

Beloved Dog 621

Chapter 621

I started cooking in the kitchen

In any case, please go and deliver the herbs.

Yes, I will take them to Mr. Kalis!

I had no idea why Milina and Nick thought so highly of me.

Still, I did not want to keep Mr. Kalis waiting too long, and I had also promised to make lunch, and so I quickly sent Nick on his way.

Excuse me then, brother. And Ms. Lyra!

Be careful.

Mr. Takumi, we were waiting for you.

Uhh?

Everyone is lined up?

When I entered the kitchen, Ms. Helena and the other cooks were standing in a line and waiting.

On my way there, Ms. Gelda had brought Liza. She wanted to help me with the cooking.

As for Leo and the others, they were still running in the garden and working up an appetite. Would they be alright? Especially Sherry.

I hope they wouldn't get too tired to the point that they couldn't eat.

Everyone is looking forward to your cooking, Mr. Takumi. Would it be alright if we watched, so that we can learn how it is done? Of course, we would also be glad to help if you need it!

No, Liza is going to help papa!

Ah, I see. While its nothing special, I dont mind. And Liza, its best to have a lot of help when making something delicious. You want it to be delicious, dont you?

Hmmokay!

Apparently, they had all been waiting because they wanted to watch.

Even though I didnt intend on making anything that complicated I couldnt even if I wanted to.

In any case, since it had never been served here before, it was probably something they had not seen.

Uhhdo you have any minced meat?

Yes, of course. We always have it, as its used when making sausages.

The meat was the most important part.

I would have preferred beef, but it didnt really matter what kind of meat it was.

And so they brought out orcwhich tasted like pork.

Now, you put it into a bowl and Do you have salt?

Yes, here it is.

Another cook brought me a jar of salt.

Ms. Helena and the others were gathered around me and ready to bring anything that I needed.

You put the salt in and knead it until it all sticks together. If it doesnt, you should add more salt.

Thats all?

For now. If it is not sticky enough, it might fall apart later, which would affect the texture. So you have to be careful.

Yes. I see

I washed my hands and mixed the minced meat with the salt while explaining.

I didnt actually know all of the details, and had little confidence in what I was saying

Still, I would just pretend that it was all true.

The cooks replied enthusiastically and seemed to be taking notes.

Perhaps they would save the recipe so they could make it later. Even if it was really simple

I suppose Ms. Helena and the others could improve it and make it even more delicious.

Hmm, it doesnt really stick together well. Ms. Helena, this is orc meat, isnt it?

Most of it is orc meat, but there is some other kind of meat in as well. Should it have been only orc meat?

No, its fine if its mixed Ah, I see.

Hmm. If it is mixed meat, the ingredient to add in order to help bind it together is Nick Was Happy And how do you turn it into tea? Uhjust wait one moment. There. That should do it. It can be brewed like any other tea now. That really is a useful ability Hmm. And it smells very nice. Dandeleon tea has a distinct smell. With Weed Cultivation,

Nick was sorry about his past deeds It does seem like the day you rescued the girl, matches with the day that I started to see them more often. Perhaps it was because Deam gave out an order Do you know him? I should be asking you that. Wellsort of.

Spreading Reputation Rahle, you really dont mind being outside? Kii! Rahle doesnt mind. I see In that case, it is settled. The garden should be big enough, butI hope you will not go too far. Because people who dont know might be alarmed. Kii! Even if they dont know what

Liza helped me

Im sorry, but do you have any eggs?

Yes. Here.

Thank you. So they are exactly the same

Mr. Takumi?

Ah, nevermind. You crack the egg like this

It was possible that they were called something else, but the cooks understood at once. Well, they might have been a little on the large side. But that could be true for any type of egg.

I cracked it with one hand into the bowl and saw that it was the same on the inside as well.

Mix itthere. Its starting to stick together now.

Papa, can I help?

Just wait a minute. You can help after this part, okay?

Okay. How exciting

Liza nodded as her tail wagged enthusiastically.

Alright, its done. Ms. Helena.

Yes, what is it?

Can you make the same thing As much of it as possible? Since there are a lot of peopleincluding Leo and the fenrirs.

And Rahle!

Thats right. Rahle too.

Certainly. We will do it.

Yes!

I had only made enough for two to three people, so it was not enough to feed the people of the mansion.

Especially since Mr. Ekenhart and Leo ate so much. It was best to make a lot, just in case.

Besides, Leo and the fenrirs were exercising now, so they would likely be hungrier than usual

Ms. Helena agreed, and she called the other cooks, and they started the work of making more.

Now, you can help with this part, Liza.

Yay! I get to help papa!

Why did she want to help so much?

Still, she was clearly having fun, which was nice to see.

