

She Got A Better Man

15:41 Sat, Nov 23 G Chapter 81

"Very good!" Elvira looked at Amber with a mocking expression. A mistress that came from a poor family. You are very arrogant. I'll let you see if Tracy can afford it today!"

When Karen heard Elvira's words, she was especially untappy. She felt that she had been too soft-hearted before and should have taught Elvira a lesson.

Amber had a look of disdain. She thought, "Elvira has been suppressed by me all these years. What money could she have? I have only saved one million dollars after marrying into the Wills family! She said that I am arrogant, isn't she arrogant?" Under the attention of a few people, Elvira walked to the old man's tricycle. The tricycle took a cart of iron rods. It should have been picked up from the construction site to sell scraps, Elvira picked the thickest one and smiled at the old man who was so scared that he did not dare to move. She said, I'll buy all of these iron rods."

After saying that, she drew a handsome arc in the air with the iron rod in her hand. Her eyes turned cold as she walked towards Karen's car step by step.

Tracy looked at Elvira and asked Anna in surprise, "What does Elvira want to do?"

"No matter what, Elvira naturally wants to avenge you. She really dotes on you." Anna was extremely satisfied with Elvira's performance today.

Atina thought, "Even if the other party is powerful and influential and her family, Elvira is not biased at all. She has been on Tracy's side from the beginning to the end, especially since she doesn't know about the power of the Gilbert family. This shows that her character is even better? Karen asked, "Elvira, what are you trying to do?"

When Karen saw through Elvira's intentions, it was already too late. Elvira smashed into the windshield of the luxury car with her iron rod. With a bang, the glass shattered.

Everyone was dumbfounded, including the bodyguards sent by Zach. After Elvira smashed the first time, she ordered coldly. "What are you waiting for? Smash it! If you smash it, I'll compensate! Today. I'll let these snobs see if I can afford it!"

"Okay!" The bodyguards all felt that Elvira's personality was really too satisfying. The few of them each went to get an iron rod and smashed it against the luxury car. The bodyguards all had some strength, after each of them smashed the luxury car a few times, it was already unrecognizable. A minute later, the luxury car was smashed into scrap metal!

Karen was so angry that her chest hurt. Amber was completely dumbfounded. She could not believe that Elvira really dared to do it. Calvin supported Judy and quickly retreated. He looked at Elvira with unfamiliar eyes. As for Judy, she gritted her teeth hard. She could no longer hide the malice in her eyes as she looked at Elvira, Zoey, who had been insulting Tracy and Anna, was so frightened that she hugged her head and screamed. She kept retreating and was almost scared silly.

She felt that Elvira was really crazy!

The bodyguards were especially happy. This was the first time they had smashed a luxury car so readily. They thought. It is really satisfying to smash a luxury car!"

After the bodyguards smashed the car, Elvira took her phone and transferred two million dollars to Karen. She waved her phone and looked at unfriendly Karen. She

, "Karen, I've already transferred the money to you. It's just a luxury car worth two million dollars. I compensated you! Don't look down on me in the future! You can't afford to offend me!"

Karen was so angry that she could not speak. She felt that she had lost all face today, her self-esteem being fiercely hurt by

Chapter 81-

Elvira

Amber pointed at Elvira and wanted to curse. However, when she saw the bodyguards holding rusty iron rods, she did not dare to say a word. She was afraid that she would be beaten up again.

After smashing Karen's car, Elvira turned to look at Judy's purple sports car. The gorgeous purple color was very eye-catching. It was extremely popular as it ran on the road. This was Karen's birthday gift to Judy this year.

Judy saw Elvira walking towards her car like a hooligan. She ran to her car excitedly and opened her arms to block it. "Don't smash my car! If you dare to smash my car, I'll fight you to the death!"

"Judy, you provoked someone you shouldn't have today. This is just a small lesson! I'll buy this car. I'm warning you, don't have any bad thoughts in front of me in the future. I don't want to watch the performance of a scheming bitch like you!" Elvira took out her phone and transferred 16 million dollars back to Calvin.

