

Beloved Dog 581

Chapter 581

Rahle liked being on the roof

Ms. Lyra smiled and greeted me.

While it must have been tough, staying in the forest and cooking, I was glad to see that she wasn't tired anymore.

Please leave her to me. If she wakes up, I will help her get ready and take her to you.

Thank you. Ah, that's right.

What is it?

No, it's about Ms. Gelda

I then explained to her what had happened during dinner.

I see. So that happened while I was resting. Very well. I will deal with her as well. Something like that will not happen again.

Ah, that's not what I meant. Mr. Ekenhart and Ms. Claire were not angry either.

Lady Tilura is like that as well. It is difficult to be strict. And so I will just tease her while she looks embarrassed.

But that might make her cry.

It's fine. I will do it slowly.

Ahaha. I see. Slowly.

And so I left Liza with Ms. Lyra, and then took Tilura and Leo and went to where Rahle was.

Kii!

Rahle! Were you able to rest yesterday?

Kii! Kii!

Hahaha. You seem well.

Wuff, wuff.

We had gone out to the back garden.

Rahle saw us immediately and descended from up above.

Apparently, it had been on the roof.

Once Rahle was in front of her, Tilura, who had been hesitant at first, jumped forward cheerfully and hugged Rahle.

Rahle gently wrapped her in its wings and squawked.

Leo and I really did not need to come

Rahle, were you alright being outside? Was it cold?

Kii? Kii-kii!

Wuff. Wuff-wuff.

Hmm. I guess it really does like being outside.

Tilura was a little worried about Rahle, and she touched its feathers while talking.

After tilting its head once, Rahle told her that there was no problem.

According to Leo, it had been more comfortable than the mountains.

Well, the mansion was on flat land, and it would not be as cold as the mountains Well, I didnt actually know what those mountains were like.

You seemed to be above the mansion. Were you flying?

Kii. Kii-kii.

Hmm. I see!

Tilura seemed to enjoy talking to Rahle.

I doubted she would hesitate to meet with Rahle in the future.

Regardless, we then learned that Rahle liked to rest on top of the mansion.

It was the tallest building in the area, and higher than any tree. Besides, unlike the tree branches, it would not break.

While that was fine, was it alright for a monster of that size to stay up there?

When I asked, apparently Rahle had a way to reduce its own weight.

Ms. Claire would be so jealous of that ability I suppose it was magic?

In any case, there was nothing to get in Rahles way on the roof. It was comfortable and offered a good view.

There were larger buildings in my old world, but the mansion was the largest building I had seen here I doubted there was a taller one.

And so as Leo and I watched Tilura and Rahle talk happily, Ms. Lyra brought Liza out into the garden.

Dinner portions were insufficient Mr. Takumi, sorry to disturb your rest. Dinner is ready, so please come down to the dining hall. But if you are too tired, we could bring it up to your room? Ah, no. I was just relaxing a little. I will head down there immediately.

A bird flew in the sky In any case, its all finished now. So its time to prepare dinner Hmm? What is it, Leo? Wuffwuff? After the orcs had been cleaned up, and the only thing left to do was eat dinner, I noticed that Leo was looking up at

Rahle had done well ...Leo? Wuff? Wuff-wuff! Good morning. There, there. What happened? I was standing where the servants had gathered, and so I could not see what was happening, as Leo and the fenrirs were blocking my view. Rahle was also spreading out his wings, so I could not

I would not see the main house for some time

Papa! Mama!

Oh, Liza. So youre awake. Ms. Lyra. Thank you.

Wou!

Not at all. Liza searched for you two as soon as she woke up But I suppose she also got used to sleeping separately in the forest, and so she was able to prepare for the day right after.

Good morning, Liza!

Kii!

Good morning, papa and mama! Ah, sister Tilura and Rahle are here too! Good morning!

As soon as she saw me and Leo, Liza rushed towards us cheerfully.

After having slept a long time, it seemed that she was no longer tired.

Ah, Mr. Takumi. Its almost time You too, Lady Tilura.

Breakfast, of course. Very well. Tilura, since breakfast is ready, lets go to the dining hall!

Yes! See you later, Rahle!

Kii!

Bye!

Wuff!

As breakfast was ready, I called out to Tilura, who was stuck to Rahle.

She quickly rushed towards us, but then waved at Rahle as if she intended to come back as soon as she was finished.

Rahle also beat its wings and called in reply.

As Rahle flew back up to the roof, Liza waved her hand and Leo lifted her front paw.

As we made our way to the dining hall, I saw a butler and a cook as they carried food out into the garden.

They had prepared breakfast for Rahle as well.