I would have patted her on the head, only the ground meat would get on her hair.

As for mixing the meat, it was best to do it in cold conditions, and so we used cold water to keep our hands cool

And so I had Liza put her hands in the water as well, and shape the meat with a low temperature.

Liza. Make them so that they are the size of your palm. Like this And move them back and forth between your hands.

Uh Like this?

Hmm. Maybe a little smaller?

Okay! It feels funny!

With making such things, part of the charm was seeing the difference in size and shape depending on who made it.

If you wanted them all to be exactly the same, you would have to ask a professional.

As Liza moved them back and forth in her hands and shaped them, she noted the strange feel of the meat.

Well, she didnt cook, and wouldnt usually handle minced meat.

Make sure that its properly flat Otherwise, it might not cook though.

Yes. Uhits fine!

It looks alright. And lastlythis is the secret to making it taste good!

Oh! It has a dent in it!

Hehe. I thought of it myself. Interesting, isnt it?

Amazing!

Indeed, indeed.

As Liza praised me so much, I got a little carried away.

She was young and didnt know anything about cooking, and so everything was so new to her.

Of course, nothing I was doing was actually difficult.

Though, I was now in danger of becoming more interested in cooking.

Alright, now Ill pass the technique on to you.

Pass on!

Just use your finger to press it like this. And then

There!

Now you are able to do it too. See. Do you want to try it again?

Yes! Take it in your hands, move back and forth, and when flat, press it in!

Oh, youre very good at it.

After doing it once, Liza had memorized the process. She absorbed things very quickly.

In the meantime, Ms. Helena and the others continued to make more of the shapes as well.

Lizas was smaller than the others, but it was cute.

After that, the only thing left to do was cook them.

At this point, it should be pretty obvious what I was making.

It would usually contain onions, but Leo used to be a dog, so I decided to not use them.

A Silver Fenrir might be fine, as they were different. But I wanted to be safe.

Besides, it was possible they didnt even have them here

I comforted Tilura Well, it looks like they will arrive safely. Were back! Wuff! After watching Tilura and Rahle for some time, the large building finally came into view. Somehow, Tilura had managed to stay on this whole time. Perhaps Rahle had sensed her fear, as there were no more

Mr. Ekenhart and Sebastian made fun of me Mr. Takumi. Are you thinking of something strange? N-nonothing really I hope you will continue to not be thinking about destroying Ractos? Yes, I will not think of such a thing. I am very fond of Ractos. After seeing me deep in

We all washed Leo Ahaha! Mama got smaller! Its true! How interesting! Sherry is like that as well. I suppose it's because they are covered in so much soft hair? The fur gets stuck to her when wet. But the difference is so much stronger because of how fluffy she

Chapter 623

The dish was finished

Now, its time to cook it.

Cook it!

Ms. Helena and the others smiled at how excited Liza was, and they stopped their work.

I suppose they wanted to watch and learn how to cook it.

As for the meat, they had prepared over twenty kilos. It was a lot.

After all, Leo, the fenrirs and Rahle were going to eat it. As were the servants.

We hadnt meant to feed the whole mansion at first, but then Liza and I made the suggestion.

Since we were going through the trouble, we might as well have everyone eat it.

Even though it was a very simple dish

Now, I will turn on the heat.

Yes.

Fire elemental candle.

Ms. Helena put the firewood under the stove and lit it.

Now that I thought about it, Sebastian had done the same spell when he first showed me magic.

A flame that was similar to that of a lighter transferred to the wood and then spread out.

While it was easy to tell that it was burningit would be difficult to adjust.

Uhh, please watch over it so that it doesn't burn. As I have never cooked here before Uhh, but it shouldn't burn as long as you flip it over.

Certainly.

I'll watch too!

While Liza wanted to help she had no idea what she was doing, and so I would not expect too much from her.

Oh? Do I smell something delicious?

Sebastian.

While being careful that they didn't burn, the meat patties were cooked and piled up into a mountain. That was when Sebastian popped into the kitchen.

He had gone somewhere else after delivering the dandioleons, but came back to see how we were doing.

Are you finished now?

Actually, no

But they already look like they are cooked

Indeed. However, cooking them was not the last step.

As for the sauce, we were just going to use sauce that Ms. Helena used for other dishes, so that was fine.

But the other thing was

Ms. Helena. Do you have the bread?

Yes, it was prepared. As was the cheese and vegetables.

Thank you.

Oh, bread and cheese and vegetables?

The bread had been cut so that they were about the same size as the meat, and the cheese was melted.

As for the vegetables I wanted pickles, so we just had to use something that looked like lettuce.

Now Will you help me, Liza?

Yes!

And so I put the bread on the plate and placed the meat on top.

