Chapter 311: The Lord of All Demons

On the giant mountain peak several kilometers high, a continuous string of palaces can be seen, with buildings every five steps and pavilions every ten steps, making it an unparalleled spectacle in the mortal world.

Xiao Juechen's cave mansion is already considered luxurious, but compared to the vast palace complex that covers the entire mountain range of the Floating Jade Mountain, it pales in comparison.

The former could only be considered as a grand and luxurious building, while the latter can already be called a spectacle.

Lu Heng marveled at the world's productivity and followed behind Xiao Juechen, with Xiao Ai and Shen Wuyou, swiftly flying over the palaces.

In the void, hundreds of different-sized floating islets were suspended, many of which were guarded by demonic soldiers wearing battle armor, keeping watch in all directions.

But wherever Xiao Juechen's escape light reached, it directly repelled all the obstructing guards. He led Lu Heng to drive straight ahead and quickly reached the highest point of the palace.

-- The peak of the thousand-zhang high mountain.

Compared with the magnificent palace complex below, which extends for hundreds of miles and covers the ground, there are no grand and magnificent buildings on this mountain top.

After Lu Heng and his companions arrived, they saw a clear and calm lake.

This lake seems to have appeared out of nowhere on the mountain top, with no visible source of water.

There is a small island in the center of the lake, and on the island is a bamboo building surrounded by trees. It has a secluded and peaceful atmosphere, but ignore the extremely powerful evil energy on the island if you will.

After approaching the small island, Xiao Juechen quickly stopped his lightness technique and didn't dare to proceed further.

It landed Lu Heng and his two companions at the edge of the island, facing several demon soldiers that appeared before them.

"Is the cave master available? I have urgent business to discuss with him!"

It was obvious that those demon soldiers were familiar with Xiao Juechen, as they all greeted him respectfully and said, "Master Juechen, please come in. The demon lord has been waiting for you in the bamboo pavilion for a long time, my lord."

Lu Heng observed the demon soldiers guarding the small island and noticed that though they behaved humbly, they were all surprisingly strong.

If placed outside, they would at least have the level of a Wuzhu-ranked evil cultivator, and not much weaker than Xiao Juechen.

But here, they were just the personal guards of the Lord of All Demons.

After obtaining permission, Xiao Juechen went straight inside without needing anyone to guide him.

Lu Heng led Xiao Ai and Wuyou closely behind him, and the surrounding evil soldiers didn't stop them - Lu Heng thought that those soldiers would try to stop Xiao Ai and Wuyou.

Following behind Xiao Juechen, they quickly walked through a grove of bamboo and arrived at a small bamboo pavilion within the grove, where Lu Heng and the others followed.

From afar, Lu Heng could see the figure inside the bamboo pavilion standing up with a smile and waving at him in greeting.

"I have long heard of the name of the evil lord, and upon seeing you today, it is indeed as remarkable as rumored."

Lu Heng was slightly surprised.

Because the person in front of him was somewhat different from what he had imagined the Lord of All Demons would be like.

The person who stood up under the bamboo pavilion was a young gentleman with a full smile on his face, dressed in a long gown and holding a folding fan, showing an elegant demeanor. However, Lu Heng could clearly see that this person's cultivation was not high, but just an ordinary practitioner who had only recently opened the heaven's door.

Moreover, if you looked carefully, you would even discover that his youthful appearance was also an illusion.

The young gentleman with a slight frown at the corner of his eyes, was definitely not as young as he appeared to be, and it appeared that he must have preserved his looks using some kind of miraculous treasure or technique.

Lu Heng looked at Xiao Juechen with a strange expression and saw that he was already anxiously walking towards the man, bowing and greeting him respectfully.

"Lord of Demons! Something big happened!"

Xiao Juechen said hurriedly, "A woman named Lian Cangqing has arrived outside, demanding to see you within the next quarter hour. She threatens to destroy all the children of Floating Jade Mountain otherwise, and even remove the fulcrum of the Three Talents Formation."

Xiao Juechen quickly recounted what happened at the Floating Jade Mountain, and even the Lord of All Demons, who had relatively low cultivation, couldn't help but frown after hearing it.

Lu Heng's heart trembled slightly at the thought: Is this fellow really the Lord of All Demons?

But the strongest evil energy on this island is not emanating from this person, it is coming from a small bamboo house at the other end of the bamboo forest pathway.

The man in front of them, indeed, had a relatively low cultivation.

Looks like the Lord of All Demons of the Green Hell Cave has quite a peculiar story.

Lu Heng couldn't help but sigh inwardly.

After a moment of contemplation, the youthful Lord of All Demons looked towards Lu Heng and asked, "I wonder how the evil lord looks upon Lian Cangqing?"

Lu Heng looked at him and said with a smile, "That woman is fierce and tyrannical. If she fails to achieve her goal, she could really resort to killing all the demons in the Floating Jade Mountain."

Lu Heng's words made the Lord of All Demons sigh and say:

"I see... it seems that there is no way around it but to meet her in person. However, her palm technique of killing from a distance is too powerful. I wonder if the evil lord has a way to counter it?"

Lu Heng didn't hide anything and gave his suggestion with a smile, "The best way would be to use a swifter and more lethal technique to kill her at the moment she unleashes her palm strike, so as to kill her before she kills you. This way, her strange and mysterious palm technique can be broken."

Lu Heng's suggestion was the best method he came up with after careful consideration.

If he were to face this woman, he would definitely not waste words or give her the time to unleash her palm strike. Instead, he would unsheathe Heavenly Thunder Sword directly and take her out with a single strike.

Under the full force of the God Slaying Heavenly Thunder's sword technique, it is definitely faster than this woman's palm technique.

However, Lu Heng's suggestion made the Lord of All Demons shake his head helplessly.

"As the evil lord has seen, my cultivation is not actually high. If I were to fight head-on against Lian Cangqing, I'm afraid I might be killed in the first strike... sigh..."

With a helpless shake of his head, the Lord of All Demons stood up and shouted towards the direction of the bamboo hut at the other end of the bamboo forest.

"Wan'er, go and meet the one outside. Be careful and don't lose your life."

After the Lord of All Demons finished speaking, a cold answer sounded from deep inside the bamboo forest.

"Uh-huh."

Immediately afterwards, a fierce evil energy rose to the sky and disappeared from Lu Heng's sight in an instant.

Lu Heng's expression was slightly astonished.

"Who is this...?" Lu Heng looked at the Lord of All Demons beside him, his face full of curiosity.

The Lord of All Demons smiled and said, "This is my wife. In the mortal world before she was corrupted, her name was Wan Rong. She is the true number one cultivator of the Green Hell Cave, while I am just an ordinary cultivator with low cultivation level."

The words of the Lord of All Demons made Lu Heng even more curious.

"I noticed that you, Demon Lord, don't seem to cultivate demonic cultivation?" Lu Heng didn't quite understand, "Why would you establish such a powerful demonic cave if you're not cultivating demonic techniques? Nothing in this demonic cave would be of any help to your cultivation, would it?"

Lu Heng didn't hide his curiosity, but directly asked, without caring if it was too presumptuous to ask such questions during their first meeting.

After listening to Lu Heng's inquiry, the Lord of All Demons also laughed and said,

"Indeed, everything in the Green Hell Cave has no benefit for my cultivation, or for Wan'er's cultivation."

"But the Green Hell Cave is the most important piece on my chessboard, and I have to play it."

Looking at Lu Heng, the Lord of All Demons smiled and said, "Therefore, even though it is difficult and thankless, and even though we are surrounded from all sides, we must proceed with the establishment of the Green Hell Cave."

Chapter 312: The Woman Who Is Petty

Facing Lu Heng, the Lord of All Demons had no intention of concealing anything.

After all, the Heavenly Demon Lord is going to participate in the upcoming battle for the appearance of the spiritual treasure. He is an important combat force for the Green Hell Cave, and we must strive to make use of him.

Therefore, when Lu Heng met him, he bluntly inquired about the details, which not only didn't lead to any grievances between them, but even indirectly showed how much Lu Heng cared about the matter.

Facing the inquisitive Lu Heng, the Lord of All Demons spoke.

"Four hundred years ago, my wife Wan Rong was poisoned by the evil creatures that emerged from the Cangwu Abyss, and her body and soul were damaged. She sometimes regained clarity, but sometimes felt confused and disoriented."

"While my cultivation remained stagnant, I could accumulate spiritual power continuously. However, my level of cultivation has been forever stuck at the threshold of the Heaven Door, preventing me even from harmonizing the five elements in my chest."

"Fortunately, although my wife's lifespan was shortened after falling into the demonic path, her cultivation soared. The establishment of the Green Hell Cave also relied on the support of Wan'er behind the scenes."

"Now that the demonic cave has been built and everything is ready, we are just waiting for the day when the exotic treasures appear. The evil soldiers and demons will then attack the capital of the Fire Pass Country, creating an opportunity for us."

"Once we obtain that exotic treasure, we can extend our lifespan and enable my wife Wan Rong to live for another lifetime and advance her cultivation further."

"Then, I will take my wife to the depths of the Cangwu Abyss to settle the score with that evil creature."

