

She Got A Better Man 101

"Elvira, don't be impulsive. If you really don't want to apologize Nina. Ell kneel and apologize to her on your behalf. 111 beg for her forgiveness!" Judy knelt in Nina's direction and begged anxiously, "Nina, please forgive my sister for attacking you back then. I'm willing to kneel and apologize to you, and I willing to compensate you for the financial loss of your life on behalf of my sister!"

Judy's actions caused an uproar in the room. At the same time, also aroused the righteous indignation of some of the alumni.

"Elvira, aren't you going too far? You're the one who did something wrong. Is it so difficult for you to apologize? Your entire family is already willing to pay for your mistake, but you're still bring willful?"

"That's right. Look how sensible your sister is. If you were in the wrong, just admit it and apologize. If you had apologized earlier, wouldn't this matter be over long ago?"

"Your family came to help you resolve the matter, but you still want to sever ties with your family. Aren't you being too ungrateful?"

Judy, stop it! The person who should kneel to the victim is Elvira!"

"Yes! Elvira should be the one kneeling and apologizing."

"If Elvira doesn't apologize today, I'll be the first to ostracize her Apologize!"

"Kneel and apologize!"

For a moment, the crowd was furious, shouting for Elvira to apologize. Judy's gesture and speech instantly ignited everyone's emotions. Now, everyone's disgust for Elvira had reached a peak.

Amber and Zoey came over together to help Judy up. However, Judy was determined not to get up. She had gained everyone's support for apologizing on behalf of her sister's wrongdoings. Calvin glared at Elvira angrily. He was extremely disappointed in her.

Marsh was also furious. His face was red. He felt embarrassed to have such a sister!

Zach's heart ached when he saw Elvira standing there, being accused by everyone. He stepped forward and held her hand tightly again. He used his actions to assure Elvira that he would be by her side no matter what happened.

No matter what others said, Elvira was unmoved. She stared at Nina without any emotions. Nina watched as everyone stood on her side to help her. She smiled mockingly. Her eyes were filled with hatred. She thought, 'Elvira Willis, it was because of you that I was disfigured and crippled. I will never let you off in this life. Not only do I want you to compensate me for this life, but I also want you to be reviled by the country. You will be so humiliated that you can't go out in the daylight. You will suffer forever!'

"Elvira, you unfilial daughter! Don't you know your mistake?" Karen felt embarrassed when she saw everyone's disdain for Elvira.

"Elvira, hurry up and apologize!" Everyone could not believe that Elvira was still unwilling to apologize even at this point. Someone picked up a glass angrily and threw it at Elvira.

Zach immediately carried Elvira up to dodge the glass. Because of that, the others followed suit. They picked up things beside them and threw the things at Elvira angrily. They wanted her to apologize.

Zach tried his best to protect Elvira. When the things that those people threw hit Zach's back, his bodyguards immediately went forward to help their boss.

Elvira watched as some of the things hit Zach. Her eyes became older and colder. She suddenly pushed Zach away and scolded loudly. "Ts think that you're all top students from Vilze University and well-known people from all walks of life! You believe the words of Nina Shaw without listening to the other side of the story. There's something else you might not know. Elena woke up a month ago!"

Elvira's voice was loud and stern, making everyone quiet and getting their attention When Nina heard that Elena had woken

she panicked. She immediately retorted, "That's impossible Back then, the doctor said that the chances of Elena waling up in this lifetime are less than one percent

"Even if she only has a one in ten thousand chance of waking up, she still woke up. Maybe Elena doesn't want a murderer like you to get away with it?" Elvira said sarcastically

"Elvira, don't try to deceive everyone here! Even if Elena really wakes up, you are still the murderer' She and I are the victims!" Nina felt that Elvira was lying. Nina thought. How can Elena wake up? It is a one-in-a-million chance. Can she be so lucky""

"Is that so, Nina? It has been a long time. Do you still remember me?" A weak voice sounded. The voice was not loud. If one did not listen carefully, they would not be able to hear it. Everyone looked in the direction of the voice and saw a middle-aged woman pushing a frail-looking woman in a patient's uniform into the dining room. Beside her was a middle-aged man with white hair. The family of three was accompanied by a few police officers.

When Nina saw Elena, it was as if she had seen a ghost. She avoided eye contact with Elena and quickly looked at Judy, still kneeling on the ground. Judy used her eyes to signal to Nina not to panic.

Nina tried her best to calm herself down. When the incident happened back then, only she, Elena, and Elvira were present. There was no fourth person at all. The matter had already been settled. Seven years had passed, and there was no way to verify if Nina was the real bully.

Even if Elena pointed out that Nina was the bully, she did not have any evidence. Nina could just say that Elena was bribed by Elvira to frame her!

No one could do anything to Nina as long as there was no physical evidence.

"Elena? You are really Elena! You've really woken up! That's great! Elena, you can testify against Elvira with me now! She almost killed the two of us back then. If we weren't so lucky, we would have died long ago! We must bring this evil bitch to justice. We can't let her harm others anymore." Nina looked at Elena and said.

Elena quietly looked at Nina in the distance. She had just woken up not long ago, and after a month of rehabilitation, this was her first trip out. She frowned at Nina, her eyes filled with disgust. "Nina Shaw, how on earth do you have the cheek to say all these? You were the one who bullied me back then. Elvira just happened to pass by and wanted to help me! I didn't expect that after I went into a vegetative state all because of you, you accused Elvira of being the bully!"

After hearing her words, everyone present was dumbfounded. What was going on? The second victim woke up and accused Nina of being the bully. Elena was not here to testify against Elvira. Instead, she was here to reveal that Nina was the bully. Elvira was actually a good person....

Everyone was stunned by this sudden twist of events. Which of the three women was lying?

Nina pretended to look shocked, and she scolded, "Elena, you're muddle-headed! How much money did Elvira give you to make you say that? How can you help the bully because you want money! You disappoint me!"

She Got A Better Man

When everyone heard Nina's words, they realized that Elena had been bribed by Elvira

Elena was still very weak, her face was very pale and she was so emaciated that she couldn't stand. She just stared at Nina quietly, the hatred in Elena's eyes was so strong that everyone present could feel it. "Nina Shaw, do you think that there were only the three of us there, and I don't have any evidence to prove that you are the real bully?" Elena trembled when she thought about what Nina had done to her back then. Nina was still steady and calm. She was certain there was no evidence. Seven years ago, cameras were not very common. Moreover, the incident happened in a small forest. There were no cameras there at all! Elena came from a poor family. At that time, everyone was a student and they were not allowed to bring their phones to school. Furthermore, Elena did not have a phone because she was poor.

"Elena, I can't believe that you are doing this for money! If Elvira forced you to do this, I think everyone can forgive you.

"I have evidence. I've already handed over the evidence of you bullying me to the police. Elena's voice was very light, but it was like a thunderclap that stunned everyone, including Nina, who originally thought that she could get away with murder. She looked at Elena in shock.

"That's right. Ms. Lowry provided evidence as to how she was hurt. She handed over to us a tape. The police have already done a professional analysis of the content of the recording and restored the entire conversation. I am going to announce the results of our investigation. The alleged bullying incident of Ms. Elvira Willis back then was made up by Ms. Nina Shaw! The real bully was Nina Shaw. She bullied Ms. Elena Lowry, who lived in the same dormitory as her. The bullying went on for a long time causing her to be seriously injured. Nina Shaw, the police are now officially arresting you for attempted murder!" The police who came with him showed the arrest warrant, and they immediately came over to handcuff Nina.