Currently, they did not know what Rahles favorite foods were. Later, they would ask Tilura or Liza to find out. But for now, Sebastian had ordered them to cook some of the orc meat from the forest.

Good morning, Ms. Claire. And Mr. Ekenhart.

Good morning.

Good morning, sister. And father! You're awake!

Mr. Takumi, Tilura. And Leo and Liza. Still is it that strange that I am awake?

Wuff!

I had not given him any sleeping herbs last night, and since we had just returned from the forest, I assumed that he would be tired.

Even Tilura was surprised

Nouhwell yes.

Hahaha! Well, I suppose it is. I wasn't sure I would be able to get up this early either. In fact it was really because of Sebastian's nagging

Your Grace. I understand that you might be tired after the journey, but they need you back at the house.

While I didn't say it directly, Mr. Ekenhart seemed to have expected it, and so he laughed it off.

He was not the kind of person to care about such things.

In any case, it seemed that the reason was not his own will, but that Sebastian had woken him up.

Exactly. A lot of time has passed since I came here. And so it is time to return to the main house. There is much to prepare, and so I got up early this morning.

I see. I got so used to having you here but there is another house

Yes, this is just a villa.

There were times when I completely forgot about that fact.

The main house I wonder what kind of place it is. It must be bigger than this house, with even more servants and soldiers. But it was hard for someone like me to imagine it.

Mr. Takumi. Are you interested in it? Hmm?

Well I am curious about it

Father, it will not do. Mr. Takumi is living here now. He cannot go over there. Or Ractos will not have any herbs. And there is the matter of the herb fields!

Mmm That is true

Mr. Ekenhart had asked the question as if he was thinking of something interesting.

It seemed like he wished to take me there once, but Ms. Claire put a stop to that.

He probably wanted to see my expression of shock at the sight of the huge house.

In any case, Ms. Claire was right. I was the main provider of herbs for Ractos now, and I could not leave this place for very long.

The main house would be even farther than Range village. So it would take days even if I rode on Leo.

And considering the time I would spend there, it could be ten days for a round trip Since I had the herb fields to deal with, it was a little too early to go

I comforted Tilura Well, it looks like they will arrive safely. Were back! Wuff! After watching Tilura and Rahle for some time, the large building finally came into view. Somehow, Tilura had managed to stay on this whole time. Perhaps Rahle had sensed her fear, as there were no more

Rahle liked being on the roof Ms. Lyra smiled and greeted me. While it must have been tough, staying in the forest and cooking, I was glad to see that she wasnt tired anymore. Please leave her to me. If she wakes up, I will help her get ready and

Rahle was sorry Tilura, are you alright!? Sister! Yes, Im fine! Shortly after, the carriage carrying the others arrived as well. Ms. Claire immediately jumped out and rushed to Tilura. As for Mr. Ekenharthe was looking this way, but perhaps he didnt want to show his distress, as he did

I decided to make more herbs

The breakfast looks normal.

Indeed. Last nights dinner really was just because of our sudden return.

Unlike yesterdays dinner, there was a lot of food served for breakfast.

And so both Mr. Ekenhart and Leo were satisfied.

Still, it was impressive that both of them could eat so much this early in the morning Though I wondered that, I also ate quite a lot.

Breakfast is what gives you strength for the day But the real reason was that Ms. Helenas food was that delicious.

Once we were about half-way through breakfast, Ms. Anne got up and joined us.

Unlike the others, she seemed to still be tired. And though she had started to curl her hair again, they were not like they were before.

It was like you could tell how much energy she had by their current state.

Its because you didnt eat before going to bed, Anne. Even if youre tired, you must eat a proper meal.

You say that, but

Indeed, you needed some nutrition. Sleep alone would not be enough

There had been times when I was so tired after work, that I would sleep without eating, and still be exhausted the next morning

Now, Mr. Takumi. About today It seems like Ractos is running out of herbs.

Yes, Ms. Gelda told me about it yesterday. And so I will start with that today.

Well, I suppose I will watch Mr. Takumi as he makes the herbs then

No, Your Grace. As I said earlier, you are needed at the main house as soon as possible.

Thats right, father. I also have a lot of work to do. You can watch Mr. Takumi some other time.

After we finished eating and relaxed with some tea, Sebastian asked me about today.

Apparently, Mr. Ekenhart and Ms. Claire wanted to watch me use Weed Cultivation, but both had a lot of work to do.

I was not sure why anyone would want to watch that

And I will go and see Rahle!

Tilura Well, yes. Normally I would tell you to study, but I suppose it is fine for today. After all, Rahle is not used to being here yet.

Yes!

And I shall sleep

Anneliese, that will not do at all. You are leaving with me today. So you must prepare!

Oh Very well.

