Elvira's body felt & line better, but she felt terrible, especially when she thought of the feeling of being kissed by Gary The felt nauseous and wanted to vomit. She quickly removed the needle from her hand and got up to get out of berk Elvira, what are you doing? The doctor said that your body needs to be detoxified. Otherwise, it will affect your body to a certain extent Zach quickly got up and held her shoulders.

Tm going to take a shower! I'll continue to get the drip after Imeone" Elvira had already calmed down. She cherished her body very much and would not ruin it at will. However, the digesting feeling made her feel too uncomfortable, She had to take a shower first. When Zach heard this, he felt his hands go weak. Elvira easily pushed him away and got up to go to the washroom

She quickly took off her clothes and turned on the tap to let the water wash her. She took the shower gel from the side and poured almost all of it on her body. She scrubbed hard. Memories of the sticky, viper-like touch made her feel very uncomfortable. She scrubbed herself again and again, wishing she could scrub the skin off.

Only now did Elvira deeply realize that intimate things could only be done with the person she liked. If it was someone she did not like, she would feel extremely disgusted just by touching them. Even if that person was not ugly, it would definitely not do!

The more Elvira thought about it, the angrier she became. 'Gary, that bastard, just wait for me. I won't let you off!' Elvira thought Elvira did not know that while she was washing her body inside, Zach was already going crazy outside. Elvira was kidnapped and was very likely to be violated. Now that Elvira suddenly wanted to take a shower, it made Zach even more terrified. He thought that Elvira had really been violated.

Zach hated himself for letting her encounter such a terrifying thing. He really wanted to kill himself. Zach's eyes became redder and redder. His hands were clenched so tightly that his veins were bulging. He would definitely find that beast and kill him!

Zach could not control himself and rushed into the bathroom. Elvira was shocked when she heard the sound. The experience just now made her jump with fear at the sound of every movement Zach saw her reaction clearly. He only felt his heart hurt even more. Elvira only relaxed when she saw that it was Zach, who went forward and hugged her desperately Elvira hugged him too. At this moment, her emotions had already recovered. Although she still felt a little uncomfortable, she needed time to calm down after experiencing such a disgusting thing.

"Zach, you're drenched." Elvira hugged him tightly. At this moment, she finally felt safe.

"I'm sorry, Elvira I didn't protect you well! I'm sorry!" Zach sobbed as he apologized to her. No matter what happened to her, he would still love her as much as ever!

00:77%

Elvira was stunned for a moment. She quickly pushed him away and said, "Don't misunderstand. I wasn't violated!"

Although that bastard, Gary, had kissed her, he had not violated her. Elvira could not let Zach misunderstand.

Zach stiffened and looked at her in shock. Elvira continued to explain, "That bastard was thinking about it, but he was stopped. Wait for me to go out and tell you. I'm a little cold."

When Zach heard her say that it was cold, he quickly took a towel from the side and wrapped it around her before carrying her out of the bathroom.

After going out, he ordered someone to send over a new set of clothes and blow-dried her hair. Then, he got a nurse to reattach her with a needle. Only then did he hold her hand and ask, "What exactly happened?"

"It's your half-brother. He kidnapped me and tried to rape me and disgust you, but he didn't succeed!"

Elvira did not hesitate to tell Zach the truth. As for the bullshit deal with the man in black, Elvira would be a fool to abide by it!

She was almost ruined by that bastard Gary, so why should she still help him hide it? She would be crazy to do so.

That person wanted to use a photo to threaten her not to tell Zach what Gary had done? She was not an ancient person and did not follow the principles of a chaste woman. Moreover, she was a victim. Why should she be threatened by him and abide by his bullshit agreement?

When Zach heard this, Elvira felt that the temperature around him had dropped a lot. His expression was extremely ugly, Elvira quickly got up and wanted to hug him. Only then did Zach react. He held her down and said, "Don't move. Be careful not to hurt yourself." "I know you're angry, but don't be angry at the expense of your own health. That kind of bastard isn't worth it." Elvira held Zach's hand and advised.

"Elvira, I'll definitely give you an explanation for this!" Zach wished he could tear that bastard Gary apart, but he couldn't leave now. He had to accompany Elvira first.

Zach felt guilty and heartbroken for her. This incident started because of him. Gary targeted her because of him! He was the one who let her down!

"I believe you. Zach, don't be angry with that bastard. If you get angry, I'll be the one feeling heartache." Elvira held Zach's hand even tighter.

Zach bent down and kissed her forehead. His love for her was obvious. "Elvira, don't leave me. I'll protect you well in the future."

Elvira was a little surprised. She did not expect Zach to be afraid that she would leave him. He was so good to her. How could she leave him? She would never leave him, not even because of Gary!

"I will never leave you unless you want to leave me." Elvira gently kissed his cheek back.

"No, I will never leave you! Elvira, I love you!" Zach knew how important Elvira was to him. He loved her more than himself! Elvira's eyes were filled with tenderness and love. She replied, "Zach, I love

too!"

When Zach heard Elvira say that she loved him, his eyes lit up. He felt a warm current flowing through his entire body, comforting his heart that had been torn into pieces. Zach knew that Elvira was the medicine, the best antidote in his life! He kissed her deeply, interlocking his fingers with hers.

Samson and Spike waited outside together. When Zach came out, the two of them immediately stood up and walked over. They called out, "Zach, we haven't found out who did it yet."

"There's no need to investigate anymore. Arrest Gary!" Zach's eyes were filled with killing intent and endless anger.

Samson and Spike looked at each other. Spike immediately got to it, while Samson said, "Zach, you promised Benjamin to spare their lives. Now, he has touched my bottom line. I will not let him off easily!"

"How is Elvira? Do you want my wife to come over and accompany her?" Ever since they got married, Samson had changed his playful nature. Every day, he would talk nonstop about his wife. He simply doted on Olivia as if she was his darling. Therefore, he could understand Zach's anger.

Whoever dared to touch his wife, he would fight with his life!

"She's asleep. Let her rest." When Zach mentioned Elvira, his eyes were filled with gentleness and love.

Samson nodded.

At this moment, Gary was on the run. He knew that as long as Zach knew the truth, he would definitely not let him off. Leonard told him to get out of Jersten.

Leonard and Mandy were a pair of twins, but Leonard was different from them. He was not interested in the Gilbert family's business, so he did not agree with what his parents and siblings had done all these years. He had never participated in the Gilbert family's matters overseas.

Recently, he had heard that his parents, brothers, and sisters were restless again. He felt that something was about to happen, so he hurriedly put down his matters and rushed back.

Leonard knew that Zach was not to be trifled with, but his parents, brothers, and sisters always thought nothing of it.

Sure enough, he rushed over in time and saved Gary from committing the heinous act.

For some reason, he had a feeling that even if he took photos of Elvira and threatened her she would still expose Gary. Elvira's eyes were filled with cunningness, and she was not a rigid person. She would not be so easily controlled by others. Leonard knew that things were going to be difficult.

Gary was caught at the airport. He was about to board the plane when he was caught by Spike. Gary brought his bodyguards with him. At that time, both parties started fighting, scaring the other passengers so much that they screamed, thinking that something big had happened.

In the end, Gary was knocked out by Spike and taken away.

When Leonard heard the news, he knew that Gary could not escape from Zach this time. Leonard could not save Gary now. The only thing Leonard could do was wait for Zach to deal with Gary before finding a good doctor for Gary.

