Zach said, "Elvira, I'm sorry. L..."

Zach wanted to come clean with her, Elvira leaned over and kissed his lips. Her dark eyes, sparkling like a galaxy, were filled with tenderness toward him. "It's tough for you to owe so many favors like this, right?" she asked. Zach was befuddled.

"Many people helped me at the banquet yesterday," Elvira said. "You asked your friend with the surname Riley to do it, right? Even though you saved his life, you can't keep relying on this to trouble him. It's difficult to repay a debt of gratitude. Let's treat Mr. Riley to a meal to express our gratitude when we get a chance to do so." Elvira's gaze was extremely pure. There was not a trace of doubt about Zach's identity. Zach felt like his heart was being squeezed tightly, feeling a sensation of soreness and swelling. Zach said, "Elvira, actually L... He wanted to tell her his true identity

"Yes?" Elvira said. "What do you want to say?" Her eyes, pure and innocent like a deer's, were filled with trust toward him. She had never doubted a single word he said.

Seeing her gaze, he couldn't continue with what he was going to say. He hugged her tightly and said, "Let's treat Spike to a meal when we get a chance to do so." "Alright, Elvira said. "Whatever you decide." She snuggled in his arms and adjusted her posture into a comfortable one. The two of them fell asleep in each other's arms.

The next day, Elvira continued to familiarize herself with the company's business. The female employees noticed that this new female employee was very close to Cole. Cole acted like a bootlicker every day. Those female employees had negative feelings toward Elvira. They thought, In our hearts, Mr. Bennett has always been pure-hearted and ascetic. As long as he doesn't have a girlfriend he belongs to all of us. Ever since this person called Elvira came, Mr. Bennett has changed. He personally serves coffee, pours water, and buys meals for Elvira every day, almost to the point that he wishes he could personally send her to the washroom! This groveling attitude is the most obsequious we've ever seen! Mr. Bennett is worth over 20 million dollars now, for goodness' sake... What does Elvira have to deserve such treatment!

Therefore, Elvira was now the public enemy of almost all the female employees in the company.

After arriving at the company. Elvira had been busy familiarizing herself with various tasks. If she needed the help of her subordinates, Cole would take care of it. She did not notice that the female employees of the company were so hostile toward her. When it was almost noon, Zach called Elvira to ask her out for lunch. Elvira was busy with a task, so she said, "I may not have time at noon. I intend to grab something downstairs. You go ahead and have your lunch."

"Alright," Zach said. "I'll bring you to Grandma's place for dinner tonight? Zach asked her what she thought about that."

"Sure," Elvira replied.

"You're not allowed to neglect yourself," Zach said. "Eat well. If you lose weight, I'll have to supervise you at every meal in the future." Zach was worried that she would not eat well because of work.

"Got it," Elvira said. "I'll go now. I'll hang up first." She put away her notebook and smiled helplessly.

"Give me a kiss before hanging up," Zach requested. Not being able to see her made his heart feel empty.

"Someone's here!" Elvira said as she glanced at Cole, who was studying data seriously. "I'm not that bold, she thought.."

Zach instantly understood that it was the man called Cole. He was even more unwilling to let her go. "If you don't kiss me, I won't hang up," he said.

"Mwah mwah," Elvira said. "Okay. Go eat now." She was somewhat speechless as she coaxed this big baby.

It was only then that Zach hung up the phone in satisfaction.

When Elvira put down her phone and looked at Cole, she saw him staring at her with his eyes frightened.

She was at a loss for words,

She thought, "Haha. See? I told him that I shouldn't send him a lass. I scared a kid!"

"My husband is a little clingy," Elvira said. "It's time for lunch I'm going downstairs to have spaghetti. Do you want to join me?" Elvira's questions were unnecessary. As long as she was around, Cole would eat with her. "Sure," Cole replied indifferently and looked away awkwardly

After they finished putting away their stuff, they went downstairs together. When they passed by the office outside, they attracted another wave of envy, jealousy, and hatred.

Elvira and Cole took the elevator to the first floor, discussing work as they walked. When they walked out of the company's main entrance, someone suddenly rushed toward Elvira from the side and splashed unknown liquid toward her. "Elvira, you slut. How dare you tarnish Judy's reputation? Go to hell!"