Calvin hurriedly said, "Elvira, let's talk nicely. Why are you so ruthless?"

"Ruthless? You can say that when you are deliberately smashed into by someone! Elvira could not be bothered with him. She raised her hand and gestured for the bodyguard to do it.

The bodyguards were all eager to do it. Upon receiving the order, they rushed over and smashed the cool purple sports car.

Judy especially liked this car. She had worked for a long time before her family was willing to let Karen buy this car for her. Seeing her beloved sports car turn into scrap metal, she was very sad.

She fell into Calvin's arms and cried pitifully. Calvin frowned. The way he looked at Elvira was unfamiliar. He felt that he did not know Elvira anymore.

Zoey, who was at the side, was dumbfounded. She even felt her face no longer hurt. She watched as the sports car that she liked so much and had only sat in once turned into a pile of scrap metal!

She looked at Elvira in disbelief. She looked at Elvira as if she was looking at a lunatic!

Elvira coldly glanced at the Willis family. Her face was filled with disdain and disgust. Looking at these dumbfounded people, she thought, 'Let them know that they could not provoke us. I have achieved my goal. She turned around and walked towards Tracy. When she looked at Tracy and Anna, her eyes immediately became gentle.

"Tracy, let's go home. You've been frightened today." Elvira and Anna helped Tracy up.

"No, Elvira, you have avenged me. I'm very happy. Tracy was really happy. Elvira had spent 3.6 million dollars just for her.

After the three of them left, no one dared to stop them. After all, the bodyguards were still eyeing the others coldly with iron rods in their hands. The women hated Elvira to death.

In the distance, an expensive luxury car was parked by the roadside. The door opened and Zach got out of the car. This time, the bodyguard reported the situation to him immediately. He rushed over before he could finish the meeting.

"Why are you here?" Elvira looked at him in surprise, but her face was full of smiles.

"Are you guys alright?" Zach asked with concern. He walked over and supported Tracy in Anna's place.

Zach, you missed a lot today. You didn't see how powerful Elvira was when she hit those bad women and smashed two cars for me?!" Tracy did not look like she was in trouble at all. She was so happy that she almost danced with joy. Chapter 82

She Got A Better Man

Zach looked at Elvira. He already knew what Elvira had done to avenge Tracy. Elvira was a little embarrassed by his gaze. She said angrily, "No one is allowed to bully Tracy."

When Tracy heard this, she was extremely touched. She was still smiling when she got into the car. "Anna, Elvira is spending a lot of money for me today! I didn't expect an old man like me to be so valuable!" "Tracy, in my eyes, you are a priceless treasure!" Elvira held Tracy's hand and said very seriously.

Tracy was extremely touched, Anna happily told Zach how impressive Elvira was just now. In the end, she said angrily, "It was a pity that 3.6 million dollars was given to them! That was not right. They were the ones who gave 3.6 million dollars to us before. Later, Elvira used this money to buy their cars and smashed them... So, did we make a profit or a loss?" Anna felt confused:

Tracy and Elvira laughed when they heard that. They thought. We had used the money they had given to buy their cars and smashed them. Did we lose or gain?"

Elvira felt that it didn't matter if she made a loss or a profit. She thought, 'What was important was that Tracy and I were happy. It was worth it no matter how much I spent!'

Ever since Benjamin left, Zach had never seen Tracy smile so happily. When he saw the wrinkles on Tracy's face, his heart softened. His grip on Elvira tightened.

On Elvira's side, everyone was happy. On the Willis family's side, they were worried. Amber was really so angry that she called the police. The police would find someone to verify the situation and deal with it.