Under the bamboo pavilion, the Lord of All Demons spoke quietly about his past experiences, without any strong emotions in his tone.

But this silent and indifferent hatred is even more chilling.

In order to gain the trust of the Heavenly Demon Lord, the Lord of All Demons even revealed this hidden matter.

After listening, Lu Heng hesitated slightly and asked, 'Will that exotic treasure be unearthed in the capital of the Fire Pass Country?'

The Lord of All Demons smiled faintly and said, 'This cannot be told to the Evil Lord... If the Evil Lord wants to know more detailed information, he needs to establish a blood oath with us to truly understand the origin of that exotic treasure.'

Lu Heng smiled and said, 'If the information about the exotic treasure is true, then there is no harm in forming a blood oath. However, the Lord of Demons just said that when the exotic treasure appears, evil soldiers and demon generals will besiege the capital of the Fire Pass Country... At that time, there will surely be rivers of blood, and it is impossible for every evil soldier and demon general to have the qualification to benefit from the longevity of the exotic treasure, right?'

Lu Heng's inquiry made the Lord of All Demons burst into laughter and say:

"Is the Evil Lord worried about becoming a pawn like those evil soldiers and demon generals? If so, there is no need to worry."

"Those group of evil soldiers and demon generals are under my jurisdiction, and they enjoy feasting on human flesh without the worry of being chased and besieged by the righteous path. They have lived a peaceful life of comfort and enjoyment."

"After raising them for decades, now is the time to use them and let them fight for once."

"Moreover, what are these evil soldiers and demon generals anyway? They are just a bunch of cruel and unscrupulous rabble that are extremely difficult to control even for the demonic instincts. They are nothing more than pigs and dogs, how can they be compared to the Evil Lord?"

"And under the Blood League, there are a total of 78 people in the Green Hell Cave that can benefit from the life-extension. But this is only because only 78 are qualified to enjoy such benefits, it doesn't mean that the weird treasure can only benefit 78 people."

"With the power of that weird treasure, even another thirty people would not be too many."

"After all, that weird treasure, regardless of one's level of cultivation, treats everyone equally. It can eliminate the old and stale air from the body and soul, essentially making a person youthful again, equivalent to a new lease on life."

"So, for cultivators like the Evil Lord or for Heaven Door realm cultivators like me, the benefits obtained are the same, without any difference."

The Lord of All Demons smiled and said words that were a huge temptation to all cultivators: "The Evil Lord only needs to establish a blood oath, and even the two disciples by your side can also enjoy the benefits of the treasure."

However, what took the Lord of All Demons by surprise was that after he finished his tempting words to the cultivators, not only did Lu Heng's expression remain unchanged, but even the two disciples behind him also had a calm expression.

They didn't lose their composure despite the immense benefit of being able to live another life.

Upon seeing this scene, the Lord of All Demons sighed in his heart.

It seems that, as Xiao Juechen said, the two disciples by the Heavenly Demon Lord's side are also highly skilled cultivators in the evil path.

Ordinary cultivators, upon hearing that they could live another life, were all excited like madmen, except for that group of long-lived demon cultivators.

Even the long-lived demon cultivators cannot resist such temptation.

However, the two disciples by the Heavenly Demon Lord's side didn't show any frivolity or lack of composure as junior disciples.

No wonder they are the top disciples of the evil cultivators. They were able to engage a skilled cultivator like the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain. The Heavenly Demon Lord's background is even bigger than imagined.

The Lord of All Demons felt emotional and determined to recruit the Heavenly Demon Lord who was in front of him.

Now the situation is murky and difficult. If the Heavenly Demon Lord can lend his assistance, his plan may have a chance of success.

But Lu Heng no longer mentioned the blood oath and that mystical treasure.

He tilted his head and thought for a moment before smiling and speaking.

"I wonder how the situation is outside. Does the Demon Lord not care to take a look? That red-clothed woman, Lian Cangqing, is quite capable. It's better to take a look."

Lu Heng suddenly changed the topic, and the Lord of All Demons no longer insisted on bringing up the matter.

After all, such a big matter certainly needs to be carefully considered.

Besides, he is indeed worried about his wife's condition.

Therefore, after Lu Heng spoke, the Lord of All Demons smiled and let the matter drop.

"Thank you for the concern, Evil Lord. Actually, I have been anxious for a long time."

After speaking, the Lord of All Demons directly extended his hand and made a gesture in the sky. Then, the light in the sky above the bamboo forest dimmed slightly, and a huge image appeared.

It was like a giant projection, projecting the events happening outside of the Floating Jade Mountain onto here.

Under the cold moonlight, Lu Heng and the others could see Lian Cangqing, the woman in red, suddenly frown and coldly look at Lu Heng and others outside the mirror.

Lian Cangqing said, "The Lord of All Demons? You have the audacity to spy on me, but not the courage to come out?"

Just as the woman in red finished speaking, a figure full of evil energy soared out of the Floating Jade Mountain.

The raging and violent demonic energy flaunted itself in the night sky without any concealment. A woman dressed in a purple gown had somewhat empty eyes, but her imposing aura stood tall under the sky like a towering mountain.

Instantly captured the attention of the woman in red.

"Hmm? You are the Lord of All Demons? A woman?" Lian Cangqing frowned and said, "With such strength, you are not considered weak, no wonder you have the courage to boast of being the strongest."

As she spoke, Lian Cangqing waved her hand and released the gigantic dragon that she had been holding tightly, saying,

"But what about the Heavenly Demon Lord now? Why isn't that jerk showing up?"

Lian Cangqing said angrily, "Let that jerk the Heavenly Demon Lord come out. Tonight, I will kill both of you to sacrifice for my rebirth!"

Lian Cangqing's sudden curse not only surprised the Lord of All Demons in the bamboo pavilion, but also left Lu Heng confused.

What happened? Why did this woman suddenly target him again?

Could it be that his use of demonic magic to escape earlier angered this woman, and therefore was put on the death list as well?

If that's the case, then this woman's mind is too small...

Chapter 313: Kowtow

Inside the bamboo pavilion, Lu Heng had a strange expression, while the Lord of All Demons and Xiao Juechen looked full of surprise.

The Lord of All Demons spoke directly, "So the evil lord knows this female cultivator?"

Lu Heng quickly shook his head and denied, "I don't know her and I don't know what happened outside that made her hate me... Could it be because my previous behavior of not wanting to stay and insisting on leaving angered her?"

This is Lu Heng's speculation.

The Lord of All Demons chuckled and said, "If she hated you simply for that, then this female cultivator's mind is too shallow."

Under the bamboo pavilion, the evil creatures were talking.

In the enormous mirror projection, the eerie woman above the Floating Jade Mountain, Wan Rong, spoke icily.

"The Heavenly Demon Lord is a guest in my cave, you don't have the right to come here and give orders. Since you want to fight me, then just make your move directly."

"Within three moves, we'll see who wins!"

Compared to the brutal and wicked Lian Cangqing, the wife of the Lord of All Demons seems even harder to provoke. She directly threatened to fight without any fear of Lian Cangqing's distant palm technique.

Seeing this situation, Lian Cangqing snorted coldly and said, "To defeat you, two moves are enough!"

After speaking, the red-dressed woman under the moonlight raised her right hand. Under the moonlight, her fair palm gradually became as smooth and flawless as beautiful jade.

Even though they were only watching the projection through the water mirror and not physically present on the Floating Jade Mountain, Lu Heng and his companions could clearly feel the terrifying killing intent emanating from the fair, jade-like palm.

The expression of the Lord of All Demons became slightly solemn.

No matter how relaxed he appeared, he could not truly remain indifferent to his wife's battle against such a formidable enemy.

And above the Floating Jade Mountain, Wan Rong, dressed in purple, also wore a serious expression. The furious evil aura surged violently around her body.

Amidst the howling of the cold wind, the power of evil and wickedness was fully displayed.

The entire Floating Jade Mountain range was nearly completely shrouded by the evil energy. The terrifying power of demonic evil shook the heavens and even overwhelmed the stars in the sky.

However, despite the intense surging of this evil energy, it could not even come close to the red-clothed woman under the moon in the distance.

As all the energy of evil and wickedness surged and spread violently, they all moved away from Lian Cangqing and dared not come anywhere near this woman.

Under the moonlight, Lian Cangqing raised her right hand and gazed towards the demons ahead, saying:

"Are you ready? Don't think that I am bullying those younger than me!"

Wan Rong gave a cold snort, refusing to back down.

Her response caused Lian Cangqing to burst into a loud laugh, and she no longer restrained her own aura.

In an instant, a white jade palm struck out through the air, cold and calm, heading towards the demon ahead.

"Annihilating Blue Hand!"

With a cold and ruthless low shout, the woman in red clothed hand shot out; an evil aura surging forth.

The countenance of Wan Rong, who was enveloped in boundless malevolent energy, suddenly changed.

As the palm landed, the endless aura of evil flowing between the two didn't change at all, with no invisible force emanating from afar.

It seems that this Lian Cangqing really just lightly tapped from a distance.

However, at the moment when the Annihilating Blue Hand fell, her heart suddenly jumped, an incomprehensible sense of horror instantly emerged, as if she was standing on the edge of a cliff and about to perish!

