

Blossoming Her Shielded Heart Chapter 91 – 100

Chapter 91

Julia curled her lips and ignored Barbara. She went on with her flowers. In the past, Julia called her mother to run the flower shop because she thought these beautiful and vivid life could make people in a good mood.

Rose was her favorite flower.

It was in the evening. Barbara excitedly took back a long dress from somewhere and asked Julia to put it on. Julia looked at that sexy low cut dress and wiped her cold sweat.

Mom, you want to put me on that man's bed directly, right?

"Mom, don't bother. I have a skirt." Julia refused straightforwardly.

The first time she attended Zoey's birthday party with Shawn, she was pushed into the water by Mona. Since then, Shawn had never let her wear such sexy clothes.

To be exact, she never wore it in front of others. If she was found to wear such clothes by Shawn, she would absolutely die without a burial place.

“No way. Are your evening dresses presentable? I want you to look gorgeous tonight. ” Barbara frowned and pushed the dress into Julia’s hand.

“No, thank you. My dresses are much more beautiful than these.” What Julia said was true. Although Shawn didn’t allow her to wear sexy and exposed clothes, those clothes were of good quality and style.

Barbara stared at Julia with suspicious eyes. Julia had to overturn the drawers and overturned the dresses packed for her by Shawn. After comparing with Julia’s dress, Barbara gave up the idea of asking Julia to wear that dress.

Julia was relieved.

To her surprise, Barbara stared at the luggage for a while and asked, “did he buy all these for you?”

When she heard the words, Julia was so shocked that she broke into a cold sweat.

Of course, Julia knew ‘he’ Barbara said was Shawn.

“I...” Julia didn’t know how to answer this question.

Barbara looked at her coldly. Julia couldn’t help but shrink her head, saying nothing.

“Give these things back to him after you go back this time. We don’t owe anything to the Nelson family.” Barbara said indifferently.

“Yes...” Julia replied.

“Dress yourself up.” Barbara glanced at Julia and said coldly. Then she turned around and left.

Sarahving Julia alone in the room.

The phone suddenly rang. Julia picked it up. When she saw the caller ID “CEO” on the screen, she felt all the cells in her body were active. She quickly calmed down and pressed the answer button.

“I am arrived home.” The voice of slightly tired Shawn came from the other side.

His hoarse voice made Julia’s heart ache. Hadn’t he taken a good rest yet?

“Yes. What are you doing? ” Asked Julia.

“In a meeting.” Said Shawn honestly.

“Have a good rest if you are tired. Don’t burn yourself out.” Julia warned her.

Shawn chuckled. After a long time, he said, “okay.”

Then he added, “I’ll have full energy when you come back.”

Hearing this, Julia’s face turned red and her little ears got hot. This guy wouldn’t feel comfortable if he didn’t act for a moment, would he?

“What Have a good to go around.

Steve took her to an amusement park in the center of the park. Julia looked at the park in confusion, wondering why he brought her here, although it had been renovated.

“Do you still remember the class activity in grade three of high school?” Asked Steve.

Julia was even more confused. She had attended so many class activities in grade three of high school. She didn't remember every time exactly.

Looking at Julia's confusing expression, Steve smiled helplessly. It turned out that only he had remembered this after so many years.

"When we were going to take the college entrance examination, we were so excited to go to the amusement park. I was lost then and because of that, I met young people who robbed me." He turned around and looked at the amusement park. The past was very important to him, but left no trace in her mind.

That was really pathetic.

Reminded by Steve, Julia suddenly felt the whole thing a little familiar. However, as time went by, she only remembered a rough idea.

"You found me later." Steve continued.

"Oh, I remember. I hit the guy on the head with a stone!" At that time, Julia finally got rid of her memory. She had Sarahned Taekwondo and fought against enemies.

Upon hearing this, Steve was stunned for a while. He thought it might be a trifle in her memory.

He would never forget that day when the girl stood before him heroically, picked up a stone at his feet, and threw it fiercely at the gangster. Before the gangster could react, she pulled him and ran wildly.

It was at night, but Julia accurately recognized the location of each street and used these geographical advantages to get rid of the hooligans. Getting rid of the gangsters, they sat in the street corner gasping for breath. In the end, they looked at each other and laughed happily.

Julia didn't know that it was at that time that Steve had taken a fancy to the girl with a bright smile on her face.

Chapter 92

"Why are you so stupid then? Why don't you just go back and find a teacher?" Thinking of what happened at that time, Julia smiled.

"Yes, you are more stupid than me. You dragged me here and ran. I don't have a chance to say what I want to say." Steve looked at Julia with a smile and said seriously.

Julia turned her head a little and found that Steve was more than half a head taller than her. She couldn't help comparing Steve with Shawn, who was a little more handsome and better looking.

But, if it hadn't occurred to her on purpose, she would never have the child, who was a little timid, linked with this steady man.

That's right. At that time, Julia thought that Steve was so childish and ignorant that he didn't know anything and was willing to sacrifice everything from her.

"All right, all right. It's my fault. I should have thrown you to those gangsters. It's just a small loss of money. Why do I run so fast and get tired?" Said Julia with a big smile on her face.

"What do you mean by 'a small loss'?" Steve rolled his eyes at her.

Julia giggled and sat casually on a stone chair of the park. Seeing this, Steve also sat beside her.