Tilura was able to escape her studies by using Rahle as an excuse.

Of course, there were a lot of things to confirm with Rahle, and so it made sense to prioritize that.

As Ms. Anne was not recovered, she wanted to return to her room and rest, but Mr. Ekenhart put an end to that hope.

Well, it was a long journey, so she would need to prepare for it.

Leo and Liza had nothing to do, so they could go out into the garden with me

But they would likely get bored, so maybe they should play with Rahle and Tilura.

Though, Leo would probably want to continue with Sherrys training.

Mr. Takumi. After you are finished with your work, there is something I would like to discuss with you about the herb fields.

Is that so?

Yes. Since there were not enough herbs, they started picking the ones in the test field. Also, there are other matters that must be decided.

Well, I did tell them that they could use those herbs if they ran out. But very well. I will make more for the field as well. And yet, I am sure there is much to decide on Indeed. Such as the hiring of workers.

I understand. Lets talk after I finish then.

Yes, thank you.

Things like the location of the field and the house had already been decided. But as for the workers to hire, the herbs and how they would be managed There are a lot of things that are still up in the air.

Rahle, thats amazing!

Kii!

Wougrau!

Ah, mama! Woah, amazing!

Haha, I see youre all having fun.

I muttered as I went out into the garden to see Rahle playing with Tilura, and Leo and Liza.

Rahle dove down from the sky and then went back up right before hitting the ground. It was what birds often did when catching prey on the ground or in the water.

Upon seeing this, Leo must have felt something,probably due to Tilura praising Rahle And so while carrying Liza, she jumped high into the air.

Liza cheered. And while it was impressive how careful Leo was so that she didn't fall off I didn't know why an eagle and wolf had to compete in the first place.

They were just so different But regardless, Tilura and Liza seemed to be having fun. So it was fine, as long as they did nothing dangerous.

Tilura woke up late While it's nice during the day and night, the morning air is pleasant as well, isn't it? Yes. Now that I think about it, grandfather used to say Hmm? That you need the morning light to live. And so he always got up early and slept

I Thanked the Head Cook for Making Dinner I talked with Ms. Claire and Tilura amidst a harmonious atmosphere, when the doors to the dining hall opened and the food was carried in on a wagon. Tonight's dinner was a sauté meat with sauce, a salad with a much thicker

I would not see the main house for some time Papa! Mama! Oh, Liza. So you're awake. Ms. Lyra. Thank you. Wow! Not at all. Liza searched for you two as soon as she woke up But I suppose she also got used to sleeping separately in the forest, and

Ms. Lyra helped as well

In any case, I better make the herbs

I left the children to their play, and focused on making herbs.

First, I had to make some for Ractos.

Uh I guess they will want Ramogi the most. Also

Before going out into the garden, Sebastian had given me a list of herbs to make.

And Ramogi was at the top of the list.

Well, it could be made into medicine, which you could store. And so there were probably people who wanted to have some in stock, in case they got sick again.

I had heard when he gave me the list, that the price for Ramogi had already returned to normal now.

In any case, I followed the list and started to use Weed Cultivation.

I guess that should do it?

It wasn't necessarily more than I would usually make in a day, but I had made as much that was required.

Still, it was more than what I usually sent to Ractos. Apparently, this was because more people had started to buy it from nearby towns and villages.

It was not a bad thing that it sold well.

I could have made more, but I didn't because I planned to work again tomorrow anyway.

Besides, I was also going to make some herbs for the test field as well.

I wanted to make herbs in Range village as soon as possible, so that there would be enough to go around to everyone who needed them.

Now, since I made quite a lot, it will take some time to pick all of them

I shall help you, Mr. Takumi.

Master, sorry that I could not greet you yesterday. I am glad that you have returned safely! Allow me to help!

Hmm? Ms. Lyra and Milina And Ms. Gelda?

Yes. We have come to help you.

You do not have to do it all yourself. You only need to ask me, you know?

Mr. Takumi. Sorry about yesterday Please allow me to help.

As there were a lot of herbs having to pick all of them and change their state would be time consuming.

But when I looked to the side, I saw the others playing happily, and so I did not want to bother them. But just as I was thinking about doing it myself, I heard Ms. Lyra's voice as she came out of the mansion.

Milina and Ms. Gelda were right behind her.

Unlike when I was in Japan, there were actually people who would help me here I didn't need to work alone. I was quite grateful for that.

Master, I picked them!

Here, Mr. Takumi.

Yes, thank you. Alright, Ms. Lyra?

Yes, I received them.

I took the herbs and made them into medicine.

And then Ms. Lyra separated them by type and wrapped them up in paper so they could be sold in the store.

Ms. Lyra had even brought out a table so that it would be easier to work.

