Chapter 301: Sound of Heavenly Thunder Formation

"The Wolf...the Wolf God can truly control calamities and punishments..."

On the edge of the swamp, the lynx, whose entire body was reflected as white as a sheet by the lightning, murmured fearfully.

The heavenly thunder, which descended in the swamp, even though separated by tens of miles, still made the lynx, a cultivator, tremble all over when the terrifying aura spread.

Heavenly thunder, which is an extremely rare calamity in the mortal world, is also the greatest disaster that cultivators dread.

Even cultivators who cultivate the righteous path may also encounter the pressing danger of heavenly thunder.

There is no cultivator who doesn't fear such legendary things, even the aura leaked by heavenly thunder is enough to make Li Shan tremble.

According to legend, the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain has commanded heavenly thunder to purify all evil and a half-broken ancient sword to suppress the world.

However, those who have truly witnessed the Wolf God commanding heavenly thunder are few and far between.

The power of the Wolf God commanding heavenly thunder has always existed only in legends.

But today, it actually witnessed it with its own eyes.

Is this Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain truly capable of commanding heavenly thunder as the legends say...

Each heavenly thunder that fell upon the swamp seemed to strike the spirit of the giant lynx, leaving it shaken with fear.

Nowadays, it no longer worries about the strange things underground.

Ravaged by the Wolf God like this, that thing, no matter how evil, cannot hold on for much longer.

Moreover, judging by the situation, the heavenly thunder summoned by the Wolf God no longer falls hastily like at the beginning, but rather, after each strike, there is a pause before the next.

The lengthy intervals between the heavenly punishment seem to deliberately torture that thing underground... Could it be that the Wolf God plans to slowly torment and force the evil creature underground to come out by such means?

This is what the giant lynx speculated in its heart.

Within the vortex of heavenly calamity clouds, Lu Heng, who had already merged with the clouds of heavenly punishment, immersed his mind and continuously drew the thunder within the clouds, then struck it down.

Before opening the Heaven Door, Lu Heng cannot truly control the clouds of calamity.

But after opening the Heaven Door and cultivating in the mountains for five years, Lu Heng can barely immerse his spiritual energy into the clouds of calamity, controlling the thunder within to strike specific targets.

However, this collection of heavenly thunder is not Lu Heng's own power, but is gathered and condensed through his ability to draw power from the clouds of calamity, so he cannot truly control it as he wishes.

Therefore, after each strike of heavenly thunder, it takes a full quarter of an hour of focused concentration to draw and descend the next bolt.

Moreover, the power of the heavenly thunder is quite ordinary...

The heavenly thunder used for killing can reach up to a maximum of nine bolts.

The power of each bolt of heavenly thunder is stronger than the previous ones combined.

As for the heavenly thunder that Lu Heng personally controls and masters, he can only summon up to a maximum of seven bolts in one go.

- Of course, if he doesn't stack the power and keeps using only the power of the first heavenly thunder, Lu Heng can unleash numerous bolts.

However, the current Lu Heng has already depleted all heavenly thunder stored in his body and can only rely on the power of the Heavenly Thunder Cloud.

He sits cross-legged within the Heavenly Thunder Cloud, continuously cultivating while using his spirit to guide the power of the heavenly punishment, causing a bolt of heavenly thunder to strike every fifteen minutes.

The booming thunder resounds, occasionally heard in the wilderness.

Each time, it makes the world go pale.

While inside the pitch-black cave, there was absolute silence.

Although each bolt of heavenly thunder is the weakest first level of power, unable to stack up its power additively. But the frequency of a bolt striking every fifteen minutes is enough to make one's heart race.

Lu Heng was not in a hurry. He sat cross-legged in the void, continuously guiding the heavenly thunder to strike.

Either the underground things jump out on their own initiative, or the heavenly thunder completely destroys those strange things underground.

Even Candle Dragon would be injured from resisting nine consecutive heavenly thunders.

Lu Heng didn't believe that anything below could withstand the power of seven stacked heavenly thunders, and still be able to easily catch the heavenly thunder that strikes every fifteen minutes.

Even though each of these heavenly thunders is not strong.

In the wilderness, lightning flashes and thunder roars.

Lu Heng's primordial spirit was completely immersed in cultivation, while also calling down lightning strikes to kill the creatures in the underground cave.

Anyway, he had plenty of time to waste here. Perhaps he could delay a few more days and wait for Jiu Mie to arrive.

And on the edge of the swamp, Xiao Ai stood on high ground and watched the huge vortex in the sky slowly revolve from afar. Even though the air was filled with calamitous aura, it couldn't affect her cultivation.

As someone who had a spiritual connection with the Wolf God, she could guess his plan even without Lu Heng giving any orders.

Therefore, Xiao Ai temporarily set aside her worries and stood far away to keep watch over the Wolf God, while also cultivating.

However, the Land God standing guard beside her was not as relaxed as she was.

Every time the heaven thunder struck every fifteen minutes, with a deafening roar and explosion, the towering giant lynx, more than ten feet tall, could not help but shudder.

The fine fur on Li Shan's body, once shining brightly due to his cultivation, was quite beautiful.

However, now, due to the constant presence of the intimidating and terrifying aura of punishment in the air, it had lost its luster. The characteristic of shedding fur when frightened, common to felines, had caused a lot of dry, broken fur to accumulate in the grass around it.

Although he had not yet transformed into a human form, Li Shan's expression was quite lively. His current mournful expression looked very helpless.

Emotionally speaking, it really wished to be far away from here and didn't want to experience the waves of terrifying punishment anymore.

However, as the Land God of this land, it wanted to stay and see how the Wolf God would deal with the evil and strange thing in the underground.

After all, this land was within its jurisdiction as a deity, and it had no choice but to take it seriously.

If the Wolf God could thoroughly destroy the evil and strange thing in the underground, it would be able to have a carefree spiritual cultivating experience in the future, and would no longer have to worry about hearing strange and terrifying low calls during its cultivation.

So, while Li Shan was terrified and reluctantly stayed to watch, the disaster cloud continued to surge above the swamp.

The dazzling white thunderbolt glowed and struck every fifteen minutes.

Each thunderbolt that struck was like the collapse of heaven and earth, spreading the ghastly white light and the extremely ominous aura of thunder punishment in all directions.

The terrifying situation continued for a full day and night.

It was not until the afternoon of the second day that the huge vortex cloud that shrouded the entire swamp slowly dissipated.

And at this moment, the entire wilderness had become silent and still.

The creatures in the swamp had all fled in panic due to the sword that had fallen a few days ago, leaving only some wild animals roaming in the surrounding wilderness.

But now, after the continuous thunderstorm of a day and night and the spreading of punishment aura, even the remaining wild animals in the forests surrounding the swamp have fled.

No one dares to approach this area.

The punishment aura spreading in the air is not only feared by cultivators, but also by ordinary creatures.

Having persisted for more than a dozen hours, Land God Li Shan, whose face had been frightened to the point of withering, finally breathed a sigh of relief upon seeing the dissipation of the disaster clouds.

Upon seeing Lu Heng slowly descending from the air, it quickly went with Xiao Ai, the silver-haired beast-eared girl, to the center of the swamp to pay respects to the Wolf God.

The pitch-black and eerie hole in the center of the swamp has now completely returned to its normal appearance, and no longer exhibits that bizarre situation of devouring everything.

Under the dim sky, Lu Heng's sight could clearly see the entire scene inside the cavern.

This includes the broken cauldron with cracks all over it, which is located deep inside the cave and is as deep as thousands of feet.

I'll Quit Being a God

Chapter 302: A Ruthless Person

"The Wolf God," said the Land God.

Next to the cavern, even though the Land God Li Shan looked withered and distressed, he still respectfully saluted Lu Heng.

Now that the strange and eerie aura inside the cave has dissipated, even Li Shan dares to approach the cave.

Li Shan's heart was filled with awe.

Lu Heng smiled in return and then looked down at the cave, which was no longer eerie.

He said, "It seems that the evil demons of this place have been dispelled."

Although he said these words, Lu Heng didn't plan to jump in directly.

This cave was incredibly deep. Previously, it was only estimated to be bottomless based on visual observation. However, now that the evil demons have been dispelled and Lu Heng's divine awareness can scan everything inside, he realized that he had underestimated the depth of this cave.

This nearly vertical cave was as deep as 99,000 feet.

If you were to say such a depth out loud, it would be enough to scare someone to death.

If an ordinary person were to fall into it, they wouldn't even touch the bottom for a while.

Out of caution, Lu Heng didn't enter it. Instead, he used the technique of controlling objects to lift the big cauldron out of the cave.

Inside the pitch-black cave, a cauldron full of cracks kept rising. The viscous green liquid inside it remained still, like solidified gel.

When the entire cauldron finally emerged from the cave and appeared in the sunlight, the green liquid inside it began to bubble and gurgle upon exposure to the sun.

A strange odor kept emanating continuously.

Soon, about 80% of the cauldron's green liquid evaporated rapidly. In the end, only about 20% remained in the cauldron. Moreover, this remaining 20% of the liquid was no longer green, but an incredibly clear and transparent liquid.

