

Beg You All 129

Chapter 129: Forcing me out of the Mountain

Looking at the man's bank card and pinhole camera, she knew what he meant, even if Li Niannian was a fool.

Sneak peek!

The White Milk Tea formula would naturally be recorded as long as the camera was installed in the kitchen and the secretly taken Chu Tian milk tea powder process was documented.

Li Niannian said, "So Luo Piao asked you to come?"

"It's not important who told me to come." The man replied, "The most important thing is that you don't need to do anything. You just need to install this camera, and then take it down and give it to me. You can get 80 million."

"80 million—that's not a small amount. Can you make that much in your life?"

Li Niannian bit her lip and said, "My monthly salary is $20,000."

"Huh." The man smiled and said, "Isn't that right? Twenty thousand a month and 240,000 to 80,000 a year. You need to work... and it's not like you aren't spending money."

"Miss Li, 333 years worth of salary. How many years will a person live in their lifetime?"

"There's a good saying. If you don't take it for yourself, the heavens will punish you, and the earth will destroy you. "

Hearing the man's seductive tone, Li Niannian pursed her lips. After a moment of silence, she said, "But this is a breach of business secrets. If I'm found, if I'm discovered, I'll be imprisoned."

"I can get 80 million, but if I get caught later in a lawsuit, I might need to pay 800 million."

"Miss Li." The man smiled and said, "You don't have to worry about that. That's right, but you just have to be careful. Your boss has classes to attend. When he's not around, you have a lot of time."

"I still said that. 80 million. This is your salary for 333 years. It's worth taking a little risk, isn't it?"

After listening to the man's words, Li Niannian was again silent for a while, then took a deep breath and said: "You let me think about it first, a little too suddenly."

"Of course." The man smiled as he put away his bank card and pinhole camera. "How about Monday? Monday morning, when your boss is away from class, I'll come look for you. Two days should be enough time for Miss Li to consider it, right?"

"That's enough." Li Niannian said, "In that case, I'll see you Monday morning."

After saying that, Li Niannian stood up and left the private room.

Seeing this, the man didn't linger and left the private room as well.

Twenty minutes later!

Inside the White Milk Tea Shop, after returning to the small office, Li Niannian first closed the office door and turned on the air conditioner. Then she took out his phone and dialed Chu Tian's number.

And at this time, Chu Tian was leisurely chilling, reclining on Li Sisi's living room sofa, eating grapes while watching TV.

"Jingle Bells"

Suddenly hearing the phone ring, Chu Tian picked it up and answered, "Hello, Sister Nian."

"Alas, my dear young master, we are really in trouble this time."

Hearing Li Niannian's light tone, Chu Tian couldn't help smiling and saying, "What's wrong, Sister Nian? What happened? The people on the other side, what's their lineup? What's their posture?"

Li Niannian chuckled and said, "I'm serious. A man just came and asked me out. He chatted with me for a while. He meant that 80 million yuan was for me to install a pinhole camera in the kitchen to record the process of your White Milk Tea powder."

"Yeah, sure." Chu Tian smiled and said, "80 million; the price isn't low."

"Be serious!" Li Niannian said, "I suspect that it's someone from the Xiang Piao Group, but he did not admit it even though it's a new face. Do you want to call the police?"

"No, no, no." Chu Tian said, "There's no point calling the police now. Let's play with them and see what they do next."

"Ah?" Li Niannian was speechless. "We'll play with them. How are we going to play?"

"Don't worry." Chu Tian said, "As long as I play with them, you can refuse if necessary. Don't get involved."

"I definitely refuse." Li Niannian said, "We'll meet again on Monday. I'll reject him on Monday."

"Okay, I got it." Chu Tian said, "Alright, Sister Nian, I love you."

"Wait." Li Niannian said, "You haven't made it clear yet. How do you plan to play with them? Don't be silly. I think we'd better call the police now. He and I have an appointment to meet on Monday. If he comes back, we'll call the police and arrest him."

"It's useless." Chu Tian smiled and said, "What can you do if you capture him? He did nothing. At most, he was not in the right mind and received some criticism."

"Alright, Sister Nian, you don't have to worry about it anymore. I'll play with them. Let's have a lunch break. Let's eat together tonight. Bye-bye."

After saying this, Chu Tian directly hung up the phone.

The corners of Chu Tian's mouth curled into a charming arc. He couldn't help but laugh and say, "Hey, wash your hands. You haven't even tried it yet, and you've forced this father off the mountain. I'll grant your wish since you're begging for death."

Chu Tian reached over and took the laptop computer from the side, opened it. He sat cross-legged on the couch and started tapping.
