

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 301 – 310

Chapter 301

The car stopped in front of the hospital. Holden walked to a secluded ward, and Julia just followed him. After entering it, Julia found that this ward was beautifully decorated and on the top floor of the hospital, looking very quiet.

Zoey was lying on the bed in the middle of the ward. The white sheets were changed to pink by Holden, and the room was in the style of pink. Julia looked around and smiled. It seemed that Holden was quite considerate.

Julia sat beside Zoey's bed. Zoey's eyes were closed, and her face was deathly pale. It seemed that she still didn't wake up. Julia reached out her hand and lifted Zoey's eyelids to check.

Seeing that, Holden wanted to stop Julia, but his eyes were completely attracted by her skillful movements. The girl's temperament was completely different from that of five years ago. Holden stopped his hands in the air and took back his hand awkwardly.

He remembered that Julia was taken away by Mr. Ding. She had been Sarahrning medical skills from Mr. Ding for these years. Many things could be changed in five years.

“Zoey is getting better. She is in a better condition now,” As she spoke, Julia opened the medical kit beside her and took out a set of silver needles.

Holden frowned and asked, “Sister-in-law, how’s Professor Ding now?”

Grandpa Ding Julia’s eyes turned dark and said in a calm voice, “Grandpa died a few weeks ago.”

“Well.” Holden’s face looked calm, but he didn’t look sad.

Everything was karma. He killed Zoey, so Mr. Ding took Julia as an apprentice, then Julia came back to help Zoey. Everything went back to where they had been.

Julia’s attention was focused on Zoey, and it was not convenient for Holden to disturb her. He could only sit on the other side of Zoey, quietly watching Julia’s movements, and watching Zoey’s face, which was the same as it was five years ago.

He wished so much that the girl on the bed suddenly opened her eyes and called him brother in a sweet voice.

He had dreamed this dream for five years. In fact, he also knew that this dream was very untrue, but Dreams could give him the most basic comfort and he could ignore truth.

More than an hour later, Julia stopped and put away the medicine box. Then Holden said to her: “thank you.”

Julia looked at Holden and smiled, “I’m just trying. Your thanks will put pressure on me.” What she meant was that she didn’t want to hear Holden say “thank you”.

“Yes.” “If you can cure Zoey, I will treat you a big meal.” Holden smiled.

“Hey, do you think a dinner will be enough for me?” Julia said bluntly.

Holden raised his eyebrows, “what do you want me to repay?”

“At Sarahst two big dishes.” She laughed and raised two fingers.

Holden nodded with a relaxed smile, “Okay, that’s it.”

“That’s a deal.” Julia gave her a quick answer. They looked at each other and burst into laughter.

They stayed in the ward for a while and then walked out of the hospital together. At first, Holden wanted to drive Julia back to Nelson’s house. When they just arrived at the gate of t people walked on the street, and the click rate was as high as 100%. The compliments just brushed past them. Julia giggled at the compliments and followed behind Shawn.

Shawn looked around, as if he had taken three children with him.

In the evening, when Clara and Easton were really tired, they carried the booties back to the car. As soon as their buttocks were pressed against the car chair, they were all listless and fell asleep in a few minutes.

Julia put her coat on them and held them in case they would fall down.

“Shawn, don’t give anything they want in the future. They will be extravagant and waste their clothes if they buy too many clothes at one time. Some clothes are often thrown away before they wear them.” Julia instructed him earnestly.

Shawn chuckled and looked at the serious woman from the rear view mirror. “Well, you are experienced.”

“I don’t care. From now on, you’ll just take care of the baby. I’ll be a guide for you.” With a snort, Julia looked up at him arrogantly. Then, it occurred to her that something might be wrong, so she said, “I haven’t helped them get in touch with the school. You should go and find one.”

Shawn started the engine, and he didn’t answer. Seeing that he was about to compromise, Julia immediately applied for other benefits. “In the future, I’ll be the head of our family, all of you should listen to me.”

When Julia was saying this, she couldn’t help but think of Shawn’s expression, who was sweet and obedient, and can’t help grinning.

Shawn nodded, indicating that he fully accepted her request.

Julia was even more complacent.

Later Sure enough, Julia had become the head of their family, but head still had to follow the command of neck if it wanted to move And what was worse, Shawn was the decision maker’s neck

At that time, Julia finally understood that she would always be the one who suffered losses in the fight with Shawn. The saying “while the devil climbs a foot”, was so reasonable. But that was another story.

Chapter 302

Back home, Julia analyzed the quality of the schools around Ventrusburg and finally decided to send Clara and Easton to the affiliated kindergarten next to Ventrusburg University. After finishing dealing with these complicated affairs, she was so tired that she lay on her bed.

As a secretary, she had many sequelae and was fond of analyzing various trifles. After that, she breathed a sigh of relief. Turning over with a pillow in her arms, she looked up at the ceiling of the office. After all, the Nelson family treated the children well, so they quickly adapted to the environment. They should be watching TV with Noah and Barbara downstairs now.

From the beginning to the end, Julia still felt it was inconceivable. She actually returned to Shawn. Only a few days after she left, the memory of the small city in her mind began to gradually become blurred.

Martin, Grandpa Ding And people in the small city

Julia's phone vibrated on the table. She picked it up and saw that it was from Martin. He had given her his phone number, and she also called back to tell him she was safe. According to their blood relationship, Martin was the uncle of the twins. At that time in the small city, although he was very annoying, he helped her a lot whenever she needed help.