When Zach returned, he reeked of blood. He returned to the ward and took a look at Elvira, who was still sleeping soundly. Then, he turned around and went to the bathroom to take a shower.

After washing off the smell of blood and changing into a clean set of clothes, he went to bed and hugged Elvira to sleep.

Elvira did not sleep well. Yesterday's incident had left a shadow in her heart. Zach hugged her tighter. Elvira smelled the familiar and reassuring scent on his body. Only then could she sleep more peacefully.

At the Willis family.

11:10 Mon, Nov 25 BB.

When Calvin and Judy returned home, both of them were not in a good mood. Amber was very worried when she saw that her daughter was unhappy. She held her hand and asked, "Why are you back so early? Didn't you say that there are many real big shots attending tonight's banquet? Why didn't you stay longer?" "We were chased out," Judy said as tears welled up in his eyes.

Karen's gaze instantly turned sharp. She frowned and asked, "You were chased out? Why? We just won the entrance ticket to Haven Plaza!"

"It was all because of Elvira and Zach. Karen, Elvira lied to the whole family. My brother-in-law is not poor. He is the CEO of the Gilbert Group! It's the most powerful company in the city," Judy said aggrievedly.

Judy's words stunned the Willis family. Vincent even exclaimed, "The poor guy you're talking about is the CEO of Gilbert Group?"

"Yes, I just can't figure it out. We're all family. Why didn't Elvira tell us the truth? She even got Zach to chase us out of the banquet today. She's really too heartless," Judy said aggrievedly.

"Are you serious? Is that man really the CEO of the Gilbert Group?" Karen asked with a frown, her eyes filled with disbelief.

Amber was first shocked, then angry. How could Elvira marry so well?

She had heard of the Gilbert Group. It was an existence that everyone was envious of and wanted to have a relationship with it.

"Karen, it shouldn't be wrong. Jason and some other big shots are very respectful to him." Judy was secretly angry. She still let Elvira take advantage of the loophole and marry so well.

"Elvira is really too presumptuous. How can she be worthy of such a high-ranking person? No, we have to make her get a divorce immediately!" Karen frowned.

Vincent glanced at her.

"Karen, you thought that man was so poor that you wanted Elvira to get a divorce. Now that you know that he's the CEO of the Gilbert Group, why do you still want Elvira to get a divorce?" Vincent could not understand what his mother was thinking.

"What do you know? As the saying goes, accompanying a king is like accompanying a tiger. Don't you know Elvira's personality? With her personality, she will offend the Gilbert family sooner or later. When the time comes, it will implicate our family's career!" Karen snorted coldly. When she mentioned Elvira, her eyes were filled with disdain and disgust.

"Karen is right. Elvira's personality is too unlikable. If she angers the Gilbert family and they come looking for trouble with our family, wouldn't it be as simple as crushing an ant? It's better to quickly get Elvira to divorce that person!" Amber agreed with Karen's words. "But Elvira won't listen to us. She's telling everyone that she has nothing to do with the Willis family now," Judy said. She even looked at Calvin carefully and said, "Elvira even asked those people to end their collaboration with the Kennedy family today. How can she do that? If that's the case, Calvin's family's company will suffer heavy losses."

Calvin was already frustrated. When he heard this, he became even more frustrated. He said indignantly, "What's there to be afraid of? We have the ability. If there are fewer people working with us, there will be fewer people! I still have something I'll back first."

1. on.

He was very frustrated and indignant. Was Zach not just the CEO of the Gilbert Group? What was so great about Zach? Zach was just better at reincarnation than him!

Judy watched Calvin leave with a worried expression. She looked at Karen and said, "Karen, I'm afraid Elvira has completely offended the Kennedy family by doing this. She's really too stupid."

She Got A Better Man

Gary was on his last breath after being beaten by Zach. Zach had promised his grandfather that he would spare those people's lives, but if Gary had really violated Elvira, Zach would not keep his promise to his grandfather. 77%

Samuel was angry and heartbroken. Helen almost fainted from crying. She cried and asked her husband to find Zach and ask him why he was so cruel to her son.

Zach had already taken away their assets. Could it be that they could not even live?

Mandy was also quite angry. She felt that Zach was the illegitimate child. He did not deserve to own the Gilbert Group at all. All of the Gilbert family's assets should belong to her!

Leonard frowned and said, "Behave yourselves! If I hadn't arrived in time to stop Gary from doing something wrong, you would have had to collect his corpse today. Zach is already showing mercy by letting him live. When Gary is out of danger, send him overseas immediately and never come back."

Gary would continue to cause trouble when he returned. It was better to send him away.

"Leonard, what are you talking about? Your brother was beaten to death by that little bastard Zach, and you still want Gary to run away? The doctor said that your brother's leg bones are shattered and he will never be able to stand up again!" Helen cried until she was out of breath. Not only was Gary's leg bones shattered, but several of his ribs were also broken. One of them had pierced into his lungs. In the future, he would always have lung disease. He was basically crippled.

"Gary really went overboard this time. He knew that Zach loves his new wife very much, but he still kidnapped her and even wanted to humiliate her. He was courting death. He can't blame anyone else," Leonard said with a dark expression.

"Whose side are you on? Is Gary even your biological brother? Are you still my son? Why are you always speaking up Zach?" Helen was furious at her youngest son, who had never been close to her since she was young.

for

"That's right. Elvira is obviously a vixen! Who knows if she deliberately seduced Gary? Didn't she marry Zach because she liked the Gilbert family's wealth? Besides, why didn't Gary rape anyone but her? It's all because she has a problem!" Mandy said arrogantly and disdainfully.

Leonard felt that he could not get along with them, so he said coldly, "I don't care what you think. I advise you to behave yourselves and stop provoking Zach and Elvira. Otherwise, I won't be able to save you!"

After saying that, he did not care about their reactions and turned to leave. No matter how Helen called him back, it was useless.

Elvira's recovery ability was still very strong. After a night, she threw herself back into her work. Zach felt sorry for her and wanted her to rest. She insisted that she was fine and told him not to worry.

Zach assigned more bodyguards to her and personally sent her to the company.

Elvira asked Zach to help find out Jason's schedule for today. At noon, Elvira brought Cole to meet him.

Jason was a little surprised to see her. "Mrs. Gilbert, what a coincidence to meet you here."

"Mr. Stone, I'm here to look for you." Elvira directly stated her purpose. The most important thing when dealing with smart people was honesty. She felt that no matter how many excuses she made, it would only disgust others. "Oh, let's hear it, Mrs. Gilbert." Jason really admired Elvira's frankness.

"Mr. Stone, just call me Elvira. Our company previously submitted an application to your company's mall but was rejected. I hope you can give me another chance." Elvira took the company's information from Cole and handed it to Jason.

Chapter 133-

After reading it carefully Jason said. "Elvira, I've taken a look. My company's person-in-charge has a reasonable reason for rejecting you. There's no problem

Jason wanted to curry favor with the Gilbert family. He was also an old fox. He would not agree to let her enter the mall just because of Elvira's words. Of course, if she asked Zach to tell him personally, Jason would definitely agree to it

"Mr. Stone, you saw Calvin and Judy yesterday. Calvin was originally my fiancé. It was Judy who secretly colluded with him. I was pregnant twice but had one miscarriage. Mr. Stone, I've always believed in being a good person beforehand. Are you sure you can let those people with no moral bottom line enter your mall? If something happens, it will be your mall's brand that will be destroyed." Elvira was not in a hurry. Instead, she analyzed the pros and cons with Jason calmly.

