

She Got A Better Man 141-150

"I still have something to do with Judy. I'll take my leave now. Goodbye." Calvin did not want to stay any longer. He had a lot on his mind. The fact that Shaun was Elvira was too much of a shock to him, giving him mixed feelings. He did not want to stay there anymore. For the first time, he felt a strong sense of suffocation.

"Wait a minute. Do you think you can leave after you impersonated me? Do you think this is a simple matter?" said Elvira. How could she let Calvin and Judy leave?

She was there today to expose Judy's impersonation. Naturally, she could not let today's matter go.

"Elvira, what nonsense are you spouting? Even if we use the same Wylish name, you can't just call me an impostor, right? Who said that only you can use the name Shauna? Grandma is not feeling well today. I'm going back. We'll talk at home!" Judy said helplessly. "Elvira, there's been a misunderstanding. Let's talk about it in private. This is our family matter! There's no need to talk about it in public." Calvin was very nervous. Now, he regretted agreeing to Judy's impersonation of Shauna, which caused the current trouble he was in. "Elvira, you're not treating Grandma well enough. I have to take care of her. I'm going home." With that, Judy pulled Calvin away.

The guests all felt the same.

They felt that Judy was running away after she was exposed.

Charles finally understood what was going on. He pointed at Judy and asked Elvira, "Shauna, did she steal your name and works? How can you be so despicable? This is more serious than theft! Shauna is my friend. I can prove it for her!"

Charles had a very high status in the international design field, and what he said meant a lot. After hearing Charles's words, the guests had already believed the fact that Judy was an impostor.

"Like I said, we just share the same name! Besides, my sister majored in accounting at university! She even went to a low-tier university. How could she possibly understand anything about design?" Judy would definitely not admit that she was an impostor.

"What? You're saying that Shauna studied at a low-tier university You actually called Pattison College a low-tier university? How can you be so bold?" Charles looked at Judy in shock. He even thought that this woman was crazy.

Hearing Charles's words, everyone gasped and began to whisper Pattison College was a world-renowned design academy. The recruitment requirements were very strict. Every year, there would not be more than three admission slots. Every student who graduated from the college was a talent in the design field. Charles was an outstanding graduate, and Elvira used to be a student of that school.

Calvin was shocked again. His expression darkened as he asked, "Are you mistaken? Elvira really only got into a low-level university in the country and studied accounting."

"There must be a mistake, Mr. White. Elvira's admission procedures were all handled by my mother. There can't be a mistake." Judy was full of confidence now.

"I'm sorry. Your mother, who is my stepmother, did want me to go to a low-end university. However, I dropped out of school and enrolled in Pattison College!" Elvira smiled and announced her real educational qualifications.

Calvin was completely stunned on the spot. He looked at Elvira in front of him and suddenly felt as if he had never known her.

In the past, in his eyes, Elvira was a scheming person who had evil intentions and had been discarded in the countryside for three years, completely delaying her studies. Calvin thought that she had only entered a low-tier university after the college entrance examination and studied accounting. After graduation, she could only rely on her family to achieve nothing.

But now, his understanding had been overturned. Elvira had been wronged for bullying her classmates and seducing a teacher. She had not delayed her studies for three years in the countryside and had even been admitted to one of the world's top universities. The works she had designed had successfully made Kennedy Group outstanding among all the brands and become an outstanding talent in the industry. Not only did she have excellent design abilities, but the people she knew were also top-notch in the industry. Calvin was so conflicted that he could not say anything.

Calvin regretted what he had done so much. If he had not despised Elvira, if he had not been attracted to Judy and cheated on Elvira, if he had not abandoned her on the day he was supposed to marry her for the sake of Judy, who was only slightly injured, Kennedy Group would not be in the predicament it was in now. Even if Calvin did not want to admit it, he surely felt terrible regret now. Judy's face was filled with disbelief as she said, "That's impossible"

"How is it impossible? Shauna is my friend! Because she is talented, my teacher made an exception and took her in as his student. Could it be that I can even mistake my schoolmate for someone else?" Charles looked at the impostor with drain. "You... Even if that's the case, it can't change the fact that I'm Shauna, Kennedy Group's designated designer!" Judy insisted that she was not an impostor.

Elvira looked at Calvin and asked, "Mr. Kennedy, you should know best if your fiancée is Shauna, right? Why don't you tell us if Judy is a fake?"

Calvin clenched his fists tightly. For a moment, he did not answer Elvira's question. Of course, he knew that Judy was an impostor. This was his last resort for the company's benefit.

"She's Shauna! My company's designer! You've all seen her latest work. Her style hasn't changed. There's no such thing as impersonation." Calvin was already cornered. He didn't dare to say that Judy was a fake now. Once he said this, Kennedy Group would go bankrupt.

He knew that he had let Elvira down, but he had no choice.

"In that case, I can only sue you. I will sue you for Judy impersonating me. I believe the law will uphold justice for me." Elvira smiled lightly. She had long guessed that Calvin would say those words.

She couldn't believe how shameless Calvin and Judy were.

"I've kept all my emails with Kennedy Group from before. I've also registered all the discarded drafts that Judy picked up. By then, I'll sue you for infringement, and you'll have to compensate me. Calvin, on account of the fact that the two of us have been friends since we were young, let me give you a piece of advice. Don't produce this season's new products for now. I'm afraid no one will buy anything that's plagiarized," Elvira reminded Calvin with a smile.

Calvin and Judy's expressions changed drastically at the same time. This time, they could not hide their shock even if they wanted to. If what Elvira said was true, Kennedy Group would really be doomed. Judy's last bit of reputation would be completely destroyed. The guests looked at their expressions and understood everything. They knew that what Elvira said was true, and Calvin and Judy were the thieves who stole her works.

She Got A Better Man

Calvin did not even realize how he managed to walk out of the banquet hall. He was extremely regretful now. He regretted agreeing to Judy's request to impersonate Shauna. He even regretted leaving Elvira.

He did not even dare to imagine what would happen if Elvira really sued him and Judy. If Judy's impersonation and plagiarism were known by everyone, Kennedy Group's jewelry would be unsold.

Judy was not having a good time either. All she wanted to do now was to go home and talk to Amber so that Amber could help her find a way to tide over the crisis.

In the car, Calvin suddenly turned to look at Judy and questioned, "Did you plagiarize Elvira's works?"

"Of course not. I... I designed those works. My sister has set me up!" Judy refused to admit that she had picked up those sketches instead of finishing them herself.

Since she was still not telling him the truth at this critical moment, Calvin was completely furious. "The truth has been revealed, but you're still quibbling! I'm in deep trouble because of you! Kennedy Group is completely over because of you!" "Calvin, don't believe my sister. I'm really innocent! Those sketches..." Judy grabbed his hand and tried to defend herself.

"Shut up! You've really ruined me this time!" Calvin suddenly hugged his head in pain. He felt extremely terrified when he thought about what he would have to face next.

Judy still tried to say something. "Calvin..."

"Do you know the biggest difference between you and Elvira? Elvira has never lied! You just lie through your teeth. You're a liar who never tells the truth!" Calvin finally came to a realization. Unfortunately, it was too late.

Judy looked at him in shock as if she could not believe that he had actually evaluated her like this. "Calvin, how can you say that about me? Besides, I had your permission when I wanted to pretend to be Shauna! If you had not agreed back then, I would not have been able to do it!"

Calvin was already so annoyed and furious. When he heard that she was actually pushing the blame on him, he instantly got even angrier. "Yes, I agreed, but you didn't tell me that you didn't draw your drafts. I saw that your works were very similar to Elvira's, so... You've ruined my family!"

