

Big Shot 1671

Chapter 1671: This Plot Is Too Melodramatic

It was also because of this that so many people called Shen Xin thick-skinned and harassed her.

“You mean you don’t hate Shen Xin?” The student widened his eyes in shock. “Haven’t you always hated her? Could it be that you don’t hate her because she’s pitiful now?”

“It has nothing to do with now.” Qiao Chen clenched the box in his hand. “I’ve never hated her. I never said I hated her. You all just think so.”

“If you don’t hate her, why are you so cold to her? You made us think you hate her.”

“Cold?” Qiao Chen looked down at the white wooden box in his hand. “I just don’t want her to feel hopeful. Is it wrong to reject someone like this?”

Because of him, Shen Xin was now being described as such.

He never knew that his rejection would hurt her so much.

So, Shen Xin wanted to transfer schools because she couldn’t stand people talking about her.

Qiao Chen felt guilty at this thought.

“That’s right. If you don’t like someone, it’s best not to give them any hope. But...”

“But what?”

“It’s just that you’re too cold toward Shen Xin. Qiao Chen, honestly, with your attitude towards her, it’s normal for others to think that you hate Shen Xin.”

Qiao Chen kept quiet.

“But Shen Xin is about to transfer schools soon. It doesn’t matter if you hate her or not. It’ll probably be very difficult to see her in the future.” With that, the classmate sighed and said sadly, “We’ve been classmates for a few years, I can’t bear to see her go.”

Qiao Chen kept quiet.

He also couldn’t bear it.

He seemed... reluctant.

If he asked her to stay, would she stay?

She’d harassed him for years, and he was used to having her by his side. If she left just like that...

It would probably be very difficult to see her again.

Qiao Chen’s heart ached.

"Young Master Chen."

Qiao Chen walked out of the school and saw a Rolls Royce parked by the roadside. The chauffeur saw him and immediately walked towards him.

The chauffeur bowed and greeted him. "Young Master Chen."

Qiao Chen nodded. "Didn't I say that you don't have to pick me up today?"

"This is what Old Master wants." The driver immediately explained. "Old Master said that Young Master's identity is special now. It's safer for us to follow you wherever you go."

Qiao Chen pursed his lips and didn't say anything else.

The chauffeur turned around and opened the door. "Young Master, please get in."

"Wow, look, that's Qiao Chen."

"Was the driver the one who picked him up? And it was a Rolls-Royce. I heard that Qiao Chen is the Young Master of the Mo Family now. It seems like it's true."

"I heard that Qiao Chen is the Young Master of the Mo Family's second branch. It's said that he separated from the Mo Family because of some reasons and was adopted by the family with the surname Qiao. Now, the Mo Family has found him again and acknowledged him."

"This plot is too melodramatic."

Inside the car.

The window slowly rolled up, blocking everything outside.

Qiao Chen looked at the gift Shen Xin gave him and slowly opened it.

He saw a black bracelet and a black and gold ring laying inside.

Chapter 1672: Must Be Very Happy

He picked up the ring and saw a line of words carved on it.

There was also a note in the box beside the bracelet.

Beautiful words filled the note: "I designed and made the necklace myself. I spent a month preparing this gift. I don't expect you to like it, but I hope you can accept this bracelet. Qiao Chen, although I know you don't like me, I still want to say that I really like you. From the beginning until now, I've liked you so much. Don't be shocked by my confession. I'll really leave this time and won't pester you anymore. No matter what happens in the future, I still want to say this. Qiao Chen, you have to be happy. You have to be happy. Only then can I feel at ease."

Qiao Chen read every word carefully.

After reading it, his heart ached again.

He tightened his grip on the bracelet. A moment later, he put it on.

Two hours before the birthday banquet.

Qiao Mianmian had chosen a gift a day earlier.

She chose a watch for Qiao Chen. It wasn't cheap. It was a watch worth a million yuan.

It meant that Qiao Chen had really grown up.

He could have some valuable things too.

Moreover, Qiao Chen was the Young Master of the Mo Family now. Even if she didn't give it to him, he wouldn't lack valuable items.

As family, Qiao Mianmian and Mo Yesi went back early to help.