Regarding the matter of Judy pretending to be her, Elvira did not intend to let it go just like that. She had to expose Judy's true colors.

She could not predict what kind of reaction it would cause, but she was sure that the Kennedy family's company would also be finished.

Jason looked at the confident and calm woman sitting in front of him and was a little impressed. She could have used her relationship with Zach to enter the mall, but she did not do that. Instead, she came over to negotiate with him personally to fight for an opportunity. Jason thought for a moment and said, "Elvira, I'll go back and consider your suggestion carefully. I'll reply to you later. What do you think?"

"Of course." Elvira smiled and nodded.

Cole watched Jason leave the hotel with his secretary and looked at Elvira. "Will he agree to let us move into the mall?"

"Most likely. Let's go." Elvira still had confidence in Jason. On the contrary, if she did not have the capital to negotiate with him, even if she was Zach's wife, he would not let her enter.

When Elvira was walking out, she suddenly saw a familiar figure. She thought that her eyes were playing tricks on her. She blinked hard and took a closer look. Finally, she confirmed that she was not mistaken. She subconsciously chased after that figure. Cole quickly followed up and asked, "What's wrong? Who did you see?"

Elvira did not have time to answer Cole's question. She just ran towards the figure anxiously. In the end, she could only watch as the figure entered the elevator with another person.

The elevator was a transparent sightseeing elevator. Elvira could see the scene inside clearly. That person was talking and laughing with a young woman. They looked very harmonious. Elvira's eyes were red.

Cole saw that she was staring at the elevator. He did not know what she was looking at, so he asked again, "Who exactly is it?"

"Rowena has returned to the country!" Elvira clenched her fists tightly. She still remembered that less than two months ago, she begged Rowena to return to the country to save Marsh. Rowena rejected her for her stepson and stepdaughter. Now, she came back just like that. See, actually, it was not that difficult for Rowena to return to the country. It just depended on whether she wanted to.

Elvira hated herself very much. She clearly hated how heartless Rowena was to herself and her brother, but just by looking at her figure, she would chase after her without hesitation, wanting to see her again.

The corners of Elvira's eyes were a little moist. She gritted her teeth and retracted her gaze, not letting herself look anymore. She said, "Let's go back!"

She Got A Better Man

Elvira hated herself for being useless. Rowena abandoned the two of them to pursue her own happiness. That man was her first love. Back then, she loved him but could not get him. Later on, the two of them started their own families and had children. Her first lover's wife passed away after a difficult labor. After that, that man came to Rowena to get back together. Rowena chose to divorce her husband without hesitation and even left with nothing to follow that man.

If it were not for Elvira's biological mother's divorce, Amber would not have been able to become the legitimate wife after being a mistress. At the very least, Elvira and Marsh still had a complete family.

Elvira could understand her mother's difficulties in getting a divorce, but she could not understand Rowena's actions after the divorce. She valued her stepson and stepdaughter more than her biological children. For the sake of her stepson and stepdaughter's biological son, Rowena could completely ignore Elvira.

When Zach returned home, he saw Elvira looking disappointed. She was hugging her knees and looking at her phone unhappily.

His stomach tightened, and he hurried over to hug her. His gaze dropped to her phone. It was a picture of a pretty woman holding a small baby. Next to her stood a little girl.

"What's wrong? Who made my wife unhappy?" Zach kissed her forehead and asked.

"I saw my biological mother today. She returned to the country and brought her stepdaughter to the mall. Previously, I begged her to come back and save Marsh, but she refused. Now, she came back just like that. She didn't even contact me, her daughter. She's really ruthless." Elvira leaned her head on Zach's shoulder. Her eyes were dim.

"Elvira, you have me in the future, and I will always be by your side. I will never leave you." Zach hugged her tightly, wanting to comfort her wounds.

His parents were also divorced. In the past, he felt that he was unlucky, but compared to Elvira, he was considered lucky. At the very least, his mother loved him and his sister.

Elvira did not need someone like her mother.

Elvira felt uneasy in her heart. Being in the midst of trying to conceive, she could not drown her sorrows with alcohol. She turned around and initiated a kiss with Zach. Zach embraced her, feeling a rush of excitement. Today, Elvira took the initiative to kiss him. He carried her to the bedroom, their clothes shed, and they stood face to face. Zach was even more excited as he pressed her down, raining kisses on her like a torrent. Elvira held him, feeling his warmth and passion, finally feeling a sense of comfort in her heart. See, she was also someone who was loved. She would never be alone again.

On Olivia's birthday, Samson threw her a birthday party and invited Zach and Elvira to go to the mall in advance to choose gifts for Olivia.

Zach called. He wanted to pick Elvira up for Olivia's birthday party. Elvira told him the address and asked him to come and pick her up in half an hour. Elvira had her eyes on a light yellow suit. She felt that it was very suitable for Olivia, so she asked the waiter to bring the appropriate number to pay.

"Mommy, that dress is so beautiful. I want to buy it." A delicate female voice sounded from behind Elvira.

"If you like it, buy it. Please take down the S size of this set of clothes and let my baby try it on." A slightly mature female voice sounded.

Elvira's body stiffened when she heard this voice. She would never forget this voice. It was the voice of her mother, who had accompanied her for more than ten years. Before her mother left the Willis family, she still doted on her very much and would buy her all kinds of beautiful clothes to dress her up.

However, she would rather not spend time with her mother now. That way, she would not hate her so much. Just like Marsh. He had no impression of her mother, so he did not care about her.

Because he had never obtained it, he could not lose it.

As for Elvira, she had really gotten it and lost it.

It was not something else, but the most precious motherly love the world!

"Ladies, I'm sorry. The size of this set of clothes has already been bought by the customer. That customer has already paid the bill. The waiter smiled and indicated that Elvira had already bought this set of clothes.

Rowena and Sandy looked at Elvira. Rowena smiled and said, "Hello, Miss. My baby likes this dress. I wonder if you can part with it."

"No!" Elvira refused coldly. When she turned around, her eyes met Rowena's.

Rowena did not expect to meet Elvira here. She was stunned for a second and did not know what to say to her daughter. "Elvira? Mommy, I like this dress. I want it." When Sandy saw that it was Elvira, she wanted this outfit even more. She held Rowena's arm and wheedled while looking at Elvira provocatively.

Seeing this, Rowena said, "Elvira, your sister likes this set of clothes. Just give it to her."

like this set of clothes too. I won't let you have it." Elvira took the bag from the waiter and walked out.

"Elvira, why are you getting more and more insensible as you grow up? You used to listen to me and give everything to Sandy." Rowena frowned unhappily when she saw that her daughter, Elvira, was disobedient.

"That's all because you forced me to! I never wanted to give in. Also, I don't have a sister. I only have a younger brother. Now that he's gone, have you ever thought about where he went?" Elvira could not help but shout at Rowena.

The first time Rowena saw her biological daughter, she did not show concern or even say hello. She directly snatched things for her stepdaughter. Such a biological mother really broadened Elvira's horizons!