The sudden twist of events took everyone by surprise. Before anyone could figure out what was going on, the situation had already changed. The original bully had become a victim, and the victim everyone sympathized with was actually the real bully..

Everyone looked at one another when they saw this scene. Before they could come back to their senses, Nina was already handcuffed. The police had an arrest warrant and would not arrest the wrong person.

"Impossible! This is impossible! You can't possibly have any evidence! Have you been bribed by Elvira? Let go of me. Elvira is the murderer. The person you should arrest is Elvira!" Nina shouted angrily, trying to break free from the police's hands.

"Nina Shaw, do you really think that I'll just let you bully me for so long without wanting to seek justice? My family is poor and I didn't have a phone, but I had a Walkman that I used to record lessons. Every time you bullied me, I brought it along and recorded all that you said. You can't escape! And Elvira, I want to thank you officially today. If you hadn't appeared in time back then, I might have been killed by that vicious woman Elena looked at Elvira with gratitude.

"Thank you, Elvira Thank you."

"Thank you for saving our Elena. We've misunderstood you all these years. You've even helped us pay for her treatment. I'm really sorry. Thank you."

Elena's parents thanked Elvira gratefully and apologized to her too. Their tears kept flowing. Elena was their only daughter. If Elena had died back then, they would not have been able to live until now.

It was only at this moment that everyone was certain that the bully was really not Elvira, but Nina Shaw!

And all these years, Elvira was still helping Elena's family.

Nina suddenly shouted excitedly. "Elena, you bitch! How dare you plot against me! How dare you record everything! You little bitch! I'm going to kill you!" 15:47 Sat, Nov 23 Gu

Everyone looked at Sumluapian, who had suddenly gone crazy is arrogant appearance was completely different from the victim just now. Everyone understood that everyone had been deceived by her. Seeing that everything was cast in stone, Judy knew that there was no turning back. She never expected that someone who had been in a vegetative state for seven years would wake up one day! This time, nothing happened to Elvira again.

Karen frowned as she watched this scene. Then, she looked at Elvira with dissatisfaction in her eyes. Since Elvira was not the one who did it back then, why didn't she explain it properly? She caused the family to lose a large sum of money! Now, she actually wanted to leave the Willis family because of this matter, Karen felt that Elvira was very rebellious!

Calvin also looked at Elvira with a puzzled look. Seeing her being protected by a man, he remembered Elvira's question in his mind. She asked him if he knew what kind of person she was and if he went to verify what really happened.

Calvin did not do anything. He had only heard from others that Elvira had bullied others, but he had believed it without a doubt. He had even started to distance himself from her from then on.

Marsh was also dumbfounded. He did not expect that his sister really did not do it. He looked at Elvira with a guilty expression for the first time.

The principal rushed over in a hurry. Looking at the chaotic scene, he said, "Everyone! I'm really sorry that I'm late. I was helping the police to check the files from back then. Now, the police have already proven Elvira's innocence. The person who bullied Elena back then was Nina Shaw. I solemnly apologize to Elvira for the school's mistake. The school will also issue an official statement to clarify that bullying incident!"

The principal represented the school's stand. Finally, the truth about the shocking bullying incident was out. Elvira's reputation had been cleared, and the real bully was arrested by the police.

No matter how Nina cried and kicked up a fuss, the police took her away. Elena's family thanked Elvira again, and they went back to the hospital because Elena was not feeling well.

Everyone in the restaurant looked at Elvira. When they thought about what they did just now, they felt very ashamed.

Some people just wanted to leave the restaurant and forget about this incident.

"Wait a minute. Weren't you guys cursing loudly just now? And you want to leave just like that? Have you forgotten something?" Zach's voice was very cold. His sharp gaze swept across everyone present.

The bodyguards immediately blocked the exit to prevent anyone from leaving secretly.

Everyone looked at one another. They were also quite ashamed. After all, they believed Nina and Judy just now. They were indeed filled with malice toward Elvira. They had scolded her and even threw things at her....

"Elvira, I'm sorry. I apologize on behalf of the school! The school had done you wrong!"
"The principal was the first to apologize to Elvira.

When everyone saw that the principal had apologized, they also began to apologize. For a moment, the restaurant was filled with people apologizing to Elvira.

Elvira looked at the people in front of her apologizing to her. She felt tears welling up in her eyes. It had been seven years. She had finally waited for the truth and the belated apology!

She Got A Better Man 103

The alumni were not unreasonable people. They were just deceived by Nina's miserable appearance. They were very ashamed of how they scolded and reacted. The entire restaurant was filled with their apologies. Calvin also felt a little upset. He looked at

Elvira and opened his mouth, wanting to apologize to her, but Elvira did not even look at him or the members of the Willis family,

"So... Elvira was wrongly accused back then? Tell me, why didn't you explain it to your family back then? At that time, your family spent a lot of money to settle your matter, Amber said grudgingly. She came today to see Elvira make a fool of herself. She did not expect that Elvira's reputation would be cleared.

Back then, to blow up Elvira's bullying incident, Amber also spent a sum of money. She thought, 'Why did that vegetable suddenly wake up? If I knew that she would wake up and clear Elvira's name, I would have gotten rid of her!'

It would be easy to kill Elena without anyone knowing-

"I have nothing to do with the Willis family anymore. Karen Willis and I have already made it very clear to the media! Mind your words!" Elvira said coldly. Since the matter had been resolved, there was no need for her to stay here anymore. She held Zach's hand and said gently, "Let's go."

Zach glanced coldly at the Willis family. When he lowered his head, he said softly, "Alright, it's too noisy here, I'll order some food to eat in my room."

"Mr. Gilbert, I'll walk you and Ms. Willis out." The principal smiled obsequiously. His attitude was extremely humble.

"Elvira, how dare you! It's not that easy for you to break off ties with the Willis family! Back then, the Willis family compensated a huge sum of money for your matter! The Willis family raised you for more than 20 years. We have spent a lot of money on you. What right do you have to say that you are severing ties with the Willis family?" Karen originally felt a little guilty, but her guilt disappeared when she heard what Elvira's words.

Elvira stopped in her tracks and scoffed, "Karen must have gone senile, right? Back then, I had never admitted that I had bullied anyone. I had already said that if you wanted me to admit what I had not done, I would rather be arrested and imprisoned! You were the ones who took the initiative to pay money to cover the matter up and ruin my reputation. It's money since I was already benevolent of me not to seek compensation from you! I know I've spent the Willis family young. I'll naturally calculate everything and return the money to the Willis family! As for the last point you mentioned, I didn't ask to be born into the Willis family. Therefore, I don't owe the Willis family anything! I'll announce that I've severed ties with the Willis family tomorrow. I'll transfer the money to you as well! Also, please don't disturb me in the future! Oh right, I don't need your apology too because I don't care!" After Elvira finished speaking, she ignored these people and pulled Zach out of the restaurant. Vincent was angered by his daughter's attitude and wanted to catch hold of her. However, he was blocked by Zach's bodyguards, and he could not get close to Elvira. When they reached the entrance of the restaurant, Elvira turned around to look at her brother. She asked, "Marsh, are you coming or not?"

Marsh looked at his sister and then at the Willis family members. He hesitated and did not move.

Amber immediately reached out to Marsh. "Marsh, you're the Willis family's eldest grandson. You can't leave the Willis family. Come to Mom quickly."

Marsh did not dare to look at Elvira. In the end, he hesitated and walked toward the Willis family members.

When Elvira saw this, she did not care about him anymore. She left with Zach.

