Chapter 1171: It Was Like Seeing Him When He Was Young

Qiao Chen and Mo Xingshu looked too similar.

Mo Yesi said that Qiao Chen looked exactly like his second uncle when he was young.

But now, although they didn't look exactly the same, their facial features seemed to be printed from the same mold.

Mo Xingshu was old while Qiao Chen was still young.

However, anyone who saw them would immediately wonder if they were father and son.

Because the two of them were really too similar.

Mo Xingshu, who was called over by the old lady, was shocked when he saw the young boy beside the old lady.

He looked at Qiao Chen in shock. He didn't need anyone's introduction to know who the Old Madam wanted him to do a paternity test with.

Before coming over, Mo Xingshu did not take the paternity test seriously.

He did not have much hope of acknowledging his son.

He had sent people to investigate for so many years, but they didn't find any clues.

In his heart, he felt that his son, whom he had never met before, was no longer in this world.

Old Madam had only asked him to come for a paternity test because she saw a child who looked a little like him.

But the moment he saw Qiao Chen, Mo Xingshu finally understood why the Old Madam had insisted that he come.

When he looked at Qiao Chen, he seemed to see the younger him.

If he hadn't seen it with his own eyes, he wouldn't believe that there was someone who looked so much like him in this world.

Mo Xingshu stared blankly at Qiao Chen. He had initially held no hope, but now he felt that Qiao Chen might be his son.

His calm mood became agitated.

He looked at Qiao Chen with excitement.

At the same time, when Qiao Chen saw Mo Xingshu, his face showed unconcealed surprise.

"Xingshu, you're here." Old Madam saw Mo Xingshu staring at Qiao Chen in shock. Without even blinking, she couldn't help but say, "You haven't seen Mianmian and Chen Chen, right? Let me introduce you. This is your second niece-in-law, Mianmian. This is your niece-in-law's younger brother, Chen Chen."

"Chen Chen?"

Mo Xingshu quickly turned to look at Qiao Mianmian and then at Qiao Chen. Seeing that Qiao Chen was equally shocked, he softened his voice and asked gently, "Your name is Qiao Chen?"

Qiao Chen paused and nodded.

"Chen Chen, why do you have white hair at such a young age?" At this moment, Mo Yesi walked over and reached out to pluck two strands of Qiao Chen's hair. "I'll help you remove them."

Qiao Chen was stunned again, but he didn't notice anything amiss. He turned to Mo Yesi and said, "Thank you, Brother-in-law."

After Mo Yesi plucked his hair, he quietly kept it in his palm.

When the old lady saw this, she smiled and patted Qiao Chen's shoulder. "Chen Chen, this is my second son. You can call him Second Uncle. I have something to discuss with your Second Uncle alone. You still have school tomorrow, right? Do you have to go back early?"

Then, the Old Madam gave Mo Yesi a look. "Ah Si, send Chen Chen back to school later."

Seeing that it was getting late and that the Old Madam was busy, Qiao Chen nodded and said, "Okay, I'll visit Grandma next time."

"Okay, good child. When you come over next time, I'll get someone to prepare your favorite dishes. Look at how thin you are. You need to nourish yourself. If you weren't in school now, I would want you to move in with me. I'll help you nurse your body."

Chapter 1172: The DNA Test Results Are Out

After sending Qiao Chen back to school, Qiao Mianmian and Mo Yesi also went back.

The moment he reached home, Mo Yesi received a call from the Mo residence.

The old lady's excited and trembling voice came from the phone. She even sounded like she was crying. "Ah Si, I guessed right. Chen Chen is our Mo family's child. The DNA results are out. The possibility of him and your Second Uncle being father and son is as high as 99%."

The DNA appraiser was already waiting at the Mo Residence.

The few strands of hair that Mo Yesi had pulled off Qiao Chen's head were enough to determine whether he and Mo Xingshu were father and son.

DNA paternity testing was the most authoritative. Once the results were out, the accuracy would be as high as 99.9%.

Hence, Qiao Chen was really from the Mo family.

Mo Yesi wasn't too surprised to hear this, but he was still a little surprised after confirming Qiao Chen's identity.