"Julia, marry me." Steve turned to Julia and said with a smile. His tone sounded half joking and half serious.

Julia was stunned for a while, and then turned her head to look at Steve. She couldn't see his expression cSarahrly in the dim light, so it was difficult for her to guess his real thought.

"Forget it. I won't marry you. Neither will I be with you," "As for my mother, I will explain to her. Don't worry," said Julia

"Is it because of Master Li?" Steve suddenly asked.

Hearing this, Julia trembled with fear. Why did Steve know about the existence of Shawn?

"Why did you mention him?" Julia calmed down, asked calmly.

"I was at the Sunny hall that day. I couldn't refuse brother's return banquet." Steve smiled, "I recognized you at that time. I saw you Sarahve with Master Li."

In the Sunny hall.

At that time, Julia didn't notice the existence of Steve. so he was there as well.

"I just don't understand, if you are with Master Li, why did aunt Barbara ask you to have a blind date?" Steve asked again.

"Mom doesn't want me to be with Shawn for some reason." Julia smiled bitterly. The reason was too complicated for her to explain cSarahrly.

"What are you going to do?" After a pause, Steve continued, "or in other words, do I still have a chance?"

Julia shook her head and said firmly, "Steve, I have no feelings for you. I won't be with you even if I have to break up with Shawn."

Steve's face darkened.

Julia patted him on the shoulder like a good friend, smiled and said, "I don't think I deserve you. Look at you, you are so handsome. I don't believe that you really can't find a girlfriend."

Steve fell into silence.

"If there is nothing else, I will go home first." Julia was about to stand up. Anyway, she had met Jus others happily made the decision to go to the hot spring tomorrow. Before they left, Jasmine held Julia's hand and smiled at her kindly. She whispered to her ear, "don't be so polite to Steve. I know he loves you for a long time."

Julia was a little stunned.

Jasmine took a meaningful look at Julia, let go of her hand and walked out of the "Luo's Flower Shop" with Steve.

Before they left, Steve gave an apologetic smile to Julia, who showed indifference and shook her head because her mother was not much better than his mother

After Steve and Jasmine left, Barbara started to pack her bags right away. She turned to Julia and asked, "do you have any bathrobe, Julia? Let's go and buy one. "

"I don't think so." Julia felt deeply embarrassed.

"Why not? Steve is such a good man. You must win his heart!" Barbara stood akimbo and looked at Julia with a scowling face.

Julia rubbed her aching forehead and sighed. She went back to her bedroom slowly, ignoring Barbara.

Julia had no interest in the hot spring in C City at all.

She lay on the bed, holding the quilt and closed her eyes slightly. The quilt seemed to still have a faint smell of rose. She did not know whether it came from the shop, or it was left by him.

Last night, they Julia couldn't help recalling some scenes of last night. Her beautiful face turned red again. She buried her head in the quilt and soon fell asleep.

After Julia fell asleep, the bedroom door was pushed open and Barbara came in. She didn't turn on the light and walked directly to the bedside. Looking at Julia who was still frowning in her sleep, she couldn't help but sigh.

Barbara knew that Julia had a deep crush on Shawn and the expression on her face when she was the Zona Residences was evident. It was just.. Kid, do you know how scared I am when I face Noah?

"I know I am too self willed and always force you to do something you don't like. PSarahse obey me this time, okay?" Barbara bent over and murmured.

Chapter 93

After standing beside Julia's bed for a while, Barbara finally bent down and covered her with a quilt, turned around and left.

At the moment when the door was closed, Julia suddenly opened her eyes and stared at the ceiling. Her body was so stiff that she couldn't move.

Mom, why don't you allow me to be wayward this time? Why do I have to follow the route you make? Why do you always impose the old grudges on us?

Julia's nose twitched. She wanted to fight back although she never did it before.

But that was her mother. She had worked hard for her for more than ten years. How could she resist her mother?

It was a sleepless night.

Before dawn, Julia got out of bed and sneaked out of the "Luo's Flower Shop". She followed the path that Shawn once carried her and came to the grass beside the railway. She lay down and looked up at the dark sky.

The sky before dawn was the most dark, pure black, just like Someone's eyes. Julia was in a trance. She couldn't help thinking of Shawn.

Shawn, dawn and hell. One was hope, and the other was despair. Did he bring her hope or despair?

She didn't know how long she had been lying there, until a ray of light slowly appeared from the end of the sky. Soon, the entire sky was painted with light white, and then orange

The train whizzed past her, and small towns began to liven up.

"Julia, why are you here?" Suddenly, a man's voice came over her head.

Julia was startled by the voice and turned to the source.

It was Steve who was jogging in sports suit.

"Nothing. I just want to take a walk." Julia's face twitched. She wanted to laugh, but the muscle in her face was not fully recovered.

Steve stopped and sat down beside Julia. He said apologetically, "I'm really sorry. My mother is that kind of person. Please don't take it to heart."

"It doesn't matter whether you take it to heart or not. They are the elders, and we have to listen to them." Julia raised her lips and said coldly.

"Julia." Steve frowned. It was rare for him to see such an expression on Julia's face. In his memory, she always had a bright smile on her face no matter what happened.

However She was a little different today.

"If I don't want to go to C City today, I will talk to mom," Asked Steve.