Calvin was like a trapped beast now. His eyes were red. He really did not expect that Judy would have no morality in her. Not only did she impersonate Shauna, but she also picked up Elvira's unwanted drafts.

"Calvin, I'm sorry. I know I was wrong. Don't blame me. Let's think of a way to get through this crisis together." Judy was completely flustered now. She knew that the matter was serious. If her impersonation and plagiarism were exposed, she would be doomed. Judy still wanted to struggle a little more. Her reputation had already been ruined by more than half. Now that she had finally relied on this design to make a name for herself, her reputation could not withstand any more torment.

"How can we get through this? Our family is completely doomed now!" Calvin was completely discouraged. He thought that he could only complete the products by borrowing money this time. As long as the matter of impersonation and plagiarism was exposed, those products would end up a pile of trash.

He knew that he had a lot to blame for this situation because he was too stupid and blind. Judy had clearly lied time and time again and even used a baby that she failed to keep to frame Elvira. Calvin didn't know why he believed that she was just muddle-headed and could change.

It was clearly her nature that she was a liar and could never change.

Calvin was filled with hatred and helplessness. He felt like crying as he did not know how to salvage the situation.

"No, Calvin. Let's go and beg Elvira to let us off. With your relationship with her, she will definitely agree to it," Judy said as she grabbed his hand.

Calvin forcefully retracted his hand. He looked at the chauffeur and said, "Stop the car."

Judy saw that Calvin had listened to her words and thought that she still had a chance of winning, so she said, "Calvin, are you going to beg Elvira now? Let's wait outside for her to come out. Even if I have to kneel to her, I will ask her not to destroy us." +5

The car stopped. Calvin pushed open the door and got out. He was no longer willing to ride in the same car as Judy. He said, "Elvira never wanted to destroy you and me. We're in the wrong, but you never admitted it. Instead, you kept blaming her. Let's break up! I can't marry you."

Calvin closed the car door and turned to walk in the opposite direction.

Judy couldn't believe what she was hearing. She immediately wanted to push open the door and get out of the car, but the chauffeur had already driven forward.

"Stop the car now!" Judy shouted. She was really scared now. She did not want to break up with Calvin.

Even if she had deceived everyone, she truly liked Calvin.

The chauffeur stopped the car. Judy pushed open the door and wanted to chase after Calvin, but she was knocked to the

It was so ground by a speeding scooter. The one who was riding the scooter also fell. Judy's hands and knees were scrap painful that she cried. When she looked up again, Calvin was already gone.

When Calvin returned to the hotel, he stood there for a long time. He saw Elvira and Charles walking out, chatting and laughing. She was dressed in a red dress and looked bright and confident. She was like a ball of fire that attracted everyone's attention.

It was only now that Calvin realized that Elvira had really changed. She was no longer the little girl who had been submissive in the Willis family. She was no longer the girl who had been suppressed in every aspect, nor was she the woman who had been wooing him and begging him to marry her. Now, Elvira was confident, calm, and generous. There was light in her eyes. She was like a phoenix that had been reborn from the flames. She was so gorgeous that she was exceptionally dazzling.

Calvin's heart suddenly felt a sharp pain. The beautiful memories he had with Elvira suddenly got to him, making him almost unable to breathe.

Elvira and Charles said goodbye and got into the car. As Cole drove, he said, "Calvin has been watching you from the other side."

Elvira glanced at Calvin aloofly and said, "Ignore him."

Everything that happened to Kennedy Group today was caused by Calvin's own wrong choice. Elvira had already reminded him today not to invest in the scam designed by Judy.

Elvira did not expect Calvin to be willing to take on high-interest loans in order to make a comeback. Now that Judy's impersonation and plagiarism incident had been exposed, the money he invested would be lost. Next, Kennedy Group would face bankruptcy. When Judy returned home, Amber saw that her daughter, who had clearly gone to the banquet in high spirits, had returned with injuries all over her. Amber felt distressed as she screamed, Judy, what happened to you? How did you get injured? Where are the servants? Hurry up and get the first aid kit!"

She Got A Better Man

"Mom, please help me. Help me now..." Judy cried as soon as she entered the house. Amber doted on Judy the most. She felt heartbroken when she heard Judy cry.

"What exactly happened? Tell me about it. Don't cry. No matter what it is, I will think of a way for you." Amber looked at her anxiously.

"It's Elvira's fault. It's all because of Elvira that I was embarrassed again today. She even said that she wanted to sue me." Judy cried as she told Amber what had happened that night.

When Amber heard this, her face turned ashen. She wished she could kill that bitch Elvira. She gritted her teeth and said, "Don't be afraid. I won't let Elvira have the chance to sue you! I won't let her have the chance to expose you!" "Really? Mom, I'm so scared now. Calvin is leaving me. He said that he won't marry me," Judy cried.

"He will marry you. He just said it out of anger. Don't think about anything first. Apply the medicine, eat something, and have a good sleep. I won't let Elvira get what she wants. No one can hurt you, girl!" Amber took the medicine box sent by the servants and personally applied the medicine to Judy. When she saw Judy's injured palms and knees, her heart ached so much that she cried.

Amber wondered, 'Judy is the sweetie that I've carefully protected since she was young. It's all because of that bitch Elvira that Judy is hurt again. As expected, as long as Elvira is around, Judy won't have a good time!

"No, it's not the same. Mom, you don't know what's going on. If this goes wrong, Calvin's family will be bankrupted by Elvira. Calvin's family lost many clients because of her... Why is she so heartless? We're family, right? If she really sues me for impersonation and plagiarism... I won't be able to face anyone again. Calvin is leaving me. I don't want to live anymore," Judy cried sincerely. This time, she was really afraid.

Amber knew the severity of the matter. While she was anxious, she kept comforting Judy. After helping Judy back to her room to rest, Amber immediately returned to her room.

Tonight, Karen and Vincent were not around. Karen had gone to a banquet, and Vincent had a social engagement.

Amber held the phone tightly and hesitated for a while. Finally, she made up her mind and made a call.

The phone rang once but no one picked up. Amber didn't give up and called again before Jayden finally picked up.

"Amber, didn't you tell me never to contact you? Why are you calling me now?" Jayden burped. He sounded like he was wasted.

"Don't you want money? I'll give you 200 thousand dollars. Help me do something!" Amber hated Elvira to the core now. She just wanted to kill her as soon as possible and get rid of the calamity for Judy.

"No. The 10 thousand dollars you give me per month is enough for me to get my booze. I don't need that much money." Jayden rejected her directly.

Amber gave him 10 thousand dollars every month to support him. He didn't want more money but just enough to drink. Anyway, he was alone now.

Amber gritted her teeth and scolded, "You... You're always like this. If you had put in more effort back then, I wouldn't have been with another man while pregnant with your baby!"

Jayden was speechless for a while.

"What did you say?" Jayden sounded excited upon hearing what she said.

"Now that things have come to this, I won't hide it from you anymore. Judy is our daughter! Back then, it was because I couldn't see any hope with you that I brought her to live with Vincent. Over the past twenty years, I've let her live a wealthy life! I think I made the right choice!" The person Amber loved had always been her ex-boyfriend Jayden. Back then, she had no choice but to live with Vincent.

"Amber, is what you said true? You're not lying to me, right?" Jayden was completely sober. He was so shocked that he thought he was dreaming.

"Why would I need to lie to you? Judy looks 80% like you! This is also the reason why I asked you to leave Jersten." Amber simply told the truth.