Kyaukyau

Oh? What is it, Sherry?

Kyuu Hahahah!

Ah, I see. Im not really sure what you said, but I think youre tired?

Kyau

As I continued to change the herbs that were picked, Sherry walked up towards my feet.

And when I called to her, she looked up and sat down while panting with her tongue out.

I didnt understand what Sherry was saying, but her behavior was similar to Leo when she was a maltese, so I had an idea.

I told Mr. Haines about Weed Cultivation Indeed, it is hard to imagine someone growing herbs in great quantities. Growing them at all is almost unheard of in this country. Most people gather what is found in nature. Mr. Takumi? Sebastian? It will be fine. As Mr. Haines is the

I Searched For Herbs You will!? Thank you so much. If you are with me, Mr. Takumi, then I wont be scared even if were attacked by orcs again! Hahaha. Well, I didnt do anything! But I think it must be because of your power that Leo is with you.

Sebastian explained it excitedly Well, the demonstration can come later. For now, we should talk about the herb fields. Mr. Haines, I assume you have already decided to give your permission? ...Yes. We would gladly welcome Mr. Takumi and Leo to the village. And we have no reason to object.

Chapter 585

Sherry was tired from running

As Sherry had been jogging around the garden, it was not surprising that she was tired.

Unlike the time before we went to the forest, Leo was not chasing her. So she ran at a slower pace, but for a longer time.

Leo might get mad if she sees you.

Kyu

Ah, so that's why you came to me

Leo was currently jumping up as if to try and catch Rahle. And so she had not noticed that Sherry was here yet.

If she really wanted to, she could probably catch Rahle, but she was holding back because they were just playing, and Liza and Tilura were on her back

Well, as long as Sherry was me, Leo would probably not be too harsh.

In spite of her age, Sherry could be quite calculating.

Perhaps she was actually quite smart for a Fenrir.

Here you go, Sherry.

Kyau!

Sherry, don't drink so quickly. Oh, she isn't listening. Thank you, Ms. Lyra.

Not at all. And Mr. Takumi, perhaps you should rest soon?

Hmm, I suppose

Master, is it time to rest?

Yes, well rest then.

Certainly. I will bring the tea then.

As I was talking with Sherry, Ms. Lyra came and gave her a bowl of water.

Apparently, she had seen how tired Sherry was.

I thanked Ms. Lyra, and she then suggested that I should rest as well.

I was not that tired, but Milina and Ms. Gelda leapt up at the mention of taking a break.

Milina had to squat in order to pick the herbs, so she was probably more tired than me.

They really could have rested without worrying about me It reminded me of my time in Japan, where it was difficult to rest until your superiors rested.

Well, my direct superior had rested most of the time, while forcing all of the work on subordinates

Wuff? Wou!

Kyau!? Kyu

Oh? Haha Leo, surely its fine if she rests a little. She ran quite a lot, didnt she?

Wuff Wuff. Wuff!

Kyau!

As I drank the tea that Ms. Lyra poured, Leo approached us.

And after looking at Sherry with a puzzled expression, she barked angrily.

Since I felt a little bad for her, I told Leo to let her rest. And then Leo barked at Sherry.

Fine. But you'll run after you rest! She seemed to say.

Well, it was an effective way of toughening Sherry up.

Here you go, Lady Tilura. And Liza.

Thank you, Lyra!

Thank you, sister Lyra. Hehe. Same as papa!

And for you, good Leo

Wuff!

Thank you, Ms. Lyra and Ms. Gelda.

As I was watching Leo and Sherry, Ms. Lyra quickly poured some tea for Tilura and Liza.

And then Ms. Gelda brought a bucket of milk for Leo, and also some water for Rahle.

Papa. Did you make that?

Mmm, that's right. But Ms. Lyra and Ms. Gelda and Milina helped me.

Master, I may have helped a little, but you still made them.

That is true, but it would have taken me a lot longer if I was alone. There is so much, and still some left

Papa, sister Lyra, sister Gelda and sister Milina are all amazing!

Liza must have been thirsty after playing, as she drank her tea quickly. And then she looked at the wrapped up medicine on the table.

She then praised everyone who had made it.

Ms. Lyra and Ms. Gelda watched with smiles Leo as well.

Wait, Leo already finished all of that milk? I suppose she was very thirsty, but still Liza had helped us before, but I suppose she was surprised that it was finished so quickly.

In any case, amidst this peaceful atmosphere, we rested for some time.

