

Big Shot 231

Chapter 231: She Shouldn't Promise Him

How could he do this?

She didn't even dare to move in his arms.

"Baby, you can feel it, right? I feel very distressed now, help me..." His voice became muffled and unspeakably sultry. Just listening to his voice was enough to make Qiao Mianmian's heart tremble.

Her face turned red and hot, but she didn't dare to move. Her eyes were flushed with anxiety as she stuttered, "You- You can solve it yourself."

Didn't men know how to please themselves already?

He could do that too.

Why did she have to help him?

"Honey." The man buried his head in her neck and rubbed against her, whining. "I don't want to solve it by myself. Help me."

Hearing him call her "Honey" was enough to make her heart jump wildly again.

In the end, she still failed to resist Mo Yesi's repeated temptations and pitiful expressions. She ended up using another method to solve the problem for him.

After washing her hands, the man carried her out of the bathroom. Her face was still red and her eyes were full of complaints.

She shouldn't have promised him!

Her hands... were so sore.

Moreover, if she hadn't urged him repeatedly, he wouldn't have ended it so soon.

If she hadn't urged him, according to his normal timing, her hands would probably cramp.

Mo Yesi was full of satisfaction at this moment.

Although this method wasn't completely satisfactory, it was much better than holding back.

He was finally not so uncomfortable now.

The satisfied man glanced at the resentful petite woman in his arms and happily smirked. He coaxed softly, "Baby, are your hands still sore? I'll massage them for you?"

When Qiao Mianmian thought of the shameful scene just now, she felt both ashamed and annoyed. She didn't want to talk to him at all.

He was... too despicable!

He looked so innocent and restrained, but during that time, he changed into a completely different person and frightened her with his passion.

She ignored him, but Mo Yesi didn't mind at all.

At such a time, a man's patience was incredible.

He carried her to the bed and was about to place her on it when there was a knock on the door.

"Young Madam, Young Master. Lunch is ready."

Lei En's voice sounded outside the door. "Mr. Qiao Chen is waiting for you to have lunch together."

Mo Yesi stopped and turned around while holding her.

He looked down at her and smirked. "Baby, are you hungry? Shall we go down and eat?"

Still annoyed by the incident, Qiao Mianmian glared at him and said, "Put me down, I can walk by myself. I don't want you to carry me."

Qiao Chen was also there.

She was too embarrassed to let him carry her down.

Otherwise, Qiao Chen would tease her about it again.

Most importantly, Qiao Mianmian really didn't want to talk to him now.

At the sight of him, she couldn't help remembering what had just happened in the bathroom.

Mo Yesi also knew that she was still awkward about such matters and didn't want to annoy her further, so he immediately put her down.

As soon as her feet landed on the ground, she walked quickly out the door, as if someone was chasing her from behind.

She rushed out of the bedroom without looking back.

Staring at the petite escaping figure, Mo Yesi stood in place with the corner of his lips curled up slightly. A gloomy light flashed at the bottom of his deep eyes.

Heh, she thought she could escape.

He was only letting her go for a while.

When the day came where he could touch her again, he would return with greater intensity.

Chapter 232: What? Did You Really Break Up?

Qiao Mianmian blushed and went downstairs.

Qiao Chen asked suspiciously the moment he saw her, "Sister, why is your face so red? Are you feeling unwell?"

"No."

In the face of Qiao Chen's inquiring and suspicious gaze, Qiao Mianmian felt a moment of a guilty conscience.

As if she had been seen through.

Even if she knew it, Qiao Chen couldn't possibly tell.

After all, Qiao Chen had never been in a relationship before.

But she blushed even harder at the thought of the shameful happening.

Her face was uncontrollably hot.

"Huh, where's Brother-in-law?"

Qiao Mianmian looked around and saw that Mo Yesi hadn't come down with her.

"Cough, cough, your brother-in-law... will be down soon."

Her eyes flickered twice and her face turned red at the mention of Mo Yesi.

Seeing her reaction, Qiao Chen felt even more suspicious.

He frowned and stared at her. "Sister, are you hiding something from me?"

"I'm not!"

Her eyes flickered again, and she dared not look into his eyes. She buried her head and sat down opposite him, then picked up her chopsticks and randomly grabbed a piece of vegetable. "Chen Chen, your brother-in-law's chef is very good. Give it a taste."

