Elvira looked at that beast with a livid expression. She did not get that things had already reached this point, but he still insisted that it was her doing. It seemed that even if she could seek justice for these girls who had been hurt by him, it would be difficult for her to seek justice.

No matter what, those girls who had been harmed by Adam could finally get the justice they deserved. Although Elvira had also been harmed by him, at least she could still live well. Compared to Renee, who had lost her life, and the girls who had been tortured by nightmares, she was considered lucky.

Judy did not expect there to be an unexpected surprise. Adam actually refused to let go of Elvira. This way, Judy was relieved. So what if Adam was a scumbag? As long as he did not admit that Elvira did not seduce him, the stain on Elvira would not be cleared. Calvin also frowned as he looked at Elvira.

Amber was overjoyed. She thought that she was at the end of her rope today. She did not expect that there would be a glimmer of hope in the end.

Karen and Vincent looked disgusted. They still felt that Elvira was embarrassing-

Someone grabbed Elvira's hand. Elvira turned to look at the man beside her. The smile on her lips was a little bitter. Zach held her hand even tighter and said. "I'm here!"

What he said was simple, but it was filled with power when Elvira heard it. She felt that her desperate heart was filled with hope again.

"I'm sorry, everyone, I'm late! But it's not too late. I'm right in time. The school just settled an old matter about bullying and cleared Elvira's name! Today, I brought some witnesses to testify for Elvira about Adam Howten slandering her for seducing him."

The principal walked in with a few students. These students were all Adam's students back then. Some were classmates from Elvira's class, and some were from the class next door. Those few faces were familiar.

When everyone heard that the principal had directly labeled the seduction incident back then as slander, they looked over at him.

"Sir, what's going on? Hurry up and explain!" A senior couldn't stand it anymore. She felt that Elvira must have been wronged, but if Elvira couldn't prove her innocence, wouldn't she have to carry this stain for the rest of her life? This was very harmful to women. That senior thought that if it happened to her, she wouldn't be able to take it.

"These are the students who perjured Adam back then. They are now willing to tell the truth and clear Elvira's name." The principal walked to the side and gestured for the female students to speak.

"Back then, I was forced by Adam Howten to perjure him. Elvira never took the initiative to seduce Mr. Howten. Back then, I said that when I saw Elvira, she took the initiative to go to Mr. Howten. In fact, it was him who took the initiative to go to Elvira, He threatened that if I didn't do as he said, he wouldn't let me continue being the class monitor and wouldn't let me graduate. I could only listen to him and slander Elvira."

The same happened to. At that time, he... harassed me too. He said that as long as I identified Elvira, he would let me go. I could only agree. My family is poor and I'm afraid that I wouldn't be able to graduate. Elvira, I'm sorry!!

"I was also threatened by Mr. Howten. I'm sorry, Elvira."

"Me too..."

The girls all accused Adam of coercing them into slandering Elya. They were all very ashamed now and kept apologizing to Elvira.

Adam naturally recognized these people. He questioned angrily Just because you said so? That's not what you said back then! Can one believe empty words?" Adam watched as Elvira's reputation was cleared. He questioned those people angrily. He was kicked to the ground by the bodyguards and rolled around in pain.

"I have evidence. I recorded it" A girl took out an old phone and pressed it. The conversation between Adam and her back then could be heard.

"Mr. Howten, please let me go. I just want to focus on my studie. My family favors boys over girls. If anything bad happens to me, my parents won't support me in school anymore. I beg your

"If you want me to let you go, sure. In a few days, help me identity Elvira as the one who seduced me. Just say that you saw her hug me from behind and I'll let you go. Otherwise..."
"Alright, alright. I promise you, Mr. Howten. As long as you don't go to my parents, I'll listen to whatever you ask me to do."

After that was the sound of a girl crying.

Although only one witness had a recording, it was enough to prove Elvira's innocence. It proved that this was all a show directed by Adam and he was the one who slandered Elvira, Elvira was the same as the other girls who had been harmed by Adam.

The moment the truth was revealed, Elvira was finally relieved. It had been seven years. She had finally cleared the two stains of her student days and let everyone know that she had been wronged. Adam pointed at the women who had come out to testify for Elvira. He could no longer say anything.

Judy knew that this plan had completely failed. She originally thought that she could use the opportunity of the Internet's development to make Elvira's reputation spread throughout the country. Unexpectedly, Elvira successfully cleared her name.

Judy felt that all her strength had been sucked out of her body. She fell into Calvin's arms. Amber looked at her daughter worriedly and quickly came over to support her. She used her eyes to tell Judy to stay calm.

Calvin's hand caught Judy. His eyes were still on Elvira as he looked at her with guilt. It turned out that Elvira had never lied. She was really wronged, but he had never believed her.

The principal announced, "In view of Adam Howten's terrible behavior, even if what he did was a few years ago, the school has already called the police on behalf of the victims. The police will investigate the whole story and give the victims justice.

a They will bring the perpetrator to justice. We will also make a statement to admit that we handled it too rashly and made mistake back then. We wronged our student and made her suffer for seven years. We will give Elvira justice!"

As soon as the principal finished speaking, everyone applauded and cheered.

When Elvira turned to look at Zach, her eyes were red. Zach raised his hand and touched her head. He said gently. "I've said. it before. With me around, I won't let you suffer any grievances.

Zach, thank you!" Elvira was touched and hugged him. She felt extremely touched,

Calvin looked at Elvira hugging another man and subconsciously wanted to go over and snatch her back. Judy snorted softly. "Calvin, I'm so dizzy. Can you send me home?"

"Judy, why do you look so pale? Calvin, let's bring Judy to the hospital quickly. There's no point in staying here," Karen. looked at Elvira gloomily. There was no warmth in her eyes.

Chapter III

"Yes, yes, let's hurry home; Amber urged Calvin. Since things had already come to this, she did not want any more trouble.

Calvin had no choice but to support Judy and leave.

He looked at Elvira from time to time, hoping that she would look at him. Unfortunately, Elvira did not even look over. She was entirely focused on Zach.

At this critical moment, Zach used all his strength to pull Marship. At the same time, he hugged Elvira and brought her down the building.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Three bullets hit the spot where Elvira was just now. Marsh was so frightened that he covered his head and shouted. He was so terrified that he sat on the floor. Looking at his sister and brother-in-law who had fallen down the building, he was seared out of his wits. He reacted and crawled away from the edge of the roof.

Zach fell from the seventh floor with Elvira in his arms. As he fell he tried his best to turn around so that Elvira was in his arms. He hoped that when they fell to the ground, he could reduce the impact on her Elvira desperately tried to push him away. She did not want him to risk his life to save her. Zach's grip on her was like steel bars. She could not break free at all.

Fortunately, Spike and Samson reacted quickly. The air cushion had already been set up downstairs, Zach and Elvira finally fell onto the air cushion. Even so, Zach fainted because of the impact. Elvira quickly got up and looked at Zach, who was unconscious. She called his name anxiously, Zach, wake up. Don't scare me Zach! I beg you to wake up! Help! Get the doctor here!"