The Old Madam's excited voice was heard again. "I knew it. Chen Chen is definitely my grandson. He's so obedient and sensible. I've always hoped that he would be my grandson. Ah Si, what do you think we should do? Chen Chen has suffered too much in the past. He was originally a child of the Mo family and should have led a comfortable life since young. However, he was sent to the orphanage and became an orphan. Not long after he went to the Qiao family, his father got a stepmother. That stepmother didn't treat him and Mianmian well, either. He didn't feel much motherly love since he was young. Later, he got such a serious illness that his body collapsed.

"When I think about how much this child has suffered since young, I feel terrible. I really want to make it up to him now, but I don't know how to do it."

"Grandma, calm down." Mo Yesi could understand what the old lady was feeling right now, but he was also worried that her emotional fluctuations would be bad for her health. "I'm not busy with the things I want to make up for now. How should I tell Chen Chen about this and make him accept it is the most important thing."

Qiao Mianmian had already guessed what was going on when she heard Mo Yesi and Old Madam's conversation.

Even though Mo Yesi had warned her, she was still very surprised.

Was Qiao Chen... really a child of the Mo family?

Now that the Mo Family had confirmed his identity, was he going to acknowledge his roots and ancestors?

On the other hand, the Old Madam was silent for a while after hearing Mo Yesi's words. Then, she said, "You have a point. The most important thing now is for Chen Chen to accept this matter. I just talked to your Second Uncle, and he wants Chen Chen to acknowledge his ancestors as soon as possible.

"You don't know how excited Your Second uncle was. In the past, I asked him to adopt a child, but he didn't agree. All these years, he had no intention of having a child. I thought he didn't like children, but after the test results came out, he was so happy that he almost cried.

"Indeed, this biological son of mine is different."

Mo Yesi frowned slightly at the thought of his troublesome and jealous Second Aunt.

He believed that if Qiao Chen returned to the Mo family, his Second Uncle would definitely treat him well.

After all, he was almost 50 years old. Now that he finally had a son, there was no need to talk about his feelings.

Only, to Mo Xingshu, this was a huge surprise, a gift from heaven.

But to his wife, this was terrible news.

Chapter 1173: Are You Unhappy?

After all, his Second Aunt had always wanted Mo Xingshu to acknowledge a nephew of hers as his adopted son. She had even placed that nephew of hers into his Second Uncle's company to take up an important position.

He couldn't say that in front of Qiao Mianmian.

If Qiao Mianmian knew his Second Aunt's character, she would definitely worry for Qiao Chen.

Mo Yesi didn't mention it.

The old lady was still very agitated and could not calm down for a while. "Don't delay this matter. Since the test results are out, Chen Chen is a member of our Mo family. Let him know about this sooner. However, who should tell Chen Chen about this?"

Mo Yesi thought for a while. "Grandma, let Mianmian and I tell him about this. Since we're going to let Chen Chen acknowledge his roots and ancestors, you guys can prepare now. We'll call you tomorrow when we see him."

"Okay, okay, okay. But Ah Si, do you think Chen Chen will accept his real identity?" The old lady was happy. After being excited for a while, she started to plan ahead. "Will he blame us? He's so young, yet he became an orphan."

"What do you think we should do if he refuses to accept his identity as a member of the Mo Family?"

"It wasn't easy for your Second Uncle to have a son, and I really like Chen Chen..."

"Grandma, don't worry about this. Chen Chen is a very sensible child. As long as we tell him what happened back then, I believe he won't blame others."

"Sigh, I hope so. But if he really complains, it's understandable."

Mo Yesi said a few more words to the Old Madam before hanging up.

He turned to look at Qiao Mianmian. "The results are out. Chen Chen is indeed my Second Uncle's son."

Qiao Mianmian had already come to terms with this reality.

She felt complicated.

She was happy for Qiao Chen, but she also felt a little sad.

Although it didn't matter if Qiao Chen was her biological brother or not, as it wouldn't affect the relationship between the siblings, she still felt a little melancholic.

After all, she had always thought that Qiao Chen was her biological brother.

Now that something like this had happened...

It was impossible for her to feel completely unaffected.

She was happy for Qiao Chen because once he acknowledged his ancestors, he would have a very respectable status in the future.

No matter what, it was a thousand times better than being the son of the Qiao family.

The Mo Family could give him the best things.

His future path would only become smoother and better.

She looked at Mo Yesi in a daze without saying anything.

“You’re unhappy?” Mo Yesi could tell that she was a little down. He reached out to touch her head and said gently, “Are you worried that Qiao Chen will break up with you when he returns to the Mo family?”