Qiao Chen was speechless.

He felt like there was definitely something up.

His brother-in-law hadn't come down yet, but she was already starting her meal?

His sister wasn't such an impolite person.

Her unusual behavior seemed to be deliberately averting his focus.

"Sister, you--"

He was about to say something when Qiao Mianmian's phone rang.

She breathed a sigh of relief when she heard her phone ring, and immediately took it out.

But when she looked down and saw the name displayed on the screen, her face fell.

The phone was still ringing, but Qiao Mianmian hesitated to answer the call.

Qiao Chen could tell that something was wrong and hurriedly asked, "Sister, who is it?"

Qiao Mianmian glanced up at him. "Aunt Su."

Qiao Chen's expression also changed. "Aunt Su? Sister, you already broke up with Su Ze, why is Aunt Su calling you?"

"I haven't told them about our breakup."

She thought for a moment before continuing, "Maybe she's calling me because of this."

The phone rang two or three more times before Qiao Mianmian picked it up hesitantly.

"Hello, Aunt Su."

"Mianmian." A middle-aged woman's voice sounded agitated. She said in a high-pitched voice, "Su Ze told me that you have broken up with him, is that true?"

After a few seconds of silence, Qiao Mianmian replied, "Aunt Su, it's true."

"What? You really broke up? When did this happen, how come Uncle Su and I don't know anything about it? Mianmian, why did you break up with Su Ze? Weren't you guys doing well and about to get married?"

The middle-aged woman sounded very sad and she continued to whisper, "Mianmian, it was going well, why did you break up? You and Su Ze have known each other for so many years, I already treat you as my own daughter. How could you break up?"

"Did Su Ze let you down? Tell me about it, I'll help you lecture him."

"Mianmian, you can tell me if you have any problems. Uncle Su and I are definitely on your side. But breaking up is not a trivial matter, you can't be so impulsive."

Chapter 233: So... He Wasn't Happy?

Qiao Mianmian was silent for a few moments. As much as she hated to break her heart, she said, "Aunt Su, I'm not being impulsive. This is the decision I made after serious consideration. Su Ze and I can never get back together."

She did not know that when she said that, Mo Yesi had stopped in his tracks for a while and stood behind her.

A while later.

Qiao Mianmian toned down her voice. "Aunt Su, don't be too upset. Although Su Ze and I have broken up, you and I can always meet up if you miss me."

"Alright, I know. I'll go over."

Qiao Mianmian hung up.

Her brows were slightly furrowed as she kept her cell phone and said to Qiao Chen, "Chen Chen, I need to make a trip down to the Su's place. Su Ze and I had a marriage contract, it's best that I talk this out with his parents formally."

As she said that, the expression of the man standing behind her darkened.

Qiao Chen saw it and quickly tried to hint to her.

Qiao Mianmian looked at how his eyelids seemed to be twitching. "Chen Chen, are your eyes alright?"

Qiao Chen was speechless.

"Sister, Brother-in-law is here..." Qiao Chen pointed to something behind her.

Qiao Mianmian turned around and saw Mo Yesi standing behind her.

He was less than a meter away.

She looked at how serious his expression was and guessed that he must have heard her.

He knew she was going to the Su's household.

So... he wasn't happy?

Mo Yesi was a rather possessive person. He hoped that she wouldn't have anything to do with the Su family after her breakup with Su Ze.

But this wasn't so easy in reality.

It was fine for her not to meet Su Ze or have anything to do with him alone. But it was impossible for her to cut all ties with the rest of the Su family.

It was Su Ze who betrayed her.

Aunt Su and Uncle Su did not do anything wrong.

Although she wasn't able to forgive Su Ze, she didn't hold any grudge against his parents.

Aunt Su had called her, asking her to make a trip down to their home.

She said she wanted to discuss the rescission of the marriage contract.

Her contract with Su Ze was agreed upon when they were much younger. She agreed that since they wanted to rescind it, it did make sense that they had a formal, official procedure for it.

"You heard what I said?" Qiao Mianmian asked.

She had to make a trip down, whether Mo Yesi liked it or not.

She needed to settle the marriage contract once and for all.

It wouldn't do them any good in the future if there were loose ends.

