

She Got A Better Man

By the time Elvira arrived at the bar, Olivia had already started drinking. Olivia was already a little drunk because she felt sad.

"Don't drink too much, or your stomach will hurt. Olivia was a doctor. When she was busy, she ate irregularly. At such a young age, she already had gastric problems.

"Elvira, tell me, what's wrong with me? Why did he break up with me? I've liked him for ten years! I'll support whatever he wants to do. He said he wanted to go overseas. I was so reluctant to part with him, but I still supported him. Why is he so ruthless?" Olivia's palm-sized face was already wet with tears, looking pitiful

"None of this is your fault. It's his fault that he doesn't like you! You can't ruin your own body like this," Elvira hugged her and comforted her.

"You're right. It's his fault. I've been chasing him for ten years, but he still gave up on me just like that. What else do I have to cherish? Elvira, drink with me. After I'm drunk, I'll forget him and get him out of my world. I'll never love Tommy again."" Olivia poured Elvira a glass of wine and asked Elvira to drink with her.

When Elvira saw that Olivia was in so much pain, she accompanied Olivia without hesitation. She drank with Olivia, but she did not dare to drink too much. It was very dangerous for two girls to get drunk in a chaotic place like a bar.

They were very beautiful and had already attracted the attention of many men.

A few men came over to hit on them, but they were all rejected by Elvira.

Olivia was completely drunk. Elvira saw that Olivia was quite drunk, so she paid the bill and prepared to take Olivia away.

A few men walked down from upstairs. The leader was a slightly fat young rich man. When he saw Elvira and Olivia, his eyes widened. Such beautiful top-notch beauties were rare in such a place.

He immediately rushed over and stood in front of Elvira and Olivia. He smiled and said, "Don't be in a hurry to leave. Have/drink with me."

"She is drunk and it's not convenient. Move aside!" Elvira said coldly.

"It's not convenient here. Let's go to a hotel to get a room. The rich man had obviously drunk a lot, and he looked very obscene and frivolous.

Elvira frowned slightly. The bodyguard in the distance wanted to save Elvira. A man suddenly grabbed the rich man's collar and threw him away.

The rich man was like a kite with a broken string. He fell and smashed some tables and chairs. His bad friends quickly wanted to help him up. Before they could get close, they were blocked by the bodyguards. One of the bodyguards stepped on the rich man's back and did not let him get up

"Miss, take your friend away. Let's see who dares to cause trouble again!" Gary's sharp eyes swept across the surroundings. The surrounding people were so frightened that they hurriedly lowered their heads and did not dare to look. They thought, This person is not to be trifled with

Seeing that everything was fine, the bodyguards sat back down.

"Thank you," Elvira replied gratefully and helped Olivia out

"Miss, your bag." Gary took the bag from the seat and handed it to Elvira.

Elvira looked at the man in front of her. He looked to be in his early thirties and was handsome. He looked a little familiar, but she did not remember seeing this man. She thought, "If I had seen him before, I should remember such an outstanding

NOV

Thank you, Elvira thanked him again and helped Olivia out of the bar.

"Mr. Gilbert, what should we do with this person? His subordinate came over and asked.

Gary flicked his clothes and said coldly. "Throw him into the river to feed the fish!"

"Yes!" The subordinate immediately went to do it. The rich man wanted to curse him, but his mouth was gagged and he was dragged away like a dead pig.

When Zach saw Elvira come out, he immediately got out of the car to pick her up. Seeing that Olivia had drunk too much, he looked at the bodyguards in the distance and gestured for them to come and help Olivia. Seeing this, the bodyguard quickly jogged over and helped Olivia into the backseat with Elvira.

Olivia did not kick up a fuss when she was drunk. Elvira was worried that she was not feeling well, so she sat at the back to take care of Olivia.

Zach drove away and asked, "Where is she going?"

"I don't dare to send her home in her current state. Let her stay at our house for the night." Elvira was worried that Zach would find it troublesome. After all, Olivia was her good friend but was not familiar with Zach. You can make all the decisions in our family. Zach handed her the dessert he bought and said. "You must be hungry since back" you haven't had dinner, right? Eat something first. I'll get someone to deliver dinner when we get

"Did you just buy it? It's all my favorite food. Hubby, you're really good." Elvira happily took it. She drank on an empty stomach and her stomach was not feeling too good now. She should feel better after eating something.