Elvira heard the voice and looked over. She saw a crazed woman holding a glass and splashing unknown liquid toward her. She wanted to step back to dodge, but Cole had already grabbed her and forcefully pulled her toward where he was standing. At the same time, he switched positions with Elvira and protected her closely to prevent the crazy woman from harming her.

A pungent smell wafted over. Elvira lifted her head to look at Cole, who was protecting her. The veins on his forehead were bulging, and his expression looked extremely terrifying.

Elvira quickly pulled Cole away and saw that a large area of his back was burnt.

It was sulfuric acid

The security guards had already run out when they heard the commotion. They had grabbed this crazy woman.

The crazed woman shouted like a madwoman, saying, "Haha. Elvira, you'll die a horrible death! How dare you frame Judy? I'm going to destroy you!"

Elvira held Cole's swaying body and shouted anxiously, "Hurry up and help me hail a cab!"

The security guards immediately went to hail a cab. Elvira's eyes were as cold as winter icicles. She wished she could kill this said. "We'll reach the hospital soon." She was so anxious that she wished she could fly to the hospital right away.

Tom fine, Cole replied softly. "It's just a minor injury. I'll recover soon" Smelling the fragrance on her body, he felt strangely at ease and even wanted to sleep. Chapter 71

He had always liked the scent of her body.

"How can this be a minor injury?" Elvira said. "Why are you so foolish? You don't have to shield me from the liquid." Elvira really wanted to cry, but she could not cry! Crying now would only cause more chaos. She had to stay strong.

"Didn't you shield for me before?" Cole said. "I'm happy that I can shield for you now." Cole was glad that he could finally protect her.

"That's different!" Elvira said. "When I shielded for you, it's because I knew there wouldn't be any danger." She was anxious. Cold sweat broke out on her forehead. Cole said, "But... I'm really happy." With that said, he fainted.

Elvira couldn't hold back anymore. Tears streamed down her face. She pleaded with the driver, saying, "Sir, please go faster. I'll give you ten times the fare!"

The driver accelerated to the maximum speed. Within ten minutes, they reached the nearest hospital. However, for Elvira, it still felt like an eternity. When they arrived at the hospital, Cole was taken into the emergency room. Elvira immediately called Olivia and asked if she had time to come over.

After bearing Elvira's account of what happened, Olivia immediately stopped what she was doing and rushed to the hospital.

When Olivia arrived, Cole was still undergoing surgery. She asked what had happened. Elvira recounted the incident that had just occurred.

"Those people are too audacious!" Olivia said. "They actually dare to hurt people in broad daylight!" Olivia was terrified when she heard that. At the same time, she was also very worried about Elvira's safety. "Help me watch over Cole." Elvira instructed Olivia with a serious expression. I have something to do."

Olivia said, "Elvira, what do you want to do? I'll accompany you she held Elvira's hand worriedly and noticed that it was cold

Just take care of Cole for me." Elvira insisted, pushing her hand away. "TII be back soon."

Watching Elvira's departing figure. Olivia paced back and forth worriedly. She was worried that Elvira would do something unfavorable to herself in her impulsiveness. She took out her phone and called Zach.

Previously, she had added Zach's number on WhatsApp when they had a meal. However, she had never contacted him privately. If it weren't for the fact that she was worried about Elvira, she would not have contacted her best friend's husband.

Elvira called Zach ahead of Olivia, Zach answered quickly, saying "Honey, missing me, huh?"

"Zach, if I end up in jail, let's get a divorce," Elvira said. She did not want to get others into trouble. She thought, Tknew my complicated situation would lead to many unexpected events. I never wanted to drag anyone down. Zach is innocent Even more so, he shouldn't be dragged into trouble by me.

Zach's heart skipped a beat. He asked in a serious tone, "What happened?"

"I have to resolve some things today," Elvira said. "Even if it means going to jail. I have to do it." With that said, she hung up.

She thought. 'I know that Zach has capable friends like Spike and Samson, but he doesn't owe me anything. I can't let him trouble his friends for me. Besides, I have to see Judy to seek justice for Cole over the incident today.'