Furthermore, when a gentle breeze blew past, the residual liquid emitted a delicate and elegant fragrance, like a rare and exquisite wine that is rarely found in the human world.

Lu Heng and the other two people were suspended two meters above the ground, looking down at the cauldron which was over three meters high. They also gazed curiously at the liquid inside the cauldron that had lost its pale green color and regained its transparency.

Li Shan, the Land God, couldn't help but swallow his saliva and said, "Could this be the legendary ancient godly brew?"

Lu Heng gave it a strange look and said, "There's still a corpse soaking inside it... Would you dare to drink it?"

The words of Lu Heng made the huge lynx smile awkwardly and it lowered its head in embarrassment.

The cauldron was now covered with tiny cracks, but it should not shatter unless it was struck by a powerful external force.

The cauldron was engraved with grotesque and hideous faces, all of which had the same appearance - a woman with bleeding eyes, a frightened expression, and an open scream.

Just by its appearance, this cauldron exuded an evil nature that made people feel uneasy, not to mention the fact that there was a gnawed female corpse soaking inside it.

Even though the liquor inside this cauldron is clear and fragrant, like a divine wine, it still makes people too scared to drink it now.

Watching this scene, Xiao Ai looked up and down, and suddenly spoke up.

"This is an ancient evil ritual, the Pregnant Evil Embryos."

As Lu Heng looked on in surprise, Xiao Ai said, "The Pregnant Evil Cauldron is made by using the body of a top cultivator as the main ingredient, supplemented by top-notch wine and 81 types of rare treasures from heaven and earth. It is buried in the deep underground and cooked with real fire using a special technique for 81 years, before it is consumed... After consumption, it can prolong life for thousands of years, a preparation made by top evil demons to extend their lives when their destiny is close to an end."

Xiao Ai's narrative left Lu Heng greatly surprised.

"Did your mother tell you this too?" Your mother seems to know too much, doesn't she?

But this time, Xiao Ai shook her head and said, "It was when I was reading through some books in the collection at Fu Shan City that I chanced upon this piece of trivia."

Lu Heng nodded with sudden realization, "I see."

Prior to this, in Fu Shan City, Lu Heng was granted permission to access many secret books on cultivating techniques.

Although Xiao Ai didn't have such privileges, she was granted access to all the diverse books in the library.

The little girl enjoyed the feeling of explaining in detail to the Wolf God every time he encountered something he was not familiar with, so she devoted her spare time to thoroughly reading all the miscellaneous books in the entire library.

Remembered numerous rumors and knowledge related to the world of cultivation.

Now it was useful, she recognized the identity of this large cauldron at a glance.

After hearing Xiao Ai's explanation, Lu Heng lowered his head and looked at the woman's body floating in the cauldron. He said, "Since it is the Pregnant Evil Embryos, the body in the cauldron was supposed to be used for blood food to extend life... Then why does this corpse still exist? Aside from a few bite marks, this body seems intact, isn't it?"

Saying nothing, Lu Heng directly waved his hand and shattered the large cauldron in front of him.

The large cauldron, now without its sinister ability, was as fragile as a thin paper in front of Lu Heng. With a gentle breeze blowing by, the entire cauldron crumbled and dissipated into the swamp, turning into scattered dust particles in the air.

But the liquid inside the cauldron and the woman's body in it still floated in the void, supported by an invisible force.

Lu Heng circled around and examined it carefully, only then did he notice something peculiar.

"This woman seems to have suffered a heavy injury, and her origin is damaged... Was she caught by the demonic creature after being injured? Or was she injured after being caught by the demonic creature?"

Lu Heng frowned, pondered for a moment, then discovered another strange thing, "Hmm? There seems to be something in the woman's mouth..."

As he spoke, Lu Heng had a thought, and the body of the woman suspended in the liquid opened her mouth.

Then, a half-chewed finger fell out of the woman's mouth, appearing in the sight of Lu Heng and the others.

"This..."

At the sight of this half-chewed finger, Lu Heng and the other two were all stunned.

Although the finger was chewed badly, it still had a residue of sinister energy, obviously belonging to a demon before it died.

Looking at the woman's body floating in the liquid with bite marks all over it, Lu Heng came up with a terrifying conjecture.

"This woman was used as blood sacrifice to cultivate, but she not only managed to survive the ordeal, also turned the table on the demon which tried to cook her and even devoured it?!"

Lu Heng's eyes widened slightly.

He examined the woman's body in front of him again and saw the cruel expression on her face. It seemed as if he could visualize the pleasure and delight she had while devouring the demon alive in her dying moments.

Furthermore, the fact that she was able to resist and kill the demon even in her dying moments implies that her strength at her peak was definitely not inferior to the demon that wanted to eat her.

In other words, this woman must have been injured in a fight and taken advantage of by the demon for blood sacrifice. During the ritual, the woman struggled and ultimately killed the demon by devouring it alive, resulting in both of them perishing.

With this thought, Lu Heng's emotions were inevitably shaken.

Looking again at the woman's corpse with the fierce and joyful expression, a hint of respect rose in him.

...This young lady, she's quite the fierce one!

Clearly, she was a righteous cultivator and also a female one at that, yet she acted so fiercely and ruthlessly when pushed to the brink...

Thinking again about how after being revived by borrowing a corpse, the first thing this young lady did was to arrogantly seek trouble with the strongest person of this generation...

Lu Heng held his forehead and murmured, "Friend Jiu Mie, oh Friend Jiu Mie, I wonder if you can withstand the opponent this time..."

If you can't handle it, then I will be in danger.

Chapter 303: The Long Night Is Coming

Above the swamp, Lu Heng muttered in a low voice.

Xiao Ai, meanwhile, looked at the wine suspended in the void, and the female corpse floating inside it, and said.

"The Wolf God, how should we dispose of this woman's corpse?"

She looked towards Lu Heng and asked, "Should we destroy it on the spot, or take it with us?"

Xiao Ai's words brought Lu Heng's thoughts back.

He looked at the female corpse floating in the wine and sighed.

"This body has been completely destroyed. Although it still retains the appearance of when she died, the essence inside has already been completely lost."

"Even if we leave it, it's not of much use... but let's just keep it anyway."

Lu Heng said, "Before the ban was broken, the Pregnant Evil Cauldron still kept this female cultivator imprisoned, so when the Heavenly Thunder Sword broke the ban, she could only escape with her soul. But now we have also brought out her physical body...maybe she would like to return to this body?"

"After all, a gold and silver nest is not as good as one's own dog's nest."

Lu Heng said as such, but to tell the truth, he didn't have much confidence.

Because Gu Yin's master's physical body, as a carrier of the soul, was simply too perfect.

Although it has been trained into a living corpse by evil methods, under the care and nourishment of Gu Yin for more than two hundred years, this body has not been damaged at its core, but has rather been constantly nourished.

Plus, with no soul left and almost no resistance when a new soul enters, it is simply the best vessel for taking over.

After getting used to the new body, the woman may not be willing to return to this body that has exhausted its source and is extremely decayed.

Dispelling the liquid that had been suspended in the air, and letting the body that had been soaking in the liquid for who knows how many years fall to the ground, Lu Heng didn't leave.

After thanking the Land God, he let the other party leave.

Although the evil demons underground have been completely eradicated, there are still people that he needs to wait for.

At the edge of the swamp, he chose a small hill with a relatively open view for his cultivation and Lu Heng also waited there for someone.

Soon, another day passed, and Lu Heng finally saw a familiar figure appearing in the wilderness from a distance.

The old monk wearing rough sackcloth, with a thin and withered body, and carrying a tattered cloth package, every step he took in the wilderness was visible from a thousand feet away.

He soon arrived in front of Lu Heng.

However, upon seeing the situation by Lu Heng's side, Jiu Mie was slightly surprised.

"My friend, what is happening to you..."

Jiu Mie looked at the woman's body standing quietly behind Lu Heng, with a strange expression on his face.

"Where did you find this beautiful woman? She is indeed pretty... However, although she is extremely beautiful and can be called the most beautiful in the world, she is still just a corpse."

"As the dignified Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain, how can my friend behave like this... This is beyond words. If you need a companion, there are plenty of good women in the world for you to choose from. Why bother with a corpse?"

"No problem, please ask the old ascetic cultivator for help... The old ascetic cultivator has traveled far and wide, he has also seen many beautiful women and can help my friend keep an eye out and make introductions."

Jiu Mie tried to persuade with a stern tone and a worried look on his face.

Lu Heng, however, had a bright smile on his face, as he was extremely happy.

"Oh... my friend has finally arrived, I've been waiting for you so long."

Lu Heng walked forward and immediately took Jiu Mie's hand, very warmly, "Friend, please have a seat. I have been troubled and in need of your help for this woman, so it is wonderful that you are willing to assist me now."

Lu Heng was so enthusiastic that Jiu Mie couldn't help but be surprised and subconsciously withdrew his hand from Lu Heng's grasp.

I dare not sit.

"Your words, my friend, are truly terrifying..."

Jiu Mie looked Lu Heng up and down, and said, "My friend, please tell me first what has happened. We can sit down after you finish."

Lu Heng laughed heartily and didn't refuse. He quickly recounted the situation of Gu Yin's Master's body being taken and how he came to dig it out from underground.