Qiao Mianmian pursed her lips and remained silent.

She was indeed... worried.

She knew very well that no matter if Qiao Chen was a child of the Mo family or the Qiao family, he was still her brother in her eyes.

Her feelings for him would remain the same.

But that was just her thought.

She didn’t know what Qiao Chen would think.

If he knew that they weren’t biological siblings, would he not treat her as intimately as before?

Although she knew what kind of person Qiao Chen was.

But she still worried.

Chapter 1174: Untitled

She was worried because she cared too much.

“That won’t happen. Don’t you know how Chen Chen feels about you?” Mo Yesi pulled her upstairs and comforted her gently. “Actually, no matter whether Chen Chen is your biological brother or not, you’re still family.

“Now that you’ve married into our Mo family, if he grew up with us, he would still have to call you sister-in-law. Besides, I feel that blood ties are important, but long-term companionship and care are even more important. Chen Chen might be my Second Uncle’s son, but to him, my Second Uncle is just a stranger. How could he suddenly distance himself from you just because he’s not from the Qiao family?

“I can tell that Chen Chen has deep feelings for you. You’re worrying too much. It definitely won’t happen.”

If Qiao Chen really had no conscience, he wouldn’t want such a brother-in-law.

No one was more important to Mo Yesi than his wife.

Everything depended on his wife.

Qiao Mianmian stopped in her tracks and looked at him. “Mo Yesi, what kind of person is your Second Uncle? If we let Chen Chen acknowledge his roots and ancestors, will he treat him well? If Chen Chen becomes his son, will he be happy in the future?”

Even though she knew that it was difficult for anyone to get close to the Mo family and that Qiao Chen would definitely lead a better life as the young master of the Mo family, Qiao Mianmian was still worried.

She frowned worriedly and said, “If he gets acknowledged, will the rest of your Second Uncle’s family accept him? I mean... your Second Uncle should have other children, right? Are they willing to accept Chen Chen?”

Back then, Qiao Anxin came to the Qiao family later. The two of them didn’t have a peaceful life.

Qiao Mianmian couldn’t help but worry about Qiao Chen.

“My Second Uncle doesn’t have a child. After Chen Chen goes back, he’ll be his only son.” Mo Yesi reassured her and continued to explain, “Grandma just told me that after the test results came out, Second Uncle cried tears of joy. If Chen Chen goes back, he’ll definitely treat Chen Chen like a treasure.

“My Second Uncle is a very gentle and kind person. Actually, I think Chen Chen’s personality is very similar to his. They will definitely get along well in the future.”

Qiao Mianmian was slightly relieved.

If Mo Xingshu didn’t have other children, she wouldn’t have to worry about Qiao Chen suffering because.

“What about your Second Aunt? Is she willing to accept Chen Chen?”

Mo Yesi was silent.

He didn’t want to lie in front of Qiao Mianmian, so he thought about it and said to her tactfully, “Second Uncle will talk to her. Anyway, when everything is ready, we’ll let Chen Chen acknowledge his roots.

“You don’t have to worry that Chen Chen will be wronged. Although my Second Uncle is gentle and easy to talk to, he has a say in some matters of principle. Besides, there’s me and Grandma. We won’t let Chen Chen suffer.

“Of course, the most important thing is whether Chen Chen is willing to return to the Mo family.”

Qiao Mianmian understood what Mo Yesi meant.

It seemed like his Second Aunt wasn’t very willing to acknowledge Qiao Chen as her son.

Qiao Mianmian was silent for a while before sighing. “Mm, no matter what, Chen Chen has the right to know about this. As for his final choice, it’s up to him.”

The next day.

Qiao Mianmian received a call from Linda informing her that she would be attending a charity event in the morning.

Chapter 1175: Trying Hard to Reduce Her Presence

Linda said over the phone, "It's a charity event for donating blood. Many celebrities are participating in it. I'm thinking that since your reputation isn't very good now, you can use this incident to gain the favor of passersby. Anyway, it's just donating blood, it's not too troublesome."

Qiao Mianmian also felt that since she had nothing to do now, participating in some charity events was indeed beneficial to her.

In the past, she had been obligated to donate blood, and she was supposed to do it once a year.

After confirming the location and time with Linda, she rushed over after breakfast.

At the event venue.