"Elvira, don't worry. Zach should have just fainted. He will be fine." Samson and the bodyguards rushed forward and helped Elvira up. They carried Zach into the car and prepared to send him to the hospital.

Spike, on the other hand, went after the sniper.

Elvira looked at Zach with his eyes tightly closed and his hands covered in blood. Her heart ached terribly.

Upstairs, Marsh was so scared that he kept crying. When the bodyguards found him, he was so scared that his legs went limp. He cried and said, "Where's my sister? Did she fall to her death?"

"Mrs. Gilbert isn't dead! The bodyguards tried to persuade him as they pulled him downstairs.

your You're lying! It's impossible for one to survive such a high fall! You're lying. Elvira Boohoo... I caused death!" Marsh cried until he was out of breath. He was tall and heavy. His legs were so weak that even the bodyguards could not move him when he could not walk "Mrs. Gilbert is really not dead! Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert fell onto the air cushion. They're going to the hospital now," the bodyguards explained helplessly.

Marsh stopped crying and looked at the bodyguards suspiciously, "Are you serious? My sister and brother-in-law really didn't fall to their deaths?"

"It's true. Why would I lie to you? Hurry up and go to the hospital" The bodyguards pulled him away and brought him. downstairs.

In the car, Zach was already awake. He looked at the woman who was hugging him and crying. He raised his hand to help her wipe her tears, but his hand was covered in blood.

"Zach, are you feeling unwell? Tell me. It's all because of me that you're hurt like this. Elvira's heart ached terribly. Zach had risked his life to save Marsh for Elvira. If Marsh was not her biological younger brother, why would Zach risk his life to save him? He even risked his life to save her. Elvira was really touched.

"You're my wife. It's my duty to save you. I'm fine. Don't cry. If you cry, my heart will ache, Zach could not help but cough twice. He had suffered internal injuries when he fell, but it should not be serious.

"Alright, I won't cry anymore. Stop talking. We'll soon reach the hospital Elvira quickly wiped away the tears on her face and hugged him even tighter.

Zach went through a series of examinations. Other than the injury on his hand, Zach also had slight internal injuries. It was not serious. The doctor recommended that he be hospitalized for three days.

She Got A Better Man

When Marsh arrived at the hospital, Zach's hand was already bablaged and he was receiving an IV. His handsome face was a little pale as he leaned against the bed. Elvira was helping him with some soup. Marsh rushed to Elvira and cried. "Elviral"

Elvira had mixed feelings when she heard this. Ever since Mars was brought by Amber, this was the first time he had sincerely called Elvira.

"It was your brother-in-law who saved your life. His hand was worn out trying to save you!" Elvira looked at her disappointing brother with red eyes.

Marsh knelt to Zach. "Zach, thank you for saving my life! I will definitely repay you in the future. I will support you in your old age!"

Zach was speechless.

Elvira did not know how to react when she saw her brother's funny expression. She turned to look at Zach with a pained expression. "Hubby, what do you plan to do with him?" "Hurry up and get up! I don't need you to take care of me in my old age!" Zach glared at this brat. Now, it seemed that Marsh was not had to the core. There was hope in him.

Marsh stood up obediently. He looked nervously at his sister. Then, he lowered his head and did not dare to speak.

"Elvira, if you trust me, send him to a place where he might be saved, Zach suggested to Elvira after pondering for a few seconds.

"Of course, you can send him anywhere you want!" Elvira naturally trusted Zach.

"Marsh, what do you think? Do you want to stay in the Willis family and be a piece of trash, or do you want to start over in a brand new place? Zach looked at Marsh.

After what happened today, Marsh finally understood that Elvis was the only one in this world who truly cared about him and was willing to risk her life to save him. He was also tired of seeing the hypocrisy of the others. "Ill listen to you two."

Zach saw that Marsh's attitude had changed so quickly. He started to like his brother-in-law a little. At least Marsh knew what was good for him and was not led too badly by the Willis family

"Alright, you'll leave tonight. Just listen to Spike's arrangements, Zach instructed.

"To... Tonight? So soon?" Marsh widened his eyes and looked at his sister nervously.

Elvira also felt that it was a little fast, but when she thought about how her brother had been controlled by the Willis family over the years, she felt that Zach was right. She had to send Marsh away quickly so that the Willis family would not be able to keep him after getting the news.

"So soon? You'll leave tonight. Listen to your brother-in-law. He won't harm you." Elvira took Zach's side.

Marsh lowered his head. "Alright.

1. t. When can I come back?"

"It depends on your performance. Tell Spike to send him away. Zach did as he said. He instructed the bodyguards to bring Marsh to Spike.

The bodyguard immediately went to do it and left with Marsh,

After her brother left, Elvira felt a little uneasy. She stood up and said. "I'll see him off."

"Go ahead. I'll give you ten minutes. Zach was not willing to let Elvira out of his sight at all. What happened just now left him with a lingering fear. He had not received any concrete news yet. Were those people after him or Elvira today?

"It won't take that long. I'll just give him some advice. Elvira smiled and turned to go to Marsh.

Marsh was looking back at the ward. When he saw Elvira coming out, he immediately turned around and rushed back to hug her.

Elvira was stunned for a moment. Ever since Marsh was taken away by Amber, he had never been so intimate with her.

Elvira thought of the difficult days when Marsh was still a baby. The siblings relied on each other for survival. She gently stroked his head. "Don't be afraid. Zach is a very nice person. The place he sent you to must be good to you. When you go there, you'll learn whatever they ask you to learn and do what they ask you to do. Do you understand?"

"Elvira, I'm sorry," Marsh cried and apologized to Elvira.

Elvira also felt extremely sad. Only now did she remember that no matter how unreasonable he was, he was still a ten-year-old child. However, in order to prevent the Willis family from harming him again, she could only push him away and say. "Go! I'll visit you when I'm free."

Marsh nodded and left without hesitation. This time, he did not look back.

Elvira watched as her younger brother left. Her mind was filled with the image of her younger brother as a baby. At that time he liked to smile at her. When he saw her, he smiled especially happily.

Elvira returned to the ward and continued to help Zach with the remaining soup. Zach asked her to have some as well since neither of them ate much at night

Elvira obediently had some.

After Zach was done with the IV drip, Elvira helped him wipe his hands and feet. After washing up, she lay on the bed and slept with him.

Zach pulled her into his arms and kissed her again and again. In the end, he kissed her more passionately until he lost control. Elvira had no choice but to push him away. She panted and said, "You're injured now. You can't move around." *Elvira, you know that I miss you..." Zach purposely nudged her so that she could feel his desire for her.

"Lie down!" Elvira pushed him to lie down and burrowed under the blanket. Zach felt the woman's softness. It was so comfortable that all the pores on his body seemed to have opened up.

In the middle of the night, two old incidents about Vilzell University had already gone viral. Now that the media had developed, the incident of the university maligning Elvira for bullying and seducing a teacher had already become a trending topic. outh of the

The next day, the official Twitter account of Vilzell University released an apology announcement to restore the truth matter.

