

Big Shot 1911

Chapter 1911: Old Madam Was Overjoyed

New wives all received wedding gifts.

Madam Mo had taken it before, and so had Qiao Mianmian.

Now that she was married to Mo Shixiu, she couldn't be the only one who didn't receive it.

Unless the Mo Family did not accept her.

That was why Jiang Luoli didn't reject Old Madam when she said that she wanted to prepare a wedding gift for her.

"Grandma, I have something else to tell you." Mo Shixiu put his arm around Jiang Luoli and walked to the side, asking her to sit down first. Jiang Luoli was still hesitating when Mo Shixiu pressed her shoulder and made her sit down.

Old Madam looked at the two of them in confusion. "Something else to tell me? What is it? Quickly tell Grandma, don't keep me in suspense."

Mo Shixiu chuckled. "Don't worry, Grandma. I'll tell you right away. You're going to be a great-grandmother soon. Are you happy?"

The old lady was stunned. "Great-grandmother?"

A few seconds later, the old lady's eyes widened. Her eyes were filled with joy as she said excitedly, "Luoli, is Luoli pregnant?"

"Yes, Luoli is pregnant." Mo Shixiu nodded.

"Is Luoli really carrying the bloodline of our Mo Family?!"

The old lady stood up excitedly.

Uncle Zhang quickly went over to support her. "Old Madam, be careful. You've just been discharged from the hospital. The doctor said that you still need to recuperate for a while."

The old lady was very excited.

"I'm fine. Help me over. I want to see Luoli closer."

There was nothing happier than having new blood in the family.

Especially in a family like the Mo Family, they didn't lack anything. There were not many things that could make Old Madam happy.

Therefore, when she heard that Jiang Luoli was pregnant, she was overjoyed.

Once the child was born, it would be the Old Madam's first great-grandson.

How could the Old Madam not take it seriously?

Initially, she was most worried about her two grandsons' marriage. Now that these two matters had been settled and they had successfully formed a family, she started to look forward to grandchildren.

However, Mo Yesi and Qiao Mianmian had no intention of having a child now. No matter how much the Old Madam wanted grandchildren, she could only wait patiently.

She thought that she would have to wait a few more years before she could have a great-grandchild.

Unexpectedly, her wish was fulfilled so quickly.

"Grandma, sit down. Don't get up." Jiang Luoli stood up immediately when she saw the old lady walking towards her shakily.

She walked towards her.

She had just walked in front of the Old Madam when she was pressed down by her again.

"Luoli, why are you up? Sit down. You're pregnant now." The old lady was just like Mo Shixiu. When she heard that she was pregnant, she was very nervous. She pressed her down and asked the maid to bring a cushion for her to sit on.

Moreover, the old lady was even more exaggerated than Mo Shixiu.

"Isn't the temperature in this room a little low? Uncle Zhang, quickly get someone to turn up the temperature of the air conditioner. Don't let the Young Madam get cold.

"By the way, get someone to go to the kitchen and tell them not to make the food too greasy. Get a few more appetizers that are suitable for pregnant women. I remember that when I was pregnant back then, I especially liked to eat dishes cooked with sour beans. Go ask the kitchen if there's such a thing. If there isn't, go buy some immediately."

Chapter 1912: Our Family's Main Focus

"Yes, Old Madam. I'll get someone to do it right away." Uncle Zhang also had a happy expression on his face. After accepting the mission, he immediately went to do it.

Another Mo family member was in the way.

This was a joyous occasion for everyone in the family.

The old lady sat down beside Jiang Luoli, held her hand, and asked excitedly, "Luoli, when did you find out? How many months along are you?"

"Grandma, we found it today. The doctor said that it will be two months in ten days." The one who answered was Mo Shixiu.

"Okay, okay, okay!" The old lady looked at Jiang Luoli's tummy happily.

She was so happy that she didn't know what to say.

"That's great," the old lady said excitedly. She pressed hard on the back of Jiang Luoli's hand and said happily, "This is really great news. Shixiu, why didn't you tell me earlier so that I could prepare in advance?"

“Luoli is pregnant, so her taste must be different from ours. You should have told me earlier so that the kitchen can prepare in advance.”

“Grandma, Luoli and I wanted to give you a surprise,” Mo Shixiu said with a smile.