Looking at the two cars that had turned into scrap metal, Judy really wanted to cry. She thought, 'How did I know that Elvira had become so ruthless? Not only did she bring bodyguards with her, but she also smashed my car just like that. Moreover, the 3.6 million dollars that she had paid was clearly the money that she had gained from Calvin when I had just bought the gown! Therefore, Elvira did not spend any money. She destroyed two of my family's luxury cars! Judy was furious at the thought of this "Elvira has gone too far now! Even if she gives the money to us for the car, this still embarrasses our Willis family people!" Amber sat on the ground and complained to Karen with an angry expression.

"Amber, this money isn't from Elvira. It's from Calvin. Elvira smashed our cars. Actually, she didn't pay any money. Zoey couldn't even speak clearly. Her face was swollen heavily, looking very ridiculous. "What did you say?!" Amber looked at Zoey in shock.

When Karen heard this, she also looked at Zoey. Zoey exaggerated the fact that Elvira had just sold the gown to them for ten times the price and cheated Calvin by 3.6 million dollars. In the end, Elvira used Calvin's money to smash their cars. She didn't lose any money! When Amber heard this, she felt her heartache. Previously, Calvin gave her 10 million dollars. Therefore, in her eyes, Calvin's money was her money. Moreover, Elvira had smashed their two cars today. They were the most expensive cars in her family. Amber could not take the blow and fainted.

Judy quickly came over to support Amber. Seeing that there were still people taking photos of the family, Judy cried even harder. She wanted to use this to gain sympathy.)

She thought, "Elvira, don't think that you've won today! You smashed my favorite car today, I'll definitely make you pay for it!"

Elvira and Zach accompanied Tracy for lunch outside. Tracy also felt tired and wanted to go back to rest. The couple were Tracy home. Zach pulled Elvira downstairs. When they got into the car, Zach pulled Elvira onto his lap. Elvia asked, "Didn't you say that you had a particularly important meeting? Why did you come!

"No matter how important the meeting is, it's not as important as your safety and Tracy's. Zach raised his hand and tucked her long hair behind her ear.

"Don't worry. With me around, Tracy is safe. Besides, those bodyguards were sent by you, right? Elvira finally confirmed that there were bodyguards following her today. "It's me! Elvira..." Zach wanted to reveal his identity.

"Make an appointment with your friend Spike. I would like to meet him. I have something that I need his help with," Elvira interrupted him.

Zach was confused. "Why do you want to meet him?" He was naturally unhappy when he heard that Elvira wanted to meet another man

"I think these bodyguards are quite useful. I want him to give them to me. You know that Willis family people have been eyeing me covetously. It's safer to have some bodyguards around. Elvira had recently known the benefits of having bodyguards. She wanted to see if Spike could give them to her. You don't have to meet him. I can make the decision. You can use all the bodyguards Zach originally wanted to give all the bodyguards to Elvira. However, he was afraid that she would not be used to it, so he sent someone to protect her secretly.

"That's true. You guys are so close that you can use the car as you please. However, you still have to thank him. We can't always take advantage of him." Elvira felt that although they were close, they still should thank Spike.

Zach said, "Elvira. Actually, Spike and Samson..."

Elvira's phone rang. Elvira gestured for him to wait for a while. She picked up the phone: There was an emergency at the company that needed her to go back and deal with.

"Alright, I'll be right there," Elvira immediately replied. She looked at Zach anxiously and said, "Send me back to the company. I have something urgent to deal with at the company

"I'll send you off first. Zach also had an urgent matter that he needed to deal with. If it were not for Elvira and Tracy, he would not have left the company today.

Originally, the Gilbert Group was in the hands of Samuel. Zach only managed a portion of the industry. Before Benjamin passed away, he went against everyone's wishes and transferred all the shares in his hands to Zach. In addition, Tracy fully supported Zach. Only then did Zach completely stabilize the position of the president of the Gilbert Group.

Recently, Samuel and Gary had started to cause trouble again. Zach had been dealing with these things recently. His eyes were stern. Although those men could not threaten his status, he felt extremely disgusted when they kept around in front of him! He had to think of a way to kick them out of the company!