After listening, Jiu Mie was slightly surprised.

He scrutinized the body of the woman before him once again.

Under the dim sunlight, this woman, wearing a gorgeous divine robe, still looked dignified and elegant, despite the loss of her source and the absence of her divine powers.

The cold and proud temperament between her brows made people not dare to underestimate her, even though she was only a decaying corpse.

Not to mention that after the woman's soul broke free, she would seek trouble with the strongest person in the world...

"Perhaps my friend considers that his swordsmanship is too sharp and he is afraid of injuring Gu Yin's Master, so he cannot take action. Therefore, he wants to invite the old ascetic cultivator to fight this woman," said Jiu Mie.

Lu Heng chuckled and said, "Truly, you are my good friend, understanding my heart! My friend is so enthusiastic, and on behalf of Gu Yin, I thank you, my friend, Lu Heng appreciates your kindness."

Saying this, Lu Heng turned to Xiao Ai and Shen Wuyou beside him and said, "Xiao Ai, Wuyou, please get ready, we can set off for the Floating Jade Mountain now."

However, as soon as Lu Heng finished speaking, Jiu Mie grabbed him and he couldn't help but laugh and cry.

"My friend, are you really at ease with the old ascetic cultivator? Aren't you afraid that the woman will kill the old ascetic cultivator with just two palms? After she borrows a corpse to revive herself, the first thing she will do is to look for the strongest person in the world to fight," said Jiu Mie.

"Ancient people who have such confidence must have extraordinary strength. A mere Jiu Mie is perhaps not her match and may be defeated with just one move upon meeting her," said Jiu Mie.

"Losing the old ascetic cultivator's life is a small matter, but failing to fulfill your trust as my friend would be a big mistake... We must go look for her together!"

Jiu Mie said solemnly, "With the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain as our backer, I don't think anyone in the world would dare to threaten the old ascetic cultivator's life in front of the Wolf God."

Lu Heng looked worried and said, "But I still have to go to the Floating Jade Mountain to meet Xiao Juechen and test if I can get into the Green Hell Cave... If I delay too long and miss the opportunity, I may not have another chance like this in the future."

Jiu Mie was even more surprised and said, "Go see Xiao Juechen? Isn't he one of the Four Elders in the Green Hell Cave? Are you really going to see him, my friend?"

Jiu Mie couldn't understand it.

Lu Heng explained the matter of the Fierce Demon Feast to Jiu Mie and let him know about his appointment with Xiao Juechen.

Only now did Jiu Mie understand. "So that's how it is... This is indeed a rare opportunity. If you can sneak into the Green Hell Cave, my friend, it will be easy to eliminate the threat of the Lord of All Demons."

After pondering for a moment, the old wanderer let out a helpless sigh and said,

"If that's the case, then this woman's matter can only fall on the shoulders of the old ascetic cultivator... sigh... my friend, you can rest assured and go ahead. The old ascetic cultivator will go and find that woman."

"I just hope that my friend can solve the troubles in the Green Hell Cave as soon as possible, and come to collect the old ascetic cultivator's corpse. If it's too late, the wild dogs and jackals will take away the old ascetic cultivator's bones and they won't be complete."

Jiu Mie's joke made Lu Heng smile wryly and shake his head.

"My friend, you are exaggerating too much. Even if that woman is really powerful, since she could not transcend, I don't think she is invincible... At worst, my friend can still run away."

Lu Heng smiled and arched his hand, saying "Next time we meet, please try the peach fruit of Hanyu Mountain. Since my friend has taken risks this time, he should be able to have the blessing of the peach fruit."

Jiu Mie laughed heartily and put his hands together, saying "If the old ascetic cultivator is lucky enough not to die, he must come and taste it... My friend, goodbye for now."

"Goodbye."

Above the wilderness, the ascetic and the wolf bid farewell.

On the far horizon, the setting sun sinks to the west.

The pitch-black and long profound night is about to come.

Chapter 304: Lu Heng and I Are Sworn Enemies

The Floating Jade Mountain.

Located in a vast and desolate wilderness in the southeast of the Fire Pass Country, there is a huge mountain range with continuous peaks and primitive jungles that block out the sky.

In the mountains live many creatures, including exotic beasts and insects.

Although it is far from the cities inhabited by humans and outside the scope of mortal activities, it still has a considerable reputation.

Because on this mountain, whenever the darkness falls and stars fill the sky, if there are no clouds covering the starlight, a warm jade light will appear on the top of the mountain and gather and flow in the night sky.

Looking from afar, it appears as if a huge and warm jade stone is suspended over the mountains.

Therefore, it is named the Floating Jade Mountain.

However, Lu Heng tonight was unable to witness such a strange sight.

Because when he arrived at the Floating Jade Mountain, it was clouded and there were no stars to be seen. The mountains under the clouds were exceptionally dim and the cold wind was blowing.

However, since this place was a gathering place for demons and monsters, Lu Heng didn't expect to see any beautiful scenery here.

Having landed on the main peak of the Floating Jade Mountain with Xiao Ai and Shen Wuyou, Lu Heng looked around and said:

"Is Xiao Juechen here?"

As he spoke, Lu Heng took out the talisman that was given to him by Xiao Juechen when they parted ways at the Fierce Demon Feast earlier.

In the wilderness, there was originally nothingness.

However, when Lu Heng took out that talisman, demonic energy suddenly appeared all around him, and from far away, two figures emerged from the void.

"Is the master the Heavenly Demon Lord?"

The two black shadows respectfully asked.

Lu Heng looked at the two sudden demons in surprise. With his cultivation, he couldn't find out how these two demons had appeared.

It seems that the formation set up by the Floating Jade Mountain is a thousand times more powerful than the rough formation set up at the Fierce Demon Feast.

In the face of the respectful greeting from the two demons, Lu Heng nodded calmly and said.

"It is I... And what about your master Xiao Juechen? Is he still alive?"

The two demons accompanied by a smile said, "The Heavenly Demon Lord is concerned. Master Xiao Juechen is safe and sound and is currently resting in his cave. We'll lead the way for you."

As they spoke, the two demons stepped aside, and in the void behind them, a semi-transparent portal appeared.

Obviously, this is the entrance to the demon's mansion.

Lu Heng nodded coolly, without saying much to the two demons, and led Xiao Ai and Wuyou directly into the mansion.

The two demons hurried to catch up.

After stepping through the semi-transparent portal, Lu Heng suddenly felt the environment around him change dramatically.

The originally desolate and empty mountains completely disappeared from sight.

What appeared in front of Lu Heng was a massive cavern with spacious surroundings.

On the huge vaulted ceiling hung innumerable stalactites, from which water droplets occasionally fell.

However, unlike typical mountain caves, this cavern didn't seem gloomy and depressing. When the water droplets dripped from the stalactites and fell on the ground, they disappeared immediately without leaving any traces of dampness or moisture.

In this brightly lit cavern, a multitude of rare and exotic greenery were planted, surrounded by lush trees and the soothing sound of flowing water. The scenery was as if one were situated within a tranquil, pastoral wonderland.

If it were not for the strong evil aura in the air, this place would be simply like a utopia, secluded from the world.

As soon as Lu Heng appeared, he heard the exultant voice of Xiao Juechen.

"The Heavenly Demon Lord!"

Following the sound, Lu Heng saw Xiao Juechen in his scholar's robe, standing on the small bridge ahead, bowing to him in greeting.

Beneath the small bridge, the clear river water meandered, with colorful fish swimming within. The river extended deep into the cavern.

Even just the grand scene at the entrance of the cavern was remarkable.

This demon named Xiao Juechen not only dressed as a scholar, but also had excellent taste, able to create such an elegant and otherworldly underground cavern.

It seems that before falling into demonic ways, he must have been a person of refined tastes, rather than a typical demon who enjoys fighting and killing.

With these thoughts in mind, Lu Heng smiled faintly and also returned the greeting with a bow to the front.

"It is truly heartening to see Brother Xiao safe once again."

Xiao Juechen also smiled and said, "We faced many dangers when we parted, fortunately, we both are safe...uh..."

As he was speaking, Xiao Juechen noticed that there was one less young follower beside Lu Heng.

Xiao Juechen's smile slightly faltered, and then he apologized with a hint of regret.

"Evil Lord, please accept our condolences."

This remark caught Lu Heng off guard for a moment, and he only reacted to it afterwards.

During the Fierce Demon Feast, there were three young followers by my side, Gu Yan, Xiao Ai, and Wuyou.

Now that Gu Yan has stayed behind at the Water Palace of Pang River, Lu Heng only has two remaining followers by his side.

Given the situation, Xiao Juechen probably thought that Lu Heng had lost a disciple when he fled that day.

Regarding this, Lu Heng let out a small sigh and said:

"It is all due to my insufficient strength, I couldn't defeat the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain. My disciples suffered calamity only because they were trying to protect me... But as the Heavenly Demon Lord, I remember the grudge of my killed disciples in my heart."

"If there is a chance in the future, I will make sure that the Wolf God pays the price!"

Lu Heng said in a cold and resolute tone, with a frosty killing intent.

Acting as if it's real.