“It’s a surprise, a very pleasant surprise.” The old lady was all smiles, and she was in high spirits because of this happy news. “I told you I saw magpies flying towards my windowsill this morning, and I was still wondering if something good was about to happen. This is really a joyous occasion.

“Now, Luoli is our family’s main focus. Shixiu, since you are usually busy with work, why don’t you let Luoli move over to my place? Your mother and I are usually free, so it will be easier for us to take care of her.”

Jiang Luoli’s face stiffened.

She looked up at Mo Shixiu immediately.

Although the Old Madam had good intentions and treated her sincerely, Jiang Luoli was not willing to move to the Mo Residence.

She had never thought of moving here.

Let Madam Mo take care of her?

She was afraid that Madam Mo would do something even if she was carrying the Mo Family’s bloodline.

However, she was still worried about Madam Mo.

Furthermore, no matter how well the Old Madam took care of her, she would still feel uncomfortable if she had to live with them.

Jiang Luoli was not willing to move over, and Mo Shixiu certainly did not want her to move over either.

He received Jiang Luoli’s pleading gaze and gave her a “don’t be impatient” look. He lowered his head and smiled at the old lady. “Grandma, Luoli is my wife. I will naturally take good care of her. Your health is not good and you still need to rest well. How can I throw my responsibility to you? If I tire you out, Dad will not let me off.

“You don’t have to worry about me not being able to take good care of your granddaughter-in-law. I will adjust my work matters and spend more time with Luoli in the future.”

Old Madam was just saying.

Of course, she knew that it was impossible for Jiang Luoli to move here.

They were newlyweds in a passionate relationship. How could she separate them?

“It’s good that you know. Work is important, but so is family. Luoli is pregnant with your child, so you have to take good care of her.”

“Grandma, I know.”

“Mom, Shixiu is in a special period now.” Madam Mo, who had been silent all this while, suddenly spoke up.

Chapter 1913: Did She Hear Wrongly?

“I’m afraid it’s not a good time for him now. He can’t relax at all. I’m afraid he won’t have much time to accompany Luoli.

“In my opinion, your suggestion is very good. Why don’t Luoli move here? The family will take good care of her. Only then will Shixiu be able to focus on the election.”

The old lady was stunned and looked at her in surprise.

Mo Shixiu was also surprised. He didn’t expect Madam Mo to agree.

Even Jiang Luoli was surprised.

Madam Mo actually asked her to move to the Mo Residence for them to take care of her.

Jiang Luoli wouldn’t think that it was because she was pregnant. Madam Mo instantly changed her mind and was willing to accept her.

Because she didn’t see any joy in her eyes.

Madam Mo didn’t seem to like the baby in her stomach.

Jiang Luoli thought about it and finally felt that Madam Mo was probably afraid that she would delay Mo Shixiu’s candidacy if she stayed at his place.

After all, Mo Shixiu was indeed in an extraordinary period.

Madam Mo would definitely not allow him to make any mistakes in this period.

The old lady looked at Madam Mo in surprise and confusion for a while before asking, “Wenpei, are you willing to take care of her?”

“Of course.” Madam Mo smiled at her and said gently, “The baby in Luoli’s stomach is also my future grandson. As her mother-in-law, I should take care of her.

“When I was pregnant with Shixiu and Ah Si, didn’t Mom take good care of me too?”

The old lady was stunned again.

She looked at Madam Mo thoughtfully for a few seconds, then nodded with a satisfied expression on her face.

To Old Madam, family harmony was more important than anything else.

She knew that Madam Mo didn’t like Jiang Luoli and had tried to persuade her, but at that time, Madam Mo didn’t listen to her at all.

Now that she was willing to accept Jiang Luoli, the Old Madam was naturally very happy.

She thought that now that Jiang Luoli was pregnant, Madam Mo didn't want to cause trouble anymore and accepted this daughter-in-law.

No matter what she thought, Old Madam was happy to see a harmonious family.

If Madam Mo was willing to accept Jiang Luoli, that would be a good thing.

"It's good that you think that way," Old Madam said with a smile. "It's also good that you have such intentions. However, it's better if we don't separate Luoli and Shixiu. Young people like them are not used to living with us. It's more comfortable for them to go out and live on their own."

"But, Mom—"

"Shixiu is not a child anymore. I believe that he can balance his work and family. Wenpei, you should be more confident about your son's ability. If he doesn't have time to go home and take care of his wife and children and it affects his work, that can only mean that he's not capable enough."