Judy was 80% like her father Jayden. If someone saw Jayden, they would definitely suspect Judy's background. That was why Amber had to fork out 10 thousand dollars every month to let this man leave Jersten.

"I can't believe that's true. I really have a daughter! I actually have a descendant! Amber, thank you, thank you so much! You've made me have an heir," Jayden said excitedly.

"But... our daughter has been bullied badly! If you don't help her this time, she might not be able to live anymore," Amber sobbed.

"Who bullied her? Who dares to bully my daughter? Tell me who it is! I won't let them off!" Jayden was even more agitated. He couldn't allow anyone to bully Judy.

Amber said, "Vincent's biological daughter, Elvira, did it. Judy has been shielded by her glory all these years. Now, she has even forced Judy into dead end!"

"Damn that bitch. How dare she bully my daughter! I'll go back to Jersten now. I'll kill her!" Jayden said fiercely.

This was exactly what Amber wanted. She knew Jayden. He did not have great intelligence, but he had a lot of tricks up his sleeve. It was perfect for him to come back and deal with Elvira.

Most importantly, Amber really did not have any money now. She could not afford to hire someone to assassinate Elvira. Moreover, Elvira had many bodyguards around her now. Amber supposed a scoundrel like Jayden would be her best choice when it came to hiring assassins.

That night, Elvira asked Cole to send over the video of the banquet. She personally edited it and sent it to a few media outlets to expose it.

After the revelation, she paid for some trending topics and made Judy's impersonation and plagiarism trending.

As soon as this news was released, the stock markets of the Willis and Kennedy families plummeted the next day.

Calvin knew that it was Elvira who did it when he saw the news online. Now, he truly believed that Elvira no longer had any feelings for him. Even before today, he was still fantasizing that Elvira would let him off because of their previous relationship. Now, it seemed that he was overthinking it.

As soon as the news was released, all the customers who had ordered the goods with the Kennedy family called for a refund and compensation. Mike and Roxanne saw the news about Judy online and immediately came to ask Calvin what was going

1. on.

"Dad, Mom, I'm sorry. I've brought disaster to our family. Judy is indeed an impostor. Those designs of hers belong to Elvira. I'm afraid the company is going bankrupt this time." Calvin knew that there was nothing he could do. He could not even think of a way to salvage the current predicament.

He suddenly remembered that in the past, the Kennedy family had always been by his side during several crises. The solutions that he thought he had come up with were all guided by Elvira. It turned out that Elvia had been giving him ideas. 12:01 Tue, Dec 3 ti BG all the time. However, he foolishly thought that he was really talented to help the company survive the crisis.

She Got A Better Man

Mike and Roxanne were dumbfounded when they heard Calvin's words. The two of them asked in disbelief, "How is this possible? How can Elvira have such talent? Are you mistaken?"

In their eyes, Judy had always been the superior one while Elvira was the inferior one. Whether it was character, talent, or education, Judy always suppressed Elvira.

Now, Calvin suddenly told Mike and Roxanne that Judy was not as good as Elvira. They could not accept this.

"It's true," Calvin said with difficulty. It was impossible for him to deny it now.

Mike and Roxanne were completely anxious. Roxanne scolded, "Sure enough, the mistress's daughter can't achieve anything! We've all been deceived by those two bitches Amber and Judy!"

Seeing that the company was about to go bankrupt, Mike panicked. However, he knew that blaming Amber and Judy was pointless now.

"Calvin, why don't you go and beg Elvira to be magnanimous and let our family off?" Mike did not care about his prestige anymore. If Calvin didn't do it, he would.

Roxanne also looked at Calvin and said, "That's right, Calvin. Go and beg Elvira. She likes you so much. At most you will just marry her. Our Kennedy family will let her in. Didn't she do so much just to marry you?"

When Calvin heard Roxanne's words, he felt especially regretful. He shook his head bitterly. "Mom, that's just your wishful thinking. Elvira doesn't love me anymore. She's not interested in me at all now. It's just that I've been imagining things. After doing so many things to hurt her, I'm too embarrassed to beg her now."

Roxanne asked, "What did you do to hurt her? You just stopped loving her and fell in love with Judy, right? Other than that, you didn't do anything to let her down. Besides, ever since her biological mother left her, if it weren't for the fact that you've been helping her, she wouldn't have been able to live in the Willis family!"

Roxanne knew that Calvin had liked Elvira since he was young. Ever since Rowena left, Amber and Judy had started living with the Willis family, and Elvira and Marsh had been having a hard time. Every time, it was Calvin who helped Elvira. Roxanne thought that if not for Calvin's sake, Amber would not have let Elvira have a good time.

he

Later on, Roxanne helped a bit when Calvin fell in love with Judy. At that time, she looked down on Elvira's identity, so she often told Calvin that Elvira was mean and Judy was nice. At first, Calvin was very angry when he heard that, but later on, slowly stopped refuting Roxanne.

Thinking of this, Roxanne felt a little guilty and regretful.

"Mom, I won't beg her. I'm too embarrassed to do that! If we go bankrupt, so be it. At worst, we'll start all over again," Calvin said firmly.

Calvin continued firmly, "Also, I'm calling off my engagement with Judy. I won't marry her."

Regarding breaking off the engagement, Mike and Roxanne were still hesitating. After all, the Kennedy family was about to go bankrupt, but the Willis family was still doing well. If Calvin and Judy got married, the Kennedy family could still borrow the Willis family's power, but if Calvin did not marry Judy, the Kennedy family was likely to lose a lot.

The Kennedy family was in a terrible fix.

When Karen and Vincent found out about what had happened, they were furious. When Judy went downstairs, her eyes were swollen.

"Judy, what happened exactly? Tell me clearly." Karen's expression was serious.

12:01 Tue, Dec 3 i B

Judy felt guilty and afraid. Karen knew about Judy impersonating Elvira and stealing her work. Judy was afraid that Karen would hate her and like Elvira again.

"Grandma, I don't know what happened either. Although I didn't draw those sketches, I merely found them and picked them up. As for impersonating Elvira, I really didn't know she was Shauna. At that time, Elvira suddenly wanted to end the collaboration with the Kennedy Group. I saw that Calvin looked especially troubled. I did it to help him... Back then, no one really knew that Shauna was Elvira," Judy hurriedly explained. "That's right, Mom. Back then, Elvira clearly studied accounting in the country. Who knew that she would secretly learn design in that school? No one knew about this. She never mentioned it." Amber defended Judy.

Amber and Judy were feeling guilty. Amber held Judy's hand tightly, indicating for her not to worry. She would handle everything.

The two of them watched as Karen's expression darkened a lot. They both got nervous. Right then, Karen said, "In the end, it's all Elvira's fault! She didn't tell us about studying design and threw the things she drew into the trash can! Judy, don't be sad. As for the Kennedy family, I won't stand by and do nothing. Amber and Judy finally heaved a sigh of relief when they saw that Karen still sided with them.

"Grandma, Calvin said that he wants to call off the engagement with me. I felt uncomfortable just now, so I took a pregnancy test. I'm pregnant. I can't call off the engagement. I just want to marry Calvin." Judy looked at Karen sadly.

Karen was very surprised. "You're really pregnant? That's great. You're already pregnant, so he can't call off the engagement. I'll call the Kennedy family to apologize! You have to get married. Otherwise, won't the baby be a bastard child?" "Thank you, Grandma." Judy was relieved to see that Karen still sided with her.

Karen personally called Calvin and told him about Judy's pregnancy. She asked his family to come over and discuss their wedding date.