Then I added Ms. Helenas sauce and the meat, and Liza added the cheese with a spoon.

This much?

I think it would be better if it was a little more.

Okay!

And then you do this and its finished!

Finished!

Oh. So it is eaten with bread?

Yes. This way, it is easy to eat.

When I went to Range village, Ms. Helena had made sandwiches for me.

That had brought back memories of something that I used to eat often.

Bread, meat, sauce, vegetables and cheese. A hamburger!

Hmm. Meat sandwiched with bread We have something similar. But this is minced meat?

Yes. We mixed it with eggs and salt. There are many other ways to make it You can really do it however you like.

It was liked by many people and famous everywhere.

But as for how you made it and the ingredients, there were numerous variations.

It could be quite deep. Mine didnt have onions, because I wanted Leo to eat them But I was sure that Ms. Helena would do her own spin on it.

Most people also add pepper, but I didnt.

It was bad enough that there was salt in, which would not be good for Leo. Even if it was kept to a minimum.

At least the sauce could be adjusted later. So it was quite convenient.

Dinner portions were insufficient Mr. Takumi, sorry to disturb your rest. Dinner is ready, so please come down to the dining hall. But if you are too tired, we could bring it up to your room? Ah, no. I was just relaxing a little. I will head down there immediately.

We would make meals Very well, I shall think of dishes that will use the sooy. And I will try to make Tampopos. As I was not a cook, I could not give her much advice on how to cook them, so the rest was up to her. Ah, there

I started cooking in the kitchen In any case, please go and deliver the herbs. Yes, I will take them to Mr. Kalis! I had no idea why Milina and Nick thought so highly of me. Still, I did not want to keep Mr. Kalis waiting too long, and I

Chapter 624

I carried the hamburgers

Oh, we usually use minced meat for sausages. But you can make this as well.

I had thought about using it for other dishesbut not like this. I had never seen it mixed with eggs and salt before.

It is difficult to get it to stick together when its not all the same meat. But it will be delicious if you combine other things in it as well. If you wish to try it, of course.

Since you were so kind as to show us, we will definitely use it!

Haha. It is very simple, after all.

I was just an amateur, so there was no doubt that the actual cooks would be able to make something much better once they tried.

And what is this thing called?

Its a hamburger.

Hamburger! Hamburger!

A lot of single guys ate them. The king of fast food Well, maybe I was exaggerating.

Oh, they taste better while hot. So we should eat them quickly.

In that case, I shall tell the others to go to the garden. The fenrirs are there, after all.

Let us go at once then!

Alright, Liza. Want to help carry them?

Yes!

Mr. Takumi, allow us

Its fine. All of you helped me, so this is the least that I can do. Besides, were not finished until everyone has eaten it.

There was melted cheese in it, and while the hot patties might keep them warm for a while, it was still best to eat them quickly.

Sebastian then left to call Mr. Ekenhart and the others. While Ms. Helena and the cooks continued to put the meat patties in the buns.

Ah, Ms. Helena. As I said before, for Leo and the fenrirs

Yes. Sauce and cheese, but no bread. They will be prepared and placed on a separate plate.

Thank you.

Mama is going to eat it differently?

Hmm. Leo would have difficulty eating it with bread, wouldnt she? And so were just going to give her the meat.

I see!

Now, lets carry them together.

Okay!

The hamburger plates were put on a cart, and I pushed it out of the kitchen. And like that, we headed to the garden.

Aside from Leo, I hoped that Ms. Claire and Mr. Ekenhart and the others would be happy.

Oh, you kept us waiting, Mr. Takumi!

Wuff! Wuff!

When I went out into the garden, the same table and chairs had been set out again. And Mr. Ekenhart and Leo were waiting impatiently.

I understood Leo, but Mr. Ekenhart too

Haha, sorry to keep you waiting.

So, the food Is that it? It looks like bread with something inside

Yes. Its called a hamburger. It has ground meat and other things inside.

Wuff-wuff!

I know, Leo. I prepared some for you as well.

Wou!

Mama is happy!

Mr. Ekenhart was immediately interested in the food that we brought.

Well, it was new And it was always exciting to imagine what unfamiliar food would taste like.

Leo was also looking at me excitedly as she sat down. And her tail was wagging.

In the meantime, I placed the plates on the table.

Fen and Riruru. Eat up, alright?

Grau!

Gauu!

Wou!

Kuun

Hey, dont do that, Leo. There is plenty for everyone.

A short distance away from the table, I put the plates down on the ground.

These were for Fen and Riruru.

They were too big for the table, and Leo wouldnt allow it.

Well, as wolves lived in packs, I suppose the pecking order was quite important to them.