Madam Mo's expression froze. Her lips moved, wanting to say something.

"Yes, Grandma. Luoli won't move here." Mo Shixiu rejected this matter before Madam Mo could say anything. "She will stay with me. I have Sister Lin over there. You should know her ability. I will be assured with her taking care of Luoli.

"Also, I found a few nutritionists to assist Sister Lin."

Chapter 1914: She Would Endure This Anger for Now

"Yes, Sister Lin is very reliable." Old Madam nodded and said, "Then, let Sister Lin take good care of her."

"I will."

After Mo Shixiu rejected the old lady's suggestion, Jiang Luoli secretly heaved a sigh of relief.

It wasn't good for her to reject this matter.

Only Mo Shixiu could do it.

Fortunately, he knew that she didn't want to move here, so he rejected the matter directly.

Perhaps Jiang Luoli was overthinking.

She felt that after Mo Shixiu refused it, Madam Mo seemed unhappy.

This caused Jiang Luoli to feel very strange.

She didn't believe that Madam Mo would really want to take care of her.

"Luoli, come over and say hello to Dad." Mo Shixiu reached out a hand to Jiang Luoli and pulled her toward Mo Yunchen.

"Dad, this is Luoli."

Mo Yunchen held her hand and said, "Luoli, call me Dad."

Jiang Luoli met his gentle gaze and pursed her lips. She called out in embarrassment, "Dad."

In her eyes, Mo Yunchen was still very young, and his mature charm could move girls.

She felt a little uncomfortable calling such a handsome uncle Dad.

Mo Yunchen nodded at her with a gentle expression. He was not unhappy with his daughter-in-law.

He wasn't like Madam Mo, who valued status.

Like his two sons, he liked to rely on his own abilities to work hard. He didn't think much of things like marriage between the strong.

Back then, he agreed to marry Madam Mo not only because he was filial and was willing to listen to his parents' arrangements, but also because he quite liked her.

Therefore, he gladly accepted this marriage.

But if he already had someone he loved back then, he wouldn't have obediently accepted the marriage.

He didn't think much of it himself, so of course, he wouldn't use those standards on his two sons.

Mo Yunchen took out the gift that he had prepared earlier and handed it over. He covered his mouth and coughed lightly. "Luoli, this is a gift I prepared for you. Take it."

Jiang Luoli hesitated.

"Dad gave it to you. Just accept it." Mo Shixiu nodded at her. "This is a little token from the elders. They will only be happy if you accept it."

Hearing that, Jiang Luoli didn't hesitate and reached out to take it.

After accepting the gift, she said obediently, "Thank you, Dad."

"Isn't it time to eat? Luoli must be hungry, right?" The old lady's focus was on Jiang Luoli now. She looked at the time and immediately called a maid over. "Go ask the kitchen if the food is ready."

"Yes."

"Luoli, you can't go hungry now." The old lady looked at her stomach nervously. "From now on, you have to take good care of the baby. Only then will the child be fair and fat."

When Madam Mo saw how much the Old Madam cherished Jiang Luoli, displeasure flashed across her eyes.

She took a deep breath and recalled what Tang Ya had said to her before. She suppressed the unpleasant feeling in her heart.

No matter how unhappy she was with Jiang Luoli, she couldn't show it anymore.

She would endure this anger for now. After her plan was successfully carried out, she would no longer have to see this irksome woman.

With that thought in mind, she smiled.

Chapter 1915: Want to Shake Hands With Her and Make Peace

“That’s right. Luoli can’t go hungry now. If the kitchen hasn’t finished preparing the food, eat the bird’s nest made for me first. It’s nourishing and most suitable for pregnant women.” As she spoke, she called a maid over and asked someone to bring out the stewed bird’s nest from the kitchen.

The bird’s nest was Madam Mo’s daily beauty treat.

Her action made the Old Madam even more satisfied.

The old lady looked at her with admiration. “Since Wenpei wants to dote on her daughter-in-law, then bring out her bird’s nest. Eating bird’s nest is indeed good for pregnant women. I used to eat it when I was pregnant, too. Yunchen’s skin was especially good when he was born. It was white and tender.

“My skin was also very good during pregnancy. I ate all the nourishing food.