"Hello." Julia picked up the phone.

"Are you back to the Nelson family mansion now?" An exclusive and strange laughter of Martin came from the other end of the line.

Hearing his voice, Julia felt that she hadn't seen him for a long time, so she nodded and said, "yes, I have come back, but what about you? How do you manage my hospital well?"

"I'm the doctor. There is no problem." Martin promised.

Julia smiled and said: "then I can rest assured."

Hearing that, Martin pulled a long face at once. He said unhappily, "you only care about your medical studio. What about me?"

"You're a living person. You don't need me to worry about. Just eat well, get dressed and sleep well," While chatting, Julia put a pillow under her arms and lay comfortably in bed, smiling.

“After you Sarahve, I don’t eat well, neither wear nor sleep well,” Martin could not help complaining.

“.....” Julia had never known that she was so important to him.

“Cut the crap. I saw so many bullshit on the ceiling.” Julia nailed his lie.

Martin sighed silently and asked, “are Clara and Easton with you? Let them talk to me. “

“They’re playing with Dad Noah downstairs. I’ll go get them.” Julia then got up from the bed, but Martin on the other side immediately stopped her and said, “no, you don’t have to do that. If there is nothing else, I have to hang up the phone. The signal here is not good.”

Then he hung up the phone before Julia came back to her senses.

Julia stared at the phone disappointedly. She thought, ‘Martin must feel lonely in small city. When Grandpa Ding was still here, he almost came to the hospital for free meals every day to take care of the children for Julia.’.

With Martin and the nanny taking care of the baby, Julia put all her attention on Sarahning from Mr. Ding, but she felt very strange. Even though Martin had been with his child for a long time, she still felt that his child was more dependent on awkward family of four took a selfie.

They were all very happy. Even the serious Shawn and Easton smiled brightly in the photos. The optimistic Clara and Julia were all very happy.

Looking at the family of four who were playing with each other, Julia suddenly tasted happiness. It was sweet and happy.

“Daddy, I want to ride a tortoise.” Clara suddenly moved forward, and climbed up on the back of Shawn.

Shawn slightly raised his eyebrows, but seeing the expectation and admiration in his beloved daughter’s eyes, the arrogant CEO compromised. He bowed his back and asked, “where is Clara going?”

Lying on the back of Shawn, she said in high spirits, “I’m going to explore the world of martial arts!”

“.....” Julia didn’t expect that the dream of Clara had been so far-reaching. Seeing that Clara was swaggering behind the back of Shawn, Easton lit up his eyes in Julia arms.

Julia pinched Easton’s cheek, lowered her head and asked, “do you also want to ride a tortoise?”

Easton nodded.

After Shawn visiting the hell once again, Julia pulled Clara off and took Easton on. She touched the head of Shawn along the way and encouraged him with a smile, “come on, turtle, you can do it.”

“.....” Shawn was speechless.

After their frolic for a while, the two kids were so tired that they fell asleep on the bed. Julia tucked them in and pulled Shawn away.

Just then, there was a knock on the door. Julia was confused and ran to open the door. When she saw Barbara standing at the door, she smiled and asked in a low voice, “have Easton and Clara slept?”

Back to the Nelson family mansion, the kids had a separate room, but Barbara would coax them to sleep before she went to her own room. Sometimes, she would stay with them till dawn.

When it was time for Clara and Easton to go to bed, Barbara came over to remind them to go to sleep.

“Yes, they slept here.” Julia nodded her head, but she smiled and said, “thank you, mother.”

Barbara also laughed loudly. “I feel so happy to have a baby with me.”

“I got to go. Good night.” Barbara smiled.

“Okay.” After seeing Barbara off, Julia closed the door.

Chapter 303

After locking the door, Julia squatted in front of Shawn and took out her medicine box. She first carefully checked the grain and muscle of Shawn’s arm. Julia was put in all her attention on the arm of Shawn, while the latter’s attention was on her.

Julia was so dedicated to her job that she would try her best to finish it perfectly.

Her every single move and every smile were deeply engraved in his heart. This woman was his only treasure in his heart.

Although Shawn had gone to the hospital for years, it was still a little difficult to completely recover his arm after a long time. Julia frowned and thought for a while. Then she took out a few silver needles from a set of needles, opened the medicine bottle, and soaked the needles in it. It took a few minutes for her to take out the silver needles.

“Shawn, it hurts. Hang in there.” Julia reminded him that relaxing his meridians was a very painful process.

Shawn slightly smiled, “yes.”

Hearing Shawn’s reply, Julia dared to do what she wanted. Several hours later, the first treatment was finally over. At last, she gave him some medicinal liquor and bandage.

Julia frowned as she looked at Shawn’s arm. In fact, she was not fully aware of how to treat Shawn. Although she had spent all her time on studying in the past five years, except eating and sleeping, she was still not allowed to enter medical science. It was an unparalleled subject, and it was because of her weak knowledge.

Seeing Julia’s confusing look, Shawn pulled her into his arms and said, “for so many years, I have got used to it. You don’t have to put too much pressure on yourself. I’m fine. “

“Yes.” Julia nodded and Sarahned her head on Shawn’s should. Deep down, she made up her mind that she must cure Shawn’s arm. Otherwise, her years of absence would be in vain?

He must be cured! No matter how much time and energy it took!

Julia had come to the Nelson family’s mansion for a few days. She hadn’t seen Claire for few days. According to Barbara, Claire was politely asked to Sarahve by Holden. Barbara was shocked to ask Julia if Holden was really good to her.