Without any hesitation or contemplation, Purple-clad Wan Rong let out a low cry and instantaneously dispelled the infinite malevolent energy looming over the Floating Jade Mountain.

The pitch-black aura of evil immediately engulfed the figure of the woman in purple clothes.

Transforming into the strongest formation, she protected herself within it.

But in the next second, a sudden scream echoed from within the boundless aura of evil.

"Splurt -"

Amid the splattering of blood, the aura of evil above the Floating Jade Mountain dispersed immediately, revealing the purple-clad woman at its center with an incredulous expression on her face.

Wan Rong was in such a state that half of her body was covered in blood and her expression was one of shock. Half of her shoulder, along with her entire arm, had disappeared, and the bloody flesh trembled violently in the moonlight.

The once stunningly beautiful woman now appeared frightening like a demon or a skeleton, devoid of her former grace and elegance.

"This cannot be possible!"

The Lord of All Demons under the bamboo pavilion suddenly stood up, his expression filled with shock.

During the surge of evil aura just now, there was clearly no force of palm strength that flew into the evil aura formation.

How did Lian Cangqing actually hurt Wan Rong? Could it be that she could really take someone's life from a distance?

The expression of the Lord of All Demons was one of shock and anger.

Outside the Floating Jade Mountain, the woman in the red dress under the moonlight gave a cold smile and, satisfied, watched Wan Rong's angry and embarrassed display, saying.

"My first strike was just a warm-up, the next strike... will take your life!"

After speaking, she took a step forward directly.

With one step, radiance trembled.

At the feet of Lian Cangqing, there appeared a brilliant golden light.

With every step she took on the golden light, she instantly vanished from the sight of the crowd and appeared directly behind the purple-clothed Wan Rong, who stood at the center of the evil storm.

From behind, she reached out and caught Wan Rong's neckline, and in a indifferent tone of voice asked, "Have you recognized the footwork of this half-step to the brink of heaven... The Heavenly Demon Lord?"

"Years ago, you disregarded my martial path, saying that it was nothing compared to your 'Demon Sutra'. Have you seen the peak of this martial path now?"

"However, I am broad-minded, unlike your petty nature. If you crawl out and knock your head in front of everyone, I will overlook the past and spare this woman's life. What do you say? You have half an hour to think about it."

Lu Heng's heart skipped a beat upon hearing Lian Cangqing's indifferent tone.

Demon Sutra...the Heavenly Demon Lord... Is it really just a coincidence? Is it possible that the ancient giant who passed down the Demon Sutra to the Demon Stone was none other than the Heavenly Demon Lord?

Do you have a history with this Lian Cangqing? Is there any animosity between you?

Lu Heng, realizing this, almost had an impulse to swear.

I randomly chose a nickname and it happens to coincide with an ancient powerhouse... This is just too unlucky.

No wonder this Lian Cangqing suddenly targeted him, Lu Heng. It wasn't because Lu Heng's previous behavior in escaping had angered her, but because Lu Heng had left using evil magic recorded in the Demon Sutra, and even named himself with the coincidentally fitting name the Heavenly Demon Lord...

Watching the Lord of All Demons' hesitant expression, Lu Heng couldn't help feeling helpless.

Alas... it seems this matter cannot be resolved peacefully," sighed Lu Heng.

The Lord of All Demons was slightly surprised and asked: 'Does the evil lord plan to take action?'

Lu Heng was about to speak, but suddenly felt the ground in the Green Hell Cave tremble violently.

A dazzling light suddenly rose from the distance, illuminating the entire Green Hell Cave.

At the same moment, the Floating Jade Mountain reflected in the water mirror also underwent a change.

As the cornerstone of the Three Realms Gathering Formation, the Floating Jade Mountain shook violently, emitting a dazzling light, rising up from the mountain and transforming into a roaring five-clawed dragon that flew into the distance, bellowing in anger under the night sky.

Seeing this scene, Lian Cangqing was startled and seemed to sense something.

"The dragon soul appears?!"

She looked incredulously towards the direction where the Five-Clawed Radiant Dragon disappeared, and then casually threw away the hostage in her hand as if throwing away garbage.

She immediately chased after the light.

Only that somewhat disdainful call echoed in the mountains.

"I'll remember your arrogant attitude, and will come back to demand it from you next time!"

After speaking, Lian Cangqing directly emitted a golden light beneath her feet, and she disappeared from Lu Heng's field of vision by stepping on a mystical body technique that approached the edge of the heavens and earth.

I'll Quit Being a God

Chapter 314: A Foolproof Plan

Lu Heng was completely puzzled by the sudden turn of events, as well as Lian Cangqing's peculiar reaction.

"The Dragon Soul has appeared?"

Lu Heng looked at the Lord of All Demons in surprise and said, "Lord Demon, did you hide a Dragon Soul in the Floating Jade Mountain and lure Lian Cangqing away?"

Shaking his head, the Lord of All Demons said, "The light that rose from the Floating Jade Mountain was not the Dragon Soul, but just a sign of its appearance."

"The exotic treasure that is about to emerge in the Fire Pass Country is related to the Dragon Soul that Lian Cangqing mentioned."

"Once the Three Realms Boundary Formation is set up on the key points of the earth's veins, it sets up a warning system as soon as the formation is complete. If the Dragon Soul is about to appear, the Three Realms Boundary Formation will sense it."

"Not only will there be golden lights of the Five-Clawed Divine Dragon flying out of the three key points, but also a huge brilliance will rise from the Green Hell Cave..."

Under the bamboo pavilion, the Lord of All Demons pointed to the huge brilliance in the distant sky that illuminated the entire demon cave and said,

"With such a manifestation of brilliance, it seems that the appearance of the Dragon Soul is just a matter of these few days... sigh..."

Speaking of this, the Lord of All Demons shook his head helplessly and said, "Although the omen of the emergence of the Dragon Soul caused Lian Cangqing to leave, it saved Wan Rong's life."

"However, Lian Cangqing is bound to participate in the struggle for the Dragon Soul in the future... And with her skills, I fear that the entire Green Hell Cave will not be able to resist... The Three Realms Boundary Formation that I painstakingly set up was originally intended to guide our side to find the location of the Dragon Soul, but I didn't expect it to serve as a trap for us."

"This Lian Cangqing is so difficult to deal with. I am afraid that we have no chance of obtaining the magical treasure."

The Lord of All Demons shook his head with a sigh, his tone filled with disappointment.

Lu Heng smiled slightly and said, "The demon lord need not worry. Although Lian Cangqing is powerful, she is not invincible. If we work together, we will surely be able to contain her arrogance."

The words of Lu Heng made the Lord of All Demons "instantly" overjoyed.

He immediately bowed down and kneeled, lowering his head.

"The Evil Lord is willing to lend a helping hand. The entire Green Hell Cave is grateful and willing to serve the Evil Lord, obey his orders and die for him without hesitation!"

The Lord of All Demons spoke earnestly and was extremely excited.

Seeing the demonic lord in such a state, Xiao Juechen on the side also followed suit and knelt down, saying, "We are willing to serve the Evil Lord as our master!"

In the blink of an eye, Lu Heng became the Lord of all demons in the Green Hell Cave.

However, Lu Heng shook his head with a smile at this "great opportunity delivered to his doorstep". He helped up the Lord of All Demons and said,

"The demonic lord need not be so polite. The appearance of the Dragon Soul in the world also interests me. We just need to work together and fight the enemy with a united front."

"The demonic lord is still in charge of this matter. I am just an outsider who joined midway, and I am not aware of the details of the plan. How can I lead all the demons?"

"That's why the demonic lord is still commanding all the demons. I'll just lend a hand on the side, guard against that Lian Cangqing, and won't interfere in any other affairs."

Lu Heng gave a smile as he gave assurance and revealed his desire to slack off.

It is evident that the Heavenly Demon Lord doesn't care about the leadership of the demons of the Green Hell Cave, all it wants is the Dragon Soul.

In that case, the Lord of All Demons didn't hesitate and said with a smile, "Since the evil lord trusts me so much, it would be impolite for me to decline... Okay! I promise the evil lord that on the day when the Dragon Soul appears, if the evil lord can hold back Lian Cangqing, the Green Hell Cave will do everything in our power to seize the Dragon Soul!"

The Lord of All Demons became impassioned and didn't mention the matter of a blood oath anymore.

It is fortunate enough that the Heavenly Demon Lord is willing to help now, so he cannot possibly mention such a demanding request again.

Anyway, the Heavenly Demon Lord and Lian Cangqing are at odds, and as long as these two encounter the appearance of the Dragon Soul, the Heavenly Demon Lord will surely fight against Lian Cangqing even without the need for a blood oath to urge him on.

After all, even if the Heavenly Demon Lord wants to hide, that aggressive and fierce Lian Cangqing would not let him go.

Therefore, the Lord of All Demons didn't mention the matter of a blood oath anymore, not wanting to offend this important helper.

Lu Heng smiled faintly and said, "The Demon Lord actually forgot to consider one thing. Although Lian Cangqing is terrifying, there is still something even more frightening that needs to be guarded against in the Fire Pass Country... The Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain. Does the Demon Lord have any countermeasures?"