Zach called Elvira again, but she did not answer. He immediately got up and walked out of the office. At the same time, he instructed Spike and Samson to bring some people to look for Elvira.

Olivia's first voice call did not go through. She made the second call This time, Zach picked up. "Miss Santos, what happened to Elvira?" he asked

"Mr. Gilbert, this is exactly what I wanted to tell you," Olivia said "Here's what happened... Olivia recounted the incident in which Judy's crazy fan attempted to splash sulfuric acid on Elvira today but was fortunately shielded by Cole. Zach's eyes instantly turned extremely cold, as if brewing the strongest storm. He thanked Olivia and hung up. Then, he immediately instructed Samson to find the best surgeon to treat Cole's injuries while he rushed to find Elvira himself.

Zach had sent bodyguards to protect Elvira. He suppressed his anger and contacted the bodyguards "What on earth do you do for a living?" he said. "Why didn't you report such a big incident after it happened?"

"Mr. Gilbert, you instructed us to protect Mrs. Gilbert without her knowledge," a bodyguard said. "It happened so suddenly. We couldn't rush over. Mrs. Gilbert wasn't injured, so we didn't report it."

The bodyguard's voice trailed off. They couldn't provide close protection for Elvira from the shadows, rendering them ineffective in such a situation. Fortunately, Elvira was saved by the man with her, and she was not injured. So they thought not reporting it first might allow them to escape punishment by luck.

"Go and ensure Mrs. Gilbert's safety," Zach said. "Obey her order. Do whatever she tells you to do!" Zach was furious. He was determined to deal with these irresponsible bodyguards later. Right now, he had to prioritize Elvira's safety. 15:34 Sat, Nov 23 GED.

The bodyguards immediately acknowledged and promptly appeared by Elvira's side. They hoped that they could make amends for their negligence by ensuring Elvira's safety and be punished lightly when they returned later.

Elvira looked at the bodyguards who appeared before her with little surprise. Previously, when she was in danger, these bodyguards were also present. She just found it strange, wondering why these bodyguards appeared in time whenever she was in trouble.

It was not the time to dwell on these things now. Since the bodyguards presented themselves and assistance was at her disposal, she had no reason not to use their help. Hence, she brought the bodyguards to Willis Group. When she saw Karen coming out with Judy, she instructed the bodyguards to bring Judy into the car.

Before Judy understood what was happening, she was roughly taken away by the bodyguards and shoved into the car. Elvira immediately instructed the driver to start the car and leave.

Seeing her beloved granddaughter being seized, Karen anxiously got someone to save her.

Judy was initially terrified. She thought she had been kidnapped. When she saw Elvira sitting across from her, she asked angrily, "Elvira, what are you doing? Are you kidnapping me out of jealousy?"

Elvira sneered at the woman in front of her. She reached out to pinch Judy's face, clicked her tongue twice, and said, "If your face is ruined, will members of the Willis family and the Kennedy family still dote on you?"

When Judy heard this, her eyes betrayed fear. She dodged and said, "I don't know what you are talking about,

"You don't know, huh?" Elvira said nonchalantly as she slapped Judy hard on the face.

Judy fell to the ground after being slapped. Blood flowed from the corner of her mouth. She turned around angrily and "Elvira, what exactly are you trying to do? Are you aware that you are breaking the law?" said, "Haven't you done lots of illegal things?" Elvira said. She extended her hand. A bodyguard handed a glass to her. The glass contains slightly more than half a glass of transparent liquid.

Judy was so frightened that she widened her eyes. She kept retreating in fear, feeling so nervous that she cried. "Elvira, you have the nerve to do that?" she said. "If you dare to touch my face, Grandma and Calvin will not let you off."

Elvira stared at her with a sneer, slowly inching her hand closer to her. Judy trembled in fear and yelled, "Elvira, Elvira, let's talk things out nicely. Calm down. You'll go to jail if you splash acid on me!"