After sending Elvira to the company, Zach also returned to the company. Spike and Samson were both present. During the meeting, Zach looked at Spike several times with a sharp gaze.

Spike was confused and he thought; 'I didn't say anything wrong Why did Zach look at me as if he was looking at an enemy?

Samson also noticed it. He thought in his heart, 'Finally, Zach realizes how good I am and starts to hate Spike!

Elvira returned to the company to temporarily deal with the business crisis. When she came out, she realized that the people in the company were looking at her strangely. Elvira asked, "Did something happen?" "Elvira. I didn't expect you to be so powerful." A female colleague turned her phone to face Elvira. The video playing was of Elvira getting someone

Outside the New Star Square, the news of a woman angrily smashing two luxury cars instantly spread on the Internet. Judy ordered someone to let netizens accuse Elvira of being rude, domineering, and bullying!

The incident quickly became a trending topic. Netizens who did not know the truth were led by someone to start cursing

Elvira.

Cole also saw the trending topic. He asked worriedly, "I'll get someone to spend money to remove the trending topic.

"No need. It's done." Elvira posted the evidence online that she had just found.

Elvira felt that Judy was really stupid and bad. She thought, 'I had taught her a lesson before, but she still hasn't learned to be obedient. As expected, she is arrogant because she is pampered by the Willis family. She feels that no matter what, her family would support her. She does have the right to do so.

Judy posted the video of Elvira smashing her car online, attracting netizens to attack Elvira online. Elvira then posted the cause and effect, letting netizens judge right and wrong.

While the netizens were scolding Elvira, a video of Amber belittling and insulting Tracy, Anna, and the old man on the tricycle was posted. In the video, Amber's snobbish attitude made the netizens very uncomfortable. After all, there were still many ordinary people in this world, and there were only a few true rich people.

The news that Amber was a mistress was dug out by netizens again. She was cursed by netizens ruthlessly.

The second video was a video of Judy deliberately smashing into Tracy and Anna. Although Judy later explained that she did not do it on purpose because she was too nervous and stepped on the wrong accelerator, even if everyone believed her explanation, it was still her fault for stepping on the wrong accelerator. Furthermore, Zoey kept insulting Tracy and Anna. The look she insulted people was really disgusting to the netizens

The two videos restored the truth of the matter. Fewer people cursed Elvira. More people cursed Amber, Judy, and Zoey.

The three of them did not dare to go out recently. They hid at home every day, hoping that the netizens would quickly forget about this matter.

Elvira received the school's 100th-anniversary invitation. After putting down her phone, she fell into deep thought. It seemed that Judy was about to make a new move. She thought, Indeed, people who are arrogant because they are spoiled would never learn to be obedient!

Cole looked at her and asked, "Judy seems to be doing something unfavorable to you again. Are you still going?"

"Yes, of course! Help me with something." Elvira instructed Cole to help her find some people and evidence.

Back then, Elvira was young. She was clearly the one who was bullied by others and harassed by the teachers. In the end, she was forced to drop out of school. This was the pain and humiliation of her life.

Until now, when she met her former classmates, they would use this matter to humiliate her. Back then, she wanted to prove her innocence, but the Willis family indiscriminately let her drop out of school. They even let her go to the countryside to fend for herself because they thought she had to suffer to be upright.

This time, she wanted to clear her name by herself!

Elvira called Zach and asked if he could take some time out with her to do something today. Zach immediately canceled all his work and picked up Elvira personally

In the apartment opposite the office building where Elvira's company was located, a man in a suit was scrolling through a video of Elvira smashing two luxury cars. His face appeared a playful smile. He said, "This woman is quite interesting. I like her!"

After saying that, the man stood up and walked to the window. He took the binoculars from his subordinate and looked across. Elvira was standing at the entrance of the company, waiting for Zach.