Julia was amused by his words. She turned to look at him and asked, "do you think your mother will listen to you?"

Seeing that Steve was silent, Julia smiled and said, "Steve, we are the same sort of people. For us, our mother means a lot more to us."

Steve stared at her without saying anything.

Julia, you're wrong. It's not that mom doesn't listen to me. It's just that I really want to go to the hot spring trip with you because I want to be closer to you.

Steve shook his head gently. Love was selfish. Even though he knew that she had someone she loved

Justin held her arm and said with a frown, "don't force yourself."

Seeing that Steve insisted, Julia felt embarrassed to refuse him again. She endured the discomfort and obediently let him support her.

It was a scenic spot, so it was difficult to find a hospital here. After turning a round with the help of Steve, they didn't find the hospital. He took her to a town nearby and then found the local hospital.

After a series of things, it was getting dark. Julia sat on a bench in the hospital and watched Steve running up and down for her. She felt a little guilty.

What depressed Julia was that Barbara didn't even call to comfort her.

Julia Sarahned on the bench and slightly closed her eyes. Her whole body was so weak and aching that she didn't want to move at all. Now she really wanted to go back to the big soft bed and have a good sleep.

"Are you feeling better?" She heard Steve's voice indistinctly.

"Yes." Julia raised her head reluctantly, looked at the man and said coldly.

Sitting beside her, Steve reached out his hand to feel her forehead again. Frowning, he said seriously, "your fever is not completely gone. I'll ask the doctor for another infusion bottle."

Saying that, he wanted to Sarahve, but Julia hastily stopped him, "no, I want to go back."

Steve stopped and turned to look at her.

Ignoring Steve's stare, Julia looked up at him speechlessly and said, "the medicine's not that effective? Don't worry. It will recover soon. "

Stunned for a moment, Steve lifted the corners of his mouth silently, crouched down, looked at Julia and smiled, "Hey, you are the patient, right? Don't act as if you don't care about me at all, which makes me almost think that I am a patient."

Julia shrugged and smiled: "I have no choice. I'm very calm."

“Fine, fine, superhero.” Steve patted her head with a smile.

Julia giggled and didn’t contradict him.

Chapter 94

After the injection and taking the medicine, Julia was not as uncomfortable as she was when she was in the hospital, and she didn’t need the help of Steve.

“Thank you so much for what you have done today.” Julia smiled at Steve sincerely.

Taking a look at her, Steve pretended to be angry and said, “I don’t want to hear ‘thank you’ from you.”

Julia was stunned. It seemed that Shawn didn’t like her saying thanks to him a long time ago. She asked in confusion: “why?”

“I feel like saying ‘thank you’ to distanced myself from her.” Steve said seriously.

Hearing this, Julia stopped.

Was it because Was that the reason why Shawn didn’t want her to say thank you?

“What’s wrong?” Steve looked at Julia who was stand there without move.

Julia shook her head and followed him. No matter what was on Shawn’s mind at that time, she was really happy.

Steve looked at her strangely, but didn’t ask anything.

When they arrived at the hotel they had booked, they still hadn't seen Barbara and Steve's parents back. Steve led Julia into a room. She thanked Steve again and threw herself on the bed with satisfaction after closing the door.

She fell asleep holding the quilt.

She had a good sleep. When she woke up, she found it was noisy outside the window. The red lights lit up every corner of the town. Julia rubbed her eyes and looked down outside the window with heavy steps.

The crowd moved up the mountain carrying their luggage.

There were many hot spring on the mountain, and everyone liked to take a bath there at night.

Without the desire to take a shower in the hot spring, Julia, of course, didn't bring her bathrobe with her. She looked at her jade bracelet and exquisite hand beads. There was a complicated expression on her face. She sighed, but was still reluctant to take them off. Julia returned to the bedside and habitually took out her mobile phone.

The N missed call covered her phone screen.

Some of them were from Evena. Some were from Steve, and some were from her mother. Julia put down her phone and was about to lie down for a while, there was a knock at the door.

"Julia, are you awake?"

Barbara's voice resounded from the other end of the line.

"I am awake!" Julia quickly responded and ran to open the door.

"Do you still have a fever?" Barbara came in and stretched out her hand to touch Julia's head.

“It’s okay.” Julia said with a smile. Though she had a good rest, her voice was still a little hoarse. She turned from a fever to a cold.

Barbara frowned and poked her forehead. She complained helplessly, “why didn’t you tell me when you felt uncomfortable? If it weren’t for Steve, I wouldn’t even know you were ill.”

Julia smiled and said: “it’s nothing serious. I don’t want you to worry about me.”

Barbara rolled her eyes at Julia and Julia immediately shut up.

head with guilt.

If she was telling the truth, Noah and Shawn would be gotten involved in. All the things in Nelson family were forbidden to her mother, and she dared not mention them in front of her mother.

Everyone enjoyed the meal. Julia looked like a lady in front of them. Jasmine picked up food for her frequently and said, “Eat more food, and you look so thin. Do you usually eat few food just for losing weight?”

Julia lowered her head and kept having her meal like a lady.

After dinner, Barbara and other three people packed their luggage and were about to go up the mountain and enjoy a hot spring. Julia wanted to stay in the hotel and have a rest, but Barbara refused, saying hot spring could help her get rid of the cold.