Calvin was silent for a few seconds before rejecting her.

Karen could not believe what she was hearing. She questioned, "You don't plan to marry Judy? What about the baby she's pregnant with?"

"If she insists on having this baby, I will pay her for child support. I won't ever marry her." Calvin did not want to make mistakes again.

"You..." Karen could not believe what she was hearing.

Then Karen threatened angrily, "Fine. I won't talk to you. I'll talk to your parents. There's no way they will let you do whatever you want. Think about it carefully. If you fall out with our family now, it won't do you any good!"

"Mrs. Willis, you don't need to talk to my parents. I will decide on my own marriage. I will not marry Judy ever! I don't want the Willis family to disturb me because of this anymore." Calvin's words were quite harsh. He had already made up his mind that even if he went bankrupt this time, he would not marry Judy

As for the baby, he didn't want it.

Even if others called him irresponsible or cruel, he did not want to have anything to do with Judy anymore.

Karen was infuriated by Calvin's words. After hanging up the phone, she said, "Judy, just have the baby, whose surname will be Willis. They will have nothing to do with the Kennedy family and will be the next heir of our Willis family! I will transfer another 20% of the shares to you and let you become a major shareholder of the company!"

She Got A Better Man

When Amber and Judy heard Karen's decision, they held each other's hands even tighter. Both of them were very excited. Previously, Karen had already given Judy 20% of the shares. Now, she had given her another 20%, which made Judy have more shares than Karen.

Judy and Amber thought that in the future, Willis Group would be theirs.

They had endured for more than ten years in the Willis family and were finally going to make it.

Judy was even more pleasantly surprised. She thought that she was about to welcome the darkest moment of her life, but she did not expect the tables to turn. She actually got to be in charge of Willis Group in advance.

With her current status, she had nothing to be afraid of in the future.

No matter what tricks Elvira used to attack her, Judy was not afraid anymore.

When Elvira woke up, the sun was shining brightly. Zach had already prepared breakfast. He walked to the bed and kissed her forehead. "Good morning, honey. I'll send you to work later.

Elvira held his hand and asked, "Thank you, honey. What are we gonna eat for breakfast today?" Her eyes were filled with sweet happiness.

"It's all your favorite food. Go wash up first." Zach lifted the blanket for her and carried her to the bathroom.

After breakfast, Zach sent Elvira to work. When they arrived at Elvira's company, the two of them reluctantly bade farewell. Looking at Elvira's departing figure, Zach pondered if he should move Elvira's company to Gilbert Group's building. This way, it would be much easier for him to see her.

Unlike now, after he sent her to the company, it would basically be nighttime when they met again.

Zach felt like he was going to be lovesick.

When Elvira arrived at the company, she realized that the atmosphere was not pleasant. She looked standing in the company.

Elvira's expression quickly darkened. Her good mood from waking up early was gone.

Cole was chasing Calvin away, but Calvin insisted on waiting for Elvira.

When he saw Elvira enter, he walked toward her and looked at her with a complicated gaze.

"Come in with me," Elvira said indifferently and entered her office.

Calvin followed her in, and Cole followed as well. He was worried that Calvin would harm Elvira.

up and saw Calvin

Calvin looked at Elvira's aloof expression and noticed Cole's vigilance. With a bitter feeling, He said, "I need to talk to Elvira alone. Don't worry, I won't do anything extreme. I deserve everything that happened to the Kennedy family today." Seeing this, Elvira let Cole out first. She looked at Calvin and asked, "What are you here for?"

"The Kennedy family is surely doomed now. I will file for bankruptcy. I am here to formally apologize to you. Elvira, I am sorry. I have let you down." With that, Calvin nodded deeply at Elvira to express his apology.

Elvira frowned at him. "Don't tell me you've already produced the design that Judy provided for you in advance."

75% +5

Logically speaking, it was not yet time for the new products to be produced. If the Kennedy family hadn't produced them in advance, there would be losses, but it would not be to the point of bankruptcy.

When Calvin mentioned this, he felt even more bitter. "Not only did I produce the products and purchase the materials in advance, but I also borrowed money privately. Now that the plagiarism incident has been exposed, all my products will be unsold. I'm still compensating my clients for their losses and borrowing money...

"I'm sorry, it's not necessary to tell you this. This is my own business. I'm not only here to apologize to you, but I also want to tell you that I've completely broken up with Judy. I won't marry her."

Elvira just looked at him without saying anything. It did not matter to her whether Calvin married Judy now.

"I know that you might not want to hear this, but I still feel that should tell you. Thank you for your help in the past. I don't know what happened to me before. Judy clearly did something wrong, but I still thought that she had a reason for that. I thought that she could change." Calvin was extremely vexed.

"Amber and Judy are despicable to the core! It's best if you can stay away from them. If you still haven't realized that, I'm afraid you'll be tricked even more by them," Elvira said indifferently.

"I've come to my senses now. I'll leave you to your work now and take my leave first," Calvin said and turned to leave.

"Wait," Elvira called out to him.

Calvin turned around and looked at her. Today, Elvira was dressed in professional attire and looked very capable. She was completely different from the way she looked when he was bullied by the Willis family.

At this moment, Calvin actually felt gratified that the young girl who had always been wooing him had finally grown up and become stronger. She no longer needed anyone's protection.

"You can sell me the rough stones you purchased, but I'll only buy them at a 20% discount. You know that this price is not low," Elvira said in a businesslike manner.

"Of course! That's already a lot. The others are only willing to pay at 50% of the original price." Calvin did not expect Elvira to be willing to help him. Now, he felt that what he had done to her in the past was too much. Elvira said, "Yeah. I'm glad that you know this. As for the rest, I'll get Cole to arrange for his staff to contact you."

Calvin still wanted to say something, but Elvira raised her hand to send him off, indicating that she was going to be busy.

In the end, Calvin did not say anything else. He turned around and left dejectedly. When the door closed, he took another deep look at Elvira inside the office. In the end, the door closed and blocked his vision.

Elvira called Cole over. She asked Cole to get his staff to contact Calvin to see if there was anything useful to buy from his company.

"Alright, got it. Do you want to help him?" Cole asked. He knew that if Elvira had a way to save the Kennedy Group.

"No. I've already done my best by buying these things. I consider it as paying for his Companionship in childhood. From now on, I have nothing to do with him, and I don't owe him anything." Elvira had completely severed her current self from her past self. In the future, neither the Willis family nor the Kennedy family would have anything to do with her.

She just wanted to live her life with Zach well.

Cole nodded and went to do as he was told.

Kennedy Group still went bankrupt. Elvira was willing to buy Kennedy Group's raw materials and some equipment at a high price. In addition, Calvin sold his property and finally paid off the debt of 20 million dollars.

If he did not pay it back, with the high interest rates from private loans, Calvin would probably have to spend the rest of his life paying for the debt.

Judy did not give up and came to Calvin to ask him why he was unwilling to marry her even though she was pregnant now.

Calvin was packing his things. His apartment had already been sold to pay off his debt. Now, he had nothing.

"Just leave. I don't want to see you again." Calvin's attitude was very aloof. He no longer wanted to have anything to do with Judy.

Agitated, Judy asked, "Why? Do you still want to be with Elvira? Do you want to get back together with Elvira?"

Calvin did not even raise his head as he continued to pack his personal belongings. "No. Don't say such things again in the future. She's married and is living happily now. I won't disturb her anymore!" It was the only thing he could do for Elvira. It was a way of thanking her for not kicking him when he was down, and for helping him.