Her assistant, Nana, was waiting for her at the entrance. When she saw her, she went up and said, "Mianmian, the event is starting in ten minutes. Let's go in."

Qiao Mianmian nodded.

Nana looked at her again and couldn't help but praise her. "Mianmian, you're so beautiful today. This white dress suits you very well. You look so beautiful in it."

As it was a charity event, Qiao Mianmian didn't dress too formally.

Before she left, she chose a simple white chiffon dress with simple makeup. She was dressed in a fresh and elegant outfit. Coupled with her fairy-like appearance, she looked otherworldly.

Nana already knew that Qiao Mianmian was very pretty.

But every time she saw her, she would still find her stunning.

She still felt that God was biased in some aspects.

With Qiao Mianmian's looks, she was born to be in the entertainment industry. She could become famous just by being a pretty face, but she also had the ability.

Nana had witnessed her acting skills in the filming period.

She was certain that Qiao Mianmian would become famous in the future.

It was just a matter of time.

Her boyfriend was so powerful, she didn't have to worry about not getting good resources.

She already possessed both strength and appearance. Originally, she only lacked some good resources.

Bai Yusheng's drama might even make her famous.

However, the only thing not good was her reputation.

Ever since she took on Bai Yusheng's drama, there had been all sorts of scandals.

Even though it had already been clarified, many people still felt that her character was bad and that the dirt was real.

Her denial, as well as her public relationship, were just a means to clear her name.

In any case, rumors would always be easily believed, but few people were willing to believe the truth.

Until today, Little Xiao's fans hadn't stopped criticizing her online. Nana felt that Qiao Mianmian was quite unlucky. One was Tu Yilei, and the other was Little Xiao. They were both top celebrities.

If they provoked them, their fans could drown them with a spit.

The charity event was broadcasted live from the start to the end.

After Qiao Mianmian entered the venue, she indeed saw many celebrities attending this charity event.

There were A-listers, B- and C-listers, and even a few people who were 18-listers.

Like her...

She wasn't familiar with any of the artistes present. She watched as the other artistes she knew gathered together and chatted. She quietly hid in a corner and tried her best to reduce her presence.

Even though her presence was already very weak.

The other celebrities did not greet her, either. They just looked at her and turned around to talk to others.

Chapter 1176: She Seemed to Be Alone

She wondered if she was imagining things.

She felt... isolated.

Fortunately, Nana was with her. Otherwise, she would be even more embarrassed.

"Mianmian, don't take it to heart." Nana comforted her. "They're not familiar with you, so they don't know what kind of person you are. Maybe because of Huang Yilin and Xiaoxiao, they have some scruples about you, so..."

"Mm, I know." Qiao Mianmian didn't take it to heart. These people weren't even friends with her, so it was normal for them to ignore her.

Besides, they were all A-listers and B-listers. They had never seen any A-listers and 18-listers playing together.

For someone like her, she wasn't even a C-lister.

Qiao Mianmian didn't like to deal with these meaningless social interactions, so she felt relaxed when no one paid attention to her.

Hence, she didn't mind that no one bothered with her.

Nana could tell that she really didn't mind, so she was relieved.

She could sense that they were isolating Qiao Mianmian.

On the surface, it looked like no one was paying attention to her because they were not familiar with her.

But that was not the case.

Not all the artists here knew each other.

But everyone else who didn't know each other was talking and laughing, except for Qiao Mianmian.

This scene was captured by the cameraman, and the netizens watching the live stream also saw it.

Xiao Xiao-Xiaolei: [No one seems to care about Qiao Mianmian. She's always alone with her assistant. It's as if no one else wants to talk to her. Her character is obviously not good. Her social relations are so bad. So what if she has an awesome boyfriend? No one cares about her. It's quite sad. Yesterday, she was in the limelight, but today...]

Beat you up: [Why is no one paying attention to her? Isn't it easy to guess? Although Little Xiao issued a statement saying that the endorsement matter had nothing to do with her and that she wasn't the one who snatched it, everyone is not a fool. They won't believe whatever she says. It's obvious that she borrowed her boyfriend's power to force Little Xiao to release that statement. Taking advantage of the fact that she has a boyfriend with an extraordinary identity, she bullied another celebrity like this. Little Xiao is still her senior. With her character, who would dare to get to know her? If anyone accidentally provokes her, wouldn't they be the next unlucky person?]