The entire internet was in an uproar. Back then, these two incidents were actually quite sensational. However, at that time, the media wasn't advanced, and the school authorities deliberately suppressed the incidents. Soon, people forgot about them..

At that time, many people had scolded Elvira.

Seven years later, the imideqt ushered in a huge reversal, which made everyone sigh. If the truth hadn't been restored today, wouldn't the student who had been wronged and expelled back then have to carry this stain for the rest of her life?

At the same time, Vilzell University also issued a statement that amount involved was very large and she had been handed over ly had privately accepted bribes from students. The the police for expulsion

When people found out that Lily had been expelled, her students were the happiest. Those students who had been wronged by her in the past left comments of cheers on the university's official Twitter account.

Judy had been browsing the news and comments online. She watched as Elvira, who had been suppressed by rumors for seven years, suddenly made a comeback. She was so angry that she smashed her phone.

She thought that she was the one who was supposed to make a comeback. In the end, Elvira stole her limelight.

Amber walked in and picked up the phone on the floor. She looked at her daughter with heartache and advised, "Don't go online for the time being, lest you feel upset checking the news. Even if she's made a comeback, so what? She's married to a poor person, so what can she achieve? The most important thing now is that you have to win Calvin's heart. I think Calvin seemed to regret it yesterday."

Smack! Judy broke a bottle of perfume and roared angrily, "Can you shut up?"

She Got A Better Man

"Alright, alright, alright, I'll shut up. Don't be so angry. It's not worth it. No matter what, how can Elvira escape from us? Is Marsh still under our control? You don't have to worry at all, Amber advised her daughter.

Judy's mood did not improve. Her phone rang. It was a call from Lily. Judy immediately hung up and blocked her number. That old woman was no longer of any use to her, so she would ignore her. Amber's phone also rang. It was a call from the school. After she picked up the call, the other party said something. She frowned and asked, "Have you looked for him in the dormitory? Isn't he playing games in his room?"

The teacher suggested anxiously, "Ma'am, we've already looked for him there. Marsh is really missing. His classmates also said that they didn't see him return to the dormitory yesterday. Why don't you call the police and quickly look for him?" "Alright. Got it. I'll send my family to look for him now. If we can find him, we will call the police."

"What's wrong? What did that little bastard do this time? When Judy mentioned Marsh, her eyes were filled with disdain.

"He's missing. I have to go look for him!" Amber was worried. She felt that things were getting out of her control. This made her feel very uneasy.

Where else can he go? He might have gone to some arcade to play, right? He will come back when he runs out of money." Judy replied irritably.

"Judy, you should go look for Calvin. It's more important to hold on to him. I'll go look for that little bastard first. After all, Ire's still very useful to us. Amber got up and went to look for Marsh.

Amber did not find Marsh. She had searched all the places he could normally go to, but she could not find him. It was as if Marsh had disappeared from the face of the earth.

Marsh was the Willis family's eldest grandson after all, so Amber did not dare to hide the matter from Karen and Vincent. Vincent immediately called Elvira.

Elvira was helping Zach with his breakfast. When she saw a strange number calling, she picked it up.

"Elvira, where did you hide your brother? Vincent questioned his daughter angrily.

"Didn't Marsh always stay in the Willis family? He's already not young any more, so how can I hide him? Vincent, what do you mean by this? Did you lose Marsh? What exactly happened? Tell me clearly!" Elvira would never admit that she and Zach had sent Marsh away. "You really haven't seen Marsh?" Vincent was a little confused. He felt that Elvira did not have the ability to take a living person away.

"Marsh is really missing? Vincent, what are you doing as a father? Let me tell you, if you can't find Marsh, I won't let you Elvira roared angrily.

off!

Vincent was speechless.

He ended the call with a smack.

"It's not Elvira, She's not that capable. It's better to call the police and look for him, Vincent said and went to look for his son. After all, Marsh was his biological son. Vincent could not ignore him. Amber was also puzzled. Could it really not be Elvira who did it

Where did that little bastard Marsh go?

Zach had an injury on his hand and had to keep it away from water for a long time. Therefore, Elvira took care of him personally.

Elvira wiped Zach's hands and face and personally helped him shave. She was only satisfied after she took nice care of him.

"Elvira, I need to go to the washroom."

"Let me help you over." Elvira helped Zach to the toilet.

She helped him take off his pants and was about to leave, but Zach quickly stopped her and said, "You have to help me hold it. I couldn't hold it just now, and I got the pee everywhere," Elvira was speechless, Zach purposely approached her and said flirtatiously, "Baby, you've already seen it. Why are you still shy?"

Elvira's face instantly turned red. She glared at him fiercely. "If you say that again, I won't do it again!" "Honey, I was wrong. I want you to try it..." Zach hugged her and did not let her leave.

Elvira had no choice but to help him with peeing.

Spike and Samson came to Zach to discuss something. Elvira said that she had something on and asked them to take care of Zach first. She would be back in about an hour and a half. Zach did not want Elvira to leave. He suppressed his desire for her and let her go

He didn't want to put pressure on her.

"Zach, the acquisition of the hospital is done. The procedures are all here. It's a medium-sized hospital. Take a look." Samson was quite efficient. After all, it was easy to do things with money. As long as one had the money, buying a hospital could be done right away. "Put it aside. How's the investigation going?" Zach was more concerned about what happened yesterday.

"The assassins yesterday were very cunning. We did not manage to catch them. However, don't worry, Zach. I have already sent more people to protect Elvira. I will definitely ensure her safety, Spike said in embarrassment.

Zach did not blame him. If those people were really top international assassins, it would not be easy to find their whereabouts. Now, it seemed that Zach and the others could only send more people.

He guessed that it was probably the Gilbert family who did it just to see how much Elvira mattered to Zach.

If that was the case, they had probably already discovered his weakness.

His greatest weakness now was Elvira.

Elvira returned to the Willis family's place.

She had brought her bodyguards over. Ever since Karen was threatened by Elvira's bodyguards, she had hired many more bodyguards. Hence, the number of people on both sides was comparable today. After Elvira came in with a baseball bat, she started smashing the things in the Willis family's place. The bodyguards from.

both sides also fell into a chaotic battle. Soon, the villa was in a mess.

Karen, Judy, and Amber went downstairs and were dumbfounded by the scene. They could not believe that Elvira was so arrogant now, who actually dared to bring people to attack their place.

"Elvira, stop!" Amber looked at the mess in the house. The expensive porcelain was stashed. Her heart ached Elvira raised the baseball bat in her hand and smashed the large porcelain vase in the Willis family's villa. The sound of the porcelain shattering was very ear-piercing.

"Judy, Amber, you know very well what the two of you have done. Yesterday, you almost killed my husband and me. Do you think this matter will be over so easily?" Elvira looked gloomily at the three women in the distance. Her eyes were filled with killing intent. "What are you talking about? Who almost killed you? Are you crazy?" Amber stomped her feet angrily.

"You know very well what I'm saying. Where is my brother? Where did you take him? If you don't hand him over today, I won't let you off?" Elvira felt that she had to put on a show. She could not let the Willis family know that she was the one who sent Marsh away. If that happened, there would be endless trouble in the future.