Judy could not believe what she was hearing as she wondered, 'Calvin is actually looking out for Elvira again?'

"Calvin, I'm now a major shareholder of Willis Group. I can help you make a comeback! As long as you marry me, you can definitely make Kennedy Group thrive again. It's not wise for you to leave me now!" Judy continued to persuade Calvin.

Calvin had already made up his mind not to have anything to do with Judy. Hence, no matter what she said, he refused to say another word to her.

Judy was forced into a corner by him. She was so angry that she smashed the things he had packed. Calvin simply left the apartment without anything.

Judy was so angry that she cried. Calvin still did not look at her.

"Everything is about Elvira. It's because of Elvira again! Do you now realize that Elvira is better than me? It's too late. You and Elvira will never be together again! Calvin, I hate you!" Judy was devastated.

When Jason learned that Kennedy Group had gone bankrupt, he called Elvira and said that he thanked her for teaching him a lesson. If Elvira hadn't reminded him, and he hadn't finally rejected Kennedy Group's settlement, his mall would have more or less been affected.

Jason wanted to treat Elvira to a meal. Elvira smiled and said that she was supposed to treat him to a meal to thank him for letting her brand settle in the mall.

Elvira received a call from Tracy, asking her to pick someone up at the airport. Elvira was curious about who it was. Tracy only said that Elvira would know once she picked up that person.

Elvira went to the airport according to the arrival time.

When Leonard appeared in front of Elvira, she was quite surprised. At this moment, Leonard was dressed like a student and was wearing casual sportswear. He looked very young and energetic. He looked 70% similar to Zach, so it was not difficult to guess his identity.

Leonard was Zach's another half-brother.

"Hello, Elvira. My name is Leonard Gilbert. Thank you for coming to pick me up." Leonard thanked Elvira gratefully.

"Grandma asked me to pick you up. Get in the car. I'll take you to the hotel." Elvira opened the trunk of the car and Leonard put his luggage inside.

After the two of them got into the car, Elvira drove away from the airport.

Along the way, Leonard was quite quiet. He did not take the initiative to talk to Elvira. Elvira could not help but look at him from the rearview mirror and ask, "Have we met before?"

He gave her a familiar feeling.

Leonard was shocked. He smiled sincerely. "Elvira, you're so good-looking. If I've seen you before, I definitely won't forget you. Did you remember wrongly?"

Elvira was a bit puzzled. Thinking about it, she thought that it made sense. Leonard's appearance was comparable to Zach's. If she had seen him before, she would not have forgotten him. However, she felt that Leonard looked a bit familiar and found it strange.

When they passed by a restaurant, Leonard said, "Elvira, please stop in front. I'll treat you to a meal to thank you for picking me up today."

Since it was dinnertime, Elvira agreed.

The two of them entered the restaurant and found a table by the window to sit down. The waiter brought the menu for the two of them to order. Elvira ordered a meat dish and a vegetable dish, and Leonard ordered two dishes. "Elvira, what kind of work do you do?" Leonard asked.

"I work for myself." Elvira did not understand why Tracy would ask her to pick Leonard up. She knew that Zach did not have a good relationship with Helen's family. Naturally, she would not take the initiative to get close to them, so she chose not to say much. "So you're a boss, Elvira. That's impressive," Leonard replied with a smile.

"What about you?" Elvira was curious about his occupation.

"I've been studying abroad. I'm still studying for my PhD. After graduation, I plan to return to the country to develop my career." Leonard smiled shyly.

Elvira nodded. She could feel that Leonard was different from Gary.

The food was served very quickly. The two of them ate and chatted casually.

The door of the restaurant was suddenly pushed open. Elvira looked up and saw Zach walking in. She looked at him in surprise.

Zach walked in and reached out to pull her up. He said, "Come home with me."

"Well... I need to send your brother to the hotel," Elvira explained.

"Hey, Zach." Leonard stood up and greeted Zach.

"Shut up! You're not my brother," Zach said gloomily.

Then, he said to Elvira, "Let's go home." Zach pulled her out of the restaurant without any hesitation. When they reached Elvira's car, he opened the trunk and threw Leonard's luggage out. He asked the bodyguard to drive her car while he pulled Elvira into his car. Elvira turned around and apologized to Leonard before getting into Zach's car with Zach.

Leonard picked up his luggage helplessly. As he watched Zach's car leave, a trace of contemplation appeared in his eyes.

When Elvira saw how angry Zach was in the car, she took the initiative to hug him and kiss his lips. Zach wanted to pull her down, but Elvira refused to let go.

"Honey, don't be angry. I really didn't know that I was supposed to pick him up when I went to the airport... Grandma gave me his flight number," Elvira hurriedly apologized to Zach,

- "Don't interact with them anymore!" Zach was still very angry. He tightened his grip on Elvira, and his expression was not happy.

Elvira hurriedly said, "Right, it's my fault. I shouldn't have done this. Even if I didn't know who I was going to pick up, I should have left him at the airport when I saw him! It's my fault for driving him back, and it's even more wrong for me to let him take my car. I even accompanied him for dinner. That's just a huge mistake. When we get home, I'll reflect on my mistakes."

After Elvira finished speaking, Zach's expression finally softened a little. He hugged her even tighter and said, "Don't say that."

"Honey, don't be angry anymore. I knew you were the most generous! You won't really be angry with me. You're the best, honey." Elvira leaned over and kissed his lips. She kissed him passionately to appease his anger.

Zach had no resistance to her kiss. He hugged her tighter and kissed her harder than she did.

The two of them ate at another restaurant for dinner and went home.

Elvira failed to complete the task given by Tracy. When she reached home, she called Tracy to apologize.

When Tracy heard her words, not only did she not scold Elvira, she even apologized to her. "Elvira, I'm sorry. I shouldn't have hidden it from you. It's just that other than you, I didn't know who else I could ask to pick him up. Leonard has been living overseas all these years. He just doesn't want to get involved in what his parents and brothers did. Is Zach angry with me?"

Elvira said, "No. Why would he be angry with you? I can understand your feelings, but Zach and I are husband and wife. I don't want to interact with them anymore, so..."

She Got A Better Man

"No. Why would he be angry with you? I can understand your feelings, but Zach and I are husband and wife. I don't want to interact with them anymore, so..." Elvira's meaning was very clear Zach mattered to her the most. She would not make him unhappy because of some irrelevant people.

Tracy expressed her understanding, but when she thought about Zach who was different from her other grandchildren, she still felt a little guilty.

Rowena insisted that Elvira bring Zach to have a meal with her. She wanted to officially get to know Zach, her son-in-law.

Elvira was extremely annoyed.

At the breakfast table, Elvira mentioned this to Zach. As she bit into her bread, she looked at him and asked, "What do you think? Do you want to eat with my mother?"

"It's up to you when it comes to your mom. I'll cooperate with you." Zach knew that Rowena, Elvira's biological mother, was unreliable, but he could not express his opinion, and he would let Elvira decide.

"Alright, I'll set up a meeting with her. I'll tell you by then." Although Elvira was angry at how lovestruck Rowena was, Rowena was still her biological mother after all. Elvira thought that it was not too much for Rowena to ask for a meal with Zach.

When it was time for the appointment, Zach personally came to pick Elvira up. The two of them went to see Rowena together. When they arrived at the hotel's private room, there were already three people sitting inside, including Rowena, her first lover, Liam, and her stepdaughter, Sandy.

Elvira immediately frowned. She had only brought Zach there to meet her biological mother, Rowena. She had never thought of letting Zach know Rowena's new family members.