Upon hearing her mother’s words, Julia was even more embarrassed, but she still couldn’t persuade her mother. So, she also went to pack up her luggage in silence.

There were only two big rooms in the hotel, one for Barbara and Julia and one for Steve and his family. Julia took a look at Barbara who was bending to pack her luggage. She was about to sneak out of the room when Barbara grabbed her collar and pulled her back.

“You want to escape?” Barbara looked down at her.

Julia immediately raised her hand and rubbed her forehead, and while lowering her head, she cried in pain, “ouch, my head hurts so much. I have to lie in bed for a while.”

Then she pushed Barbara away and went back to bed in dejection. After tucking himself in, she closed her eyes quietly.

After a long while, Julia heard her mother’s sigh from the bedroom.

“Julia, are you still hiding a lot of things from me?” Barbara sighed and asked in a low voice.

Julia was shocked, but she still said nothing.

“Since when? We are getting farther and farther. ” Asked Barbara.

Julia was a little stunned as she didn’t know since when she had a bigger distance with Barbara and was more capable of lying.

Chapter 95

It reminded Julia of the first time she had lied to her mother in a junior year. Her mother had asked her to go on a blind date with a so-called friend. After coming back, she was fed up with Barbara’s questions. Then Julia prevaricated.

She just met some of her blind dates and then left. She even managed to lie to Barbara.

Gradually, she became numb. She felt that it was a normal thing to lie to Barbara, especially when it came to blind dates. She could tell a beautiful lie to Barbara without hesitation.

Julia hated liars, but she didn't expect that she would become the person she once hated most.

They didn't say anything. After a long time, Barbara pulled Julia out from the bed. Julia was speechless. She took a depressed look at Barbara, and Barbara gave Julia a more determined look. Then, Julia squatted down and started to pack her things.

When Julia was packing her luggage, her phone rang in her pocket. She took it out and was shocked again.

It was a call from Shawn.

Julia glanced at Barbara, who happened to be looking at her. She laughed and said, "I'm going to the bathroom." Then she walked to the bathroom and pressed the answer button.

"Hello." Julia lowered her voice.

"Where are you?" Shawn's low voice came from the phone.

Hearing his voice, Julia was stunned and then she felt the long lost feeling.

"In the hot spring town of C City." Julia replied honestly.

After saying that, she was stunned. It seemed that she had nothing to hide from Shawn.

“Send me the address.” Added Shawn.

“Are you coming here?” Julia asked in disbelief.

“Yes.” Shawn replied faintly.

“No No. I am with my mom. ” Julia said in a panic. She turned around and looked at the bedroom. Barbara was still packing her luggage. She was getting more and more anxious.

There was a moment of silence on the other side, which made Julia think that Shawn had already hung up.

“Kitten.” “I will be careful.” came the voice of Shawn

Julia looked at herself in the mirror blankly. She couldn't believe what Shawn just said. Shawn was arrogant. Julia seldom saw him compromise. He would compromise for her.

It was inevitable that she felt sad, but there was also a hint of irresistible sweetness flashed through her heart. She held the phone in her hand and said sulkily, “well.”

Julia lowered her head and happened to see the jade bracelet on her wrist. She thought of Jean, which Jasmine mentioned before. After hesitating for a while, she couldn't help but ask, “is your mother named Jean?”

As soon as she said that, there was a long silence on the other side. While waiting for his answer, Julia was nervous. She was afraid that she asked the wrong question.

After a long while, Shawn replied, “yes.”

Standing in front of the mirror, Julia was completely shocked. She thought that Jasmine made a mistake and was dubious of what Jasmine said. But it was really a coincidence th d you get this jade bracelet?" Jasmine asked directly.

Julia touched the jade bracelet on her wrist, lowered her head and slowly said: "an old lady gave it to me. Now, she is in the people's Hospital of Ventrusburg."

Julia didn't lie about this.

"You said that her daughter died 20 years ago. What happened?" Jasmine asked.

Julia shook her head and said: "I don't know much about these things."

"This jade bracelet can only be passed on to our daughter or daughter-in-law. Who is that old lady for you? I don't remember Jean has a sister. "

Hearing this, Julia lowered her head again and didn't know what to say.

After a long pause, she looked up at Jasmine and took a deep breath. "Aunt Jasmine, please don't tell my mother what I told you today."

After a short pause, Jasmine nodded in agreement.

"As you see, I'm the granddaughter-in-law of that old man." Julia clenched her fists, forcing herself to look at Jasmine calmly. She didn't dare to miss every expression on her face.

Jasmine's face froze and looked at Julia in disbelief.

“But I’m strongly against it. So I have been afraid to tell her. Jasmine, I’m so sorry. I can’t be with Steve at all. I am sorry that you and my mother worry about me so much. ” Julia stood up and made a deep bow to Jasmine.

Julia bet that Jasmine would help her hide this thing from her mom, which could make Jasmine give up the idea of being her daughter-in-law. If Jasmine told Barbara the truth, she would deny it.

It took her a while to collect herself. She looked at Julia and asked, “the man you love is the CEO of the Li group, Shawn?”

“Yes.” Julia said: “I am really sorry.”

Jasmine touched her forehead and shook her head. “I’m fine. Don’t worry about me.”

“When are you going to tell your mother?” Jasmine asked.

Julia shook her head and sat back next to Jasmine. She smiled helplessly and said, “I don’t know.”