Sherry and Rahle were familiars, so they were special enough to eat at the table without objection.

Fen and Riruru were happy to be able to eat, and they wagged their tails happily. Clearly, they did not care about eating on the ground.

I suppose it was because they didnt usually eat anywhere near a table

The dish was finished Now, its time to cook it. Cook it! Ms. Helena and the others smiled at how excited Liza was, and they stopped their work. I suppose they wanted to watch and learn how to cook it. As for the meat, they had prepared over twenty kilos.

I started cooking in the kitchen In any case, please go and deliver the herbs. Yes, I will take them to Mr. Kalis! I had no idea why Milina and Nick thought so highly of me. Still, I did not want to keep Mr. Kalis waiting too long, and I

Liza helped me Im sorry, but do you have any eggs? Yes. Here. Thank you. So they are exactly the same Mr. Takumi? Ah, nevermind. You crack the egg like this It was possible that they were called something else, but the cooks understood at once. Well, they might have

Ms. Anne was feeling a little better

I made this one. Isnt it amazing!

Wuff!

Hehe. I see you did your best, Liza.

Thats amazing!

While preparing, Ms. Claire, Tilura, and Ms. Anne came out into the garden and sat down by the table.

Liza was boasting about the smaller hamburgers that she had made.

And while Ms. Claire and Tilua were praising her, Ms. Anne remained quiet.

Ms. Anne?

Huh! Wh-what is it, Mr. Takumi? Do you have something to say to me?

No, not really

Normally, she would have been watching the fenrirs or commenting on the food. And so I thought it was odd.

Ms. Anne flinched when I addressed her, and then she blushed.

Hmm I suppose she was still embarrassed about what she said the other day.

Her hair was also in disarray.

Perhaps it happened when she was rolling around on her bed.

Her hair was a good indicator of how she was feeling.

Still, she had managed to come out of her room, so I would not say anything.

Has everyone been served? Now, Mr. Takumi

Wuff.

Mr. Ekenhart was clearly impatient to eat.

Still, since I had been the main cook, he wanted me to explain what they would be eating.

That being said, a long explanation would result in the food getting cold, and the cheese would become hard.

Yes. Uhh, these are called hamburgers. Bread with grilled meat patties inside. The meat is the same kind used in sausages. But enough about that. Please eat it before it gets cold. We can talk about it later.

Hmm, thats true. Lets eat then.

Thank you, Mr. Takumi.

Wuff-wuff!

Thank you, papa!

And thank you for helping, Liza.

I then picked up my burger and took a bite.

Hmmits not the same But its not bad either.

As the ingredients were different, you could not expect the taste to be the same.

Still, it was pretty close and made me feel nostalgic.

Aside from the orc meat, the other meat that was mixed in was of good quality, and so the flavor was quite luxurious.

It wasnt because of my cooking, but the ingredients that Ms. Helena had chosen.

Ingredients used for nobles chosen by a professional cook.

Its delicious, papa!

Because you worked so hard, Liza.

Liza had taken a big bite at the same time as me, and we laughed.

Leo was eating hungrily and seemed to be enjoying it as well.

I was glad that she didn't say it tasted bad

I did wonder if I had made them a little too big, but enjoyed it regardless. However, I then noticed that the others had frozen and were staring at me.

Uh Is something the matter?

No, but It's that eating like that is

Said Ms. Claire, and Ms. Anne nodded.

As they were noblewomen, they didn't often eat with their hands. Most of the bread was in bite sizes, and if they were large, they would cut them with a knife.

Tilura was looking at her sister as if she wasn't sure if she should copy the way that we were eating.

Hmragh? Tafefiaa?

Father Please swallow your food before you talk

Mmmgg! What? You aren't going to eat it?

No I will eat it, but

In spite of Ms. Claire's warning, Mr. Ekenhart did not seem to care much.

I was glad to see him eating it so enthusiastically.

Though, perhaps he should slow down a little. Its not like the food was going anywhere

Telling Ms. Anne About Weed Cultivation Good morning, Mr. Takumi, Leo and Liza. Morning, Tilura. You look well today. Wuff-wuff. Good morning sister Tilura! Yes, I feel great! You seem well too, Liza! Yes! Just as I was starting to prepare for the day, Tilura came to the room. She

Liza was carried by Leo ...Water is amazing, huh? Yes. And when there is a lot of it, it can be dangerous. So you have to be careful. Let me see Hey, Leo? Wuff? Wou!? ...Kyukyu As I wanted Leo to help Liza, I turned and called to her while

I Decided To Go Shopping In that case, I shall also go as a partner! Surely having someone like me there will make the venture even more of a success! While Mr. Ekenhart and Sebastian discussed it, Ms. Anne suddenly got to her feet and made this declaration. What the

The new tea was ready

Well, perhaps I should have made something that was easier to eat Something that you used a knife and a fork

They could still use a knife to cut the hamburgers, but it would be a little difficult, as the bread was quite thick.