The moment Sandy saw Zach, her eyes instantly lit up. She immediately sat upright and subconsciously raised her hand to tuck the stray hair behind her ear, looking reserved and elegant.

Liam knew Zach's identity and was very enthusiastic and respectful to him. The Miles family did business. Liam thought that if he could get in touch with the Gilbert family through Elvira, it would definitely be a good opportunity for the Miles family's business. Zach could tell that Elvira was unhappy. He squeezed her hand and gestured for her to not mind. The two of them came in and took their seats.

From time to time, Sandy would look at Zach. Her eyes were filled with shyness. Rowena smiled and introduced Liam and Sandy to Zach. Elvira seemed to have become invisible. Everyone had different thoughts during the meal. Elvira resisted the urge to leave and barely finished the meal.

Elvira did not have a bad impression of Liam. In the past, she would occasionally go to the Miles family's place for Rowena. Liam treated her quite well and even gave her pocket money. Although it was not much, Elvira had always remembered his kindness. It was just that Rowena troubled her. When Sandy's eyes were focused on Zach, it made Elvira even more frustrated. After the meal, Zach and Elvira bid farewell to the Miles family of three.

Sandy looked at Zach affectionately and asked, "Zach, I've just graduated and returned home. I haven't found a job yet. Could you help get me a job?"

Elvira looked at Rowena, who was still looking at Sandy with a doting expression. She did not believe that Rowena could not tell what Sandy wanted with Zach.

"I'm sorry, that's up to my wife. If you want to work in my company, you can talk to my wife," Zach replied indifferently without even looking at Sandy.

"Alright. I'll ask Elvira." Sandy pursed her lips and smiled, but she didn't look at Elvira.

Sandy looked down on Elvira. Naturally, she would not ask her sincerely. She would only let Rowena give orders to Elvira.

"Elvira, bring Mr. Gilbert to our house when you're available. You haven't come home for a long time." Liam saw that something was wrong with Sandy and frowned unhappily. He glared at her and saw Zach and Elvira off with a smile. "Let's go home!" Liam said unhappily.

On the way back, Sandy still looked like a young girl in love. Liam warned her, "Elvira and Mr. Gilbert are in love. Drop the ideas that you aren't supposed to have! If I find out that you do anything inappropriate, I'll show no mercy and punish you!" "Mom, Dad is siding with an outsider!" Sandy immediately held onto Rowena's arm and acted like a spoiled child.

"Why are you shouting at Sandy? I don't think Elvira is worthy of Mr. Gilbert at all. If the two of them are divorced, there's nothing wrong with Mr. Gilbert being with Sandy, right?" Rowena defended Sandy.

"What are you talking about? They seem to be very close. Why would they get a divorce?" Liam looked at Rowena in confusion.

"But Elvira isn't worthy of Mr. Gilbert! Elvira has no degree and doesn't have a nice job. How can she be worthy of Mr. Gilbert? I think Sandy and Mr. Gilbert are more suitable for each other. Sandy graduated from a famous foreign university Rowena looked at Sandy lovingly. Liam was speechless before he said, "She got her college degree because I paid for it."

"So what if that's true? Elvira has no degree. Husband and wife are supposed to be of equal status. Elvira is not favored by the Willis family. Without their help, she won't be able to stay married to Mr. Gilbert for long. Sandy will get to marry Mr. Gilbert because she has the support of our family." Rowena patted Sandy's head proudly.

Liam did not know what to say. He could not possibly blame Rowena for treating Sandy well. If he did, he would just be making things difficult for himself.

In the end, he still sternly warned Sandy not to do anything inappropriate.

Sandy and Rowena ignored his words.

On the way back, Elvira was furious. Zach hurriedly hugged her and comforted her, "Don't be angry. Let's just ignore them from now on."

"I'm even suspecting if I'm her biological daughter! How could she do this to me?" Elvira really regretted seeing Rowena. She clearly knew that she would be unhappy every time she saw Rowena, but she still agreed to their meetings. She kept thinking if Rowena could change a little next time.

Now, Elvira supposed it was just her wishful thinking.

"Don't be angry. She won't feel bad even if you're angry. Only I'd feel distressed for you." Zach kissed her lips to comfort her.

"She used to be like that. When Sandy snatched my things, she would always make me give them to Sandy. Now, does she want me to give you to Sandy too?" Elvira knew that Rowena's love for Liam was crazy, but she did not expect Rowena to be so foolish. 12:02 Tue, Dec 3 ti

"Don't be angry. I'm yours. I'll always be yours." Zach stroked Elvira's hair to comfort her.

"Honey, I'm glad that I have you now." Elvira hugged him and buried her face in his neck. She was very depressed.

"Some parents are just mean to their kids. Since that's the case, let nature take its course." Zach really felt sorry for Elvira. He even began to hate Rowena. Instead of raising Elvira as her mother, Rowena kept hurting her emotionally. Zach thought that it was just despicable.

Chapter 148 □□□ 74%a

Judy's impersonation and plagiarism had caused an uproar. She had lost most of her fans. Karen had already transferred the shares under her name to her. Now that Judy had become a major shareholder of Willis Group, she did not care about her fans anymore since she had become an entrepreneur.

Vincent saw that Judy had been wronged by the Kennedy family, so he simply made her the CEO of Willis Group. He hoped that she would be happier and didn't want her to be upset.

Amber was finally able to hold her head high. The attitude of the people in the loop toward her had changed a lot. Nowadays, people only laughed at the poor, She didn't care about the fact that she was a mistress. Now that Judy had made it, Amber's status had also become higher.

Judy was even reported by the news as the youngest female entrepreneur in Jersten, the most beautiful CEO, and other titles. For a moment, she was in the limelight again.

In recent years, the live stream industry and the film and television industry were both popular. After Judy took office, she immediately announced that Willis Group was about to pivot. On the basis of retaining its original industry, the group would join the live stream industry and film industry.

Judy began to get the artists in the company to start livestreaming and selling goods. She used their popularity to earn money. At the same time, she bought scripts wantonly and began to prepare to shoot her first movie.

Elvira was really surprised when she found out that Karen had already given Judy 40% of the Willis Group's shares

Elvira knew that Karen liked Judy, but she did not expect Karen to like her to the point of being stupid. Calvin came to his senses and left Judy in time to prevent himself from making more losses. However, Karen did not think that there was anything wrong with what Judy did. She even transferred the company shares to her in advance.

Elvira thought, "This is just unbelievable. Grandma truly loves Judy. She's giving her everything and leaving me, my brother, and my cousins with nothing. We're all her grandchildren. She treats us equally aloofly. Only Judy is her precious granddaughter. Now, Elvira really believed in destiny since Karen loved Judy deeply.

Elvira could not help but share with Olivia about what happened to Judy.

Olivia replied very quickly: [I can't understand your family. Are they all fricking stupid? Can't they see through Judy's disgusting character? I just can't get it.]

Elvira also felt confused.

Jason invited Elvira to a banquet, saying that he could introduce some clients to her.

Elvira agreed readily.

Elvira watched the latest news. Judy had already decided to make a big-budget movie.. The investment was around 200 million dollars, and Judy would be the producer.

Elvira felt indeed quite helpless about Judy's actions. From Elvira's point of view, Judy was actually not economically intelligent and was not smart, and she was only a two-faced bitch. However, lots of people doted on her and paid for her mistakes.

Elvira called Cole to her office. When Cole came over, he asked, "What's the matter?"

"Have you bought all the scripts I asked you to buy previously?" Elvira had always planned to shoot a movie. She had stayed up late to read some novels and picked a few good ones for Cole to buy their copyrights. 12:02 Tue, Dec 3 Gti B.

