Chapter 128: Reversing Li Nian Nian

Hearing Li Sisi's words, Bai Xiaochun chuckled and said, "Sister Sisi, you don't know, right now, Sun Nana is too good. She's really like a good friend. Every day, she chats with me and plays with me. She even sends a private message to my boyfriend every day, asking for warmth. She's so sweet."

"Yeah, she is a good friend...."

Li Sisi smiled and curled her lips. "A good friend will send a private letter to your boyfriend every day and ask for warmth? How can this be called good? Is this woman a pure-hearted bitch? Waiting for her to poach your boyfriend? "Wait a minute, then turn around and she'll end your relationship with him."

"Hey, then she's overthinking things." Bai Xiaochun chuckled. "She does want to dig it out. It's a pity that she can't dig it out. She can not dig it out. Right? Right?"

"She can't dig it out." Chu Tian smiled and said, "For a crazy woman like her, who would want to get dug out?"

As he spoke, he sat down on the sofa and said, "Oh right, Sis Sisi, what time did you come back last night?"

"About 3:40." Li Sisi casually tied her hair with her hand, then peeled an orange and handed it to Chu Tian. "Anyway, it's exactly four o'clock when we pack up and go to bed."

Bai Xiaochun frowned and said, "Sis, you've only slept for six hours. You did not sleep well. You should sleep later."

"I won't be able to sleep for a while." With a smile, Li Sisi said. "Let's wait. We'll cook early then we'll eat together for lunch."

"Okay." Bai Xiaochun smiled. "I just wanted to sleep with Sisi."

As she spoke, Bai Xiaochun slipped into Li Sisi's bedroom and, surprised, said, "Wow, what a big bear."

"Big." Li Sisi smiled. "It's bigger than your boyfriend's. It's more than two meters. It's comfortable to sleep in your arms. Do you want to change?"

"Hey, I'm not changing." Bai Xiaochun chuckled. "This hooligan can sleep with me in his arms, but this big bear can't hug me. However, it's really big. It takes up more than half of the bed."

Time passed in a flash, and in the blink of an eye, it was eleven o'clock in the afternoon. In order to let Li Sisi take a nap and get some rest, Bai Xiaochun and Li Sisi started cooking at eleven o'clock even at twelve o'clock after dinner.

Then, Bai Xiaochun and Li Sisi went back to the bedroom to take a nap, leaving Chu Tian alone in the living room to watch TV.

In a small restaurant near Haicheng Medical University, Li Niannian was sitting with a man in a private room.

The man looked to be in his mid-thirties. He wore a pair of light sunglasses and a casual outfit.

The man poured a glass of water for Li Niannian and said, "Miss Li has a very high education background. She has a master's degree in management. Why is she willing to live in a Milk Tea Shop and become a small store manager? Isn't this a little too useless?"

Li Niannian smiled and said, "There's no such thing as small things. People have to face reality. It's fine as long as they have money."

The man nodded and said, "That's right. In today's society, they are materialistic. As long as you have money, you can earn everyone's respect. It's a little sad; it's so realistic."

Li Niannian nodded and said, "Who are you? Why are you looking for me?"

The man smiled and said, "It doesn't matter who I am. The important thing is, Miss Li, I can offer you a chance to make money."

"Oh?" Li Niannian frowned and said, "What do you mean?"

"Miss you are not very rich, right?" The man didn't reply directly and asked, "When you were young, the conditions at home were quite poor. Even after junior high school, your mom and dad were gone. All these years, your sister, Li Sisi, supported you to finish school, right?"

Li Niannian frowned again and said, "How do you know my situation very well?"

"I did some research." The man said, "Your sister is very nice to you. To have such a sister is really desirable. So, you should want to repay your sister, right?"

Li Niannian took a deep breath and said, "What are you trying to say?"

"A chance to make money." The man said, "Actually, working in a nightclub is very hard. You probably don't want to see your sister working in a nightclub, right?"

Li Niannian bit her lip and said, "Can you say something straight? I often notice you beating around the bush. What are you trying to say?"

"Alright, I'll just say it." As he spoke, the man took out a bank card from his pocket and said, "This is a bank card. There are 30 million in it. That's just a part of it. There are still 50 million left. 80 million."

80 million?

Li Niannian frowned and said, "Then what?"

"You are the manager of this store." The man said, "So, you're able to know the secret of White Milk Tea, right?"

"You're overthinking this." Li Niannian shook her head and said, "Only our boss knows the secret of White Milk Tea. That's why I have no access to the core secrets."

"That's enough." The man took out a small pinhole camera from his pocket and said, "Since you can enter, then all you have to do is secretly hide the camera..."

"If he doesn't find out, you can take it out and give it to me when he finishes distributing the goods. Then, the remaining 50 million will be automatically sent to this card."