The cheese was helping to keep things together, but it would fall apart if cut open.

Hmmah, I know.

Excuse me, Ms. Helena.

Yes, what is it?

Well

Certainly

Ms. Helena must have wanted to see their reaction, as she was standing close by. And so I asked her to bring me something.

Thank you. Unlike this Yes, Ms. Claire. Now you can cut it with a fork and knife without it crumbling.

Here, Lady Claire.

Thank you, Mr. Takumi and Helena.

Ms. Helena had brought some wooden skewers.

I then used it to pierce the center of the hamburger.

Ms. Clare, Ms. Anne and Tilura all did the same and then started to cut it.

Once they had bite sizes, they used their forks to carry it to their mouths.

Their eyes widened and they looked at me.

It's delicious, Mr. Takumi and Liza!

It is quite different from sausages. And very soft.

I'm glad to hear it. It tastes different because of the eggs.

Ms. Anne seemed to like it, as she remained quiet and focused on eating.

Ms. Claire and Tilura were quite happy, and I couldn't help but smile.

In spite of appearances, it is quite satisfying and delicious.

Thank you. Along with the bread, you can eat everything all at once.

Cheese and this meat. They go very well together. I think I've acquired a taste for it.

I made it too!

You did well, little Liza.

After eating, everyone looked satisfied.

The meat and bread had been quite large, the meal ended up being more filling than expected.

Even I only managed to eat two.

Still, I wish we had some fries as well. Maybe next time.

Your Grace, everyone. Here is the dandelion tea.

Hmm? I've never heard of that.

It's a new tea made by Mr. Takumi.

Oh, Mr. Takumi? It is quite fragrant. And different from our usual tea.

How did you make it, Mr. Takumi?

After seeing that we were resting, Sebastian and the servants brought out the tea.

As I had turned it into powder and given it to him, he had wasted no time in making it.

The liquid inside of the cups was black, but a little more clear than typical coffee.

As Mr. Ekenhart said, it was very fragrant, and Ms. Claire and Ms. Anne were quite interested and surprised.

Uhh, here, you call it dandileeon, I believe. Anyway, it is a type of weed. And so I thought that I might be able to make it, and it worked.

With Weed Cultivation?

Yes. And then I dried it and turned it into powder.

Dandileeon. Ive heard of that.

I have not.

It is grown in some garden in a far away country. As Mr. Takumi made it, it must grow naturally.

There were limits to what I could make with Weed Cultivation.

It was supposed to be just weeds, so I couldnt make any farm produce or plants that were bred by humans.

If it is made with Weed Cultivation, does it have any effects like the herbs?

Hmm. I wouldnt say that it does nothing, but its still quite different from the medicinal herbs. But there is something usually in tea that it does not contain.

Oh? And what is that?

I refused Mr. Ekenharts suggestion After closing in on the left side of the orc, Liza used her momentum to slash at the orcs leg, cutting deep into its flesh. Due to suddenly not being able to move its leg, the orc fell and then slid on the ground. It

Ms. Anne was feeling a little better I made this one. Isn't it amazing! Wuff! Hehe. I see you did your best, Liza. That's amazing! While preparing, Ms. Claire, Tilura, and Ms. Anne came out into the garden and sat down by the table. Liza was boasting about the smaller

Chapter 627

I explained to them about the tea

I will tell you about it, so you can listen as you drink

I didn't want it to get cold, and so I told them to drink the tea as I explained.

They wouldn't know about caffeine, so I decided to start by telling them about danileeons.

It was sometimes used in medicine, but was not exactly like the other herbs I made.

Definitely not like Ramogi or Loe.

Well, perhaps it could be more effective if mixed with other things. But right now, it was not medicine.

After making this clear to them, I gave a simple explanation about caffeine.

It could be good for you, but could also have negative effects if used wrongly.

I had heard that you should refrain from drinking it when pregnant, for instance.

Hmm. It is a little bitter but nothing compared to the medicinal wine. And the smell is nice.

It is not that bitter to me. I think it's delicious.

I hate it. I suppose I could force myself to drink it but I don't want to. Sorry, Mr. Takumi

No, I knew it would be decisive. Especially since you are not used to drinking.

Ugh it's bitter

Wow!

Thank you, mama

Mr. Ekenhart liked it, but the others did not

I had tried it as well, and the bitterness was more wild than I was expecting. It even seemed a little sweet.

It was certainly easier to drink than black coffee. But I suppose it was too strong for them.