"Go to jail" Elvira said. "Do you think I'm afraid of going to jail? Judy, I'll take you down with me i fiercely, Elvira assumed a posture of wanting to splash the liquid in the glass at Judy's face. lay!" With th today!"

that said

Judy wanted to struggle, but her hands were held down by the two bodyguards, rendering her unable to move. She was so frightened that she screamed repeatedly. The smell of urine wafted over. Elvira lowered her head and saw that Judy had wet her pants in fright. Elvira sneered and poured the liquid in the glass onto Judy's head. The liquid in the glass was not sulfuric acid. It was just mineral water,

"I invited you to the car just to bond with you, my dear sister." Elvira said. "Why do you get 16 scared? Since we're done bonding and you have finished drinking the water, please pull over by the roadside and let my dear sister get out of the car."

After Elvira said that with a smile, the driver stopped the car by the roadside. The bodyguards pulled the frightened Judy out of the car and dumped her by the roadside.

Judy sat by the roadside and looked up at Elvira, who was sitting in the car and looking at her with disdain. Feeling extremely agitated, she realized that she had been tricked by

Elvira. She screamed in anger, wishing she could pull Elvira out of the car and tear her apart. After Zach arrived, he got out of his car and got into the car Elvira was

When Judy saw Elvira's newlywed husband, she shouted, "The wife you married is a devil! She's a devil!"

She Got A Better Man

Zach could not take it anymore. He got out of the car and kicked Judy, knocking the woman who slandered Elvira to the ground. "You're the most disgusting bedbug in the world! You are a bastard of a mistress! A bastard like you is not even worthy of holding my wife's shoes!"

Zach not only left Judy stunned and incredulous but also surprised Elvira. After Elvira recovered from her surprise, she found her husband amazing.

He got back into the car and closed the door. The car and the bodyguards left together, leaving Judy in a sorry state after getting dumped by the roadside.

When passersby saw her like this, they couldn't help but take a few more glances at her. Someone recognized her and took out his phone to start recording. "She's Judy, right? It's her, right? Wow, what's wrong with her? It looks like she has wet herself

"Stop recording." Judy said. "Stop it!" Judy could not care less about the pain in her body. She got up from the road in a sorry state and ran off. She wanted to contact her family, but Elvira confiscated her handbag. Right now, she truly hated Elvira to the core. After much-difficulty, she finally found a public restroom and hid inside. She borrowed the restroom attendant's phone to call Karen Karen was extremely anxious. She rushed over to pick up her granddaughter after receiving the call

Judy, upon being taken into the car and seeing Karen, burst into tears. She exaggeratedly claimed that Elvira took her away and intended to splash sulfuric acid on her.

"Elvira is simply outrageous," Karen said. "Her own father is still being locked up because of her, and now she is plotting against you! She's truly gone too far!" Karen's expression was extremely grim, and she was immensely disappointed in Elvira. "Grandma, you have to stand up for me this time," Judy said. "I didn't provoke Elvira this time, yet she tried to abduct me. I don't know what crazy things she will do next time. I think she wants me dead." Judy felt particularly embarrassed at having, wet her pants just now from being scared by Elvira. She wished she could strangle Elvira to death.

She thought, 'It's a pity that the glass of sulfuric acid wasn't splashed on Elvira's face this morning!

"Elvira will soon face the consequences of her actions," Karen said. "This time, I'll surely not go easy on her. Her eyes were filled with coldness. Previously, the fact that Karen had repeatedly let Elvira get away was attributed to her own leniency. After all, Elvira was her own granddaughter. Unless it was absolutely necessary, she didn't want to be too ruthless.

She thought. This time, Elvira has gone too far. She even kidnapped Judy and wanted to splash sulfuric acid on her. If she really splashed it on Judy, wouldn't Judy's face be ruined? This time, she must be taught a profound lesson. Judy's eyes were filled with viciousness when Karen was not looking at her. 'Elvira, just you wait!' she thought

In the car, Elvira instructed the driver to head to the hospital. She had to quickly go to check on Cole. She then picked up her phone and called Olivia, Olivia answered quickly and asked how things were going.

I'm fine, Elvira said. She then asked with concern. "How's Cole doing?"

