Chapter 164: Selling the Villa to Collect Money for Compensation

Twelve years of foundation...

After hearing Chu Tian's decision, lawyer Xing pondered before speaking, "Mr. Chu, based on your understanding of the situation, I'll be honest with you about my intentions."

Lawyer Xing opened his briefcase and took out a file. He opened it and pulled out a piece of paper, which he handed it over to Chu Tian.

"Mr. Chu, in fact, Mr. Luo and Miss Piao have come to a profound realisation of their mistakes. They regret their actions and are remorseful for the harm they have caused you. Here is a letter of apology from both of them. Please take a look," Lawyer Xing said as he handed the letter to Chu Tian.

Chu Tian took the letter but didn't bother to read it. He casually put it aside and said, "Hmm, I can tell by reading between the lines that Mr. Luo and Miss Piao are sincere. They have indeed realised their mistakes, especially shown by the parallelism in the sentences. It's exceptionally well-written and full of literary charm. And the handwriting is also beautiful, clearly indicating that Mr. Luo personally wrote it, exuding the aura of a big boss with every stroke."

Oh...

You didn't even take a glance, and you are already talking about the letter?

Alright then!

Upon seeing the 'hypocritical' demeanour of Chu Tian, Lawyer Xing had a rough idea in his mind.

Lawyer Xing smiled and said, "Yes, this apology letter was indeed personally written by Mr. Luo. So, Mr. Chu, I'll be honest with you about why I am here. Mr. Luo has indeed recognised his mistakes and feels genuine remorse for his actions."

"So, he hopes that Mr. Chu can give him a chance to reform, and he is willing to compensate you for the physical and psychological harm he has caused you," Lawyer Xing continued.

Chu Tian nodded and said, "Oh, my lawyer already told me about it. In simple terms, you're asking for my forgiveness."

"Exactly," Lawyer Xing continued. "We really hope to obtain Mr. Chu's forgiveness. We truly regret our actions. We promise to start a new relationship and never engage in such behaviour again. We hope Mr. Chu can give us a chance."

This...

Chu Tian furrowed his eyebrows and said, "As the old saying goes, a person is not a sage who can do any wrongdoing they wish. He knows what is wrong and wants to change it. If Boss Luo and Miss Piao really realised their mistake, then I, Chu Tian, am not someone to take it for granted."

"But, this incident has indeed caused me a great deal of harm. I'm not lying that when I sleep during the night and during my naps, all I could see in my mind were scenes of being chased by someone. It was truly terrifying."

"I think that I might have developed some psychological trauma from this incident. I need to find a good psychologist and undergo proper treatment. Otherwise, my mental health could deteriorate and cause bigger issues in the future."

"Sigh, I don't know how many years it will take to treat my mental trauma, and I have no idea how much money it will cost during this period. As an ordinary person like me, I don't have deep pockets like Mr. Luo. How will I live in the future? I'm so worried."

Got it!

I understand now!

It's all about money!

Lawyer Xing nodded with a smile and said, "Mr. Chu, I'm here on behalf of Mr. Luo and Miss Piao to discuss this matter with you. I understand that this incident has surely caused you a great deal of harm, and it's only right for us to compensate you voluntarily. So, Mr. Chu, you name your price. How much money would you need to forgive Mr. Luo??"

"Ah, it's really embarrassing to talk about money," Chu Tian said with a smile. "I'm not someone who thinks about money all the time. This... I, Chu Tian, am not someone who is greedy for money."

"I understand," Lawyer Xing said, once again smiling. "Mr. Chu, you don't seem like a person who is motivated by money. However, this is our sincere intention, and I hope Mr. Chu can give us an opportunity to make amends."

"Well, I see." Chu nodded, feeling a bit hesitant. "If Mr. Luo insists on making a kind gesture, then I can't refuse. Otherwise, it would seem like I'm not respecting Mr. Luo. So, go ahead and tell me, how much does Mr. Luo want to offer as compensation?"

"Five hundred million?" Chu Tian was taken aback by the amount. "That's a significant sum. Mr. Luo must really want to make amends."

Five hundred million?

Chu Tian furrowed his brow and said, "That's a lot of money. Mr. Luo is being too generous. With that amount, I could probably find a reasonably-priced psychologist and cover my therapy expenses."

Uh...

Got it!

Five hundred million was not enough!

Lawyer Xing thought for a moment and said, "Mr. Chu, can I ask how much you've found out about the approximate cost of your psychological therapy?"

"How about a billion?" Chu Tian said. "I just consulted a friend who is knowledgeable in psychology during lunch today. He said my condition is extremely severe and very difficult to treat. If I want a complete recovery, it would cost at least one billion."