She could tell that Mo Yesi was unhappy, but she swallowed the pressure and said, "Su Ze's parents didn't know about our breakup. His mother called me just now to ask that we discuss this in person."

“So, I have to go to the Su’s home.”

The man frowned and kept quiet for a while before asking, “Su Ze is at home too?”

“I guess.”

She hadn’t asked his mother over the phone.

But she guessed he should be at home too.

Su Ze had probably just told his parents about it, so his mother immediately gave her a call to confirm it.

Mo Yesi pursed his lips and then held her hand, leading her to the dining table.

“Mo Yesi-”

Qiao Mianmian wrenched her hand off his grip after taking a few steps. “I’m going there to rescind the agreement once and for all. Once I’ve settled it, I’ll be back immediately. Don’t...”

Chapter 234: I’ll Send You There

She explained it to Mo Yesi because she thought that he wasn’t willing to let her go.

“Eat first.”

The man led her to the dining table and the housemaid immediately pulled the chair for her.

He pressed on her shoulders gently to get her to sit.

The man tapped his slender fingers on the white table and then looked into her eyes. “I’ll send you there after we eat.”

Qiao Mianmian was a little shocked. “It’s alright, I can go there on my own.”

He detested Su Ze so much.

She was afraid they might fight if they met.

Mo Yesi looked at her deeply and smiled. “Baby, do you think I’ll let you go there alone?”

Qiao Mianmian: “Uh...”

She didn’t think so.

He wouldn’t want her to.

“There’s nothing to discuss here.” The man smiled tenderly but sounded firm. “I’ll send you there.”

“Sis, I’ll go with you too!”

Qiao Chen heard them speaking and added, “Brother-in-law and I will send you there together to support you. If the Su family is mean to you, I’ll beat them up.”

Qiao Chen waved a fist.

He wasn't worried about Su Ze's parents being mean to his sister.

It was that jerk Su Ze he was worried about.

"Yes."

Mo Yesi scooped some food into Qiao Mianmian's bowl and nodded. "You come along too. We'll support her together."

"That's right!"

Qiao Chen scooped some fish into Qiao Mianmian's bowl as well and smiled. "Sister, how could Brother-in-law and I possibly let you do this alone? If anything happens, we'd be too far away to help you.

"Let us come along with you."

Qiao Mianmian looked at the man beside her and Qiao Chen opposite her. After hesitating for a few seconds, she nodded helplessly.

"Alright then."

It didn't seem like she could disagree anyway.

But she felt a need to preempt them before going over.

She said to Qiao Chen, "Chen Chen. When we get there, you've got to hold your temper and not do anything rash."

She wasn't afraid that Qiao Chen would hurt the Su family.

She was worried that Qiao Chen's heart wouldn't be able to take it if he got agitated.

After all, he'd only just been discharged.

Qiao Chen knew what she was worried about too and nodded sensibly. "Sister, don't worry. I won't neglect my health."

At the Su household.

Mother Su hung up the phone and looked at Su Ze standing before her. Her eyes were bloodshot as she asked, "Ah Ze, why exactly did you and Mianmian break up? Did you let her down or betray her in any way?"

"Tell me honestly!"

Su Ze looked a little guilty for a while, but he quickly recovered. "Mom, Mianmian and I just lost feelings for each other, so we broke up amicably.

"You should know that feelings can't be forced. I know you and Dad like her a lot and hope that we can get married. But we've really lost feelings for each other."

“Lost feelings?” Mother Su glared at him. “The both of you were just discussing your marriage not too long ago, and now you tell me you’ve lost feelings? Ah Ze, I’m your mom, the one who raised you since you were born. Do you think I don’t know my son? You really think I’ll buy this?”

Chapter 235: Anxin, This Gift of Yours Is Too Valuable

“Tell me honestly, what exactly did you do to Mianmian that she’d be so angry with you?”

From Mother Su’s point of view, it must have been her son’s fault that this happened.

It couldn’t be because of Qiao Mianmian that they broke up.

“Mom, I…”

Su Ze was just about to explain things when a housemaid walked over, bowed to both of them, and said, “Madam, Young Master, Second Miss Qiao is here.”

Mother Su frowned. “Second Miss Qiao? What’s she here for?”