"If you think I'm good, you can't just say it. I want to see your actions." Zach pointed at his cheek.

Elvira glanced at Olivia who had passed out. She got up and leaned over to kiss him. She looked at Olivia guiltily, afraid that Olivia would laugh at her.

"Why are you here to pick me up?" Elvira asked as she ate the dessert.

"I'm worried about you. Of course, I have to pick you up," Zach said matter-of-factly. However, Elvira's heart was filled with sweetness. In the past 20 years of her life, not to mention going to a bar, no one cared about her even if she disappeared. Now, no matter where she went, there would be people who cared about her. This feeling was really blissful.

Back at home, Elvira let Olivia sleep in the second bedroom. When she came out, she hugged Zach and took the initiative to kiss him.

Zach reached out and hugged her waist. He tasted the fragrance of wine mixed with the taste of dessert in her mouth. He was addicted to the kiss and could not stop himself. He kissed deeply.

As their lips and teeth intertwined, Zach's hand burrowed into her clothes and rubbed, her smooth skin. At this moment, both of them yearned for each other. The two of them kissed as they retreated and fell onto the sofa. The love was crazy...

Just as the two of them were about to have sex, Elvira suddenly heard Olivia's voice. "Elvira, I'm thirsty." Time seemed to have stopped...

The two people on the sofa looked at the door of the second bedroom and saw the drunk woman standing at the door. They did not know how long she had been standing there...

Elvira was embarrassed:

Olivia looked away naturally and walked to the kitchen to pour herself a glass of water. Before she went in, she said, "Continue... Pretend that I don't in your house!" Zach was also embarrassed, Elvira's face turned red. She let Zach get up quickly. Zach was depressed to death. He thought, 'How could a drunkard wake up quickly just like that? I'm scared to death! Elvira was about to tidy up her clothes to see if Olivia was alright when Zach suddenly picked her up and carried her back to the room

She Got A Better Man

Both of them were drenched in sweat, Zach carried Elvira to take a shower and change their clothes, Zach kissed Elvira's lips and said. "I'll get someone to send some food over and ask your friend to eat with us." Elvira nodded and felt a little embarrassed Olivia was at home, but she and he could not help but have sex once. Especially when she thought of the awkwardness outside just now, her face turned red again. Elvira prepared her own home clothes for Olivia. She asked Olivia to take a shower and eat something together. Olivia was too sad today, so she got drunk very quickly. However, she woke up very quickly. She was awake now While Zach was picking up the food, Olivia came over and asked. "Is he not very capable? Isn't it a little too fast to end it in just half an hour?"

Elvira looked at Olivia and pinched her. "Can you be more serious? He usually does it very long! Today, it ended quickly because you were here."

Olivia gritted her teeth in pain. She slapped Elvira's hand away and said seriously, "You seem to be blaming me."

Elvira thought. I really want to strangle her to death!"

During the meal, Zach had been taking care of Elvira. He peeled prawns for her. He took care of her meticulously. This made Olivia, who had just fallen out of love, want to cry again.

Throughout the entire process, Zach only politely told Olivia to please herself. After that, he only had Elvira in his eyes and did not even look at Olivia again.

"Olivia, I think Tommy is a scumbag for treating you like this. You should forget about him and start over," Elvira advised her Elvira thought. They had been in a relationship for more than ten years. They broke up just like that. Tommy did not even want to make things clear in front of Olivia. This irresponsible man breaking up with her could be considered a good thing? "Yes, I will Olivia's heart still ached whenever she thought about Tommy.

"Elvira, do you still remember our dream?" Olivia suddenly asked her.

At the mention of this, Elvira's eyes darkened as she said, "Of course, I remember. We agreed to be doctors together, but unfortunately, I didn't even get into the ideal university because of them."

"Your stepmother and sister are very vicious! If it weren't for them, we would be working together every day" Olivia also felt regretful.

Zach looked at Elvira beside him in surprise. He did not expect Elvira to have a dream of being a doctor. When he thought about how her dream was not realized because of family matters, he was heartbroken. Zach reached out and held her hand tightly. Elvira looked at him and smiled, indicating that she was fine.