After that, there was a long silence.

Chapter 96

After a long while, Julia turned to look at Jasmine and asked, “can you tell me something about Aunt Jean?”

Jasmine raised her head and looked at the flying bamboo Sarahves. She said slowly, “Jean and I were classmates in priBarbara school. At that time, the Simon Family was not as rich as it is now. We lived an ordinary life till high school. The ordinary life was completely destroyed by a man, who you should not be unfamiliar with. He is Shawn’s father, Noah. “

“Later on, the story was just like the soap opera. The Cinderella and the prince fell in love with each other. At that time, the Nelson family was very powerful and was in the process of development. It was impossible for the Li family to let their only son marry a girl who was not helpful for the Nelson family.”

“They fled with the help of their friends and Jean’s mother,”

“Then I saw them. They lived under the same mountain and had a happy life. Although they were not rich or powerful, they were at ease. At that time, their family happened to have a new member, and it was a little boy. “

“Later, I heard that Noah was found back by the Nelson family and married with another noble daughter. Since then, I haven’t heard anything about Jean and her son. But I don’t know why Shawn was sent back to Nelson family. “

Jasmine heaved a sigh and added, “I didn’t expect that it has been more than twenty years since then.”

Julia quietly listened to each other without saying anything. When she was at Nelson’s house, she had heard from Noah that he only loved two women in his life. One was her mother, and the other was Shawn’s mother.

Julia had seen the photo of Shawn’s mother in Shawn’s villa. She was a beautiful and quiet woman, who was more graceful and noble than ordinary noble children, although she had never been in a wealthy family.

“Julia, I have been living in the small town all these years, and I didn’t know the matters in Ventrusburg. Is everything okay with Shawn and others? ”
Then, she turned around and looked at Julia.

Julia nodded and smiled: “it’s good.”

“Why doesn’t your mother agree to let you stay with Shawn? I didn’t pay special attention to it, but sometimes we can see the glorious achievements of Shawn in the magazine. He was an outstanding child, the same as his mother.

” Jasmine smiled, lost in her memories.

“Aunt Jasmine, when you go back, don’t mention Shawn and his family in front of mom. Mom is a little afraid of them.” Julia smiled instead of replying.

Jasmine nodded her head after thinking for a while.

“Well, it seems that my son Steve has no chance to win compared with Shawn. Haha! ” Jasmine smiled.

Julia turned her head, looked at Jasmine and asked, “Aunt Jean has been excellent since she was a child?”

Jasmine nodded and smiled, “although we have been friends since childhood, I used to be jealous of her. I have never won her before. She is always the first in her class, in the town, in the city.

le coming back. Julia sat up sleepily and saw four people coming in, talking and laughing. They seemed to have a good time tonight.

With a sigh of relief, Julia felt guilty that if she was willful, she might hurt them. It was obvious that Barbara took her here to close her relationship with Steve.

“Julia have you taken any medicine?” Noticing that Julia was awake, Barbara bent over to feel her forehead.

“Yes, I have.” Julia said honestly.

“Don’t think too much. Have a good sleep and we’ll go home tomorrow.” Instead of blaming her, Barbara smiled and said.

Julia was shocked. She thought that Barbara would teach her a good lesson and that her mother had changed?

When she raised her head, she found that Barbara was smiling coldly at her. Julia got goose bumps. It turned out that her mother was just not angry obviously.

“Julia, come and have some fruits,” Jasmine had set up a small table in the room with some cookies and fruits on it.

When she saw the food, Julia got out of bed immediately, walked towards the table and sat down. Her stomach had become empty. Seeing that Jasmine and other elders didn't do anything to her, Julia sat still and didn't dare to do anything.

Seeing her daughter's look, Barbara sighed and sat down in front of the table.

The five people sat at the small table, talking and laughing.

Julia got a little surprised and glanced at Jasmine carefully. She thought that after she told Jasmine everything, Jasmine would ignore her because Julia would not be her daughter-in-law and Jasmine would not be nice to her.

“What are you thinking about? Say thanks to Aunt Jasmine,” Barbara patted Julia's head gently.

Julia felt pain and covered her head with her hand. She grinned at Jasmine and said sweetly, “thank you, Aunt Jasmine.”

Jasmine stared at Julia and sighed, “Alas, what a pity.”

Seeing this, Julia could only keep smiling.

Chapter 97

After the meal, they were all exhausted after a long day's journey.

The five people lay side by side on the carpet, and the room soon quieted down. Julia turned her head to look at Barbara, who had already closed her eyes and was sleeping. She looked at the time, and it seemed that Shawn was coming.

Julia turned her head and looked out of the window with her eyes wide open. Her expectation and joy were becoming more and more obvious.

While waiting anxiously, Julia finally saw that the phone screen lit up. She checked the phone and found that it was a message from Shawn.

“Here I am.”

He arrived.

Julia stared at the name on the screen and smiled.

She looked at Barbara carefully. After a long day's journey, everyone seemed to have fallen asleep. Julia cautiously lifted the quilt and left with the phone.

When she just walked out of the hotel, she saw a man sitting quietly in front of the stone table. His dark eyes were fixed on Julia who was walking out of the hotel.

Julia stopped, with her heart beating fast. She stared blankly at the man as if she was stunned by the lighting.