When Rowena saw that Elvira was actually shouting at her in front of so many people, she felt embarrassed and her expression turned ugly. She said, "Why are you becoming more and more disobedient? If I don't want you to shout, I won't let you shout. Sandy, I will buy you something better. Let's go."

"Alright, but I still like this set," Sandy said regretfully.

"Can you guys transfer a set over? My baby likes it." Rowena turned to ask the waiter.

"I'm sorry, there's only one set of each size. There's no way to transfer the goods."

"Then forget it. Rowena, I don't want to shop anymore. I want to go home. I want to eat the cookies you made for me." Sandy deliberately shook Rowena's arm and wheedled. From the corner of her eye, she looked at the dejected Elvira and felt very happy.

"If you want to eat, I will make it for you. We'll come back another day. Your health is more important." Rowena held her stepdaughter's hand and wanted to leave. She thought of Elvira and said, "I heard that you're married. Tell me, you're too willful. Calvin is such a good child, but you didn't marry him and insisted on marrying a stranger."

As soon as Rowena finished speaking, everyone's attention was attracted by a figure. The man was tall and handsome. His facial features were like the best masterpiece in the world, and his aura was so powerful that it made people revere him.

Everyone's eyes were wide open. Sandy's eyes lit up as she looked at the man walking towards her, She held her stepmother's

Zach did not even look at them and walked straight to Elvira's side. When he saw her unhappy look, he hugged her and asked with concern, "What happened? Who made you unhappy again?"

After Zach finished asking, his sharp gaze swept across everyone present. Everyone was so frightened by him that they shrank their necks and did not dare to look at him directly. At that moment, everyone felt extremely flustered. "Let's go. Let's not be late today." Elvira pulled Zach away.

Zach looked at the mother and daughter in displeasure. He took the bag from Elvira and left with her in his arms.

Rowena was stunned speechless by Zach's aura. She only reacted when he left. She turned to look at her stepdaughter, who had been silent all this while. Sandy was staring at Zach's back in a daze.

"Sandy, let's go shopping somewhere else." Rowena pulled her stepdaughter.

"Rowena, that man just now is Elvira's husband, right? I think Elvira really doesn't care about you at all now. Her husband is your son-in-law, but she didn't even introduce him." Sandy's mind was filled with Zach's handsome appearance. She felt like she was in love. Rowena frowned and said, "Sandy, you're my daughter now. Elvira is from the Willis family. She has nothing to do with me." Rowena only wanted to treat her stepson and stepdaughter well because they were from the bloodline she loved the most. As for Elvira and Marsh, they were naturally under Vincent's control. She would not care anymore.

"Rowena, I knew you loved me the most. Rowena, I like that man. Help me talk to Elvira and ask her to give me her husband. I promise to find her a better and richer man!" Sandy held Rowena's arm and acted like a spoiled child.

Rowena was in a dilemma. It was not that she did not want to help Sandy, but Elvira would not listen to her, right?

"Rowena, I'm begging you. I lost my mother when I was ten years old and have always treated you as my biological mother. I really like that man. Please help me." Sandy sounded like she was about to cry.

"Alright, alright. I will definitely help you. Let me think about how to make Elvira agree." Rowena could not bear to see Sandy sad, so she quickly agreed.

Sandy immediately hugged Rowena and kissed her. "Rowena, I knew you were the best to me. You're the best mommy world!"

"As long as you're happy." Rowena's eyes lit up. Although Sandy had always treated her well, she had never praised herself like this.

For Sandy's sincerity, everything was worth it.

Was it not just a man? Elvira was born beautiful because she took after Rowena herself. Elvira could find what she wanted. What was wrong with giving her man to Sandy?

Zach did not know that he had been targeted by a woman again. Elvira also did not know how many more unimaginable things her mother, who was in love and had brain cancer, could do.

Although Elvira had long seen Rowena's heartlessness, her chest still ached when she faced it again, and her face was filled with loneliness.

Don't be sad. Some people are just not fated. Even if it's between parents and children, Elvira, we must protect our baby well in the future. We must not let our baby suffer the pain of a divorce like the two of us. We must not let anyone bully him at all. Zach held Elvira's hand tightly to comfort him.

Elvira nodded.

"I will also take good care of you and the baby. I will make sure you two are happy and carefree," Zach promised her firmly.

Elvira listened to his promise and knew that he was sincere. The discomfort in her heart finally dissipated, and she leaned her head on his shoulder.

Samson really doted on Olivia. He held Olivia's birthday party in the largest hotel and invited a group of good friends.

Olivia did not know. Samson told his family that he wanted to give her a surprise and secretly brought her here.

Olivia had been busy all day. She changed her clothes and got into Samson's car. She said, "Where are we going to eat? Let's go home after eating. I'm so tired."

"Why don't I massage you first?" Samson's heart ached when he saw her tired face.

"No need, I'm not that squeamish. Let's go," Olivia said as she looked out of the car in a daze. In the past, Tommy had always accompanied her on her birthday. One good thing about Tommy was that no matter how busy he was, he would always accompany her on her birthday. This year, the two of them had broken up, and she could not contact Tommy. She was married and had another person by her side. However, she still did not know if Tommy also had a beauty by his side. Olivia felt bitter.

Samson drove Olivia to the hotel. When he entered the banquet hall, Olivia looked at everyone she knew in surprise. There were photos of Olivia in the banquet hall. It was obvious that Samson had spent a lot of effort to prepare a birthday banquet. It was elegant and exquisite.

It was probably every girl's dream.

"Olivia, happy birthday."

Well wishes sounded in Olivia's ears. She smiled and turned to look at Samson. "Thank you."

"Honey, don't be too polite with me. I love you." As Samson confessed his love, he knelt down on one knee in front of her and took out a ring box. He opened it and handed it to Olivia.

Olivia was a little stunned. She asked, "What are you doing? Get up quickly."

Samson said affectionately, "Although you and I are getting married in a flash, I will make up for everything I owe you bit by bit. Proposal, wedding, as long as other girls have it, my wife must have it! Olivia Santos, thank you for marrying me!"

"Oh, Samson is so domineering!"

"Samson is mighty!"

His friends cheered at the side.

Olivia looked at the man in front of her. She was not familiar with him yet, but they slept on the same bed every day and did the most intimate things. Her eyes were filled with tears of gratitude. She took the ring and put it on. She reached out and pulled him up. Samson deliberately fell towards her and hugged her before kissing her.

Everyone began to cheer and clap again. The atmosphere was very enthusiastic.

Elvira smiled as she watched all of this. She suddenly felt that her previous worries might have been unnecessary. Zach was right. Samson only knew what kind of woman he wanted to spend the rest of his life with after hanging out with women. Zach originally thought that it was just Samson's birthday banquet for his wife. He did not expect Samson to have so many tricks up his sleeve. He actually proposed to Olivia in public. Zach looked at Elvira beside him. Her eyes were filled with suddenly felt that he was indeed not as romantic as Samson in this aspect.

Zach had never proposed to his wife, Elvira!

warm smile. Zach

After exchanging greetings with everyone, Olivia quickly approached Elvira. Elvira presented her with a birthday gift. It was a necklace she personally designed and crafted, along with some clothes she bought that day. Olivia was thrilled with the gifts, and her eyes, which had been dull since the breakup, now sparkled with a glimmer of joy. This brought a sense of relief to Elvira.