Everyone could see that Claire liked Shawn, and Holden was helping Julia drive away her rival in love. After hearing her words, Julia just patted Barbara on the shoulder calmly and seriously replied, “I have no choice. Your daughter is so popular.”

The girl’s words made Barbara so mad that she knocked on Julia’s forehead.

In Ventrusburg, Julia gradually settled down. Every day after she got up, she would send the two children to the kindergarten, and then go to the hospital to coordinate with the doctor to treat Zoey. After they returned to the Nelson family mansion, she looked through the medical book and the notes left by Mr. Ding, and searched all the useful information.

In the evening, Julia went to pick up the children from school and took them out for fun. In the evening, she injected and applied medicine to Shawn's arms.

Life was leisurely and fulfilling. Once, when Julia went to pick up the kids, she saw Evena standing at the door and “Well, you can go back first.” The teacher finally relented.

Hearing the order, Julia got up and left with the two children. As they walked out of the room, Evena, along with her children, was waiting for Julia. Both of Clara and Easton were afraid of Julia's reproach, because they knew that the teacher asked Julia come for a bad thing.

Julia bent down, wiped off the sweat from her forehead and smiled: “Clara, don't you want to be a heroine? How about I take you to a class to Sarahn kung fu? “

Hearing that she could Sarahn kung fu, Clara nodded immediately. “I want to Sarahn kung fu!”

Julia touched Easton's head again and said, “Easton, don't care too much about your teacher's words. You can do whatever you want and just don't hurt others.”

‘Julia Are you sure there is no problem with your education plan? By the side of them, Evena had been sweating all over. She had a feeling that Julia's two children would be quite different when they grew up.

“Let’s go home!” Julia held up the two kids and laughed.

“Yes.” Clara and Easton also squinted and smiled. Holding the child’s hand, Evena walked to Julia’s side and turned to look at her sunny side face. She couldn’t help but grin.

No matter how hard she tried, Julia’s face always blossomed like a sunflower in the sunlight. No matter when and how, Julia has lived so happily.

When they were in college, Julia was Evena’s idol. They had been talking about why Julia was able to do much more than them, even though they were in the same university.

They were only classmates at that time, mostly because of the arrogant and ambitious character of Julia and Evena was a house girl.

The kindergarten was a little far from the Nelson family’s mansion. Shawn arranged A special drivers to pick them up and take them back. They parted with Evena after a while as usual. After the separation from Evena, Julia took the two children’s hands and was about to ask the driver to drive here. Suddenly, a delicate female voice came from behind her. “Miss Able , can we talk?”

Chapter 304

Hearing the voice, Julia turned around. Julia felt it was funny that Claire, who was in a fashionable and sunglasses, stood behind her. What can she talk with Claire?

However, Julia nodded and asked with a faint smile, “well, what do you want to talk about?”

Claire looked at the two kids beside Julia, “let’s find a quiet place to talk.”

“I don’t think it’s necessary. Let’s have a talk here.” In the park, Julia casually sat on the stone chair.

Seeing that Julia didn’t act like a noble girl, Claire suddenly put on a cold face, stood straight in front of her and looked down on Julia arrogantly.

Julia smiled and looked up at Claire casually. One of them stood and the other sat, but they both looked domineering. Julia wanted to see what Claire wanted to say to her.

“Miss Able , do you know how long I have been living in the Nelson family mansion?” Claire inquired.

“Three months and nine days. Am I right?” Julia quickly replied with her curved eyebrows and a lovely smile.

Claire was stunned for a moment, and then she calmed down again. She glanced at Julia coldly. “If it weren’t for you, I would have engaged to Shawn!”

Julia shrugged and said helplessly, “I’m really sorry. It’s not the right time for me to come back. I have ruined your good marriage.”

Seeing that Julia was so clam, Claire was stunned. She didn’t expect that Julia would be such a person. Seeing that Claire was about to be speechless, Julia smiled and continued to comfort her: “there are so many men in the world. You are so beautiful. Do you really need to worry that you can’t find a man?”

“What You court death! I tell you, get your ass out of Ventrusburg, or I will make your life a living hell! ” Claire’s face was torn apart by Julia. She glared at her and said.

Julia pretended to be calm and said, “Okay, I’m listening. PSarahse go on.”

Claire clenched her fists and looked at Julia. With rolling her black and white eyes, Julia smiled and praised, “Miss Wu, you are so cute.”

“.....” Stunned for a moment, Claire didn’t get what Julia meant.

“If there’s nothing else, I’ll go first.” Julia stood up from the chair and said goodbye to Claire with a smile.

Claire stood there in a daze. She turned around and looked at the back of Julia. Claire was gritting her teeth. This strange woman!

“Mommy, that aunt is so fierce.” Clara made a comment.

Julia pinched her cheek and educated her, “don’t call her auntie. Call her sister.”

“Sister...” The words came out of Clara’s mouth slowly. Both of Julia and Easton were amused by her innocent look.

They got on the car happily. As soon as the door was opened, Julia was surprised to find that Shawn was sitting in the back seat. As soon as the two children saw their father coming to pick them up, they climbed into the car, and went into the arms of Shawn.

“Why are you here today?” Julia got on the car and locked the door do you miss the most? “

“I miss eldest brother so much!” Zoey ignored the unhappy face of Holden and said.

Just as Holden wanted to pinch her harder, Zoey cried out at once, “brother, you are hurting me.”