"He just finished his surgery," Olivia said. "It went well. The doctor said the burn area isn't big, but there are some deeper parts, so he needs to stay in the sterile room for two days."

"I'll be right there, Elvira said before hanging up.

Zach reached out to hold her wrist and pulled her into his arms. Elvira lifted her head to look at him, her eyes filled with agitation and worry.

I'm really sorry for making you worry again." Elvira said as she sighed helplessly. She continued, "Zach, I will be in a lot of trouble. I really don't want to drag you into it. Let's get a divorce Cole's incident left a lingering fear in Elvira. She had already tried her best to distance herself from her friends. In the end, she still dragged Cole into trouble and caused him to be seriously injured.

She did not want to drag Zach and Tracy into trouble and cause them to suffer harm that they should not suffer.

When Zach heard her mention divorce again, he tightened his grip on her hand, his obsidian-like black eyes brewing a storm. He gritted his teeth and kissed the woman in front of him who kept saying that she wanted to get a divorce. Elvira was taken aback.

She thought, "We're talking about serious matters. Why the sudden kiss?"

Zach's kiss this time was a little rough. He sucked Elvira's tongue and refused to let go, causing her pain. In the end, he even bit her lips hard.

Elvira frowned in pain. She touched her bitten lips, glared at him, and said, "What's wrong with you?"

"From now on, you are not allowed to say the word 'divorce' again, Zach threatened fiercely by her ear. "If I hear it again, not from now will I bite you, I will make you unable to get out of bed!"

Elvira was left speechless, thinking. This man..

She said, "Zach, I really don't want to drag you into..."

Before Elvira finished talking. Zach kissed her again. This time, he kissed her intensely. It was only when her lips bled that he let go of her. Elvira almost fainted from his kiss.

"Elvira, a married couple has to face difficulties together," Zach said. "Who taught you to get a divorce when there are problems? I want to tell you that divorce is not in my vocabulary, only widowhood" Zach was pissed off by Elvira. He raised his hand and slapped her butt.

Elvira's face, which was already flushed from his kiss, instantly turned even redder. She glared at him angrily and said, "Jeez why did you hit there?"

"Hitting you is considered a light punishment," Zach said. "Watch how I deal with you tonight!" With that said, he bit her carlobe hard.

"Why are you acting like such a dictator?" Elvira said. She hugged him helplessly and kissed his cheek comfortingly.

"In short, I don't want to hear the word 'divorce from you again" Zach said. "As for you saying that you will bring trouble to me, the Willis family isn't that powerful and influential to do that yet... Between you and me, who brings trouble to whom remains uncertain. My family isn't any less ruthless than your family." Zach was unwilling to bring up the Gilbert family's mess, but not mentioning it did not mean it did not exist. If those people from the Gilbert family people were to lay a hand on Elvira, they would be more ruthless and vicious than members of the Willis family.

"Would you like me to help you solve the Willis family's problem? Zach looked at Elvira and asked seriously. "If you don't want to involve others. I can help you get rid of both the Willis family and the Kennedy family

"It's okay," Elvira said. "Those people owe me, and I want to personally take revenge. She rejected Zach's offer, thinking, Revenge is sweeter when served by my own hands

"Alright." Zach said. "If there's anything you need my help with, just let me know." He then patted her butt and kissed her. The car pulled up outside the hospital. Elvira was going to see Cole, while Zach received a very important call. He said. "I 63% 1

Went to attend to. I've got to go back to the company. Once your friend is feeling better, I'll accompany you to see him and thank him for saving my wife."

"Go ahead to attend to your matter, Elvira said.

Elvira wanted to get out of the car. Zach pulled her back and gave her a deep kiss before letting her go.

When Elvira arrived at the ward, Cole was already awake. Upon seeing her, his previously dim eyes instantly lit up.

"You're finally back," Olivia said. "Hurry up and persuade him. He insists on leaving the ward now." She thought, I'm amazed by this guy. He's injured to such an extent, yet he wants to be discharged right away, claiming there are so many things he needs to take care of. Elvira looked at Cole and said, "Discharge? Stay in the hospital for the next two days. Wait until the doctors give the green light before you are discharged."