When Lu Heng brought up this matter, the Lord of All Demons laughed and said, "The Demon Lord can rest assured about this. The Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain is not as aware of the appearance of the Dragon Soul as Lian Cangqing is, and we in the Green Hell Cave have long since made a complete plan to take away the Dragon Soul."

"On the day when the Dragon Soul appears in this world, we can catch the wizard of the Fire Pass Country off-guard and easily take the Dragon Soul within a quarter of an hour."

"Even though the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain has unparalleled swordsmanship and invincible thunder power, can he be truly clairvoyant? By the time he realizes the chaos in the world of demons, we will have already taken away the Dragon Soul and escaped. Therefore, the Wolf God doesn't need to be feared. However terrifying he may be, it will not affect our overall plan."

The Lord of All Demons is extremely self-confident.

However, Lu Heng shook his head and said, "That may not be the case. Previously, the Demon Lord said that the Dragon Soul would appear in the capital. As far as I know, the Wolf God has an excellent relationship with the Fire Pass Country, and is even closer to Emperor Yan and Lianshan Jing."

"What if the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain happens to be a guest in the capital when the Dragon Soul appears... won't we be butting heads with him directly?"

Lu Heng expressed his concerns saying so.

However, the Lord of All Demons laughed and said, "I too have plans for this, so the evil lord need not worry. Although the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain is invincible, but he has a son and a daughter living in this world."

"Nowadays, his daughter is in my Green Hell Cave. When the Dragon Soul appears, I will send someone to take the girl to the west and notify the Wolf God to come and fetch her."

"Faced with news of his daughter, the Wolf God cannot remain indifferent and will surely go to meet her, but he won't do it in the capital."

"This is a plan to lure the wolf out of the mountain. It is simple, but it will definitely work. After all, the Wolf God and the Fire Pass Country still don't know what my true plan for the Green Hell Cave is."

"By pretending to be careless, we will definitely catch them off guard and successfully take away the Dragon Soul!"

The Lord of All Demons' plan is indeed very thorough.

Lu Heng nodded after hearing this and said, "It is indeed a good plan, but the Wolf God's daughter... if the Demon Lord trusts me, he can hand over the Wolf God's daughter to me."

"I have an evil technique in my hand that can be used on close relatives through their bloodline. If the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain really goes to find his daughter, the moment father and daughter meet, the evil technique will be activated and they will both be sent into a different dimension, wandering in chaos."

"Even if the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain is extraordinary and can return from a different dimension on his own, it will still take a very long time. By the time he returns, it may have been several years."

"Even if He knows about the Dragon Soul appearing in the world at that time, so much time has passed that He would have no way to trace it and would never be able to find out where we are."

Lu Heng proposed a more secure plan.

After the Lord of All Demons heard it, his eyes lit up.

He said, "This method, Evil Lord, is truly better."

"Come! Xiao Juechen, later on you will take Evil Lord to meet the daughter of The Wolf God."

"With the help of Evil Lord, what does The Green Hell Cave have to fear from failing in this grand endeavor... Hahahaha..."

Beneath the bamboo pavilion, the Lord of All Demons laughed heartily, feeling very happy.

Chapter 315: The Three-Day Agreement

The Lord of All Demons is feeling very good.

After all, with the support of an ancient demon like the Heavenly Demon Lord, how could his mood not be good?

Although the arrival of Long Huan's reincarnation was sudden, the violent and brutal woman Lian Cangqing was also aware of this and would surely get involved in the future.

However, with Lian Cangqing's sudden involvement, such haste, how could she catch up with his hundred years of careful planning?

By then, when Long Huan reincarnates, as long as the Heavenly Demon Lord can delay this woman for a while, he can easily take away the reincarnated Long Huan and live another life with his wife.

Even Hanyu Mountain's Wolf God Lu Heng will stay in the dimensional space for several years. There is no need to worry about the threat of the Wolf God in the short term.

As a result, even the subordinates who were supposed to be abandoned as unwanted children have time to move and be taken away, greatly preserving the top combat power of the Green Hell Cave.

For the Lord of All Demons, this is as perfect as it can get.

Under the bamboo pavilion, the Lord of All Demons gave Lu Heng a detailed explanation of his plan, and took him to the edge of the Green Hell Cave, the core of the Three Realms Array. By completely confirming the time and location of Long Huan's reincarnation through the spiritual energy of the earth veins connected by the Three Realms Array.

At noon, three days later, Long Huan will reincarnate in the mountains thirty miles east of the capital of Fire Pass Country.

After the Lord of All Demons confirmed the time, he bid farewell to Lu Heng and went to gather his demonic army to begin mobilizing. He didn't have time to entertain Lu Heng temporarily.

Lu Heng didn't need to be entertained. He was very chivalrous and wanted to meet the daughter of the Wolf God, and take her away to perform demonic arts.

Xiao Juechen took charge of the introduction.

Led by Xiao Juechen, Lu Heng, accompanied by Xiao Ai and Wuyou, headed eastward, leaving behind the palace group that covered hundreds of miles of mountains. They crossed the vast wilderness where monsters roamed and arrived at the end of the border of the small world, near a huge gateway to the heaven door.

Xiao Juechen said, "This is another pivot point of the Three Realms Array, which can also lead to the outside world. The daughter of the Wolf God has been temporarily placed here."

Xiao Juechen's introduction surprised Lu Heng a little.

Because this place is far from the core area of the Green Hell Cave, let alone the palace group covering hundreds of miles in the center, even the demon activity area outside the palace group is more lively than here.

It is also safer.

The area near this gateway in front of them was somewhat desolate and deserted, and it was right near the gate...

"Aren't you afraid that someone will sneak in to save the daughter of the Wolf God?" Lu Heng said with surprise. "This place is too close to the gate, and there aren't any top-notch guards here. Even a Wuzhu can come in easily and take the daughter of the Wolf God out," he added.

Lu Heng was very puzzled. According to his guess, he thought that Shen Wuyu would be strictly protected and confined, and would be difficult for outsiders to see.

So, is this all there is in the end?

Lu Heng was greatly surprised, while Xiao Juechen could only force a bitter smile as he spoke.

"The evil lord is not aware that the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain is extremely fierce, even the demon lord doesn't dare to truly provoke it."

"Although they took away his daughter, they still treat her well with good food and drink every day, meeting all of her demands and never daring to show any neglect. Even her personal freedom is not restricted and she can move around as she pleases."

"Not to mention the vicinity of this courtyard, even if she wants to leave the Green Hell Cave and wander outside through this gate, we cannot stop her and must agree."

"That is precisely why we dare not let her stay in the cave, for we fear that she may see the sight of the demonic blood feast and develop disgust and resentment."

"And in order to appease her emotions and make her believe that we are not bad people, within a radius of fifty li from this place, no evil cultivator dares to approach, and even farther away there is a confusing array set up, which will make them return involuntarily once approaching, to ensure that she will not inadvertently wander into the depths of the demon cave and witness the horrifying sight of demonic feeding."

"By using such means, we barely managed to keep the daughter of the Wolf God staying willingly, without imprisoning or provoking her."

Xiao Juechen's account greatly astonished Lu Heng.

"So, you have been pretending in front of this young girl all along? She has no idea that you are the evil cultivators of the Green Hell Cave?"

Lu Heng thought this matter was truly incredible and couldn't help but ask: 'Since you are not restricting her freedom, what excuse did you use to let her stay, and to make her obediently remain here?'

Xiao Juechen cleared his throat and said: 'In fact, it's simple. After all, the daughter of the Wolf God is still young. In the beginning, we sent people to escort her twice, saying that we would take her to see her father.'

"But both times, shortly after leaving, they encountered demons from the Green Hell Cave in the wilderness. The people escorting her were all killed by the demons while protecting her and allowing her to escape."

"After these two incidents, the daughter of the Wolf God no longer mentioned the need for an escort to visit her father."

"She said she could stay here for a while and wait for the situation in the Fire Pass Country to stabilize before going to find her father."

Lu Heng's expression was strange while listening to Xiao Juechen's account.

The little boy, Shen Wuyou, behind Lu Heng had a twisted expression on his face and a complicated mood. It turned out that his sister, whom he had been thinking about day and night and worrying about, was actually in charge in the Green Hell Cave?

Not only do they have to carefully serve these demons, they even have to put on a show to deceive their sister and make her stay?

I just don't know if those escorts who were killed by the evil demons are really dead...

Shen Wuyou had a strange expression and Lu Heng was greatly shocked.

He said with a wry smile.

"To deal with just a little she-wolf, such a big show of force... you all really have a lot of patience."

In Xiao Juechen's hesitant gaze, Lu Heng said, "But Brother Xiao need not worry, I understand. Next, we must act like good people in front of this young lady... no problem, it's very simple."

"When Brother Xiao takes me to meet her later, I will definitely not expose myself as a demon, and I guarantee that she will willingly come with me, without the need for force."

Lu Heng's words made Xiao Juechen awkwardly smile and say,

"Actually, it doesn't matter whether we act as good people or not at this point. After all, with the Evil Lord's intervention, we don't have to fear the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain anymore."

"Hahaha... That's true," Lu Heng laughed and said, "But if we're going to act, we might as well go all the way. Pretending to be good people and getting her to follow us obediently is much easier than dealing with her resistance and entanglement along the way."