At the Mo Residence, Uncle Zhang came out to welcome them.

"Second Young Master, Second Young Madam." Uncle Zhang hadn't seen Qiao Mianmian in a while, so he smiled when he saw her. "Old Madam was just talking about Second Young Madam, and Second Young Madam is home now."

"Is that so?"

Qiao Mianmian smiled and said, "Then, does Grandma and I have telepathy?"

"It must be." Uncle Zhang sized her up and said, "Second Young Madam must have had a hard time filming. You seem a little tanned."

The weather in F City wasn't as hot as in Yuncheng City, but the ultraviolet light was very strong.

Qiao Mianmian did get a little tan after a few months.

But among the actors, her situation was still alright. The other actresses were all heavily tanned.

"Mm, the ultraviolet light is pretty strong over there. Our crew is all tanned."

"Filming is tough. Second Madam, you have to take care of your health."

...

Old Madam was waiting for them in the living room.

Hearing footsteps, Old Madam looked up and saw Qiao Mianmian and Mo Yesi walking in. She immediately smiled.

She got the housemaid to help her up.

Qiao Mianmian hastened her steps.

“Grandma, don’t stand up. Sit down.”

Qiao Mianmian knew that Old Madam’s legs would hurt if she stood for too long.

She let go of Mo Yesi and quickly walked to the Old Madam’s side to help her sit down.

Old Madam looked at her hand and frowned. “Why do I feel that Mianmian has lost weight again? You’re even darker. Is filming very tough?”

“Grandma, I’m not skinny. Every time I come over, you say I’ve lost weight.” Qiao Mianmian covered her mouth and chuckled. “I’m just a little tanned.”

“How are you not slim?” Old Madam’s eyes were filled with heartache. “Your face looks smaller, and your chin is sharper. I’ve told you before, you don’t have to work so hard after marrying into our Mo Family. Just treat this as a hobby. Just casually do it, don’t tire yourself out.”

Chapter 1673: Qiao Chen Seems to Have Changed Again

“Anyway, your health is the most important! Our Mo Family doesn’t lack money. We don’t need you to spend your health to earn money, understand? Moreover, you’re a child of the Bai Family. Even without the Mo Family, the Bai Family can let you live in luxury for the rest of your life.”

“Mm. I got it, Grandma.”

Qiao Mianmian agreed obediently.

She knew that Old Madam really felt bad for her.

“Young Master Chen.”

Qiao Chen came downstairs.

When he walked past the housemaid, the housemaid greeted him respectfully.

Qiao Mianmian turned around and saw Qiao Chen walking towards them.

She hadn’t seen him in a while.

Qiao Chen was about to take his college entrance examination and was usually very busy.

Qiao Mianmian was also very busy filming recently.

The siblings had been very busy recently. They only occasionally chatted on WeChat or the phone.

She wasn’t sure if she was hallucinating.

Qiao Mianmian felt that Qiao Chen had changed a little after not seeing him for a while.

But she couldn’t tell exactly what had changed.

He seemed more mature.

He wasn’t smiling like before.

Qiao Chen rarely smiled now.

He seemed much more mature, but Qiao Mianmian's heart ached for him.

She felt that Qiao Chen wasn't as happy as before.

"Sister, Brother-in-law, you're back." Qiao Chen smiled when he saw Qiao Mianmian.

"Mm, Chen Chen, happy birthday." Qiao Mianmian handed him the gift she'd picked. "This birthday is also your coming-of-age gift. Sister hopes that you'll be happy forever."

"Thank you, Sister." Qiao Chen took the gift box and opened it in front of her. When he saw that it was a very expensive watch, he was stunned. "Sister, you gave me such an expensive gift?"

Qiao Mianmian smiled and nodded. "Mm, this year is very special. So, it's only right to give you an expensive gift. I thought it was better to get you a watch. Do you like it?"

Qiao Chen had mentioned this brand before.

Before, this watch was a luxury item they couldn't afford.

But now, both siblings could afford it easily.

"Mm, I do." Qiao Chen looked at the watch and put it on.

"Sister, I like this watch very much."

