

Beg You All 195

Chapter 195: Official Launch of National Chain Plan

Song Xiaoya?

Is that her real name or her fake name?

When he heard 'female' say she was called Song Xiaoya, Chu Tian subconsciously thought of this question.

In the presidential suite this afternoon, Chu Tian did hear Elder Sun call her secretary 'Xiaoya'.

However, this is not necessarily her real name.

Chu Tian was very clear in heart, doesn't look at her dress, dresses like a female secretary, can follow the side of Elder Sun, and can also be left by Old Sun in Haicheng. She is a very powerful agent.

If she was only a sweet and weak as she looked, Elder Sun would never have left her in Haicheng.

After all, her mission is to keep an eye on my actions and activities.

Therefore, this kind of special agent generally has a lot of identity and name. Song Xiaoya is likely to be only one of her many identities and names, not necessarily her parents'.

With this thought in mind, Chu Tian smiled and said, "No problem, we'll be neighbors in the future. We should take care of each other. Do you need any help? You seem to have a lot of stuff."

"Oh, no need." Song Xiaoya laughed, "I can just clean up myself, thanks."

"You're welcome. Then, go ahead and take care of it. Goodbye."

"Okay, bye."

After a brief conversation, Chu Tian and Li Sisi returned to their rented house.

After a simple clean-up, Chu Tian went to the next room to carry Bai Xiaochun, but Li Sisi insisted let Xiao sleep with Li Niannian tonight, and then both took a bath together and went to sleep early.

"I guessed it at first."

The next morning, near the end of school, in nursing class, Yang Rong whispered: "Xiao Bai has such long legs. It's not just because she drank more milk as a child or had better nutrition. It must be genetic. I'm sure her mother also has long legs."

"Oh, in fact, my father's legs are quite long, but unfortunately, there is no inheritance to me."

Seeing Yang Rong's resentful appearance, Chu Tian couldn't help smiling: "Whether your legs are long or short, it doesn't mean no one appreciates them. Has your boyfriend ever complained about your legs being short?"

"How dare he!" Yang Rong glared. "If he dares to say my legs are short, I'll break his legs. But by the way, classmate, you and Xiao Bai make a good match. Her mother really likes you. You two should get married in the future."

"It's a requirement," Chu Tian said. "Xiao Bai will have to follow me for the rest of her life."

"Look at how proud you are." Yang Rong smiled. "Then don't forget your classmate. I'm your sister. When you get married, you must give me a big red packet."

"Don't worry," Chu Tian assured her. "For important occasions in my life, I won't forget busy people like you. Just wait. I'll send you a significant gift sometime."

"Oh?" Yang Rong was curious, "What's the big gift?"

Chu Tian smiled mysteriously and hooked his finger.

Yang Rong curiously put her ears together.

Chu Tian said in a low voice: "I prepared a thick and warm green hat for your boyfriend, then we will put it on him."

Yang Rong smiled and covered her mouth. Then she pinched Chu Tian's thigh and said, "I'll choke you to death, you rogue. I know you're not good."

Chu Tian smiled and rubbed his leg. Just as he was about to say something, the phone vibrated twice.

It was a message from Li Niannian.

Li Niannian: "Chu Tian, what do you want to eat at noon today?"

Originally, Chu Tian planned to take Li Niannian out for a few days to relax. After all, she had just experienced such a disturbing thing. However, she couldn't let go of the milk tea shop. Therefore, everything was normal now.

Chu Tian: "Anything is fine, Sister Nian. You decide."

Li Niannian: "Also, bring the big baby to eat."

Chu Tian: "No, she hasn't seen her classmates in several days. I think she'll eat with them, and it's quite hot today, so she probably won't want to come out."

Li Niannian: "Well, then you quickly come over after class, I now order."

Chu Tian: "Well, I'll be there after class."

After finishing the conversation with Li Niannian, Chu Tian and Yang Rong continued to goof around for a little while longer until the bell rang, signaling the end of class.

Ten minutes later!

Chu Tian entered the office of the White Milk Tea Shop. Li Niannian had already received their lunch order.

Looking at the sliced beef with sauce, Chu Tian reached out to pinch a piece and stuffed it into his mouth.

“Tsk, did you wash your hands?”

Li Niannian smiled and hit Chu Tian’s hand with chopsticks. “Here, use chopsticks.”

Chu Tian grinned, took the chopsticks, and said, “I missed this feeling, ah. It’s been many days since we had lunch together, Elder Sister.”

Li Niannian curled her lips and said, “You’ve gone to see your mother-in-law. How can this little shop be at ease? By the way, Big Baby told me that something interesting happened when you two visited your mother-in-law’s place. What’s the story?”

“Ah?” Chu Tian smiled. “When did Xiao Bai tell you?”

"This morning," Li Niannian said. "Big Baby and I woke up early today, before six o'clock, and we had a chat."

Chu Tian hehe laughed and said: "There's actually something amusing. Xiao Bai mentioned that her mother went to the supermarket, and she thought her mother wouldn't be back for a while. But as luck would have it, her mother just went downstairs to throw out the garbage, and when we woke up, the living room coffee table was fully set."

"Puff!"

Upon hearing Chu Tian's words, Li Niannian laughed out loud and said, "It's so interesting. Big Baby said that you went to many scenic spots."

"That's right." Chu Tian said, "Visited a lot of interesting attractions, this time to go and travel as well, very interesting."

"By the way, Sister Nian," Chu Tian continued, "I'm planning to expand the White Milk Tea business and officially start a nationwide chain of stores."

Oh?

"Oh?" Li Niannian's eyes sparkled with excitement. She asked, "So, you want to take it to the next level?"

“Well.” Chu Tian said, “I’ve been thinking about it. Sister Nian, it’s boring for you to stay here every day. So, I’m going to find you something to do so that you can pass the time.”

“That’s fine.” Li Niannian laughed, “But the chain of franchises is good to open, so many people waiting to join it, but we can’t get the production up.”

“So.” Chu Tian said, “I plan to build a factory and start production first. Sister Nian, can you take charge of this?”

“I have no problem with that.” Li Niannian excitedly said, “I am familiar with the process of applying for land approval and handling formalities with the government.”