"Now tear off the mask and let her see the truth. It's really sorry for everyone who has been deceiving her during this period of time."

Although Lu Heng's words were thoughtful and also took into account the face of the Green Hell Cave.

However, for some reason, Xiao Juechen still felt embarrassed and even had a vague feeling of being teased and ridiculed.

After all, compared to the Heavenly Demon Lord who dared to set up evil spells to harm the Wolf God, the Green Hell Cave who dared not offend the Wolf God was really losing face.

Chapter 316: Common Knowledge of Evil Ways

Crossing through the wilderness, Lu Heng and his companions arrived at a plain covered with flowers and grass.

Here, flowers and grass are fragrant, and butterflies dance elegantly. Not far away is a crystal-clear small lake, and in the distance, you can see the snowy mountains and a huge gateway that seems to lead directly to the sky.

If an uninformed person were to come here, they would be afraid they had arrived at a fairyland on earth.

After all, there is not even a trace of evil or demonic energy here, which is unimaginable compared to the dense demonic energy inside the Green Hell Cave.

- Obviously, the demon clan has set up a formation here to isolate the demonic energy.

From a distance, Lu Heng and his companions saw a wooden house by the lake.

The wooden house has an exquisite design and is built by the lake. There is a small terrace on the lake surface at the back, and the front is covered with blooming flowers and fluttering butterflies. It is truly a beautiful and enjoyable sight.

Upon seeing the wooden house, Xiao Juechen took a deep breath and formed a seal with one hand, instantly dispelling the demonic energy and erasing any demonic features.

Even Lu Heng, who is extremely sensitive to demonic energy, can no longer sense any demonic energy in Xiao Juechen's body.

This initially weak-looking demon has truly become just an ordinary person now.

Seeing Lu Heng's great amazement, Xiao Juechen smiled proudly and said, "This is the technique of concealing energy that the Demon Lord inherited from ancient times. It is exquisite and can conceal demonic energy that is hard for outsiders to detect."

"It is precisely because of the extraordinary technique of hiding our presence with our unparalleled skills that we were able to silently establish a great foundation in this demonic land of the Southeast."

As he spoke, Xiao Juechen looked at Lu Heng and the two demonic cultivators behind him, who were covered in evil death qi almost to the extent of having 'I am a bad person' written on their foreheads, and said somewhat apologetically.

"Since the Evil Lord has no intention to let the Wolf God's daughter know about the true situation of this place..."

Xiao Juechen didn't continue with the rest of the words.

But Lu Heng understood its meaning and smiled, saying, "Brother Xiao, rest assured, I know how to handle this.

After speaking, Lu Heng waved his sleeves, and directly dispersed the evil death qi that was taken from the Requiem Seal on the three of them.

However, while dispelling the evil death qi, Lu Heng directly activated the wish power in his body that had not been used for a long time, and attached it to the three of them.

In an instant, Lu Heng and the other two, who were originally covered in evil death qi, not only got rid of the death qi, but also became sacred and majestic, just like the gods in legends, high above all.

Xiao Juechen was stunned to see such a huge transformation.

"This...what kind of sorcery is this?!"

Xiao Juechen's eyeballs almost popped out.

If Lu Heng had only dispelled the evil death qi and disguised himself as an ordinary righteous cultivator, even if he had concealed it perfectly, Xiao Juechen would not have been shocked.

Although the techniques of demonic cultivation, such as concealment and illusion, were powerful, they could only disguise ordinary cultivators. The divine cultivators, who follow the path of incense worship and are opposed to demonic cultivation, were impossible to be disguised.

Because wish power is a special divine power that the demonic cultivators cannot simulate or imitate.

But the Heavenly Demon Lord in front of him completely shattered Xiao Juechen's cognition!

Standing beside the Heavenly Demon Lord, it not only witnessed the scene where the evil lord trio dispelled the evil death qi and revealed their wish power, but it could also feel the aura around it clearly, which was undoubtedly pure wish power!

Even the instinct of wish power, which is hated and loathed by demonic cultivators, now arises uncontrollably in Xiao Juechen's mind.

- The disguise of the Heavenly Demon Lord cannot be described as merely deceiving with a fake appearance.

It's just like the real thing!

Xiao Juechen's heart was incredibly shaken.

The common knowledge of demonic path, passed down by the elders, shattered at this moment.

The common knowledge that demonic cultivators could not possibly disguise themselves as wishfulfilling gods, was it not actually absolute?

The true top-tier demonic cultivators, at the very least this person in front of them, the Heavenly Demon Lord, could so realistically disguise themselves as a wishfulfilling god...

Truly worthy of being a demonic giant from the ancient times, daring to look down upon the top demonic figure Lian Cangqing... This demonic technique is truly beyond what normal demonic cultivators can imagine.

Xiao Juechen was completely convinced.

And he couldn't help but marvel at how terrifying the Heavenly Demon Lord's various ancient demonic techniques were. No wonder he dared to provoke the formidable Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain and had the confidence to use demonic techniques to harm the Wolf God without fear of completely offending him.

With such a multitude of ancient demonic techniques at his disposal, the Evil Lord certainly had the capital to be arrogant.

Before, they thought that the Evil Lord was on the same level as the Cave Lord in terms of skill, but now it seems that the Evil Lord is much more skilled than the Cave Lord by a substantial margin...

Xiao Juechen couldn't help but feel extremely amazed and joyous for his own good fortune.

It was by pure chance that he had encountered such a top-notch sorcerer, who had helped to resolve a great disaster for the Green Hell Cave.

If not for encountering and receiving the assistance of the Evil Lord, then speaking strictly, that woman in the red dress, Lian Cangqing, would have been an insurmountable obstacle.

It seems that this time, it was Heaven's will that the Green Hell Cave would receive the Dragon Soul, as everything went so smoothly for them.

Amidst such joyous celebration, Xiao Juechen led Lu Heng and the others to the wooden cabin by the lake.

In the nearby grassland, there were several human cultivators who were not under the influence of evil demons. They were responsible for guarding the little girl in the wooden cabin and obeying orders.

Lu Heng also didn't sense any demonic energy from these cultivators. He didn't know whether they were using a technique to conceal their energy or if they simply were not demons to begin with.

Lianshan Jing had previously told Lu Heng that among the living, there were many righteous cultivators who, for various reasons, became minions of the Green Hell Cave and remained hidden in the Fire Pass Country to gather information for the demons.

Lu Heng was not surprised that these cultivators guarding the wooden cabin were probably true human cultivators, even if they were not demons.

After all, traitors were difficult to completely eradicate unless it was a wizard who cultivated the path of incense and divine way.

Not paying attention to these cultivators who were not under the influence of evil demons, Lu Heng followed Xiao Juechen towards the wooden cabin. Along the way, none of the cultivators they encountered dared to step forward and stop them.

Without any obstacle, Lu Heng and his companions arrived at the wooden cabin and found the little girl who was meditating on a small observation deck by the lake.

The little girl opened her eyes and looked surprised upon sensing someone approaching.

"Uncle Xiao, who are these people?"

The little girl's curious gaze shifted between Lu Heng and his two companions.

Lu Heng smiled and said, "My name is Huo Feng, the god of the Weak Water River. I was once indebted to the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain, and I have come to repay my debt."

After Lu Heng finished speaking, the little girl suddenly stood up with excitement.

"You... You know my dad?"

Lu Heng smiled slightly and said, "Several years ago, when the Wolf God was traveling outside the Hanyu Mountain, he gave me some guidance when he passed by the Weak Water River. Therefore, when I learned that the daughter of the Wolf God was stranded here, I came specifically to protect the little goddess and send you back to Hanyu Mountain to reunite with your father."

Lu Heng casually spun a messy lie.

Although no one present had heard of Weak Water before, Lu Heng's powerful divine aura made his words convincing.

After he spoke, Xiao Juechen couldn't help but admire him and secretly held up his thumb in praise.

Truly a giant figure in the demonic path, this lie was so well woven that there was simply no loophole.

Chapter 317: Goodbye for Now

"Huo Feng...Weak Water River God..."

Inside the wooden house, the little girl repeated Lu Heng's words in a murmuring voice, not doubting him.

After all, the uncle in front of them was covered in the genuine power of incense and gods, which could not be faked.

However, the little girl was still curious, where did this Weak Water River God come from?

She looked towards Xiao Juechen beside her and curiously asked, "Uncle Xiao, did you bring the River God's master here?"

Xiao Juechen sighed and said, "The situation is chaotic now. Not long ago, the Wolf God came down from the mountain to travel the world, perhaps to stop the chaos of evil demons in the Fire Pass Country. He is no longer at Hanyu Mountain."

"Our messenger sent to Hanyu Mountain didn't see the Wolf God, so we asked some trustworthy righteous cultivators to spread the news of the Wolf God's daughter, hoping to let the Wolf God know your whereabouts and come find you."

"It's a pity that the Wolf God's whereabouts are uncertain and difficult for ordinary people to know. We didn't wait for the arrival of the Wolf God but instead received the arrival of the river god Huo Feng."

"He once received guidance from the Wolf God and met the Wolf God not long ago, knowing his whereabouts. Therefore, he came to us and wanted to send you home."