"I've bought everything according to your request. We've got the copyrights now," Cole answered truthfully.

"Alright. There's a book called 'Wings of the Empire. Get your staff to prepare for it. I plan to start filming this movie," Elvira said happily.

Cole answered, "Okay. I'll get a screenwriter to adapt it immediately. It will be completed within this month."

Cole had done very carefully what Elvira had instructed him to do. He knew that Elvira had plans to join the entertainment industry and had already learned all the relevant knowledge. Therefore, he was very clear about the steps he had to take. Elvira said, "Okay. Thank you."

"No worries. I'll get going then." Cole got up and went to work.

Not only was Elvira in a good mood, but she was also a little excited. No matter what, she just could not stand seeing Amber and Judy doing well. She wanted to defeat Judy in all aspects.

Amber and Judy had made Elvira suffer for more than ten years. She wanted to take revenge for all the suffering she had suffered.

Since Judy was going to use 200 million dollars to make a movie, Elvira had to make another one, and she had to defeat Judy.

Perhaps some people would feel that there was no need because Elvira had already left the family, and she should just live her life well instead of dwelling on the suffering she had taken in the past. However, Elvira would not do so. She wanted to get even with Amber and Judy and seek justice for her past. She wanted to let them have a taste of misery.

Elvira received a call from Rowena, saying that she wanted to get her a job. Rowena wanted her to work at the Miles family's company as a junior clerk to be able to support herself. Rowena kept babbling that a woman could not live without a job. She said that if Elvira stayed unemployed, she would be looked down on by Zach's family.

When Elvira heard Rowena's nonsense, she put her phone aside and let Rowena say whatever she wanted. After all, she wouldn't listen.

In the end, Rowena brought up the past again. "Elvira, Sandy wants to work at Gilbert Group. Tell Zach to arrange it. She doesn't need any important positions. Just make her the CEO's secretary."

Elvira really found it ridiculous. She hung up the phone and ignored Rowena.

However, Rowena did not give up and kept sending her messages.

In the end, Elvira blocked her and got the peace she wanted.

When Elvira left the company, the security guard at the side took the initiative to open the door for Elvira. Elvira thanked him. The security guard smiled honestly and did not say anything. He closed the door for her.

Elvira glanced at the security guard in the rearview mirror. She had never seen him before, so she supposed he was new there. However, he had been the one to open the door for her or remind her to watch her step. She felt that he was quite enthusiastic and dedicated to his work. It was almost Christmas, so Elvira decided to buy a small gift to thank him.

After the security guard saw Elvira's car leave, he took out his phone and sent a message to Amber: [I've already confirmed that little bitch's whereabouts. I'll be able to send her to hell soon!]

Amber's eyes lit up when she saw the message. She called him and said, "Be careful. I'll give you 200 thousand dollars when it's done."

"I don't want money. Everything I do is for my daughter! I'll do anything to let my daughter do well!" When Jayden looked up again, his eyes were filled with ruthlessness.

When Amber heard this, she suddenly felt touched. However, when she thought of Jayden's identity, she still said, "When you succeed, remember to leave quickly. You'll get every penny you deserve. On the night of the banquet, Zach happened to be free, so he took the initiative to accompany Elvira. She was dressed up. The silk light pink gown made her look young and energetic. Her long curly hair draped over her shoulders, and she looked very gentle and charming.

Zach was attracted with just one look. He hugged her and pressed her against the wall before he kissed her earlobe. "Babe, you're so beautiful. I don't even want to bring you out to meet people. I just want to hide you from everyone." Elvira smiled. She grabbed his tie and smiled brightly. "I feel the same way with you."

Zach looked at her gentle eyes and could no longer control himself. He lowered his head and kissed her deeply.

Elvira also hugged him and kissed him passionately. Soon, Elvira's gown was torn apart by his uncontrollable strength. The ambiguous moans sounded in the changing room.

It was already an hour later when the two of them left the house. Elvira had changed into a new sapphire blue gown. The hickeys on her neck were covered with thick foundation. She had to wear a set of jewelry that she had designed to barely appear in public. On the way, Elvira pressed the powder on her chest and glared at Zach beside her. She kicked him angrily, "Can you be more careful next time? Don't kiss me so hard. The foundation can't cover the hickeys."

"Okay, my lady. I'm truly sorry. I will be more careful next time," Zach apologized to her with a good temper.

Elvira rolled her eyes helplessly. It was impossible for her to believe him.

When the two of them arrived at the banquet, there were already many people. Elvira had already taken over the company so there were her clients among the guests. When the guests saw her, everyone greeted her.

The Willis family had also been invited to the banquet. Recently, Judy had done a good job of livestreaming and earned a lot for the company, which made her proud. Many people surrounded Karen and Judy to flatter them. Judy smiled proudly. When she saw Elvira, her eyes were filled with arrogance.

Elvira did not comment on her current arrogance. Whoever had the last laugh would be the winner, so she thought Judy's current smugness meant nothing.

"Grandma, Elvira and Zach are here. Let's go greet them," Judy said as she held Karen's arm.

Karen originally did not want to bother with Elvira, but she did not want to offend Gilbert Group, so she followed Judy to Elvira with an aloof expression.

"Elvira, you haven't been home for a long time. Bring Zach home another day." Judy hid the provocation in her eyes and smiled kindly.

"You guys are in my way. Please make way." Elvira would not show Judy any respect. Her expression was indifferent and her tone was distant.

Judy chuckled and looked at Zach beside her. "Zach, my sister doesn't want to go home. Please help me persuade her. It's not good to keep going against her family."

Zach hugged Elvira and said indifferently, "Didn't you check yourself in the mirror before you went out?" Judy's expression froze. She quickly touched her face, thinking that there was something dirty on it.

"Your face is disgusting. You should go out less often lest others feel disgusted," Zach mocked mercilessly.

Judy looked at the strange gazes from the surrounding people and her expression darkened. After all, no girl could remain indifferent after being mocked by a man in public.

"Judy, let's go!" Karen was really tired of Elvira's face. Just looking at it annoyed her. Since Elvira was still so aloof and arrogant, Karen had nothing to say to her.

After the Willis family left, Elvira felt that the surrounding air was a little better.

Zach was called away. He was worried that something would happen to Elvira again, so he ordered a bodyguard to protect her. In particular, he instructed the bodyguard to follow closely if she went to the restroom and ask her about her situation outside.

When Elvira came out of the restroom, she bumped into Karen, who was washing her hands. Elvira also came over to wash her hands. The two of them ignored each other.

When Karen was done washing up, she wiped her hands. When she looked at Elvira, her eyes were filled with disdain. "Elvira, if you were sensible like your sister, I wouldn't hate you so much! Fortunately, I chose your sister as the successor of the company and not you!" Elvira turned off the tap after washing her hands. She took out a piece of tissue and wiped her hands carefully. Then, she smiled and said, "Is that so? Congratulations on choosing a successor that you're satisfied with! I wish you and Judy happy together forever!" Elvira threw down the tissue and left. Karen only felt that Elvira's words had a hidden meaning. She felt uncomfortable in her chest.

She wondered, 'As expected, Elvira is a jinx. I feel uncomfortable whenever I see her!

When Elvira returned to the banquet hall, she looked for Zach again. When she couldn't find him, she asked the bodyguard where he had gone.

"Mr. Gilbert has something urgent to attend to, so he left first. I supposed he didn't have the time to tell you," the bodyguard said after understanding the situation.