Xiao Juechen hurriedly echoed, with a sorrowful expression that seemed to feel empathetic, but in fact, he was overjoyed in his heart.

Before, [It] was still worried about how to bind the Heavenly Demon Lord on [Its] warship and feared that the allure of the exotic treasure was not strong enough. But now, [It] didn't expect that the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain killed one of the Heavenly Demon Lord's disciples, and the two sides became deadly enemies.

With the vengeful style of the demonic path, how could the Heavenly Demon Lord possibly reconcile with the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain after suffering such a huge loss?

Now even if there's no temptation of exotic treasures, the Heavenly Demon Lord will surely stand with the Green Hell Cave to confront the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain together.

At the thought of this, Xiao Juechen cried out in his heart, "Heaven has assisted me too!"

This is the only good news among many bad news recently.

Hastily, Xiao Juechen said, "Let's quickly welcome the Heavenly Demon Lord into the cave."

"Evil Lord arrived just in time tonight; half an hour ago, his messenger arrived with news that the time of the emergence of a precious treasure is approaching, and he has summoned me back to the lair."

"I originally intended to wait a few more days for the arrival of the Evil Lord, but I didn't expect him to come so soon... Haha... it seems that we can return to the lair together tonight."

Xiao Juechen said, "Currently, the messenger is in the cave. He is General Tiger Dragon, one of the three demon generals occupying the Green Hell Cave, and has long admired the evil lord. Today, I will introduce him."

"Oh? General Tiger Dragon?" Xiao Juechen's words caused a slight stir in Lu Heng's heart.

In the mortal world, the dragon clan is mysterious and unfathomable. Although it can be confirmed that there are cloud dragons in this world that bring rain and maintain the continuous weather patterns of this vast world.

However, the Divine Dragon is elusive. Lu Heng has been in this world for so long, but has never seen a dragon before.

Regarding General Tiger Dragon, one of the three monsters in the Green Hell Cave, Lu Heng was quite curious when he heard about him from Lianshan Jing before, but he didn't expect to encounter him exactly now.

Dragon clan is already rare, and a demonic dragon is even rarer.

Therefore, Lu Heng also smiled and said, "So you are General Tiger Dragon. I have also heard of your great name. Today, it is fortunate to have the pleasure of meeting you through the introduction of Brother Xiao."

I'll Quit Being a God

Chapter 305: Evil Arts (1)

Inside the demon's den, Lu Heng followed Xiao Juechen's guidance and went straight inside.

The scenery that met his eyes featured exquisite pavilions, towers, eaves, and arches. Even the small pavilions by the roadside were built with great delicacy.

Although demons occasionally appeared, and because of their wicked habits most of them preferred to manifest in the form of beasts, they were all neatly dressed without any dirt or stains.

In addition, the luxuriant trees covering the many pavilions, towers, rockeries, and flowing water, embellished with various colorful flowers and vibrant foliage... if it weren't for the large dome arching overhead and the occasional appearance of demon figures nearby, one would almost mistake it for a luxurious human mansion.

This architectural style is not found in the Fire Pass Country.

Although the Fire Pass Country also had high-ranking figures, all the holders of power from Emperor Yan and Lianshan Jing downwards were the Wuzhu of the Fire God Temple, who cultivated the incense-burning divine way and didn't indulge in luxury or extravagance.

Therefore, even Lu Heng's accommodation at Emperor Yan's mansion in Fu Shan City was decorated and constructed with simplicity, no different from an ordinary household.

Luxurious mansions like the one belonging to Xiao Juechen have a style that is completely foreign to this country.

It is unknown whether Xiao Juechen, one of the Four Elders of the Green Hell Cave, is a native of the Fire Pass Country.

However, with such a luxurious and neat mansion, it seems that Xiao Juechen, the human-demon, had an unquestionably high status before entering the demonic path, enabling him to have such grandeur and display.

Soon, following Xiao Juechen's guidance, Lu Heng arrived at the depths of the cave and met the demon general known as General Tiger Dragon.

In the grand hall, decorated like a palace, a dragon several meters long was feasting greedily.

However, what it was devouring was neither a human nor a baby. Although there were blood stains all over the scene, which was quite shocking, the creature being greedily eaten was a demon wearing a maid's outfit.

Although its head was already bitten off, the appearance of its body still roughly indicated that it was a rabbit demon.

This rabbit demon has not yet opened the heaven door, but it was only inspired by the great demon and given some demon power, so it can transform into a half-human and half-demon form.

It had human limbs and was dressed in a maid's dress, but its whole body was covered in fur, and had a rabbit head that was magnified several times.

This kind of wild beast that has been inspired by the great demon is able to have human intelligence, but its foundations are destroyed by indulging too much too soon. Without special opportunities, it can hardly continue its cultivation and can only perform menial work in the demon cave.

Any slightly strong mortal can easily kill it.

-- But even so, it is still inspired with great demon's painstaking efforts.

When Lu Heng and they walked into the hall and saw this scene, Lu Heng was fine, but Xiao Juechen beside him's face changed drastically.

It never occurred to it that as soon as it left, General Tiger Dragon would devour its maidens.

Now in the palace, all the other rabbit demon maidservants were expressing fearful expressions, hiding far away and not daring to approach. They trembled in fear at the sight of this bloody scene before their eyes.

Xiao Juechen's face was even more gloomy, and he spoke directly.

"General Tiger Dragon, you eating people in my cave is excessively rude behavior. The blood is also spread all over the place... What is the meaning behind this?"

Xiao Juechen stared at the dragon in front of him, as well as the bloody scene beside it, and didn't conceal his anger.

Upon hearing Xiao Juechen's voice, the huge dragon turned its head and looked at Xiao Juechen, as well as Lu Heng behind him.

The dragon licked the blood on its mouth and said, "What's wrong with me eating your maidservant? I like to eat half-monsters, and didn't you promise to give me two rabbit demon maidservants before? Why are you unwilling now?"

Xiao Juechen's expression was angry, "I thought you wanted the rabbit demon maidservants to serve you! These rabbit demon maidservants were carefully trained by me. Their etiquette and posture are not inferior to court maids! I spent so much effort and energy educating these maidservants... and you want to eat them?! It's such a waste!"

"And you even dirtied my palace... Even if you really want to eat, can't you be more elegant? Do you have to splash blood everywhere?"

Xiao Juechen's angry questioning clearly showed that, compared to the death of his maidservant, he was more unable to bear the fact that the dragon had dirtied his palace.

Seeing the situation, the dragon snorted from its nostrils and said, "Isn't it just a little blood splatter? I'll help you clean it up now. Is that okay?"

After speaking, the dragon blew a breath directly towards the palace in front of it.

In an instant, a fierce wind blew inside the palace, gathering all the splattered blood on the walls, carpets, stone pillars, etc. with an invisible force. Finally, the blood flew out of the palace and turned into a dim blood cloud, hovering above the lotus pond outside the palace's gate, and falling as a light rain.

Amidst the sound of dripping water, the giant dragon sat coiled in the clean and tidy hall and said,

"I personally helped you disturb the cleanliness, are you satisfied this time?"

Xiao Juechen gave it and the almost completely gnawed corpse of the rabbit demon servant behind it a cold stare and said, "Our agreement about the servant girl is now null and void!"

In full view of the public, Xiao Juechen showed no respect for General Tiger Dragon.

However, the huge dragon didn't care. It opened its mouth and swallowed the remaining body of the rabbit demon servant with clothes and bones, while looking at Lu Heng behind Xiao Juechen, chewing its food at the same time.

He said, "Is this the Heavenly Demon Lord? I heard that the evil lord is coming to the Green Hell Cave to get a piece of the action... I wonder what qualifications the evil lord has? Dare to come and get involved? Perhaps it is just a decorative pillow that looks good but is useless?"

The lazy appearance of the dragon clearly indicates that it is trying to pick a fight and probe.

To this, Lu Heng smiled slightly, his smile was so gentle that it surprised the dragon's heart - Damn! It's a Smiling-face Demon!

Before Tiger Dragon could even think about it, Lu Heng smiled and said, "Does General Tiger Dragon want to have a battle with me?"

Lu Heng's words interrupted the dragon's thoughts.

It didn't have time to ponder on the matter of the Smiling-face Demon... Anyway, although the Smiling-face Demon was disgusting, its cultivation level varies.

As long as my cultivation level is higher than it, I am not afraid of it!

The dragon, so confidently, burst into a loud laughter.

"Hahaha... That's right! I am looking forward to fighting! Stretching my muscles and bones would be nice!"

Inside the palace, the dragon's laughter echoed continuously, as if it were thunderous and ear-shattering.

Those rabbit demon maids were so scared that they screamed and ran away, they could not withstand such a strong evil energy.

Lu Heng took the initiative but shook his head, "This is Brother Xiao's mansion, not suitable for fighting. Besides, General, did you not notice anything unusual when you just swallowed the corpse of the rabbit demon maid?"

The words of Lu Heng caused a slight astonishment in General Tiger Dragon.

Immediately after, there were strange sounds coming from within its belly.

Creak, creak, creak...

From the huge belly of the dragon, there came a strange sound of bones clinking.