Xiao Juechen continued to extend the lie spun by Lu Heng, and both sides cooperated seamlessly.

After listening, Wuyu was very grateful and bowed down slowly, saying, "Thank you Uncle Xiao, thank you to the river god master."

"Hey hey hey! Can't do that, can't do that!"

Xiao Juechen quickly reached out to stop her, not daring to let this little she-wolf bow down for real.

The Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain is a highly respected and elevated being. Although his daughter, the little she-wolf, has a low cultivation, her station may not necessarily be low.

I may not be able to withstand this little she-wolf's bowing down.

After finally stopping the excited and joyful little she-wolf, Xiao Juechen wiped the sweat from his heart.

Then he said, "In that case, River God Huo will take you away from here and go find your father later."

"River God Huo is guided by the Wolf God and has extremely high cultivation levels, much stronger than the rest of us. Even with the current chaos of devil demons, there are few evil demons in the Fire Pass Country that dare to provoke him."

"So, Miss Wuyu, it will be very safe for you to travel with River God Huo."

Xiao Juechen's words made the little girl even more grateful. She said, "Thank you uncles for taking care of me. Wuyu will never forget your kindness forever."

"Oh no, no need to be so polite, Wuyu."

In the wooden house, after some false politeness, the little girl went to pack her luggage and prepare to leave with Lu Heng.

Later, under Xiao Juechen's guidance, they left the wooden house and headed towards the distant, huge Heaven Door. Soon, they passed through the Heaven Door and arrived in a secluded valley.

Here, is another support point of the Green Hell Cave's Three Realms Array, which is located in the northern territory of the Fire Pass Country. It is surrounded by perilous mountains and desolate wild spirits, and is located thousands of miles away from the Floating Jade Mountain.

It does indeed look like a scene of a catastrophic event where everything is withering away and evil forces are dancing wildly.

But Lu Heng was aware that the desolation of the northern border was not caused by the demons in the Green Hell Cave. Even before the demons ravaged the area, the Fire Pass Country's northern territory was already in such a state.

The reason is related to the Youxiong Country to the north of the Fire Pass Country.

Youxiong...

To tell the truth, Lu Heng has always paid special attention to this country's name.

After all, with a name like Youxiong, there may be a connection to the Yellow Emperor (Xuanyuan Huangdi).

However, with the current chaos in the Fire Pass Country, Lu Heng simply doesn't have time to pay attention to what the Youxiong Country is like farther north.

Nowadays, in the secluded valley where they are located, it seems desolate and empty, but in fact, it hides many evil demons within it.

It's just because of the appearance of Shen Wuyu that those demons cautiously hid themselves and didn't dare to show up. So now, this huge demon cavern is desolate and empty.

Outside the secluded valley, Xiao Juechen bid farewell to Lu Heng and his team.

The little girl was full of reluctance and gratitude towards "Uncle Xiao," who had taken care of her, and said goodbye with fondness all the way.

Xiao Juechen sighed and bowed to Lu Heng, saying, "I'll have to rely on the River God for the rest of the way."

Lu Heng smiled slightly and said, "It is only natural. Brother Xiao, please put your mind at ease. I will definitely escort the daughter of the Wolf God to... see you again another day."

"Goodbye!"

Outside the valley where evil demons lurked, Lu Heng bid farewell to Xiao Juechen.

It really looks like the separation of righteous cultivators.

However, both Xiao Juechen and Lu Heng knew what the other meant: they would meet again in three days in the capital of the Fire Pass Country.

By then, the Dragon Soul will appear and the demon horde will descend the mountain!

After leaving the valley, Lu Heng headed south with Xiao Ai and siblings Shen Wuyou.

The gang wind blew around the four of them. As soon as they left the valley, Shen Wuyou, the little boy who was already unable to contain his excitement, spoke up.

"Sister!"

He grabbed Wuyu and happily asked, "Can you see who I am?"

The little boy's face was full of excitement and Lu Heng smiled, dispelling the illusion on the boy. This allowed Wuyu to see the true appearance of the boy in front of him.

The little girl, who had furrowed her brow slightly due to Shen Wuyou's sudden behavior, instantly widened her eyes and looked unbelieving as soon as she saw her brother's face.

"Wuyou... Wuyou? How could it be you?"

The little boy laughed happily and said, "Not only me, but also Daddy and Sister Xiao Ai!"

Amid the little boy's happy laughter, the illusion around Lu Heng and Xiao Ai dissipated and their true appearance was revealed.

Seeing this scene, the little girl's eyes couldn't help but widen.

"This... what's going on?!"

The little girl suddenly realized that the situation seemed somewhat different from what she had expected.

Despite her incredulous expression, the little boy talked incessantly to her about everything that happened to him after they parted.

And as the little boy continued to speak, the little girl who was beginning to understand the truth, stared at him with ever-widening eyes.

In the end, it had turned into an unbelievable shock.

"Uncle Xiao and the others... are demons?!"

This matter completely overturned the little girl's cognition.

The fleeing light travels rapidly in the sky.

Neither Lu Heng nor Xiao Ai said anything, but the little boy talked incessantly.

He had been through so many twists and turns on the journey that he couldn't help but want to share it with his sister.

Now that he finally saw his sister and his mood calmed down, he wanted to tell her all the things he had been longing to say all at once.

When Lu Heng and his companions approached the capital of Fire Pass Country, the little boy's story was finally finished.

The little girl Shen Wuyu looked at Lu Heng with hesitation and panic on her face, and nervously asked, "You... Are you my father?"

Looking at her hopeful eyes, Lu Heng smiled and said, "Indeed, I am Lu Heng, the Wolf God of Hanyu Mountain."

The little girl immediately took two steps forward with excitement, her hands clasped tightly to her chest, "Daddy!"

The little girl said excitedly, "I finally see you, Daddy!"

Lu Heng, however, let out a slight sigh and said, "First, follow me down to rest. We will talk about this matter later."

As Lu Heng sighed, they landed outside the capital of the Fire Pass Country.

On the broad and flat driveway, the wizards in the distance had already seen the escaping light coming from afar and stopped to wait for them.

As Lu Heng landed, the wizards immediately recognized his identity and began to salute him one after another.

"The Wolf God!"

I'll Quit Being a God

Chapter 318: Blooming Flowers on a Shared Branch

Outside the capital, several wizards came to greet and respectfully bowed.

And further inside the city walls, the wizards heard the commotion from this side and immediately became excited.

The little girl beside Lu Heng couldn't help but widen her eyes, watching the scene with shock, and the doubts about Lu Heng's identity in her heart were completely dispelled.

So many wizards bowing to father...this simply cannot be achieved by devilish disguises!

Father is truly as legendary, majestic and commanding respect from all!

The little girl's eyes were full of admiration.

Lu Heng then said to the wizards who came to greet him, "Is the lord currently in the capital? I have an urgent matter to discuss with her, please inform her."

As the wizards greeted and led Lu Heng into the capital, they said, "The lord is not currently in the capital, but if the Wolf God has urgent matters, they can rest in the ceremonial hall and we will immediately inform the lord to return. Within three hours, the Wolf God will be able to see the lord."

Among the wizards of the Fire Pass Country, there is a certain kind of long-distance communication technique.

This is the reason why Lianshan Jing, as the ruler of a country, is able to wander around freely.

Although it may seem like she is aimlessly running around, in actuality she is well-informed about various affairs, big and small, within the country.

Many times, she even personally partakes in them.

Lu Heng was not surprised by this and nodded, saying, "Then I'll trouble you all to inform her. This matter is of great importance, and I hope the lord can come back as soon as possible."

Lu Heng's expression was slightly solemn, which made the wizards even more cautious.

Who dares to underestimate a matter that is so highly valued by the Wolf God?

However, before the lord's arrival, they must be careful to entertain the Wolf God and not neglect him in any way.

Soon, escorted by the wizards, Lu Heng and his team passed through the city gates of the capital and boarded a flying boat, heading towards the floating islands in the sky.

The capital of the Fire Pass Country, known as Yanjing, is a massive city that covers a vast area.

It was the largest city Lu Heng had seen since coming to this world.

According to Lianshan Jing, there are a total of 15 million living beings in Yanjing, and there are 17 floating islands of different sizes.

Standing on the floating boat, Lu Heng looked around and saw buildings and bustling crowds under the sky. Above the city, there were 17 gigantic floating islands of different distances, silently standing in the void.

In the sunlight, the houses and roofs on the floating islands were magnificent, and the spiritual beasts roared. Waterfalls were hanging in the air, falling into the vast lakes below. The scattered water droplets formed a rainbow hanging in the air.

Although flying for cultivators is prohibited within the capital city, birds are not included in this category.

Between the floating islands, numerous rare birds were flying back and forth, and even demon cultivators in bird form were swiftly flapping their wings in the air and heading towards a faraway direction.

Of course, there are also land creatures like Lu Heng, who travel up and down on public flying facilities while standing on the floating boat.

Demon cultivators, humans, and many weird and strange non-human races... The scene within Yanjing was too much for Lu Heng to take in all at once. It was even more bustling than the South Sea Mermaid convention.