"Chen Chen, your sister is done expressing herself. It's my turn." Mo Yesi took out a letter and handed it to him under everyone's curious gazes. "Happy 18th birthday. This is my birthday gift to you. I think you'll like it."

Qiao Chen looked at the envelope in confusion and slowly took it.

"Thank you, Brother-in-law. Can I open it now?" asked Qiao Chen, looking at the envelope.

He was really curious about the envelope's content.

Mo Yesi smiled. "Of course."

Qiao Chen opened it and took out a piece of paper.

He read the letter for a while.

A few seconds later, he looked in surprise. "Brother-in-law, is this really your birthday gift for me?"

Chapter 1674: Madam Didn't Come Back Alone

"Mm." Mo Yesi nodded. "I have the right to make this decision. How is it? Do you like this birthday gift?"

Qiao Chen's fingers trembled.

A few seconds later, he looked up and said excitedly, "I like it, I really like it. I really like this birthday gift. Thank you, Brother-in-law."

It was obvious that Qiao Chen preferred the letter Mo Yesi gave him.

Qiao Mianmian was curious. What did Mo Yesi give Qiao Chen?

He was so happy.

It was obvious that Qiao Chen was really happy. He even smiled brightly.

At this moment, Qiao Chen looked like the carefree and happy young man from before.

“As long as you like it.”

Qiao Chen kept the letter and held it tightly in his hand.

This made Qiao Mianmian even more curious.

She nudged Mo Yesi with her elbow and looked up at him. “What did you give Chen Chen? You made him so happy.”

“You want to know?”

“Of course I want to know.” Qiao Mianmian pursed her lips and said, a little jealous, “He wasn’t this happy with the watch. As his brother-in-law, what surprise did you prepare for him?”

“I’ll tell you later.”

Old Madam was happy to see the juniors getting along so well.

To her, harmony was the best.

But the moment she thought of Madam Mo, who hadn’t returned yet, Old Madam’s mood was affected.

At this moment, a housemaid came over.

The housemaid looked at them and said, “Old Madam, Madam is back.”

The happy atmosphere froze for a few seconds. The conversation stopped. Old Madam frowned and turned to look at the housemaid. “Madam is back?”

“Yes.”

Old Madam couldn’t help but sneer. “She still knows to come back.”

“Old Madam.” The housemaid hesitated for a while before saying, “Madam didn’t come back alone.”

“She didn’t come back alone?” Old Madam was stunned. “Did she bring someone back?”

“What lady? Is it someone we know?”

“That lady looks unfamiliar. She hasn’t been here before.”

Old Madam frowned again.

Qiao Mianmian saw Madam Mo walking out of the lobby.

She didn't come back alone.

She was accompanied by a young woman who looked to be about 24 or 25 years old. She wasn't very beautiful, but she had a good temperament and was dressed very well.

She looked like a rich girl.

Madam Mo chatted with the woman as she walked with a smile on her face.

Madam Mo saw Old Madam sitting on the sofa and then looked at Qiao Mianmian and Qiao Chen. Her smile faded.

She stopped in her tracks and looked at Old Madam. "Mom."

The woman beside her stopped too.

Old Madam looked at Madam Mo and then at the woman standing beside her. Although she was angry, she suppressed it when she thought about Qiao Chen's birthday.

Chapter 1675: If You Think so, Then so Be It

She pursed her lips and said calmly, "You're willing to come back."

"Sister-in-law told me that it was Mo Chen's coming-of-age ceremony today. She told me to come back for the banquet, so I came back." Old Madam's voice was calm, and Madam Mo was still angry.

Old Madam didn't want to lose her temper on such a good day.

Moreover, even if she was unhappy with Madam Mo previously, her anger had dissipated after such a long time.

Initially, she thought that since Madam Mo was back, there was no need to make things too awkward. She might as well give her a way out.

But she didn't expect Madam Mo to be so angry.

Did she mean that if Second Madam hadn't called her back, she wouldn't have come back at all?

Old Madam endured it and didn't flare-up.

But her expression didn't look good.

Madam Mo didn't seem to notice it at all. After speaking to the Old Madam, she glanced at Qiao Chen and Qiao Mianmian, who were standing at the side, and said sarcastically, "Oh, you're all back. Everyone's here today.