She Got A Better Man

"I don't know where Marsh went. He's not a three-year-old kid! How would we know where he went? Amber hated Elvira to the core. She wished she could go up and slap her to death, but he did not dare to do so since there were so many bodyguards around. "My brother has been living with the Willis family! Now that he's gone, you want to push the blame away by saying that you don't know? In short, if I can't see my brother today, I won't let you off. Elvira raised her hand and threw the bat stick at a potted plant at the side. Bang! Crackling sounds were heard again.

Karen couldn't stand it anymore and scolded, "Elvira! Don't go overboard! Didn't you say that you wanted to leave the Willis family? Since you've left us, why are you still here? Since you have nothing to do with the Willis family, Marsh has nothing to do with you!"

"You're right. I have nothing to do with the Willis family, but my brother will always be my brother. If anything happens to him, I swear that I'll make all of you suffer!" Elvira extended her hand to a bodyguard as he spoke.

The bodyguard immediately handed her a few stacks of cash, which was about 10 thousand dollars. Elvira threw the money to the floor and said, "This is my expenses for the past 20 years while I was raised by you. I've paid you back now. From now on. I'm even with the Willis family!"

Karen's face turned ashen when she saw the 10 thousand dollars. Meanwhile, Amber shouted, "Elvira, are you joking? Do you think your expenses of more than 20 years cost only 10 thousand dollars? Judy's dress costs even more than this!"

"Yes. That's the funny thing about the Willis family. A mistress' daughter's dress is worth so much! The Willis family is indeed disgusting. I don't want to take advantage of any of you here. What you spent on me was definitely less than 10 thousand dollars. Take the rest as my gift for you!" Elvira said gloomily.

Amber looked at her mother-in-law who had an unfriendly expression on her face. She suddenly realized that Elvira had indeed been living a frugal life these past few years. After all, how could Amber treat someone who wasn't her child well? She thought that it was nice enough of her to not kill Elvira since she wanted to make the most of Elvira after she grew up.

"Elvira, since you were wronged for what happened back then, don't throw a tantrum at your family anymore. We all know that we wronged you. It's better for you to come home. Judy pretended to be weak and persuaded her.

"I don't care anything about this family! I'm here today to end my relationship with the Willis family. Now that I've paid up, I have nothing to do with the Willis family anymore! As for my brother, if I find out that someone did something to him. I won't let them off! Let's go!" Elvira gave the order and the bodyguards left with her.

When Elvira came out, she bumped into Calvin, who had just come over. Calvin looked at her with a complicated expression and wanted to stop her, but he was stopped by the bodyguards..

"Elvira, I have something to tell you." Calvin looked at Elvira guiltily.

"I have nothing to say to you. My husband is a jealous man. He doesn't like me talking to other men alone." Elvira said and got into the car.

Calvin felt uncomfortable when he heard this. He shouted, "Elvira, do you really love that man? He's poor and loves to pretend. Can you really be happy with him?"

Elvira was speechless and thought that Calvin was just a lunatic.

She could not be bothered with Calvin anymore. She gestured for the driver to drive back to the hospital. She had to take care of Zach.

When Judy came out, she saw the change in Calvin clearly. She bit her lip and felt a chill in her heart. What did Calvin mean? Did he know that Elvira was wronged back then and now regretted int

"Calvin, Elvira just smashed everything in the house and paid us She said that she has nothing to do with the family anymore." Judy walked over and carefully held his hand.

Calvin came back to his senses and said with a frown, "Everyone wronged her back then and even caused her to not be able to attend university. We really owe her too much. It's normal for her to be angry. Let her vent her anger"

Judy could not believe what she was hearing. She thought that Elvira was just a shrew who had smashed up her entire house, and Calvin actually thought that she was right..

"I heard that Marsh is missing. What's going on?" Calvin had only come to see what was going on after receiving the news.

"We've already called the police. They're all looking for him, but there's no news." Judy pulled him into the villa.

The servants in the villa had already started cleaning. Karen and Amber were sitting on the sofa angrily. Amber vented her anger on the servants and kept scolding them.

Calvin frowned and continued to ask, "Didn't he go to the schools anniversary celebration yesterday? Why did he suddenl disappear?" He knew how much Elvira cared about her younger brother.

"That's right. He was still there yesterday. This morning, his teacher called and said that he was missing. We've searched everywhere but he was nowhere to be seen. Just now, Elvira came to question us. But Marsh is not a kid anymore and he usually stays on campus. How can we keep an eye on him all the time?" Judy complained.

"Elvira must be too anxious. After all, that's her biological brother. No matter how old Marsh is, he's still a child. I think not only are you not worried, but you also think that he's fooling around. Is it because he's not your biological brother?" How could Calvin not hear the complaint in Judy's words?

Judy was shocked. She could not believe that Calvin didn't take her side at all. Instead, he criticized her.

In order to win Calvin's heart, she did not dare to show her dissatisfaction. She only said, aggrieved, "Calvin, you're misjudging me. I usually see Marsh as my own brother. I'm surely worried since he's missing! It's just that he's usually quite mischievous. Perhaps he's deliberately hiding "Forget it, I'll go look for him." Calvin was not in the mood to listen to her now. He only wanted to find Marsh lest Elvira be too worried.

Judy looked at Calvin who did not care about her feelings at all. He came and went in a hurry all for Elvira. She was about to explode from anger as she wondered, 'It's all about Elvira!

"Now, all he cares about is Elvira. He simply doesn't care about me at all!

"Too bad, Elvira is already married to a poor man!"

On the way back to the hospital, Elvira bought some desserts from a bakery. When she rushed to the ward, the door was open.

Before she entered, she heard someone shouting. "Daddy, I finally found you!"

Elvira was baffled.

She was confused. Why was there a little girl in Zach's ward calling someone daddy?

She carefully confirmed that this was Zach's ward. She quickened her pace to see who had come to see him.

After entering the ward, she realized that there was only him and a little girl in the ward. The little girl was about four or five years old. After comparing the photos, the girl said. "That's right you're my daddy!"

"Don't call me that. I don't know you!" Zach looked at the little girl who looked similar to him with a darkened expression.

Elvira looked at this scene in shock. When Zach saw Elvira return, he became even more nervous and cleared his name. "I'm not your dad. You've got the wrong person!"

She Got A Better Man

"You're my daddy. This is your photo, right? Mommy told me that the person in the photo is my daddy! The little girl insisted on showing him the photo.

Zach was speechless as he looked at the little girl who randomly saw him as her father. He quickly looked at Elvira and explained, "Elvira, I really don't know who she is."

Elvira calmed herself down and walked in. "Honey, can you show the photo to me?"

The little girl turned around and looked at Elvira. When she saw Elvira, her eyes lit up. She immediately handed the photo to the pretty lady and said in a clear voice, "Pretty iness, here's the photol

When Elvira saw the little girl's appearance, her eyes widened in shock. She looked at Zach in disbelief and then at the little girl in front of her before she looked at Zach again, wondering, What... Their faces look at least 70% similar! I'd not believe that they are not father and daughter...