Judy was so angry that she felt dizzy. She should be happy today as she could publicize Elvira's scandal again and ruin her reputation. However, the tables had turned. 15:47 Sat, Nov 23 G.

Judy looked at Calvin, whose expression was unclear. She walked over and grabbed his hand. She said gently, "So we've all misunderstood Elvira. Who would have thought that Nina was the bully?"

It turned out that no one could be blamed for this.

"Who asked her to meddle in other people's business? If it weren't for her meddling, would she have been involved? In the future, no one should mention Elvira Willis again. She wants to ever ties with us. Let her bet I want to see what ability she has to establish a foothold in Jersten after leaving the Willis family Kareis said angrily and turned to walk out of the restaurant.

"I also think it's Elvira's fault. If she doesn't meddle in other people's business, wouldn't everything be fine? She has her own problems, but she still blames others! She's just a jinx. I can't let her harm Mr. Gilbert! By the way, what's Mr. Gilbert's name?" Zoey still hadn't given up on Zach,

The onlookers at the side were all listening attentively. After hearing the comments of the Willis family members, they felt that this family did not have good values. No wonder Elvira wanted to break away from the Willis family. This family's values were problematic. If something happened, they would rather believe outsiders than their own children! Why did Elvira it was outrage to be scolded for being a busybody? She had saved a life. It was line if her family did not praise her, but to scold her like this,

Also, this crazy woman actually didn't even know Zach's name and still said that he loved her. She didn't give up knowing that he was married... She was really sick.

o even after

Samson and Spike quickly followed Zach and Elvira. Now, the two of them admired and believed Elvira very much. Just based on her sincerity towards Zach, they felt that she was worthy to be Zach's wife.

"Elvira, did you arrange everything today?" Samson asked.

Spike was equally puzzled.

"Yes and no." Elvira smiled as she looked at Zach who looked like he was Prince Charming. "Originally, Elena could not be present today due to her condition. I think someone secretly helped me and asked Elena to come here personally to testify for me.

Even if she woke up after seven years in a vegetative state, she would not recover so quickly. Previously, Elvira contacted. Elena's doctor, and the doctor said that she could not leave the hospital now. Hence, Elvira gave up on the idea of letting Elena be the witness. Elena's life was more important.

Someone must have helped Elvira so that Elena could come here today.

Also, the principal appeared in time to apologize on behalf of the school. It must be someone's credit. If it weren't for Zach, even if Elvira was being wrongly accused, the school wouldn't have taken the initiative to prove her innocence and apologize. "I only found an authoritative expert to treat her. You did the rest yourself! Zach raised his hand and patted Elvira's head lovingly.

Samson looked at the two people in front of him who were constantly showing off their affection. His heart ached again. He had decided that he would stop being a Casanova. He wanted to date a woman as good as Elvira. Then they would get married and have children! When they arrived at the hotel room, Samson and Spike wanted to follow Zach and Elvira in. This time, they did not need Zach to chase them away. Elvira raised her hand to block the door and said, "We have something to talk about alone. It's not convenient for you to come in! See you later."

The door slammed shut, shutting out Samson and Spike.

The two of them did not say anything.

15:47 Sat, Nov 23 GUB.

The moment the door closed, Zach grabbed Elvira's waist. The next second, she was pressed against the door...

She Got A Better Man

Elvira took the initiative to kiss the man in front of him. Zach held the back of her head with his large palm and returned the kiss. This kiss was tender and lingering. After the kiss, Elvira looked at Zach with sparkling eyes. "Mr. Gilbert, thank you for doing so much for me. If it weren't for you, my plan wouldn't have been carried out so perfectly today."

"You did it yourself. What I did was just icing on the cake. Elvira you're great. In my heart, you're the best!" Zach stared at the petite face before him, praising Elvira sincerely. Zach was really attracted to her. "Zach, let's have a baby, Elvira said gently and hugged him.

Elvira had an unfortunate childhood, so when she could not be sure of giving a child happiness, she did not dare to say that she wanted a child. She felt that it was irresponsible.

Now, she was very sure that Zach was a very good man. He was a good husband and would be a good father.

"Elvira, are you serious?" Zach's black eyes instantly lit up. The joy that came from the bottom of his heart was very clear to Elvira.

Elvira felt her heart soften. She kissed his lips hard again. She wanted to use her actions to tell him if she was serious.

Zach was overjoyed. In the past, he had no feelings for children. It was his grandmother who kept nagging about having great-grandchildren. Ever since he met Elvira and fell in love with her, he had wanted a child. However, Zach had to respect Elvira's thoughts, so he would wait for her to tell him. He would always protect her.

Zach kissed her even more intensely. The two of them kissed as they moved to the king-size bed. When the two of them fell onto the bed, the soft mattress sank. Zach lowered his head to look at Elvira's face and kissed her again.

It was already an hour later Clothes were strewn everywhere, and the blanket was very crinkled. It was obvious that their lovemaking was intense.

Elvira lay lazily on Zach's body. Her hair was drenched in sweat and stuck to her fair face. She exuded an extremely charming aura.

Zach took a glass of water from the bedside table. He hugged Elvira and fed her some water.

"Elvira, I enjoy being with you like this!" After Zach fed her the water and put down the glass, he hugged her tightly.

Elvira knew what he was referring to. She blushed instantly. Feeling the warmth of their skin pressed tightly against each other, she said lazily, "Why don't you let me take my medicine?"

"It's not good for your health to take medicine! You can't take it in the future either. After we have a baby, I'll go for a vasectomy." Zach could not bear to let Elvira suffer.

Elvira did not expect him to think so far ahead. Zach even thought of getting a vasectomy. She was extremely touched. Because Olivia was an obstetrician, she knew how to perform abortions. She often complained to Elvira about those irresponsible men who made women go for abortions because they just wanted to have sex with the women

She said those men and women would sometimes quarrel outside the operating room. The men would blame the women for not taking morning-after pills or using contraceptive rings.

The fact that Zach was willing to undergo a vasectomy for Elvira meant that he was a responsible man. It also meant that he truly loved her.

Elvira was so touched that she kissed him again. Zach turned over and pressed her under him. He returned the kiss intensely. Their bodies became one, and their movements erupted like a torrential flood. Elvira could only float with the man in front of her and let him lead her to a new realm...

Soon Elvira was hungry. Zach got someone to send clothes over. After the two of them cleaned up, Zach also ordered food.

Samson and Spike were finally allowed into the room. Zach invited them to eat together.

After Samson entered, he asked anxiously, "Elvira, do you have my sisters? Introduce me to a girlfriend."

Elvira looked at him with a puzzled look. "My biological sister is Judy right?"

"I don't want! I'm disgusted by her wicked character. Samson immediately rejected Elvira's suggestion.

"Anyone else? Anyone else?" Samson continued to ask.

Elvira shook her head. "Nope!"

Samson sat down in disappointment, looking like he had nothing to live for.

"Let's eat first. Cut the crap," Zach glared at Samson and pulled Elvira down to sit down. He picked up some food for her and gestured for her to ignore Samson.

Elvira smiled and picked up some food for Zach. He started eating and was in a good mood. While Zach was eating, he kept putting food onto Elvira's plate. The two of them looked like they were deeply in love with each other. Their eyes were glued to each other. The two men opposite Zach were dumbfounded. Samson was originally quite hungry. At that time, he was watching the commotion and did not eat much. He was quite Hungry just now, but now, he suddenly felt full!

Spike had never had a girlfriend. At this moment, he also realized that his brother seemed to have become a different person. He was no longer the decisive and cold-blooded leader. At this moment, his entire body emitted warmth... Spike was curious! Spike thought, Is the power of love really that great?'