Some had been prepared for Liza as well, but after drinking it, she stuck out her tongue. She did not like the bitterness.

And so Leo gave her some milk.

That was fine, but she then stuck her face into the bowl and drank it like Leo did

Hahapapa, that tickles.

You got some on your face.

I wiped Liza's face and then returned to explaining.

If they were interested, they could add milk and sugar, and it might be easier to drink.

However, sugar was quite expensive, so they might not be able to drink it very often.

I then told them about the possible benefits, and their reaction suddenly changed.

Mr. Takumi please make more of this tea!

Indeed! This will be very popular with women! You should make more!

Ms. Claire Ms. Anne

While she didn't say anything, Ms. Gelda also looked a little restless and was looking at me with expectant eyes.

Perhaps they were expecting too much. It would really not make that much of a difference

Uhh, like any tea, it has to be drunk in moderation. Otherwise, something bad will happen.

What do you mean?

Uh you'll have to stay near the bathroom. If you know what I mean.

!?

I hesitated to speak about such things in front of ladies, but Sebastian had given me an encouraging look, and so I said it.

In any other situation he would have taken the initiative

Mr. Ekenhart did sound impressed, but it immediately made the ladies less enthusiastic about the whole thing.

Well, no one wanted to spend so much time in the bathroom.

That being said, it can be applied to any tea. You should not drink too much. Just one cup a day is fine. It was never meant to be very effective anyway.

I see. Hah. It is not so simple after all.

But it might have a little effect? Besides, Mr. Takumi made it, so I will try to drink a little when I can.

You don't have to if you don't want to. But as I said before, mixing it with something else will make it taste better.

And so it was decided that they would drink a little when they wanted.

A cup or two a day. Otherwise, they would drink other kinds of tea.

The name of the plant. This is it. Oh, it is quite pretty. Hmm. I think. Have you seen it before? I have tried to study plants ever since you arrived. It looks like a dandelion. They are not really seen in this country. But there was a garden of them.

We thought of ways to sell the medicinal wine. We still have to see the effects first, but were thinking about producing it in Range village as well. Indeed. Well, I doubt people would buy it immediately. Really? I think it could sell immediately, once people know it's effective? Mr.

Sherry was tired from running. As Sherry had been jogging around the garden, it was not surprising that she was tired. Unlike the time before we went to the forest, Leo was not chasing her. So she ran at a slower pace, but for a longer time. ...Leo might get

Chapter 628

I would leave the cooking to Ms. Helena.

Aside from how it would be drunk every day, it was also decided that I would use Weed Cultivation to make more.

If drunk every day, we would run out very quickly, but the others were looking at me with expectant eyes.

It wasn't much of a hassle, and so I didn't mind.

I suppose I would have to continue to grow it in Range village.

As for selling it, that wasn't being considered yet. However, it would have to be delivered to Mr. Ekenhart's house, and the servants over there might want some as well.

After lunch, the fenrirs returned to the forest.

The two had been excited when they heard about the hamburgers, and so I had a feeling that they would be back soon.

In any case, as long as Leo and the people of the mansion were fine with it, then I didn't mind. Though, it seemed odd to have fenrirs visiting a noble's mansion so often.

But Leo and Rahle were here, so perhaps not.

Once the fenrirs were gone, we had our final training with Mr. Ekenhart, who would be departing tomorrow.

We didn't do anything special, but since we gained a lot of experience in the forest, the training felt more serious than before.

The basics and training that led to creating a stronger body were continued that. But there was more direct exchanging of blows between Tilura and I.

That being said, we were using wooden swords.

The taste of the meat will change depending on what you put inside. This time, it was eggs, but if it was just orc meat, you probably wouldn't need it to make it stick. I think you make something where you can really taste the flavor of the meat.

I see. So there is a lot of freedom, and it will test your skills.

I don't think you have to think about it so seriously. Also, there are different ways to cook it. But I will leave that to you. I never put that much thought into it.

As Mr. Ekenhart would be leaving tomorrow, the training ended early, and I spent the rest of my time talking with Ms. Helena.

We talked about the hamburgers I had made for lunch.

But as I was not a professional cook, I could only make simple dishes, and did not know much about how to make variations on it.

Ah, that's right. After it was cooked, you poured some sauce onto it.

Yes. It was sauce that I had made before.

While I'm sure it was made out of all kinds of things, perhaps you could alter it so that it would fit a little better.

Hmm, so the sauce will also change the taste.

The texture is affected by what you mix in, but the sauce and other things you eat with it will also make a big change.

But I would leave all of that to Ms. Helena.

Even in Japan, I would mostly just buy sauce that was already made, so I didn't know how to make it.

I was so busy with work, and could not spend time on such things. Also, I was living alone, and didn't care too much about cooking, even if I was happy that Leo liked it.