She Got A Better Man

"Mr. Gilbert, can I borrow Elvira for a while?" Olivia pulled Elvira to the side and asked with a smile, "How is it? Are you pregnant?"

"I don't think so." Elvira shrugged indifferently. In fact, she was not in a hurry. In any case, it was only a matter of time. Perhaps her body could not conceive easily.

"There's no need to rush. It hasn't been long. It's just that it's been hard on me. I don't even dare to come out and play with you. I'm afraid I'll delay the two of you from making babies." Olivia held Elvira's hand and noticed that Elvira seemed to be in a bad mood.

"What's wrong? Are you unhappy?"

"My biological mother is back. I bumped into her when I was buying clothes for you today. Previously, I hoped that she could take the time to return to the country and ask for custody of Marsh, but she refused. Now that she has returned to the country, she even brought her beloved stepdaughter to shop every day. Today, her stepdaughter took a fancy to the clothes I gave you. My biological mother asked me to give them to her, but I didn't."

With such a mother, how could Elvira be happy?

"How could she do this? You're her biological daughter! That's too much!" Olivia was filled with righteous indignation.

13

"Forget it. Maybe I don't have a mother-daughter relationship with her. I can't force it. I think Samson is really good to you. You have to move forward too, understand?" Elvira gently pinched Olivia's chin to remind her.

"I know." Olivia smiled, her eyes filled with happiness.

Elvira felt quite gratified.

So, the best way to forget an ex-boyfriend was to start a new relationship.

Moreover, she would be irresponsible if she kept thinking about her ex-boyfriend.

"Olivia, come and cut the cake." Olivia's mother called out to her daughter with a smile in her voice.

A seven-story cake was pushed in. On the top was a photo of Olivia. This birthday banquet showed how dedicated and sincere Samson was to Olivia.

Olivia pulled Elvira along to cut the cake. How could Elvira steal the limelight from the couple? She silently retreated and bumped into Zach. She turned around and looked at the man behind her. The two of them looked at each other and smiled. After the cake was cut, everyone began to play. Olivia's parents said that they were old and left to let the young people play.

Everyone was playing games, singing, and the entire birthday banquet was very lively.

Just as the birthday banquet was going on, a pregnant woman walked in. Everyone who saw her was curious about who she was. Someone recognized her as one of Samson's girlfriends.

This friend of Samson hurriedly went to look for Samson, who was coaxing his wife, but Samson did not leave. The friend forcefully pulled Samson to the side and pointed at the pregnant woman who was walking towards him.

Samson naturally recognized this woman. She was his ex-ex-girlfriend. Because this woman was obedient enough, he had been with her for a longer time, about four months. Later, he felt tired of her and broke up with her. This woman disappeared without crying or making a fuss.

At that time, he still felt a little guilty towards her. Now that he saw her knocking on his door with a big belly, he suddenly sobered up. This woman was not as innocent as he had seen back then. She was the one with the deepest thoughts!

Samson immediately asked his friend to take the woman away and deal with her however he wanted.

His good friend was also loyal. He immediately went over to stop the woman and brought her out of the banquet hall. Samson returned to Olivia's side in frustration. Olivia saw that his expression did not seem right, so she asked, "What happened?"

"It's just a small matter." Samson did not dare to let Olivia know that his ex-girlfriend was pregnant, even if he was not sure if the child was his.

"I saw a pregnant woman come in just now. Is she here to look for you?" Olivia was an obstetrician and was very sensitive to pregnant women, so she saw her with just a glance.

"What? I didn't notice that there were pregnant women among the people I invited today. Did she go to the wrong place?" Samson's smile was a little forced as he tightened his grip on Olivia's hand.

Olivia looked at him and said, "I saw someone take her away. If you need any help, you can look for me. I'm a maternity expert."

"My wife is the best." Samson was extremely guilty. He did not dare to show it, afraid that Olivia would be angry and leave him.

After the birthday banquet ended, Zach and Elvira bade farewell to the couple and went home.

Samson took Olivia to the presidential suite of the hotel that had been booked in advance. The room had also been prepared in advance. It was filled with the flowers that Olivia liked.

After entering the door, Olivia turned around in surprise. She was hugged tightly by Samson. He could not wait to kiss her lips. Olivia was already used to him kissing her anytime and anywhere. She could feel that Samson was especially clingy to her. She thought that this was true love. Samson really liked Olivia very much. He was afraid of losing her. He lived every day carefully, hoping that she would fall in love with him and not leave him.

Samson wanted to carry her to bed, but Olivia quickly stopped him. "Wait a minute. Let's go to the bathroom first. Take a shower before going to bed."

Samson naturally listened to her. As he kissed her, he carried her into the bathroom. He placed her on the sink and reached into her clothes to feel around. Olivia was already used to his intimacy. From the initial inexperience to the current maturity, her body was already very compatible with his.

After a while, Samson filled the bathtub with water and carried the exhausted girl into the bathtub. Olivia did not want to go but Samson was not willing to let her go. He really liked her and was especially fascinated by her body. It further anymore, was as if he could not get enough of her.

Olivia could only let him do it again in the bathtub. Finally, they did it again on the bed. Olivia fell asleep because she was exhausted, while Samson cleaned up her body. Looking at the girl's sleeping side profile, his heart softened Samson got up and carefully put on his clothes. Then, he took his phone and tiptoed out of the room.

Olivia was in a deep sleep. She was very hardworking and had been tormented by him for half the night. Now, she was so sleepy that even thunder could not wake her up.

After Samson went out, he called his friend. He wanted to see that woman. He wanted to see what she wanted to do when she came back pregnant!

The friend had arranged for the woman to stay in a hotel room, When Samson came in, the person

"Don't go. I'm married now. It's not suitable for me to be alone with another woman." Samson stopped his friend.

Seeing this, his friend sat down silently and tried his best to be invisible.

Samson looked at the pale-faced woman and pulled a chair over to sit in front of her. He asked, "What do you mean by appearing today?"

The woman seemed to be quite sad. Her lips trembled as she said. "I didn't expect you to get married so quickly. I thought you would continue to play around. I thought that by getting pregnant with your child, you would treat me differently."

She Got A Better Man

Chapter 137 95%

The woman really did not expect Samson to get married so quickly. He clearly loved to play and change girlfriends very quickly. She could not understand why such a man would suddenly get married.

"You just want to rely on the child to get child support money from me! Did I really underestimate you? How can you prove that the child in your stomach is mine?" Samson looked at her coldly. There was no warmth in his eyes. "The child is yours. If you don't believe me, I can do a DNA test. I've been pregnant for a few months now. We can use amniocentesis to determine your relationship with the child," the woman closed her eyes and said. Samson sneered. "I don't care if this child is mine or not. You only have one way now. Abort it and I'll compensate you two million dollars. Don't ever appear in front of me and my wife again!"

Samson would never allow anything to threaten his relationship with Olivia.

When the woman heard his words, she stood up and said agitatedly, "You can't do this. This child is also blood!"

your flesh and

"Do you think that the money is too little? I'm sorry, I've given you too much. In my eyes, you're not worth a single cent!" Samson looked at the woman with disdain.

The woman did not expect Samson to be so heartless.

Naturally, she wanted to use the child to tie down Samson. After all, she came from a small place and had no education or ability. The only thing she could rely on was her beauty. Therefore, after Samson took a fancy to her, she had been pretending to be obedient. She deliberately broke the condom to get pregnant.