Then the dragon clearly felt that... something seemed to be crawling inside its throat? Trying to crawl out?

Chapter 306: Evil Arts (2)

The countenance of General Tiger Dragon instantly became extremely unsightly.

"What the hell is this!"

Its face turned pale, it directly opened its mouth and vomited out the thing that was crawling out of its throat.

Afterwards, what appeared in the sight of everyone was a set of completely bloodstained and scarred white bones, which was the rabbit demon servant that had been swallowed earlier by General Tiger Dragon.

However, the bones that had already been chewed to pieces were now miraculously pieced together. Although they were covered in cracks, a thin level of bloody membrane attached to the surface of the bones was controlling this grim skeleton which was constantly running and rushing towards the giant dragon.

It looked like a fierce ghost crawling out of a tomb to take lives.

The eerie scene frightened General Tiger Dragon to his core.

Even among the demons, who has ever witnessed such an eerie sight?

A corpse that was chewed up, swallowed, and now crawled out of its belly, was still screaming and rushing towards it for its life?

General Tiger Dragon opened his blood-filled mouth, full of sharp fangs, and spewed a blaze of fire directly onto the skeleton of the rabbit demon maid.

However, a strange and eerie scene occurred.

When the dragon's all-consuming true fire spewed onto the eerie white bones, it was unable to immediately melt them away. Despite being engulfed by the true fire and receiving a tremendous impact, the white bones struggled violently several times before being flung out by the immense force and crashing heavily outside the palace.

However, after being thrown out, although the white bones still maintained their complete appearance, the level of blood on the surface was already filled with cracks. Strands of sinister and evil energy emanated from the cracks of the bones.

Feeling the strange and sinister evil death qi, both Xiao Juechen and General Tiger Dragon's faces changed.

This evil qi is so pervasive!

Even when they had reached the level of cultivation as high as theirs, feeling this sinister and evil energy, they couldn't help but feel a chill down their spines.

In the palace, there was a sudden moment of silence.

The imposing General Tiger Dragon's eyes were filled with suspicion and uncertainty, to the extent that he even prepared himself to flee.

While Xiao Juechen anxiously looked at Lu Heng for a moment, he breathed a sigh of relief when he saw that the Heavenly Demon Lord had stopped and had no plan to continue his attack.

Hastily, he said, "The Evil Lord's techniques are so powerful, truly defying the laws of heaven and earth. It's an eye-opening experience for me... Impressive, truly impressive!"

Xiao Juechen's words of admiration come from the bottom of his heart.

The Heavenly Demon Lord standing before him seemed to have done nothing, but in fact, he had already played around with General Tiger Dragon, and with ease, displayed such eerie and terrifying magic...This low-key Heavenly Demon Lord has quite a reputation!

After Xiao Juechen spoke, the atmosphere relaxed a bit, and the huge dragon looked at Lu Heng in confusion and said.

"What kind of dark magic is this? Why is it so bizarre?"

In the frightened gaze of the demonic beings, Lu Heng sighed inwardly but smiled slightly on his face, and said.

"This is an ancient dark magic, the 'Soul-Capturing and Life-Control Technique'. It uses the body of a freshly dead person as a vessel, extracting the resentment and spiritual energy from its soul, transforming it into a puppet that will obey commands and never die or rest."

"However, in order to completely carry out this ritual, the puppet needs to be trained for a full forty-four days to become a true Soul-Capturing Puppet."

"For now, it's just a small test of my swordsmanship. This skeleton is only able to move, nothing too complicated."

Lu Heng's words were not boasting.

The dark magic recorded in "Evil Cultivations" is both horrifying and eerie, possessing unfathomable power.

If the Soul-Capturing and Life-Control Technique is truly employed to create a perfect Soul-Capturing Puppet, then the puppet will relentlessly pursue its target day and night. The puppet is immune to the elements and impervious to both good and evil, not subject to the five elements, and surpasses the limits of the heavens and earth. It can even enter different dimensions and assassinate targets from within, making it almost impossible to defend against.

Lu Heng, who didn't cultivate Evil Cultivation, could only manage to make this skeleton move by borrowing the power of the Evil Death Qi through the Netherworld Imprint.

If he were to go and refine a Soul-Capturing Puppet, he wouldn't be able to do so without the assistance of Evil Cultivation techniques.

However, even so, it still frightened General Tiger Dragon and Xiao Juechen.

They don't know that Lu Heng doesn't cultivate evil skills.

Hearing Lu Heng speak in such a manner, was interpreted as an act of condescension towards General Tiger Dragon, rather than an equal exchange of views.

Realizing this, the giant dragon quickly transformed into human form and respectfully bowed in thanks.

"I, Tiger Dragon, express gratitude towards the Evil Lord's gracious gesture."

The white bones casually summoned in such a way were so difficult to deal with that even their true fire could not extinguish them. If the Heavenly Demon Lord were a little more suspicious and decided to create a killing puppet to pursue him, he would not have survived!

At this moment, General Tiger Dragon confirmed one thing: anyone can be offended, but the Smiling-face Demon in front of him must not be offended under any circumstances.

With such great strength and being the Smiling-face Demon, offending this terrifying being would surely lead to a spine-tingling outcome.

And General Tiger Dragon respectfully bowed, while Xiao Juechen hesitated for a few moments before finally beginning to speak.

"Evil Lord, umm... As far as I know, the technique of capturing and extracting the soul had long since been lost and is an ancient demon art from ancient times that once flourished. It was said to have assassinated the ancient divine beast Lu Wu."

Xiao Juechen cautiously looked at Lu Heng and said, "Have you, Evil Lord, ever witnessed the Earthly Catastrophe that occurred during ancient times?"

Xiao Juechen's words clearly implied that Lu Heng was the ancient demon who used devilry to assassinate Lu Wu in ancient times.

Or perhaps, the successor of that ancient demon...

To this, Lu Heng smiled a little and said, "Brother Xiao need not fear. I am not the demon who assassinated Lu Wu."

"The technique of capturing and extracting the soul is not my specialty. The devilry I hold in my hands is much stronger than that."

Lu Heng casually uttered a frank remark, instantly causing General Tiger Dragon to break out in a cold sweat.

This technique of capturing and extracting the soul is not even the strongest? This guy has even more terrifying devilry?

Oh my goodness! Where did this demon pop out from?!

Xiao Juechen's face also changed slightly as he suddenly thought of something.

When Evil Lord met me before, it mentioned that one of its disciples sacrificed himself to cover its escape and died under the hands of the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain.

At the beginning, he didn't pay attention.

But now as he thinks back, the amount of information conveyed in that sentence was quite significant.

The Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain, who commands the power of heavenly thunder and has unparalleled swordsmanship, even someone like Xiao Juechen would not last long in front of him.

However, the strange bird by Evil Lord's side was able to hold off the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain and cover Evil Lord's escape. Could it be that the young cultivators around Evil Lord, who are covered in evil death qi and are difficult to gauge, are actually top-level evil cultivators to be able to achieve this?

Not inferior to him, Xiao Juechen?

This thought made Xiao Juechen's heart skip a beat.

Looking again at the disciple behind Lu Heng, who was covered in evil death qi and whose background could not be seen even with magic eyes, Xiao Juechen no longer dares to act superior.

Although Evil Lord and it are peers when it comes to socializing, if one were to rank based on strength, the young disciples behind Evil Lord may be more powerful than Xiao Juechen...

Chapter 307: The Lord of All Demons Comes Out to See Me

Inside the palace, the atmosphere is eerie.

The once arrogant General Tiger Dragon now trembles in fear. After transforming into a human, he feels nothing but cold sweat running down his back.

And Xiao Juechen felt scared in his heart, losing his courage to speak for a moment.

- After all, the Heavenly Demon Lord in front of us may be a true giant of the demonic world! Far surpassing the usual evil demons.

Seeing that both demons were silent, Lu Heng smiled and took the initiative to break the eerie silence by speaking up.

"Alright, now that the literary competition is over, we can consider ourselves acquainted."

Lu Heng, who was obviously a guest, now seemed to take the lead like a host. He smiled and said, "I heard that General Tiger Dragon came here to deliver a message to invite Brother Xiao back to the lair to prepare for the appearance of the exotic treasure with the secret of immortality... May I come along? I am also quite interested in this secret of immortality."

Lu Heng's words eased the atmosphere in the palace.

General Tiger Dragon nodded hastily and said, "Indeed, the cave lord commanded me to summon someone back as a precious treasure is about to emerge, and we must prepare well in advance."

Xiao Juechen also spoke up, "This is indeed an opportunity. The master of the cave has been fascinated by the name of the Evil Lord for a long time. If the Evil Lord comes, he wants to be introduced as soon as possible. Now that the Evil Lord happens to be traveling with both of us to the Green Hell Cave, we can work together."

Lu Heng couldn't refuse the invitation of the two demons.

Whether they can cooperate on the matter is not important, the main point is to find out the true location of the Green Hell Cave.

Lu Heng smiled and said, "Well then, I'll trouble both of you to lead the way."

Xiao Juechen and the Dragon General simultaneously said, "No, no, it's just our duty."

Then, Lu Heng and the others didn't stop, while the Dragon General and Xiao Juechen led the way ahead, and everyone went directly towards the depths of the cave.