Rahle had done well ...Leo? Wuff? Wuff-wuff! Good morning. There, there. What happened? I was standing where the servants had gathered, and so I could not see what was happening, as Leo and the fenrirs were blocking my view. Rahle was also spreading out his wings, so I could not

We started on our journey out of the forest After that, Fen and Riruru turned towards us and along with Leo and Sherry, howled. I suppose it was the way that fenrirs said farewell. And when they were finished, they bowed once to Leo, and then rushed into the forest

It was time to say goodbye to Fen and Riruru Much like with the fenrirs, Liza was hesitant at first. But after Tilura dragged her towards Rahle and made her touch the feathers, she seemed very impressed by them. However, this made Leo a little jealous, and so I petted

The Gift really was an ability I didnt understand

Papa. Why are you able to make herbs so easily? Uhhgrandpa said that plants only grow when you wait a long time.

Plants and animals are like that But as I told you before, it is because of the Gift.

I see

I suppose she had forgotten about how I explained it before.

Back then, she was still getting used to living here.

Still, it really is a strange ability. After all, you can make plants grow from nothing. Well, its impressive that you can use such a power, master.

Theres nothing impressive about me at all

It was just an ability I was given out of nowhere. It did not even feel like mine.

But it really was a strange power, as it ignored the laws of nature.

Though, it wasnt like I could make any type of plant. And I also fainted when I used too much power.

That being said, there were a few plants I made myself. And since I was able to make herbs that I thought of, if I wanted to, there was so much more that I could do with this ability.

Besides, like Ms. Isabelle saidI could even grow them on people.

Of course, that method was dangerous. And I never wanted to do it again.

Besides, no one would want to eat plants that grew from a living creatures body.

Hey, Leo. Do you know anything about Weed Cultivation?

Wuff Wuff? Wuff.

You dont. Well, thats fine. Its what I expected.

I asked her just in case. As Leo had become much more intelligent after she turned into a Silver Fenrir.

However, Leo shook her head.

She seemed apologetic, but I assured her that it was not a bad thing.

If Sebastian were here, he might be able to explain something Well, I had already talked to him about it, and he did not know the details.

There were not many people who had a Gift, and so not much was known.

My ability was to grow plants, and it was unknown what my limits were. Perhaps it wasnt as effective as other Gifts Well, it was useful to me now. And because of it, my life was quite stable in this world.

And so even if there was a lot that I didnt know about it, I would not fear it.

Like this, I thought about such questions as I rested for around half an hour.

Ah, Sebastian. You are here.

After our break, Leo and the others returned to their play, and so Milina and I finished turning the herbs into medicine.

I also made some extra herbs for research purposes.

While doing so, I checked the fields, and it was just as Sebastian said before. Due to the sudden growth, nutrients were absorbed from the soil, and the ground looked like a desert. And so I planted the herbs in a different location.

The barren ground would probably have to have soil and fertilizer mixed into it before it could be used again I didnt know much about such things, so I would have to speak to a farmer.

I did not want the same thing to happen in Range village, so there was much to consider.

In any case, once I was finished, I left the rest to Milina and went over to where Sebastian was.

I returned to the mansion and asked the servants where Sebastian was.

Mr. Takumi. Are you finished already?

Yes. I have made all of the ordered herbs. And I grew some extra herbs for the research.

You must be tired then. Did you take a break?

I rested with Ms. Lyra and the others. I am fine.

Hoho. I suppose you are getting quite close to her then. You do get busy, Mr. Takumi

I asked questions about the people Id be hiring I see So thats what it is. Mmm. Currently, this is only being disclosed to be people related to this house. And so you must not tell anyone else without Mr. Takumis permission. I understand. Indeed, what I heard just now

I Gave Them the Presents Wow! Its Leo! Thank you, Mr. Takumi! Tilura shouted as she accepted the present. She was smiling as she looked at the wolf on it Good, so she did like it. AndMs. Claire. Here. While I felt quite nervous towards her, I handed her the

I told Mr. Haines about Weed Cultivation Indeed, it is hard to imagine someone growing herbs in great quantities. Growing them at all is almost unheard of in this country. Most people gather what is found in nature. Mr. Takumi? Sebastian? It will be fine. As Mr. Haines is the

We talked about the management of the herb fields

Hoho. Well, you might as well have fun while you are young. When His Grace was young, he

Its not like that Anyway, dont you have something to tell me?

Ah, that is right.

Hah Sebastian could be annoying when he wasnt talking about work.

Well then. I wish to talk to you about the herb field in Range village. But first

Hmm? What is it?

Well, it involves Lady Claire. Excuse me, but could you go and call her?

Certainly.

Sebastian was about to start talking, but then he paused.

Apparently, he needed to talk to Ms. Claire as well, and so he asked a butler who was in the room to go and call her.

Ms. Claire, too?

Yes. Of course, I could tell you first But you are partners, are you not?