Zach had also discovered this problem, which was why he was a little confused. However, he swore that he really did not have any children.

"Elvira, I don't know why she looks so much like me... I really don't have any children!" Zach quickly explained.

You're my daddy. That's why we look so alike, the little girl explained seriously.

Elvira looked at the photo that the little girl had given her. The person in it was undoubtedly Zach. Her expression changed. She supposed no one would be calm when they saw their husband suddenly have a bastard child.

"Don't talk nonsense! I'm not your daddy. Tell me your name." Zach only wanted to find out what was going on.

"My name is Alice Gilbert. Dad, your name is Zach Gilbert, I know that," Alice said seriously.

Elvira's hand trembled and the photo fell to the floor. Alice quickly picked it up and put it away.

Zach was completely flustered this time. Why was her surname still the same as his? He disregarded his injuries and got out of bed to hug Elvira, who was also stunned now, but she still looked at Alice and asked, "Alice, what's your mother's name?" "My mother's name is Charlotte Levin!" Alice answered seriously. She reached out to pull Zach's hand, and Zach quickly dodged. Alice looked hurt, and she lowered her head in distress,

She had never had a father since she was young. When others wheedled in their fathers' arms, she could only look at her father's photo. This time, she had secretly run out to look for her father behind her mother's back. She did not expect her father to not want to acknowledge her.

"I don't know any Charlotte Levin. I've never heard of that name Zach quickly explained.

Elvira looked at him in confusion. She did not believe that Zach would lie to her, but how could he explain this little girl who looked so much like him?

No one would believe that this child was not his biological daughter.

"Elvira, believe me. I really don't have a daughter! I can do a paternity test immediately!" Zach thought of the most effective method.

"Humph! You're an irresponsible bad daddy! To think that I spoke up for you when my friends scolded you! I don't want a bad daddy like you anymore!" Alice was also angry. Her eyes were red as she ran out

She had traveled thousands of miles to look for her father, but he did not acknowledge her. She was really angry.

When Elvira saw that Affee-gas about to run away, she quickly shed Zach away and pulled her back. She gently advised, "Alice, don't be angry. He doesn't know about you and might not be able to accept that you're his daughter for the time being. How about this? Can you stay first? Let's clarify the matter together.

Alice looked at her father angrily and threw herself into Elvira's arms. She said, "Thank you, pretty miss. You're the best."

Elvira's heart softened when she was suddenly hugged by such an adorable girl. She picked Alice up and looked at Zach "Let's figure out what happened first,

Zach naturally had to find out. He immediately got his men to take his and Alice's hair for a paternity test.

Zach was thinking about something. When Elvira saw his darkened face, she carried Alice and sat on the sofa. Alice's stomach suddenly groaned. Elvira looked at the disappointed look of the little girl in her arms and said, "Alice, are you hungry? I happened to have bought a small cake. Have some first. I'll order takeout for you. What do you want to eat?"

"Pretty miss, I can't eat now." Alice glanced at her father with an aggrieved face.

Zach was quite speechless. He was still wondering where this child who looked so much like him had come from.

"Honey, you can't grow tall if you don't eat enough. Eat the dessert first. How about I order some chicken wings for you?" Elvira tried to appease her. She surprisingly liked the beautiful little girl in her arms.

Logically speaking, Alice might be Zach's illegitimate child. Elvira should hate her, but she really could not hate this little girl.

"Alright then. Thank you, pretty miss." Alice thanked Elvira very politely.

Elvira put her aside first and opened the cake for her to eat. Alice thanked Elvira again and picked up a small fork to start eating elegantly. It was obvious that she was a well-mannered child, especially since the way she ate was somewhat similar to Zach's.

Zach's subordinates came over to take Zach and Alice's hair and left to do a paternity test. The results were released in about an hour. This was already the fastest time. However, Zach felt that it was too long. He wished he could immediately get the results to prove his innocence, Elvira was watching Alice eat when Zach suddenly reached out and grabbed Elvira. Elvira was shocked by him and quickly said, "You can't use force with your hand!" Zach did not care so much. He pulled her into the washroom.

Alice puffed up her cheeks and continued eating.

In the washroom, Zach pushed Elvira against the sink. He looked at her and asked, "Aren't you angry that a child suddenly showed up and said that she's my daughter?"

"I don't know how I feel. She's too cute. I can't hate her." Elvira had mixed feelings, but what could she do? Alice was such a young and cute child. Could Elvira throw her out?

"If... I mean if... Alice is really my daughter, what will you do?" Zach pressed her down even tighter. He was so agitated that the corners of his eyes were red.

This question stunned Elvira. Then, she had a lot on her mind. For a moment, she did not know how to answer his question. She thought about it seriously and said, "If the person you love is me, I won't leave you. I can raise Alice with you"

If she had not experienced Zach sacrificing his life to save her yesterday, she might have left him, who had once had a child easily say that with another woman. However, after experiencing him sacrificing himself to save her yesterday, she could not she would leave him.

When Zach heard her answer, he felt a strong throbbing in his chest. He grabbed the back of her head and kissed her lips.

She Got A Better Man

The moment the results of the paternity test were in, Zach's subordinate called him to report it to him.

Elvira looked at Zach's frown as he listened to his subordinate's report. She guessed that things might not be simple. Could it be that Alice was really his daughter?

After hanging up the phone, Zach looked at Elvira and said, "Stay with Alice first. I'll make a call.

ahead. Elvira took a tissue from the side and wiped the corner of Alice's mouth. She had a lot on her mind and did not know what was going on.

Zach went out and called his sister. The phone rang for a long time before Grace picked it up. "Zach, why are you calling all of a sudden?"

"Grace, you did this on your own! How dare you!" Zach roared in exasperation.

Grace was speechless.

"Zach, what are you talking about? I haven't been doing anything lately! Grace realized that she hadn't been doing anything particular lately, so she immediately became self-righteous.

"You're telling me that you didn't do anything after giving birth to your child! Grace, you're really something! You gave me such a big surprise without telling anyone! Zach asked through gritted teeth. If that girl was in front of him, he would definitely beat her up. Grace was speechless.

"Have you seen Alice, Zach? Grace asked worriedly.

"She came to me and called me daddy! You really gave me a big surprise!" Zach really wanted to strangle his sister to death.

"I had no choice, Zach. She kept pestering me to ask to see her father. I had no choice but to use your photo to say that you were her father. You're her biological uncle, so you're considered half her father. I wasn't lying." Grace tried to make an excuse for herself.

"Fine, you have a point. Tell me, who is the father of the child? Zach questioned seriously.

"I don't know who her father is. One time, I had too much to drink and had sex, so I gave birth to Alice. I have something on. so I won't talk to you for now. Since Alice has found you, help me take care of her! Bye. With that, Grace hung up.

Zach was furious. When he called again, her phone was turned off.

Zach felt helpless.

After Zach returned to the ward, Elvira felt that the way he looked at Alice had become much gentler. She looked at him. with mixed feelings as she guessed that he had learned that Alice was his biological daughter.