Mother Su didn’t quite like Qiao Anxin.

Though it wasn’t like she hated her either.

She was just rather neutral towards Qiao Anxin compared to her treatment towards Qiao Mianmian.

If it was Qiao Mianmian who came, she’d be very happy.

Su Ze’s expression changed slightly as he looked at the housemaid and said calmly, “Bring her in.”

“Yes, Young Master.”

The housemaid left and returned a few minutes later with Qiao Anxin.

Qiao Anxin was wearing a short black dress and had on exquisite makeup. She was holding a bouquet of flowers and carrying a paper bag of a luxury brand.

She had a sweet smile on as she walked towards Mother Su.

“Aunt, I heard from Brother Ah Ze that your birthday is coming up in a few days. I’ll be overseas for a shoot then and won’t be able to celebrate your birthday with you. So I decided to get you some gifts in advance, I hope you’ll like them.”

She handed the bag to Mother Su.

She then passed the bouquet of flowers to the housemaid and smiled. “I even bought your favorite lilies. They’re a new breed air-mailed from overseas and are a lot prettier than the common ones. Do you like them?”

Mother Su was taken aback for a few moments.

She had no idea how to react.

Especially when she didn’t have much feelings towards Qiao Anxin—be it liking or dislike.

She hesitated for a while before receiving the bag from her with a smile. "Anxin, you're too kind. Our family has known your family for a long time, you don't have to be so civil with Aunt."

Qiao Anxin smiled. "Aunt, I'm not too sure what you like, so I bought it based on my intuition. Take a look and see if you like it?"

Su Ze added, "That's right, Mom. Anxin took a lot of time and effort to pick this gift for you. See if you like it?"

Both of them were in sync with each other.

Although they weren't saying anything odd or uncommon, Mother Su detected a hint of unusual intimacy between them.

She eyed both of them suspiciously but did not think too much.

She then took a sandalwood box out of the paper bag. Upon opening it up, she saw that it was a beautiful jade bangle.

Mother Su did have some knowledge of jade, and just by seeing its color and patterns, she could tell that it was worth a few million yuan.

The shock in her eyes was unmistakable as she slowly closed the box. She looked up at Qiao Anxin. "Anxin, this gift of yours is too valuable."

The Qiao family wasn't doing as well as before.

Although Qiao Anxin was making money as a celebrity, a few million yuan worth of a gift was too much for Mother Su.

After all, she wasn't exactly close to this second daughter of the Qiao family.

Why would she get her such an expensive gift?

"It's alright as long as Aunt likes it." Qiao Anxin looked sensible and nice. "Moreover, Aunt is of great status, it's only fitting that I get you something this valuable. Otherwise, how could it be good enough for you?"

Chapter 236: In That Case, You Didn't Wish to Breakup With Her?

She gave her such an expensive gift and even got her favorite lilies.

It was evident that she had put in the effort for this.

Moreover, she knew how to use the right words. Even if Mother Su didn't take a liking to her immediately, her impression of her would have improved.

Her attitude towards Qiao Anxin was a lot better now. She smiled and said, "Child, you've put in much effort. Don't remain standing here. Come and take a seat. Quick, prepare some tea for Miss Qiao."

Qiao Anxin smiled as a trace of smugness flashed in her eyes.

She sat opposite Mother Su and kindly said, "Thank you, Aunt."

Su Ze waited for her to sit before taking the seat beside her.

They were seated very close to each other.

Although they were on separate couches, it seemed as if they were sharing one.

Mother Su saw that and the strange feeling crept up inside her again.

There were other seats.

Why did Su Ze pick that particular one so close to Qiao Anxin?

After Qiao Anxin had sat down, she turned towards Su Ze and signaled for him to quickly let Mother Su know about them.

The objective of her visit was actually to let her know about her relationship with Su Ze.

Su Ze got the hint and hesitated for a while before testing the waters. "Mom, although Mianmian and I have broken up, our marriage contract had been signed since we were young children. If we just rescind it, would our Su family appear bad?"

Mother Su's smile faded slightly upon hearing this.

She glared at Su Ze. "You actually considered this?"

Su Ze smiled. "Mianmian was the one who initiated the breakup. She insisted on leaving me, what was I to do?"