After dinner, Olivia insisted on going home. She did not want to continue being a third wheel here. Olivia knew that Elvira did not mean to show off her affection to her, but that clingy Zach did not care about her feelings as a person who had just fallen out of love. After Olivia left, Elvira did not look very happy either. She must have been thinking about the past. Zach was heartbroken when he saw this. In order to not let Elvira imagination run wild, he pulled her to the bed to make love until she fell asleep from exhaustion. Zach took his phone and went to the balcony. He called Samson.

"Zach, did you make Elvira hungry?" Samson gloated.

"Buy me a hospital soon," Zach ordered.

"What Hospital? Doesn't the Gilbert Group have a hospital? Samson was stunned by his words. He felt that ever since Zach got married, his orders had become more and more strange.

"I want you to buy a medium-sized private hospital! Get it done within a week, or you go to Alider!" Zach ordered coldly.

"Zach, it won't be a problem to buy a hospital within a week, but you have to make it clear. Which kind of hospital do you want to buy?" Samson was about to cry and he thought, 'Could he stop scaring me?

"I want an all-rounded hospital! It must contain all departments" Zach was very heartbroken at the thought of Elvira's dejected appearance. He thought, I will help her fulfill her unfulfilled dream!

The person who dreams of being a doctor definitely wants to save the dying and heal the injured. In that case, I will give her a hospital and let her fulfill her dream of saving the dying and leading the injured!"

In the blink of an eye, it was the 100th anniversary of Elvira's alma mater. Vilzell University was the most famous school in Jersten. From middle school to university, it produced many outstanding talents. Elvira and Olivia were both students at this school. She and Olivia met here, but Elvira was forced to drop out and go to the countryside.

That day, Judy made a call. A man's voice came from the other end. He said, "I've prepared everything you asked me to do. Don't worry, Elvira won't be able to escape from me this time!"

"You must make sure that the plan is foolproof! Besides, no matter what happens, you are not allowed to give me away. As long as you can do it, the money will be transferred to your account later," Judy said. "Don't worry! Elvira ruined the rest of my life. I want her to live a life worse than death!" The man's voice was filled with Viciousness.

Judy put down her phone in satisfaction and let the makeup artist come in to help her dress up. After two hours of makeup, she changed into the gown that she had snatched from Elvira. Judy stood in front of the mirror and admired her appearance. She was finally satisfied..

She thought, A gown can't be worn twice. This is social etiquette. Therefore, Elvira won't wear the same gown as last time. My gown today can definitely suppress her!"

Judy picked a set of jewelry and put it on. She looked at herself in the mirror for another half an hour before leaving in satisfaction.

In fact, one could tell that Judy was clearly imitating Elvira's outfit today. The gowns and jewelry were all similar to Elvira's

This also meant that Judy had always been envious of Elvira. It was also because of this that she had always taken pleasure in snatching Elvira's things and imitating her.

Calvin was waiting downstairs. When he heard the sound, he looked up. When he saw Judy walking down leisurely, his eyes flashed with surprise. Judy saw his reaction and smiled in satisfaction Zoey's eyes lit up when she saw Judy. She said enviously, "Judy, you'll definitely be able to best Elvira today. This gown suits you ton well!

"Of course not, Elvira is also very beautiful" Judy walked to Calvin's side and held his arm.

She tilted her head and acted

"Judy, Elvira is not kind to you, but you still spoke up for her. I really admire you. Be brave and stop being bullied by her Zoey said disdainfully.

"With you around, who can bully me?" Judy looked at her shyly.

"You're right. With me around today, if Elvira dares to do anything overboard again, I'll teach her a lesson!" Zoey's protective instincts were triggered by Judy's words. She thought, "Today, I live to protect Judy well. I definitely can't let that bitch

In Vilzell University.

Recently, Marsh had restrained himself a lot in school. He did not take the initiative to cause trouble anymore. He was about to go to the canteen to eat when a ball suddenly hit his head.

Marsh was stunned for a moment. He looked angrily at the senior students who were looking at him not far away and shouted angrily. "What are you doing!"

"You must be Marsh, the younger brother of Elvira! You are really alike. You're both trash!" The boy in the middle sneered.

"I heard that the school has also invited that bitch Elvira to participate in the school's centennial celebration. I really don't know what the school is thinking. They actually invited such trash to participate in such a grand celebration," the person beside him said with disdain.

"Maybe she slept with some leader. But it's a glory for others to come back, and it's a shame for her!" a boy said.