"I see." Elvira took out her phone and wanted to send Zach a message to ask him what had happened and if he needed her help.

Judy walked over and said, "Elvira, I just saw Zach leave with a woman. I think the two of them are quite close. Who is that woman?"

"Whoever she is is none of your business. Just mind your own business. Oh, right, I heard that you're going to make a movie. Let me officially inform you that I'll also make a movie. I'll choose to release it at the same time as yours." Elvira smiled at Judy. Judy's expression changed drastically when she heard her words. She was no longer in the mood to mock Elvira. She frowned and asked, "You want to make a movie too? Do you know anything about movies?"

"You make it sound like you know how to make a movie," Elvira said in amusement.

"Of course, I do. I've been an actress before. Moreover... I'll find the most professional team to do it! I'll invest in 200 million dollars. What do you have?" Judy frowned at her.

"No matter what I have, I will defeat you! Judy, just wait for my next move!" Elvira did not hold back anymore and declared war on Judy.

"Humph, let's wait and see! I've got 200 million dollars to invest in my movie! It won't be that easy for you to win against me!" Judy was quite flustered. Recently, Elvira was indeed very strange. This made her feel a little uncertain. However, when she thought about how she had Willis Group behind her and the support of several financial groups, she felt confident again and thought that Elvira had won a few times, but it did not mean that she could keep winning.

Since that was the case, Judy was sure she could crush Elvira and let her know who the winner was.

"Let's see which one of us will win." Elvira smiled and turned around to leave.

On the other hand, Judy was panicking. She secretly wished that Elvira was dead.

Elvira was talking to a client when she saw someone who surprised her. Mandy, Samuel's daughter, was walking in her direction.

"Elvira, what a coincidence. You're here to attend this banquet too. If I had known earlier, I would have come with you." The smile on Mandy's face was sweet and bright. She looked very close to Elvira. Her attitude was completely different from the disdain she had for Elvira when they met in the Gilbert family's place previously.

Elvira raised her eyebrows and thought that Mandy seemed to be quite close to her now, and there must be something wrong with this abnormality.

Elvira loved Zach very much. Naturally, she hated the members of Sameul's other family.

"Elvira, I need to talk to you in private. Come with me for a moment. I'm sorry that I need to take Elvira away for a moment." Mandy came up and held Elvira's arm.

Elvira did not shake her off in public. After all, that would not look appropriate. She wanted to see what Mandy wanted from her.

Mandy pulled Elvira to the window. Elvira pulled her arm back and looked at her with a faint smile. "What exactly do you want?"

"It's nothing particular. It's just that my car broke down. I need you to give me a ride when we leave," Mandy said calmly as she looked at her exquisite nails. She was no longer as enthusiastic as before.

"Sure. I'll give you a ride." Elvira wanted to know what Mandy was up to.

"Then let's go now!" Mandy grabbed her arm and walked out.

The bodyguard followed the two of them closely, afraid that Mandy would harm Elvira.

After the two of them got into the car, Elvira looked at Mandy and said with a faint smile, "You're just a bastard daughter of the Gilbert family. How dare you have the cheek to show your face in public? Things are really getting worse now."

When Mandy heard this, her expression instantly darkened. She retorted, "I'm not a bastard daughter! My mother was already married to my father when she gave birth to me!"

Elvira said, "Even if they got married, it doesn't change the fact that you're a bastard daughter! Do you think Grandma sees you as her granddaughter? Does the Gilbert family see you as their descendant? If they don't, you're a bastard daughter!" Elvira wouldn't just give her a ride so easily. Since Mandy came to her, she would not stand on ceremony and anger her.

"You... You're calling me a bastard daughter, but are you better than me?" Mandy was furious. She hated it when people called her a bastard daughter.

"Me? I'm the Willis family's legitimate eldest daughter. Even if I'm not as likable as the bastard daughter in the Willis family, my identity is legitimate. Bastard daughters like you will never be comparable to me!" Elvira gave her a disdainful look Mandy was furious. She did not expect Elvira to be so annoying

"My mother was already married to my father when she gave birth to me! So I'm not a bastard daughter!" Mandy emphasized again.

"So what you mean is that they weren't married when your mother was pregnant with you. If that's the case, you're still a bastard daughter. How can you deny that?" Elvira attacked her at the sore spot without holding back.

"You..." Mandy was pissed. This was the first time in her life that someone kept talking about her identity as a bastard daughter.

"Elvira, you have the guts. Let's see if you can still smile later!" Mandy snorted angrily and turned around to ignore her.

Elvira was speechless before she said, "You should still be in school, right? Do your classmates know your identity as a bastard daughter? Do you think they'll still be willing to be friends with you when they find out about this?" Elvira did not want to let her off. Since Mandy had come to her, of course, Elvira had to avenge Zach.

"Elvira, don't go overboard!" Mandy was fuming.

"Looks like they don't know. Zach is stupid to actually let you guys have a good time for so many years!" Elvira snorted.

"You..." Mandy was rendered speechless by Elvira. She gripped the handle of the seat tightly, wishing she could kill Elvira right now.

She looked outside and suddenly laughed. She shouted, "Stop the car!"

The chauffeur stopped the car by the side of the road right away. Mandy smiled and looked outside. "Elvira, look who's in there."

Elvira looked back. When she saw the people sitting by the window in the hotel cafe, she was stunned. It was Zach. There were two women sitting opposite him. Elvira could tell that one of them was Nina. The other woman had her head lowered. Elvira did not know her Zach seemed to be talking to the woman. The woman who had her head lowered looked at him.

up

"Where are you going? If you want to get out of the car now, hurry up and get out!" Elvira looked back and looked at Mandy unhappily.

"Aren't you curious about who that woman is? Zach left you alone at the banquet to meet her," Mandy said smugly. "What's there to be curious about? I believe he will tell me." Although Elvira said that, she was still a bit bothered. After all, she and Zach had only known each other for a short period.

you say that you

believe him? You've known your ex-fiance for 20 years, but he "How long have you known Zach? How dare still betrayed you just because he wanted to. You'll be asking for trouble if you believe in men." Mandy sneered. Looking at Elvira's stubborn expression, she felt that she had finally defeated her.

turned "That's different! Zach is different from him! The current me is also different from the old me!" Elvira's eyes gloomy. Most importantly, she was different. No matter what happened in the future, she had the confidence to face everything.

Mandy said, "Let me tell you this out of kindness lest you not know about being cheated on. That woman's name is Carmen Miller. She's the adopted daughter of my uncle's family. She and Zach relied on each other. I heard that she even saved Zach's life, so he liked her very much at that time."

Mandy continued, Later on, my cousin went missing. I heard that Zach has been looking for her. Do you think Zach just sees her as his friend? You're just a substitute. Now that she's back, if you know what's good for you, you should give up your position. By the way, I heard that you and Carmen are quite alike."

Mandy was really ruthless. Her words made Elvira furious. Her emotions were complicated and she was almost blinded by jealousy.

However, she quickly calmed down. Elvira was no longer the girl who would do something rash after being provoked. She glanced at Mandy, who was gloating, and said with a smile, "So what? I'm now Zach's legitimate wife!"

Mandy saw that Elvira was not angry and felt that she was pretending. She gloated and said, "Anyway, now that my cousin is back, your good days have come to an end. I shall see if your relationship is that strong!"

"Drive. Where are you going? If you don't tell me your destination, I'll leave you on the road," Elvira threatened as she crossed her arms

"Just keep pretending!" Mandy sneered. She did not want to be left on the road and told the chauffeur an address.