Upon hearing how helpless he sounded, Mother Su felt hopeful again. "In that case, you didn't wish to break up with her?"

Su Ze opened his mouth. "I..."

He had intended to deny it.

But he actually hesitated.

At that moment, he did feel like he actually didn't wish to break up with Qiao Mianmian.

If Qiao Anxin hadn't gotten pregnant so suddenly.

If Qiao Mianmian hadn't found out about him and Qiao Anxin, he wouldn't have broken up with her.

He'd never wanted to get serious with Qiao Anxin from the very beginning.

The wife he had always wanted was Qiao Mianmian.

He really loved her.

His best and purest moments as a young man had all been given to him by Qiao Mianmian.

With Qiao Anxin, all he sought was a thrill.

Qiao Mianmian was too conservative. She'd been unwilling to let him have her body even after being with him for so long.

He was a normal man.

After being rejected by her for so many times, Qiao Anxin suddenly appeared when he needed somewhere to seek pleasure from.

And the events followed.

Qiao Anxin wasn't as beautiful as Qiao Mianmian, and her figure wasn't as good too. But she was good in bed.

She filled the gap that Qiao Mianmian left in him and provided him with the excitement.

Qiao Mianmian was in his heart, but his body longed for Qiao Anxin.

His initial plan was to marry Qiao Mianmian but to have Qiao Anxin as his mistress.

Who would've guessed that Qiao Anxin would get pregnant?

On that thought, Su Ze's brows furrowed.

His silence was bothering Qiao Anxin.

A coughing fit ensued.

Qiao Anxin covered her mouth as she coughed, taking the chance to kick him under the coffee table.

Chapter 237: Mom, You Don't Have to Make Things Sound So Awful

Only then did Su Ze react.

He looked up, saw the fire in Qiao Anxin's eyes, and hurriedly added, "Mom, I don't mean that. What I mean is that, even though she and I have broken up, our families can still have the marriage contract."

Mother Su was confused. "How?"

Su Ze hesitated for a while. "Back then, the marriage contract stipulated that if the Qiao family had a daughter, I would marry her. Mom, Anxin is also the daughter of the Qiao family."

Mother Su was taken aback.

A few seconds later, her eyes widened in shock.

She stood up with a look of disbelief and pointed towards Su Ze and Qiao Anxin as her voice quivered. "Y-You both..."

It was obvious now. Su Ze did not want to hide their relationship anymore.

He held Qiao Anxin's hand and stood up. "Mom. Anxin and I are already together."

Qiao Anxin pursed her lips and leaned towards Su Ze like a girl in need of support. She looked sincere as she said, "Aunt, Brother Ah Ze and I are truly in love with each other. Please give us your blessings."

Right after she said that she saw a teacup soaring towards her.

She quickly ducked into Su Ze's arms and called out, "Brother Ah Ze."

Su Ze saw it too.

He held Qiao Anxin and quickly evaded it.

A sharp sound rang out.

The ceramic teacup was shattered on the ground.

Some of the hot tea splashed onto Qiao Anxin's leg.

"In your dreams!"

Mother Su was enraged and shaking from the anger. "You shameless woman. Mianmian is your biological sister, and you actually took her man from her! How can you be so disgusting!

"So Mianmian broke up with Ah Ze because of you!

"Why did you seduce my son of all men? He was about to marry Mianmian already. Don't you feel any guilt at all doing this?"

Mother Su never would've expected this to be the reason Qiao Mianmian and Su Ze broke up.

Her son was actually involved with the second daughter of the Qiao family.

Mother Su felt as if she'd been slapped on the face.

She'd actually thought of bringing Su Ze and Qiao Mianmian back together.

She really liked Qiao Mianmian and wanted her to be the daughter-in-law of the Su family.

But...

After finding out about this, Mother Su was clear that it was impossible now.

She knew Qiao Mianmian well.

That girl was gentle and mild-tempered and seemed easygoing.

But deep down, she wasn't fragile or easy to convince.

If it concerned her principles, she would never compromise.

At this point, Mother Su felt disappointment, anger, and pity.

She never thought that the son she'd been so proud of would do something so unforgivable!

It was already overboard that he cheated. It was unimaginable that the other party was the second daughter of their family.