“I still have a batch of high-quality bird’s nest. Bring it back for Luoli to eat.”

Jiang Luoli quickly said, “Thank you, Grandma.”

After hesitating for a moment, she looked at Madam Mo and said, “Thank you, Mom.”

Madam Mo looked at her with a gentle smile. “We’re already family, why are you still being so polite? Luoli, I had some misunderstandings about you previously and did some bad things. I was muddle-headed.

“Now that Mom knows that I misunderstood you, can you forgive me?

“From now on, I won’t be foolish enough to make you suffer again.”

As Madam Mo spoke, she stood up and walked over to Jiang Luoli, reaching out to hold her hand.

Jiang Luoli was stunned. When Madam Mo reached out her hand, she quietly went to hold Mo Shixiu.

Madam Mo’s hand hung awkwardly in the air. Her expression froze for a few seconds before she retracted her hand as if nothing had happened.

Tonight, Madam Mo’s actions made Jiang Luoli feel very strange.

It seemed like Madam Mo had truly realized that she had misunderstood her in the past and wanted to shake hands with her.

However, Jiang Luoli’s intuition told her that Madam Mo didn’t really want to make peace with her.

Because Jiang Luoli could feel that Madam Mo still didn’t like her.

Even if she pretended to be friendly and seemed to have accepted her.

However, Jiang Luoli could tell whether she was genuine or just pretending.

Obviously, Madam Mo wasn’t satisfied with her.

However, her behavior tonight would only make people think that she was a good mother-in-law who doted on her daughter-in-law.

Jiang Luoli didn't know if she was only acting for Mo Shixiu and the old lady to see. However, she could also act.

Madam Mo pretended to be a good mother-in-law.

Of course, she could also pretend to be a good daughter-in-law.

Hence, she smiled obediently and said, "Mom, what are you talking about? I've never been angry with you, so how can I forgive you?"

Madam Mo's expression froze.

Jiang Luoli continued, "Besides, I don't feel wronged. Shixiu is very good to me. I feel especially blessed every day with him. Speaking of which, I still have to thank Mom. Thank you for giving birth to such an outstanding son and for giving me such an outstanding husband."

After Jiang Luoli finished speaking, she felt Madam Mo's expression become even stiffer.

Just then, the maid came over and said that dinner was ready.

The old lady then called out to everyone, "Let's go and eat first. If there's anything, we can talk about it later. Don't starve Luoli."

The Old Madam never left Jiang Luoli's side. Seeing that the Old Madam valued her so much, Madam Mo became frustrated.

She had to get rid of Jiang Luoli as soon as possible.

Otherwise, the longer this dragged on, the more difficult this matter would become.

Chapter 1916: President Mo Is Too Scary

The next morning, Mo Yesi sent Qiao Mianmian to the airport and waited for her flight to leave before returning to Yun Cheng.

Wei Zheng went to the airport to pick him up.

After he got off the plane, Wei Zheng was about to report on yesterday's work when Mo Yesi asked, "How is the Shangguan family now? Have you done what I asked you to do?"

Wei Zheng was stunned. He followed closely behind Mo Yesi and immediately replied, "I've already done what President Mo wanted. I've intercepted a few collaborations between the Shangguan family and other companies."

"Spread the word again." Mo Yesi narrowed his eyes and said coldly, "From now on, the Mo Corporation will no longer cooperate with any corporation that has worked with the Shangguan family."

Wei Zheng was stunned.

He knew why President Mo was targeting the Shangguan family.

The previous few collaborations were suddenly canceled because of Young Madam.

Later on, President Mo asked him to intercept a few important collaborations between the Shangguan family and other companies. Wei Zheng felt that President Mo was still angry and could understand why he did that.

But now...

Wei Zheng felt that things were not as simple as he thought.

President Mo's actions were equivalent to cutting off all possibilities for the Shangguan family to gain a foothold in Yun Cheng.

Although they also had power and influence, Yun Cheng was the Mo Family's world, after all. They had the final say.

If the Shangguan family wanted to develop themselves in Yun Cheng, Mo Yesi's word was equivalent to a death sentence for them.

Wei Zheng felt that even if Shangguan Qing had offended Young Madam previously, she wouldn't have made President Mo make such a decision.

Could it be that there was something he didn't know?

He was stunned for a few seconds before nodding. "Yes, President Mo. I will pass down your instructions. But..."

