

Big Shot 2381

Chapter 2381: I Knew You Wouldn't Leave Me Alone

He definitely still had her in his heart.

"Zeli, I'm really in pain." Shen Rou's tears rolled down her cheeks, making her look even more pitiful. "I think I sprained my leg. I can't move."

Shen Rou wasn't lying.

She really couldn't move her legs.

That fall really hurt her.

Hence, her tears weren't fake. She was really crying.

She knew that the people around her were talking about her with ill intentions.

She lay on the ground and listened to them talk and point at her. Pain, embarrassment, aggrievedness, and anger surged in her heart, causing tears to fall uncontrollably down her cheeks.

She thought that even if Gong Zeli had a heart of stone, he wouldn't be so indifferent.

Thus, she used this opportunity to test if he really had no feelings for her.

If he was willing to turn around and help her up, it meant that he still cared about her.

Shen Rou looked up at him with teary eyes.

She waited for almost a minute before that slender figure finally walked towards her.

Shen Rou smiled.

She knew it, she knew it!

She knew that Gong Zeli still cared about her.

Seeing him walk towards her, Shen Rou wiped the tears off her face and looked up. "Zeli, I knew you wouldn't leave me alone."

Gong Zeli stopped in front of her.

He didn't reach out to pull her up as Shen Rou thought.

He looked at her pale face and swollen eyes. After a few seconds of silence, he said, "I'll get the bodyguards to send you to the hospital."

After saying this, he called his bodyguards over.

Then, under Shen Rou's shocked gaze, he said calmly, "Send Miss Shen to the hospital and let the doctor take a good look at her."

"Yes, Young Master Gong."

The two bodyguards walked over and helped Shen Rou up. “Miss Shen, let’s send you to the hospital.”

“Get lost!” Shen Rou suddenly broke down and pushed the bodyguard away. She looked at Gong Zeli in disbelief and anger as he turned around and walked towards the elevator.

Not caring about the people around her, she yelled at him, “Gong Zeli, stop right there. I want you to send me to the hospital.”

But Gong Zeli didn’t seem to hear her.

Shen Rou started trembling. “Gong Zeli, stop right there!

“I’ll stay on the ground if you don’t send me to the hospital.”

She lost all rationality.

She thought that he still had some feelings for her.

But now...

Gong Zeli’s actions were like a slap to her face.

A public slap.

Everyone could see how pathetic she was right now.

She could already feel the mocking and gloating gazes around her.

She even heard mocking laughter.

“I think the rumors in the past are all false. If Young Master Gong really liked her, why would he treat her like this? When the Shen family was in trouble, I felt that the rumors were definitely false as the Gong family didn’t help them. Now, it seems like they’re definitely false.”

“I can’t tell how much Young Master Gong likes her, but I can tell that she likes him. But didn’t Young Lady Shen like Chairman Mo? Why is she treating Young Master Gong like this...”

Chapter 2382: No One Wanted Her

“Who knows? I heard that rich families are messy. It’s not surprising that she likes this one today and that one tomorrow. Moreover, she likes Mo Yesi, but doesn’t he already have a fiancée now? What hope does she have? She probably thinks that she has no hope of marrying Mo Yesi, so she targeted Gong Zeli. Speaking of which, Gong Zeli is also very eligible. The only son of the Gong family is very handsome. It’s a good choice to marry him.”

“Young Master Gong is not bad. Although he has some sort of anger disorder and it’s rather scary when his illness relapses, it can’t stop the ladies in Yuncheng City from wanting to marry him and become Young Madam Gong. Those who say they don’t want to marry him are just sour grapes.”

“But I don’t think Young Master Gong is interested in her. She’s already fallen so badly, and he didn’t even help her up. Sigh, I suddenly feel that Shen Rou is a little pitiful. In the past, she was said to be unreachable, but now, Second Young Master Mo and Young Master Gong don’t want her. So what if she took over the Shen Corporation? No matter how glorious she looks, she's still a pitiful worm that nobody wants."

"It's all because of her. I heard that Young Master Gong used to treat her really well and really like her. But back then, she only had eyes for Second Young Master Mo and didn't even look at him. Now that she wants to go back, he isn't happy. What qualifications does she have to make Young Master Gong wait for her?"

"That's true. But still, Young Master Gong is pretty heartless. He really didn't help her. With so many people watching, she must have lost face."

People looked at Shen Rou with sympathy, gloating, and lamentation.

The Young Lady of the Shen family had never been in such a sorry state.

She was always the most eye-catching one.

