

Beg You All 143

Chapter 143: Sister Xia, I killed someone.

In the dilapidated factory, under the dim light, Chu Tian and Ah Wei were standing on a red hundred-dollar bill, locked in battle.

Because Ah Wei kicked open the box that contained $8 million in cash, all the money inside was thrown out.

Although some of the funds had been spent, the total amount was $8 million. However, the ground was covered with a layer.

Suddenly, during the fight, Chu Tian found a flaw. Just as he was about to make a move, Ah Wei's right hand touched his belt and directly grabbed him.

Subconsciously, it was like an instinctive reaction. Chu Tian didn't think as he suddenly changed his moves. He grabbed Ah Wei's right hand and twisted it, directly turning the dagger in his hand towards himself.

After that, Chu Tian slapped him again. With a poof, the dagger stabbed directly into Ah Wei's own throat.

At this moment, Chu Tian was stunned before he paused.

Seeing Ah Wei insert a dagger in his own throat, there was a hiccup, and he slowly kneeled on the ground. Chu Tian was stunned.

Did you kill him?

How could this be?

From the beginning to the end, Chu Tian did not want to kill. He only wanted to capture everyone alive. If he wanted to kill someone, Ah Wei would have died long ago. He had been holding back, planning to capture them alive.

However, the situation just now was indeed a little urgent, so he did not think too much and instinctively stabbed the dagger into Ah Wei's body.

However, this was not part of his plan.

Ah Wei was dead.

Next to him, Luo Piao looked at this scene in a daze, as if she had just reacted, hurriedly turned around, and burst into running.

And when Chu Tian heard the sound of high heels, he came back to his senses.

Not caring about Ah Wei anymore, he jumped into the darkness.

"What are you doing?"

Luo Piao's frightened voice came from the darkness, followed by a muffled groan. Soon, Chu Tian grabbed one of Luo Piao's feet and dragged her back from the darkness like a dead dog.

When he came back, he saw that Ah Wei was already lying on the ground, and the hundred-dollar bills under him were soaked in blood. Chu Tian waved his hand and threw Luo Piao to Ah Wei.

Luo Piao did not die but was knocked unconscious.

Two steps in front of Ah Wei, Chu Tian squatted down and looked at his eyes which were filled with regret. He frowned and said, "Hey, do you think you're damn mean? If you didn't use a knife, you couldn't die. Damn it..."

Who would have thought that there would be human life? Chu Tian scratched his head in frustration and picked up a phone from the ground. Then he entered a number and dialed it.

Ten-five o'clock at night!

Xia Mo and two police officers stood in front of a large screen playing a traffic surveillance video at the Haicheng police station corner.

A policeman paused for a moment and said, "Captain Xia, you should be able to confirm that it's this van. At 8:37 pm, the van passed by the intersection of Haining Road and Chongzheng Road. The number plate was taken, but it was a fake. The real deal with this plate number was a blue BMW X3."

Xia Mo frowned. "Can we trace the trail of this van?"

"It's hard." The police officer said, "Go that way again. There are views in all directions because it is not the city. There is not much of an intersection with monitoring, as long as a little familiarity with it allows you to completely avoid all the monitoring roads."

Hearing the police officer's words, Xia Mo could not help but frown and take a deep breath.

The policeman continued, "By the way, Captain Xia, who is this Chu Tian? Is he from a rich second generation? Why would someone kidnap him? If only he was a rich second generation."

Next to Xia Mo, Xiao Liu, the police officer who had followed him to school, said, "This Chu Tian is from a rich generation."

"Ah? Rich generation, isn't he a student?"

"It's true that he's a student." Xiao Liu said, "However, he is indeed very rich. A diamond necklace worth 19 million yuan can be given to your girlfriend. Last time, because of a misunderstanding, Captain Xia and I went there. The little girl always thought that she was wearing a 1900-yuan necklace."

"Damn, this Chu Tian is so rich." The police officer was speechless. "Then he's in trouble. If he's a rich kid, he's fine. After he's kidnapped, the kidnapers can still call him. We can still take action accordingly."

"But if he is from a rich generation, then kidnappers do not need to make a phone call; they can just whip a small stick straight down from his mouth to ask."

"That's why I said ah." Xiao Liu frowned. "If he is from a wealthy generation, we still have a chance to save this time. Blackmail phone calls cannot be answered. How can we help?"

.....

In the room, just when Xia Mo and the other two were silent and had no clue, a phone rang.

Xia Mo took out her phone and looked. Seeing that it was an unfamiliar number, she picked up the call. "Hello, who is this?"

"Sister Xia." Chu Tian said, "I am Chu Tian."

What?

Chu Tian?

Xia Mo was startled and immediately became spirited. "Chu Tian, where are you now?"

It's Chu Tian.

Hearing Xia Mo's words, the other two male policemen immediately stared at her.

"I don't know." Chu Tian said, "Sister Xia, I seem to have been kidnapped tonight. Just now, I woke up in a daze, and a group of people wanted to mess with me. I fought with them and accidentally stabbed a person to death. Sister Xia, I killed someone."

"Uh..." Xia Mo was silent for a moment before she said, "Then, are you alright now?"

"I'm fine." Chu Tian said, "They were all knocked out by me, and then... one of them died. However, Sister Xia, I didn't do it on purpose. He wanted to stab me, and then he stabbed himself to death."

"That's not important." Xia Mo said, "Hurry up and send me a location. I'll find you right away."

Chu Tian responded quickly.

In less than a minute, Xia Mo received a location message.

Seeing this, Xia Mo said, "Xiao Liu, bring force and follow me immediately."

"Yes!"

Xiao Liu nodded, then followed Xia Mo as she quickly left the room.