Ah, thats right. Indeed, it would be best for you to tell her as well.

It had been me who had brought it up.

Before that, Ms. Claire had slipped her name into the list of possible employees.

Apparently, they did not mind if it was like that on paper. However, it would sound better if it were joint management For both me and their house.

And so I sat down on a chair and waited for Ms. Claire to arrive.

While it only took about ten seconds, it was rather painful, as I had to avoid any conversations that would give Sebastian an opportunity to make fun of me

Well then. Let us speak about the management of the herb fields.

Yes.

The three of us sat around the table as if for a meeting.

Ms. Claire and I nodded at Sebastian.

First of all The house that Mr. Takumi will live in.

But I thought we already decided on that matter?

The house that Leo and I would live in.

I did not want it to be too big. But it had to be large enough for Leo to move freely in as well.

Mr. Ekenhart had wanted to build a great mansion, and I had to stop him.

No, it is very important. After all, Lady Claire will be staying there as well. And then there are the servants.

Besidesyour employees might have to live there as well. Mr. Haines did say there were some empty houses in the village. But I do not think it will be enough for everyone

Now that you mention it I suppose that is true I see. I have to think about where the employees will live as well.

Yes. For instance, if you start something in Ractos, and you hire people, there is no need to think about their housing. But with Range village, they will have to move from somewhere else.

We could not build new houses for all of them, and there were only so many empty houses in Range village.

And so it might be necessary even if just temporarily, to have them live with us, similar to the servants.

Mr. Takumi and I, and Leo and Liza. Sherry can be in the same room as me. And then there just needs to be space for the servants and employees.

Yes. And as I said before, Mr. Takumi should have a butler. He cannot do everything by himself. And a butler would be able to take care of the house and finances. Of course, it would have to be someone who is trustworthy.

That's true I have limits to how much I can do. And I cannot rely on Ms. Claire for everything

But I would not mind if you relied on me like that

Lady Claire, do not say such things. Even with your help, it will be too much work for two people.

Well you are right.

Before I came to this world, I had not been the kind of person to rely on others. If I was still like that, I would have tried to do everything myself until I collapsed and failed.

Well, it was also because there was no one who I could rely on if I wanted to. Regardless, I did not want to be like that now.

Of course, I would still do what I could.

There was no time for Ms. Claire to learn household chores Even if Ms. Claire was going to Range village with me, as Sebastian had said, she would have to return to the mansion quite regularly. And so we had to consider what would be efficient Clearly there was no

Sebastian was Awake Hahaha. Yes, this is how I usually talk, Mr. Takumi. However, Mr. Sebastian always rebukes me, saying I should be more careful when serving a duke. I see And so youre letting it go now that Sebastian isnt here Yes, yes. Something like that. Phillip said with

The herbs were surprisingly effective ...! The moment that the herb touched the fenrir, it unleashed a faint light, and the wounds began to close as if time was being rewound. And once the light faded away, so did the herb that was in my hand. Even the fenrirs broken

Chapter 588

Building materials were important

I think you should have three to four butlers. By giving them different roles, it will be more efficient and easier to manage.

I had been thinking of just one or two, but. If Sebastian said that more were necessary, then I suppose he was right.

There had to be someone to manage the house, the fields, finances and employees Even with me and Ms. Claire, that was a lot of work.

I did not want to use people like at a black company

Thankfully, I was not worried about whether or not we would make enough profits.

Mr. Takumi. What is it? You are nodding strangely

Ah, uh I was just thinking about my past Haha

Ms. Claire was looking at me with a puzzled expression, and so I laughed it off.

Aside from the butlersthere will need to be a few servants as well. And His Grace also said to send a number of guards. We will have to ask Range village about how many houses they can spare But for now, there should be at least ten employees hired I think that at the very least, the house should be large enough to accommodate forty to fifty people.

That many?

I understood that we needed servants, especially to help Ms. Claire.

And the guards, to keep her and also the village safe.

Butit felt like the numbers were getting too large.

I suppose they wanted it to be larger, in case of emergencies. But wasnt this going too far?

It will just end up being a great mansion after all then.

I think that it will be thirty people at the very least. And both I and His Grace are certain that this business will go well.

I think so too.

Indeed. And if it goes well, then you will have the optionof expanding. Of course, Mr. Takumi and Lady Claire will have to decide when the time comes. But if you do expand, then that means hiring more people. So things will go more smoothly if you have a large house. After all, it will take time to build more.

I supposeyou are right.

So, we will make it large enough to accommodate everyone Now, there is the matter of the materials.

Materials?

Yes. If it is made of stone, like this house, then it will be a very durable house. However, it will also take a lot more time.

Made of stone A lot of the mansion was made of marble, so you would need a great amount for a large house.