Countless men had a crush on her.

But people were realistic.

Ever since the Shen family fell into trouble, the once unreachable goddess fell from her pedestal and became a joke.

Even though the Shen family survived and Shen Rou seemed to be doing well again, Qiao Mianmian appeared.

She was crushed by Qiao Mianmian in every aspect.

The glory of the past could never be restored.

Especially when the man she'd liked for so many years had become Qiao Mianmian's henchman.

She was already a failure in their eyes.

Now that she was crying pitifully on the ground and begging Gong Zeli to stay, while Gong Zeli didn't even stop in his tracks, everyone felt even more pity for her.

But there was also a hint of gloating in their sympathy.

Especially the women.

Women had always been mean to other women.

Some of the men they used to like were Shen Rou's followers. They were naturally happy to see her suffer.

So what if she was Young Lady Shen?

Shen Rou watched as Gong Zeli walked further and further away with no intention of stopping. Her originally pale face turned even paler. The bright lights shone on her ghastly pale face, making it look rather scary.

Chapter 2383: Do You Really Not Care About Me Anymore?

Her face was distorted by anger, with no trace of her usual elegance.

She looked like a vicious queen in a fairy tale.

“Young Master Gong really doesn’t care about her.”

“Shen Rou is too pitiful. Young Master Gong left in front of so many people. She lost all her face.”

“Didn’t she say that she’ll remain lying on the ground if Young Master Gong doesn’t help her up? Will she really do it?”

“Then, she’ll really become a joke. Hahaha.”

Shen Rou heard the comments and insults.

She was furious and embarrassed.

Gong Zeli, how could he!

She didn’t believe that he could be so heartless.

“Zeli, Gong Zeli!” Shen Rou looked at the figure that was about to enter the elevator and shouted again.

“Stop, you can’t leave me here alone. How can you be so ruthless?”

Tears rolled down her cheeks, and her eyes were red and swollen as she yelled, “Ah Li, Ah Li, do you really not care about me anymore?”

She called out Gong Zeli’s nickname.

In the past, no matter what she wanted, as long as she called him by his nickname, he would agree to it without hesitation.

But this move didn’t seem to work.

Gong Zeli stopped in his tracks when he heard his nickname.

Before the surprise in Shen Rou’s eyes could last for three seconds, he walked forward without looking back.

The elevator doors opened.

A few well-dressed second-generation heirs standing inside were stunned when they saw Gong Zeli standing outside. They immediately walked out and greeted him politely. “Young Master Gong, you’re here. We were all waiting for you.”

They heard that Gong Zeli was here and went downstairs to welcome him.

They were all rich second-generation heirs.

They were usually rich playboys.

But in front of Gong Zeli, they were just a bunch of lackeys.

They had to come out early to wait for him.

Ordinary people envied rich families.

But the rich were also divided into different levels.

The Gong, Yan, Mo, Bai, and Shen families were all top-notch.

Among them, the Gong, Bai, and Mo families were at the top. The Yan and Shen families were slightly inferior.

Coming out of the elevator, feeling that Gong Zeli's aura was low, they became even more cautious.

Everyone knew that Young Master Gong had a bad temper since he was young. Otherwise, he wouldn't have become the famous bully in Yuncheng City.

Gong Zeli walked into the elevator without looking at them.

They were stunned for a moment before quickly following him.

Before the elevator doors closed, they suddenly heard a woman's voice calling out to Gong Zeli. The few of them looked out curiously and saw a crowd.

Something must have happened.

Then, they saw Shen Rou lying on the ground with tears rolling down her face as she called Gong Zeli's name.

She seemed furious.

These rich second-generation heirs had been with Gong Zeli for a few years, so they knew Shen Rou.

Chapter 2384: Get Lost If You Don't Want to Die

They knew how much Gong Zeli used to treasure Shen Rou.

The few of them looked at the indifferent Gong Zeli and thought that he didn't see Shen Rou. Thus, someone immediately reminded him. "Young Master Gong, I think I saw Miss Shen on the ground calling out your name."

"Yes, Young Master Gong. I saw it too."

"Miss Shen must have been injured from the fall. I don't think she can stand up."

"Young Master Gong, should we..."

Gong Zeli looked at them with a dark expression and they stopped talking.

They immediately understood.

Gong Zeli must have seen Shen Rou long ago, but he didn't bother about her.

What did this mean?

This meant that the rumors they heard were true.

Young Master Gong and Young Lady Shen had really fallen out.

Moreover, it was very serious.