It was not until Zach picked up Elvira and got into the car that the man put down the binoculars in his hand and instructed, "Find a chance to cooperate with their company."

"Okay!" The subordinate immediately went to do it.

In the car, Elvira looked around in confusion. Seeing this, Zach asked, "What's wrong?"

"I don't know. Since yesterday, I felt like someone was watching me. Maybe it's just my imagination because I've been too nervous recently." Elvira checked her surroundings. There was no one around.

Zach frowned and said calmly, "Don't worry, bodyguards are protecting you in the dark. If someone really follows you, he won't be able to escape.

"I think so too. What did Spike say about the bodyguard?" Elvira said.

"He agreed. I'll pay for the bodyguards. Don't worry, I can earn a lot!" Zach said a little sullenly.

Alright then If you don't have enough money, you must tell me. Elvira reminded him. She entered an address on the Navigate App and asked him to drive over.

Zach drove to the place and found that it was a sales office. The building was developed by the Gilbert Group

"What are you doing here?" Zach asked Elvira beside him..

Elvira unbuckled her seatbelt and wrapped her arms around his neck. She said, "I happen to have a sum of money. I think it's better to buy a house. We can live in it, and it is an investment. I've asked around. This is a property developed by the Gilbert Group. The house price will never and ever drop."

Zach was speechless and he thought, Elvira comes to buy a house in the building I had developed. What should I do?"

"Let's go. If we go late, they will buy the good houses." Elvira kissed the corner of Zach's mouth and got out of the car first.

Zach got out of the car. He sent a message to Samson and asked him to arrange for Elvira to buy a house.

The two of them entered the sales office. The salesperson warmly welcomed the two of them. It only took five minutes to look at the house and decide which house to buy.

Elvira chose a duplex at the top of the building.

When the salesperson saw that Elvira was so quick to buy a house, she got up happily to get the contract

"Elvira, you're here to buy a house too? Do you want to take a loan?" A familiar voice sounded, making Elvira instantly nauseous.

Sometimes, Elvira admired Judy. No matter how much conflict they had, as long as it was over, Judy could call her name intimately as if nothing had happened. Those who did not know the inside story would think that they were really close Skiers.

Elvira ignored her and said to Zach, Tracy can stay in this sun-sided room. She can bask in the sun more. The nanny room is next to it, so Anna can take care of her easily."

15:42 Sat, Nov 23 GEO.

Zach glanced indifferently at Calvin and Judy who walked in. H the fact that I want Elvira to personally deal with these people, eyes were filled with cold disgust. He thought, If not for would teach them a lesson badly"

"Hello, are you buying a house for Elvira?" Judy had just recovered from the injury on her face. She took Calvin out to buy a new house.

Zach could not be bothered to look at this scheming bitch anymore. He looked at Elvira gently and said, "It's all up to you."

Calvin's face darkened when he saw that Judy was being ignored. He hated Zach's high and mighty appearance. He thought, "Zach is clearly a poor man who puts on airs every day. He is just showing off!"

Judy did not care about being ignored. She pulled Calvin to a chair and sat down. She asked, "Have you chosen? This

She Got A Better Man

"Buy it if you like it," Calvin said dotingly.

Elvira glanced at Calvin before looking away. Sometimes, she could not help but admire Judy. She thought, Judy has clearly done so many wrong things, but Calvin has always doted on hend loved her. He really favored her "Elvira, I like this house. Calvin, let's buy it." Judy held Calvin's a with an innocent expression.

Elvira was speechless and she thought, Judy wants to snatch my things again. As long as it is something she likes, she will get it. If she can't get it, she will destroy it! Ever since she was young Judy had always been like this. She even pretended to be a victim every time. "Alright." Calvin looked at the salesperson who was following them and instructed, "Bring the contract for this house over. We'll buy it."

This... This house is sold." The salesperson could not possibly sell a house to two people.

"Calvin and I will live in this house after I marry him. Elvira, you won't fight with me for it, right?" Judy looked at Elvira sincerely.