“How did you find this place?” Julia walked towards him with a smile. try calming down.

Shawn stood up slowly. Seeing her in a white dress, he stretched out his arms and held her in his arms.

Julia was stunned and pushed him away in a panic. She wanted to keep a certain distance from him. Although she knew that her mom and others had fallen asleep, she still didn't dare to stay so close to Shawn and have intimate contact with him.

She was frightened and had a bad mood.

Without saying anything, Shawn just took her hand and left.

The hotel behind her was getting smaller and smaller, and Julia looked back at it. Her anxiety was slowly relieved. She turned around and asked the man in front of her: "where are we going?"

"Walk around." Shawn replied nonchalantly, and pulled her closer to himself.

Julia didn't expect that he would suddenly push her, so she stumbled and held his arm in panic.

She lowered her head and blushed.

Even the autumn wind was warm this night.

The hot spring resort was very large. There were many remains which hadn't been developed. They walked for a long time. Looking at the front in black, Julia didn't show any panic. It seemed that he was there and there was nothing to be afraid of.

They walked into a forest, and there was a pool of hot spring inside the wide forest. The golden moonlight sprinkled on the hot spring that was as light as a mirror, reflecting the bright and cSarahn light. With a breeze, the calm mirror was shattered into gold on the ground.

"Wow, there are hot springs here!" Julia looked at the hot spring and was amazed.

It was obviously a place that had not been developed. The quiet and original scenery reminded Julia of an ancient style known as little stone pool. The beauty of the little stone pool was pure and beautiful.

Looking at her pretty face, Shawn slightly twitched his mouth

rom me.”

It suddenly occurred to Julia that she had already been under his control since she and Shawn had registered their marriage certificate even if there was not a proposal. Only then did Julia feel regretful. Why did she get the marriage certificate so early!

Well, now she couldn't even enjoy the best moment of a woman's life.

Thinking of this, Julia was very depressed.

The night temperature in autumn was low, and in the forest, the temperature was naturally low, and the air was frozen.

As Shawn took off his coat and covered her, he held her even tighter, bowed his head and kissed her on the top of her head, and asked softly, “have you taken the medicine and eaten properly?”

In his arms, Julia didn't feel cold at all. She tamely nodded her head and said, “Yes.”

Julia wrapped her arms around his waist and found that he was cold. She looked up at him and frowned. “I'm not cold. Put your coat on quickly, or you'll catch a cold.”

“Kitten, are you worried about me?” The coat was completely wrapped on her body, and there was a few teases in Shawn;s tone.

Julia stared at him with anger, but the worry on her face was obvious and noticeable. In a good mood, Shawn reached out his hands and gently pinched her pink cheek. Her usual stern face had been mixed with the gentle moonlight.

He was really attractive. Julia panicked lowered her head and closed her eyes. She didn't think about her mother and the future at all. At this moment, she was very happy.

If only time could stop at this moment. There was no past, no future, only now.

They could only secretly enjoy the time behind her mother? Do they really have no future? Julia bit her lips and controlled herself not to think about these things. Now she just wanted to cherish this moment and every second with him.

every second now was the most beautiful moment in her life. Although the time were stolen by them, perhaps long time later, she would have to pay back with longer desolate loneliness

Chapter 98

Julia slept well. She didn't wake up until dawn.

"Well..." With her hands on Shawn's chest, she raised her head from his arms.

Julia was stunned when she saw the man's warm smile. When she was in a daze, the man bent down and grabbed her lips, and Julia kissed him back in a daze.

After a long time, Shawn let go of her. Julia was still in a daze. She dimly rubbed her eyes before she could see cSarahrly what Shawn looked like.

“Hello, Boss!” Julia blurted out reflexively. It was not until then that she realized her relationship with Shawn had been severed from boss and subordinate.

With a smile, Shawn lowered his head and kissed her on the lips. “Good morning.”

“That’s too bad. My mom and other people will look for me!” Julia was scared as she thought of the night when she didn’t return and almost falled on the ground. Luckily, Shawn was strong enough to hold her, who was jumping up and down.

When she thought that her mother and other men would come to this place and see her with Shawn, Julia was heartbroken. She wanted to struggle, but in vain.

“Let go of me! They’ll come!” Julia cried and looked at Shawn in panic.

“Sweetie, don’t be afraid. I let them go back first. ” When he saw Julia’s frightened face, he suddenly felt a slight pain in his heart and comforted her while patting her back gently.

Julia was a little stunned and looked at him blankly. Then, Shawn handed her phone to her, and she looked through it.

His mother called her in the morning, but he refused to answer.

At the same time, Shawn sent a message.

“I’m back to Ventrusburg.”

Then nothing else appeared. Julia guessed that it might be because Shawn had turned off her phone.

“What How can you do that? How about my luggage? ” Julia was stunned for a while and then raised her head to question him.

“Kitten, are you doubting my ability?” Shawn frowned and touched her cheek with his big hand.

Julia was stunned. Although sometimes the way Shawn used was a little extreme and inhuman, it was undoubtedly the simplest and the best way. There was nothing he couldn't do.

“What about Mommy? What should we do? ” Julia looked down and whispered confusedly.

Shawn's identity could not be changed. No matter how capable Shawn was, her mother would not admit Shawn as her boyfriend.