According to Xiao Juechen, the Green Hell Cave is not in the mortal world, but stands outside the realm of heaven and earth, in an alien evil realm. However, it has three footholds in the mortal world.

This Floating Jade Mountain is one of the footholds in the mortal world where the Green Hell Cave is situated.

From the depths of the demon cave in the Floating Jade Mountain, there are two passages that lead directly to the Green Hell Cave. Anyone who goes to the Green Hell Cave must pass through the Tao Scripture passage.

Passing through the pavilions and buildings hidden in the depths of the forest, Lu Heng and the others arrived at a huge altar deep in the cave.

On the altar, dazzling starlight shone and corresponded to the number of days in a week. The swirling earth spirit energy turned into a bright yellow river that flowed on the ground.

Between the stars and the earth, a huge gateway vaguely appeared, and it was unclear where it led to.

Xiao Juechen said, "Enter from here and you'll find a direct passage to the cave."

However, as soon as Xiao Juechen spoke, the entire Floating Jade Mountain shook violently.

The ground trembled, causing the entire altar to shake. The bright yellow earth spirit energy was in chaos, and above the altar, the stars' illusory figures flickered violently.

The voice of a cold and clear woman echoed throughout the inside and outside of the Floating Jade Mountain, and even the altar deep underground could hear it clearly.

"Where are the demons of the Green Hell Cave? Come out for me!"

Hearing this voice, Lu Heng was slightly stunned, suddenly thinking of a possibility.

It couldn't be that the ancient monster who took away Gu Yin's Master's body has come knocking at the door... Is it just a coincidence?

Lu Heng's expression was somewhat strange.

But to Xiao Juechen and General Jiaolong, Lu Heng's strange expression seemed somewhat suspicious.

After all, the Green Hell Cave is a well-known demonic force in the southeast, and with such a strong presence established in the Land of Absolute Demons like Fire Pass Country, all the top monsters and demons of the Green Hell Cave are extremely proud.

But now, they were being beaten right in front of the Heavenly Demon Lord's face...

General Tiger Dragon suddenly turned around and said, "I will go meet this woman and see what she's made of, daring to make a scene in the Green Hell Cave!"

After speaking, General Tiger Dragon let out a dragon roar and transformed into a giant dragon that was several tens of meters long. Then, he flew towards the stars in the sky above the altar and dove into the virtual image of the stars, disappearing from Lu Heng's sight.

Xiao Juechen said, "This place leads to the outside world...the Evil Lord can go to the cave and wait. Someone will receive you there."

After finishing his words in a hurry, Xiao Juechen also flew up and quickly followed.

Also disappeared into the illusion of stars that filled the sky.

Xiao Juechen is not as impulsive as General Tiger Dragon. The instant that woman spoke, he sensed that something was amiss.

As one of the three main support points of the Green Hell Cave, the Floating Jade Mountain has always been extremely hidden, and even the middle-level demons in the cave don't know much about it.

Those who are aware of the fact that the Floating Jade Mountain is a demon cave are very few, otherwise the Fire Pass Country's wizards would have exterminated this place long ago.

Although the identity of the woman outside is unknown, she was able to reveal that this is the gathering place of demons for the Green Hell Cave... This woman is definitely up to no good!

Xiao Juechen hurriedly left, but Lu Heng didn't follow his advice to enter the void gateway and go to the Green Hell Cave. Instead, he took Xiao Ai and Shen Wuyou and flew up together, disappearing into the stars.

As the starlight flooded around him, Lu Heng felt himself flying rapidly through the Floating Jade Mountain, swiftly passing through level after level of formations, until he finally flew out of a valley behind the mountain.

The cold moonlight is now falling on the mountains.

The dark clouds that obscured everything when Lu Heng came have now dissipated.

Under the moonlight, the warm jade light flows gently over the Floating Jade Mountain, as if a gigantic beautiful jade is hanging high in the night sky.

However, at this moment, this magnificent and mystical sight remains unappreciated by anyone.

Because Lu Heng and others in the Floating Jade Mountain were more concerned about the woman in the void outside the mountain.

The scarlet wedding dress, made of phoenix feathers and blood, known as the Blood Dress of Nishang, is an evil tool used to refine the living corpse. However, it doesn't give off an evil aura on this woman despite being such a strange item.

Completely suppressed by it, the corrupt aura has no longer been able to overflow.

Under the moonlight, she coldly stares at the giant dragon in front of her and says, "Are you the demon from the Green Hell Cave? Where is the Lord of All Demons? Bring him out to see me. A worm like you is not worthy of speaking to me."

The cold and contemptuous language from the woman in red instantly enraged the enormous Tiger Dragon.

Having arrived in the outside world and transformed back to its original form, the giant dragon, hundreds of feet long, resembled a deity from a legendary mural, with the aura of wind and thunder rippling constantly around its body.

It roared angrily, "This woman is looking for death!"

However, just as General Tiger Dragon was about to strike, he was swiftly intercepted by Xiao Juechen who had hurriedly arrived.

"General, calm down! General, calm down!"

Having finally restrained the raging dragon, Xiao Juechen then bowed to the woman in red in the distant void.

"The Lord of the Green Hell Cave, Xiao Juechen, has met the goddess... I wonder why the goddess has come to this secluded place to seek me, the lord of the demon cave. Is there something you want to discuss? This place is incredibly hidden, so for the goddess to come here, someone must have referred you here."

"I wonder which leader of my cave introduced the goddess to come."

Xiao Juechen said, "If there is a token, we will definitely introduce you, and we will not pass it off."

I'll Quit Being a God

Chapter 308: Lian Cangqing

Xiao Juechen smiled as he probed, intending to ease the atmosphere first.

However, under the moonlight, the woman in the bright red wedding dress sneered disdainfully and said, "Introduction? Do I need an introduction to find you bunch of demons?"

"This Three Realms Gathering Array is so crude that I can just observe the direction of the earth's aura and see at a glance where the fulcrum is... Do I still need an introduction?"

She sneered at the two demons in front of her and said, "Your words are so funny that you have successfully made me laugh. Since your joke is good enough, I will spare your offense and ask you to call the Lord of All Demons."

"I just want to see how much weight the so-called strongest demon in this place carries!"

Xiao Juechen's expression changed slightly upon hearing the arrogant words of the woman in the red dress.

Can you believe that this woman said she can see at a glance where the fulcrum of the Green Hell Cave is?

The Three Realms Gathering Array is an ancient secret technique unintentionally discovered by the cave owner, and no one in the present can break it. Even the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain, the wizards of Fire Pass Country, resent the Green Hell Cave, but they have failed to grasp its true location.

All of this is due to the Three Realms Gathering Array set up by the cave owner.

But not only did the woman in front of him call out the name of the formation, she even claimed she could see through it... When the cave owner set up the formation, he said that it was a creation of heaven and earth, and even in ancient times, few could break it.

This mysterious woman in the red dress...

Xiao Juechen felt fear in his heart, and his face became even more respectful. He quickly said, "May I ask how to address the goddess? I will report this matter to the cave owner."

Under the moonlight, the woman in red looked coldly at it and said, "My name is Lian Cangqing. You may inform the Lord of All Demons and have it come out to see me."

Lian Cangqing... Xiao Juechen muttered the name to himself, but he couldn't remember when such a formidable person with that surname had appeared in this world.

It seems that since Lu Heng emerged from Hanyu Mountain, more and more top cultivators have suddenly appeared in this world.

What old monk Jiu Mie, the Heavenly Demon Lord, and Lian Cangqing...

All of them are obscure figures with unclear origins and even possibly top cultivators who existed in ancient times but had no widespread reputation.

With this in mind, Xiao Juechen tentatively asked, "I wonder if the goddess has ever heard of the name Lu Heng, known as the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain, who is said to command heavenly thunder to destroy all evil and wield a half Ancient Sword to rule the world..."

Xiao Juechen's inquiry caused the woman in red to furrow her brows slightly.

"What's this about the Wolf God Lu Heng... It sounds arrogant, but I've never heard of him. If you want to call out the Lord of All Demons, go ahead and do it. Why ask so many questions?"

The woman in red was extremely impatient.

And Xiao Juechen's heart skipped a beat... In today's world, who doesn't know of the illustrious reputation of the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain?

If this woman doesn't know the name of the Wolf God, there is only one possible explanation: she is also an old monster who has been hidden away for years, and was active in a different era than the Wolf God in ancient times. She only recently came into the world again.

As for whether she was active before or after the Wolf God... either possibility is equally dreadful.

Xiao Juechen felt nervous in his heart, and his expression became increasingly deferential. He quickly spoke, saying,

"The goddess wants to find the strongest person in this land... but he, the Lord of All Demons, is not the strongest in Fire Pass Country. The current undefeated champion recognized by the world is none other than the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain, Lu Heng."

"Not to mention the strongest in Fire Pass Country, even if one were to claim to be the strongest in the world, no one could question the status of the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain..."

Xiao Juechen spoke carefully, hoping to shift the blame to someone else.

However, the woman in red, who called herself Lian Cangqing, suddenly became furious and said, "I told you to summon the Lord of All Demons, not to drag your feet! Do you think I'm a football? Kicking me around?"