"Oh, I didn't expect the cost of psychological treatment to be so high. It's really troubling. Where can I get so much money?" Chu Tian sighed. "These doctors nowadays are so money-oriented, asking for so much money. Who can afford such high costs of treatment?"

"Well," Lawyer Xing smiled and said, "The cost of treatment is indeed not cheap. Let me give you some information, Mr. Chu. In the short term, Mr. Luo can only come up with a maximum of eight hundred million. This is truly his limit. What do you think? Is this price acceptable?"

"Well," Chu Tian said, "That's not a bad idea. Since Mr. Luo wants to make amends, he might as well cover my entire psychological treatment cost. He won't miss those extra two hundred million, right?"

"Sure, that sounds reasonable," said Lawyer Xing while nodding. "I'll go talk to Mr. Luo and update you on any news. I'll contact you by phone next."

"Thank you," Lawyer Xing said with a smile. They both got up and as they walked towards the door, Xing expressed his gratitude again. "I appreciate your understanding, Mr. Chu Tian. We'll be in touch soon." After this, he left the room, and Chu saw him off at the door.

"One billion?"

"It needs to be given this afternoon at four o'clock."

Inside the Sea City Police Station, Luo Dawei furrowed his eyebrows as he looked at Lawyer Xing and said, "He is not willing to compromise at all?"

Lawyer Xing shook his head and said, "A fixed price. Chu Tian's intention is very clear. It must be one billion. Otherwise, he will not sign off on the dismissal.."

"One billion..." Luo Dawei furrowed his brows and mused for a while before saying, "Mr. Xing, here's the deal. Give my wife a call and ask her to sell the villa in Yue'er Bay as soon as possible. I spent a total of about three hundred and thirty million on buying and renovating that villa."

"Tell her not to worry about the loss, even if she sells it for just two billion, as long as there's a buyer, sell it directly. We need to quickly come up with the one billion. This guy, Chu Tian, is unpredictable. We must obtain his signature as soon as possible. Otherwise, he might change his mind," Luo Dawei said anxiously.

"Alright," Lawyer Xing said with a nod, "I will take care of it immediately. I also think that Chu Tian is very unpredictable. The sooner we settle this, the sooner we can have peace of mind."

Chapter 165: The Four Beauties Gathered

"Hey, Xia!"

At 6:30 PM, Xia Mo walked past the gate of her residential district while wearing her casual sportswear when she spotted Chu Tian standing a small distance in front of her. He was waving at her with one hand.

Xia Mo greeted Chu Tian with a bright smile and said, "What do you have in your hands? Stop hiding it. Show me quickly."

"Hey!"

Chu Tian chuckled and revealed the hand hidden behind his back. He was holding a bouquet of fresh and vibrant flowers that were in full bloom.

"Oh my, flowers too!" Xia Mo exclaimed with delight.

Xia Mo took the bouquet from Chu Tian and sniffed it with delight. She asked, "Mmm, it smells lovely. Are these roses?"

Chu Tian said he wasn't sure whether the flowers were roses or not. He explained that he had picked them from the flowerbed in the residential area because they looked pretty.

"You picked them from the flowerbed in the residential area?" Xia Mo repeated in surprise.

Xia Mo giggled and playfully kicked Chu Tian and said, "You naughty boy! I thought you bought them. No wonder they still have so many leaves."

"The flowers will look charming as long as they look fresh," Chu Tian chuckled. "It's not just me picking them. Many others have also taken some from the flowerbed."

Xia Mo chuckled and pursed her lips, commenting on Chu Tian's lack of manners. She then sniffed the flowers again and asked him where they were going to get hot pot.

Chu Tian explained that they were going to a large hot pot restaurant in the city area, which he had visited twice before and that he found to be delicious. He then asked Xia Mo if the outing would cause any delay in her work.

"It won't. I had two consecutive night shifts, so I have two days off now," Xia Mo said. "By the way, how was your meeting with Lawyer Zhu?"

"It went well," Chu Tian said. "I think we don't need to appear in court anymore."

"Why not?" Xia Mo asked curiously. "Lawyer Xing is a very capable and honest person."

Chu Tian acknowledged Xia Mo's point by saying, "I know." He then explained that the main reason for meeting with Luo Dawei was because he had approached him, wanting to obtain his letter of forgiveness.

"Oh, I see," Xia Mo responded.

Xia Mo nodded in understanding and asked, "So, did you agree to it?"

Chu Tian confirmed that he had agreed to Luo Dawei's request temporarily, but he had not written the letter yet. He added that he would wait until Luo Dawei compensated him before he writes it.

Xia Mo chuckled and asked, "How much money are we talking about?"