After Judy and Amber returned to their room, Judy sat on the bed like she was paralyzed. She seemed to be exhausted. Amber sat over and wanted to hold her hand, but Judy shook her hand off. I'm already annoyed enough. Don't bother me!"

"Judy, don't be angry. This small setback is nothing. If I had given up so easily like you back then, how can we have such a good life?" Amber used her own experience to persuade her daughter.

"Mom, you're right. It's not the end yet. It's still uncertain who will win!" Judy's eyes were filled with determination. She took few deep breaths to suppress the discomfort in her chest,

"What you should do now is to look for Calvin. I think that because of what happened just now, Calvin seems to feel guilty towards Elvira. This is not a good thing. What you should do now is to stay close to Calvin. The most important thing for a woman is to find a capable man with a good family background. Nothing else is that important. Amber advised her daughter proudly. The best thing she had done in her life was to go after Vincent Willis. This way, she and her child could enjoy life in the high society.

If she found an ordinary poor man, not only would she have to live a hard life, but her children would also have to suffer with her. Sometimes, getting married was not only for herself to find a man, but also for her children to find a capable father!

"Mom, you're right. I'll go look for Calvin now." Judy was also a little anxious. She was so anxious just now that she actually left Calvin behind and came home.

She could not give Calvin and Elvira a chance to be alone.

15:48 Sat, Nov 23 G.

Judy composed herself and went out to look for Calvin. Calvin was not in his room. Judy's heart skipped a beat. She guessed that Calvin must have gone to look for Elvira. Thinking of this, he could not help but quicken her pace in the direction of Elvira's room11...

She Got A Better Man

Calvin had indeed come to look for Elvira. However, he was stopped by the bodyguards before he could even see Elvira. Calvin was quite angry. He still thought that Zach was a hired actor who did not need to be so engrossed in the role. Calvin was of high societal status and naturally would not argue with a group of actors. That would be too embarrassing and detrimental to his reputation.

On the way back, Calvin was a little frustrated. Back then, he had started to distance himself from her because Elvira's actions in school had disappointed him too much. Now, he was suddenly told that Elvira was innocent. He could not believe 11. 11.

Even if he no longer loved Elvira, he believed that he had to take responsibility for her life. He did not want her to continue making mistakes because of him. He was even more determined to persuade Elvira to leave Zach. This time, he would plan for Elvira's future so that her prospects were good.

When Judy saw him walking back with a dark expression, she quickened her pace and walked towards him. She called out softly, "Calvin, you really came to look for Elvira, I want to see her too. She has suffered a lot because of that incident. I want to apologize to her on behalf of my family."

Calvin's expression softened when he saw her. "There's no need to go. Those people won't let anyone see Elvira. Let's go back first."

"I really didn't know that Elvira was accused wrongly for what happened back then. However, my family really did it for her own good. In order to help her cover up the matter, they spent a large sum of money." Judy explained as she held Calvin's arm.

"Didn't anyone in your family investigate? They only believed Nina Shaw's one-sided story?" Calvin asked unhappily. Just as Elvira had said, compensating was actually admitting her wrongdoing.

"At that time, there were only three people at the scene. Two of them were seriously injured, and only Elvira was safe and sound. There was no way to verify it. If Elena had not woken up today, the truth would not have been revealed. Elvira had indeed suffered all these years. We have to make it up to her." Judy was fuming when she saw Calvin's attitude towards Elvira "change. However, she still put on a gentle and kind expression.

"We have to compensate her well. She doesn't even have a job now. Judy, I've thought about it, and I want her to work in my company. Do you have any objections?" Calvin knew about Elvira's ability. Previously, when the Kennedy Group had some crisis, it was Elvira who came up with clever plans to resolve the crisis. Hence, the Kennedy Group was able to prosper and get to where it was today. Elvira was very capable but her educational qualifications were low. Calvin planned to let her start her. from the bottom and give her more salary to support

"Of course, I have no objections. Elvira has very little educational qualification. She won't be able to find a good job if she goes to another company. I'll be very happy if she joins the company. This way, we can take care of her." Judy pretended to

Willis join the Kennedy Group? Wouldn't that give her be happy, but in fact, she was already furious. She thought, Let Elv a chance to be close to Calvin? That will never happen!

From the looks of it, Judy could only ask Karen to recruit Elvira into their company.

"If this had not happened back then. Elvira would not have returned to the countryside to study. With her grades, she should have been able to get into a proper university," Calvin said regretfully. The guilt in his heart intensified. Judy did not utter a single word.

She thought, 'Is there no end to this? You are talking about Elvir all this time! Do you still have feelings for her?

"Calvin, you are right. We need to treat Elvira well so as to compensate her loss. Isn't that Mr. Howten over there? I didn't expect him to come," Judy said as she saw a man in the distance.

"Which Mr. Howten?" Calvin asked impatiently. It was obvious that his mind was focused on Elvira, and he was not interested in anything else.

Chapter 103-

"It's that Mr. Howten who was found to be making out with Elvir back then... Oh my god! Why would he come to the school's 100th anniversary? Could it be that he knows that Elvira is here and wants to cause trouble for her? This cannot happen. I have to quickly inform Elvira not to come out! Judy said as she walked in the direction of Elvira's room.

Calvin pulled her back and asked with a frown, "Tell me clearly what happened back then!"

Calvin had also heard of this matter. It was said that Elvira and male teacher had been found making out in the music room. The male teacher had identified Elvira as the one who had seduced him. Later, the school decided to fire the male teacher, and Elvira was given a serious offense record. Later, Elvira had been expelled from the school for bullying.

"Calvin, you're hurting me." Judy looked at him aggrievedly and became angrier. She thought, 'Elvira was fooling around with the male teacher. Why are you grabbing me so hard?

I'm sorry, Judy. I was just thinking that since Elvira was innocent in the bullying incident, could she also be accused wrongly for this?" Calvin realized that he had lost his composure and quickly let go of Judy.

"The school would have definitely dealt with the matter seriously. They said that several witnesses confirmed it.. Elvira had indeed taken the initiative to look for Mr. Howten. Later on, both of them made out in the music room when a student

1. up. bumped into them. Then, the matter erupted. At that time, both of them were disheveled. After the matter blew Howten could only tell the truth. He said that Elvira seduced him and that he made a mistake because he could not resist the temptation. Many people had seen Elvira and Mr. Howten together, including me. I was so shocked at that time. I only saw can't remember Elvira and Mr. Howten hugging each other intimately... At that time, my mind was in a complete mess. I what happened later. I'm willing to believe that Elvira is innocent Judy sighed helplessly. She scoffed in her heart. She narrated the incident in a very disgusting tone to convince Calvin that Elvira was a terrible woman,

The fastest way to destroy a woman was to destroy her reputation! Judy knew this well!

"Did you see it with your own eyes?" Calvin asked with a very unpleasant expression.

Judy scoffed in her heart again. Indeed, any man would not tolerate an indecent woman!

"I don't want to believe that Elvira is that kind of person, but at that time, there were witnesses and evidence. I can't help but believe it. I believe that Elvira was just not thinking straight. After all, she was young at that time. Her body was mature, but her mind was still immature. She thought that she could use her body in exchange for what she wanted. Everyone can forgive her. Judy sounded like she was defending Elvira

When Calvin heard this, he walked directly to the man in the distance. His expression was very ugly. Judy quickly ran after him and pulled him anxiously. "Calvin, what are you going to do? Calm down first!"