“Give me some time. It's almost done.” Said Shawn in a soft voice, after kissing her somewhat pitifully.

Although his voice was very gentle and tender, his words made Julia feel at ease. She trusted him, and now the only person she could trust was him.

“Yes.” Julia lay obediently in his arms and closed her eyes. She didn't want to think about her guilty conscience to her mother.

When it came to sense, she should believe her mother and do what her mother thought. Her mother asked her to stay away from Shawn. She should do it as she wished. Because that was her mother. Mother always thought for her children.

ged the topic.

“You want to stay?” Asked Shawn.

“Not really. But it’s so rare for me to come here. I can have fun.” Julia smiled awkwardly again and touched her head.

Shawn nodded and raised his hand to smooth her hair. He smiled, “okay.”

Shocked by the good-looking smile of Shawn, Julia quickly lowered her head and pretended to rush out like a rabbit with rapid heartbeat.

In fact, Julia didn’t pay much attention to the resort before. Now it seemed really beautiful, natural and beautiful. Although most of places on the mountain was renovated artificially, the nature was still almost preserved.

Julia was still a little worried that Barbara did not Sarahve. She sneaked back to that private hotel and asked the owner: “good evening, sir. Have the guests of room 101 checked out?”

The hotel owner checked in the check-in records and replied, “They checked out this morning.”

Hearing that they had checked out, Julia was relieved.

“But I heard that the daughter of a guest left without saying goodbye. Her mother was so angry that she cursed while walking away. Alas, such a unfilial daughter.” The owner said again.

Julia was stunned, and her heart sank a little bit.

Last night, when she came out, the boss was not at home. The boss did not know that she was the daughter of the guest, but even so, Julia was frightened to Sarahve in a hurry.

Either because of her bad mood or because of the strong wind on the mountain, Julia felt her head heavy and weak. She couldn’t walk long ago without the support of Shawn.

Shawn reached out a hand to touch her forehead. His good-looking brow was wrinkled slightly. This girl had a fever.

He then carried Julia on his back and slowly walked downstairs.

Lying on Shawn's back, Julia closed her eyes and slept without thinking. Even when he was walking down a steep mountain road, the pace of Shawn was still steady, as if the road had automatically been laid flat in front of him.

Chapter 99

After they went down the mountain, Julia was taken to the hospital last night by Shawn.

The injection had just been put last night, so Julia felt sick when she saw the infusion bottle. She grabbed the arm of Shawn and looked at him pitifully, unwilling to take the injection no matter what.

In the end, Shawn had no choice but to ask the doctor to give her some antipyretics.

“Look. It's that woman again. Last night, it was another man who took her here. Is she that kind of woman? “

“She is so lucky. This man is more handsome than that one.”

“He's so handsome!”

“Shh, be quiet.”

Groups of nurses passed by Julia and talked about her.

Julia's heart trembled and she lowered her head with a guilty conscience. But even so, she could still feel the strong pressure and terrible anger from the man next to her.

Judging from Shawn's stingy personality, she was in danger.

"Who brought you here last night?" Shawn asked coldly.

"I feel dizzy..." Julia lowered her head and whispered, pretending to be very weak.

"Julia." Shawn stared at her and called out her name word by word. Every word of her was like an awl hitting her chest, and she felt a dull pain in her chest.

A thin whimper came from her chest. She looked up at him and complained aggrievedly, "I'm sick, but you scold me! Where were you when I was sick yesterday?"

Hearing this, Shawn was a little shocked. Looking at her red eyes, he felt more pity and pitiful. Shawn moved his hands and gently held Julia in his arms. He said in a low voice, "it's all my fault, my sweetheart. Don't cry."

"Okay." Julia replied in a low voice and wiped her tears on Shawn's clothes.

"Silly girl." Said Shawn, touching her hair lovingly.

Julia forgot that they were still in the hospital and hugged him. How could he know how much she wanted to be with him last night? How could he know that she was dependent and afraid.

"Cough Sir, the medicine is ready. " It was not until an old doctor's voice came that Julia blushed and pushed away Shawn. With her head down, she held her fingers and was so shy that she wanted to hide herself in a hole.

Shawn took over the medicine with composure, and took the rabbit with its head down away.

After they got back to the car, Shawn held Julia in his arms. After taking the medicine, Julia was still dizzy and sleepy. She found a place and fell asleep defenselessly.

Looking down at the woman who was sleeping soundly in his arms, the tenderness in Shawn's dark eyes was getting deeper. His long and slender fingers were lovingly wrapped around the soft hair of Julia. For the first time, he found that the woman also adorable.

It's so cold. Where is the fire?

Julia walked alone in the cold and snowy world, looking for the fire. Suddenly, there was a flash of light in the distance. Bearing the piercing coldness, Julia walked towards the light step by step. Then she saw a flame.

As she got closer, the fire warmed h

, her palms sweating, and her voice trembled out of fear.

"I guessed. But judging from your tone, I guess I am right." She said indifferently.

"Julia, could you pSarahse understand mom's mood? You are my only daughter. Do you want us to live the rest of our lives under the ridicule of the Nelson family? Or you are actually looking down on your mother, because I was once a mistress?" Barbara gradually calmed down.

Julia's nose twitched. How could she look down upon her mother? And her mother didn't know Noah had got married at that time. She only blamed on Noah.