You could also change the bread as well. And the things you put in between.

Things that would go well with the meat?

Yes Sometimes, things that you wouldnt expect end up being good. Of course, its fine to keep things simple as well.

But I dont want to be cutting corners.

Well, I dont see it that way. As long as the meat and sauce are good, its fine if its simple.

That is true Well, thank you, Mr. Takumi. I shall see what I can do, and try to make something even more delicious.

I will look forward to it.

Yes! And I will also think of ways to use the sooy.

Youll be quite busy then. Sorry for that.

Not at all! I am glad to be busy. To be honest, I was feeling rather stifled, and so this will be good stimulation.

Im glad to hear it.

Even though I didnt know much, Ms. Helena appreciated it.

As for the sooy, there was some stored in the mansion, but not enough to be testing new things. And so we would have to buy more.

Still, I had high hopes for Ms. Helenas work It wouldnt hurt to have more delicious things to eat.

Father, Mr. Takumi, I got permission from Rahle!

Huh? Permission?

After speaking with Ms. Helena, we gathered in the dining hall in order to eat dinner.

While we had breakfast and lunch in the garden, dinner was inside of the mansion.

It was a little too dark outside now.

Though, eating by candlelight did sound nice

Mr. Ekenhart had called me The master wants to see you. He said that he wanted to talk to you while the others were away Mr. Ekenhart? Do you know what he wants to talk about? No, I do not. I was merely told to call you, unless you were

Tilura wanted to ride on Rahle again Ah, if we were going to Range village, how long will it take? Hmm? Ah, thats right If Claire and Tilura are going, then a few servants will have to go too. And well travel by carriage again. ...Then it will take a little

He questioned me as a father Now, Mr. Takumi Yes. He looked as the wine was poured into his glass He seemed very thoughtful. As the air had grown a little serious, I nodded cautiously. What was he going to say? Claire Yes? What do you mean to

Sebastian became involved

As we waited for dinner to be served, Tilura reported that she got permission from Rahle.

Now that I thought about it, they seemed to be talking after training.

Leo and Liza had been running with Sherry.

But what did she need Rahles permission for?

For the saddle, Mr. Takumi.

Ah, that. So its fine?

Yes! According to Rahle, its fine as long as it doesnt move and isnt too big and heavy.

Being too big would make it difficult to move, and too heavy would affect its balance.

Yes, father!

But it was going to have a back rest, and would be rather large Well, I suppose we would find out when it was made.

In that case, we will have to hurry up and prepare it. Also there is the matter of who will ride on it.

With Tilura?

Yes. It cannot be someone who is too heavy. Perhaps one of the women guards.

Hmm Like Johanna.

Ms. Johanna was thin and looked quite light, and would be able to protect Tilura.

But then again, it seemed unnecessary to have a guard when Rahle was with her.

Is a guard really necessary?

Perhaps not, in terms of combat. But Rahle is a monster, and Lady Tilura should have another human with her.

I understand. Tilura alone might have trouble explaining to others about Rahle.

Rahle was a large bird monster.

People would be surprised, and since we havent gone anywhere else yet, it would be necessary to tell others about Rahle.

Perhaps Sebastian had already sent word ahead. But for anyone else that saw them on the road, it would be best to have someone with Tilura.

Otherwise, they might think that she was being attacked by a monster.

Though, it did seem unlikely, given how happy Tilura looked when they were together.

I would like to have Johanna guard Claire. Though, she will also have servants with her. And when Tilura goes to Range village, she will have not just Rahle, but Leo and Mr. Takumi nearby as well.

Yes.

Wuff!

So, who will go with Lady Tilura?

Isnt it obvious? Someone lightand capable of persuading people

You dont mean?

Mr. Ekenhart smiled.

I suppose he found the idea very amusing. I now felt a little bad for Sebastian.

Even I knew that it could not be stopped now.

Still, there were other women soldiers in the mansion. Why not leave it to them? Well, it wasnt my decision.

As for Ms. Claire, she just sighed and shook her head.

What do you think, Sebastian? A little trip high in the sky? Even if you must ride on a monster, it is a very rare experience, you know?

Yes, but No, I would rather not

Besides, it would add to your wealth of knowledge. And then you can explain to others what it was like.

Explain knowledge.

Indeed, putting it that way, it was not a bad idea.