The stone would need to be transported, and it would also be very expensive.

On the other hand, if we use wood, which is used in most ordinary houses, it will shorten the building time and the cost. Thankfully, Ractos and the surrounding area has no shortage of wood. Of course, it will not be as durable. Though, wooden houses can be reinforced

Well, I think it should be more than enough.

I had seen a lot of wooden houses in Ractos.

It would take less time and since there were a lot of trees here, it would be cheaper.

But then again

Leo might break it.

While I am sure good Leo is holding back here, we do not know to what degree

Yes. Especially since Liza will be there with her.

Ah, yes. Liza and Leo do play together a lot.

Once we were in Range village, they would probably play outside most of the time. But there was no guarantee that Leo wouldn't break something.

Well, it showed how abnormal this house was, since Leo, who was larger than a horse, could move around so freely in it

Part of that was because it was made durable with stone.

You could not expect the same thing from wood materials.

While I am not saying that Lady Liza and good Leo will be going on wild and destructive rampages in the house I do think that there could be accidents, even if they are careful.

Indeed. Especially if it gets older one day.

Liza was a good child who obeyed what she was told.

However, they could still break something by accident, even if they didn't mean to.

Besides, even if it was durable at first, it would grow old eventually. Perhaps Leo would accidentally step through the floor.

We talked about the management of the herb fields Hoho. Well, you might as well have fun while you are young. When His Grace was young, he It's not like that Anyway, don't you have something to tell me? Ah, that is right. Hah Sebastian could be annoying when he

I would be able to take the katana with me to the forest You will also have to hire a butler. But Lady Claire should help you with that, so you do not need to worry. But weren't we talking about managing it together? That has not been decided yet,

We arrived at the forest ...Thank you, Mr. Takumi. Hmm? What is it? You let me ride on Leo because I was too nervous, right? Hmm. Well, while you've ridden on Leo in the garden, you never rode on her while she was running outside. And so I just thought

We would use both of the materials

And so I have a suggestion. Why not use both stone and wood materials?

Both?

Yes. First, have the rooms that you and Leo and Lady Claire will live in made of stone. And the other rooms can be made of wood. While it will take longer than if it was made entirely of wood, it will be shorter than doing everything with stone.

I see

So keep the parts that Leo would be in made of stone for durability.

The rooms of servants, etcetera, could be built with stone.

While I don't mind it myself, what if some of the other people have complaints about being given rooms made of wood?

I doubt that will be a problem. Most people already live in wooden houses anyway. Besides, surely they will not complain to someone who owns a Silver Fenrir, or Lady Claire.

It sounds like wielding one's authority. Still, even if they lived in Range village, the houses would be made of wood. So it should be fine.

That was true. And in this world, there were nobles and a class system, so most people should understand it.

Indeed. Well, if there will be no problems with it, then that is how we should build the house. After all, it will be a great lot of trouble if Leo breaks something.

Certainly. I have already made some arrangements, so that things will go smoothly, regardless of your decision. Securing of the materials, that is. The wood should be gathered quickly, and the stone won't take too long either.

Is that so? Thank you.

You could always rely on Sebastian.

I suppose it was an ability that was necessary for butlers. Being able to predict things and move ahead

I would never be able to do that. Thankfully, I had no intention of becoming a butler.

In any case, that matter was decided, and so the materials would be sent to Range village.

Would they draw the plans based on how many people were going to live in it? I wondered, but apparently, it was not the case.

Instead of creating precise plans, you would just give a general layout for how you wanted the rooms as they built.

There was too much land to run out of space, and so the idea was that if the house was too small, you could just expand it later.

Well then, Mr. Takumi. There is your role, and Lady Claires.

Our roles?

I am sure that you will both be supporting each other, but you will not be doing the same thing all of the time. For instance, Mr. Takumi might focus on creating herbs and medicine. While Lady Claire will be in charge of shipping them to other villages and towns where they will be sold Of course, Lady Claire will not be going directly, but managing it

Now that he mentioned it, it would be much more efficient if we both had our own roles.

Yes It will probably be easier for me to talk to the people in these territories. Besides, If Mr. Takumi goes out and negotiates, he will have to take Leo

That will surely intimidate people. Well, there may be times when that will be necessary. But it will have a negative impact on Mr. Takumis reputation.

Ah Haha. Thats true. Leo is so big, after all.

Ms. Claire nodded and agreed.

I did not want to be separated from Leo if possible.

It was one thing if it was like that time in Range village, where I had no choice but to send Leo away, but I didn't want to do it without good reason.

Now that I thought about it, it was the same with Liza A beastkin child riding on a Silver Fenrir That would not improve most situations

Leo was just that big.

