

Beg You All 119

Chapter 119: Li Sisi's Human Identification Technique

Half an hour later!

It was at 9 pm. Li Sisi returned to her room on the second floor of the bar.

"Where's the baby?"

Li Sisi looked around and saw that only Chu Tian was in the room. She couldn't help asking.

"She went to the White Milk Tea Shop next door to play with Sister Nian." Chu Tian stood in front of the wine rack and said, "Sisi, what kind of wine is this? I don't even know it."

"It's mostly some foreign wine." Li Sisi came over and said, "This bottle is whiskey, this bottle is champagne, and this bottle is brandy. They are all in the bar."

Chu Tian thought for a bit and said, "Sisi, this bar has a lot of wine. Last time, you only needed 1 million to prepare. Is that enough money?"

"It's not the total price." Li Sisi smiled and said, "Only pay part of the money. A million can be five or six million flowers after the wine is sold, then given to them at the end of the account. Who buys all ah, silly?"

Chu Tian nodded in understanding and continued, "Oh right, Sisi, is the bar full today?"

"It's full." Li Sisi said, "To be honest, I didn't think opening a bar would be so popular. Based on this situation, the income would be considered. I have predicted the current situation. The net profit of the bar should be around 5 million a month."

Oh!

5 million...

Chu Tian smiled and nodded.

Good.

"Are you regretting it now?" Li Sisi laughed, "Are you regretting giving me 10% of the shares?"

What?

Chu Tian looked at Li Sisi and smiled. "Sis, your words are a bit embarrassing. Don't mention 10% of 5 million, even if it is 100% of 5 million. Do you think I would care?"

"Giggle....."

Li Sisi giggled and said, "Oh, it's good to follow a rich Young Master. It's so beautiful."

Chu Tian smiled at Li Sisi and said, "That's right, sister, when did you know that I no longer have parents?"

In the beginning, Li Sisi had always thought that Chu Tian was some rich family's second generation. Moreover, Chu Tian had never explained it.

But just now, while talking about the difference between Chu Tian and Sun Nana's current boyfriend, Chu Tian realized Li Sisi already knew his situation.

"It's been many days." Li Sisi said, "When you bought the shop next door, I already knew. She told me about it. She went to your university forum to browse. She found many discussions about you on the forum and your family situation."

Oh!

Chu Tian nodded, looked at Li Sisi, and said with a smile, "Sister, this short cheongsam is really good-looking."

Li Sisi smiled and rolled her eyes. "Don't act rashly. Big baby might come back anytime."

"She can't come back. She played games with Sister Nian."

.....

It was half past ten at night!

In the bathroom on the bar's second floor, Li Sisi was looking at herself in the mirror. She reapplied lipstick, put on her makeup, and combed her messy hair. Finally, the cheongsam buttoned up and slightly sorted out the short cheongsam on his body. Li Sisi then opened the washroom door and walked out.

Looking at Chu Tian sitting on the sofa shaking the glass of red wine, Li Sisi smiled and rolled her eyes, saying: "stop?"

"Hey." Chu Tian laughed.

"Why are you laughing about it?" Li Sisi smiled and kicked Chu Tian. "I'll see how you can pass the big baby test tonight."

"Don't worry." Chu Tian took a sip of red wine and said with a smile, "Xiao Bai's supper will be enough."

"That's disgusting. Alright," Li Sisi smiled and said, "Don't stay in the room. It would be best if you don't make a fuss again later. Let's go down and see what kind of woman I'll teach you."

"Oh, are you serious? Do you have the ability?"

"Nonsense, how many years has Sis worked in the bar? Doesn't she have this much ability? Let's go."

Soon!

When Chu Tian and Li Sisi came down from upstairs, the atmosphere inside the bar was high.

Li Sisi took two cocktails from the rack behind the bar, opened them, and handed one to Chu Tian.

"Then, that girl over there dyed half of her yellow hair." Li Sisi glanced at the more conservative-looking girl next to the pillar and said, "She's waiting for the initiative to chat her up a bit. She'll agree tonight if she's not too stiff and her appearance is not too ugly."

Chu Tian looked over and frowned. "Sis, is it true? The clothes you see through aren't sexy. Is she that easy to flirt with?"

Li Sisi smiled and took a sip of the wine. "You'll know if you try," she said.

"Well, forget it." Chu Tian shook his head and said, "Although the makeup is not bad, the appearance and figure are average."

"Hey, sis, the one with long hair and sexy clothes is sitting there. Is she easy to flirt with?"

"She." Li Sisi shook her head and said, "She can't. She's here for high tonight. She's here for the bar. It's hard to flirt with."

"Well, what about that? The one with the belly button," said Chu Tian, "Is she also high?"

"You would have to spend money." Li Sisi said, "She is going bar hunting, sending a bag to send a set of cosmetics, and she can sleep with you for several days."

"Ah?" Chu Tian said in a speechless manner. "Sis, you can see this. Are you sure she is a student at our school?"

"I can't be wrong." Li Sisi smiled. "If you don't believe me, ask her. The feeling on her body is different. It has the smell of a female university student."

"Then what about that?" Chu Tian continued, "It's crazy, looking at the open one."

"She's one of us." Li Sisi said with a smile, "The bar staff, especially responsible for the atmosphere, driving everyone to him, called Xiao Chi."