After all, the Mermaid convention was only open to the top cultivators, and it was always relatively deserted. It was not like Yanjing city, where ordinary mortal people without cultivation could share a floating boat with top cultivators.

These scenes could not be portrayed even by the magical blockbuster movies from my previous life.

-After all, the scale of the scene was too large, and the resulting production expenses would undoubtedly exceed the budget.

Only in this truly fantastical world, can one witness such astonishing scenes.

Looking at this enormous city before him, Lu Heng couldn't help but sigh, thinking of what Lianshan Jing had said before.

"The population of living beings in Yanjing city is 15 million, while in the Fire Pass Country, the total number of registered living beings under the jurisdiction of the Fire God Temple in the various cities is 370 million... If we include the nomads who are not under the jurisdiction of those cities, the number of people will be even higher."

"If the Green Hell Cave remains, the lives of these living beings will be threatened."

"I won't hide it from the Wolf God, as the lord of the Fire Pass Country, I have tremendous pressure..."

The nonchalant, seemingly lazy lord with red hair has been carrying such immense pressure on her shoulders all the time.

Just listening to her talk about the numbers, Lu Heng didn't have much of a feeling.

Now that Lu Heng has personally witnessed the magnificent sight of 15 million people living in the city, he finally experienced the pressure behind that number firsthand.

If the demons are allowed to ravage and indulge the rampant evil demons of the Green Hell Cave, the living beings of the entire city and the vast architectural complex spreading to the distant land will all turn into ashes in three days.

The plan of the demons in the Green Hell Cave must not succeed under any circumstance!

Upon the floating boat, Lu Heng's gaze turned slightly cold.

The fact that the Lord of All Demons considered him as a lifesaving straw, a last resort, was the greatest disaster caused by these demons.

The Heavenly Demon Lord will not come in three days.

What's coming is Lu Heng from Hanyu Mountain!

The floating boat continued to fly over the city, at a speed that approached the limits of fast.

However, due to the power of the formation, one didn't feel the strong and frigid winds, and the distance of several tens of kilometers was quickly traversed.

Their floating boat, belonging to Lu Heng and his companions, docked in front of the tallest and largest of the suspended islands, where a pier extending into the void was already awaiting them, with wizards there to greet them.

However, the wizards knew that Lu Heng didn't like ostentations, so there was no overly grand welcoming ceremony; only Wuzhu, the head of the Fire God Temple, and a few trusted aides came to welcome them.

And standing next to Wuzhu, the head of the Fire God Temple, was someone with red hair and red eyes, whose brilliant smile made it clear that she was...

"Lord Lianshan?" Lu Heng's expression was slightly surprised. "You've come back so soon?"

Seeing Lu Heng's surprise, the red-haired woman giggled, revealing two sharp little tiger teeth.

She said, "The Wolf God was mistaken, you see. I am not your Lord Lianshan. My name is Lianshan Yue. I am the sister of your Lord Lianshan, born to the same mother as her."

"However, although we are not the same person, we look almost identical... I have heard that the Wolf God is still unmarried. I wonder if I might catch the Wolf God's magic eyes and become his partner?"

The bold words spoken with a laugh by Lianshan Yue suddenly caused the faces of the wizards present to turn pale.

"Lady Yue, what nonsense are you talking about! Apologize to the Wolf God right away!"

The wizards became nervous in an instant.

Lu Heng looked at the red-haired woman in front of him, who was exactly identical to Lianshan Jing, and was truly unable to tell them apart.

These two sisters not only look identical and have the same figure, but their breaths are also almost the same. This... Lianshan Jing actually has a twin sister? Why hasn't she mentioned it before?

Moreover, it seems that she is even more unreliable than the careless and lazy Lianshan Jing.

Facing the nervous looks from the wizards, Lu Heng smiled and said, "I am sorry, Lady Yue, but I have two tagalongs with me... Haven't you noticed?"

Lu Heng smiled and pointed to the siblings Shen Wuyu and Shen Wuyou by his side.

To this, Lianshan Yue giggled and said, "It's alright, I don't mind being a stepmother. As long as I can cohabit with the Wolf God, let alone two children, even if twenty more come, I can accept them."

I'll Quit Being a God

Chapter 319: The Worries of Wuyou

Lianshan Yue's expression was playful, yet her eyes were inexplicably serious.

Seeing this scene, Lu Heng's heart couldn't help but skip a beat – what's going on?

What's going on with this sister of Lianshan Jing?

She doesn't seem to be joking, but rather serious?

But this is their first meeting, isn't it?

Lu Heng's expression was strange as he said, "Lord Yue's kindness is too much for me to bear... I suggest Lord Yue find someone more suitable for this honor."

As Lu Heng finished speaking and before Lianshan Yue could say anything, she was hurriedly dragged away by the wizards around her.

The fire priest Wuzhu said with an embarrassed expression, "Lord Yue has always been mischievous, the Wolf God, please don't laugh at us."

Lu Heng laughed and said, "No worries, no worries. Occasionally joking around is beneficial for one's physical and mental health..."

Led by the fire priest Wuzhu, Lu Heng's group entered a secluded side hall to wait for Lianshan Jing's arrival.

Meanwhile the fire priest had a pleasant conversation with Lu Heng, discussing various aspects of life in Yanjing City and recent events.

Xiao Ai stood by on the side and refused to take a seat, despite everyone else sitting down.

She was to stand by Lu Heng's side.

Shen Wuyou and his elder sister Wuyu, who had been separated for a long time, were reunited in a strange place. Despite their excitement, they forced themselves to restrain their emotions.

Moreover, they couldn't even interject due to the elders talking beside them. This made the siblings, who had countless things to say to each other, very uncomfortable and on edge.

Seeing the situation, Lu Heng suggested that the siblings should go out for a walk alone and catch up with each other after their long separation.

In the side hall, Lu Heng chatted with the Wuzhu with a smile, while his divine sense occasionally paid attention to the siblings sitting in the courtyard outside, chatting happily.

At one point, Lu Heng heard the young boy say to his sister.

"Sis, there's something I want to tell you."

The little boy said, "A few days ago, I went back home with dad and found that our house has been abandoned for many years..."

"My mother had mentioned the rampage of the Water God of Pang River, which was an old story that happened more than three hundred years ago..."

...

Lu Heng didn't listen to the conversation that followed.

But upon hearing these two sentences, a faint sigh escaped his heart.

It was both a sigh for the wit of Shen Wuyou and for the cruel reality that the siblings had to face.

If Lu Heng's speculation is correct, then the demon that targets him should also make a move on the day of the appearance of the Dragon Soul.

After all, on the day of the Dragon Soul's appearance, demons will run rampant, and Lu Heng will need to deal with many demons from the Green Hell Cave. It would be most appropriate for the enemy to take advantage of the situation and make a move then.

Even if the other party can restrain themselves from making a move, Lu Heng can also pretend to be injured, weak, and reveal a flaw.

That demon, who has been plotting against Lu Heng, will not be able to restrain themselves from seeing him getting injured during the Dragon Soul competition.

So, these adopted children who met by chance, probably only have a few days together...

In the side hall, the conversation between Lu Heng and the fire priest Wuzhu continues.

Two hours passed by quickly.

Lu Heng, who was in the middle of a conversation, suddenly had a flash of inspiration and looked up towards the distance.

In the sky far away, a blazing beam of light suddenly flashed and tore through the air.

It was like a rainbow piercing through the sun. The residents of the Yanjing city all saw this scene and were shocked with widened eyes.

Very few people are able to show off their use of lightness skills and fly in the Yanjing city.

Soon, a figure landed outside the palace. Lianshan Jing rushed inside and said,

"Where is the Wolf God?"

After entering the palace, she immediately looked towards Lu Heng and said with a smile, "The Wolf God is here, how can we not offer the best wine? Quickly bring the finest wine here for The Wolf God to enjoy."

Lianshan Jing opened her mouth to drink, but Lu Heng quickly reached out and stopped her, saying, "The lord is too busy to drink right now, there are still important matters to discuss. As for the wine, there is no rush, we can drink it another day."

Lianshan Jing nodded and said, "Alright then, when we have free time in the future, we'll go to Hanyu Mountain to drink with the Wolf God... The Wolf God cannot refuse."

Lu Heng nodded with a smile and said, "If the lord comes, Lu Heng will welcome you with utmost hospitality."

When Lianshan Jing saw Lu Heng agree, her eyes lit up and she quickly said, "The Wolf God has agreed, we have noted it down, and we cannot go back on our word!"

"No going back on our word, the lord should take a seat," Lu Heng calmed the wine-loving lady lord and said, "The Green Hell Cave is now in imminent danger, so let's prioritize dealing with the demons in the Green Hell Cave."

With that said, Lu Heng didn't beat around the bush and waved his hand to set up a formation to prevent any spying from outside. Then, he, along with Lianshan Jing and the Wuzhu, explained the real plan for dealing with the Green Hell Cave.

Including the identity of the Lord of All Demons, the time when the Dragon Soul will appear in the world, and the plan to attack the city by the Green Hell Cave three days later...

As Lu Heng spoke, one by one, the words he said were shocking and alarming, making Lianshan Jing's expression increasingly solemn.