Cole replied obediently, "Okay." He was like a well-behaved puppy.

Olivia was dumbfounded.

"What the fuck?" she thought. 'My mouth was dry just now from all the talking. This guy didn't listen at all, yet he immediately obliged right after Elvira made a remark. She rolled her eyes with great intensity. 15:35 Sat, Nov 23 GO

She Got A Better Man

Judy pretended to be pitiful in front of Karen. After slandering Elvira, she returned to her room. Amber walked in and looked at Judy worriedly. She said, "Are you alright? Are you hurt anywhere? Let me take a look.

Judy said, "It's nothing serious. Why isn't Calvin here yet?" Judy did not call Calvin personally. Amber called Calvin and told him that Judy was frightened by the kidnapping.

However, it had been an hour since the call ended, and Calvin had yet to arrive.

"He said he's at the airport. He should be rushing back. Our house is at least two hours away from the airport. He can't fly. Don't be anxious." Amber comforted Judy. She was really angry in her heart and she thought. That little bitch Elvira is getting more and more lawless. She actually wanted to hurt Judy. This was something I could not tolerate!"

"Why would he go to the airport?" Judy asked angrily. Her eyes were filled with dissatisfaction.

She thought, 'I have almost been disfigured by Elvira and insulted by her husband, but he still has the mood to pick someone up.

"He said that his cousin, Zoey, has returned to the country. His uncle asked him to pick her up." Amber looked at Judy's anxious expression and felt very heartbroken. She thought, Judy is forced by Elvira

"Zoey has returned to the country? Judy rolled her eyes. She had an idea quickly. In the past, she had spent a lot of effort on the money Zoey if order to snatch Calvin She thought, Now that Zoey has returned, I have to make full use of her so that and time I have spent on her would not be in vain.

Amber said, "Yes"

"Alright, I got it. I'm going to lie down for a while. Bring him over when he comes." Judy got up impatiently and went to the bathroom

When Calvin arrived, Judy was lying down and resting in her pajamas. He quickly walked to the bed and asked worriedly, Judy, what happened? Amber didn't make it clear over the phone Kidnapping? Judy, long time no see. I heard that something happened to you, so I came to see you with Calvin" Zoey also looked worried.

Judy had specially used foundation to turn her mouth pale. At this moment, she looked like a terminally ill person. Coupled with her tear-filled eyes, she looked like little a girl who had suffered grievances "Calvin. Zoey, thank you for coming to see me after you've just returned to the country Judy hugged Calvin and looked at Zoey with a forced smile.

"What's going on?" Calvin asked worriedly as he held her in his

"It's all my fault. I didn't manage my own fans well. Because of Elvira's slander, my fans might have been too angry and went to splash Elvira with sulfuric acid. Don't worry, Elvira is fine. Later, Elvira got angry and got someone to kidnap me in the car. She wanted to splash sulfuric acid on me and disfigure me. I was really afraid at that time.

Later, Elvira's husband even kicked me and cursed me before they were willing to let me go. Calvin, if I didn't think of you, I wouldn't want to live anymore." The more Judy spoke, the more aggrieved she felt. Tears streamed down her face, making her look very pitiful

"How can you be blamed for this? Your fan went to splash Elvira sulfuric acid. Isn't it because she went too far? What does have to do with you? Calvin, Elvira is too much now! Zoey was very angry after hearing this. She hated Elvira to begin with. She thought, Elvira likes to teach others a lesson whenever they meet. I don't expect her to go so far now You're not hurt, are you" Calvin's face darkened when he heard their words.

I think Elvira's heart softened and she didn't splash sulfuric acid on me, but her husband kicked my chest. My chest hurts now." The more Judy thought about it, the angrier she became. She thought, 'Elvira is already a disgusting person, and her husband is even worse. He has such a good face for nothing!

"What? If she splashes it, she'll go to jail. Judy, you think too highly of her! And the bastard man she married actually hit you! Calvin, this matter can't be settled easily just like that. Zoey was even more excited than Calvin.