They knew Gong Zeli for many years and had seen Shen Rou many times in the past.

Anyway, Gong Zeli was really good to Shen Rou before.

He would agree to anything she requested.

They'd never seen him treat another woman so well.

Back then, they thought that Gong Zeli loved Shen Rou so much and felt aggrieved for him.

After all, she didn't even look at him.

She usually found Gong Zeli to get his help on something.

Usually to help her ask Mo Yesi out.

And Gong Zeli knew that she liked Mo Yesi, but he still helped her.

Back then, Young Master Gong loved her so much.

In their opinion, Eldest Miss Shen wasn't bad. Her family background was good too, but she was too arrogant.

She didn't even like them.

They hadn't liked her for a long time, and it was also because of Gong Zeli that they tolerated her.

If Gong Zeli and Shen Rou had really fallen out, they would definitely be happy.

In the private room.

The few of them saw that Gong Zeli was in a bad mood and called a few women with good figures and looks over. "Young Master Gong is in a bad mood tonight. Go and have a few drinks with him. Whoever can make Young Master Gong happy will be heavily rewarded."

Gong Zeli was sitting in a corner of the room. The lights were dim as they shone on his feminine and handsome face. Half of his face was hidden in the shadows, and the half-exposed face was almost devilish.

The man's aura was low, and he didn't make a sound. He seemed to be exuding a cold aura.

The girls looked at each other in fear.

Young Master Gong had a bad temper and was hard to please. This was well-known in Nightlight.

He was rather generous if he was served well, but he was too scary when he got angry.

But they were tempted as they looked at the elegant and handsome man sitting there.

They would rather spend time with a rich and handsome man like Gong Zeli than with those big-bellied bosses.

Even if he had a bad temper.

The few women didn't hesitate anymore and immediately walked over with a glass of wine. They put on a charming smile and shouted coquettishly, "Young Master Gong, are you unhappy? Let us sisters drink with you, alright?"

A woman was about to sit beside him when she heard a cold voice. "Get lost if you don't want to die."

Chapter 2385: Good, I Want Her

"Young Master Gong, you..."

"Scram!" Gong Zeli's eyes were filled with disgust.

They were too scared to do anything when they looked into his eyes.

"Alright, alright. Come and drink with us." The other rich second-generation heirs didn't dare to anger him anymore. "Young Master Gong doesn't like you guys."

"Chen Lan even told me that these beauties are the best in Nightlight. I think they're just so-so."

"Call Chen Lan over here immediately. Is she trying to fool us with such trash?"

"It's alright to fool us, but not Young Master Gong."

"Yes, Young Master Gong has seen all sorts of beauties. Quickly get her over, we want to ask her."

Gong Zeli listened to them as he sat quietly in the corner.

He exuded a distant aura as he lay on the sofa with his eyes half-opened, staring at the ceiling of the private room as if the world had nothing to do with him.

Soon, the waiter called Chen Lan over.

Chen Lan greeted respectfully, "Young Master Gong."

She then greeted the other rich heirs.

"Young Masters, are you dissatisfied with anything?" Chen Lan asked cautiously.

"Of course, why else would I call you over?"

"Then, Young Masters..."

"Are the women you just called the best here?"

Chen Lan was stunned for a moment before glancing at Gong Zeli cautiously.

Seeing no one around him, she understood.

When these rich second-generation heirs came, they got her to arrange everything for them beforehand. They said that Gong Zeli would be coming tonight and told her to prepare well.

It seemed like Young Master Gong didn't like the women she arranged?

Those women were indeed top-notch beauties, but it was normal if Gong Zeli didn't like them.

He had seen countless beauties, so his standards were naturally higher than others.

Chen Lan thought for a while and smiled apologetically. "Someone just came yesterday. She's rather good-looking. But..."

"But what? Don't dawdle."

"She's just a student who's working part-time here. She doesn't drink."

"Student?"

"That's right. She's a serious university student. And she's studying acting. She was forced to work temporarily, but she's going to be a celebrity in the future."

In the corner.

Gong Zeli glanced at Chen Lan.

A rich heir immediately saw his reaction.

He smiled and said, "Good. I want her. Call her over immediately."

"This..." Chen Lan looked troubled.

"Why? You can't?" The second-generation heir's expression changed immediately.

"No, of course. I'll get someone to call her over immediately."

Chen Lan didn't want to offend them.

These people weren't to be trifled with.

Especially Young Master Gong.

This person was someone that even the entirety of Darklight couldn't offend.