"Fight? You are an illegitimate daughter who stole my boyfriend! Did Amber not teach you any manners? Did she not teach you how to be a human? I came here first to take a fancy to this house and have already decided to buy it. The sales contract will be delivered to me immediately! Aren't you the one who wants to snatch it from me openly!" Elvira was not angry. She thought, 'If I am so angry with such a fool, I will anger myself to death. However, I have to make things clear. I can't let Judy confuse the public here!

When the people at the side heard Elvira's words, they could not help but burst out laughing. Calvin's face darkened. He wanted to teach Elvira a lesson. Zach looked at him coldly with extreme oppression in his eyes. Calvin's mind went blank for a moment and he forgot what he wanted to say.

This was the pressure of a superior, but Calvin did not know about it.

No matter how well Judy pretended, her expression became ugly when she saw Elvira insisting that she and Amber were mistresses. She said aggrievedly, "Elvira, this is the house that Calvin and I will live in. Can't you give it to me?"

"No! Other than a scumbag, I can't give you anything!" Elvira retorted rudely.

When Calvin heard Elvira call him a scumbag in front of everyone, his face darkened. He deliberately looked at Zach and asked, "Mr. Gilbert, I heard that you are not a waiter. I wonder where you work? How much is your annual salary? Can you afford a house here?" "I work at the Gilbert Group. I have Elvira now. Of course, I can afford the house here. Zach looked at Elvira gently and held her hand.

"Mr. Gilbert, are you living off Elvira?" Calvin could not believe that Zach was so shameless as to admit that he was living off a woman in public.

"It's useless even if you're envious. Elvira is my wife now. As for the person you're going to marry, I don't think she'll be able to buy you such a good house in this lifetime." Zach looked at Judy with disdain.

"You... Calvin's expression turned even uglier when he saw Zach's self-righteous look.

Im very fine because I married the most beautiful and outstanding Elvira in the world. As for you, you treat a bad woman as a treasure. Serves you right that you can only buy everything for others for the rest of your life!" Zach looked at the two of them sarcastically. Judy was furious. She thought, 'Indeed, a man who can marry Elvira is blind! He is even more annoying than Elvira!'

Chapter 84 62%1

Elvira was initially worried that Zach would feel that his self-esteem was wounded. She did not expect him to not care about others' opinions at all. He had a sharp tongue. She thought, I really like his personality more and more.

The salesperson took the contract over. Judy was too lazy to pretend anymore. She said, "I'll increase the price of this house by 400 thousand dollars! I will buy it! Bring the contract over!"

When the salesperson heard that Judy wanted to buy a house at a higher price, she was a little dumbfounded. She stood there with the contract in her hand and did not move.

"Alright, sell this house to her. I want the one opposite her. When the time comes, we'll be neighbors. Calvin, what do you think?" Elvira smiled and looked at Calvin gently.

Recently, Calvin had been traumatized by Elvira's barbed words. His heart skipped a beat when he saw her suddenly turn into her usual affectionate appearance.

Judy did not expect Elvira to be so shameless. She thought, 'She actually seduced Calvin in front of me. If they really are neighbors in the future, won't it be easier for her to return to Calvin? Her expression immediately changed. She held Calvin and said. "Calvin, I don't want this house anymore. I think this house isn't good. I feel dizzy sitting here. Let's go look at other houses." Elvira sneered and she thought, "If I could not defeat Judy, this scheming bitch, then I would have suffered for nothing for the past 20 years.

Her chin was suddenly pinched. Zach forced Elvira to turn her head to face him. He kissed her immediately. Elvira was confused.

Elvira immediately wanted to retreat. Zach kissed her even more tightly. He held the back of her head and did not let her move. He gave her a romantic kiss in public.

Calvin looked at Elvira kissing another man. He suddenly felt a sharp pain in his heart and his expression turned ugly.

