

Beta James

Beta James POV

Leaving the Alphas suite a large smile plastered across my face I can't help but feel optimistic. Eager to head back to my suite and inform Millie of her new responsibilities I quickly head downstairs to the kitchen.

"Beta" Omega Mary exclaims in surprise, "I wasn't expecting you at such an hour. Is everything ok?"

"Ah Mary. Just the lady I was looking for. Everything is more than ok, as I'm sure you will nd out. For now I'd like a copy of all the Omega rotas" I request happily.

"Yes right away Beta, if you can just give me two minutes I will go and get them for you." She replies curiously.

"I will wait here Mary" I say softly, sitting here I think of how is best to proceed. Hearing her light footsteps heading back to the kitchen I look up. Seeing uncertainty on her face I smile, "you have nothing to worry about Mary, please take a seat. I'd like your input for this."

"Now Alpha Lilah has requested I look over the Omegas responsibilities and make any necessary changes. How many hours do Omegas work?" I ask

"We begin at 4 in the morning ensuring the pack house is clean, food is ready for breakfast from 6:30am, communal areas are clean and any deliveries have been put away." She starts explaining, "we all have set responsibilities so there is not much communication needed between ourselves. If we were caught chatting, it would be 5 lashes by the Luna" she quietly says.

"What!" I exclaim, "how was I not aware of this?"

"I don't believe anyone was Beta. Perhaps Alpha Johnson was aware but Luna Maria ordered us to not say a word and to get our work done." She says nervousness in her voice.

"Well that will be stopped immediately, I'm sure Alpha Lilah will have a plan on how to deal with that. I'd like for Omegas to work 7 hour shifts, one set is 5am-12pm, the other is 12pm-7pm, as well as this we will then need an evening shift so shall we say 7pm-12am. Then for the hours between 12am-5am we can have 2 allocated omegas on call so if anything is required for guests or emergencies etc they are available?"

"That sounds more than acceptable Beta, currently we all work 4am till bed. I try to sneak breaks for those who get their jobs done eciently however Luna Maria always seemed to be around to prevent that from happening or asking for jobs to be redone unnecessarily" Mary sighs.

"That will be happening no more. As well as a change of rota times I want to ensure sucient breaks are provided as well as enough rest between shifts and everyone working gets provided a full meal at meal times. Which can now be enjoyed alongside the rest of the pack in the dining hall. With the job allocation, I think it's suitable for a rotation to be organised for those as well so everyone does everything at least once at some point within the week. How does that sound?" I ask.

"Beta...that would be amazing. I'm sure everyone will be very appreciative."

"Brilliant. I will also ensure training times are tted in the rotas. Oh and you will all have two days off a week. I will have those nalised by lunch tomorrow. If you could inform everyone in the morning that changes are coming. Also please inform everyone to start work at 5:30 tomorrow, I believe that's enough time to prepare breakfast and get the necessary cleaning jobs done. Ensure everyone attends breakfast at some point within the two hours also. Now it's been an eventful day, I suggest we both get some rest. I will see you in the morning Mary, it's been nice speaking to you." With that I stand up from the table and head towards the stairs. Wishing those I see a goodnight on my way I run up the stairs 3 at a time.

Swinging open my suites door I call out "Millie, darling are you awake?"

"Yes darling, I'm just through here" her soft voice calls out. Walking towards our bedroom I see her all curled up in the middle of our bed, cuddling my pillow so my scent surrounds her. His big brown eyes looking at me softly she smiles her gentle smile. "You look happy James...I take it it's been a good day" she says knowingly.

Dropping my body next to hers I immediately engulf her petit frame in my arms, breathing her scent in deeply I sigh happily. "I don't even know where to begin.." I start.

"Well may I suggest from the beginning" she inputs in a teasing tone.

"Quick as ever my love" I chuckle, "well it seems we have had the future Queen residing in our pack for the last 5 years. Lilah shes...amazing. I truly believe she would have made the perfect Luna for our pack. It's a shame really that Lincoln was too damn stubborn to look past titles, his parents should be ashamed of themselves for believing that is how they should have brought him up."

"Well James, I hate to mention it but did I not say that Lilah was a hidden strength. She's kind, loyal, hard working and respectful, to everyone."

"You did, and I'm glad we at least treated her with the respect she deserved. She has already got me on with changing the rotas for the omegas, ensuring they have sucient meals, breaks and aren't over worked as well as having two days off to ensure training and family time can be accounted for. I have a meeting with the Alpha and Warrior Liam before lunch to discuss it further and to organise training for everyone aged 12+. But I have some good news for you love."

"You do? Don't keep me waiting then James" she laughs playfully.

"You my dear have been invited for breakfast with myself and the Alpha in the morning. We will discuss your role as Beta female, nally you can act on your responsibilities!" Looking down I see her eyes widen in excitement, shock evident on her face.

"Really?!" She exclaimed loudly.

"Yes love, really. Alpha Lilah said she is looking forwards to meeting you ocially" I say with a proud smile on my face. "Are you happy darling?"

With a soft growl she suddenly ips us so she's straddling my hips. "Hmmm my Beta" she says playfully starting to grind herself on me. Feeling myself harden I grip her hips pushing her down, moaning lightly in pleasure. "Very happy my love, I think I should show you..." she trails off whilst her eyes darken in lust. Trailing her ngers lightly down my chest tracing my abs until she nally reaches the waistband of my trousers, she moves backwards whilst pulling my trousers down in a swift movement. Licking her bottom lip as my hardened member is now proudly on show she gently grasps it in her hand. Leaning forward she sensually licks from the base to the top, swirling her tongue around the head eliciting a pleasurable moan from me before bobbing her head down and taking me deep into her mouth. "Fuuuuck Millie, you know how much I love that" I moan. Hearing her purr against my shaft makes my eyes roll back in pleasure, I let her bob up and down for another minute before I grab her. "If you continue like that I'll c*m like a teenager all over again" I moan against her lips, "now ride me" I demanded. She goes to lower herself down before I tut "no Mills, ride me..." I say pulling her even higher. Realisation dawns in her eyes before she smirks and shimmy's her way up my body, taking a deep breath of her sweet scent against my lips I moan "how is it after 3 years your scent alone can make me hard as hell" with that I grab her hips and pull her down on me. Flitting my tongue out I lick up through her warm folds before sucking on her clit. She begins rolling her hips in a steady rhythm all the while I lap and suck at her drawing moan after moan out of her, as her movements begin to jerk I grab her hips and gently bite down on her clit, "Jamesssss" she screams in pleasure, "that's right love, c*m for me" I whisper against her. Feeling her legs quiver either side of my head I lap up her juices as she squeals in pleasure. Looking down at me her eyes darken even further and she moves swiftly down my body, sitting up she grabs my shaft and sinks herself down so I'm deep inside her. "Oh babe...yess" I growl happily. "I want it rough James" she growls right back before lifting herself up and slamming down on me. My mate knows exactly what we both need as I look at her through pleasure hooded eyes. Riding me hard and fast I nd myself getting closer all too quickly, lifting her hips i begin slamming into her from underneath. Lifting her top off of her freeing her bouncing breasts I reach up and pinch and twist her ns before reaching forwards and taking one in my mouth. "fk James I'm going to cum..." she moans, "that's right Mills, c*m with me" I gasp out. With a couple of nal jerks of my hips I hold her down on my shaft and roar in pleasure at my release, feeling her grip my ck and milk it, she bites her mark on my neck prolonging my pleasure. Moving gently on me she collapses on my chest. Within no time I feel her steady breathing indicating she's fallen asleep, rolling over I pull her into my chest and smile.