Qiao Lucha exploded today: [I think she deserved it for being splashed with sulfuric acid by Huang Yilin. She must have been the one who dug up all the dirt on Huang Yilin. Even if all the dirt is true, did she have to torture her to death? She was originally an artist with limitless potential, but now that she's in prison, her life is over. Not only did she cause Huang Yilin to go to jail, but she also caused Tu Yilei to have no choice but to leave the industry for a year. She's really a jinx. Those who got involved with her don't have a good ending. Anyone who gets close to her will be unlucky. If it's me, I won't bother with her.]

Many people in the live-stream were Tu Yilei, Little Xiao, and Huang Yilin's fans.

No matter what their idols did, they would definitely side with them.

Hence, the comments section in the live-stream was filled with people scolding Qiao Mianmian.

Chapter 1177: Bow and Apologize

Most of them were Little Xiao's fans.

Some objective passersby also spoke up for Qiao Mianmian.

The milk tea was really delicious: [Let's not talk about the others, how could Huang Yilin blame Qiao Mianmian for that? Huang Yilin broke the law, so how could she wash her hands of it? Also, splashing sulfuric acid on a girl is too vicious. It's a good thing she didn't succeed. Otherwise, it would ruin her entire life. Moreover, Huang Yilin's dirt is all true. She colluded with a married woman to destroy someone's family. How much harm did she do to the original wife? Even if you want to defend your idol, you should be more objective.]

Little fox: [From a passerby's point of view, I feel that you guys are too biased towards Qiao Mianmian. She's always been the one being defamed, and she wasn't the one who got people to hype up those rumors. Speaking of which, she's also a victim. Even if she retaliated, it's normal. Don't tell me that when you guys are bullied, you just quietly let others bully you without saying a word. Besides, if your boyfriend sees you guys being bullied, he won't even say a word? Do you still want such a boyfriend? And didn't Tu Yilei say that everything was voluntary? How can you blame Qiao Mianmian? She didn't make him do it.]

Little Fox had just finished her comment when someone immediately replied: [Maybe this evil woman pushed our Leilei to help her block the acid. After that, she threatened Leilei and said that it was voluntary. After all, our Leilei is such an innocent person. How could he afford to offend her boyfriend?]

Very quickly, other Tu Yilei fans left comments under this comment.

The netizens called "Little Fox" saw that more and more people were replying to her. In order to avoid trouble, she quickly deleted her comment.

The few passersby who spoke up for Qiao Mianmian in the comments section were also attacked by fans.

With the mindset that it was better to avoid trouble, and that they really couldn't afford to offend these crazy fans, passersby all chose to delete their comments.

Hence, when anyone clicked into the comments section of the live-stream, it was full of people criticizing Qiao Mianmian.

Qiao Mianmian, who was in the midst of a charity event, didn't know about this.

The first few minutes of the public service announcement.

Qiao Mianmian saw someone who surprised her.

When the others saw Little Xiao, their first reaction was to look at Qiao Mianmian.

Just as the event was about to start, Xiaoxiao suddenly walked towards Qiao Mianmian hiding in the corner.

She didn't greet anyone else.

She walked up to Qiao Mianmian and bowed 90 degrees.

Such an action shocked everyone.

Nana and Qiao Mianmian were also shocked and took a step back.

“Mianmian, I’m sorry.” Little Xiao bowed and looked up, her face full of apology and pleading, looking pitiful. “The statement posted on the Internet before wasn’t enough to express my apology. I’ve always wanted to apologize to you in person.

“Because of me, you’ve been scolded by so many unknown people. I’m sorry, I’m really sorry. I’ve already made things clear with my fans and told them to stop creating trouble, but they refused to listen to me.”

She looked scared. “Although they’re my fans, I really can’t control their actions. Mianmian, you... you won’t blame me for this, right?”

Chapter 1178: Never Seen Such an Arrogant Newcomer

Little Xiao was a top actress.

Amongst the younger generation of artistes in the entertainment industry, she could be considered as a big sister.

Other people who entered the industry later would respectfully call her senior.

No one had ever acted like this in front of her.

So, when they suddenly saw Little Xiao bowing and apologizing to a newbie, everyone present was shocked.

They looked at Qiao Mianmian with even more fear.

Little Xiao had already publicly apologized on Weibo, and her sincerity was enough.

But now, not only did she have to apologize publicly, she even had to bow?