This matter was so sudden. For a moment, Elvira did not know how to deal with it. When she saw that Zach was no longer resisting Alice, she stood up and said, "I still have something to do at the company. You'll stay with Alice now. I'll come over later." Before Zach or Alice could say anything. Elvira hurriedly left the ward.

"Elvira. Zach wanted to chase after her, but Alice immediately called out nervously, "Daddy, don't go."

Zach was speechless.

SHE, INDY ZO Chapter 117

He looked at Alice calling his daddy pitifully and knew that she lacked fatherly love. Helplessly, he did not deny that he was her father.

Elvira heard the conversation between the father and daughter side and quickened her footsteps.

After Elvira returned to the company, Cole showed her the company's latest project. After Elvira saw it, she felt that this project had a lot of potential, so she asked when he could meet the person in charge of the other company.

Cole said that the person in charge of the other company had been in Jersten recently, so they could meet at any time.

Elvira asked him to meet the other party as soon as possible to confirm the details of the cooperation.

Cole nodded and left to deal with it. Elvira opened her e-mailbox. There were a few emails from Kennedy Group to discuss the design draft for the next season's new product.

Elvira replied without hesitation: Terminate the cooperation.

The Kennedy Group was a design company. Previously, the Kennedy family's company was not as large as it was now. Later on, Elvira anonymously collaborated with the Kennedy family to provide design drafts to the family. Only then did the Kennedy family's design become the target of countless rich ladies. It also increased the market value of the Kennedy Group by nearly ten times.

In the past, if she wanted to marry Calvin, she naturally had to help the Kennedy family's company. Now that she had fallen out with the Willis and Kennedy families, there was no need for her to help the Kennedy family anymore.

Elvira's phone rang. It was Zach. She picked it up when he explained immediately, "Elvira, Alice is not my daughter. She is my biological niece, the daughter of my biological sister." Elvira was stunned. "Are y ou serious?"

The result of the paternity test is that I am 25% related to her, so I know that she is my close relative's child. My only close relative is my biological sister. The reason why I didn't refute Alice is that I don't want her to be disappointed again. I can understand her desire for fatherly love," Zach quickly explained the matter to Elvira.

When Elvira heard the results, she felt the gloominess in her chest disappear instantly and couldn't help but smile. She quickly said, "I'll bring you and Alice dinner after I'm done here. Forget it. Why don't we bring Alice to see your grandma! She will definitely be very happy to learn about Alice!"

"That might not be the case. She might be furious. Don't forget, my sister got pregnant out of wedlock and hid Alice for a few years! If Grandma finds out, she'll probably want to break her legs." Zach couldn't understand his sister's behavior.

It was such a great deal to have a child out of wedlock, but Grace actually kept it a secret from her family. Alice was only four weeks old this year, which meant that Grace had been keeping it a secret for five years.

She was only 25 years old this year, which meant that she was pregnant when she was 20 years old. That girl was really bold since she dared to give birth to Alice alone when she was only 20 years old.

In the end, it was because of the uniqueness of Zach's family. His father was irresponsible, and after his parents divorced, his sister lived with his mother. He had too much to do in the Gilbert family, and he lacked concern for his sister. "That won't happen. Alice is so cute. Your grandma will only be happy when she sees her. Besides, Alice is not a baby anymore. We can't hide it from your grandma forever, right?" Elvira still felt that Zach's grandma had the right to know.

"You're right. In that case, I'll show Alice to Grandma." It was impossible for Zach to raise a child well, let alone a delicate and soft little girl Elvira had her own things to do. She could not help his biological sister take care of the child every day. Now, it seemed that he had to trouble his grandma to help take care of Alice.

"Call your grandma first and explain the situation clearly. Don't make her worried, Elvira reminded him.

Zach expressed that he msgstood.

After Elvira put down her phone, a smile appeared on her face. she had when she first arrived. When Cole returned, he looked makes you so happy?"

was completely different from the darkened expression her happy expression and asked in confusion, "What "Do 1 look happy? I don't think so." Elvira's simile became even lighter.

Cole was speechless.

She Got A Better Man

Elvira went to the mall and bought many beautiful clothes, trinkets, and various dolls that children liked. When Alice saw these things, her eyes lit up. She liked them very much. She hugged Elvira and refused to let go. As a child, how could she not like a pretty lady who treated her well? Tracy's reaction to seeing Alice was similar to what Elvira had expected. Although she found it ridiculous that Grace suddenly gave birth to a child, the child was already not a baby, yet she was still so beautiful and adorable. This wasn't a big deal for an old person who had been through a lot. Tracy let her beautiful and cute great-granddaughter in calmly.

Now that Elvira knew about the Gilbert family's situation, Tracy no longer needed to pretend to be poor. The food at home was cooked by professional chefs. She said that the grease in the kitchen was not good for a woman's skin and insisted that Elvira should not enter the kitchen.

When Elvira came over to Tracy's place now, she would always be provided with all kinds of delicacies. She felt that she had gained weight

"Grandma, now that we have Alice around, you can't stay in this mall house anymore. Are you going to move back home?" Zach was still brooding over the fact that his grandmother had been pretending to be poor and refused to give him a way

"I'll move back. I can't let little Alice suffer. Tracy was old and liked to see her descendants. Now that she saw Alice, she was especially happy. She had to raise this little great-granddaughter. How could she let her live in such a small house? "Mrs Tracy, is your home big?" Elvira asked curiously as she ate a piece of cantaloupe.

"It's alright. It only takes up half of a hill." Tracy smiled and helped Alice eat.

Elvira was speechless as she wondered, 'It takes up half of a hill, and she says it's alright. That's shocking.

"Look at how old your sister's child is now. You guys should work harder and have a baby as soon as possible, Tracy said.

Elvira was a little embarrassed by the question. She looked at Zach and saw him say calmly, "Elvira and I have already put the plan of having a baby on the agenda."

"Really?" Tracy looked at Elvira in surprise. Was there really hope for her to have another great-grandchild?

"Really, Mrs. Tracy. We plan to have a child. Seeing how happy the old lady was, Elvira suddenly felt that she had made the right decision to have a baby, who would be born in love and anticipation. Her baby would definitely be very happy. "That's great! Alice, you will soon have a little cousin to play with. Are you happy?" Tracy happily kissed Alice.

"I'm happy. I'd like to have a little cousin to play with. I'm sure Aunt Elvira will have a cute baby since she's so pretty" Alice nodded cutely. Her cute and beautiful appearance melted people's hearts.

In order to create more alone time for Elvira and Zach so that they could have a baby as soon as possible. Tracy kept Alice with her. Alice was very obedient this time and was willing to stay with her great-grandmother.

On the way home. Elvira drove the car. The injury on Zach's hand was quite serious. He could not touch anything for the time being Nowadays, he ate with Elvira's help because he didn't feel much in his hand.

Zach kept turning his head to look at his wife's beautiful face. He could not bear to look away.

"Do I look good?" Elvira turned to look at him with an amused expression.

