

Beg You All 157

Chapter 157: Audio of the Crime

Ten minutes later!

When she came out of the hotel, Li Sisi took advantage of the situation and hugged Chu Tian's arm. In the past, it was fine to drink two or three bottles by herself. Tonight, she only drank one bottle. She was a little dizzy and her face was flushed.

This should be the difference in wine, after all, it was more than one hundred thousand bottles of good wine.

Li Sisi hugged Chu Tian's arm, and said with a smile, "I finally know why the Big Baby likes to hug your arm so much."

Perhaps because of the alcohol, Chu Tian felt that Li Sisi's slightly blurred eyes and rosy face were more charming at this time.

Chu Tian asked curiously, "Really? Why, sister?"

"I really feel safe." Li Sisi smiled, "This stiff arm is so thick and strong, it feels so safe. Holding your arm feels. I feel very at ease in my heart. Really, I feel like I'm not afraid of anything."

"Oh, so that's the case." Chu Tian nodded with a smile and said, "Understood, do you like hugging that sister?"

"Yes, I like it."

"Hey, sister, you're so cute now."

"Cut, it's not cute." Li Sisi smiled and said, "By the way, is the Big Baby very dependent on you now?"

"It's just at night." Chu Tian said, "Xiaobai likes to be hugged and slept by me now, like a cat, likes to cuddle in my arms. Sometimes, when I sleep in a daze in the middle of the night, she will pull me. Let me hold her with my arms, and as soon as I hold her, she is at ease."

"She doesn't feel safe." Li Sisi said

"Well, I can feel it too." Chu Tian said, "Xiaobai didn't have a father since she was a child. She grew up with her mother. There is no man in the family. Psychologically, she feels somewhat insecure."

"It's not a problem." Li Sisi said, "She has been with me for a long time, and it will get better slowly."

"I know." Chu Tian said, "This is not a matter in itself."

"Then what do you plan to do now?" Li Sisi changed the subject. "Luo Piao's kidnapping, are you planning to go through with it?"

"How is it possible?" Chu Tian laughed, "This old woman is planning to kill me, I definitely can't let her go, and Luo Dawei, an old fellow, don't even try to run away, I'll tell you, Sister Sisi, just like this time, if they even try. I'll settle the matter."

Li Sisi looked at Chu Tian curiously. She stared at his eyes for a few seconds before saying, "Chu Tian, what are you planning? Why is Luo Dawei here in your thoughts? Besides, how are you going to mess with him?"

"He's going to dream!" Chu Tian laughed, "Luo Piao I can't let her out, and more than that, as I said on the wine table that he, Luo Dawei, will have to go in. If he is smart, he will recognize what I was trying to say. It means that he runs at night, otherwise, he will also go to jail."

Li Sisi frowned at him and said, "No, Chu Tian, what are you hiding from me now? What trump cards do you have?"

Chu Tian smiled mysteriously and said, "Sisi, you don't have to worry about this. Just wait and see, when it's done."

"Tch, it's mysterious." Li Sisi curled her lips and said, "If Luo Piao is released tomorrow, I'll see how you slap yourself in the face."

"Then I don't slap myself in the face, it's good if I slap her in the face, I'll block the entrance at the police station, if she dares to come out, I'll give her big hurdles and force her to slap at her own face. "

"Giggle giggle... you're still a stinky rascal..."

At the same time!

In the police station in Haicheng, Xia Mo was carefully combing through the case to see if she could find any forgotten places and break in the Luo Piao's case.

"Team Xia."

Xiao Liu poured a glass of water, put it next to Xia Mo, and said: "Drink some water, don't bury your head in research, there is really no other way, this Luo Piao will definitely be released tomorrow, there is really no evidence in hand."

Xia Mo sighed, then rubbed her eyebrows and said, "This case, it really is damn depressing. If Luo Piao is released, I don't even know how to face Chu Tian in the future."

Xia Mo rolled her eyes and said, "I live in the same neighborhood as him."

"Ah?" Xiao Liu was stunned for a moment and said, "You two live in the same neighborhood?"

"Hey, why do you think I have the wherewithal to go in the future? Besides, I'm so embarrassed to call your sister's sister."

"Uh..." Xiao Liu Qiang smiled and said, "Xia team, you should drink some water first."

Xia Mo sighed and picked up the teacup. She took a sip and said, Xiao Liu, send me all the details of the case you've prepared this time. See if anything is missing."

"Okay." Xiao Liu sat back at his desk and said, "I'll send it to you now."

Soon!

For two minutes, Xiao Liu looked at Xia Mo and said, "Captain Xia, I've already sent it to you."

Xia Mo opened the computer in front of her and logged into a mailbox. Just as she was about to open the email that Xiao Liu sent to her, she suddenly seemed to be stunned and narrowed her eyes.

There's an email in the mailbox!

And the mail name is exploding!

"All the criminal audio about Luo Piao and Luo Dawei conspiring to kidnap and murder Chu Tian."

This...

Xia Mo stared blankly at the email name.

Who sent it to me?

Look at the time, it's 12:07 today at noon!

At that time, he was sleeping.

Could it be someone's prank?

And why is there no sender?

Is this a bug in the system?

It is clearly a received email, however, it does not show who the sender is.

After a brief hesitation, Xia Mo opened the email.

What a huge package! It actually had 3.2 g.

Xia Mo frowned. She clicked on the download button and took advantage of the waiting time to pull out a headset from the drawer and plug it into the computer.

Not long after, when the file was downloaded, Xia Mo opened her eyes and widened them.

Inside, there was a dense array of audio. In front of each audio file, there were detailed descriptions of the time and who was talking to whom.

"X month, X day, 8:06 p.m., the voice of Luo Piao and her father, Luo Dawei."

"X month, X day, 7:11 am, audio of the call from Luo Dawei to Luo Piao."

"X months, X days, 10:33 a.m., Luo Dawei and Ah Wei (Luo Piao's bodyguard) are talking."

"X month, X day..."

Xia Mo stared blankly at the densely packed audio. She put on her headphones and tried to click on one.
