Chapter 116: Reversing the Plot

Six in the afternoon!

In Haicheng, a cab stopped in front of a mid-to-high-class level western restaurant.

When the door opened, Chu Tian, Bai Xiaochun, and Sun Nana walked out of the car.

Bai Xiaochun and Sun Nana held hands and said, "Nana, why did you take us to such a good place? The three of us could find a random place to eat."

"Alright," Sun Nana held Bai Xiaochun's hand and said with a smile, "I have already booked it. Besides, it's my treat Today. What are you afraid of?"

"I'm not afraid," Bai Xiaochun said. "I just think it's too expensive."

"Is it expensive?" Sun Nana looked at Chu Tian and said, "Ask your boyfriend. Is this place expensive?"

"I've never been here." Chu Tian smiled and said, "Looking at the place, I feel it's okay. How about this? I'll treat you to Today's meal. Order whatever you want?"

"Hey, don't." Sun Nana said, "I've already agreed to treat this meal to me. Otherwise, I'll be in a hurry. Let's go in."

As she spoke, Sun Nana pulled Bai Xiaochun and walked in with Chu Tian.

In the dining room, in front of a table next to the corner, Chu Tian and the other two casually ordered some things, spending 2,800 yuan.

Taking advantage of the mealtime, Sun Nana looked at Bai Xiaochun and Chu Tian and said, "Today's meal, to be honest, there are a lot of apologies. Now that I think about it, the way I called the police yesterday was too reckless. This meal, take it as me apologizing to you. Do not take it to heart."

"Nana, why are you bringing this up again?" Bai Xiaochun replied, "I didn't take it to heart."

"Yeah, Nana." Chu Tian said, "Xiao Bai and I didn't take that matter to heart. It was just a small misunderstanding. You don't need to worry about it."

"That won't do." Sun Nana said, "You guys don't care, but I can't stand it in my heart. That's why I have to treat this meal. However, I still have to clarify that I misunderstood."

Chu Tian smiled and said, "I understand."

"No, you don't understand," said Sun Nana. "Chu Tian, listen to me first. I'll tell you the truth first."

With that said, Sun Nana paused for a moment and continued, "That was something that happened in our class when I was in the second year."

"Our class had a classmate, a male. His study result was especially good, his brain was good, and he played after class. We never saw him studying, but he was brilliant."

"According to his level, if everything went smoothly, the college entrance examination, which was a key to university, was not a problem for him."

"There's also a male student in our class with average academic results. However, the financial conditions are excellent. Mom and dad are both businessmen and quite rich."

"Originally, this rich classmate of ours didn't have any interactions with this good student. At most, he was just a classmate."

"But these two people both liked a girl from class two. While we were in class two."

"After a period, this girl and those good students were about to become a couple. They were in high school, and their study tasks were heavy."

Speaking of which, Sun Nana stopped drinking fresh watermelon juice as if she was trying to keep her in suspense.

Bai Xiaochun asked curiously, "Nana, what's the matter?"

Sun Nana swallowed the watermelon juice in her mouth and said, "This rich classmate paid the good student to go to his home to tutor him. I don't know the exact amount, but he did."

"At the time, we were all very puzzled. These two people are love rivals. Why are they still so close? But a few days later, something happened."

"This good student went to our rich classmate's house to make up for the time and stole a bracelet of about two million; people called the police, and the police found out as soon as they checked. He reported it to the police, and the police found out immediately."

"But the student who studied well refused to admit that it was stolen. He said it was not the rich classmate who gave it to him and said it was not worth it. He said that it was given to him by a rich classmate, not worth it."

"But the rich classmate did not admit it. He said he didn't give it to him. He said it was a fucking bracelet. It's worth over two million. No matter how worthless it was, there was no way he would give it to an outsider."

"Finally, because we were not old enough, that student, who was a good student, was given a major disciplinary mark. He gave a letter of apology, which is the equivalent of admitting that he stole. That's the equivalent of admitting that he was stealing."

"And then, our students, who are good learners, changed schools because they really can't stay. All the students are saying behind his back that he is a thief"

"During this year's summer vacation, my classmates and I were still talking about him. Some people knew about him. He studied so well but ended up floundering on the college entrance exam. In the end, he went to a technical school."

Bai Xiaochun looked at Sun Nana and said with a frown, "Did he steal it, or was it given to him?"

"False accusation." Chu Tian said, "How do you still not understand? It's not stealing, that was given to him on purpose, and he framed him for stealing. But the matter cannot be explained because, with everyone sticking to their guns, the bracelet is really in his hands. He could not clear it. Two million, that's not a small amount."

Bai Xiaochun looked at Chu Tian innocently and said, "Why, why is this rich man so bad?"

"Because of that female classmate." Chu Tian said, "You still don't understand. This way, this good classmate will be ruined, and that rich classmate will have a chance."

"Yes, that's it." Sun Nana said, "Later on, that female classmate got along well with this rich one. But, after less than a year, they broke up."

"Oh, I see." Only then did Bai Xiaochun suddenly realize and say, "It's all for the sake of competing with that female classmate."

"Yes." Sun Nana said, "So, I was anxious to call the police yesterday. I was worried that Chu Tian had met this kind of thing."

"Chu Tian, even if I don't say it, you know that Xiaochun is very popular with the boys at school, and many people want to chase her."

"I'm just worried that someone will use such a false accusation to frame you. If the false accusation succeeds, you will be finished. With the 19 million yuan necklace, you will be jailed. Xiaochun will not be able to be with you. When the time comes, someone else will drive her away."

"That's why I asked Xiaochun a few times, and Xiaochun had always been certain that it was only 1900 yuan."

"I thought about it. Someone was trying to mess with the two of you. That's why I did not have time to explain to Xiaochun before I called the police. If we call the police first, we can explain the reason behind the necklace."