Marsh was so angry that his face turned red. He rushed towards the boys like a madman, wanting to fight them to the death.

He thought No matter how bad Elvira is, she is still my biological sister! How could they have the right to say anything here?

However, Marsh underestimated these students. He only had brute force and could not defeat them at all. In the end, he was pressed to the ground and beaten up by them.

Marsh was beaten so badly that he could not even get up. When they left, the male student in the lead even spat at him in disdain. Then, they swaggered away.

Marsh was in pain and anger, but no one was willing to help him. When they saw him being beaten up, not only did they not save him, they even gloated. Those who did not want to cause trouble avoided him.

Who didn't know that Marsh was the little rascal of the school's junior high school?

In the end, Marsh could only struggle to get up. He staggered to the side of the road and sat down. He took out his phone and called Elvira

Elvira answered his calls very quickly, "Marsh, did you get into trouble again!"

"You're the one who got into trouble! You caused more trouble than me. You were even expelled from the school! Why do I have a sister like you? It's all your fault for implicating me! I hate you to death!" Marsh cried and hung up. Elvira felt that her heart was uncomfortable, making it difficult for her to breathe. She called back, but Marsh refused to pick

1. up.

Zach looked at her worriedly and asked, "What happened to Marsh?"

"He is fine." Elvira's eyes were red. For so many years, no matter how others mocked and ridiculed her for being expelled back then, Elvira did not take it to heart. She knew that she had done nothing wrong, but she felt terrible being hated by Marsh. Zach looked at her sad expression and reached out to touch her hair. He thought, "Marsh makes Elvira sad again. He is too annoying! It seems that I have to think of a way to teach him a lesson and let him know what respect is. Elvira's clothes were prepared by Tracy. It was a long dark purple gown. The mysterious purple color made Elvira's skin look perfect. She was noble, elegant, and charming. Zach's eyes were wide open after seeing Elvira. Elvira also felt that Anna was amazing. She thought, 'She has clearly only done my hair and put on makeup, but I seem to become another person and, become several times prettier

She didn't know that Anna learned her skills from the royal family. Anna had always been the one who helped Tracy make up.

"Anna is amazing. I also think that I've become much prettier." Elvira's face turned red from Zach's gaze.

"It's because you are a natural beauty, I didn't do anything" Ann smiled humbly.

You can leave. Zach, you have to protect Elvira. Don't let anyone bully her, Tracy reminded Zach.

"Okay. Tracy Zach walked over and held Elvira's hand. They set off together.

Outside, Zach said that he had something to do and asked Elvira to go first. He would look for her later.

"Can you go in without an invitation?" Elvira only had one invitation card. The invitation card stated that she could bring a family member. She was worried that Zach would be stopped if he did not go with her. "Sure, be good. You go first. I'll be here later. Zach held her hand and kissed it. He asked the driver to send her over first

The Vilzell University's centennial celebration was held in a four-star hotel beside the school. Yesterday, honorary alumni from overseas arrived one after another and were arranged by the school to stay in the hotel. The celebration was held at eight o'clock in the evening. It was still early, and the guests were free to move about. Most of the guests had arrived at the main banquet hall and were exchanging pleasantries. When Judy and Calvin arrived, they attracted the attention of many people. Both of them were famous alumni. Judy studied at Vilzell University, while Calvin studied abroad. As soon as

as Judy arrived, many old classmates came to talk to her

I heard that Elvira is back. How could she still have the cheek to return to Jersten after doing such a shameful thing back then?" a beautiful female classmate asked speechlessly.

"That's right. If it were me, I would just smash my head against the wall and die! Isn't that embarrassing enough?" a female classmate chimed in.

"Elvira came back a long time ago, but she didn't even finish college. She could only work in my company, Judy said with a look of pity.

"Someone like her will harm others if she goes to school! It's better if she doesn't go to school," another woman said.

The female classmates surrounding Judy were all in the same class back then. They were in the same class, so Elvira very well. Their disgust for her was genuine.

they knew

Judy finally felt like she had found a soulmate. She thought, 'I am right. As long as I publicize Elvira's scandal, I will be able to clear my name without doing anything. After all, who will believe the words of a person with bad morals?

Just like the classmates surrounding me, no one believed what Elvira said. They are all firmly on my side"

Judy, you're still as beautiful as ever. No wonder Calvin likes you The female classmate beside her smiled and complimented her...