"Let go of me!" Calvin raised his hand and pushed Judy away. Judy was wearing high heels. She lost her balance and fell against the wall. It was so painful that she gasped.

She could only watch as Calvin rushed toward Mr. Howten, grabbed his collar, and pressed him against the wall....

She Got A Better Man

chapter 106

Adam was originally looking for Elvira, thinking about how to deal with Elvira. Suddenly, someone grabbed him and pressed him against the wall. He was stunned for a moment. He frowned at the man who was pressing him and asked, "Who are you? What do you want?" "Are you the teacher who said that Elvira seduced you back then Calvin pressed his hand harder and harder. His eyes were filled with strong murderous intent.

Adam was not afraid of the man in front of him and asked with an indifferent expression, "Yes. What's the matter!"

Calvin still wanted to say something, but Judy rushed over and said anxiously, "Calvin, don't hit him in public. This concerns Elvis's reputation! Let's find a private place to talk."

Calvin saw that some people around him were already looking over curiously. He grabbed Adam's clothes and pulled him. out. "Come with me!"

"Let go of me first!" Adam shook off Calvin with force. He looked at Judy with disdain and snorted before walking out.

In the hotel's garden, there were some alumni scattered around. Compared to the interior, it was relatively quiet. Calvin pointed at him and asked, "Were you the one who wronged Elvira back then? Elvira didn't seduce you at all, right?"

"I wronged her? I was ruined by her, my wife divorced me, and I lost my good job. I was ruined by her!" Adam's angry roar attracted the attention of the surrounding people.

Mr. Howten, please lower your voice. This matter concerns my sister's reputation. Please lower your voice." Judy looked at him anxiously.

believe "Why should I lower my voice? I'm not the one who's embarrassed! Back then, it was Elvira who seduced me! Do you that now, as long as I crook my finger at Elvira, she'll run over and please me!" Adam looked at the two people in front of him with a shameless expression Judy's eyes widened in shock and disbelief. Calvin's face was terribly darkened. Looking at the man in front of him who was so confident, he began to doubt the authenticity of the matter. Could it be true? Did Elvira really seduce this teacher in front of him?

"Why did she seduce you? What reason did she have to do that?" Calvin gritted his teeth and continued to question Adam.

"Of course, she did it for the answer to the test. Do you really think she's so smart that she can get first place in every test? Damn it, she got the answer from me in advance! I didn't want to agree at first, but you're a man, so you know, how could I resist her temptation? She took off her clothes and threw herself at me. How could I resist?" Adam pursed his lips in disdain.

Judy was so shocked that she covered her mouth. Calvin was so angry that he rushed over to hit Adam. Regardless of whether it was true or not, he wanted to beat that bastard up.

"Elvira was still young at that time. She didn't know things better, but how could you be the same? You're worse than an animal!TM

Calvin's fist was blocked by Adam. Adam sneered and said, "It's none of my business whether she was young or not. She took the initiative! I just made a mistake that all men in the world will make. Why don't we make a bet? Think of a way to help me send a letter to Elvira and tell her the room I'm in. See if she'll come, and we'll know the truth, won't we?"

"How can we do that?"

"Okay!"

Judy and Calvin spoke at the same time. Judy did not expect Calvin to agree. Calvin desperately wanted to know the truth of this matter. Therefore, he agreed without hesitation. Chapter 100

NO

"Calvin Judy looked at him disapprovingly.

"Tell Marsh to send her to his room!" Calvin said gloomily and asked for Adam's room number before turning to leave.

Adam and Judy looked at each other. Adam's eyes were filled with determination. Judy was a little worried. Recently, Elvira had been a little strange, Judy was worried that if this matter backfired, Calvin would fall for Elvira once again.

However, it was actually very difficult to tell what was going on between a man and a woman. Otherwise, how could it be so easy to ruin a woman's reputation? It was because there was no way to verify it. Most importantly, this kind of scandal was the most discussed. No one cared about the truth. Everyone just wanted to have fun.

This was also why the first thing Judy and her mother did was destroy Elvira's reputation. This was because it was the easiest and hardest to prove.

Marsh could easily see Elvira. When the note was handed to him, Judy specifically instructed him to give it to Elvira alone. Marsh did not listen to her and gave the note to his sister in front of Zach.

"Here. Someone from the Willis family asked me to give it to you. As for what it is, I don't know," said Marsh

"Rascal, how dare you help outsiders frame your own sister again Zach immediately slapped Marsh.

Marsh quickly covered his head and retreated. I'm innocent! They asked me to secretly pass the note to Elvira didn't listen to them, did I now?"

You are a fence-sitter, and your behavior is despicable. Elvira rolled her eyes at him and opened the note.

"Then what can I do? Do I have to fight them head-on like you? Then, won't I have to be thrown into the countryside to suffer like you? I'm not as stupid as you." Marsh rolled his eyes and sat down to eat the seafood on the table. Elvira was speechless.

"Let me see. Zach took the note and looked at it. His expression changed and he immediately said, "You can't go!"

"I have to go!" Elvira's eyes were firm. Adam framed her back then. She only hated that she was too weak back then and could not fight against him. She did nothing when he slandered her innocence. Today, she would let him know that he had, to pay for what he did. "I'll go with you!" Zach held her hand firmly.

Seeing this, Elvira could only lean over and kiss him. She advised. "Darling, you have to believe in my current strength. I won't fall for his trap again. Moreover, with you protecting me outside, if I'm really in any danger, I'll call you immediately!" Zach felt helpless.

He was still unwilling for his wife to meet that scumbag.

"As for Judy, doesn't she want to ruin my reputation? I won't let her have her way. I want to use her meticulous scheme to clear the stain on my reputation. Only then will I be worthy of her hard work!" Elvira hugged Zach's neck and wheedled. Marsh was speechless as he wondered. 'I can't bear to look at you Can't you take into account that there's an underage child here?

Elvira went to meet Adam alone. She stood outside the door with her hands clenched into fists. She wanted to pay him back double for what he had done to her back then.

She Got A Better Man

Chapter 107-

Calvin, who was hiding in the dark, saw that not only did Elvira really come to see Adam, but she also greeted him with a smile. The last bit of hope in Calvin's heart was instantly extinguished. He clenched his fists tightly as he wondered. To think that I actually thought that Elvira was innocent in the bullying incident, and she was also innocent in seducing the teacher! Indeed, I was too naive!

Elvira actually seduced a teacher for her grades. Until now, she will does not repent. I actually felt sorry for Elvira all these years! If she continues to study in the city with such good grades, she will definitely be able to get into a good university. It turns out that her grades are all fake!

Calvin immediately wanted to expose Elvira's hypocrisy. Judy quickly pulled him back and said, "Calvin, you go now. Elvira will definitely be embarrassed!"

If we

Judy and Adam had already planned it out. There was a large amount of knockout powder in the room. As long as Elvira went in, she would definitely be knocked out immediately. At that time, Adam would immediately sleep with Elvira, and Judy would bring people over. This way, Judy could catch the two of them in the act and confirm Elvira's seduction of the teacher back then.

In that case, Judy and Adam would be in a win-win situation.

If Judy went in now, it would ruin their plan. The scene was not exciting enough.

"Let's listen to what's going on inside first. If... I mean, if Elvira and Mr. Howten are really... We have to help her hide it! Judy persuaded Calvin and pulled him to the door.

Calvin was extremely frustrated. He really wanted to rush in, but he had a lot on his mind now, so he listened to Judy's suggestion. The two of them pressed their ears against the door and listened to the movements inside.