Qiao Anxin's expression had turned awful from all the scolding as she held Su Ze tightly.

She clenched her teeth in anger, but when she looked up again, her pitiful front had replaced it.

"Brother Ah Ze," she called out sadly.

Su Ze looked down at her pitiful expression and immediately felt bad for her.

He held her tighter and tried to defend her. "Mom, you don't have to make things sound so awful."

Chapter 238: She's Carrying the Su Family's Grandchild

"In any case, Mianmian and I are over, we can never get back together. Anxin did a lot for me and made sacrifices too. I'll be responsible for her and marry her."

"What are you saying?!" Mother Su looked at him in disbelief.

Su Ze took a deep breath. "I said, I'll be responsible for Anxin."

"You jerk, how did I give birth to this jerk of a son!"

Mother Su went forward and gave him a tight slap to the face. "Mianmian is such a nice girl, but you didn't cherish her. You actually did such a terrible thing to hurt her. I really have to teach you a lesson today, so you'd know what's right and what's wrong!"

With that, she raised her arm again.

"Aunt, don't hit Brother Ah Ze!"

Qiao Anxin grabbed Mother Su's hand and stepped between the mother and son. She cried, "Brother Ah Ze isn't in the wrong, it was me who deliberately seduced him. I'm shameless and despicable. I wasn't able to control my feelings and ended up falling for him."

"He's a normal man, he just wasn't able to resist the temptations."

"It was also I who forced them to break up. I was behind all of it alone. Hit me if you must, don't hit Brother Ah Ze."

Mother Su was infuriated.

Her hand was shaking from all that she'd heard.

"Very well, you vixen!"

She grabbed Qiao Anxin's wrist and used her hand to slap her. "You shameless woman, return my daughter-in-law. You seduced your sister's man and caused me to lose a great daughter-in-law like Mianmian. Return her to me!"

"Mom, you can't hit Anxin."

Su Ze quickly came forward to stop her the moment Mother Su hit her.

"Stand aside, let me teach this vixen a lesson!"

The more he wanted to stop her, the angrier she got.

Su Ze stepped between Mother Su and Qiao Anxin.

“Mom.”

He pursed his lips for a moment and said to his agitated mother, “Anxin is pregnant. She’s carrying the Su family’s grandchild, you can’t hit her.”

“What? What did you say?!” Mother Su was completely stunned.

Su Ze closed his eyes and took another deep breath. He repeated, “Anxin is pregnant, she’s carrying your grandchild.”

“She’s carrying my grandchild?”

This statement was like a bomb that went off in Mother Su’s heart.

“Aunt, the baby is about two months old. I went for a check-up the other day, it’s a healthy baby.” Qiao Anxin slowly emerged from behind Su Ze.

A hint of smugness flashed past her eyes, but she maintained her sensible persona. “Brother Ah Ze and I decided to get married earlier because of this child. Aunt, you wouldn’t want this child to be born into an incomplete family, right?”

“Aunt, I truly love Brother Ah Ze. Otherwise, I wouldn’t be carrying his baby while my career is taking off. Being pregnant has a huge impact on my work too. So, I hope you can give us your blessings.”

Su Ze put his arm around Qiao Anxin. He couldn’t help but feel touched by how Qiao Anxin had taken the blame and tried to protect and defend him with all she could.

Chapter 239: Your Heart Cannot Waver Anymore

He felt even more protective of her now.

He glanced at the woman in his arms and said firmly, “Mom, Anxin is already carrying my child, I have to marry her.”

...

The black Roll-Royce stopped at the entrance of the Su family villa.

Qiao Mianmian unbuckled her seatbelt.

She looked at the man beside her and thought for a while before saying, “You and Chen Chen can wait for me in the car. I’ll settle things quickly. If anything happens, I’ll give you a call.”

She was here today to settle her marriage contract with Su Ze.

Not to show her power.

If she had Mo Yesi and Qiao Chen come along, it would appear as if she was the one who cheated with another man.

By then, she'd seem like she was in the wrong.

She didn't want that to happen.

Mo Yesi was able to handle the complexities at work. It was evident that his thought processes and logical thinking surpassed the average person.

He'd already thought of what Qiao Mianmian had been considering.

He nodded. "Alright."

Qiao Mianmian grabbed her bag and was about to open the car door.