"Calvin is not a shallow person. He doesn't just like my beauty... In the end, we have hurt Elvira. However, please believe me! Calvin and I got together after he broke up with Elvira! She was angry and kept talking about the marriage contract. She insisted on slandering me as a third party. I was really aggrieved Judy explained with a wronged and helpless expression

"That's right. Ignore her. Others might not know what kind of person she is, but we all know! She's just a disgusting woman! We've all seen her shameless things. If it were me, I wouldn't like that kind of woman!" Judy, we all believe that you are innocent!"

A few female classmates surrounded Judy and complimented her sincerely.

She Got A Better Man

"Thank you so much. We should keep in touch in the future. Judy looked at her former classmates with gratitude and sincerity.

"We have to keep in touch." a classmate said.

Judy, I heard that your family has acquired a film production company and is planning to enter the film and television industry," another classmate asked.

"Actually, my family has always been doing it. Our company has also signed a few artists. The movie that I acted in last time did not succeed because of Elvira. From now on, I can only work behind the scenes, Judy said gently.

"I think Elvira is a black sheep. Nothing good happens wherever she goes. Your family is really unlucky to have such a troublemaker!" a classmate said.

Another classmate said. "You don't have to work behind the scenes, right? We all know you are innocent. The things Elvira did will be exposed sooner or later! Everyone will know that you're innocent."

that

Judy thought. That's right. I only want to have a good reputation and continue to be a star. This has been my dream since I was young, I am not willing to work behind the scenes! Just wait. After today, I can continue to be a star! I want the entire country to see Elvira's true colors!

Judy, I want to enter showbiz. I wonder if your family can sign me; a female classmate volunteered "Sure. You can do an interview some other day at our company. I'll be there, Judy agreed with a smile. "That's great. Judy, we're so happy to have a classmate like you!" The woman looked at her with admiration.

Judy, you're already here. I was still looking for you." Lily saw Judy, she walked over with a smile.

"Hello, Lily,"

"Hi, Lily." The students all took the initiative to greet Lily.

"Hello! Is Elvira here? I hope she cherishes the chance the school gave her and doesn't cause any more trouble! I promised the principal!" Lily frowned when she mentioned Elvira. She was completely different from when she faced Judy. "What? Does Elvira still have the cheek to come? Really? How thick-skinned must she be to dare to come to the school's 100th anniversary?" The female classmate beside her was stunned.

As soon as she finished speaking, there was a commotion at the door. Everyone looked over and saw a beautiful woman in a long purple gown walking in. The deep purple color made the woman look more mysterious. Her skin was perfect, and her facial features were pretty. She was extremely beautiful.

For a moment, many people did not recognize who it was. Many single male alumni were eager to get her contact information. After all, they were all alumni, so it would be much easier for them to communicate.

When Judy saw Elvira's outfit, her expression turned ugly. She thought that she had won today, but now she knew that she had lost again.

When Judy came in, although the people around her looked at her twice, they retracted their gazes after looking at her. They did not have any stunned expressions. However, now that Elvira had appeared, those men all widened their eyes. They could not look away. Judy was so jealous that she was crazy. She thought, 'Especially since the color of her purple gown today is too stunning, my champagne-colored gown-seems dull. Elvira is indeed a scheming woman! She did it on purpose!!

Judy deliberately said. "Lily, Elvira is here. I'll go pick her up."

When Lily saw Elvira, she frowned tightly with a look of disdain. She followed behind Judy and walked towards Elvira. She wanted to warn Elvira not to cause trouble!

"Elvira, you're here. I've been waiting for you for a long time," Judy greeted Elvira gently.

Elvira really could not be bothered with this hypocritical woman.

"Elvira, I'm warning you. I begged the principal and got your invitation card. There will be many big shots present today! You'd better not cause trouble! If you still dare to do something as despicable as back then, I won't let you off!" Lily's voice was sharp and high-pitched. Her words were harsh, and her face was filled with anger and disdain. Almost half of the people in the venue heard her words. The name Elvira had always been circulating in Vilzell University. Of course, it was a negative example. The alumni did not expect Elvira to be so beautiful, but when they thought of the rumors about her, everyone automatically retreated. Everyone liked beauty, but the character was more important.

This was exactly what Judy wanted. As long as Lily said these words, Elvira would be a bad woman. No matter how beautiful she was, it was useless!