Some ambiguous sounds could be heard from inside, as well as a woman's soft snort. There were also some sounds that sounded like bangs. In short, it was very chaotic.

Judy's eyes lit up when she heard the noise, Adam had really succeeded. He had really gone on Elvira. This time, her money had not been spent in vain. As Judy thought that Elvira was about to lose her reputation, her hands trembled with excitement.

Calvin felt his blood racing. He immediately wanted to knock on the door and enter, Judy quickly pulled him back and stopped him. "Calvin, please don't. You have to think about Elvira's reputation!"

"Elvira is so indecent! She really disappoints me!" Calvin punched the wall angrily.

"No matter what, we must keep what happened today a secret for my sister! We must not let anyone know!" Judy looked at Calvin with determination.

"What do you want to help your sister hide?" A sharp voice sounded. Judy seemed to be shocked. When she turned around, she saw her mother holding her grandmother and her father beside her. Many alumni had already gathered behind her, including Lily. Judy was so frightened that she hurriedly used her body to block the door in front of her.

Calvin's face was darkened. He stood there without saying a word and clenched his fists tightly.

"Grand... Grandma, why are you guys here?" Judy's action of blocking the door was simply exposing herself. She let everyone know that something big was going on behind the door.

"What exactly is going on?" Karen questioned her granddaughter with a serious expression.

When Judy saw everyone staring at her, she seemed to realize that what she was doing was inappropriate. She quickly retracted her arm and said with a smile, "Grandma, what can happen? Calvin and I are just strolling around. It's getting late. Let me help you back and rest early."

Judy, I heard that scum Adam Howten came today? Did he me Elvira again? Those two adulterers are in there, right?" Lily questioned loudly with a look of disdain.

As soon as these words were spoken, there was an uproar. The alumni had also heard about the incident of Elvira having an affair with the teacher back then. It was said that later on, the male teacher identified Elvira as the one who seduced him first. He could not resist the temptation and started having an affair with her. At that time, the matter caused a lot of trouble. Later on, the male teacher was expelled, and Elvira was demerited.

Did this mean that the two of them had got back together again at the school's anniversary celebration?

"Ms. Watson! That's not it... Everyone, hurry up and disperse. My sister and Mr. Howten are not in there. Really! Judy's face Elvira and Adam were in

"In that case, that indecent girl Elvira is really in there! Move aside. I want to see how despicable she can be now!" Karen walked forward angrily.

Amber quickly advised, "Mom, forget it. There are so many people watching. If Elvira is embarrassed, the Willis family will be embarrassed too."

"Mom! Let's leave first. I'll teach my unfilial daughter a lesson after this!" Vincent also felt embarrassed. His hatred for his eldest daughter had reached its peak. He didn't care if she was despicable, but it was too much to disgrace the Willis family.

"You're too softhearted. Let me make it clear first. Elvira has already cut ties with the Willis family! She can only represent herself/If she is disgraced, she will be on her own. I want to see how loose this slut is! Open the door!" Karen roared. She had repeatedly given Elvira a chance to turn over a new leaf, but unfortunately, she did not seize it once. Instead, she did shameless things again and again, disappointing Karen to the core.

Today, Karen wanted everyone to see how shameless Elvira was. As the head of the Willis family, she made the right decision to chase Elvira out of the family.

"Grandma!" Judy stomped her feet anxiously.

"Open the door now! I also want to see how slutty Elvira is!" Calvin's eyes were red. The sound in the room was getting louder and louder. It kept ringing non-stop. It was crazily getting to him and driving him crazy.

Calvin's sudden outburst shocked everyone present. Everyone looked at him. The alumni behind him were whispering and looking forward to what they would see. After all, they had not seen the scandal seven years ago with their own eyes. They were actually able to see it with their own eyes today. This made them quite excited.

Many people took out their phones and prepared to take photos.

Elvira was beautiful and had an excellent figure. If they could take a photo of her in bed, it would be a shocking thing.

When Lily saw this, she took out the universal room card in her hand and rushed over to open the door. Judy rushed over and pressed down on Lily's hand, begging her, "Ms. Watson, I'm begging you. Please leave my sister some prestige. If you the door like this, she won't be able to conduct herself."

"Judy, you're too kind. Since she dared to do it, she has to bear the consequences! You'd better move aside. The school has to give the public an explanation for this matter!" After Lily finished speaking, she passed the room card on the lock. With a beep, the lock opened. Everyone widened their eyes. Those behind even stood on their up toes and craned their necks to look inside.

The moment the door was opened, an ecstatic moan was heard, causing goosebumps to the people present. Everyone's eyes were filled with excitement. With the push of the people behind, the people in front rushed into the room at once, followed by the people behind. For a moment, half the room was filled with people.

Elvira despised him for shouting too loudly. She grabbed the rag on the bed and stuffed it into his mouth. This time, Adami could only grunt.

Everyone was dumbfounded and looked at this scene in horror. The alumni looked at each other, completely unaware of what was going on.

Didn't people say that Elvira and Mr. Howten were having an affair? Why did they only see Elvira beating Mr. Howten up one-sidedly after entering?

Elvin also looked at this scene in shock. The monstrous anger in his heart was extinguished. He saw that Elvira was about to kill Adam and immediately came over to stop her from continuing to beat him.

When Elvira saw someone approaching, she swung the stick in her hand at the other party to prevent him from approaching.

"Calvin, what are you doing?" Elvira looked at him warily and gloomily.

She looked so aloof and did not have the slightest bit of love from before. The contrast was too great. Calvin was stunned for a moment and forgot that he was there to stop Elvira.

After Judy's shock, she was furious. She could not believe that Adam did not manage to stop Elvira. Didn't he say that he had been practicing mixed martial arts all these years? Didn't he say that he had already prepared a knockout drug that was enough to knock Elvira down? Didn't he say that it would definitely be foolproof? Why was he beaten up like this by Elvira?

Judy's legs went limp and she almost fell. Amber immediately came over to support his daughter. The mother and daughter looked at each other. Amber looked at Elvira and said, "Elvira, what are you doing? How can you hit him like this? You're going to kill him if you do this. You'll be sentenced to death!"

"I would never hit anyone, but he's just an animal. He's a beast! Elvira's stick struck Adam's body again. He was in so much pain that his eyes bulged out and he could only whimper.

Everyone was frightened by this bloody scene and retreated. Karen looked at her ruthless granddaughter with a darkened gaze. Vincent was so shocked that his mouth was agape. He could not believe that his former obedient daughter would be so violent.

"Elvira, why aren't you stopping yet? Are you trying to kill him? Call the police, call the police immediately. She's up for murder!" Lily shouted angrily.

"Watson, please shut up! You're too noisy!" Elvira stared sharply at the woman who was kicking up a fuss there as she waved the stick in her hand unhappily.

Lily was stunned for a moment before scolding. "Elvira, you're just some scum who doesn't know how to respect your teachers! How dare you call me by my name?"

"Why can't I! You're just a black sheep in the teacher's team. Watson, do you think that no one knows about the dirty things you've done? Then I can tell you today that you should cherish the last days when you're respected by your students because your dirty deeds will soon be made public! You'll be fired soon! Elvira's sharp eyes were filled with indifference and laziness, It actually made people not dare to not believe her words, You... Call the police, call the police, get the police to quickly arrest this murderer! Lily took out her phone to call the police.

Elvira was not in a hurry at all. Seeing that the man on the bed was breathing heavily from her beating, Elvira stopped and threw the stick in her hand at Adam.

She reached out and pulled the rag out of Adam's mouth before she raised her leg and kicked him under the bed.

Everyone was speechless.