Calvin said, "Of course, we can't just let it go like this. I'll help you settle this matter. I won't let that man off!" A murderous look flashed across Calvin's eyes. Previously, he tolerated that man because of Elvira. He thought, "The man actually dared to hit Judy. He was really courting death. It is just a poor waiter. I will teach him a lesson. I will make that poor man kneel in front of Judy and apologize

I heard that Elvira married a waiter. That's all she's capable of. Calvin, you must get that poor man to kneel and apologize to Judy!" Zoey was also arrogant. She looked down on the man Elvira married.

Thank you for standing up for me. However, please don't make things difficult for Elvira. I can understand why she is angry. If it were me, I would be angry too. Please don't have trouble with Elvira. She has no job now and even married such a poor person. It's quite tragic." Judy anxiously pleaded for Elvira. She looked like she had a deep love for Elvira.

"She deserved it. Who asked her to do such a disgusting thing at that time? Who can she blame for ruining her future? Judy, you're too kind. That's why you're always bullied by Elvira! When I see her, I'll definitely teach her a lesson!" Zoey rubbed her hands together. "It's better to get Elvira to divorce that man as soon as possible. When the time comes, I'll find a job for her so that she won't be so resentful anymore. That way, everyone will be better," Calvin said helplessly.

"Yes, If she doesn't like John, then introduce someone richer to her. In short, I can't let her suffer, Judy said considerately.

When Zoey heard this, she rolled her eyes. She thought, 'We shouldn't have cared about someone like Elvira. She is a bad woman. How could we help her become better?

Calvin comforted Judy and coaxed her to Calvin thought, 'But he actually dared to hit the woman I loved. He courted death, I must let him know that he had provoked the wrong person!'

Calvin thought, I couldn't afford to offend the people from the Vilzell Restaurant. Dealing with one of their waiters is just an easy matter!

Calvin immediately contacted someone to investigate Zach. He planned to teach Zach a deep lesson.

After waiting for an entire afternoon, he received a reply that there was no waiter from the Gilbert family in the Vilzell Restaurant.

At the same time, Spike received news that someone was investigating Zach. He immediately reported the situation to Zach. "Zach, someone called Calvin is investigating you. Should I teach him a lesson?" Spike asked.

"It's just a nobody. Ignore him." Zach did not care about that scumbag Calvin at all. However, if Elvira did not say that she wanted to take revenge personally, he would not mind dealing with Calvin himself

After Spike received the order, he ordered his men to keep an eye on Calvin. He obediently did not take action.

She Got A Better Man

Calvin searched for an entire day but could not find any information about Zach. It was if this person had never appeared in Jersten. He felt that this matter was too unbelievable. He thought that Zach must be a liar about love. He had to inform Elvira as soon as possible.

Calvin found Elvira in the hospital. He found out that Elvira was not injured because someone saved her, so no matter what, she would come to the hospital.

Elvira pretended not to see him and continued walking expressionlessly.

"Elvira, let's talk." Calvin frowned and blocked Elvira's path.

"What else do we have to talk about?" Elvira's eyes were cold and expressionless. She was really disappointed in Calvin.

"Let's talk about it. You should talk things out. It's better for us. Don't always resist us like this. I know I'm in the wrong. Things have to be resolved." Calvin tried his best to persuade Elvira. Elvira thought for a moment. "Alright, let's talk. I want to see how shameless y you are."

After saying that, Elvira left the hospital and entered a cafe beside the hospital. She found a seat by the window and sat down.

Calvin followed closely behind. The waiter came over and asked Elvira what she wanted to drink. Elvira asked for an iced coffee. Calvin said he wanted the same one.

After the coffee was served, Elvira crossed her arms and looked at him. She asked, "If you have something to say, say it quickly. I don't have time to waste with you."

Calvin looked at the unfamiliar woman in front of him and said, "Elvira, you've really changed a lot recently. I almost don't recognize you anymore."

"So?" Elvira felt that he was spouting nonsense. She thought, "If I don't change, am I going to wait to be hurt by the Willis family people?"