"I saw that you were chatting happily just now. Did I affect you?"

Qiao Mianmian looked at her expressionlessly and said, "Mom."

This was for Mo Yesi's sake.

If it wasn't for Mo Yesi, Qiao Mianmian wouldn't have greeted her at all.

No matter how much she disliked Madam Mo, Madam Mo was still Mo Yesi's biological mother.

She didn't want Mo Yesi to be caught in the middle.

Qiao Chen, on the other hand, didn't have so many concerns. He didn't like Madam Mo, so he couldn't even be bothered to greet her.

He wouldn't like anyone who didn't like his sister.

To Qiao Chen, Qiao Mianmian was the most important person in his heart.

Madam Mo's reaction was very cold.

It was obvious she didn't like her.

Qiao Mianmian didn't mind.

She just had to do what she needed to do. As for the rest, she wouldn't force it.

She didn't care about Madam Mo's attitude towards her anymore.

"Xiao Ya, let me introduce you." Madam Mo ignored Qiao Mianmian and said affectionately to the girl beside her, "This is my son Ah Si I mentioned to you before. He's the same age as you this year. Your birthday is just a month away."

The woman beside Madam Mo waited for her to finish introducing her before looking up at Mo Yesi. She extended her hand and smiled. "Hello, Mr. Mo. I'm Tang Ya. Nice to meet you."

Mo Yesi looked at her hand coldly and distantly.

He didn't say anything and just let her hand hang in the air.

Tang Ya was stunned for a few seconds.

Seeing this, Madam Mo grabbed her hand and said to Mo Yesi unhappily, "Ah Si, Xiao Ya took the initiative to greet you, and this is your attitude? How will others view our Mo Family's hospitality?"

Mo Yesi's expression was still cold. "Mom, this is just someone you know, but I don't. I've always treated strangers this way. What about the way you greeted Mianmian just now?"

Madam Mo was stunned. "So you did it on purpose?"

Mo Yesi said expressionlessly, "If you think so, then so be it."

Chapter 1676: She Has No Status in This Family

"You..." Madam Mo was about to flare up.

"Madam, I'm fine." Tang Ya reached out and pulled her. Besides her stiff expression, she quickly recovered and smiled elegantly. "Mr. Mo is right. We're strangers to each other.

"Mr. Mo doesn't need to greet strangers."

"There's something wrong with him. He's not gentlemanly at all!" Madam Mo was afraid that Tang Ya would be upset, so she quickly held her hand and comforted her. "Xiao Ya, don't be angry. Ah Si's temper isn't good. He's like this to everyone, not you."

Tang Ya smiled. "Madam, I understand. I won't be angry over this."

"Xiao Ya, you're really well-mannered." Madam Mo's eyes were full of admiration. "Your parents taught you too well. You're too outstanding."

Madam Mo ignored Qiao Mianmian in front of Mo Yesi.

She even spoke to an outsider gently.

Mo Yesi was a protective person. He doted on Qiao Mianmian so much that he couldn't bear to see her suffer even a little, even if it was his own mother.

He held Qiao Mianmian's hand and didn't look at Madam Mo. "Mianmian, let's go upstairs. There are still two hours before the banquet. If you're tired, take a rest first."

With that, he led Qiao Mianmian upstairs.

Qiao Chen's expression darkened as well. He glanced at Tang Ya coldly and then said to Old Madam, "Grandma, I'll go upstairs to change my clothes and prepare."

"Go, go." Old Madam knew that Madam Mo had upset everyone again. She waved her hand and said, "Get ready, tonight is your stage."

"I'm tired too." Old Madam was also angry with Madam Mo and wasn't willing to stay with her. She called Uncle Zhang over. "Help me up, I want to sleep for a while."

Uncle Zhang immediately came over and carefully helped Old Madam up.

Before Old Madam left, she looked at Madam Mo deeply. "Wenpei, is this what you want to see? I thought you'd thought it through and figured out how to interact with these children in the future.

"It seems like I've overestimated you." Old Madam shook her head and got Uncle Zhang to help her to her room.