They were all stunned at her violence.

After calling the police, Lily hurriedly said, "Hurry up and help Mr. Howten up."

When the two male alumni saw this, they helped Mr. Howten up. In fact, Adam only looked like he was seriously injured. Elvira did not really want to kill him. She only hit places that were painful but not fatal. Therefore, now that she had stopped, Adam would not die at all. "What a bastard. Look at what you've done!" Vincent glared at Elvira angrily. His gaze was filled with the desire to cut her into pieces.

Adam had been practicing martial arts all year round. Now that Elvira had stopped, his strength returned. He pointed at Elvira and scolded, "Elvira, you bitch, how dare you hit me!

As soon as he finished speaking, before Elvira could do anything everyone saw a figure rush over, grab the man's collar, and ruthlessly throw him out!

Adam's 176-pound body slammed into the window of the room like a rag. The glass shattered. When he fell, he spat out a large mouthful of blood. Countless glass shards pierced into his body, and everyone present trembled in fear.

Zach took the wet towel from the bodyguard in disdain and wiped his hands. He said gloomily, "Do you know how to speak properly now?"

When Elvira saw Zach's move just now, she knew that this guy was also a martial arts practitioner. Moreover, he was skilled. He could easily throw off a man about 176 pounds. Just this strength alone was something she could not compare to.

Only now did Elvira realize how gentle he had been to her. In the past, she always felt that he was rough in bed and was very strong to her.

How could Adam say anything now? Zach's throw made him suffer more than Elvira's ten minutes of beating him up. "Mr. Willis, is your memory muddled? I have nothing to do with the Willis family anymore. What does what I do have to do with you guys?" Elvira said gloomily. She did not even bother to look at Vincent.

Vincent was so as so angry that he could not speak. His chest heaved as he pointed at Elvir

"Elvira, don't tell me you think that after your act today, your previous seduction of Mr. Howten will be written off!" Lily stared at Elvira viciously. Now, she hated Elvira even more. She couldn't believe that Elvira would dare to use her profession to threaten her. She would definitely not allow that to happen.

Elvira looked at Lily indifferently and said, "This matter is the same as the bullying incident. I was wronged. Back then, I suffered such a huge injustice. Do you think you can write it off easily? Dream on!"

When the alumni heard Elvin's words, they were in an uproar again. Some of them had already begun to believe Elvira. After all, the truth of the bullying had been reversed. However, there were still some who felt that things were not that simple. Bullying and the scandal were different. People could prove their innocence when it came to bullying, but it was different when it came to a scandal. Who knew if Elvira was trying to take advantage of the situation to clear her name?

She Got A Better Man

You beat him up like this. He can't even speak. Do you want to force him to confess? Elvira, don't think that just because you found such an actor to act as the CEO of Gilbert Group and deceived the principal, you can hide the crimes you've committed. The two of you have severely injured him. When the police are here, you'll explain to them" Lily looked fearless and arrogant..

An alumnus suggested. "Ms. Watson, why don't we quickly call an ambulance?"

Adam's current situation could be said to be miserable. He lay the glass shards and twitched in pain. The broken glass pierced his entire body. It hurt no matter whether he moved or not. As he rolled, more glass shards pierced his flesh and blood flowed all over the ground.

Someone called an ambulance.

"Zach, don't blame Elvira for being too violent. This person is too despicable. He actually bullied her back then!" Judy was unwilling to let her plan fail just like that. She felt that she had to do something, so she instigated the relationship between Elvira and Zach." Zach glanced at her strangely. He grabbed Elvira's hand and brought it to his lips. He blew on it gently and said, "Of course, I don't blame Elvira. It's just that her hand hurts from hitting such a scumbag. My heart aches for her." Everyone was speechless.

They could not believe their ears. Adam was about to be beaten to death by Elvira, and Zach even gave him a final critical it, but he actually felt sorry for the person who hit Adam.

Everyone mourned for Adam for a minute.

Judy was even more speechless. She felt that Zach was simply crazy. She continued. "Elvira, since you said that you were wronged, you must have evidence. Hurry up and show us. Don't let everyone misunderstand you again." Judy spoke with sincerity as if she really hoped that Elvira would quickly clear her name, so she worked hard to act as a good, sister.

Elvira glanced at her indifferently and said with a smile, "Since I dare to say that I'm innocent, I naturally have evidence! Otherwise, do you really think I'm not prepared to let you continue to frame me?"

Judy's face turned pale. She forced a smile and said, "Elvira, if you have evidence, show it to us now. Don't keep us in suspense.

"Do you really want me to hand over the evidence?" Elvira smiled as she looked at Judy whose expression had changed.

"Elvira, what do you mean? Your sister has already said it. Hurry up and show us the evidence. However, how can you explain the deal between you and Mr. Howten? Only you and he are involved. Mr. Howten said that you seduced him, but you said that you didn't seduce him. How can you explain it clearly?" Amber felt extremely disgusted by Elvira's aggressive attitude toward her daughter, She couldn't help but stand up for her daughter.

"Elvira, stop embarrassing yourself! Hurry up and go home. If you continue to cause trouble, our Willis family will be humiliated by you!" Karen said angrily. She looked at Elvira with dissatisfaction.

This old lady doesn't seem to have a good memory. I have nothing to do with the Willis family anymore. It doesn't matter to the Willis family whether I'm disgraced or not, right? Take him to the main hall. Everyone should be there. Today, I'll let everyone see the truth of what happened back then!" Elvira said gloomily and held Zach's arm as they walked out.

The room was filled with people. With Zach's bodyguards paving the way, he and Elvira left the room unimpeded and headed for the main hall

The bodyguards walked in front of Adlan and each of them grabbed one of his feet to drag him out. The glass shards that had already pierced into his flesh instantly pierced deeper. He was dragged out of the room just like that, leaving a dark red blood mark on the ground. It looked especially terrifying.

Adam cried out in pain like a pig being slaughtered, scaring everyone present. His cry sounded too terrifying

Because Adam was too miserable, some people began to sympathize with him. Everyone was willing to sympathize with the weak, not to mention that Adam could only be described as tragic.

When he was dragged to the main hall, Adam had already faint. The bodyguards went forward and took out a syringe to inject him. Adam woke up. He felt his strength return and immediately scolded, "Elvira, you..."

The rest of his words were stuck in his throat because he saw a pair of gloomy and sharp eyes like those of a wild beast. He was so frightened that he shivered. He thought of the feeling of death when he was easily lifted up and thrown out by the man just now. The man was a devil. "Sir, it's not that I want to scold Elvira, but Elvira is not worthy of you at all! Back then, she seduced me at a young age! I don't know how many men she's been with over the years!" As Adam regained his strength, he immediately slandered Elvira

"Adam. I'm going to kill you!" A shrill cry sounded. Someone pounced on Adam, and everyone retreated in shock.

When everyone saw what was going on, they saw a woman pounce on Adam and bite his ear, forcefully tearing it off. look. The

The scene was too bloody. Many women were so frightened that they turned their eyes away and did not dare others were also frightened by this bloody and terrifying scene and took a few steps back.

Everyone focused their eyes and saw that the woman spat out half of Adam's ear and bit him again.

Seeing this, the bodyguards came over and wanted to pull the woman away, but she refused to let go at all. Her eyes were filled with hatred and she wished she could cut Adam into pieces.

The entire banquet hall was filled with Adam's screams. He kept pushing the woman in front of him, but he could not push her away no matter how hard he tried. In the end, another piece of flesh was torn off from him by the woman.