"I beg you not to be so heartless. I really like you. That's why I want to have a child with you and me. As long as you let me give birth to the child, I promise I won't disturb you and your wife! I can bring the child overseas to live. Please." The woman kneeled in front of Samson with her stomach puffed up and cried.

Samson was unmoved. He said coldly, "Don't even think about it. I won't let you give birth to this child. My child can only be given to my wife. No other woman can!"

After saying that, he called two bodyguards over. The woman wanted to escape, but Samson kept staring at her covetously, not giving her a chance to escape.

The woman had no choice but to beg Samson to let her and the child go. Samson was unmoved and only felt more at ease after watching the bodyguards take them away.

His friend could not bear it and asked, "Samson, aren't you being too ruthless?"

"What do you know? This woman has evil intentions. If she really gives birth to my child, I'm afraid my entire life will be over!" Samson was a little silly, but he was not stupid. As long as such a scheming woman was given a chance, she would be able to turn the world upside down.

Samson cherished his current life and did not want to lose it at all.

After dealing with this woman, Samson went back to look for Olivia. The moment he held his wife in his arms, his heart calmed down.

Elvira finally received a call from her mother, but she was not happy at all. Rowena had asked her to meet.

Elvira agreed. She wanted to see what her biological mother had to say to her.

When Elvira arrived, Rowena was sitting by the window drinking tea. This woman was very beautiful. Even though she was already in her forties, she was still very beautiful. Age only added to her mature charm, but it did not reduce her beauty at 1/3 all.

Amber was worlds apart from her.

Elvira wondered how blind her scumbag father was to fall for Amber.

Perhaps as some women say, even if the wife at home is beautiful, the ugly women outside might still be appealing.

When Rowena saw Elvira coming over to let her sit, Elvira sat down and said, "If you have something to say, say it quickly. I still have work to do and don't have much time."

"Elvira, we haven't seen each other for a few years. I just want to talk to you. Is your job more important than me?" Rowena looked at her daughter with a hurt expression.

Elvira looked at her in surprise and said, "Of course work is important! Work can support me, make me independent, and give me the confidence to be myself. As my biological mother, you don't seem to have this function, right? If I were to count on you as my biological mother, I would have starved to death long ago."

Rowena was speechless.

"Are you blaming me? You know that I have no choice. I can't forgive your father for having an affair. Since I got married, I naturally have to treat my husband's children as my own."

"Alright, I don't want to hear about your family's deep love. Why are you looking for me?" Elvira did not think that her mother had suddenly found her conscience and was looking for her daughter to bond with her.

"What does your husband do? You're already married. As your biological mother, I should at least know the general situa of my son-in-law, right? Tell me about it." Rowena did not beat around the bush. She did not like to interact with her daughter and preferred to be with her stepdaughter.

Rowena felt that her daughter was too cold now, making her feel uncomfortable.

Elvira looked at her mother suspiciously. She felt that things were not as simple as she said. When had her biological mother ever cared about her? There was no such thing! So why was Rowena suddenly interested in Zach?

"My husband is an employee of an ordinary company. His monthly salary is a few thousand dollars. I bought the house we live in, and I also bought the car." Elvira deliberately gave her mother the wrong information. "What? That man is actually a freeloader? How can that be?" Rowena felt that Zach was not good enough for her precious Sandy.

"Do you have anything else to ask?" Elvira did not know what her mother was up

1. to.

She stared at her mother and asked.

"That's all. Don't you have something else to do? You can leave first. I'll sit by myself for a while." Rowena felt that Zach was not worthy of Sandy, so she did not want to say anything more to Elvira. She was here because Sandy liked Elvira's husband. Since that man was not suitable, what else did she have to say to Elvira?

She had nothing else to say.

Elvira's heart turned even colder. Marsh was missing! This woman really Elvira could not be bothered to talk to her anymore. She got up and left.

did not care at all!

Sandy walked out of a small door at the side. Rowena quickly went forward and held her hand. "Sandy, we can't have a man who lives off a woman like that. Not even if he's good-looking!" "Rowena, why do I feel like Elvira isn't telling the truth? That man's aura doesn't seem like an ordinary person. I'll get someone to investigate," Sandy said, unwilling to give up.

If he was really an ordinary man, she would not want him. However, she trusted her intuition. That man could not be the ordinary man that Elvira mentioned!

"Alright, if what you said is true and Elvira lied, I will definitely help you snatch him over." Rowena held her stepdaughter's hand firmly.

She Got A Better Man

In the end, Jason accepted Elvira's suggestion and allowed her brand to move into his mall. He returned the Kennedy Group's application to move in.

When Calvin received the news, he felt his blood surging. He felt that Zach was behind this and was deliberately messing with the Kennedy family.

Because of Zach's words, the Kennedy family had suffered heavy losses and had already lost several partners. However, the good news was that Judy's latest design had been chosen by an internationally renowned jewelry master. They had even forwarded Judy's design and given it a high evaluation.

With the jewelry master's evaluation, the Kennedy Group's new products would definitely be very popular this time. At that time, the ones who would lose would be those despicable people who cancelled collaboration with them!

Calvin was even more certain that he had made the right choice in choosing Judy. Although Elvira's scandal in middle school was set up by someone, it was also a fact that she did not go to a better university. Her educational qualifications destined her to live a mediocre life. She was not like Judy, a top student in a famous university's design major. Now that Judy's design had been approved by a master designer, her future was limitless.

At the thought of this, Calvin took the initiative to call Judy and ask her out for dinner.

Judy happily agreed. At the same time, she told him a piece of good news. "Calvin, I was about to call you. Charles has invited me to his banquet the day after tomorrow. Many big shots in the design world will attend!"

"Really? That's great. Judy, you're really my lucky star. Only with you in the Kennedy Group can it be stable." Calvin's voice was even gentler.

"Calvin, you and I are one. No matter what happens, I will always help you," Judy said sweetly.

Calvin was deeply moved. He suddenly said, "Judy, let's get married!"

When Judy heard Calvin finally say that he wanted to marry her her eyes lit up. She suppressed the excitement and shyness in her heart and said, "Calvin, from the moment I saw you, I swore that I would marry no one but you. I'm willing to marry you." Calvin wanted to take advantage of Judy's current popularity to quickly produce this quarter's products. Hence, he called the production department to work overtime to produce them.

"Mr. Kennedy, it's not a problem to work overtime to produce, but the funds are much worse. I don't know why the bank hasn't been willing to lend money to our company recently." The person in charge was also in a terrible fix. After all, this was his job, but there was nothing he could do if the bank did not give him money.

"It doesn't matter. The response to this product is very good. Just focus on production. I'll settle the money immediately." Calvin decided to borrow money from a private source.

Judy's design was already very popular. In addition, she would be able to attend Charles' banquet soon. At that time, Judy's reputation would only become even more resounding. The company's products would definitely be sold out.

Elvira received another call from her biological mother. This time, she received a reprimand from her biological mother. "Elvira, how could you lie to me?" Rowena sounded disappointed.

"What's the difference? Why? Will you change because of my husband's identity? Will you not care about the life and death of your stepson and stepmother and care about your biological children?" Elvira asked sarcastically. "How can you talk to your mother like that? No matter what, you can't lie to me. Besides, why wouldn't care about you and Marsh?" Rowena said unhappily.