This newbie was too much of a bully.

No matter what, Little Xiao was still her senior.

This was simply arrogance to the extreme.

Seeing how humble Xiaoxiao was, before Qiao Mianmian could say anything, someone walked over and looked at her angrily. “Qiao Mianmian, you’re too much. Didn’t Xiaoxiao already apologize to you? You actually made her, a senior, bow and apologize to a junior. Don’t think that you can be so arrogant just because you have a powerful boyfriend.”

Seeing someone taking the lead, the others also began to criticize her. “Yes, Little Xiao has already apologized. Where there is mercy, there is a way. To bow and apologize in person is too much.”

“This is too much of a bully.”

“I’ve never seen such an arrogant newbie. She doesn’t leave a way out for herself when she does things. If she doesn’t have that man backing her up in the future, how can such a person continue to stay in the entertainment industry? Every dog has its day. Don’t be too smug too early.”

“If I were Little Xiao, I wouldn’t do that. Why should I? The endorsement was snatched away by her through connections. In the end, Little Xiao, the victim, has to apologize to her. It’s really too much.”

“Don’t say that.” Little Xiao saw that so many people were speaking up for her and hurriedly explained to everyone. “This has nothing to do with Mianmian. She didn’t ask me to do this. I wanted to apologize to her in person.”

When Little Xiao said this, her eyes became red, showing her grievance.

“It really has nothing to do with Mianmian. Don’t blame her. It’s my fault. It’s because of me that so many people scolded her. I should apologize to her.”

Nana looked at Little Xiao’s series of performances and exclaimed in her heart.

What a scheming bitch.

On the surface, she was apologizing and speaking up for Qiao Mianmian, but in reality, she was trying to make everyone hate her.

If she apologized sincerely, would she put on a pitiful expression and look like she was about to cry?

It looked like Qiao Mianmian was forcing her to do this.

It was obvious from the way so many celebrities were blaming Qiao Mianmian.

Little Xiao did it on purpose!

She was purposely making everyone hate Qiao Mianmian!

She must have felt uncomfortable about being forced to make a statement on Weibo yesterday.

Was this revenge?

Nana could tell that Xiaoxiao was doing this on purpose, and Qiao Mianmian could feel it even more deeply.

From the moment Little Xiao bowed to her in public, she felt that something was wrong.

Next...

Just as she had expected.

In fact, when she saw Little Xiao’s clarification statement yesterday, she felt her dissatisfaction.

She didn’t expect that Little Xiao would bow and apologize to her in public in such a place today.

Chapter 1179: Do You Think She Doesn’t Know This?

And this charity event was even broadcasted live.

In other words, not only did the people present see Little Xiao bowing and apologizing to her, but the netizens in the live-stream also saw it.

Qiao Mianmian could imagine how the live-stream was like.

Everyone must have thought that she was bullying Little Xiao.

They all thought that she was forcing Little Xiao to apologize.

By now, she was definitely being called a dog.

Qiao Mianmian looked at Little Xiao's aggrieved and pitiful expression, as well as her reddened eyes that looked like they could cry at any moment. She couldn't help but sneer inwardly.

Yesterday, she thought that maybe it was her misconception that she had misunderstood Little Xiao.

From the looks of it, a woman's intuition was indeed accurate.

Little Xiao didn't come to apologize to her earlier or later, but she came shortly after the live broadcast began.

She had timed it perfectly!

At first, Qiao Mianmian felt a little sorry for Xiaoxiao when she found out that she and MC had talked about renewing their contract.

She even thought that if Little Xiao really lost MC's endorsement because of her, she could return it.

But at this moment, Little Xiao's approach made her dispel all thoughts and also dispel the apology in her heart.

In the end, even if Little Xiao's endorsement was lost because of her, what was wrong with that?

MC looked for her.

She didn't forcibly snatch it from Little Xiao.

Besides, she knew nothing about this matter.

Acting pitiful and innocent?

Did she think that she didn't know this trick?

Qiao Mianmian's lips curled up. Under Xiaoxiao's surprised gaze, her eyes turned red in the next second.

She looked at Little Xiao's surprised look, and in the blink of an eye, tears had already flowed out of her eyes.

The speed at which she cried caught Little Xiao off-guard.

"Senior." She pursed her lips and choked. Tears silently fell from the corners of her eyes onto her white and delicate face. She looked at Little Xiao with tears in her eyes and said, "I'm sorry. I didn't expect that you would care so much about such a small misunderstanding. I've long ignored it."