"Wait."

The man's low but gentle voice could be heard.

She turned around. "What is it?"

Mo Yesi smiled and stroked her hair. "Promise me something, then I'll feel better about letting you go."

Qiao Mianmian blinked. "What's it?"

Mo Yesi looked at her deeply for a moment. "No matter how nice Su Ze's parents are to you and what they're about to say to you, you can't be soft-hearted. Qiao Mianmian, you're already married to me. You're my wife now. Your heart cannot waver anymore.

"I can't let that happen."

There was no response.

Qiao Mianmian understood it right away.

He was actually worried that she might get back with Su Ze because of his parents?

She felt that he was overthinking it.

Even if they weren't married, she would never return to Su Ze.

This was a man who cheated on her with her sister. How could she tolerate it?

It was impossible even if Su Ze begged her.

She did have some feelings for his parents, but that had nothing to do with forgiving Su Ze.

Moreover, she had such an outstanding husband now. She had no interest in turning back.

But the thought of this man here being insecure of himself because he loved and cared for her made Qiao Mianmian feel warm.

She smiled and reached out to wrap her arms around his neck, giving him a kiss on his lips while he was caught off-guard. She didn't even care if Qiao Chen would laugh at her over this.

The kiss lasted only a second.

It left as quickly as it came, all before he managed to react.

“Mm, I promise you. I’ll properly cut my ties with Su Ze.”

With that, Qiao Mianmian hopped out of the car before Mo Yesi snapped back to his senses.

“Bam!”

The door was shut as the beating of her heart got louder.

Qiao Mianmian’s face was burning.

It was as if steam was escaping every pore on her cheeks.

Chapter 240: It Bore a Very Different Meaning

Her heart was pounding wildly against her chest.

It was with a force that threatened to burst her ribs open.

She quickly placed her hand on her chest in an attempt to calm it.

This was her first time taking the initiative to kiss a man.

She’d never dared to do something so daring.

Even when she was with Su Ze, he had been the one making the move.

She herself had no idea what got over her at that moment that would cause her to do that.

In hindsight, it was really embarrassing.

It was a moment where her guts and impulse met.

If she could go back in time, she didn’t think she could bring herself to kiss Mo Yesi again.

...

Outside the car, Qiao Mianmian was recovering from the agitation.

Inside the car, the man who’d been kissed was stunned.

Mo Yesi was still in the same position, with the same expression. He hadn’t moved an inch.

It was just a peck on his lips. It probably wouldn’t even qualify as a proper “kiss”.

That was only a split moment of contact.

But even that “kiss” could stun Mo Yesi for a long time.

He looked like a boy who’d never done anything like this.

In his head, the scene where Qiao Mianmian kissed him kept replaying.

She’d always been a shy and timid woman.

It must've taken so much courage for her to do that.

This was Qiao Mianmian's first time kissing him of her own accord.

This kiss bore a very different meaning for Mo Yesi.

A whole minute later, he turned around and looked out the window with a smile.

His fingers touched his lips where the kiss had been planted.

Qiao Chen, sitting in the front passenger's seat, after witnessing the scene through the rearview mirror, was in shock as well. He even wondered if that girl really was his sister.

Since when had his sister become so proactive in a relationship?

She probably hadn't done such a thing with Su Ze before too.

But Qiao Chen felt comforted by that thought.

It seemed like his sister was finally opening up.

She was learning to take the initiative with the man she liked.

Mm, this was good.

Men liked it when women took the initiative sometimes.

And the way his brother-in-law smiled said it all.

"Brother-in-law."

Qiao Mianmian looked out of the window too and saw Qiao Mianmian entering the Su household. "We really don't have to follow her in?"

"Mm, let's just wait here."

That kiss lifted Mo Yesi's spirits and the joy could be heard in his clear voice. "When your sister has settled this, I'll take you to have a look at the cars. Just let me know which you like, it'll my gift to you.

"But don't let your sister know about it. She doesn't really approve of me giving you a car."

Initially, Qiao Chen had thought that Mo Yesi only casually mentioned buying him a car as part of small talk.

He didn't think he meant it.

But now that he realized Mo Yesi really had that intention, he asked excitedly, "Brother-in-law, y-you're really getting me a car?"