"Marsh has been missing for a long time. Have you asked about him? Do you care if he's dead or alive? Do you believe what you said?" Elvira still could not calm herself down to face her mother's favoritism.

"How could Marsh go missing? Did he run away on his own?" Rowena did not even care about Elvira. How could she care about Marsh, whom she had never raised?

Elvira felt a dull pain in her chest when she heard that. She felt that it was not worth it for her and Marsh!

It must be retribution to have such a mother!

M

Elvira could no longer stand her mother's ruthlessness towards the siblings and hung up the phone.

When Rowena was suddenly hung up, she frowned fiercely. She felt that her daughter was getting more and more inconsiderate. This child was clearly not like this when she was young. Why was she getting more and more insensible as she grew older? Rowena felt that Elvira was always jealous of her stepdaughter and stepson. Why did Elvira not think about it? Rowena's stepdaughter and stepson had lost their biological mother! At least Elvira had both parents and was already very blessed. Elvira received a call from Charles.

"Elvira, long time no see. I've already sent you the invitation. You have to Elvira was surprised. She had not received an invitation from Charles.

"Where did you send the invitation?"

come tonight," Charles said with a smile.

"Aren't you the chief designer of the Kennedy Group now? I've seen your latest designs. As expected of you, they're getting more and more exquisite. I still have something on here. See you tonight." Charles hung up.

Elvira raised her eyebrows. It seemed that Charles had sent the invitation to Judy? So Judy would be attending his banquet tonight.

Charles was a foreigner and did not speak their language well. He should have only seen Judy impersonating Elvira's name and did not know that Judy was an imposter.

For tonight's banquet, Elvira had brought along Cole. She wanted him to film some exciting videos and find some marketing accounts to post. Today, she wanted Judy's reputation to be completely ruined!

a red gown. The fiery red color made her skin look even fairer than snow. She also found a place to do Elvira was wearing her hair and put on makeup. She was so beautiful that it made people wonder if she really existed in the mortal world.

Cole came over to pick up Elvira. Even though he knew that Elvira was beautiful, he was still stunned for a moment. Then, he opened the car door for her and suppressed the surging bitterness in his heart as he sat in the driver's seat. When the two of them arrived at the banquet venue, Calvin and Judy happened to arrive.

Judy could be said to be in high spirits. The smile on her face was much more sincere. She was now a famous designer in the country and had even been invited by an internationally famous designer. She had even posted Charles' invitation today and received the support of a group of fans.

Calvin was paying special attention to her now. After all, whether their company could successfully survive this crisis depended on Judy.

When he saw Elvira, Calvin's expression immediately darkened. He believed that the reason his company had encountered this crisis was all because of Elvira!

If she had not married the CEO of the Gilbert Group, Calvin's company would not have suffered such a heavy blow.

Two days ago, Calvin had urgently borrowed 20 million dollars from a private loan. All the money had been used to buy raw materials. The workshop had already accelerated production. When the new product went on the market this time, he wanted to let everyone who had abandoned him because of Zach to see how stupid their choice was!

She Got A Better Man

Elvira and Cole were stopped because they did not have an invitation. Elvira took out her phone and planned to call Charles personally.

"Excuse me, please don't stand in the way of the other VIPS. You can't enter without an invitation," the security guard said dutifully. He looked at Elvira and Cole with vigilance, as if the two of them would suddenly barge in. Cole was a little angry, but Elvira was very calm. She felt that there was no need to argue with an ordinary staff member.

Calvin and Judy happened to walk over. Calvin was overjoyed when he saw Elvira being stopped outside the entrance.

Judy looked at her innocently. "Elvira, don't you have an invitation? Why did you come here without an invitation?"

Guests arrived one after another. After hearing Judy's words, everyone looked at Elvira.

At first glance, they were stunned by Elvira's gorgeous face. Those who could come today were all from the design industry. When they saw Elvira, they even wanted to ask her if she'd be interested in a modeling job.

Judy hid the jealousy in her eyes. Today, she was wearing white. She thought that she could look like a fairy and suppress everyone. However, she was inferior to Elvira in a gaudy red dress.

"Charles called me and invited me," Elvira replied calmly. She called Charles but he did not pick up. She supposed he was probably busy and did not bring his phone with him.

That's hilarious, Elvira. Mr. White sent out invitations to everyone. You can't enter without an invitation! Do you know who Mr. White is? He's a master in the design field. There's no way you'd know him." Judy raised her chin slightly, looking high and mighty as if she could be superior to Elvira.

The guests at the side also felt that Elvira was bragging. They had all been invited and did not know Charles. They wondered, 'We're all from the design industry.

'This woman does not even have an invitation letter, but she dares to say that she knows Charles. She's just lying through her teeth!

'If we're doing this, we can say that Charles White is our relative.

Calvin frowned. Clearly, he did not believe Elvira's words. He thought, 'Elvira only attended a low-level university in the country. How could she know Charles White, a genius from the world's most high-end university?'

"Let's go in." Calvin was very disappointed with Elvira and did not want to talk to her anymore.

Judy said, "Calvin, why don't we bring Elvira in with us? Since she's here, she must have something on. She's my sister. I can't just sit back and do nothing as she can't enter."

Judy looked like she could not bear for Elvira to be laughed at by outsiders. In fact, she just wanted Elvira to go in and see how she would Shauna. Today, she was Charles's special guest. She wanted Elvira to see her be admired and praised. "Then let's go in together. Don't waste time here," Calvin said calmly. His attitude toward Elvira had completely changed.

Judy was very satisfied with this.

However, Elvira did not care about this at all.

She did not refuse. It was better to enter than wait where she was. She only knew Charles there. If Charles never answered her calls for the entire night, her plan would be ruined.

Elvira looked deeply at the smug Judy and said with a smile, "Thank you."

G

She was thinking, I hope the two of you can still laugh later and won't regret bringing me in. It's a nice move to let Judy bring me in. She'll know what a stupid decision she is making now.' "You're welcome. We're sisters." Judy's eyelids suddenly twitched when she saw Elvira's gaze. She regretted her impulsive decision to bring Elvira to the banquet.

However, since she had already said it, she could not go back on her word. She could only brace herself and bring Elvira and Cole into the venue.

Elvira walked in in her high heels. She and Judy entered one after another. Everyone's gaze naturally was fixed on Elvira. As for Judy, she was shielded by Elvira's glory. No one noticed her at all.

Judy immediately regretted bringing Elvira in. She was so angry that her face turned livid. She thought, 'Elvira did it on purpose. I should have been the first one to enter. She's just an additional person, but she actually entered first!'

There were already many people in the banquet hall. After entering, Elvira brought Cole to a relatively quiet place to rest. She looked around the venue but did not see Charles.

She guessed he was probably busy and had not arrived yet.

Elvira's phone rang. It was Charles calling.

"Hey, Shauna, have you arrived yet? I have something important to attend to here. I'll be a little late," Charles said, a little embarrassed.

"I've already arrived. I'll leave you to your work then," Elvira said nonchalantly.

The designer of Kennedy Group had always been very mysterious. Her designs were also very popular, so everyone was very curious about Shauna. Now that they knew that Shauna was Judy, people from the industry surrounded her and praised her nonstop.

Judy had been holding Calvin's hand the entire time. She had a humble posture and a gentle smile on her face.