In less than 10 minutes, a waiter brought a girl in uniform over.

Chapter 2386: Those Eyes...

The girl walked into the private room with her head lowered. When she saw Chen Lan, she pursed her lips and whispered, "Sister Lan, what do you want to see me about?"

"Xiao Su, let me introduce you. This is Young Master Chen, this is Young Master Lin, and this is Young Master Wang." Chen Lan held the little girl's hand and introduced the second-generation heirs to her. After introducing them, she pulled her to Gong Zeli, who was sitting in the corner.

Then, she suddenly said cautiously, "This is Young Master Gong. Quickly greet him."

Young Master Gong?

The girl looked at the man sitting on the sofa curiously.

Even though the lights in the private room were dim, the man's handsome face still entered her sight.

The girl looked at the man's handsome face in a daze.

Was he... Young Master Gong?

The young master who was rumored to have a terrible temper and that would become terrifying once he got angry? The one no one dared to provoke?

She'd heard someone say that he was a scary person, but he didn't look scary at all.

Not only was he not scary, but he was also... especially good-looking.

He was more handsome than any man she'd ever seen.

Even in her school, there were so many handsome guys, but none of them were as good-looking as him.

She felt that the most handsome guy in her school couldn't compare to him.

The man's outstanding looks, natural superiority, and noble temperament were not what those young boys in her school had.

Su Su's heart raced.

She looked at Gong Zeli in a daze. Suddenly, she was pulled back by Chen Lan.

"Xiao Su, what are you waiting for? Hurry up and greet him." Chen Lan frowned and glanced at Gong Zeli cautiously. She was afraid that Su Su's rudeness would make him unhappy.

"Y-Young Master Gong." Su Su bit her lip and tried to calm down her racing heart.

Hearing her soft voice, Gong Zeli's eyes suddenly opened.

He slowly sat up and swept a cold glance at Su Su. When his gaze landed on the young lady's delicate face, he suddenly retracted his nonchalance. He was shocked.

His gaze landed on Su Su's familiar eyes for a few seconds.

Those eyes...

And her voice...

Chen Lan was the best at reading people's expressions. She could immediately tell that Gong Zeli was interested in Su Su. She quickly thought about it and pushed Su Su. Then, she gave her a look and said, "Xiao Su, toast Young Master Gong."

Chen Lan took a glass of wine and handed it to her.

"Serve Young Master Gong well, quickly."

"Sister Lan, I, I..." Su Su held the glass of wine and hesitated for a few seconds before rejecting her softly. "I said it before I came. I'm only in charge of selling alcohol, not accompanying."

"Are you stupid?" Chen Lan looked at her as if she was a fool.

Chapter 2387: Damn, Young Master Gong Accepted It

“If you manage to hook up with Young Master Gong, you won’t have to work anymore. He can just give you something, and you won’t have to worry about food and clothes for the rest of your life.

“Aren’t you here to raise money for your mom’s treatment? Didn’t you say two days ago that your mom needs surgery as soon as possible and that you need a large sum of money? Do you know how much you gain a day and how many bottles of wine you have to sell to raise the surgery fees? Don’t you want your mom to undergo surgery quickly?”

“It can’t be delayed. I’ll say something unpleasant. If you take too long to raise money, then she’ll be gone. By then, it’s useless even if you regret it!

“Let me tell you, be smart. Young Master Gong doesn’t lack women, and he never forces any of them. It’s always women who take the initiative to get close to him. You just have to drink with him and make him happy. Do you think you won’t be taken advantage of just because you say you won’t drink with him? Don’t be silly. Even I can’t protect you. If I were you, I’d grab this opportunity.”

With that, Chen Lan pushed Su Su’s back without caring if she was willing or not.

Su Su was pushed in front of Gong Zeli.

He was so close.

He smelled good.

She looked down and met a pair of beautiful eyes. The man’s dark eyes were cold as he glanced at her and then looked away.

But this glance made Su Su’s heart beat even faster.

She couldn’t help but blush.

In an instant, she had already decided what to do.

She held the wine glass and handed it to him. “Y-Young Master Gong, Su Su toasts you.”

Everyone looked over.

Just now, Su Su had lowered her head and the other rich heirs couldn’t see her.

They were stunned when they saw her face.

A rich second-generation heir nudged the person next to him and whispered, “Hey, don’t you think this Su Su girl looks familiar? I think I’ve seen her somewhere before.”

“She does look familiar.”