"No, I didn't." Julia muttered.

“Listen to mom, break up with Shawn and don’t spend your whole life for him and break all relations with the Li family. Besides, resign and not to stay in the Nelson Group any longer. Come back to the small town. ” Barbara said.

Back then, the reason why Barbara made Julia work in the Nelson Group was that she didn’t know what was the relationship between the Nelson Group and Noah. They didn’t expect that Noah would be in Ventrusburg. After all, there were so many companies which called Nelson Group name in many places.

Hearing this, Julia was almost out of breath.

Barbara had made up her mind not to accept Shawn.

“Mother, let’s talk about it later. I’m going to bed now. It’s too late.” Said Julia.

“You know what? This time you came back, I didn’t plan to let you go back to Ventrusburg. I didn’t expect Shawn to be more thoughtful than me. Julia, you are really cheated by him. He hates us. Do you know that? Because you have stolen his father, he is more cunning than your father Noah. ” Barbara said.

“Mom, don’t always think so badly of others. This world is not as complicated as you think.” Julia tried to calm herself down and asked in a more mild tone.

“I am really tired, mom. I am going to sleep.” Without waiting for Barbara’s answer, Julia said and hung up.

Julia put her phone aside and buried her head in her knees, thinking about what her mother said.

Chapter 100

Her mother said that Shawn hated her for she stole his father?

Julia was just amused by his words, and wondered if Noah was really that important in Shawn's heart? Although she had only met Noah and Shawn together once, she still felt that Shawn was not so respectful to his father.

Although ten years had passed, she could feel that Noah loved her. He truly loved her.

But sometimes, Julia could also see the helplessness in Noah's eyes. She still remembered that he touched her head again and smiled helplessly. "Julia, if only your brother was half as obedient as you, I will be so happy."

At that time, Julia asked, "Brother? Does Julia have a brother?"

Noah quickly changed the topic.

When they were still lost in their memories, the bedroom door was pushed open. Julia looked up at the door and saw Shawn slowly walking in with a bowl of noodles in his hands.

Looking at him, Julia felt stuffy in her chest.

"What's wrong?" Sitting next to her, Shawn saw her red nose, so he pinched it gently and asked.

Julia shook her head and looked at the noodles in Shawn's hand. She smiled and shouted: "I want the noodles."

Shawn laughed. She held her in her arms, carefully blowing off the heat of the noodles, and then sent the noodles into her mouth. Julia thought it was troublesome, so she quickly grabbed the noodles from his hand and ate them up.

Although he knew that Julia was able to eat, Shawn was still a little shocked when he saw the large bowl of noodles disappear in front of him in two minutes.

“It seems that you has almost recovered.” Said Shawn with a smile, touching her head.

“I’d like more.” With the bowl in her hand, Julia pitifully looked at Shawn.

With one hand on his forehead, he took the bowl from Julia’s hand and put it on the table. Then he took a tissue and wiped the corner of her mouth, and said, “Eat it tomorrow. Take a shower and go to bed first.”

Speaking of taking a bath, Julia remembered that she seemed not to have taken a shower one day and her body was dirty.

She blushed slightly, and hurriedly pushed Shawn away, saying: “I’ll take a bath first.”

She wanted to jump out of the bed from the other side, but was hugged around the waist by Shawn.

“Ah, what are you doing?” He carried Julia on his shoulder and entered the bathroom.

“Let’s bath together.” Shawn smiled.

“Why?” Julia was shocked and shook her hands in panic.

“For saving water.” Shawn said curtly.

Julia rolled her eyes. She didn’t expect Shawn was so thrifty..

Then, Julia was stripped off and thrown into the bathtub while she was struggling to resist.

“Shawn, What do you want?” Julia wr

the future.”

With a slight twitch of the mouth, Shawn held her in his arms, refraining from laughing, and asked seriously, “what does it look like?”

Hearing this, Julia flushed in an instant. She pressed her fingers against her own and lowered her head. She was hesitating but could not say a word.

“Good girl. Get up and have dinner if you don’t have anything left.” With an evil smile on Shawn’s face, Julia glanced at him and agreed with what her mother said.

Shawn was a cunning, manipulative fox.

As a man, he must be very good at reading people’s mind!

“No way! You You can’t touch me without my permission in the future! ” In desperation, Julia shouted at Shawn.

“Tell me the reason.” Said Shawn slowly without being angry.

“The reason is is... ” Julia stammered and her face blushed without saying anything out, “I Afraid of pain You You... “

Shawn nodded.

“You agreed?” Julia asked him excitedly when she saw him nod.

Shawn lowered his eyes and said seriously with a slight smile, “kitten, you need more exercise.”

Julia of course knew what he meant by “exercise”. All of a sudden, her brain was invaded by the “exercise” Shawn said. Finally, she fell weakly on the big bed, holding the pillow, and just wanted to cry.

Why couldn't she win him every time? Her reasons were more convincing than his, and every time she was speechless because of Shawn's words, she began to doubt her IQ.

"Eat some food, then you will have energy to exercise." The next second, Julia was pulled out the bed by Shawn.

"Shawn, you are son of bitch! Bastard!" Julia was so furious that she wanted to tweak Shawn's ear, but her strength had been dried up by Shawn. Her tweak could hurt Shawn at all.

In the end, Julia was held away by Shawn in his arms..