"A billion," Chu Tian said.

"One hundred million?" Xia Mo's eyes widened in surprise. "That's, that's a lot of money!"

"Sure," Chu Tian laughed, "Even if it's eighteen million, I won't take it seriously. If someone wants my letter of forgiveness, they'll have to offer something valuable. Can I really write it for just anything?"

"Oh my god," Xia Mo exclaimed, "One hundred million, you are making a killing!"

Chu Tian laughed and questioned the profitability of the situation. He clarified what Luo was at stake in exchange for his life. He added that since Luo Dawei had approached him on his own accord and showed a willingness to change, he felt obligated to give him a chance. Chu Tian remarked that he could not go all out and kill Luo Dawei.

Xia Mo smiled and rolled her eyes, "So, when will the money be deposited?"

"Well... it's hard to say," Chu Tian shook his head and said, "But it should be within these two days. Luo Dawei doesn't have that much cash on hand. He has to sell a villa to gather enough money. He said he'll sell it cheaply. I didn't expect that. As the chairman of the fragrant drift group, he couldn't even come up with one billion."

"That's normal," Xia Mo said, "Luo Dawei can definitely come up with the money. He's worth several hundred billion. But even if you have a lot of money, you usually don't have enough cash on hand. Most of it is invested in real estate, funds, financial products, stocks, and so on. Just wait for it. He's definitely more anxious than you are."

Chu Tian nodded and said, "That's right. I'm not in a hurry anyway. Whenever he gives me the money, I'll write it then."

Xia Mo held the flower bouquet in her hand and sniffed them again, then asked, "Hey, by the way, Chu Tian, I almost forgot to ask you, what's your relationship with Sun Nana now? Are you lovers?"

Chu Tian replied, "Not really,"

"Then what were you two doing in that secluded place so late at night?"

Chu Tian smirked and explained that his intention was simply to have a friendly outdoor sparring match with Sun Nana, who had been his classmate.

"Haha!"

Upon hearing Chu Tian's words, Xia Mo chuckled and kicked him, saying, "Why are you so fickle, Chu Tian? Honestly, don't mess with Sun Nana. She's not a good woman. Sister Xia and I have encountered all kinds of people at the police station, and I could tell right away that she's not a good person. Your girlfriend is so much better than her in terms of looks and figure. Xiao Bai beats her in every way."

"You're with Xiao Bai anyway. Don't flirt around with other women. Xiao Bai is really a good girl with long legs and a beautiful face. She attracts so many people. Oh, and what car were you driving at noon today? It definitely wasn't Xiao Bai's, right?"

"Hey..." Chu Tian grinned and said, "It wasn't Xiao Bai."

"I really want to strangle you." Xia Mo couldn't help but roll her eyes upon seeing Chu Tian's smirking face and said, "Seriously, you need to show self-control in the future. Xiao Bai is really a good girl. Don't mess around with other women."

"Okay, I'll listen to you, sister Xia," Chu Tian laughed, "I'll show some restraint in the future."

"Pfft!" Xia Mo sneered and muttered, "With that smug smile, I don't believe you'll show restraint. By the way, where's Xiao Bai?"

"Oh, Xiao Bai, Sisi, and Nianian are waiting at the entrance of the community with us." Chu Tian said. "Let's have a good time together tonight."

"Then let's go quickly," Xia Mo said, "Don't let Xiao Bai and the others wait too long."

Soon after Xia Mo and Chu Tian left the community, they saw Xiao Bai, Li Sisi, and Li Nianian waiting at the entrance.

Xiao Bai had her hair tied up high and was wearing denim shorts that reached to the end of her buttocks and really showed her white sneakers, a belly-revealing vest. The outfit really showed her beauty.

Li Sisi wore oversized sunglasses with a floor-length jumpsuit and silver crystal sandals, giving a mature and sexy vibe.

Li Nianian wore a white shirt with a black bodycon skirt and sky-blue high heels, exuding a professional and sexy female secretary feel.

Seeing Chu Tian and Xia Mo come out, Xiao Bai happily ran over, hugged Chu Tian's arm, and said with smiling face, "Sister Xia."

"Yeah, Xiao Bai looks really beautiful today," Xia Mo smiled.

"It's nothing," Xiao Bai smiled, "Xiajie Jie is the beautiful one."

"You have a sweet mouth," Xia Mo said.

Li Sisi came over with joy and said, "Now that we're all here, let's go. The car has arrived."

"One car?" Xia Mo said, "Can the five of us fit?"

"No problem," Chu Tian said, "Xiao Bai can sit on my lap, and I'll hug her. Then we can fit."

"Okay, let's go. I'm really hungry."