At once.

The lively hall fell silent.

Only Madam Mo and Tang Ya were left.

Madam Mo's expression was awful.

She had embarrassed herself in front of Tang Ya.

Even her biological son was so cold to her.

She let Tang Ya see that she had no status in this family.

Madam Mo was aggrieved and angry. "I won't return to this family in the future."

"Madam, don't be sad." Tang Ya's eyes flashed with a strange light. She watched as Mo Yesi and Qiao Mianmian went upstairs. Only after they disappeared did she retract her gaze from the spiral staircase.

"I think they must have misunderstood you. When the misunderstanding is cleared up, it won't be like this anymore."

"What misunderstanding!" Madam Mo was so angry that her face turned green. "It's all because of my scheming daughter-in-law. Our family was fine in the past, and we never had any conflicts. But ever since she married Ah Si..."

Chapter 1677: Just Waiting for You to Enter

"This family has never had a day of peace since she came!

"She sowed discord in front of Mom and Ah Si, making them have something against me. I've become a villain in this family.

"In front of Ah Si, I'm an evil mother-in-law who doesn't treat his wife well. In front of Old Madam, I'm also an evil mother-in-law who wants to go against her daughter-in-law.

"What sin did I commit for my son to marry such a jinx? My family is in chaos because of her."

Madam Mo's eyes reddened as she spoke.

She held Tang Ya's hand and cried. "Xiao Ya, you kept persuading me to come back. Now you see, I don't have a place in this house anymore. I shouldn't have come back!"

Tang Ya's eyes flickered. "Madam, it's because they have a misunderstanding about you. I saw your daughter-in-law just now. She doesn't seem like a scheming person."

"If she's obviously scheming, then is she really scheming?" Madam Mo gritted her teeth as she spoke about Qiao Mianmian. "She's just good at acting and pretending. She looks innocent and harmless, that's why Ah Si and Old Madam were duped by her.

"She caused so much trouble in my family, and now I'm the sinner. She's the most scheming one.

"In any case, I can't stay in this family anymore." Madam Mo was angry and aggrieved. "It's fine if I'm aggrieved, but now I've made you suffer too. I really feel bad."

"Madam, don't say that. I really don't feel aggrieved," Tang Ya hurriedly said.

"The more you say this, the more I feel bad." Madam Mo got angrier the more she thought about it. She wiped the corners of her eyes and said angrily, "Let's go. I won't come back here anymore."

"Madam, you're already back. Even if you want to leave, you should leave after the banquet." Tang Ya handed her a handkerchief and persuaded her softly. "If you leave just like that, they'll think you're guilty.

"Madam, you didn't do anything wrong. This is your home, why are you leaving?

"You said it yourself, your daughter-in-law is deliberately trying to sow discord. If Madam leaves, wouldn't she be happy?"

Madam Mo was stunned for a while before gritting her teeth and sneering. "That's right, you're right. I can't just leave. Why should I? This is my home. I won't let that jinx have her way!

"She must be dying for me to leave, so I won't."

"Yes." Tang Ya lowered her eyes. "Madam, don't fall for it. Think about it carefully. She first tried to drive a wedge between you and Mr. Mo, then Old Madam, and then you left home in anger.

"Doesn't this look like it was planned? She's just waiting for you to fall into her trap."

Madam Mo thought about what happened and her expression changed.

Tang Ya glanced at her expression and paused for a few seconds before saying softly, "Madam fell for her scheme because of her true nature. Now that you're in such a mess with Mr. Mo and Old Madam, it's really not worth it.

"Madam, the more you create trouble, the more it will affect your relationship with Mr. Mo and Old Madam."

"Then, what do you think I should do?" Madam Mo asked anxiously. "Ah Si and Old Madam are ignoring me now. How would I know she was so scheming?"

Chapter 1678: What a Pity, Ah Si Isn't So Lucky

"Madam, don't be anxious." Tang Ya comforted her patiently. "Since her original plan was to drive a wedge between you, Mr. Mo, and Old Madam, Madam shouldn't fall into her trap. What Madam should do now is to mend your relationship with Mr. Mo and Old Madam.

"Madam, don't be unhappy with them anymore.