"You look more than good-You're beautiful, Zach said with a sig. Elvira was really beautiful and peerless. She was the kind of beauty that was stunning at first glance and the more he looked at her, the more charming she was. At least, he had never seen someone like her before.

"Are you praising me since I'm your wife?" Elvira turned the car around and parked in the hospital's parking lot.

She unbuckled her seatbelt first and then turned sideways to help him unbuckle his seatbelt. Zach suddenly reached out and carried her to sit on his lap. Elvira was worried about his hand til said anxiously. "Don't do anything rash!" "I'm not that delicate." Zach pressed his lips against her forehead

The moment Elvira was kissed by him, she felt as if she had been electrocuted. She felt numb and soft in his arms. It seemed to be like this every time. As long as he kissed her, she would feel her entire body go limp.

The hot and wet kiss made the two of them unable to stop, especially Zach. He felt like he was about to explode. He ignored the wound on his hand and hugged her even tighter as if he wanted to make her his.

He did not know why he was so obsessed with her. He realized that if he were in ancient times, he would definitely have the potential to be a fatuous ruler.

A car suddenly stopped opposite them. A beam of light shone over, illuminating the two who were making out.

Zach immediately hugged Elvira and let her bury her face in his chest. He narrowed his eyes and looked across.

His bodyguard had already knocked on the door of the car opposite.

The other party reluctantly turned off the high beam and Calvin got out of the car. His darkened eyes were fixed on the two people hugging each other in the car.

Elvira tidied up her clothes and turned to look outside. When she saw that the person outside was Calvin, she was furious. She immediately got out of-Zach's arms and pushed open the door to get out of the car. She glared at Calvin fiercely and walked to Zach to help him open the door before helping him get out of the car.

Zach reached out and hugged Elvira. He held her in an absolutely possessive manner as they walked toward the inpatient department.

"Elvira, wait a minute. I have something to tell you," Calvin called out to her.

"I have nothing to say to you! Please have a reality check and don't appear in front of me again!" Elvira looked at him in disgust.

"Elvira! Don't you care about our relationship that has lasted for 20 years?" Calvin asked anxiously as he watched her leave with another man.

"I'll say one more thing to you. A late love is cheaper than grass. Please don't come and act cheap in front of me again!" Elvira did not want to have anything to do with the Kennedy family anymore.

"You... You don't dare to talk to me alone. Is it because you're afraid that you can't bear to part with me?" Calvin frowned at her.

Elvira was speechless.

"Go back to the ward first. I want to hear what he leaves first.

s to say. Elvira reached out and pushed Zach, indicating for him to Zach casually glanced at Calvin in the distance. He turned around and hugged Elvira. He gave her a deep kiss before saying, "Alright, I'll wait for you upstairs. I'll give you five minutes at most. No more." "That won't be necessary. Three minutes will do." Elvira did not think that there was anything else

he could say to Calvin

Calvin looked at the scene of Elvira being hugged and kissed by Elvira walked toward Calvin with a gloomy expression and asked and stay with my husband.

"Elvira, are you trying to piss me off?" Calvin asked helplessly.

Elvira was baffled.

She Got A Better Man

COMMENT Chapter

You don't have a job now, right? I want to hire you to work at my company. I know you haven't been to university. I can arrange for you to be a receptionist at the reception desk first and then slowly promote you. It's quite hard to get a job now. With your qualifications, you won't be able to find a good job," Calvin explained the reason why he came to her.

"Whether I have a job or not is my own business. It has nothing to do with you Just focus on yourself instead of worrying about me! Also, stop coming to me at will ever again!" Elvira did not want to listen to his nonsense anymore. "Elvira, can you not be so stubborn? What do you want me to do Do you want me to marry you? If you get a divorce now, you'll be a divorced woman. Our family will never let a divorced woman in Calvin said helplessly and anxiously "There must be something wrong with your brain, Calvin. Don't bother me anymore!" Elvira felt that she must have been blind in the past to have liked such a person for more than ten years.

Elvira ignored him and quickly walked into the hospital. Calvin wanted to chase after Elvira, but he was stopped by the bodyguards.

Calvin was furious. He returned to his car angrily and hit the steering wheel hard as he wondered, 'Elvira can't use this to force me to marry her. Not to mention that my family won't agree, even I will be unwilling to marry a divorced woman. "Moreover, the person I love is Judy.

say to you just now?"

Elvira entered the ward and was hugged by Zach. He asked, "What did your ex-boyfriend Elvira hugged his neck and shook her head. "I just realized that Calvin isn't normal. I actually liked him for more than ten years. I was quite a lunatic back then."

"You didn't really like him. At most, it's just a form of spiritual sustenance! The person you like is me!" Zach kissed her on the lips after saying that.

Elvira thought about it and felt that it made sense. After all, her parents were unreliable, and her biological brother had been snatched away, She had to have something to rely on when she was alone, so Calvin, who had accompanied her since she was young, became her first choice.

Zach noticed that Elvira was distracted because of another man. He bit her lips hard to remind her to focus.

Elvira was amused and kissed him more passionately. When the two of them fell onto the bed, Elvira was on top of him. After another wet and hot kiss. Elvira deliberately did not help him unbuckle his belt. Zach could not help but do it himself. Elvira quickly pressed his hands down and kissed him while unbuckling his belt.

was over, Elvira lay flat on the bed and did not get up. Zach hugged her and kissed her sweaty h

wor

I've consulted my friend. If we want a baby, it's best to lie flat for a long time after it's done. This way, the probability of getting pregnant is higher," Elvira said as she leaned her face against his chest.

Then lie down for a while longer. I'll work harder. We'll have a baby soon' Zach kissed her lovingly.

"I haven't asked you. Do you like boys or girls? Elvira looked up at him curiously.

"As long as it's your baby, I'll like it. Zach replied seriously.

Elvira felt her heart soften. She rubbed her face against his. "Then how many do you want to have?

"One is enough? Zach had married early, so when his mother gave birth to his sister, he saw his mother in pain. He did not want Elvira to suffer.

I was enough for him and her to have one child to raise together.

"You don't like children?" Elvira said curiously, not knowing what he was thinking.

I like them, but giving birth is too torturous. We'll have one. Zach kissed her lips.

Elvira did not expect Zach to say that he only wanted one kid for this reason. She tightened her grip on his waist. She really liked such a considerate man more and more.

Do you want to do it again? This way, we'll have a higher chance of success" Elvira took the initiative to kiss him.

The man naturally couldn't ask for more. One was not enough for him to satisfy his cravings.

Zach flipped over and pressed Elvira under him again when the tension in the room rose to the extreme again.

Judy came to Calvin's apartment. She took a careful shower and changed into a new lace nightgown. Looking at her fair and beautiful reflection in the mirror, she was very satisfied. She felt that her mother was right. What she had to do now was to hold onto Calvin tightly. She could not let Calvin be seduced by Elvira it her.

When Calvin returned to his apartment, he was very unhappy. He felt that Elvira had been possessed. She actually rejected his help and insisted on staying with her poor husband.