"But what?" Mo Yesi's voice was cold.

Wei Zheng rubbed the back of his hand. He felt that the temperature of the air conditioning in the airport hall was a little low.

Why was it so cold today?

It was so cold that he had goosebumps.

He glanced at Mo Yesi's expression and carefully replied, "President Mo, the Gong and Shangguan families are also working together. Moreover, they have the intention of cooperating through marriage. If the Gong family doesn't cooperate, then we..."

"In the future, all business dealings with the Gong family will be cut off," Mo Yesi answered without hesitation.

Wei Zheng was stunned and looked surprised. "President Mo, is that really wise? The Gong and Mo families have worked together for so many years, and you and Young Master Gong are very good friends. Isn't this..."

Seeing that Mo Yesi's expression had darkened, Wei Zheng's voice became softer and softer, and he didn't dare to continue.

He wanted to ask if it was inappropriate.

In order to deal with the Shangguan family, it did not seem necessary to fall out with the Gong family.

Even if they didn't collaborate with them, it wouldn't affect the Mo Family too much. However, the Gong and Mo families had been friends for so many years, and they didn't want things to end up like this.

Especially for the sake of the Shangguan family, it was even more unnecessary.

"Didn't you hear me clearly?" Mo Yesi turned around with cold eyes. "Do you need me to repeat myself?"

"No-no need." Wei Zheng quickly waved his hand and tactfully said, "I understand what President Mo means."

God, President Mo was too scary.

Why did he become so scary after a trip to Ning City?

Chapter 1917: Killing the Shangguan Family

Could he have been angered by Young Madam?

But that wasn't right, either.

If he had been angered by Young Madam, there was no need for him to target the Shangguan family.

He didn't even care about his relationship with the Gong family anymore.

Wei Zheng became more curious.

What exactly did President Mo encounter? No, it should be said that the Shangguan family did something that made him so angry.

As soon as he returned, he wanted to eliminate them.

In addition, Wei Zheng had a feeling that the Gong family had something to do with President Mo's anger.

When he said that he would cut off all business dealings with them, he didn't hesitate at all.

If the Gong family hadn't done something to make him unhappy, he wouldn't be like this.

They left the airport.

The chauffeur was waiting outside. When he saw them come out, he quickly stepped forward and called out respectfully, "President Mo."

Mo Yesi got into the car expressionlessly.

After he got into the car, Wei Zheng thought that he would go directly to the office or go home, but Mo Yesi told the chauffeur, "To the Gong family."

"Yes, President Mo."

Wei Zheng sat in the passenger seat and looked at Mo Yesi through the rearview mirror. He felt that this matter was not as simple as it seemed.

He might have guessed correctly just now.

The Gong family might have done something that made President Mo unhappy.

And this matter was probably quite serious.

Otherwise, President Mo wouldn't have rushed over to the Gong Family the moment he got off the plane.

Thinking of the scandal between Qiao Mianmian and Gong Zeli, many guesses surfaced in Wei Zheng's mind.

He looked at Mo Yesi's gloomy face in the rearview mirror again and couldn't help but feel worried.

No matter how he looked at it, President Mo seemed to be suppressing his temper and was about to explode.

Moreover, once it erupted, it would definitely be terrifying.

If President Mo got into a fight with the Gong family, should he try to calm him?

At the Gong residence.

When the maid informed Madam Gong that Mo Yesi had arrived, Madam Gong, who was pruning the flowers, almost cut her hand.

She looked up and was stunned for a while before asking, "Mo Yesi is here? What's he doing here?"

The maid shook her head. "Mr. Mo didn't say anything. He only said that he had something to discuss with Madam."

Madam Gong's expression changed again.

She put down the scissors, and the maid quickly went over to help her up.

Madam Gong didn't look good.

Mo Yesi had never looked for her alone, and she only had a few words with this junior at some banquets. Apart from that, they had no other contact.

But now...

Mo Yesi suddenly came to the Gong residence and said he was looking for her.

He must be here for something.

And if it wasn't something important, he wouldn't have personally come.

Thinking about some things, Madam Gong's expression turned even uglier. She started to panic.

She asked the maid, "How did he look when you saw him?"

The maid answered truthfully, "I don't think Mr. Mo is very happy. He didn't look too good."

Madam Gong bit her lip.

She hesitated for a few seconds before saying, "Invite him in."