Hearing this, Holden let go of her immediately. But as he spotted the crafty smile on Zoey's face, his face darkened

Julia shook her head and thought that this girl was showing off now. She could foresee that Zoey would be taught a lesson by Holden in the future.

Clara and Easton crawled to Julia's thighs, looked up at Zoey and asked, "Mommy, who is she?"

Zoey also noticed the two children when she heard them talking. She was stunned for a few seconds. Then she looked at them excitedly and screamed, "baby, I'm your mommy!"

"Haha..." Julia was so scared by Zoey's bold words that she sputtered out directly.

"....." Shawn and Holden kept silent.

Zoey realized that she said something wrong and correct it in a hurry. "I'm your godmother."

"godmother? ?" Clara tilted her head and looked at Zoey curiously.

"....." Zoey started to sweat. Julia covered her mouth and couldn't help but pat her thigh and burst into laughter, which made Zoey look at her coldly.

Both of Shawn and Holden sighed in tacit agreement. It seemed that it would be hard for them not to have fun in the Nelson family mansion in the future

The two kids looked adults who were talking with each other curiously. Julia laughed for a long time and stopped laughing. She introduced to Zoey, "Clara and Easton are your godchildren. Miss Godmother." Julia said the name in a long voice.

Seeing two cute kids, Zoey didn't take Julia's words to heart. However, it was inconvenient for her to hug them.

"Clara, Easton, come here and touch mommy's face, okay?" Now that she couldn't hug them, why not let them touch her?

Clara and Easton exchanged looks. They had never heard someone asking for a favor like this.

Chapter 305

"Zoey, do you really think you an exhibition? Everyone passing you should touch you!" Julia looked at her with amusement. Even though Julia was complaining, Easton and Clara still came over to touch the delicate nose of Zoey. The moment their soft little faces came to her, Zoey really wanted to hold them in her arms and kiss them. They were so adorable

In case that Zoey suddenly reached out her hands and hurt her children, Julia pulled the two children back into her arms and gave Zoey a disdainful look. "Culin, help Zoey wipe the saliva."

Holden who was called was stunned. With a frown, he looked at Julia. She stuck out her tongue at him and said, "two meals are not necessary."

Holden pursed his lips and forced a smile. "I'd rather treat you ten big meals."

"Shawn, you like this name, don't you?" Julia elbowed at Shawn with her elbow. There was a mocking smile in her bright eyes.

"....." Blankly, Shawn remained silent. Julia glared at him. Threatened by Julia, Shawn looked at Holden sympathetically and nodded.

So With that, the name 'Culin' would be decided Which made Holden depressed for a while

After a while, Shawn with his other three family members were asked to have dinner by Barbara. Soon there were only Zoey and Holden in the room. Holden bent over to give her a massage, which was very helpful for the recovery of the vegetable.

In the five years when Zoey fell asleep, in order to prevent the muscle stiffening, Holden went to massage her every day.

However At that time, Zoey was unconscious. Now her mind was cSarahr. She could not help but blush and resist, “brother, let me go.”

The shy and angry expression on her face amused Holden. He came closer to her and whispered in her ear, “Zoey, it’s a must-have thing. I will feel upset if I don’t be there for one day.”

“.....” Zoey’s face turned red. She wanted to push him away. However, she was too weak to push him away. She could only watch him torturing her by kneading and pinching her body.

As she just woke up, this massage was much more important. Although Holden’s strength was not too heavy, Zoey still felt hurt. Zoey was born in a wealthy family. How could she bear any pain.

Looking at the girl’s painful expression, Holden’s heart ached. Zoey was afraid of both death and ghost. He really didn’t know how she felt when she stood in front of him and protected him from the several deadly bullets.

Holden pulled back the quilt, lied down in the bed, and held Zoey in his arms. He lowered his head to kiss her lip and said, “my silly girl, if such a thing happen again in the future. You are not allowed to get hurt again.”

“If I don’t get hurt, my second elder brother will get hurt.” Zoey said seriously.

“Then just let Brother get hurt first.” Holden pinched her red cheek. She had slept for five years and hadn’t changed much. She still looked like a high school student.

Zoey blinked her eyes and pouted her red lips. “I don’t wan aiting for Juliet to come to see her. She had asked Holden about Juliet’s whereabouts. Holden had told her that Juliet had just traveled out with her friend, and that she would come back soon. What a silly brother! How could he hide this from her

She was so pitiful now. She lost her father and mother. She was an orphan without whom she could rely on.

“Noah Does he know about it? ” Zoey asked tiredly as she closed her eyes. If Noah knew that she was not his daughter, she would be thrown out of the Nelson mansion. She could no longer be a princess of luxury.

Julia nodded: “He knew.”

Zoey smiled. “That’s good. I don’t feel good to have a secret hided. When I recover, he will kick me out of the Nelson family mansion Alas, then I will become homeless... “

Julia couldn’t help laughing and said: “with Culin here, who dares to drive you away. Even if Culin abandons the Nelson Group, he has a lot of property. He is able to feed you. “

At the mention of Holden, Zoey’s eyes became less gloomy. She whispered, “I don’t want to be with him. It was him who killed my father.”

