

Beg You All 190

Chapter 190: Newly published evidence

“No, no, no,” Chu Tian quickly protested as he waved his hand. “Elder Sun, please don’t do that. I, Chu Tian, have always been open and honest. I never engage in such activities.”

“I’m telling you, Niannian, she... she deserves it. I’ve created this firewall for the country, and it has nothing to do with her. The law doesn’t allow for favoritism, so you should handle her case according to the law. If she hasn’t broken any laws, you must release her. If she has broken the law, you can’t release her. I, Chu Tian, am straight forward like that.”

Upon hearing Chu Tian’s response, Elder Sun smiled and extinguished his cigarette. He said, “Alright, you have a lot on your mind, Xiao Kun.”

The agent behind Elder Sun turned towards the front and responded, “Chief.”

“Take them and search for evidence,” Elder Sun instructed. “There must be evidence of Li Niannian’s innocence at the crime scene. Search carefully and find it quickly.”

“Understood,” Xiao Kun nodded and promptly left the room.

Elder Sun looked at Chu Tian and continued, “Have you eaten?”

“How can I eat?” Chu Tian helplessly replied. “My girlfriend is still locked up.”

“Then let’s have a meal together,” Elder Sun suggested. “Don’t worry. We will definitely find evidence to prove Li Niannian’s innocence.”

At 10:40 in the morning, a black sedan pulled up in front of the apartment building where Li Niannian was renting. A woman and two men stepped out of the car, each carrying a black suitcase.

After entering the building, they took the elevator to the eleventh floor. In front of apartment 1102, one of the men retrieved two wires from his pocket, inserted them into the lock, twisted them, and with a loud bang, opened the door. They entered the apartment carrying the boxes.

Upon entering the room, the three individuals maintained silence as they began unpacking their boxes. One man opened his suitcase and took out a pair of small feet, placing them at the bedroom door. He then retrieved a camera from his suitcase and mounted it on the feet, positioning it towards the living room sofa. Using a laptop, he adjusted the camera angle based on the camera’s footage.

Meanwhile, another man unpacked his box and changed out of his suit and shoes. He put on a new casual outfit and sneakers, placing his leather shoes and suit back into the box, which he positioned behind the door. The woman’s task proved slightly more complicated.

As for the woman, it was slightly troublesome.

After opening the box, the woman took off her clothes and shoes and changed into a new dress and high heels. Then, she took out a wig and carefully put it on her head.

After this, the woman began to makeup in the mirror and then kept sticking something to her face.

Time passed little by little until half an hour had passed. Finally, she finished her preparation, took out a pair of scissors from the box, and put them on the coffee table.

At this moment, if Li Niannian could see it, her eyes would be wide open in shock. This was because this woman was almost similar to her as if she was her twin sister.

Not only that, the clothes, shoes, and nail polish were exactly the same as what she was wearing yesterday.

There was also the man who had changed. His hair, clothes, and shoes were exactly the same as Zhou Kang's.

Seeing that the two of them had already changed their clothes and were ready, the man who was controlling the notebook said, "Let's try it on the sofa."

The woman lay on the sofa.

"Turn your head this way."

The woman was lying on the sofa and turned her head to look over.

Based on the video footage, the man adjusted the camera angle and said, "Ok, let's start."

Seeing that the man was ready, the woman and another man opened the door and left the apartment.

Soon, the sound of the keys rang, followed by the sound of the locks being unlocked and the door being opened.

The sound of high heels rang out. The woman's voice also rang out. She smiled and said, "It's really troublesome, Manager Zhou. You actually drove me here. Come in and have a seat. I'll get you a glass of water."

In the footage, the man's voice could be heard as he expressed his delight at the apartment's condition and mentioned being free that day. They captured the legs and shoes of the two individuals but hadn't yet recorded their faces.

The woman smiled and replied, mentioning the comparison between the apartment and Manager Zhou's villa. She offered to fetch water for the man but was interrupted when he pressed her onto the sofa, intending to engage in inappropriate behavior. However, the man operating the laptop intervened, reminding them that it wasn't the right time for such actions. He instructed Li Niannian to pour water for them and then have the man molest her on the sofa.

Following the instructions, Li Niannian and Zhou Kang got up from the sofa, opened the door, and left the apartment. They repeated the scene multiple times until they achieved the desired outcome. The fake Zhou Kang never revealed his face, as he was lying on the ground with the back of his head facing the camera. The fake Li Niannian's face was visible for a brief period when she was pressed against the sofa by the fake Zhou Kang. However, her struggle and shouting prompted the fake Zhou Kang to quickly cover her mouth.

After successfully capturing the scene, the three individuals changed back into their original clothes, tidied up the room slightly, and left with their suitcases. The room appeared undisturbed as if nothing had occurred.

Ten minutes later, the apartment appeared exactly as it was before, with no evidence of the recent events.