"I know that you're very sad about me and Judy. I've always wanted to apologize to you. I've let you down. I had no choice. I really can't control my feelings for Judy, Calvin said anxiously. "What are you trying to say? If you're here today to talk about your affair with Judy, I'm not interested." Elvira picked up the coffee in front of her and took a sip. Her eyes were filled with disdain

Calvin said, "We're all very worried about you. I sent someone to investigate your flash marriage partner. He's not a waitress at Vilzell Restaurant at all"

Suddenly, Elvira slammed the coffee cup on the table. Her eyes were cold and sharp as she interrupted Calvin in front of her. "Who allowed you to investigate my man!"

Calvin stared blankly at Elvira in front of him who was giving him a cold shoulder for another man. He felt very upset. In the past, Elvira was obedient to him. No matter what he did, she would support him

Previously, when the Kennedy family encountered financial crises, it was Elvira who stayed up with Calvin day and night to save the company. That was how the Kennedy Group succeeded. At that time, he was very hot-tempered. However, no matter how he smashed things or scolded people, Elvira was willing to accompany him and give him encouragement and warmth.

Now, she was smashing things in front of him for another man.

"He's a liar!" Calvin said angrily.

"I've already said that he's not a waiter. We were there to eat that lay! It's you guys who didn't believe me and insisted on imagining that he's a waiter there! You guys are crazy and still say that he is a liar! You guys are really crazy?" Elvira really hated these people. They were rich but imagined how miserable others were every day.

"Alright, I won't argue with you. Even if he's not a waiter there, he's not a decent person. I've got someone to investigate. This person doesn't exist in the entire Jersten! You've been deceived by him! It's still not too late for you to divorce him now. Don't be deceived, or you will have nothing. If you're willing to get a divorce, I can find you a better job and you won't have to suffer outside anymore," Calvin said.

Elvira could not take it anymore. She picked up the coffee in front of her and splashed it all on Calvin's face. The iced coffee made him shiver. The coffee flowed down his face and onto his white shirt. He looked very embarrassed.

"Don't talk nonsense in front of me in the future. I should have splashed you with this cup of coffee a long time ago!" Elvira put down the coffee cup in her hand and walked away. She did not want to hear another word of nonsense from Calvin. Calvin was speechless. He did not expect Elvira to become so irritable. He stood up and said, "Elvira, you'll definitely regret it if you don't listen to my advice! We're doing this for your own good!"

Elvira was about to be angered to death by Calvin. She thought, "I was crazy a long time ago. I actually liked this guy for so many years! I was really blind!"

Calvin looked at Elvira's stubborn appearance and was also very angry. He felt that his kindness was in vain!

Judy called and asked how his conversation with Elvira was going Calvin said, "In the future, let's not care about Elvira anymore. If she likes to degenerate, let her!"

"How can I do that? She's my biological sister. I must be responsible for her happiness to the end." How could Judy let Elvira off? She would only be satisfied if she destroyed Elvira. She thought, "Let Elvira off? No way!"

"I know you're kind, but she doesn't appreciate it. There's nothing I can do," Calvin was about to leave the cafe angrily.

"Hi, Sir, you haven't paid yet. Please pay for the coffee. The shop assistant quickly stopped him.

Calvin was speechless. He didn't even take a sip of coffee and was splashed all over. In the end, he still had to pay for it.

Zach and Elvira agreed on a time to visit Cole. Seeing that half an hour had passed since the agreed time, Elvira explained to Cole awkwardly. "He might be in a traffic jam"

"I'm fine now. You don't have to come to visit me. Cole did not really want to see Zach. His injuries were not serious. When he pulled Elvira to dodge in time, he only burned a portion of his skin.

If not for the fact that Elvira did not allow him to be discharged, he would have gone to the company long ago. Now he did. all his work in the ward.

Zach was late. When he arrived, an hour had passed since he had agreed to visit Cole.

When Zach arrived, Elvira was stunned.

Zach's well-ironed and noble suit perfectly matched his figure. His hair was meticulously styled, his eyebrows were exquisite, his nose was high, and his lips were slightly pursed. His eyes were bottomless, and every part of him exuded the man's nobility and aura. He was like a king who was born to look down on everything, making people not dare to easily ignore him

Elvira smelled it. He was even wearing perfume! She thought. What is he doing? He came to visit a patient as if he was going to receive an important guest!"