Although he knew that Elvira was married, she had never done anything intimate with her new man in front of him. Today! Zach had forcefully kissed her. This direct impact actually made his heart feel uncomfortable!

Judy was furious. Seeing that Calvin was looking at Elvira with a strange gaze, she pulled him out of the sales office.

Elvira could not resist Zach's kiss, even though she knew that the place was not suitable. After the two of them kissed, Zach wiped the marks on Elvira's lips with satisfaction. He said domineeringly, "Don't look at other men like that in the future!" Elvira was speechless.

"I just want Judy to back off." Elvira felt wronged.

"That won't do either! No matter what happens! I'll be jealous." Zach kissed her again domineeringly and firmly.

Elvira was speechless again. She thought, Alright!"

Elvira looked at the salespeople around her who had their backs turned and pushed Zach away in embarrassment. She thought. The staff of the Gilbert Group are indeed polite. They did not kick us out and even knew not to see it.

Just as the salesperson was about to sign a house purchase contract with Elvira, a trace of impatience flashed across Zach's eyes. The next second, the sales manager ran in quickly, almost exhausting him to death.

"Wait a minute. Our company is holding an event today. Anyone who buys a house can draw the lottery! Miss, you draw the lottery before signing the contract, the manager said while panting.

should

The salespeople were confused. They thought, The company starts an event in the sales office? Why haven't we heard of it?

She Got A Better Man

"Bring it up. The manager got someone to bring in a lottery box

Elvira was also very interested in this lottery draw. She happily tugged at Zach's clothes and said, "We're really lucky. We can even draw the lottery when we buy a house. I'm already satisfied if I can get an induction cooker." Zach thought, 'An induction cooker... This is too easy to satisfy. hope that she will be so happy when she draws the big prize later

The manager said the highest award there was buying a house a 90% off! There are ten thousand lottery tickets inside. If they draw the highest award, they only need to pay 10% to buy the house.

The salespeople were stumped. They thought, 'Manager, what are you saying? 90% off? Are you still asleep? Or are you being controlled by someone? If you're controlled, blink your eyes!

"I've never been lucky since I was young. I've never won the lottery before. Why don't you draw it?" Elvira felt that she could at most get an induction cooker. She didn't even dare to think about the discount. Seeing her lack of confidence, Zach pulled her hand to his lips and kissed it. He looked at her gently. "If you're unlucky since you were young, I'll give you all my luck. Don't worry! You'll definitely win." Elvira's face turned red from his actions. The salespeople were also so envious that their faces turned red. They thought, 'With such a handsome and gentle husband, her life will definitely not be troublesome!' Let's do it!" Elvira rubbed her hands and closed her eyes to pray. Then, she reached in and grabbed a lottery ticket.

The manager took out a coin and scraped the lottery ticket open. On it were two words, "90% off."

"Congratulations to this lady for winning the company's highest prize, 90% off on buying a house! Hurry up and prepare a new contract." The manager immediately got someone to prepare a new contract.

The salespeople were all shocked. They looked at Elvira with envy and excitement. They thought, 'Oh my god! A house worth 6 million dollars only costs 600 thousand dollars. Ms. Willis is very lucky! Later on, we should shake hands with Ms. Willis and get some good luck!'"

The salespeople were all busy, leaving only Elvira with a look of disbelief. She looked at Zach who also looked quite happy and asked, "Did I really win their big prize? 600 thousand dollars to buy the best floor for the best building?"

"Yes, I told you that I gave all my luck to you. You will be lucky in the future. Zach held her hand and kissed it again.

When she left the sales office, Elvira was still dizzy. She held the house purchase contract in her hand and happily dragged Zach to celebrate.

Samson heard from the manager that Elvira had already bought the best house in their neighborhood at the lowest price. Samson was very satisfied and immediately sent a message to Zach to claim the credit.

Samson: [Zach, didn't I complete my mission very well today? Is Elvira very happy!] Samson happily claimed the credit, looking like he was asking for praise.