This shocking scene made everyone terrified. Everyone looked at this woman who was almost crazy and were all extremely shocked. They were all very curious about what kind of deep hatred this woman had with Adam that as a very thin and weak woman, she would forcefully tear two pieces of flesh off him when she saw Adam.

Zach gently hugged Elvira. The couple watched all of this indifferently. There was only gloom in their eyes because those who knew the inside story could not help but hate scum like Adam.

Judy was also frightened. She hid behind Calvin and trembled and glanced at her mother nervously.

Amber was also shocked. As she looked at her daughter's frightened expression, her motherly love reached its peak. She knew that she could not let Elvira take the lead at this time, so she stood up and questioned, "Elvira, what are you doing? Did you bring Mr. Howten here just to let us see this without rhyme or reason? Could this be the evidence you mentioned that proves that you did not seduce him back then?"

"Nonsense, this is simply nonsense. Elvira, have you used up all the money you have on you to hire actors? Do you still have the money to pay the Willis family back for raising you? Do you think you have the ability to leave the Willis family?" Karen had been religious in recent years. When she saw this bloody scene, she was so frightened that her heart pounded. She looked angrily at Elvira, who looked calm.

"Adam Howten, you killed my daughter! Give me back my daughter's life!" The woman's shrill cry resounded throughout the entire banquet hall. Everyone listened to this ghostly cry and looked at the thin woman with a mouth full of blood. For some reason, not only were they not afraid, they even felt a lump in their throats and wanted to cry.

She Got A Better Man 110

The woman was like a lunatic/Her face was covered in tears and here was blood beside her mouth. She cried and laughed as she pointed at Adam and shouted, "You're worse than a beast! You killed my daughter. A beast like you should go to hell!" "Madam, you said that Mr. Howten killed your daughter. What exactly happened?" a female alumnus asked while suppressing her fear.

"My daughter, Renee, used to be his student. She was only in her teens, but you raped her! He even threatened my daughter to kill us if she dared to tell anyone. My silly child. She didn't dare... didn't dare to tell it to others. In the end, she was forced to drop out of school due to depression and committed suicide. I only knew what had happened after reading my daughter's diary. I'm not a good mother! Renee, I'm sorry. Renee, come back to me. I miss you. The woman's shrill cry resounded throughout the entire banquet hall. "You're talking nonsense. You're slandering me! Did Elvira ask for your help? How much money did she give you to slander me? Let me tell you... Don't even think about slandering me!" Adam's entire body was trembling in pain. Zach had gotten his men to drug him, so he could only endure it and not faint.

"Renee, Renee, my daughter. Have you seen my daughter? She's very obedient and sensible. She loves me very much... very much. I can't find her, I can't find her." The woman's mind was clearly not very clear. The blow of losing her daughter was too great for her. It was a pain that a mother could not bear.

She suddenly collapsed to the ground. The surrounding women hurriedly went over to support her when they saw this. They all looked at this woman who was almost crazy with worry. However, after hearing about her encounter, no one was afraid of her anymore. They only felt that she was too pitiful.

Adam looked at the woman's crazy appearance and questioned angrily, "Look, she's a lunatic. Can you believe the words of a lunatic?"

"She's crazy, but I'm not. Adam, don't tell me you don't even recognize me." A well-dressed woman walked out with monstrous hatred on her face.

"Gina! What are you doing here?" Adam's eyes showed some guilt and anger.

"I'm here to identify you as a despicable criminal! If I don't stand up, I don't know how many girls will be harmed by you!" Gina Gordon glared at the man in front of her with red eyes. The hatred in her eyes was so strong that it almost materialized. "Gina, we used to be husband and wife after all. You promised me not to say anything!" Agitated, Adam pointed at the woman opposite him angrily.

"Back then, in order to divorce you, I didn't want to cause any more harm to my daughter. I only wanted to leave you as soon as possible. I regret it now! Because my tolerance has caused you to hurt more girls! Today, it was my daughter who encouraged me to expose your true colors!" Gina clenched her fists in anger. Thinking of her daughter who still had nightmares, she hated that beast to death.

Someone beside her asked, "What's going on? Madam, tell us clearly!"

"Gina, shut up. If you dare to spout nonsense, I'll kill your entire family!" Adam threatened fiercely.

"You're the one who should shut up!" The bodyguards slapped Adam's face, knocking out two of his teeth. The blood at the corner of his mouth never stopped running out, looking very terrifying.

"Im Adam's ex-wife. Back then, I was divorced and married him with my eight-year-old daughter! I thought that he was a teacher, so I was relieved to let him take care of my daughter. Who knew that I was the one who personally pushed my daughter into the abyss? At that time, I was only a saleswoman. When I was busy, I had to work for fifteen to sixteen hours a day. Adam had plenty of spare time since he was a teacher, so I let him take care of my daughter..." Gina almost could not continue. The people who heard this were also shocked. They looked at Adam in disbelief. Could it be that this scumbag would not even let go of his young stepdaughter?

Sat NOW!

Gins closed her eyes it pain When she opened them again, she continued, "It was already a year later when I found out! During that period, my girl became especially quiet. Every night she had nightmares, As long as I wanted to go to work and let her stay with her father, she would cry loudly. In the beginning. I even thought that she was too willful and scolded her! I personally handed her over to the devill I should diel

As Gina spoke, she suddenly raised her hand and slapped herself twice as she fell into a painful memory.

"Later, I realized the truth when I saw that there was blood on my daughter's underwear! I wanted to call the police at that time, but Adam threatened me with my daughter. Later, I cowardly chose to get a divorce! My daughter was the one whot instructed me to stand here today, I didn't want to mention this kind of thing again, but my daughter is braver than me. She wants me to expose this beast's true colors! My daughter said that if she was needed, she would testify in court! Adam, you're a beast!" Gina glared at the man covered in blood in the distance with red eyes.

The banquet hall was in an uproar. The crowd was furious and shouted that they would beat Adam to death. The people who came to the venue were all knowledgeable people, and they hated this kind of thing even more.

Moreover, such a person had actually been a teacher. If he had not been expelled back then, who knew how many more female students would have been persecuted by him?

Judy watched as everyone began to curse Adam. She wished she could rush out and beat him to death. She was so frightened that she took a step back. If everyone knew that she had asked Adam to show up today, she would probably be scolded along with him. Just thinking about it made her break out in a cold sweat.

"Judy, what's going on with you?" Calvin also despised Adam for being a pedophile and wretched beast. He was so angry that he clenched his fists. Judy leaned toward him. He felt her trembling and held her worriedly.

Calvin, I suddenly feel a little dizzy. Can you help me leave? I don't want to stay here anymore." Judy looked at him with a pale face.

"You must have been frightened. Don't be afraid. This kind of scum should be scolded by others! Let's wait and see the results before leaving." Calvin looked at Elvira with a complicated gaze. He wanted to wait for the results.

The bodyguards gestured for everyone to be quiet. A few more girls stood up and pointed out that they had been harassed by Adam when they were in school. At that time, they were also indescribably miserable. A few of them had suffered depression because of this, and they still had to receive regular treatment. "Howten, do you still insist that I seduced you back then?" Elvira questioned Adam gloomily. Her eyes were filled with disdain and disgust.

Adam looked at these faces that he could not even remember. He gritted his teeth and said, "No. You were the one who seduced me back then! Why couldn't you seduce me since you wanted to get the answer to the exam from me? Even if I harassed them before, you were the one who seduced me!"

Adam looked like he feared nothing since he was doomed. He even smiled. Coupled with his missing half ear and his mouth full of blood, it only made people feel extremely disgusted.