“Damn.” Someone slapped his thigh and widened his eyes. “I finally f*cking know why this girl looks familiar. Doesn’t she look like the female celebrity called Qiao Mianmian?”

“That’s Mo Yesi’s woman. She even had a scandal with Young Master Gong.”

“Damn, I remember her too. That’s right, she looks familiar.”

“Did you guys notice that Young Master Gong seems to be interested in this girl? She went to propose a toast, but Young Master Gong didn’t ask her to get lost.”

“Do you think Young Master Gong will accept it?”

The moment they finished speaking, they saw Gong Zeli accept the glass of wine.

“Damn, Young Master Gong accepted it.”

“I didn’t expect Young Master Gong to like this type. No wonder he didn’t like those sexy ones.”

“I say, didn’t you think of something?”

“What?”

“Why is Young Master Gong interested in this girl?”

“Why? Doesn’t he like the pure type?”

“Stupid pig.” The man called Young Master Chen patted Young Master Lin on the head and leaned over. He lowered his voice and said, “I don’t think Young Master Gong likes this type. This girl looks like Qiao Mianmian. The rumors must be true.”

The other two were shocked.

Chapter 2388: Huge Secret

“You mean...”

“Young Master Gong might really like that Qiao Mianmian. Previously, someone said that Young Master Gong and Mo Yesi broke up because of a woman, and then it was refuted that it was a rumor. I don’t think it’s a rumor.

“Otherwise, why would he be interested in this girl who looks like Qiao Mianmian?”

“Damn.”

“Damn.”

They suddenly realized that they learned a huge secret.

At a five-star hotel.

A black Rolls-Royce was parked on the street by the hotel entrance. The chauffeur got off first and then opened the backseat door.

When the person in the backseat came out, the chauffeur greeted him respectfully, “Young Master Chen.”

“Uncle Zhao, don’t wait for me. I’ll take a cab back myself.”

“Yes, Young Master Chen.”

Qiao Chen got out of the car, adjusted his scarf, and walked up the steps.

Just as he reached the hotel’s entrance, he heard a few surprised voices behind him.

“Qiao Chen, is that you?”

Qiao Chen stopped in his tracks and turned around.

The girls’ eyes lit up when they saw him, and they quickly walked towards him with smiles on their faces.

“Wow, Qiao Chen, it’s really you. I knew it. I recognized your back view right away.”

“Qiao Chen, is that Rolls-Royce yours? The one opening the door for you was your driver, right? So generous.”

Qiao Chen used to be their target in school.

He was even more different now.

Everyone in school knew that Qiao Chen was the Young Master of the Mo family. Now, he was recognized by them.

Previously, just his face alone was enough to make many girls fall for him. But now, with his status as the Young Master of the Mo family, it was as if he was covered in a golden halo. The girls were even more in love with him.

These girls were his classmates.

Seeing Qiao Chen in branded clothes, their hearts raced.

He used to be very handsome and was the crush of all the girls in school, but he was even more handsome now.

Qiao Chen smiled and greeted them, causing the girls to blush.

Just then, another voice came from behind. Soon, a boy in casual clothes walked up to Qiao Chen and patted him on the shoulder. “Young Master Mo, you’re here.”

“What Young Master?” Qiao Chen glared at him.

“I didn’t call you wrongly.” The boy looked ordinary and friendly. He smiled and said, “Everyone knows that you’re the Young Master of the Mo family. There’s nothing wrong with calling you Young Master Mo! Don’t you think so?”

“Alright, don’t joke with me.” Qiao Chen raised his hand in surrender. “I’m getting goosebumps. Consider it a good deed and spare me.”

“Hahaha.”

Everyone laughed.

The girls looked at him even more passionately.

Chapter 2389: He Heard Shen Xin Would Come Today

Qiao Chen hadn't changed at all.

He was still as nice and gentle to his classmates as before.

He didn't look down on them just because of his current status.

Hence, they still had a chance.

"Tsk tsk tsk, you girls. I think your eyes are about to fall. Why? Is only Qiao Chen your dear classmate? What about the rest of us? You should at least pay attention to the others.

"Although I'm not as handsome as Qiao Chen, and I'm not some rich young master, I'm still your beloved class monitor, right?" The boy couldn't help but tease when he saw the girls staring at Qiao Chen with reddened faces.

Sigh.

Were girls nowadays so superficial?

They couldn't take their eyes off him.

They had been classmates for four years. Hadn't they seen enough of him?

He knew it.

As long as they were with Qiao Chen, all the other boys would become invisible.

All these girls could see was Qiao Chen.