"Even if the Lord of All Demons is not the strongest in Fire Pass Country, I have come today and I must see what it is capable of!"

After speaking, the woman in red immediately slammed her palm forward, imprinting it on the air several miles away, towards Xiao Juechen in mid-air above the Floating Jade Mountain.

"Hesitation and obstruction... result in death!"

Under the moonlight, the raging qi blast thundered.

As the woman in red slammed her palm forward, even though she was several miles away, Xiao Juechen above the Floating Jade Mountain felt his heart skip and instinctively dodged.

But it was still too late.

The tremendous palm strength, extremely ferocious, landed on his chest and directly shattered Xiao Juechen into scattered blood mist.

On the side, General Tiger Dragon could only widen his eyes and witness Xiao Juechen turning into shattered flesh and blood flying, splattering him.

The terrifying scenery startled General Tiger Dragon.

"What the hell is going on!"

The heart of General Tiger Dragon trembled, despite his cultivation and vision, he couldn't even see how the palm of the red-clothed woman killed Xiao Juechen from a distance.

Lu Heng in the distance was also slightly surprised, having also failed to see the woman's move clearly.

Several miles away, a seemingly effortless palm strike killed Xiao Juechen of the Four Elders, directly from a distance... Lu Heng put himself in Xiao Juechen's shoes and realized that he too would not have been able to react if he had been standing in his place.

Will be killed directly by the strike.

Lu Heng's eyes instantly became serious.

After occupying the body and resurrecting, instead of adapting to the physical body and restoring the cultivation, this woman is spouting mad words about finding the strongest person in the world... It turns out it's not empty talk, she really has incredible means that ordinary people can't match.

In the void, the woman in red laughed disdainfully upon seeing Lu Heng and General Tiger Dragon both being subdued by her.

She said, "Now you can call for the Lord of All Demons to come out... Hmm?"

As soon as she finished speaking, the woman's eyebrows furrowed and she suddenly looked towards a certain direction of the Floating Jade Mountain.

The look in the eyes turned cold.

"Come out!"

After the woman's voice fell silent, Lu Heng and General Tiger Dragon also followed her gaze and instantly locked onto the mountain forest.

Under the gaze of several people, a half-decayed head rose up from the mountain forest.

Xiao Juechen's physical body was continuously crawling out from inside the decayed head. However, because he had only crawled halfway out, he now appeared extremely disgusting with blood flowing all over.

Seeing this scene, the woman in the red dress chuckled with a sudden realization.

"So it's a Corpse Demon, a devil that grows from the corpse of a strong person... Ha... To be able to cultivate to this level, he is considered an outstanding figure among Corpse Demons."

"Considering that your cultivation is not easy, and you have already died once, I spare your life now. Go and call the Lord of All Demons and I will pardon your previous offense of evading and offending me."

The woman in red spoke with contempt and arrogance. But now, no one dared to confront or mock her again.

Even General Tiger Dragon, who was initially so bold as to declare his intention to come and meet her, has now closed his mouth and dares not speak recklessly.

The woman in red in front of them had an unclear background, but her strength was clearly above that of Xiao Juechen.

If that strike had landed on him, he would have died just like Xiao Juechen did, but he wouldn't have had the chance to come back to life like him.

Although this woman is mad, she has the capital to be arrogant!

General Tiger Dragon remained silent while the body of Xiao Juechen, who was constantly struggling to crawl out of the void, let out a bitter smile.

"Goddess, wait a moment. The junior will go to the cave to invite the Demon Lord out..."

In the face of Lian Cangqing, a woman in red with an unclear background and extremely vicious aura, Xiao Juechen had completely lost his temper.

Even such a ruthless person has emerged... The current situation of the Fire Pass Country is becoming more and more chaotic.

With such a chaotic situation, can the chief's plan still be successfully implemented?

Xiao Juechen was worried in his heart.

I'll Quit Being a God

Chapter 309: That Scoundrel Is Called the Heavenly Demon Lord?

Xiao Juechen chose to compromise and agreed to go and invite the Lord of All Demons as per the demands of the woman in red.

The massive dragon in the void was slightly surprised and looked towards the direction of Xiao Juechen. Despite not speaking and being far apart, the expression of astonishment in its eyes clearly implied, "Are you really going to invite the chief?"

Upon this, Xiao Juechen could only smile helplessly and shake his head. "What else can we do?"

It struggled out with difficulty from the decayed human head, its appearance covered in blood and dirt, looking extremely wretched.

And once Xiao Juechen crawled out of the decayed human head, the wicked aura that surrounded it instantly weakened by a large extent. Amidst a few indistinct curses, the decayed human head vanished into Xiao Juechen's shadow.

It looks like he has a bad temper.

Under the moonlight, Xiao Juechen, who had shed his blood-stained clothes and regained his slender and weak scholar image, respectfully bowed to the red-clothed woman above and said,

"Please wait a moment, goddess. I will immediately go and invite the Demon Lord," said the younger one.

The red-clothed woman coldly snorted and said, "You better hurry up. You have fifteen minutes."

"If the Lord of All Demons doesn't appear before me in fifteen minutes, I will pull out the fulcrum of your Three Realms Formation and destroy all the demons in this mountain," she threatened.

Lian Cangqing issued a chilling threat.

Xiao Juechen forced a bitter smile and reluctantly bowed before turning around and heading towards the mountain.

"Please wait, goddess."

After speaking, Xiao Juechen was about to disappear into the mountain.

Lu Heng swiftly caught up and said, "I will travel with you."

Lu Heng dared not leave Xiao Juechen alone in this situation.

The red-clothed woman before them was incredibly powerful, her palm techniques were exquisite and difficult to match. If the Lord of All Demons were to falter in the face of such a strong opponent, would the demon monsters hiding in their caves rather die than come out?

In that case, wouldn't Lu Heng be unable to see the Lord of All Demons or find the true location of the Green Hell Cave?

To be on the safe side, Lu Heng decided to leave with Xiao Juechen.

However, as soon as Lu Heng opened his mouth, the woman in the distance with red clothes coldly snorted.

"You want to leave, then leave? You want to stay, then stay? You, who are of unknown origin and full of evil, stay here as hostages with that dragon. If the Lord of All Demons doesn't show up, I'll kill a few of you as sacrifices!"

The murderous intent in Lian Cangqing's eyes was evident as she demanded that Lu Heng stay behind, her aggressive tone without any ounce of mercy. Xiao Ai's expression turned slightly cold at such a disrespectful and vicious attitude.

Lu Heng didn't get angry. Although the woman was vicious, Lu Heng had seen many such people.

Moreover, the most important thing is that he is currently the Heavenly Demon Lord, not the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain, so the Heavenly Thunder Sword cannot be unsheathed.

Without the Heavenly Thunder Sword, Lu Heng had to rely on sorcery to maintain the image of an evil cultivator.

Unfortunately, he didn't cultivate demon cultivation. Although the Demon Sutra recorded many extremely profound evil techniques, Lu Heng could only master the superficial knowledge of it.

Those evil techniques are suitable for pranks, but using them to confront enemies directly is difficult.

Therefore, even though Lu Heng had a bad temper, at this time he could only greet with a smiling face, not to mention that he was not a person with a violent temper in the first place.

Faced with Lian Cangqing's bad tone, Lu Heng still greeted her with a smiling face.

"Miss, there's something I need to tell you. I am not a disciple of the Green Hell Cave. Even if you keep me here, you cannot threaten the Lord of All Demons."

Lu Heng spoke and the woman in red clothes looked him up and down before saying.

"Not a monster from the Green Hell Cave? Hmm... even I can't see the depth of your strength, but the evil death qi on your body is quite impressive."

"He's really not on the same level as those two useless ones, as an evil cultivator."

Lian Cangqing's contemptuous tone clearly expressed her disdain towards Xiao Juechen and to General Tiger Dragon, one of the Three Demon Generals.

However, at this moment, Lian Cangqing's disdain is so strong that even the hot-tempered General Tiger Dragon dare not speak out of turn, for this woman truly has the capital to be arrogant.

Xiao Juechen's heart was slightly moved upon hearing Lian Cangqing's words, completely confirming his previous conjecture.

This Heavenly Demon Lord is indeed an unparalleled and prominent figure in the demonic path!

Even the powerful Lian Cangqing couldn't see through the evil lord's reality. Perhaps they were both innate masters of the same level.

At the thought of this, Xiao Juechen quickly said to Lu Heng, "I will trouble the evil lord to take care of things here for a moment. I will quickly invite the master of the cave to come out."

Lu Heng, however, grabbed him again and said, "No, no, we have to go together."

Lu Heng said, "I can't wait to meet the Demon Lord."

As he spoke, Lu Heng's eyes conveyed a subtle signal.

Although Lu Heng was hinting at something, he himself didn't know what it was.

But he just wanted Xiao Juechen to know that he had a very important reason to leave together.

As for what this reason was, Xiao Juechen would figure it out by himself.

Sure enough, after a subtle hint from Lu Heng, Xiao Juechen was suddenly startled and seemed to understand something.