"Lily, don't say that about Elvira. She has already grown up and changed. I will take good care of her. Go and do your work." Judy spoke for Elvira with a mischievous look.

"Then I'll have to trouble you to keep an eye on her. If she does anything shameless, I won't be able to keep my job!" Lily glared at Elvira again and went back to work.

All the leaders of the city would be here today. Lily regretted agreeing to Judy's request and letting Elvira come. She thought. 'With Elvira's character, she would definitely not be honest!

"Elvira, don't be angry. Lily is just outspoken. She doesn't have any bad intentions." Judy looked at Elvira and spoke up for Lily.

Elvira thought, 'What she said was really overbearing. Lily was outspoken? Did she mean that Lily was just too straightforward and spoke the truth?'

Elvira did not even look at Judy. She walked in another direction. She thought, "A little bitch who only knows how to act. Let's see if I'll pay attention to you."

When the classmates saw Elvira's arrogant appearance, they all surrounded Judy and started criticizing Elvira.

"Why is she like this now? She looks so arrogant. Who doesn't know what she did? Why is she so noble?"

"That's right. Why is she still dressed so coquettishly? A dog really can't change its habit of eating shit. I wonder who she is trying to seduce?"

"Stop spouting nonsense. If you continue to talk about Elvira like that, I will ignore you." Judy pretended to be angry in order to maintain her kind persona.

The women stopped talking, but they still looked at Elvira with disdain. It was as if they had become noble because of what Elvira had done before. No man could be close to them.

After Zoey was brought in by Calvin and Judy, she separated from the two of them. She was still single. Those who were invited to the centennial celebration today were all outstanding alumni. Naturally, she would not let go of such a good opportunity. After entering, she wanted to talk to someone.

When she

W Elvira coming, a trace of viciousness flashed across her eyes. She pretended not to see Elvira. When she saw Elvira walking towards her, she deliberately turned around and threw the wine in her hand at Elvira's gown.

She thought. If I don't take revenge for being beaten up last time today, I won't be able to vent my hatred. It is just an easy matter to make a fool of her!

Elvira had been on guard against these tricks. Seeing the wine in Zoey's hand splashing towards her, Elvira quickly slapped Zoey's hand. The wine in Zoey's hand spilled all over the other female guest's gown.

The female guest exclaimed in shock as she looked at Zoey, who was holding an empty glass and standing there in a daze. She questioned angrily. "Why did you splash me?"

"It's not me, she... Zoey immediately wanted to push the blame on Elvira.

"You're ridiculous. The wine glass is still in your hand. Elvira looked at Zoey disdainfully and ignored her little trick. She turned around and left.

"Elvira, you're the one who pushed me! Stop right there, you can leave!" Zoey was angry and she was about to chase after Elvira.

The female guest who had been splashed with wine reached out and grabbed Zoey. She said angrily, "You splashed it on me and you're not apologizing. Do you still want to escape? How could an uncultured person like you sneak into the centennial celebration?"

"I said it wasn't me. Who are you calling uncultured? You're the uncultured one!" Zoey just didn't want to apologize. She felt that if it wasn't her fault, she shouldn't have apologized.

"You're fault for splashing wine on me! Are you invited here or not? Where's the security? The female guest was really angered by Zoey's attitude. She grabbed Zoey and refused to let her go.

Calvin was talking to his business partner. When he saw that something had happened to Zoey, he quickly rushed over. Judy did not want to care when she saw Zoey making a scene here, but she thought that she still needed Zoey to deal with Elvira, so she could only come over.

"Zoey, what's going on? Just apologize for accidentally splashing wine on her! I'm sorry, lady. I'll compensate you for the gown. Calvin quickly comforted the female guest.

"Of course, you have to compensate for the gown. Besides, she has to apologize. Don't tell me such an uncultured person came in with you! Calvin, you were the most handsome boy at Vilzell University back then. How could you know such an uncultured person! The female guest hated Zoey's attitude.

"Who are you calling uncultured!" Zoey was furious. She was so angry that her face turned red and she wanted to argue with the guest.

"Zoey, apologize immediately. Otherwise, don't expect me to bring you out again!" Calvin's expression turned cold. He was quite scary when he was angry. He was sensitive about his reputation the most. If Zoey didn't apologize, it would let him lose his face!