Zoey knew about it? A little surprise flashed through Julia’s eyes, but then she smiled with relief and said, “Yeah, it’s all Holden’s fault. But he did this for you and Juliet. Mike rushed to Ventrusburg in order to threaten Juliet. When we first met Mike, he was in deep debt. Many of his injuries were left by his enemies. “

Zoey was stunned. She looked at Julia in disbelief, “then Why didn’t he tell me? “

Julia rolled her eyes at Zoey and answered firmly, “because he has a low Eq. he thought it was for your good, so he didn’t tell you anything.”

“Zoey, it’s not easy to meet a good man. You’d better get married as soon as possible.” Then, Julia patted on Zoey’s shoulder with sincerity.

“.....” Sweating, Zoey looked up at Julia indifferently and said, “every mother is a matchmaker.”

“Thanks for your compliment.” Julia took Zoey’s words as a praise and said thanks.

Chapter 306

After Julia left, Zoey, who was lying on the bed, stared at the ceiling and thought about her life. Although she didn’t want Holden to be close to her in the past few days, she would be more disgusted if someone else came to massage her.

The grudges between Juliet and Mike emerged in Zoey’s mind. Before this, she had thought that Mike might have died. But she never thought that Mike was killed by Holden.

Turning around, Zoey saw the sofa filled with the dolls that Holden bought for her, new and old. Looking at this, she could not help feeling her eyes dry.

Although Holden was hateful, he treated her with all his tenderness.

When she was lost in her thoughts, the doorknob suddenly turned. Zoey hid herself under the quilt, closed her eyes and pretended to sleep. The sound of her footsteps stopped abruptly by the bed.

Hearing Holden's sigh, Zoey felt a sudden heartache.

After putting the dishes on the table, Holden sat beside her bed and gently said, "Zoey, good girl, get up and have dinner first, okay?"

He had been kind to her in the past few days, and after Zoey knew that Mike was killed by Holden, she had never given him a good look. No matter what he did, she kept a long face.

Zoey felt a little guilty. She rubbed her eyes on purpose as if she just woke up. She sat up slowly and climbed into the arms of Holden. Feeling the intimate action of Zoey, Holden stiffened for a moment. He looked at the girl in his arms ambiguously.

"I'm hungry." Zoey also lowered her head and didn't look up at him.

"Yes." Holden slightly smiled. Zoey shot him an angry stare as she yelled like a queen, "serve me well pSarahse!"

"Okay." Holden lowered his head and kissed hard on her red lips. This time, Zoey didn't resist. She even kissed back.

The lingering kiss lasted for a long time. With their nose facing each other, Zoey didn't dare to open her eyes to look at him. But Holden saw all her expressions. Her eyes were red and her cheeks were still shallow. Did she cry?

"Why are you crying?" Holden kissed her eyelids, and whispered in her ear in a very soft voice, as if he was afraid of disturbing her.

“Julia told me what happened five years ago...” Zoey sobbed, “Mom passed away, I was still angry with her and said a lot of hurtful words at that time. “

Zoey’s sobbing made Holden’s heart ache. He put his arms around her and comforted, “good girl. Mom won’t blame you. Even if everyone Sarahves, I’ll be with you.”

“Will you accompany me all my life? Will you support me for the rest of my life? ” Zoey raised her head. Her eyes were filled with tears, like an innocent rabbit.

It was such a sight that Holden’s mind was in a mess and his throat was dry. He Sarahned forward and pinned her down on the bed. He stared at her with a smile and said, “yes, I will.” Followed by overwhelming kisses and uncontr e got more confident.

When he saw Julia’s joyful expression, Shawn also grinned a relaxed smile. It was not that important whether Shawn’s arm was good or not. But he knew that Julia cared about his arm very much and she would care about everything he didn’t care.

After the treatment, Clara and Easton had already fallen asleep on the big bed. Julia packed up the medicine box. Shawn held her in his arms and looked down at her. He pressed his face against her lips and said softly, “thanks for your hard work.”

Julia knew that what Shawn thanks was not her treatment for him, but the hardship she had experienced for five years. Julia stretched out her hand and rubbed his face, and then she said with a smile, “every time I was about to give up, I felt that you were still with me, and you kept telling me over and over again that I was not alone.”

“From now on, I won’t Sarahve you alone.” Holding her tight in his arms, Shawn promised her, “Little kitten, you’ll be my only wife for your whole life and next life.”

Julia’s face turned completely red. She shrank in the arms of Shawn, but she couldn’t help feeling sweet. It was very sweet. The air seemed to be mixed with sweetness, like sweetness, so greasy.

“Hey, you’re so overbearing. What if I don’t meet you next life? How could they be together? ” Said Julia on purpose.

Shawn chuckled, “if we didn’t meet, I would have gone for you until I found you.”

Julia was stunned for a few seconds and then came to herself from what she just heard from Shawn. Shawn seldom said sweet words to her. Because of this, his sweet words were so precious.

“Okay, I’ll wait for you.” Julia gently hugged his waist. Happiness in this life was not enough, so they would meet and love each other in the next life.

Julia hid her whole body into his arms. She sincerely hoped that she could still meet with Shawn if she had a next life the second day.

Zoey, who had been taught a lesson, was obviously more obedient and did not go against Holden. After she was able to move her hands and feet, she still liked Holden to serve her. Fortunately, Holden’s character was good.

Several days had passed. In order to accompany Zoey, Holden brought his work home as much as possible. He put the computer in Zoey’s bedroom. Zoey was holding a fluffy bear and looking sideways at his work.

Her second elder brother was always so handsome Zoey's eyes lit up with fondness. She knew that her elder brother and second brother were both outstanding, but she seldom really looked at Holden.