If it weren't for the fact that they had been together for more than ten years, Calvin wouldn't have cared about

When he entered, he saw Judy lying on the sofa and reading a book. She exuded an extremely charming aura, but Calvin was not in the mood today. He said. "When did you come?"

"I made you some chicken broth to nourish your body. I haven't been here for long. Judy sat up from the sofa. Every move was carefully designed and very seductive.

After Calvin came in and changed his shoes, he suddenly felt a little hot. He had not thought about that just now, but now he was very eager. He looked at the woman who was walking toward him and pressed her against the shoe cabinet.

Judy wrapped her arms around his neck and kissed him

Calvin couldn't resist it.

Judy listened to her mother's suggestion. No matter what, she had to give birth to a child for Calvin first. Therefore, she had to get pregnant and hold onto him as soon as possible.

The next day, Calvin received another call from the director of the company's design department, who said that the designer Shauna refused to cooperate with the company and refused to provide the company with the design for the next quarter's new product. Now, the design department was in a mess.

"Why is it so sudden? Didn't she say anything" Calvin asked with a frown. The jewelry department was now the backbone of the Kennedy Group and accounted for 70% of the company's revenue.

In the past, the Kennedy family's designers standards were average, so the company's development was mediocre. Ever

She Got A Better Man

Calvin looked at her and said, "You want to work in my company is your grandma willing to let you come over?"

The Willis family also had a jewelry design department, but the Willis family's main business was not jewelry design. The Willis family's main business was building materials, Later on, because Judy became a famous social media influencer on the Internet, her family invested in a movie for her. Now, she was ready to join the film and television industry.

I'm going to marry into the Kennedy family in the future. My grandma naturally won't have any objections. Calvin, I definitely won't let you down." Judy took the initiative to hug him coquettishly.

Calvin thought about it and felt that Judy's words made sense. They were going to get married sooner or later. He had never even met Shamma before. They were clearly working well together, and now she was quitting just like that. A big company like the Kennedy Group could not afford to take such a huge risk.

He had to have absolute control of his design talents

He had seen the design of Judy. It was quite spiritual. Although it was not as impressive as Shamma's, it was not bad

"Get dressed and report to the company with me. Calvin decided to accept Judy's opinion.

Judy kissed him happily. The two of them changed their clothes and set off for the Kennedy Group.

The design department of the Kennedy Group was busy with the design drafts when Calvin came in with Judy. He announced, "Let me introduce her to everyone. Judy Willis, my fiancée, will be your colleague from now on. This season's new product will be led by Judy." Judy was wearing a famous brand's latest haute couture and looked like an exquisite socialite. She raised her hand to greet everyone. "Hello, everyone. I look forward to working with you as a team."

The colleagues quickly stood up and applauded. After all, she was the future proprietress. No one dared to not show her respect.

The design director didn't look happy. He looked at Calvin and said, "Mr. Kennedy, I think we should contact Shauna as soon as possible. Her design is unique and is very popular with consumers. Without Shatta, I'm afraid the company's performance will decline."

When Calvin heard this, his expression turned a bit gloomy. On the way over, he had been trying to contact Shauna. She had left him her private contact number and he could contact her in the past. Now that she ignored him, he had no choice.

Judy stepped forward and said with a smile, "I have something to announce. I am Shauna!"

As soon as these words were spoken, everyone was shocked and looked at her in confusion.

The design director also looked at her in shock. Calvin frowned and wanted to pull her to stop talking nonsense.

"I'm telling the truth. You know that Calvin and my sister were engaged in the past. Because of my sister, I did not dare to help Calvin openly, I could only give Calvin the design under the alias Shauna because I was afraid that it would affect my sister's relationship with Calvin... Now that they have broken up, and I'm together with Calvin, there's no need for me to hide it anymore." Judy looked at Calvin affectionately.

Everyone looked at Judy's affectionate expression and felt that she really did not seem to be lying. Could it be that what she said was true

After hearing this, the design director's eyes lit up. He looked at Judy with admiration and then looked at his boss with excitement.

"Ms. Willis, since you're Shauna, why did you say that you wanted to terminate the collaboration with the company?"

someone asked in confusion

That's because I'm coming to the company to work. There's no need to contact me online anymore. I've already made the design draft for this new product. I'll send it to everyone to check it later, Judy explained with a smile.

Only then did everyone understand. So that was how it was. Perhaps amateurs might not understand, but as a designer, everyone knew the value of Shauna's design draft. They looked Judy with admiration.

Calvin brought Judy to his office. He frowned and asked, "Judy, How can you lie to others?"

Judy hugged Calvin and explained, "Calvin, that Shauna has been hiding online. No one knows who she is. Now, she suddenly refuses to cooperate with the company. She was the one who betrayed us first! If I don't stand up now, as you can see, everyone in the company's design department, including the design director, has lost their confidence. It's as if without Shauna's design, the company is about to go down. Calvin, if the happens, the company will be doomed! The only way to increase everyone's confidence is to make them all believe that in Shauna!"

"But... you can't lie, right?" Calvin frowned.

"Calvin. I'm doing this for you and the company! Don't worry, my design will definitely convince the company. If I can't do it. I'll admit to everyone that I lied!" Judy kissed his lips and promised him seriously.

In the end, Calvin tacitly agreed to Judy's impersonation of Shauna. Judy did as she said. She showed them the design drafts for the new season. The designs continued the style of Shauna. Every piece of work was eye-catching. The design department was in an uproar. They firmly believed that Judy was Shauna. Everyone admired her exceptionally Calvin was also very satisfied with Judy's design. He had completely forgotten about her impersonation.

He also made a bold decision and made a post on his company's Twitter account.

[Let me introduce Shauna, Ms. Judy Willis, the designer of the Kennedy Group's Jewelry Company! Check out the new products!]

The post was attached with Judy's nine designs for the new products.

At the same time, the Willis Group also delivered a Twitter post

[Willis Movies and Television is officially established! Congratulations to the new CEO of the company, Ms. Judy Willis of Willis Group! A new journey has begun. Looking forward to her following stunning works!]

The post was attached with Judy's nine signed photos with new celebrities,

Judy was already quite famous online. She had a group of die-hard fans. Because of the mistress incident, she was scolded badly, but it brought her more traffic, which made her more popular. Now that both Willis and Kennedy Groups had given her a new title, her popularity instantly increased.

Elvira was having breakfast when she saw the trending topic. She frowned slightly when she saw the news online. She was stunned at how shameless Calvin and Judy were. She had terminated her cooperation with the Kennedy Group, but Judy had actually taken advantage of it.

Elvira took a closer look at the latest design drafts that Judy had given to Kennedy Group. Weren't these all manuscripts that she had abandoned in the past?

Elvira was nitpicking about her career, so she would only use ten out of a hundred design drafts of hers at most and throw away the rest.

When she lived with the Willis family, she did not have a shredder there, so she casually threw her abandoned design drafts away. Now, it seemed that Judy had picked them up.

"What are you so engrossed in?" Zach looked at her curiously when she suddenly stopped eating her breakfast.

"It's nothing. It's just thin serue clowns are making a scene. Elvi put away her phone and continued eating her breakfast
