

Beg You All 173

Chapter 173: Li Sisi cried

In the exhibition hall, Xu Min was receiving them as if it were a normal reception. Every time Chu Tian and Li Sisi stopped by a car, she would explain it to them.

And Chu Tian could clearly see that Li Sisi really liked the Ferrari brand because her eyes changed as soon as they entered the Ferrari store.

Finally, when they arrived at the LaFerrari car in the exhibition hall, Li Sisi's eyes lit up as if she had found a treasure. She hurriedly walked a few steps and came to the front.

Seeing this, a smile appeared on Chu Tian's face. Fortunately! It seems that this car is very much to Li Sisi's liking.

After looking at it for a while, Li Sisi pressed the car's hood with her small hand and asked, "Miss, is this the new Ferrari? Why haven't I seen it before?"

"That's right." Xu Min smiled and glanced at Chu Tian, then came to Li Sisi's side and said, "This car is the LaFerrari upgrade version, also called the LaFerrari 20. It's a limited edition that just came out this year. In our entire country, there are only five of them available."

"Among them, our Hai Cheng Ferrari store has two because our Hai Cheng Ferrari store is considered a flagship store of Ferrari."

"Currently, only two have been sold in our country. One was sold to a lady in the capital city a month ago."

"The other one, in our Haicheng, was also sold to a lady just yesterday."

"Sold just yesterday?" Li Sisi looked at Xu Min and smiled, "Wow, that's impressive. Who bought it?"

"I'm sorry, I can't reveal that." Xu Min smiled and said, "The LaFerrari 20 not only has a greatly improved appearance, looking even more streamlined and smooth than the original LaFerrari, but also has made a qualitative leap in performance, handling, and comfort. If you're interested, miss, you can go in and experience it."

"Uh... forget it." Li Sisi smiled and shook her head, "There are only five limited editions in the whole country. This car must be very expensive, right?"

"It's indeed not cheap." Xu Min said, "The bare car price alone is forty-eight million, and with all the procedures done, it will cost at least fifty-three million."

"Fifty-three million?" Li Sisi couldn't help but purse her lips.

"Wow! Half a billion!" exclaimed Xu Min. "Beautiful lady," she smiled, "Why don't you come in and experience it for yourself?"

"Forget it," laughed Li Sisi as she shook her head. "It's too expensive, and I might break something."

"Don't worry," Xu Min reassured her. "This car is built to withstand anything. Besides, it's a free experience. Come on, give it a try."

As she spoke, Xu Min pressed the key in her hand, and then, under the gaze of Li Sisi, the two car doors unfolded like butterfly wings, displaying their dazzling coolness.

Seeing Xu Min so enthusiastic, Li Sisi smiled and finally sat in.

Seeing this, Chu Tian also got into the passenger seat.

As soon as the butterfly doors closed, Li Sisi took a deep breath in excitement and slowly placed her hands on the steering wheel.

"Hiss..."

With an ecstatic expression as if reaching the pinnacle of life, Li Sisi bit her lip in excitement, her mouth unable to close due to overwhelming happiness.

Chu Tian chuckled and said, "Sister Sisi, did you get electrocuted or something? The car hasn't even started yet. Why the ecstatic expression?"

"You don't understand," Li Sisi laughed and rolled her eyes. "This feeling, oh my god, it's just too amazing."

"Alright, let's start it up." said Chu Tian with a smile, "Listen to that engine roar."

"No need," Li Sisi glanced at Xu Min outside and said, "Just sitting here is fine."

"Don't worry," Chu Tian reassured her. "The gear shift is locked, so you can't drive it. Just listen to the sound."

Hearing what Chu Tian said, Li Sisi gathered her courage and started the car.

"Boom!"

With the vehicle starting up, a booming sound wave exploded, and even inside the car, one could feel that kind of passion.

Li Sisi grabbed the steering wheel in excitement and then lightly stepped on the accelerator.

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

"Boom!"

The surging sound waves were like a raging tsunami, and Li Sisi was so excited that she couldn't even close her mouth.

After only a few tries, Li Sisi stalled the car and stopped the engine.

Reluctantly getting out of the car, Li Sisi looked at Xu Min and nodded with satisfaction, "It's really great."

"Right," Xu Min smiled and said, "Actually, you can't feel it in the exhibition hall. After all, the car can't move. If you really want to experience it, you can try another car."

"Another one?" Li Sisi was a little confused and asked, "Wasn't the other one already sold?"

"Not yet transferred," said Xu Min, "Although the car was sold yesterday, it's still here in the store. You can try it if you want."

"That's alright, I'll pass," said Li Sisi with a smile. "Once a car is sold, it belongs to someone else. What if I accidentally damage it?"

"No worries," said Xu Min, "Miss, I really think this car suits your style and beauty perfectly. It's like it was tailor-made for you. You can give it a try. Who knows, you might buy it if you like it."

Um...

That's too high of an opinion of myself!

A car that costs nearly half billion, could she really afford it?

Li Sisi smiled bitterly and was about to speak when Chu Tian whispered, "Sister Sisi, let's try it. After all, they offered it to us. Take me with you to feel the acceleration."

Seeing Chu Tian's smug expression, Li Sisi rolled her eyes and turned to Xu Min, saying, "Well... if it's possible to test drive it, I guess I could give it a try."

"Of course, you can," Xu Min smiled and made a gesture, saying, "Miss, come with me."

After saying that, Xu Min directly led Chu Tian and Li Sisi out of the showroom.

After leaving the showroom, a flamboyant red-colored LaFerrari was parked outside. In the sunlight, the color appeared more eye-catching, and the smooth lines were even more beautiful.

Xu Min opened the driver's door and said with a smile, "Miss, go ahead and try it out."

Actually, Li Sisi didn't want to try it. After all, the car belonged to someone else. If it weren't for Chu Tian wanting to experience the thrill of the wind on his face, she wouldn't have tried it.

As soon as Li Sisi sat in the car and closed the door, she noticed a contract on the passenger seat and a bright red rose lying on top of it.

It seemed that this was the purchase contract of the buyer.

As Chu Tian had to sit in the passenger seat to experience the thrill of the ride, Li Sisi reached out and picked up the rose and contract so as not to let Chu Tian sit on top of the buyer's car purchase contract, which would be awkward if it was damaged.

Seeing that Chu Tian was outside chatting with Xu Min and not in a hurry to get in the car, Li Sisi curiously held the rose in her hand and casually opened the car purchase agreement.

Hmm?

Li Sisi?

Suddenly, as she opened the purchase contract, Li Sisi was stunned.

With the purchase contract open in her hand, Li Sisi suddenly froze. Her body began to tremble slightly after a few seconds, her lips unconsciously tightened. Even when she saw the end of the contract, Li Sisi couldn't help herself. Her lips trembled, and she quickly covered her mouth with her hand, tears streaming down her face.

That was actually her own car!