Zach: [You made Elvira spend 600 thousand dollars today! How dare you come and claim credit! Wait for your punishment when I get back!]

Samson: ["90% off is not enough?"]"

Zach: You should give it away for free! The 600 thousand dollars will be deducted from your salary!] If not for the fact that Elvira was very happy today, Samson would be definitely sent to Alider! Chapter 81

Samson was aggrieved mid-he thought, "Zach is too unreasonable!"

When Olivia called Elvira, Elvira was about to go to Tracy's house for dinner. When she saw that it was Olivia calling, her beautiful lips moved slightly. She said, "Olivia, you are busy! Why do you have time to call me?" "Elvira, I am disappointed in love, Tommy wants to break up with me. Olivin's voice was a little hoarse. It sounded like he had just cried.

"Where are you? I'll look for you." Elvira did not ask further. She only asked where Olivia was. She thought, 'Since she has called me, she needs my company!

"I'm at the Mter Bar" Olivia ran out to drink after crying. She called Elvira because she really needed someone to talk to.

"I'll be right there. Stay there and wait for me. Elvira hung up the phone and asked the driver to change direction to go to the bar.

She called Zach and Tracy and told them that she could not accompany them to dinner.

Zach asked for Elvira's address and also went to the bar. He was worried about Elvira going to the bar alone. He had to go over and accompany her.

On the way, Zach saw a cake chain that Elvira liked on the street. He got out of the car and went to the shop to buy desserts for Elvira.

Zoey, who was choosing desserts in the shop, inadvertently looked up and saw the man walking in. Her eyes were fixed on him. At that moment, she felt her face turn red and her heart beat faster. She forgot to put down the dessert in her hand.

After Zach walked in, he ignored Zoey who was infatuated. He had encountered this kind of thing many times and was already used to it. He bought Elvira's favorite cakes. Zoey finally reacted. While Zach was paying, she deliberately walked over and stood very close to Zach. As long as Zach turned around, he would be able to touch her. This way, she could have a chance encounter with this handsome and imposing man!

Zoey's heart almost jumped out of her chest when she thought of this perfect encounter. It had been a long time since she had such feelings for a man.

Just as Zoey was immersed in her beautiful fantasy, an extremely cold voice sounded beside her. "Please make way. You're blocking the way!"

Zach naturally did not want to touch a strange woman. He turned around from the other side, but Zoey still blocked his way

Zoey looked up shyly and was about to speak to Zach when he ignored her and left.

She was a little embarrassed. Zach quickly left the cake shop and drove away. By the time Zoey chased after him, it was already too late. She stomped her feet in frustration.

She immediately called Judy and told her that she had fallen in love with a handsome man at first sight today.

"I'm not trying to discourage you. Since he is ignoring you, does that mean that he's not interested in you?" Judy looked down on Zoey's infatuated behavior. In her opinion, Zoey was really stupid. Judy thought, 'If not for the fact that she is still useful, I wouldn't have bothered with her.

"That's impossible. He should be embarrassed. After all, I'm dressed in high-end clothes and my bag is very expensive. He might be feeling inferior. Moreover, he's pretending not to look at me. In fact, he's secretly looked at me countless times. I just regret not taking the initiative. The next time I see him, I must take the initiative to ask for his contact information!" Zoey was very confident in herself.

"Remember to be more proactive next time." Judy did not want to argue with her on this matter, so she went along with

Zoey

"Okay! You also think that I should be more proactive! You don't know, but this man is the most handsome I've ever seen. His face and figure are really perfect!" Zoey said infatuatedly.

Her description made Judy inexplicably think of Elvira's husband. A trace of disdain flashed across Judy's eyes.

She thought. "What is the use of a man who lived off a woman? He is just good-looking but useless! A man's family background is the most important! The man Elvira married, there is no hope in this life At the thought of this, Judy felt a little better.