And Silver Fenrirs were known for being the strongest monsters.

Building materials were important I think you should have three to four butlers. By giving them different roles, it will be more efficient and easier to manage. I had been thinking of just one or two, but. If Sebastian said that more were necessary, then I suppose he was right.

We Arrived in the town of Ractos Mr. Takumi, why do you look so serious? No...I was just thinking about what these Gifts are. What they are Mr. Takumi, while it is said that Gifts are something that give various abilities, there are not many people who have them. And

The Reason that Tilura was Holding onto Leo in the Morning Leo. Are you saying that I should ride on you? Wou! Leo nodded to me. Upon seeing this, Ms. Claire turned to Leo. Good Leo, Im terribly sorry, but could you not wait at the mansion for our return

Ms. Claire and I would have separate roles

Mr. Takumi should be the one responsible for managing the herb fields, as well as growing them. Of course, you will have to look over the field and the employees that are hired

Yes, that is fine.

Basically, I would be working behind the scenes.

Well, even if Leo wasn't with me, it would be difficult to suddenly be expected to be able to negotiate with people.

I had some experience with that kind of work in my previous world, but things were different here, and there was so much that I didn't know.

But Ms. Claire was the famous daughter of a duke, and knew much more about the industry.

So Sebastian's suggestion made sense.

It was a good thing that I had insisted the Ms. Claire would be a manager with me instead of an employee.

As for the people to be hired, some will have to accompany Lady Claire. So we will have to hire people who we can help with the transportation. While Mr. Takumi, you will choose the people who will help you in the fields.

Yes So my role is to deliver the herbs and medicine to other towns and villages. Aside from stores that our family owns, we will have to find other places that will buy from us.

Indeed. Perhaps we should consult Mr. Kalis about that.

Mr. Kalis was currently in charge of one of their stores.

We didn't have to worry about those places, but other stores would require some negotiating. And much would have to be discussed in terms of regular deliveries etcetera.

Yes, I shall go to Ractos soon and speak with him.

Would there be anyone that I could consult?

While Ms. Claire could always consult Mr. Kalis and ask for advice on the selling of the herbs, what about me?

It would be nice if there was someone for me to rely on

Mr. Takumi Well, it will have to be me and the butlers for now. After all, what you are trying to do is without precedent. And so I doubt there are many people who could give you good advice.

I suppose

Hmm I really would have liked to have been able to rely on someone.

It wasn't that Sebastian was useless or anything. If anything, I relied on him quite a lot.

However, I wanted to talk to someone who specialized in that field.

Well, apparently, Weed Cultivation was a rare ability. So it could not be helped.

As for unprecedented, I suppose he was talking about using the Gift for mass production but it sounded like an exaggeration.

Uhh, but since I am growing the herbs in large fields, surely there is someone I can talk to in regards to farming?

Yes, while I do have some knowledge on such things, I am no expert. However, there are people with such experience within that list that I gave you before. Of course, we will continue to be hiring other people. Perhaps you will find someone there

I see. So my consultant has to be hired then.

While I'm sure you wouldn't do such a thing, you cannot be too demanding, just because you are an employer.

Yes, I understand that very well.

Superiors who asked too much from their subordinates I experienced too much of that already.

I was a little anxious about hiring people, but at least I knew how not to be a terrible boss.

In a way, that previous experience should come in handy.

Well, it wasn't exactly the same kind of situation, so I couldn't be too sure. However, I would be careful so that I'm not the type of person they would hate.

Mr. Takumi will surely be fine. After all, both Milina and Nick are very fond of him.

Indeed. I can see by the way he treats the servants as well. He will not force any impossible tasks onto them.

Haha! I will do my best.

Milina seemed to take to me just because I said something obvious. As for Nick, he likes me because I was the only one to give him a job.

As for the servants, I was not really used to dealing with them. In spite of being the kind of person that found it difficult to say no to others, I didn't like to ask other people for help.

Mr. Ekenhart, aren't you busy?

No, it is fine. While I do have some work, I feel sluggish if I don't move around like this Hah!

Ah

See? You better move too, or you won't get stronger, Mr. Takumi.

Yes.

I will work hard too! So Rahle won't be disappointed!

After speaking with Sebastian and Ms. Claire, and eating lunch, it was time for sword training

We talked about the management of the herb fields Hoho. Well, you might as well have fun while you are young. When His Grace was young, he Its not like that Anyway, dont you have something to tell me? Ah, that is right. Hah Sebastian could be annoying when he

There was no time for Ms. Claire to learn household chores Even if Ms. Claire was going to Range village with me, as Sebastian had said, she would have to return to the mansion quite regularly. And so we had to consider what would be efficient Clearly there was no
