

Beg You All 115

Chapter 115: Someone Wants to Join

After chatting for a while, Sun Nana thought of something when class was about to start. She said, "Oh, Xiaochun, bring your boyfriend for lunch. Let's have dinner together."

"It might not work at noon." Bai Xiaochun shook her head and said, "He's going to work at noon."

"Ah?" Sun Nana was speechless. "He still has to work at noon?"

"Yes, he likes to live like this." Bai Xiaochun smiled and said, "So, let's go in the afternoon. How about this? I'll call him in the afternoon, and we can eat together."

"No problem." Sun Nana smiled brightly and said, "Then let's meet in the afternoon."

"Well, I'll make an appointment."

"It's almost time for class, so I'll return to my seat. Bye."

"Bye-bye."

Watching Sun Nana return to her seat, Bai Xiaochun bit her lips and smiled, then opened the textbook in front of her.

.....

Time passed in a flash. After class ended at noon, Chu Tian came directly to the small office of the Milk Tea Shop.

At this time, in the office, Li Niannian had already bought the rice.

One serving of beef with sauce, one serving of fried mutton, fish soup, and fried vegetables.

All in large portions.

"Where's the baby?"

Seeing Chu Tian come in, Li Niannian smiled as she inserted a straw into the Milk Teacup and handed it to him.

"At school." Chu Tian smiled, took it, took a sip, and said, "She ate with her classmates at noon and went back to the dormitory for the lunch break, it was too hot at noon, so I didn't let her out."

"There's nothing to eat at school." Li Niannian said. "Next time, I'll bring my big baby out. It's not like I can't take my lunch break here. This bed is big enough for the two of you to sleep together. It's not like you can't sleep. It's air-conditioned too. It's not hot."

"She's mainly with her classmates." Chu Tian sat down and said, "Classmates are very close. If they weren't together, she wouldn't have any friends."

"What about you?" Li Niannian said. "I've never seen you and your classmates before."

"Don't mention it." Chu Tian said with a bitter smile, "Sister Nian, do you know how strong and weak our nursing department is? There are only two men in our class. We can't compete, so why don't I play with a group of women? By then, everyone will be someone else's wife."

Chu Tian said. Li Niannian laughed with a poof and said, "Also, it's quite boring when there are fewer boys."

"Of course not." Chu Tian said, "I can't talk about games, women, or sports, but I can talk about gossip about the Li family. I feel like I'm about to turn into a bitch."

Li Niannian smiled and said, "Alright, alright. Let's eat quickly. By the way, did I affect you two last night?"

"No." Chu Tian said, "It was just a bit too much. I almost took Xiao Bai to sleep in your room. Sister Nian, you're not being too polite, are you? It's my fault that I brought her back."

"It's my fault." Li Niannian smiled and said, "Baby wants to sleep with me. What can I do? The main reason is that you're bad, too. You're still messing with her in the middle of the night. It's almost midnight. I even heard the baby gargle in the bathroom."

"Hey....." Chu Tian laughed and said, "She's too thin. She's less than 100 pounds. Let her eat some midnight snacks and make up for it."

Li Niannian laughed and kicked Chu Tian under the table, saying, "How disgusting."

"By the way, Young Master." Li Niannian ate a piece of beef in sauce and continued, "Let me ask you something."

"Loved it. "

"I love your size." Li Nianni kicked Chu Tian again and laughed, "That's important. You're good. By the way, do you plan to develop a chain of shops?"

Franchise chain?

Chu Tian frowned slightly and said, "What's wrong, Sister Nian?"

"There was a man in the shop today." Li Niannian said, "I saw through it. He's quite rich. He should be a boss with a chauffeur. He was in a Mercedes Maybach, a standard boss's car."

"Later, he came to me to talk. He said he wanted to join our White Milk Tea Shop, which was quite generous. Others said the franchise fee at will, regardless of millions, tens of millions, others are recognized, some others said, as long as the franchise fee does not exceed 20 million, others will join us."

"But there is a premise, we must supply people with enough goods, can't cut off people's goods, the shop's hygiene standards and all that, all would listen to us, what standards we have for the franchise, people over there will follow the standards, quite sincere."

"How could it be?" Chu Tian said. "How could I supply him with this quantity of goods? I'm not a fool. Let's not talk about big cities like Beijing, Shanghai, and Guangzhou. Even if it's Haicheng, we have a big White Milk Tea Shop in the center of Haicheng. How many cups do we have to sell all day?"

"Haicheng has a population of nearly 24 million. Suppose he opens a large shop in the city's center and makes thirty or forty milk tea production lines. He would sell thirty or forty million cups a day. It's crazy to meet their demand."

"If he is more ruthless and gets a milk tea production line, then I won't have to do anything else all day. Just supply him."

Li Niannian smiled and said, "Well, young master. You understand the prospects of your milk tea, Ah."

"Sister Nian, I'm not stupid." Chu Tian laughed, "What kind of queue is this? I can't even see it, huh?"

"We can discuss these later stages and supply them in limited quantities." Li Niannian said, "It's mainly you. Do you have any plans?"

"Let's talk about it later." Chu Tian said, "I don't want to toss and turn these days. There are plenty of opportunities to make money in the future."

"That's fine, as you wish." Li Niannian smiled and picked up a piece of mutton for Chu Tian, saying, "As long as you're happy, it's good. Eat some mutton. Mutton is nourishing, so it'll give you a good tonic."