"The more you don't get along with them, the easier it is for that person."

Madam Mo looked at her and kept quiet for a while.

"Xiao Ya, you're right." After a while, Madam Mo pursed her lips and nodded. "I can't fall out with Ah Si over a woman like her. I was foolish and fell into her trap. I won't let her succeed in the future."

"Mm, it's good that Madam can understand."

"Xiao Ya, it's all thanks to you." Madam Mo held Tang Ya's hand and said gratefully, "If you hadn't told me this, I wouldn't have known that I'd fallen into her trap."

"Madam, you're too kind." Tang Ya smiled. "Madam and I are fated to be friends. It's not worth mentioning such a small matter. Moreover, I've encountered such things before.

"We all have the same experience. I naturally don't want Madam to be like me back then and fall into someone's trap foolishly.

"But I still think that Madam's daughter-in-law looks kind and innocent. Perhaps we're overthinking it. She's not such a scheming person."

“Haha.” Madam Mo sneered. “She’s kind and innocent? If she was, would she have schemed to marry Ah Si in the first place? Once she married into the family, we haven’t got a day of peace.

“I have to find a way to make her leave Ah Si.

“She’s a jinx. If she continues to stay in the Mo Family, she’ll only bring trouble to us.”

Tang Ya pursed her lips and kept quiet.

“Ah, Xiao Ya, I wish I’d known you sooner.” Madam Mo looked at her regretfully. “You’re so good and sensible. It’d be a blessing if any of my children can marry you.

“It’s a pity that Ah Si isn’t so lucky.”

Madam Mo had completely forgotten that she had said the same thing to Shen Rou.

Shen Rou had long been forgotten by Madam Mo.

She really liked her in the past.

Back then, she really wanted Shen Rou to marry Mo Yesi.

But the current Shen Family was no longer worthy of the Mo Family’s status. Even if Madam Mo still had some feelings for Shen Rou, they were nothing compared to benefits.

Her preferences for Shen Rou were built on many conditions.

If Shen Rou wasn’t the Young Lady of the Shen Family, no matter how capable and sensible she was, Madam Mo wouldn’t consider letting her marry Mo Yesi.

In Madam Mo’s eyes, the most important aspect for a future daughter-in-law was her family background.

Without a good family background, she wouldn’t consider other aspects.

Logically speaking, Qiao Mianmian’s family background had already met her requirements.

It could be said that the Bai Family was the most suitable for the Mo Family.

In the entire Yuncheng City, there was no single girl more suitable than the Bai Family’s daughter for her son.

Chapter 1679: I’m Sorry for Suffering Just Now

The Gong, Yan, and Lu families were naturally not bad.

But Gong Zeli was the only son in the Gong Family, and the Yan Family had a few sons.

The Lu Family had a daughter, but she was already married and with children.

But Madam Mo was still unhappy.

And her dissatisfaction with Qiao Mianmian was increasing.

She would never allow this bad woman to stay by Ah Si's side.

This kind of woman would only harm her son.

So what if she was the daughter of the Bai Family now?

She didn't grow up in the family. Besides her status, she was no different from those poor girls from small families.

The Mo Family's current status didn't lack a Bai Family to stabilize it.

She couldn't leave such a jinx in the family.

Madam Mo liked Tang Ya.

She was counting on her other son.

She was sure that as long as Tang Ya saw Mo Shixiu, she would definitely like him.

Madam Mo was very confident in her two sons and wasn't worried about their favorability in front of the opposite sex.

Madam Mo couldn't help but think of Jiang Luoli.

Frowning, her expression darkened.

She thought that it would be easy to solve that girl.

However, something unexpected happened, and that girl became a thorny problem.

But no matter what, she couldn't let that poor girl continue to be with her son.

She couldn't let this happen again!

She wanted to nip all risks in the bud!

She called a housemaid over and asked, "Is Young Master back today?"

The housemaid immediately replied, "Young Master called early. He said he's overseas and can't attend Young Master Chen's birthday party."

Madam Mo was a little disappointed.

She brought Tang Ya back to the Mo Residence this time because she wanted to see if she and Mo Shixiu could meet.