"You're my senior, how could you..."

"When I accepted MC's endorsement back then, I didn't think that Senior had talked about renewing the contract with them. I really didn't know anything. But no matter what, it was because of me that the relationship between me and Senior became like this. No matter what, the wrong one was me, not Senior.

“If you want to bow and apologize, it should be me bowing and apologizing to Senior. How could it be Senior doing this to a junior like me?”

Qiao Mianmian cried as she took a step back and bowed deeply to Xiaoxiao.

“Senior, I’m sorry. I’m really sorry.”

She bowed and apologized three times.

After bowing, she raised her teary little face again. Her eyes were full of apology as she looked at Little Xiao. She enunciated each word clearly and firmly, “In order to eliminate the misunderstanding between me and Senior, I decided to give up the MC endorsement. It was this endorsement that caused the misunderstanding between us. I don’t want this misunderstanding to continue.”

Qiao Mianmian’s words shocked everyone present.

Give up on the MC endorsement?

Even if her boyfriend was very capable and did not lack good resources to give to her, it would be a pity to give up a top endorsement like MC’s.

And the reason she did this was that she didn’t want Little Xiao to misunderstand her?

Chapter 1180: Senior, Can We Say No?

And her three bows just now...

Initially, these people distanced themselves from Qiao Mianmian because they thought that she wasn’t easy to get along with and were afraid of getting into trouble.

In addition, she had made so many female celebrities who tried their best to hook up with her speak up for her. This had caused many female celebrities to feel jealous and dissatisfied.

But Qiao Mianmian’s actions just now, including her saying that she wanted to give up on the MC endorsement, didn’t seem like she would bully others and be disrespectful to her seniors.

She didn’t seem like someone who had a bad temper.

If she was really an arrogant and despotic newcomer, how could she bow three times to Little Xiao?

Because she was afraid that Little Xiao would misunderstand her, she even took the initiative to give up the MC endorsement.

In an instant, the artists’ attitudes towards Qiao Mianmian changed. They no longer disliked her as much as before.

Little Xiao didn’t expect Qiao Mianmian to do this.

She looked at her in surprise.

Even Nana was shocked when Qiao Mianmian gave up on the endorsement.

But soon, Nana understood what she was doing.

Everything happened because of the MC endorsement.

Xiaoxiao's fans were dissatisfied with Qiao Mianmian and attacked her because they felt that Qiao Mianmian had stolen Xiaoxiao's endorsement.

If she gave up the endorsement.

This left the others speechless.

Although it would be a huge loss for her and quite a pity, it wouldn't be a loss to salvage her reputation.

Anyway, she was still young and did not need to worry about not having good resources in the future.

A moment of giving up, just for a better future.

"Senior, can we just shake hands and make peace?" Qiao Mianmian extended a trembling hand to Xiaoxiao. Her red eyes were filled with nervousness and uneasiness from being rejected, fully portraying her identity as a newbie.

At this moment.

The live-stream became extremely lively because of her actions.

When Qiao Mianmian bowed and apologized, the camera was pointed at her.

She didn't know if the photographer did it on purpose, but the camera was pulled very close to her, so close that the netizens in the live-stream could clearly see the tears on her eyelashes trembling.

All the female celebrities in the entertainment industry would spend a lot of money to take good care of themselves. After all, they relied on their looks to make a living.

Hence, in the public eyes, they were all born with good skin.

However, no matter how beautiful she was, not many female artistes dared to let the camera get so close to them.

Because this would infinitely magnify their flaws.

The flaws that were originally covered up by her makeup were completely exposed under the high-definition camera.

But these worries didn't exist for Qiao Mianmian.

Even under the close-up high-definition camera, her skin was still so good that it could explode.

Her face was unblemished. Her skin was fair and smooth as if it had a natural whitening effect.

And precisely because the camera was so close, some netizens realized that Qiao Mianmian didn't even apply foundation or mascara. She just applied lipstick and did her eyebrows.

But when one looked at her from afar just now, they would think that she had put on eyeliner, mascara, and contact lenses.

“D*mn, Qiao Mianmian’s skin is too good. The camera is so close, but I can’t even see a single pore on her face. And I always thought she had mascara on, but it turns out her eyelashes are so thick and long.”