It turned to the woman in the distance and said, "Indeed, the Evil Lord is not a disciple of our sect, but rather a guest who happened to be here. The affairs of our sect should not affect him, and I should take the Evil Lord to rest in our sect."

After saying that, Xiao Juechen intended to take Lu Heng to flee into the mountains together.

However, at the moment when the two of them flew up, the woman in red in the night sky shook her head coldly.

"No! He can't leave!"

Watching Lu Heng's figure, Lian Cangqing said, "I really like this person who is covered in Evil Death Qi. He must stay and let me take a good look at him. You can go inside alone and call out the Lord of All Demons."

While speaking, the woman in red kept her gaze fixed on Lu Heng.

Even Lu Heng couldn't help feeling a bit of heat at the moment.

His expression was a bit strange - why did this woman suddenly start paying attention to him?

In the wind, Lu Heng smiled and said, "Miss, I appreciate your kindness, but unfortunately, we are destined to be strangers, so there is no need to force it."

Standing on the escape light, Lu Heng, Xiao Ai, Shen Wuyou, and Xiao Juechen ascended towards the middle sky.

It was obvious that he intended to ignore the woman's opinion and leave directly.

Seeing this scene, the woman in the red clothes sneered and said, "Leaving? Did I agree? I said stay, so stay!"

After speaking, she directly formed a sword with one hand and struck heavily towards Lu Heng and the others in the distance.

In the void, that escape light was instantly destroyed by a slash.

Xiao Juechen's escape light disappeared into the mountain, but the figures of Lu Heng and the others fell out of it.

Seeing this scene, the woman in red sneered and said, "I said you cannot leave, just... huh?!"

As soon as the smug sneer came out, it stopped abruptly.

The three figures that were slashed out of the void disappeared directly with a light sway under the moonlight.

A little bit of evil demon overflowed and flowed in the night wind.

The woman who smelled the evil demon had a sudden change in her face color.

"Evil Spirit Disperses Soul Technique?"

With a sudden swing of her arm, the woman in red summoned General Tiger Dragon from miles away, who was dragged by an immense force towards her before he could even react.

The enormous dragon, hundreds of feet long, was now being held by the neck by a woman in red who was not even the size of its fingernail, and was angrily interrogating it.

"That scoundrel, is his name the Heavenly Demon Lord?!"

Chapter 310: It Was Really Just a Misunderstanding

The sudden outburst of the woman in red directly stunned General Tiger Dragon.

Although it already knew that this woman in red was very strong and could determine its life or death with just a wave of her hand.

But it never expected that, as a powerful cultivator of the evil path who had condensed the top Three Flowers and was about to step into the realm of innate, it would be as fragile as a baby chick in this woman's hands.

With just one gesture from the other party, I couldn't even resist and was dragged right in front of them?

The only fortunate thing now is that this embarrassing scene was not witnessed by anyone, otherwise it would have ruined his lifelong reputation.

In the face of the ferocious and violent woman before him, General Tiger Dragon had absolutely no resistance to her.

It quickly responded, "That's right! That guy's name is the Heavenly Demon Lord! He's a mysterious cultivator of the evil path, and his name has never been heard before. It's like he suddenly appeared out of thin air, and he's likely a highly skilled individual from the ancient times."

"He was very interested in meeting our cave master and insisted on making his acquaintance, so Xiao Juechen brought him over to introduce him."

"It also knows the ancient demonic technique, Soul Captivating Art, and recently used it to toy with me. Its methods are extraordinary, and it is a true giant of the demonic path."

As soon as he opened his mouth, General Tiger Dragon unleashed a torrent of information, spilling forth his words with the ease of pouring beans from a bamboo tube.

After listening to the narration of General Tiger Dragon, the face of the lady in red turned even more gloomy.

"Soul Captivating Art...Scattered Soul Technique...and that veil of disguised evil death qi intentionally concealing its true appearance, too scared to let me see its true form."

"As I suspected, no wonder this guy was increasingly disagreeable to me...it turns out he's just that scoundrel...haha...hahaha..."

In the moonlight, the laughter of the woman became increasingly dreadful and chilling, causing General Tiger Dragon to tremble with fear.

Oh my god...this crazy woman is indeed an ancient monster, and she even knows the Heavenly Demon Lord!

No wonder the Heavenly Demon Lord was running so fast, didn't even dare to stay a while, turns out he bumped into his old nemesis...

General Tiger Dragon looked at his nose. He curled up in the void, extremely embarrassed, and dares not move a muscle, behaving obediently.

There was absolutely no murderous aura from the Three Demon Generals of the Green Hell Cave.

After the red-clothed woman sneered for a while, she frowned at the coiled up dragon and said,

"I've been laughing for so long, aren't you curious about my relationship with the Heavenly Demon Lord?"

The woman took the initiative to speak, causing a sudden tremor in the heart of General Tiger Dragon.

It cautiously lifted its head and looked at the woman's indifferent eyes, dryly chuckling, "What the senior wants to say, surely will be told to the junior. If the senior doesn't want to say it, it wouldn't be good for the junior to actively ask and pry into the senior's privacy..."

The woman in red looked coldly at it and said, "If you ask me now, I'll tell you."

"Um... Well..." General Tiger Dragon cautiously and tentatively asked, "Senior, what kind of relationship do you have with the Heavenly Demon Lord?"

After the Dragon King finished speaking, the woman in red slapped it hard on the face, instantly knocking off half of its dragon head.

Amidst the flying debris of blood, meat and shattered bones, Lian Cangqing spoke coldly.

"Mind your own business."

In the air above the Floating Jade Mountain, General Tiger Dragon was instantly stunned by this single slap.

Fortunately, this slap only injured the physical body without harming the essence, and it could be reconstructed from flesh and blood.

Meanwhile, Lu Heng and Xiao Juechen, who were still unaware of the events happening outside of the Floating Jade Mountain, had already entered the portal on the altar and were heading to another space, the Green Hell Cave.

After passing through the portal in the void, Lu Heng and his companions entered a strange space.

Gravity completely disappeared here, and they seemed to float in the vastness of space with dimly surging earth spirit energy around them. The world was deep and vast, and they had no idea where the boundaries lay.

And they drifted and traveled in such an endless world, heading towards a specific direction.

The surging earth spirit energy level created a tunnel-like structure in this vast and chaotic world, guiding them to avoid getting lost.

Here, there was no sound and no light. Even divine consciousness could only survey a few hundred feet around them, and they could not see any further beyond that range.

Even the passing of time seemed to have lost its sense here.

When Lu Heng once again set foot on the real world, he could not even determine how long he had been drifting in that chaotic and strange world.

In front of him, Xiao Juechen's anxious face questioned, "Does the Evil Lord know that woman outside? What is her background? If the cave master goes out to see her, it's more likely that he'll come to a bad end, given her terrifying abilities!"

Xiao Juechen's expression was anxious.

Lu Heng smiled and said, "Don't worry, let's inform the Demon Lord about this matter first, so that it will be aware of it and perhaps, the cave master has a plan in mind."

Having finally arrived at the headquarters of the Green Hell Cave, Lu Heng was feeling very good.

If it were not for the tens of thousands of humans being bred inside the Green Hell Cave, and Lu Heng's desire to lure the Lord of All Demons out to test the truth of that woman, he would have summoned the cloud to attack directly.

Regardless of whether the Lord of All Demons and that woman fought each other to the death, it would be a good thing for Lu Heng, so he smiled very relaxedly.

However, if Lu Heng had known that the nickname he came up with on a whim had caused a misunderstanding, he might not have been able to smile anymore.

But at least for now, Lu Heng was still smiling quite happily.

And Lu Heng's smile also infected Xiao Juechen, giving the evil creature a sense of security.

-Yes! What's it worried about?

Now that there is a host sitting in the cave, and the Heavenly Demon Lord who is strong and not inferior to that woman is also present, even if the host is not a match for the woman in a real fight, there is still the assistance of the Evil Lord.

At least, the Green Hell Cave will definitely not suffer any losses.

Thinking of this, Xiao Juechen breathed a sigh of relief and said hastily, "Alright! I'll go inform the host now, and the Evil Lord can come with me!"

After speaking, Xiao Juechen immediately gathered his escape light, carrying Lu Heng and the other three people as they flew up and headed towards the distance.

Surging clouds and mist drifted in the sky.

The clear and cool moonlight silently falls between the vast heavens and earth.

This independent space outside of the world, the Green Hell Cave, looks no different from the ordinary world on the surface.

However, there was an indelible thick evil demon in the air, and all that walked upon the earth were large and small evil demons.

And as they flew deeper, the evil demon grew thicker.

And in the deepest part of this demonic cave, a grand palace stretching from the foot of the mountain to its peak appeared in Lu Heng's sight. The palace was magnificent and majestic, situated on a grand and lofty mountain.

The most intense and violent aura of evil within the entire space stem from the emanation of this palace.

The density of the evil demon made even Lu Heng, who had perused the "Demon Sutra," furrow his brows slightly.

Lu Heng thought that even the Lord of All Demons might not be much more skilled than the Four Elders and the Three Demon Generals in the Green Hell Cave.

But now it seems that the Lord of All Demons is unbelievably powerful.
