

She Got A Better Man

Richard immediately said, "No one in my family has any objections. You can do whatever you want with Willow."

What Willow had done was too outrageous. Richard felt that she probably knew that Elvira was the biological daughter of the Glover family. Not only did she not feel guilty at all, but she even wanted to kill Elvira. This only meant that her nature was mean. Richard would never go soft on this kind of person.

Even though Elvira knew that the Glover family was her family, she had nothing to say to them. After all, she was really not familiar with them.

Richard and Sarah had no intention of leaving. They just looked at Elvira eagerly. Richard occasionally chatted with her.

Sarah looked hesitant to speak. Elvira was a little annoyed. If Sarah wanted to plead for Willow, Elvira would not accept her as her mother.

Samantha brought the babies over and let them meet Elvira. Although the babies were born prematurely, they were still very healthy. This was thanks to Elvira's good nutrition during pregnancy.

The two babies were very cute. Zach looked at his two children in a daze. He could not come back to his senses.

Samantha asked him to carry the babies, but he immediately refused. He said that he did not know how to carry them yet and was afraid that he would drop them. He stuck close to Elvira and only wanted to take care of her.

Elvira wanted to hug the babies, but she was powerless to do so. She touched them and placed them on the crib at the side.

Richard and Sarah widened their eyes and looked at the two babies. They really wanted to carry the babies, but Elvira did not say anything. They did not dare to hope and could only watch helplessly.

Elvira was a little tired. After all, she had experienced a car accident and gave birth. Zach immediately chased Richard and Sarah away. Richard and Sarah did not want to leave yet, but looking at Elvira's sleepy appearance, they could only leave the ward. Suddenly, there was a commotion outside. The bodyguard came in and reported that Willow had arrived Richard's expression turned ugly when he heard that. He said, "You guys rest. I'll chase her away."

"Richard, don't go too far. Now that you've found your biological sister, you don't want me anymore. You're really cold-blooded! After all, we've been siblings for more than 20 years!" Willow shouted angrily when she heard his words from outside.

"Let her in," Elvira said with a frown. Zach looked at her. Samantha immediately carried the baby away.

Seeing that the babies were taken away, Zach signaled the bodyguards to let Willow in. He would not let Willow hurt Elvira.

Richard's expression was ugly. When Willow came in, she saw that Sarah was also there. She gritted her teeth and said, "Mom, you actually came to see her. Do you not want me anymore because you know that she's your biological daughter? Let me tell you, you can only pick one of us today!"

As soon as Willow finished speaking, she screamed because Sarah had already rushed forward and slapped her hard.

Willow was stunned. She looked at Sarah in disbelief. "Mom, how dare you hit me for an outsider!"

Sarah said, "You're the outsider. She's my biological daughter. Willow, how dare you! The Glover family raised you for more than twenty years. After knowing the whereabouts of my biological daughter, you actually wanted to kill her.

My children are all very good-natured. You've been rotten from the roots! I originally thought that even if I found my biological daughter, I wouldn't mistreat you. Now I know that I was wrong.

First, you wanted to kill my son, and now you want to kill my daughter. From now on, you have nothing to do with the Glover family!" Sarah looked at Willow coldly.

Sarah's words surprised the people in the ward. Richard did not expect her to abandon Willow so easily. He had thought that Sarah wouldn't bear to do so.

Elvira was also very surprised.

Allowing Willow to come in was actually a test for the Glover family. She wanted to see how the Glover family treated her and Willow. She was already tired of living a life of deception. If the Glover family could not bear to part with Willow, then she did not want to have anything to do with them.

However, Sarah's attitude was beyond her expectations. Elvira was shocked to see that Sarah could abandon Willow who was so scheming and arrogant so easily.

Although Zack was shocked, he was glad. He did not want Elvira's birth

t

family to be a bunch of weirdos. If the Gloyer family could treat Elvira well, he would not mind accepting them. After all, he knew that Elvira wanted to find her biological parents.

Willow was stunned by the slap and was even more enraged by Sarah's words. She roared crazily, "How dare you hit me for a stranger? I've been with you for more than 20 years. How can you be so cold-blooded and heartless?" Seeing that she was agitated, the bodyguards quickly came over to hold her, afraid that she would hurt someone.

Seeing that Willow had no intention of repenting and even resented her, Sarah was even more disappointed. "Mr. Gilbert, please take her away. She wants to hurt my daughter and grandchildren, don't let her off!" Sarah still loved Willow, but she knew very well that keeping Willow around would only harm her children and her family. Though it was a hard choice to let Willow go, she knew that this was for the best.

This was also the reason why she asked Hayden to not be decided by her boyfriend in the past after she found out that he had a bad character. However, she just didn't expect Hayden to be so stubborn and end up avenging her. Zach immediately asked the bodyguards to take Willow away. No matter how much Willow shouted, it was useless. Sarah was unmoved.

Sarah looked at Elvira and said gently, "Elvira, don't worry. I won't see her again. Can I help you with your babies?"

Her eyes were filled with tears, and she was filled with anticipation and motherly love. Elvira nodded because she couldn't bear to refuse.

If her two babies were swapped out after they were born, she would definitely be devastated. At that moment, she only found Sarah pitiful.

When Sarah received her affirmation, she smiled happily and cried. She held Richard's hand and said, "Elvira, rest up. Your brother and I will go back and make chicken soup for you. We'll come and see you tonight. Don't tire yourself out. Hurry up and sleep." noveldrama