Even Lianshan Jing, who has always had a lazy personality, can't laugh now.

What Lu Heng revealed is an extremely terrifying evil plan. If the Lord of All Demons actually carries it out, countless people in Yanjing City will surely be killed or injured.

After listening, Lianshan Jing remained silent for a long time.

After a while, Lianshan Jing said slowly, "If this was not said by the Wolf God, but by someone else...even if it was my father who said it, I would think he was talking nonsense."

"The awakening of the Dragon Soul...I didn't expect such a precious treasure to be hidden within my Fire Pass Country. No wonder the outlaws can rampage in many parts of the world, while the Lord of All Demons doesn't go there and chooses to come to my Fire Pass Country to confront us."

"So there was such a great temptation of interest..."

"And there is that ancient woman named Lian Cangqing..."

Lianshan Jing looked at Lu Heng and said, "According to the Wolf God, who is stronger between us and Lian Cangqing?"

"Um...well..." Lu Heng hesitated for a moment and said, "I have never seen the lord take action, but Lian Cangqing's body movement is strange, and her palm technique is devilish. Even the top innate cultivators would suffer if caught off guard against her..."

Lianshan Jing nodded and said, "I understand. Strength is secondary. Her unpredictable body movement and palm technique that is hard to defend against are the most troublesome things."

"If there is no way to deal with her strange palm technique and body movement, no matter how high one's cultivation is, they will end up being defeated like the wife of the Lord of All Demons."

Lianshan Jing said, "Let's leave this person aside for now and first discuss how to deal with the rampage of the demons in the Green Hell Cave...The Wolf God, wait a moment. I will immediately notify the Fire God Temple's Wuzhu and wizards to come and discuss."

Lianshan Jing didn't bother with the location and directly used the special contact of the wizards to call for the top wizards from the Fire God Temple to come to this place and discuss important matters.

Soon, figures came from all over the Fire God Temple, some even hurried over from the Flame Capital on floating boats, all gathering towards the side hall where Lu Heng and the others were located.

However, in order to prevent the spies in the city from noticing any abnormalities, the actions of the wizards were very low-key and cautious, avoiding drawing attention to themselves.

After all, the matter is of great importance, and this time we cannot allow the demons' plan to succeed.

I'll Quit Being a God

Chapter 320: Sister, Don't Think About Having Him All to Yourself

In the side hall, Lu Heng explained in detail the Green Hell Cave demons' plan to the many wizards who had hurried over, and he answered everyone's questions from time to time.

In order to collaborate with Lu Heng without having to form a blood contract, the Lord of All Demons revealed all of his plans.

Now, however, Lu Heng has informed the wizards of the Fire Pass Country about it.

In the remote grand hall, the wizards' discussion lasted until late at night.

Shen Wuyu and Wuyou, who had a low cultivation level, had already had dinner and fallen asleep with the company of Xiao Ai, according to the arrangements of the wizards.

Later in the middle of the night, the cold moonlight silently fell on the huge floating island.

At the top of the grand Red God Temple, on the crown of the huge fire god statue, burns a blazing flame.

Watching the shining flame from afar, Lu Heng couldn't help but sigh in his heart.

This true flame has existed since the establishment of the Fire Pass Country. Although countless years have passed, it has never been extinguished.

It is said that this is the fire god's pupil. The fire god can overlook this world through this blazing flame.

Before, I only heard people talk about it. Now, it's the first time I've truly experienced it myself.

Although very far away, Lu Heng could feel the subtle presence within the true flame, vast like a mountain and scorching like the sun, indicating it was not an ordinary existence.

Even the current Lu Heng couldn't help but furrow his brows, feeling a great pressure.

This true flame...perhaps the rumors about it are true.

The slight presence remaining within this true flame is certainly not an ordinary existence.

Perhaps, it could even be above the innate level...

In the small courtyard, Lu Heng stood with his hands behind his back, quietly gazing at the distant giant statue of the fire god.

At a certain moment, footsteps sounded behind him, someone was approaching.

After turning his head, he smiled and said, "Is Lord not in there having a discussion?"

In the cool moonlight, the woman who appeared before Lu Heng was Lianshan Jing, with red hair, red eyes, a slender and shapely figure, and the title of lord.

The discussions inside the side hall continued, but they had little to do with Lu Heng anymore.

After all, Lu Heng was only responsible for introducing the situation. The specific measures to deal with it were the concern of the wizards who would have to deal with it, and Lu Heng was neither able nor interested in interfering.

Therefore, Lu Heng came out for a walk alone, but he didn't expect that Lianshan Jing would also come out shortly after he did.

Just when Lu Heng was about to make a joke and liven up the atmosphere, the red-haired woman in front of him rolled her eyes and revealed a mischievous and playful demeanor, which was in stark contrast to Lianshan Jing's laziness.

"You greet my sister with a bright smile, but you treat me with seriousness and rigidity... Husband, treating us differently like this makes me very sad!" Lianshan Yue said so.

Lu Heng's eyes widened slightly.

Then, feeling somewhat amused and helpless, he said, "Lord Yue, you can't just shout out like that. We just met, how can you casually call me 'husband'... Are you always this carefree?"

Lu Heng took a small dig at the woman.

But to his surprise, Lianshan Yue didn't care at all. Instead, she just gave a slight 'hmp' and said, "I'm not a cold-faced old maid who needs to be reserved around her husband. Why should I be restrained towards my husband? What's wrong with being a little carefree in front of him? This is called the charm of the boudoir!"

Lianshan Yue looked at Lu Heng, licked her lips, and smiled, "What do you think, my husband?"

Lu Heng shook his head and said, "I have never met such a unique woman as Lord Yue before. She wants to recognize her husband the first time she meets someone... To be honest, my appearance is only average, and I won't make someone live forever if consumed. So how did I attract Lord Yue?"

Lu Heng was very curious about this matter.

Lianshan Yue, on the other hand, widened her eyes and said, "Do you need a reason to love someone?"

Lu Heng innocently shrugged and said, "Do you really think so?"

"Do you need it?"

"Don't you need it?"

"Should I... never mind. They say love at first sight, do you believe that, my lord?" asked Lianshan Yue eagerly.

Lu Heng shook his head and said, "I don't believe it."

Lianshan Yue sighed, feeling very discouraged, "My lord is such a clueless person when it comes to romance... Can't he even be moved a little bit by someone like her? She's such a stunning beauty, and yet my lord is not interested... I mean, if a man came across a charming and beautiful woman like me, wouldn't he get excited?"

Lu Heng once again shrugged, "But surprises from unknown sources are like death, which can happen at any time and make people feel frightened. I really don't know what kind of virtue or ability I possess that would make Lianshan Yue want to marry me at our first meeting."

Lianshan Yue said helplessly, "Didn't we already discuss this? Love at first sight means falling in love with someone at the first sight without any other reason... But if my lord doesn't believe it, then there's nothing more I can do."

"Mmm... How about this? My lord, why not give me a chance to prove that I truly fell in love with you? What do you say?" Lianshan Yue looked hopefully at Lu Heng.

Lu Heng was slightly curious and smiled, "How does Lord Lianshan plan to prove it?"

Lianshan Yue giggled and said, "From today onwards, let me accompany my lord and stay with him day and night, for eternity. I'll bear children for him and serve him for the rest of my life, as a practical demonstration of my love for him... Would my lord agree to this?"

Lu Heng shook his head and said, "I don't think that's necessary."

"I also think it's unnecessary."

The sudden third voice caught the attention of Lu Heng and Lianshan Yue.

Both of them looked over at the same time, only to see that Lianshan Jing had already appeared in the courtyard without them noticing. She looked rather exhausted as she gazed at Lianshan Yue and said, "You reckless girl, you can goof around all you want on ordinary days, but now you dare to come and amuse the Wolf God... Be careful, I'll throw you into the dungeon and loosen up your muscles and bones!"

Lianshan Jing's threatening words made Lianshan Yue look pained, "But sister, I really like the Wolf God and I want to marry him, be with him forever, and have his children."

"The Wolf God is such a wonderful husband. I don't believe you are not moved at all. Both of us are burning with desire..."

Lianshan Yue's mouth was instantly sealed by an invisible force.

Lianshan Jing gave her a conflicted look and stared at her, saying, "Even if I am moved, you have no right to interfere... So get lost!"

With a wave of her hand, Lianshan Jing disregarded sisterly love and slapped the pained Lianshan Yue, sending her flying.

The speed at which she was sent flying was so fast that it almost exceeded the speed of the usual cultivation technique. In an instant, she was several miles away.

Then, Lianshan Jing couldn't help but sigh and turned to Lu Heng, saying, "Little Yue is ignorant and mischievous, which must have made the Wolf God laugh."

Under the moonlight, Lu Heng smiled politely and said, "The lord overpraises me. Lord Yue's innocence and carefree nature is something to be envied."

After speaking, Lu Heng shifted the topic and inquired about the outcome of the discussion that took place in the side hall.

As for what Lianshan Yue said earlier, it seemed that both of them had forgotten about it.

No one brought it up again.

However, when Lu Heng bid farewell to Lianshan Jing and took Xiao Ai to the lodging that was arranged by the wizards, the little girl's expression became somewhat gloomy.

Very unhappy.
