierce internal fight of the group and became the president.

The Cruise Group paid a lot of attention to their cooperation this time. Derick coming in person meant that the Woodward Group also took it seriously. The cooperation was imperative.

Sophia just listened silently. The depth and breadth of the project they talked about were astounding and exciting.

The meeting lasted an hour.

Kylan and Derick reached a tentative agreement. Their conversation was quite relaxing.

After the meeting, most people left. Kylan invited Derick to his office. Derick agreed gladly.

Kylan looked back at his sister and said to her.

“Mr. Woodward, this is my sister, Sophia.”

“I know. You have told me, Ms. Cruise. I recognized your sister in the crowd immediately. She was the most eye-catching one:”

Derick raised a smile and looked less cold. He could be both strict and playful. The next second, Derick suddenly approached Sophia.

Smelling a cool fragrance from Derick, Sophia subconsciously looked Derick reached out. His eyes were deep.

“It’s very nice to meet you, Ms. Cruise.”

Sophia shook hands with Derick gently and then let go.

Somehow, she found Derick mysterious. Sophia couldn’t tell whether he was dangerous or something else.

“Eagle Entertainment is the biggest entertainment company in the country. I have always wanted to invest in showbiz. I’d like to talk with you when there is time, Ms. Cruise. Is it okay?”

Sophia thought for a second. She replied politely and decently with a smile.

“Thank you. It will be our honor to cooperate with you.”

When Derick heard the answer, his eyes seemed to be smiling.

But it disappeared so soon.

Derick turned around and had a small talk with Kylan. Then, his assistant urged him to attend the meeting.

After Derick left, Kylan and Sophia were left in the office alone.

Sophia asked curiously.

“Kylan, did you notice that he looks like...”

Kylan knew that Sophia would ask about that. That was why he let her stay.

“Derick’s aunt is Pierce’s father’s first wife, Gina. It isn’t strange that Derick and Pierce look alike.”

Sophia was slightly shocked. Then, she understood and nodded.

Now it all made sense because Derick and Pierce were cousins.

“Gina and Pierce’s father got divorced in an ugly way, so Derick and the Clement family basically don’t cooperate.

“The project with our company isn’t the only reason why Derick came to Zennland. He plans to make some big moves here. We are partners with him, but we also need to be cautious.”

Kylan said it briefly. Sophia knew what he meant. She nodded.

After leaving the Cruise Group, Sophia planned to drive to Eagle Entertainment.

However, on the way, there was a car accident. And it was Derick sitting in the cool luxurious car.

After a few seconds of hesitation, Sophia came over to ask.

“Mr. Woodward, do you need any help?”

Hearing that, the driver in the front was very excited.

“Miss, Mr. Woodward’s forehead got hurt. Can you take him to the hospital?”

Before the driver finished speaking, Derick got out of the car. He was in black, which made him super cool and noble. His eyes were calm and deep. There was a small bruise on his forehead.

That was all.

Derick nodded slightly. He seemed to be polite and aloof, but that might not be true.

“Thank you, Ms. Cruise.”

Sophia nodded and led him to her car.

Sophia drove. Derick didn’t sit in the back. Instead, he sat beside Sophia.

They were so close that Sophia could smell a cool and profound fragrance from Derick. Sophia felt a little uncomfortable.

There was a while of silence.

Derick turned his head to look at Sophia. With a small smile, he looked more casual and friendly.

“Ms. Cruise, somehow, I find you so friendly when I see you. This little accident let us meet. How about we eat together later? Dinner is on me.”

Sophia slightly lifted an eyebrow and answered casually with a smile.

“Mr. Woodward, we are partners. I should help you. Don’t mention it.”

Derick knew it was a refusal. He thoughtfully didn’t keep inviting Sophia.

They arrived at the hospital.

Sophia helped Derick find a doctor. It was quiet in the VIP area.

Sophia went out to call Kylan.

The moment she hung up, she heard someone in high heels approaching her.

Sophia turned around and saw Emelia. Emelia looked gorgeous, but her eyes were a little swollen.

She looked at Sophia, and her eyes turned red. Emelia was on the edge of losing her temper.

“What are you doing here? Because you let people curse me online, my son is sick now !

“Sophia, you are a bitch. If anything happens to Luke, Pierce won’t let go of you. You made my son sick!”

Emelia came forward excitedly, grabbed Sophia’s clothes, and wouldn’t let go.

“Go away.”

Sophia frowned. With a serious and cold face, she pushed Emelia away.

Sophia felt disgusted when Emelia touched her.

But the next second, Emelia suddenly got on her knees and wailed.

“Pierce please let go of me, Sophia. Can you make a clarification on the Internet and tell people they are wrong? I’m sorry. But my son is innocent...”

Emelia’s attitude changed instantly. Sophia immediately knew why.

She heard footsteps from behind. Sophia turned around and saw Pierce and Devan. Pierce looked unhappy, and Devan opened his eyes wide.

When Emelia wanted to grab Sophia’s clothes and take her next move, Sophia suddenly bent, grabbed Emelia’s hair and pulled her head back.

Emelia felt a great pain in her scalp. Her fake crying became miserable screaming.

Emelia tilted her head back. There was fear in her eyes. Emelia looked at Pierce, hoping that he could save her.

But Sophia didn’t let go of Emelia’s hair. She directly bumped Emelia’s head onto the wall all aside.

With a heavy thud, Emelia suddenly stopped screaming and shivered.

It all happened in three seconds.

Sophia finally let go of Emelia’s hair. She patted her hands, feeling sick. With ice in her eyes, Sophia raised a dangerous smile.

“Did you think that I would let you finish your play? Emelia, be smart so that maybe you can live longer.”

Emelia played little tricks, trying to let Pierce feel sorry for her.

She should be truly miserable.

Sophia didn’t mind helping her.

Emelia finally recovered from the great pain. She sat on the ground in a mess, looked at Pierce in a pathetic way, and complained.

“I was just begging Sophia to forgive me, I am really sorry...”

Pierce was indifferent. There were no emotions in his eyes.

Before Emelia finished her words, someone in the room behind them suddenly let out a sneer.

“Look at me. It’s done...”