"Ms. Willis, I didn't expect you to be the designer of Kennedy Group. You're really talented. Mr. Kennedy is really lucky to be able to marry you," someone praised.

Someone else said, "That's right. Ms. Willis is Willis Group's successor. Now that she has joined forces with Kennedy Group she will definitely present more amazing works in the future."

Another one said, "Ms. Willis's, your designs are really amazing. I really like them. I wonder if there's a chance for me to get some pointers from you."

Elvira watched from afar as Judy and Calvin were being praised. They looked like they were in high spirits. She thought that in any case, they would fall very soon.

Judy knew that Elvira was looking at her. She was very happy and thought, 'I've made the right decision by bringing Elvira in. Elvira must be very envious of me now.

'So what if she married the CEO of Gilbert Group? Elvira has no talent and is just incompetent. How could such a woman keep a man? It's only a matter of time before she's dumped. 'However, Mom is right. We have to use this opportunity to find someone to replace Elvira and marry into the Gilbert family. That will be very beneficial to me and the Willis, family. Judy felt like laughing out loud just thinking about it. The smile on her face became even more sincere.

Charles finally arrived. After he came in, he asked, "Where is Shauna? Take me to her immediately."

When the guests heard Charles's words, they all looked at Judy enviously. Charles was a world-renowned design master. It would be a great honor to gain his approval.

Judy had a proud look on her face. She smiled and held Calvin arm as they walked toward Charles

75

Elvira watched this scene with interest. The smile on her face grew brighter and brighter. After all, watching the person she hated make a fool of herself was something that could make her happy.

She Got A Better Man

Judy took the initiative to greet Charles. "Hello, Mr. White. It's a pleasure to meet you."

She took the initiative to extend her hand to Charles, who frowned unhappily. Since she had come as a guest, he still patiently shook hands with Judy. "Welcome. Please help yourselves," Charles said perfunctorily.

The guests were quite shocked and wondered, 'Isn't Mr. White looking for Shaun? Why is he so aloof while Judy is standing in front of him?'

"Mr. White, thank you for inviting me to your banquet," Judy took the initiative to talk to him.

"You're welcome. Where is Ms. Shaun?" Charles couldn't wait to see Elvira.

"Well... Mr. White, Ms. Willis is Shaun. You personally invited her," someone beside him reminded Charles.

"Mr. White, nice to see you for the first time. I'm Shaun. My Avernian name is Judy Willis, and I'm now the designated designer of Kennedy Group." Judy raised her hand and gently brushed the hair by her ear. Her smile was very elegant. Charles looked at her in shock and asked, "What did you say? I didn't hear you clearly. Could you repeat yourself?" His Avernian was not very good, so he wondered if he was hearing things. Why did this woman say that she was Shaun? Charles thought, 'Why does she say she's Shaun? Shaun's surname is Willis, but she's definitely not this woman here.' Judy's smile did not change. She thought that Charles was too surprised to see her, so she confidently introduced herself again in Wylish.

Charles instantly flew into a rage. "That's nonsense! Who are you? How dare you pretend to be Shaun?"

Judy and Calvin's expressions changed when they heard what he said. The people around them were also shocked. They looked at Charles who suddenly became furious and did not understand what was going on for a moment.

They wondered, 'Mr. White actually says that Judy Willis is an impostor? Is that true?'

Everyone looked at Calvin and Judy excitedly, thinking that if Judy was really an impostor, things would be interesting.

Calvin's expression instantly darkened. Kennedy Group was already in crisis because of Zach's suppression. Now that Calvin relied on borrowing money to produce new products, if it was revealed that Judy was not the real Shaun, it would probably be difficult for his batch of products to be sold.

After all, no one would buy an impostor's products.

Calvin only felt his limbs turn pale. His breathing quickened as he felt that he was suffocating and on the verge of going mad.

"Mr. White, even if you are the best in the design field, you can't call her an impostor randomly! You have never seen Shaun before. How can you spout nonsense here?" Calvin was really cornered. He had never felt the threat of death the way he did now.

If the products did not succeed this time, Kennedy Group would face a great calamity of bankruptcy.

Calvin would never allow the fact that Judy was not Shaun to be leaked.

"That's right, Mr. White. This is the first time we've met. What right do you have to say that I'm an impostor? This is slander. Please apologize to me immediately, or I'll sue you and take it to court!" Judy had a serious expression of Charles could not believe that this woman who was pretending to be Shaun had the nerve to be so self-righteous.

He had never seen such a thick-skinned person.

"Am I slandering you? Shaun and I learned from the same teacher. Who are you, impostor? You're even clamoring to sue me. I'm going to sue you for impersonating my friend!" Charles's attitude was even tougher, firmer, and more self-righteous than Judy's. When Calvin and Judy heard this, their hearts skipped a beat. They did not expect Shaun to learn from Charles's teacher. Now that things had come to this, they could only make do with it. They could not admit that Judy was an impostor.

Although Charles had a very high status internationally, the people in Averno were not familiar with him. Calvin and Judy could only take advantage of this loophole and refuse to admit that Judy was a fake.

"Mr. White, is there some misunderstanding going on here? My fiancée is indeed Shaun, the designer of my company. Could it be that she has the same name as your friend?" Calvin quickly thought of this excuse.

The guests were all listening attentively. When they heard Calvin's explanation, they felt that it was possible.

"Charles, it's been a while." Elvira walked out with a smile. Her appearance instantly attracted everyone's attention.

When Charles saw Elvira, his expression finally softened. There was a surprised smile on his face. He happily walked toward Elvira and gave her a hug. "Shauna, it's been a while indeed. I've missed you too much! How could you never contact us? I almost died of missing you."

Elvira smiled at him. "We can keep in touch in the future."

When Calvin and Judy saw this scene, they were so shocked that they could not speak. They could not believe that Elvira was Shaun.

Calvin was dumbfounded and felt utterly terrible. He never expected that the person who had been providing designs for his company was actually Elvira.

Not only did Elvira help him survive the company's crisis a few times, but she also anonymously provided design plans for his company.

Calvin felt that the world around him was spinning. He did not dare to imagine what he had missed.

In the past, during the Kennedy Group's crisis, Elvira had actually been the one giving advice to Calvin. However, she did his ego. not take credit and deliberately gave all the credit to Calvin to protect Judy was completely dumbfounded. She looked at Charles's enthusiastic attitude toward Elvira and was about to go crazy from jealousy. Her eyes were filled with resentment.

She thought, 'I've brought Elvira in to let her see my glorious moment, not to let her and Charles White reminisce about the past and let others know how good her relationship with him is! Now, I'm especially sure that Elvira is my nemesis! As long as Elvira is around, I'll never have a good time!' "Shauna, what's going on? Why did she also say that she's the designer Shaun?" Charles asked in confusion.

Elvira looked at Judy and Calvin with a faint smile. She just asked them, "Mr. Kennedy, shouldn't you explain why Judy used the same Wylsh name as me?"

Judy could only brace herself and explain, "Elvira, you've never said that your Wylsh name is Shaun. Perhaps it's really such a coincidence. We're biological sisters, so we share a tacit understanding." She was extremely afraid now, afraid that she would be exposed as a fake.

However, Judy felt a little more confident when she thought about how she picked up the designs and Elvira did not have any evidence to prove that she was the one who drew them.

"What? You two are biological sisters? Oh my god, isn't the difference too huge?" Charles looked at the two of them in shock.