But this was nothing.

When Mo Shixiu returned from his business trip, she could find a reason for them to meet.

"Xiao Ya, I have an older son. Your personality is very similar to his, and so are many of your hobbies. I feel that if you two get to know each other, you'll definitely have a lot in common. He's on a business trip now, so you won't be able to meet him. When he comes back next time, I'll definitely introduce you."

“Sure.” Tang Ya smiled and nodded. “Madam’s son must be very outstanding. I look forward to our next meeting.”

“It’s still early, and the banquet hasn’t started yet. Shall I show you around the house?”

“Thank you, Madam.”

In the bedroom upstairs.

The door closed.

Mo Yesi pulled Qiao Mianmian into his arms and looked down at her apologetically. “Baby, I’m sorry for what happened.”

Qiao Mianmian smiled. “You don’t have to apologize to me. You didn’t do anything wrong.

“Moreover, I don’t feel aggrieved.”

She might have felt aggrieved in the past.

But now that she didn’t care about Madam Mo, she naturally wouldn’t feel aggrieved by her cold treatment.

She didn’t care if Madam Mo treated her well.

She only cared about Mo Yesi’s attitude.

Her husband wasn’t so filial that he would be biased towards his mother no matter what happened. This was enough for Qiao Mianmian.

Chapter 1680: You Trust Me That Much?

“But Mom shouldn’t have treated you that way.” Mo Yesi frowned at the mention of Madam Mo.

“You’re my wife, and she’s my mom. Both of you are my closest people. I’m undeniably responsible for the situation.”

“This has nothing to do with you.” Qiao Mianmian wasn’t unreasonable. “It’s not like you haven’t tried to mediate. It’s Mom who’s unhappy with me and doesn’t like me. No matter how hard you try, it’s useless.

“She felt that we weren’t compatible from the start. Initially, she was dissatisfied with my family background. Now, perhaps she feels that I’ve affected your relationship with her, so she’s still dissatisfied with me.

“I know you’ve fallen out with Mom because of me. Mo Yesi, I’m really grateful for everything you’ve done for me. I’m already very satisfied and happy. You really don’t have to feel sorry for me.”

The man looked at her deeply and pursed his lips. “Even if you’ve suffered a little, I can’t bear to see it. Moreover, this grievance was caused by Mom. Even if you don’t mind, I do.”

"But I think I'm very happy." Qiao Mianmian smiled. "I have a husband who loves me so much, and Grandma treats me very well. I have a brother who treats me very well, and now I have an older brother and biological parents..."

"Mo Yesi, I'm really satisfied now." Qiao Mianmian's eyes sparkled. "Life can't be perfect. I can't force everyone to like me. To me, it's enough that everyone I care about cares about me."

Mo Yesi could tell that Qiao Mianmian really didn't feel aggrieved.

She wasn't unhappy with Madam Mo's cold treatment.

He felt more at ease.

Looking into her bright eyes, his heart softened. He reached out and rubbed her head. "It's good that you don't feel aggrieved. Oh right, I have something to explain to you."

"What?"

"I don't know the woman Mom brought back." Mo Yesi thought for a while and said, "It's my first time meeting her too."

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

Why was he explaining this to her?

Did he think she would misunderstand something?

Mo Yesi paused before continuing. "So, don't misunderstand."

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

She was right.

Amused, she said, "What's there to misunderstand? Don't I know what kind of person my husband is? I'm completely at ease with you."

Moreover, she wasn't like him.

He was just jealous.

Even if she was jealous, she wouldn't so easily fall into it. He didn't have to explain to her, she could tell that he wasn't familiar with that woman.

"I didn't misunderstand." Qiao Mianmian smiled. "I know you're not familiar with her. You're already so disrespectful to her, can't I tell?"

Mo Yesi nodded. He was happy that she trusted him.

But he felt a little uncomfortable seeing she really didn't mind at all.

"You trust me that much?"

"Of course."

"Why?"

Qiao Mianmian didn't feel the man's dissatisfaction. She smiled and said, "Because you're my husband. I know you won't do anything to let me down."

Mo Yesi's heart softened as he looked at the girl in his arms.