"Yes, ma'am."

Madam Gong was very uneasy as she waited.

She could roughly guess why Mo Yesi was looking for her, but she was hoping that he wouldn't find out so easily.

After a while, Madam Gong heard footsteps.

"Madam, Mr. Mo is here." The maid brought Mo Yesi into the hall.

Chapter 1918: I Must Settle This Score

Madam Gong looked up and saw that the handsome young man in front of her was expressionless. He looked at her as if he was wrapped in ice. Madam Gong was shocked.

It wasn't her first time meeting Mo Yesi.

In the past, when he met this junior, even though he also had a cold and indifferent appearance, he still had manners. He was also not this aggressive and cold.

Even in her own home, Madam Gong felt helpless.

"Yesi, are you here for Zeli?" Madam Gong took a deep breath and forced herself to calm down. Pretending to be calm, she said, "Unfortunately, Zeli isn't home these few days."

Mo Yesi stared at her coldly for a few seconds before saying, "Auntie Gong, I'm here for you."

Madam Gong's heart skipped a beat.

She tried her best to keep her emotions in check, but her eyes were shining brightly. "Looking for me? Why?"

"Yesi, sit down first. We can talk about it slowly." Madam Gong then said to the maid beside her, "Hurry up and make a cup of tea for Young Master Mo. Why are you standing there?"

"Aunt Gong, there's no need for that." Mo Yesi looked into her guilty eyes, and his eyes narrowed. "I'm here to ask Aunt Gong something. I want to know how my wife, Qiao Mianmian, offended you. Why you got someone to do that to her."

"What, Qiao Mianmian is your wife?" Madam Gong's expression changed. "You and her... you're married?!"

Madam Gong was extremely shocked.

Mo Yesi looked at her coldly. "Before Auntie Gong found someone to deal with my wife, didn't you find out about her background? The Bai family's precious daughter, my precious wife, was almost ruined by you, Auntie Gong. Are you going against the Mo and Bai families by doing this?"

Madam Gong had yet to recover from the shock of learning that Qiao Mianmian had married Mo Yesi when she was shocked again by the fact that Qiao Mianmian was the daughter of the Bai family.

She said in disbelief, "What did you say? Qiao Mianmian is the Bai family's daughter? Aren't they still looking for her..."

"That's right. She's the daughter the Bai family has been looking for. My in-laws finally found their precious daughter after much difficulty, but Auntie Gong trampled on her like this?"

"The baby that I, Mo Yesi, dote on. I usually can't even bear to speak loudly to her. But Auntie Gong trampled on her?"

Madam Gong was so shocked that she couldn't utter a word.

She had asked someone to look into Qiao Mianmian's background, but they didn't find anything.

If she had known that Qiao Mianmian was already married to Mo Yesi and was even the daughter of the Bai family, she wouldn't have done that unless she was crazy.

"No, Yesi. There must be a misunderstanding." Madam Gong quickly explained, "I didn't know she was married to you. If I had known..."

"You don't know, so you can get someone to do that to her?" Mo Yesi's gaze turned colder. "I don't care if there are any misunderstandings, I only care about the outcome. Madam Gong, what you did has hurt my wife greatly. I have to settle this score."

Chapter 1919: Undisguised Killing Intent

"Then, then what do you want?" Madam Gong took a step back in fear. "Yes, I asked someone to do that. But, but didn't she avoid it? Isn't she fine?"

"Besides, I didn't ask that person to do that. I just wanted to scare her.

"If it weren't for the rumors about her and Zeli, I wouldn't have mistaken her for some indecent woman. Would I have done that otherwise?"

"You said that she's married to you, but why hasn't your marriage been made public? If you don't, who will know that you're married?"

Madam Gong was very scared at first, but after being angered by Mo Yesi, her attitude became tougher.

She said righteously, "If you guys don't tell me, how will I know? She's already married, but she still acts like she's single. If she didn't do something so misleading, those things wouldn't have happened.

"Yesi, I think you should pay more attention. Why does your wife always have scandals with other men? It's fine if it's with one person, but with so many people, is she really innocent?"

As soon as Madam Gong finished speaking, she felt as if she was frozen.

It was extremely cold.

She looked up and met a pair of murderous eyes.

That's right. Murderous.

This was Madam Gong's first time seeing such a terrifying Mo Yesi.