Now that he had become the Young Master of the Mo family, these girls were probably even more obsessed with him.

But he felt that people should be more realistic.

If it was the previous Qiao Chen, they might have had a chance.

But he was different now.

Qiao Chen was now a rich young master, so his future partner would definitely be a rich young lady.

Anyway, he definitely wouldn't marry an ordinary person.

How could there be so many Cinderellas in real life?

In his opinion, the most likely person in the class to be with Qiao Chen was Shen Xin.

After all, they were compatible.

But when Qiao Chen was still an ordinary person, he didn't like Shen Xin.

Now that he was the Young Master of the Mo family, he probably wouldn't consider her.

Remembering Shen Xin, his expression changed.

He heard that she would be here today.

He wondered how Qiao Chen would react when he saw her.

He didn't hate Shen Xin. He felt that she was a nice person.

She came from a good family, was pretty, and had a good personality.

When Shen Xin pursued Qiao Chen, he thought that Qiao Chen would definitely agree.

Who could resist being chased by such a delicate young lady?

The girls flew into a rage and punched him. "Zhou Xiaodong, you're so annoying!"

"Don't hit me, don't hit me. Ladies, I was wrong. I was wrong, alright?"

Zhou Xiaodong covered his head as the girls chased after him.

Sometimes, the joy of youth was so simple.

Qiao Chen smiled and shook his head.

After a while, another car stopped at the entrance of the hotel.

It was a red Cayenne.

Qiao Chen looked at it. His expression was calm as if he was just looking at it casually, but the anticipation in his eyes betrayed him.

He stared at the Cayenne without blinking.

A few seconds later, the door opened and someone got out of the car.

It was a pretty woman, but he didn't know her.

When he saw who got out of the car, the light in Qiao Chen's eyes dimmed, and his expectant gaze quickly vanished.

Chapter 2390: Everyone Wants to Take a Bite of Him

He thought it was her.

She loved that color.

"Qiao Chen, what are you still standing here for? Are you waiting for someone?" After being chased, Zhou Xiaodong ran to his side and asked curiously when he saw him staring at the street.

Qiao Chen looked away and shook his head. "No, let's go in."

Qiao Chen booked a huge VIP room as the venue for the class gathering.

About a dozen people were attending this class gathering, and they were all on good terms.

Qiao Chen and the rest arrived first and ordered tea. Before long, the others arrived as well.

Qiao Chen would glance in the door's direction every time it opened.

But she wasn't among them.

Qiao Chen was the most popular and sought-after student.

A group of classmates surrounded him and asked him all sorts of questions. They were all busy recalling their friendship from the past few years and were obviously trying to get close to him.

Society was realistic.

Qiao Chen used to have a good relationship with them, but it wasn't as good now.

And he never had so many fans.

Everyone knew that Qiao Chen was different now.

He was now the Young Master of the Mo family.

The Chairman of the Mo Corporation was his cousin.

Some of them wanted to go to the Mo Corporation after graduation.

Although it was a local enterprise, in the entire country, and even in the entire world, they were one of the largest companies. If they had the chance to enter the Mo Corporation, their future wouldn't be so worrying.

Hence, they had to curry favor with Qiao Chen.

With his help, it would be very useful to their future.

"Qiao Chen, I heard that you're taking over your father's company. Is that true?" The boy who asked this question had a good family background. He had heard about this from his elders.

Although Qiao Chen's father's company wasn't as big as the Mo Corporation, it wasn't bad.

They earned tens of billions a year.

The boy was envious.

Qiao Chen's results were good, and he got first place in the national college entrance examination.

Even if he wasn't the Young Master of the Mo family now, with his own abilities, he would definitely develop well in the future.

But no matter how well he developed, it was still not as fast as inheriting the family business.

When they graduated, they still had to enter the company to train.

And he was already in charge of a large corporation that earned tens of billions of yuan a year. They were working for someone, but he had his own company.

Comparisons were odious.

Nothing was better than reincarnation.

“Wow. Qiao Chen, are you that good?” The girls looked at him in admiration.

Qiao Chen didn't hide it. “I'm not taking over, I'm just entering the company. I still have a lot to learn. The sooner I enter the company, the sooner I can familiarize myself with the various businesses.

“As for taking it over, I won't consider it for now.”

His modesty won the hearts of the girls around him.

Qiao Chen was in high demand right now.

Everyone wanted to take a bite of him.

A female classmate beside him held her face and looked at him with starry eyes. She said exaggeratedly, “That's impressive too.”