She didn't expect her anothomaniac illness to be so serious Zoey clicked her tongue in fake annoyance. She lifted the quilt and was ready to get off the bed.

"Watch out," As soon as she stepped on the ground, a gentle voice came from the top of her head. She was held up. Zoey shook off Holden's hand and tried to walk a few steps herself.

She hadn't walked for a long time, and there was something wrong with her legs. Of course, it was also because she exercised too much yesterday. Looking at the embarrassed look on Zoey's face, Holden slightly bit his lips.

Zoey glared at him. This guy didn't even think about whose fault it was

Holden couldn't bear it any more, so he took her to the sofa and sat down. He touched the tip of her nose with his finger and smiled dotingly, "you'd better start from scratch."

"I don't want to." Zoey wrapped her arms around his waist as her little body shrank into his arms. She got goosebumps at the thought that she had to crawl around like a two-year-old baby.

Holden picked up the comb and smoothed her messy hair for her.

"Let's have a child. Seeing Julia's children, I really want to have a child of my own." Zoey's voice sounded soft and gentle.

Holden was shocked by her words. He looked at her incredibly.

After a long while, he smiled and looked at her red face. "Okay, I'll do it."

Even though Zoey felt ashamed to face Holden, she still blushed when it came to this matter. This time, she didn't even dare to look up at him.

Holden kissed her head and held up Zoey's face. He looked at her eyes seriously and said, "Zoey, I love you."

Zoey had heard this from Holden before, but she never said it to him. In their relationship, Holden always took the initiative, while Zoey was always the passive one.

Being stared by Holden, Zoey's face turned red. She could not help but lowered her head, daring not to look at him. Then, Holden heard Zoey whispering hold ceremony together."

Turning his head, Shawn took a look at Julia. Seeing that she lowered her head to eat shyly, he smiled and said, "okay." He had been preparing for her wedding since five years ago, and he didn't want to delay it any longer.

"I hope it can last long." Julia said in a low voice.

Barbara frowned and asked unhappily, "why?" Though Julia and Shawn had a marriage certificate, Barbara still hoped that her daughter could wear the wedding dress as soon as possible and happily go together with the man she loved.

"I want to wait until Shawn's hand is completely recovered. Anyway, we are together now. I can wait." Said Julia softly.

She hoped that at the wedding, Shawn could hug her with his hands, and hold her face with his hands to kiss her. Compared with the wedding, she would rather to see a perfect Shawn.

Shawn took hold of Julia's hand gently. His eyes were so tender that Julia dared not look into his eyes. She lowered her head in silence and her face was red.

Zoey giggled. With a smug smile on her face, Julia glared at her. Zoey just kept eating and seldom had the chance to see such an expression on Julia's face. Her brother was really something.

Noah nodded and turned to ask Holden and Zoey, "Zoey, how about you?"

"I can wait Julia, it will save a lot of money." Zoey said smilingly.

Hearing that it was still a long time left to get married for their two sons, Noah and Barbara lowered their heads sadly. It was so difficult to hold a wedding ceremony in the Nelson family mansion. Barbara glimpsed at Zoey and Julia and commented, "sure enough, rich water cannot flow into an outsider's mouth."

"....." Julia and Zoey were silent, while Holden and Shawn grinned.

Chapter 308

Zoey felt much better now and regained her former bouncing ability. She began to pick up Clara and Easton with Julia, and often took them out to buy food.

Clara and Easton liked this "godmother" very much. Zoey loved them even more than her mother, Julia. As a result, Julia educated Zoey all day long. Her child would be spoiled.

Clara made another mistake in the kindergarten, so the teacher invited Julia to her office again. Zoey heard that Clara and Easton fought with others, so she wanted to speak for them and followed them.

In the office, Julia was very regretful to have brought Zoey over. The teacher said a word bad for both Clara and Easton, and Zoey could come up with ten words to refute it.

The teacher said, “Miss Able , how come your girl is more active than before?”

Zoey replied, “yes. So what? Children are so active, which is a nature of human nature. How can you judge them by their advantages? My kid is just a kid with a bright and lovely personality. “

The teacher said, “Miss Able , Clara hurt a classmate of our school this morning. Will you...”

Zoey replied, “that’s because that classmate bullied another classmate. Clara couldn’t bear it so she gently pushed him. Other children wouldn’t dare to go up! My daughter, Clara, is righteous. “

The teacher touched her forehead and continued, “Miss Able , your Easton...”

Before the teacher could finish her words, Zoey said, “my Easton is a good boy. How can you be a teacher and talk about the children’s strong points? It would have a bad impact on both of them. I’m telling you the truth. PSarahse stay away from my kids. “

The tone and tone of voice were so determined. All the teachers in the office looked at Zoey. The teacher was bathed in sweat with the tissue. Finally, she couldn’t help but ask, “excuse me Who is the mother of Clara and Easton? “

“.....” Julia was utterly speechless. She pulled Zoey back to the sofa and warned her: “don’t talk nonsense! Don’t ever expect me to show you around!”

Zoey curled her lips with dispSarahsure and rolled her eyes at Julia, but in the end she gave up.

Only then did Julia feel relieved. She turned around and seriously apologized to the teacher: "I'm sorry. She is not in her right mind."

After hearing that, Zoey was very angry. Then Julia said to her politely, "but I also hope that the teacher could be tolerant enough for them."