Though, I'm not sure how often it would be necessary for Sebastian to explain it, or recount his experience of flying

I comforted Tilura Well, it looks like they will arrive safely. Were back! Wuff! After watching Tilura and Rahle for some time, the large building finally came into view. Somehow, Tilura had managed to stay on this whole time. Perhaps Rahle had sensed her fear, as there were no more

Rahle was sorry Tilura, are you alright!? Sister! Yes, I'm fine! Shortly after, the carriage carrying the others arrived as well. Ms. Claire immediately jumped out and rushed to Tilura. As for Mr. Ekenharthe was looking this way, but perhaps he didn't want to show his distress, as he did

We would ask Rahle to wear the saddle And furthermore! Putting a backrest on the saddle will increase the stability. There will be no worry of Lady Tilura falling off. Oh! However There is one thing that I'm worried about What is it? Will Rahle accept this saddle Ah It

Chapter 630

I spent some time with Leo

Rahle became Tilura's familiar. And so with Tilura there, nothing will happen. Besides, you will learn something that books can't teach you

Rahle would not do anything reckless, since Leo would be watching.

I understand what you are saying, Your Grace And I do not expect to learn everything through books.

Oh?

Very well, if I am permitted to, then I shall ride on Rahle.

I see, so you will. Wonderful. Hahaha!

Father, you sound very evil.

How rude. I am just happy that Sebastian got this opportunity.

Hahreally

Ahaha

Sebastian was soon persuaded, and agreed to ride on Rahle.

Well, he could hardly refuse once his master was set on the idea.

In any case, it would happen after the saddle was ready. And so we ate our dinner.

While we were eating, Ms. Gelda patted Sebastian consolingly on the shoulder.

As someone who often made mistakes and became distressed over them, she probably felt a little sympathetic.

It would be one thing if it was just around the mansion, but Range village was quite far away. And since this was a world without plains, it was quite daunting

Leo, well be going to Range village soon, so Ill be relying on you.

Wou!

Well rely on you, mama!

Wou!

After dinner, we drank wine or tea, and then everyone returned to their rooms.

As Mr. Ekenhart would be leaving tomorrow, there was no night training, as we did not want to be tired.

And so we would rest.

After getting warm in the bath, I sat down on my bed and talked to Leo.

It would be a much longer journey than the one to the forest or Ractos.

And we also had to watch Rahle.

The last time we made that journey, Leo had not seemed tired at all. So it would probably be fine.

Leo nodded reassuringly, and then Liza copied me.

Recently, Liza seemed to copy me a lot.

And while it showed how close we were, it also reminded me that I had to set a good example as well.

Mr. Takumi. I came to give Lady Liza a bath.

Ah, yes. Thank you. Run along then, Liza.

Yes! Thank you, sister Lyra!

I gestured for Liza to go, and she walked over to Ms. Lyra and bowed with her hands behind her back.

She looked like a penguin. Who taught her that?

I thought with a smile as I watched them leave.

I didn't do that, so she must have copied someone else?

Perhaps I should teach her how to thank people when she returns. But after considering it, I rejected the idea.

Ms. Claire or Tilura would be better.

Wuff. Wuff.

Hmm? What is it, Leo?

Leo suddenly barked to get my attention.

She put her paw on my thigh, so she probably wanted me to play with her.

Wuff-wuff.

She wagged her tail and looked at me expectantly.

Now that I thought about it, due to being with Liza a lot, I had not been able to pay Leo as much attention.

Well, we had some time until Liza returned, so perhaps I could play with her now.

Alright, Leo. Were you lonely?

Wuff! Wuff-wuff.

Really? You can be honest.

Leo had shaken her head as if to reject the notion.

However, her tail wagged a little faster, so she was clearly happy to be receiving attention.

It was amusing how easy to read she was.

Liza, Leo and Sherry showed their emotion through their tails, which was cute.

Ms. Anne would be easier to understand if she had a tail too No, she has her hair rolls.

Alright, Leo. Since you worked so hard, and watched Rahle and the fenrirs. Im going to spoil you today!

Wuff!? Wuff. Wou-wou

Haha. You can say that, but I see your tail wagging. Of course, you can calm down a little. Your tail is going to knock me over

Wou

It was wagging so quickly that it was a blur But it showed how happy she was.

Realizing that it was moving too fast, Leo lowered her nose and slowed down her tail a little.

We would ask Rahle to wear the saddle And furthermore! Putting a backrest on the saddle will increase the stability. There will be no worry of Lady Tilura falling off. Oh! However There is one thing that Im worried about What is it? Will Rahle accept this saddle Ah It

Sebastian explained happily Leo was not at all happy at the notion that Rahle might be faster than her. But flying and running on the ground were just too different. As for the effect of wind while flyingI would have to ask Rahle. But with running, the terrain affected you

Sebastian became involved As we waited for dinner to be served, Tilura reported that she got permission from Rahle. Now that I thought about it, they seemed to be talking after training. Leo and Liza had been running with Sherry. But what did she need Rahles permission for? For the