There was no expression on his face, and his eyes were frighteningly cold. He had a terrifying aura as if a storm was brewing, and his gaze was vicious and murderous.

That undisguised murderous intent frightened Madam Gong.

She took two steps back with eyes filled with fear.

She heard a "pop".

Madam Gong screamed, only to see Mo Yesi kick the coffee table, causing the things on it to fall onto the floor.

The few maids standing in the hall were also scared pale.

Madam Gong was terrified. "Mo Yesi, w-what are you doing?!"

Mo Yesi kicked the coffee table over and looked up, his cold and handsome face full of ruthlessness. "Madam Gong, my wife has a good character. She's not a promiscuous woman. I didn't fight you because you're an elder. But if you dare to slander my wife again, don't blame me for not showing you any mercy.

"Not everyone can bully my wife. I'll settle this score with the Gong family."

Mo Yesi then kicked a vase away.

With a "bang", the vase hit the wall and shattered into pieces.

Madam Gong shrieked again.

Mo Yesi turned around and left.

After he left.

After holding on for so long, Madam Gong was so frightened that her legs went soft and she fell to the ground.

"Madam." The maid rushed to her side and helped her up.

Madam Gong's legs were still weak and she couldn't muster any strength.

She had been living like a princess since she was young. She had lived a life of wealth and superiority without any setbacks. Everyone around her was polite to her.. She had never been treated so violently before.

Chapter 1920: Is He Crazy?

He was still a member of the younger generation.

Even if Mo Yesi didn't do anything to her, Madam Gong was still scared out of her wits.

"Is he crazy?!" Madam Gong's face was pale as she pressed a hand to her chest. Her lips were still trembling from the shock. She was both angry and afraid as she said, "He's too impudent. Did you see that? How dare he be so impudent!"

"This is Gong family, and I'm his elder. How can he treat his elders like this!"

"I want to go to the Mo Family to ask Madam Mo and Old Madam Mo if this is how they bring up their children."

Madam Gong was furious.

She was humiliated in front of so many servants in her own home.

This would damage her dignity as the mistress of the Gong family.

In the future, what prestige would she have in front of the servants? A junior could bully her as he pleased.

The few maids standing in the hall looked at each other for a moment without saying anything.

They were also shocked just now.

When Mo Yesi lost his temper, no one dared to stop him.

Mo Yesi's actions just now were indeed very rude and impudent. He didn't care about the relationship between the Gong and Mo families at all.

However, everyone in the upper-class society knew that the second young master of the Mo Family was not someone to offend.

Their Young Master had a bad temper and was famous in Yun Cheng's upper-class society and even the entire city.

The difference between the Second Young Master of the Mo Family and their Young Master was that he would not display his bad temper as their Young Master did. Whether or not he was angry, he seemed to have the same expression and did not show much emotion.

But that did not mean that he had no temper.

On the contrary, when a person who usually did not show his emotions got angry, he would be even scarier than a person with a bad temper.

He didn't erupt easily, but once he did, it meant that he had already endured to the extreme.

It sounded like Madam Gong had done something to his wife, which was why she had made him angry.

From the looks of it, Second Young Master Mo was really protective of his wife and doted on her.

However...

When did Second Young Master Mo get married? Why did he suddenly have a wife?

No one had heard of this before.

Didn't they say that Second Young Master Mo was not interested in women?

The maids looked at Madam Gong, who was so angry that she looked like she was going to faint at any moment, but they were all concerned about something else. Who exactly was Second Young Master Mo's wife?

What kind of person was she to be able to make the Second Young Master of the Mo Family, who was rumored to be "not interested in women", marry her?

How outstanding must she be in order to gain his favor?

After all, even the eldest daughter of the Shen family did not catch Second Young Master Mo's eye.

The butler witnessed everything and realized the seriousness of the matter. He quickly called Gong Zeli.

"Young Master, please come back quickly. Just now, Second Young Master Mo came to look for Madam. He lost his temper and smashed everything in the house. Madam was quite frightened."

...

Mo Yesi was still angry after leaving the Gong residence.

Having accompanied him, Wei Zheng was so scared that he didn't even dare to breathe loudly.

He finally understood why President Mo was so angry.

It turned out that Madam Gong was the one who had instigated Young Madam to be almost... almost raped.

So, he felt that President Mo's actions today were already very restrained.