Zoey was so angry that she was about to cry. She turned around to look for Elvira, only to see Elvira holding a glass of wine. When Elvira saw Zoey looking over, she raised her eyebrows and raised her glass to her. Her smile was calm and mocking Zoey was about to be crazy from anger!

"Zoey, I know you didn't do it on purpose. You have to apologize for this. She won't hold it against you." Judy also came over to persuade her.

"I'm sorry, alright?" Zoey said unwillingly and turned to run.

What kind of attitude is that? The two of you are influential figures at Vilzell University. How do you know such a person?" The female guest really felt unlucky.

"I'm sorry. I'll definitely compensate you for the gown." Calvin could only apologize to the female guest on Zoey's behalf.

After appeasing her, Calvin's expression did not look too good. He instructed. "Judy, keep an eye off anyone again."

"Yes, I understand. I will keep an eye on her" Judy gently said to Calvin on Zoey later. Don't let her

Calvin looked at the cute Judy in front of him and felt much better. He reached out and pinched Judy's face with a doting expression. "You're the gentlest and most considerate. I'll go greet them first"

"Hurry up and go." Judy pushed him shyly and turned to look at Elvira provocatively. She thought. I want to show Elvira how much Calvin dotes on me now'

Unexpectedly, Elvira did not pay attention to them at all. Judy felt embarrassed. She clenched her fists tightly and was so angry that she felt stuffy.

She turned around and went to look for Zoey. She thought, "Today, I want to expose the scandal of Elvira in front of the entire country's netizens! I also want Elvira to embarrass herself in public to vent the hatred in my heart!" Zoey ran to the small garden outside the banquet hall. She felt that she had lost all her face today!

Judy came over and patiently counseled her for a while before persuading her to return to the banquet hall.

"I'm going to teach Elvira a lesson! She embarrassed me, I'm going to embarrass her even more!" Zoey hated Elvira to the core and she thought, I wish I could strip Elvira naked and embarrass her in public!*

"I heard that the school's anniversary celebration has the habit of opening dances. Furthermore, it requires an auction. The money from the auction will be donated to the children who can't afford to go to school in impoverished places. I think this is very meaningful! I wonder who will be the lucky goddess today?" Judy pretended to be casual.

Zoey's eyes lit up when she heard this. She held Judy's arm and said. "Of course it's you! It can't be that bitch, Elvira, right? She's a poor woman and married a poor man! Besides, with her bad reputation, how can anyone be willing to spend money on her? I've thought of a way to embarrass Elvira. Judy, you have to cooperate with me later! Otherwise, I'll ignore you!"

"What do you want to do? Don't be rash. Don't go against her anymore. Judy looked at her worriedly.

"She got someone to beat us up, yet you're still speaking up for her. Just wait, I'll make her lose face badly today!" Zoey took Judy into the banquet hall.

Judy smiled triumphantly

The Vilzell University's anniversary celebration was not a party. It would be held for a total of three days. There were different activities every day, and those who could attend were all top elites from various fields.

At eight o'clock in the evening, the anniversary celebration began. The principal of Vilzell University gave a speech. After a round of warm applause, it was time for the opening dance of the anniversary celebration.

Zoey took Judy to Elvira's side. She smiled evilly at Elvira and shouted into the microphone she had previously got, "Why don't we do something special for this year's opening dance? Vilzell University's famous alumni, Judy and Elvira. They will have a battle. The starting price for the opening dance is one million dollars!"

Elvira was contacting Cole to confirm if the person she was looking for and the evidence had arrived when Zoey and Judy rushed in front of her and said such baffling words.

She thought, "Wasn't they doing so much just to embarrass me? How childish and ridiculous!!

When the surrounding people heard that the starting price of the opening dance was one million dollars, they all sighed. After all, the people who came here were all top talents in various industries, not rich men with family assets of over 20 million dollars. "Boring!" Elvira could not be bothered with such a boring game She turned around and wanted to leave.

"Elvira, today is a good opportunity for you to do charity. After, if someone is willing to bid for the opening dance for you, you can contribute to those poor children." Zoey blocked Elvira and did not let her leave.

When the principal heard that the starting price for the opening dance was one million dollars, he said, "I think the suggestion is good. We can try it out this year."

After all, before, the opening dance could only be auctioned for 100 thousand dollars per year. As the principal, he could not get much money at all.