Someone knocked on the door. The teacher looked at her watch and let out a deep breath. "Miss Able, I forgot to tell you that the reason why I asked you to come here today is mainly because of the fight of Clara and Easton. The beaten kid's parents have arrived."

Julia and Zoey were taken aback. At the same time, they looked towards the door and saw a well-dressed woman and a boy with a bruise on his face coming in.

The woman brought the baby in front of her, pointed at Julia and cursed, "how did you ended her.

Mrs. Lee trembled. She looked at Zoey in disbelief. After a long time, she swallowed and quickly said, "teacher, I'm Sarahving now. PSarahse don't blame the children, and don't fire Galen. I'm Sarahving."

Then she made a bow to Zoey and hastily took her baby out of the office.

The teacher looked at Julia and Zoey in bewilderment. Julia also said, "teacher, since Mrs. Lee put it this way, I hope this is over."

The teacher was very happy to see this. She nodded and said, "well, that's it."

After saying goodbye to the teacher kindly, Julia held Zoey's hand and left.

It was not until Julia and Zoey completely disappeared from the corridor that someone in the office suddenly realized, "I remembered that girl. She was the daughter of Nelson family, Zoey, the girl who had an affair with her second elder brother five years ago.”

“Clara Shawn, Easton Nelson Is it... “

All the teachers gasped and looked at each other, not daring to speak.

The Nelson Group enjoyed a high position in Ventrusburg.

“You always show off with my identity.” Zoey snorted. Julia touched her head and smiled mildly, “that’s only your identity which is useful.”

“.....” Zoey wanted to beat her up.

At the end of the corridor, Julia and Zoey found Galen, who was sitting on the bench in a daze, with Clara and Easton standing beside him. Clara looked worried, while Easton looked impatient.

Seeing Julia and Zoey coming over, Galen didn’t even look up.

“What an arrogant child!” Zoey curled her lips and murmured.

Seeing Julia, Clara rushed to her and held her leg. She raised her head and said, “Galen is so poor. Mommy, pSarahse help him.”

“Well.” Julia nodded her head and walked towards Galen, holding Clara. She stood in front of Galen, bent down and said with a smile, “Galen, let older sister drive you home, okay?”

Older sister? ‘How dare Julia say that! His daughter is already five years old! How dare she!’ thought Zoey.

Chapter 309

Facing Julia's friendly question, Galen looked away as if he didn't want to talk to her. Her haughty manner was quite annoying. Zoey was a little cSarahr why the little fat boy came to find trouble with Galen.

"Brother Galen, come back with us." Clara echoed in a soft voice.

Galen still didn't say a word. When Julia was about to run out of patience, she heard Galen's cold voice, "I don't have a home."

No home? Julia looked at this boy in confusion, but suddenly thought of the current situation of the Leng family. His mother had run away, and his father had passed away. She had also heard that the Leng family was divided up. Everyone divided up the Leng family for their own interests. He You don't want to go home, do you?

"Come home with me." Julia stretched out her hand and gently touched his hair.

Hearing this, Galen finally raised his head and looked at Julia in disbelief. He knew that his family all looked at her with disgust and vigilance. They were afraid that he would hurt their interest. But what could he do as a ten-year-old child?

"There are a lot of yummy food and toys in my house. I mean it!" Clara looked at Galen seriously and firmly.

Galen still didn't say anything. He didn't agree or refuse. He just looked at Julia in silence. She was not in a hurry and kept looking at him with a bright smile.

Galen opened his mouth and wanted to say something, but before he could say anything, Clara grabbed his hand and pulled him up. "Let's go, let's go home together."

Facing the action of Clara, Galen did not refuse. He was pulled away silently. Julia and Zoey smiled at each other, and Zoey also followed them with Easton in her arms.

“Julia, you have another son!” Zoey joked.

“Yes, you are right.” Julia laughed bluntly. Her laugh reminded Zoey of something. Zoey squinted at Julia and asked, “do you want to raise Galen as your future son-in-law?”

Julia blinked her eyes and said, “of course. According to my years of experience, I’m sure that Galen will make a difference in the future.”

“.....” Zoey didn’t want to argue with her. How could she know because Galen was just a little boy? Zoey didn’t buy it. But she did not know that later, What Julia said really realized.

They drove back to the Nelson family mansion. Seeing that Clara came in holding a ten year old boy, Barbara and Noah were a little surprised. After Julia explained to them like this, they nodded repeatedly.

Barbara entertained Galen with great enthusiasm. Julia took out his clothes and handed it to him. She was about to help him take a shower, but unexpectedly, she was stared by a cold stare from Galen. She raised her hands reflexively, laughing and said, “you do it by yourself.”

And then, Galen picked up his clothes from Julia and walked into the bathroom directly But when she saw the blush of Galen, who was really cute and awkward.

In the hall, with a frown, Noah asked Julia, “Julia, do you really want to ado er mouth covered, Zoey picked up a pillow from the sofa with indignation and threw it directly to her face. The pillow hit right on Noah’s face.

“.....” Zoey was surprised. She quickly took hold of Holden’s hand and bowed to Noah. She laughed and said, “I’ll go back to my room to sleep first.” Then she strode away in a flash.

Noticing that Noah’s face was a little gloomy, Julia also wisely dragged Shawn away from the scene. Looking at their backs, Noah repeatedly shook his head, “the children have grown up. They really have grown up.”

“Yes, we are old.” Barbara also smiled and sighed.

When she went back to her bedroom, she saw Easton and Clara still accompanying Galen in the opposite room. When Shawn took a shower, Julia went over to see them, and saw the three of them sitting on the floor, playing with toy building.

Boys always liked playing with model toys, and of course, Galen was no exception. He and Easton got off the motorcycle and other toys and slowly put them back on. Julia looked at these two little guys in surprise.

There was no way that she could tear these toys apart and put them back to the new ones.

Clara giggled at them.

As soon as she heard Julia’s footstep, Clara jumped into her arms immediately. “Mommy, brother and brother Galen are so amazing!”

Julia nodded and sat beside Easton. She complimented them, “you two are really something!”

“My daddy can do that as well. He can assemble the pieces into new toys.” Easton said proudly, “Daddy is the best.”

Looking at proud Easton, Galen seemed to be very proud, and he lowered her head and said in a low voice, “my father never plays these with me.” His pitiful tone almost made Julia run to the bathroom to drag Shawn out to play with him.

What a poor child.

“If you like here, you can stay here. No one will bully you here.” After Julia said that, she thought it was a bit absolute, so she added, “except for the evil Clara.”

Chapter 310

Just as Holden said, the other members of the Leng family had no time to care about where Galen went. Clara, Easton and Galen had become good friends. Seeing them get along so well with each other, Julia could not help but feel happy for them.

Zoey returned to the school under the instructions of Holden. They didn't return to the Nelson family mansion until weekends. Julia heard that Zoey didn't live in the dormitory, but bought a house near the school.

Sometimes, Julia would take the three kids to the apartment to visit Zoey. But she had never wanted to see Zoey after going there a few times They would be their third wheel

At home, Julia was still a housewife: picking up a child, reading medical books and doing massage for Shawn.

A month passed in the blink of an eye.

The situation in the Leng family was getting better. Some elders were going to take Galen home. Though Julia was reluctant, she had to say goodbye to Galen since he were their children.

But Galen still often went back to the Nelson clan's mansion. It didn't have much impact on their relationship.

In the evening, as usual, Julia was injected. After finishing the injection, she was so tired that she lied down on the sofa. Shawn took her into his arms, bowed his head and kissed her lip. "Are you tired recently?"

After a yawn, Julia answered him: "I'm fine."

Today, the kids went out with Barbara and they also slept with her. They had such a pair of idle grandparents, so Julia didn't need to worry about Easton and Clara. What's more, Galen was sensible. She could ask him to help look after Clara and Easton.

"Kitten, you are getting lazier." Shawn rubbed her hair in a good mood, and gently moved up her thin cherry lips. Julia put her arms around his waist and said with a smile, "you've been diligent. It's easy to support me."

Looking at the girl in his arms who looked like a little girl, with deep love in his eyes, Shawn lowered his head, grabbed her lips and gave her a deep kiss.

Outside the window, the night was deep, and since it was almost fifteen, the bright moon was like a jade plate hanging high in the sky, crystal and without any dust.

The mid autumn of the next year came.

It reminded Julia of the mid-autumn five years ago. She was snuggling up to the rail with Shawn. Until now, she could still cSarahrly remember the sadness and hatred of Shawn at that night.

Would he still hate her now?

Julia raised her head slightly and looked at his cool and handsome face in the moonlight. She didn't expect that he was still awake. When their eyes met, Julia blushed and lowered her head quickly.

Looking at the fluffy hair top, Shawn suddenly wanted to know how she had lived in the past five years. He wanted to know if she had thought of him and whether she had planned to come back early.

Before he could ask, Julia asked first, "what have you been thinking about every night in the past five years?"

Her voice was low, which was very cSarahr in the quiet bedroom. Without hearing his answer, Julia me back home early in the morning. Seeing Julia walking down the stairs, she ran to her and hugged her tightly. "Julia, long time no see. I miss you so much!"

Then, Julia pulled down Zoey who was clinging to her and thought that this young lady was becoming less and less graceful.

"Brother, good morning," After she hugged Julia, Zoey greeted to Shawn with a sweet smile on her face. After taking a glance at her, Shawn turned around and walked towards the sofa. Zoey quickly followed him and hugged his arm. "Brother, call my second brother back. We are going out together."

Julia giggled and knew that she was hiding something. She glanced around the whole family but just didn't find Holden. She shook her head helplessly and thought, "Holden, you are such a poor man."

"Julia, it's time for breakfast." Barbara called her name in the dining room.

"Mommy, daddy and GodMom, come to have breakfast." Clara also followed Barbara and shouted at Julia.

The kids were shouting and screaming in the dining room. And Zoey, squatting in front of Shawn, pSarahded thousands of times. Unfortunately, Shawn kept a graceful posture, browsing the financial news.

Now that her pSarahding didn't work for Shawn, Zoey turned her target to Julia. Julia ran to the dining room right away and invited Zoey with a smile, "Zoey, come and have breakfast."

Zoey rolled her eyes at her. She sat at the dining table, drinking milk and eating bread.

"Oh, it's the Mid-Autumn Festival today." Barbara called out.

"What is the Mid-Autumn Festival?" Clara stood on the table, biting the spoon and looking at Barbara confusedly.

With Galen's eyebrows knitted, he scolded Clara and then ordered, "Clara, sit down."

Suddenly, Clara came to her senses and sat properly. Then she heard Galen's explanation, "the Mid-Autumn Festival is the day when all family members are reunited."

"Well, Galen, you are right. No matter where you go, your relatives will get together this day." Barbara said with a smile, touching Clara's cute head.
