

Big Shot 2441

Chapter 2441: I Don't Know How Rich He Is

Qiao Mianmian and Mo Yesi had just walked out of the elevator when they saw a group of middle-aged men in suits running over.

They panted as they stopped in front of them and greeted him respectfully. "Chairman Mo."

"Chairman Mo, why are you here? You didn't even inform us beforehand so we could welcome you." The middle-aged man in the lead looked to be in his forties. He was a typical middle-aged man with a plump body and a flat belly.

They were all high-level executives.

Mo Yesi had decided to come at the last minute, and it wasn't because of work.

Hence, they didn't know that the President was here.

It was only when the staff in the surveillance room suddenly saw someone in the CEO's personal elevator that they knew.

Then, they ran over in a panic.

The few of them were uneasy, thinking that Mo Yesi was up to something.

Everyone knew that although Chairman Mo was young, he was swift and decisive.

When he first returned to the company, it was said that a few shareholders were dissatisfied with him taking over the Mo Corporation. They thought that he was too young and had little experience in management.

Hence, they were against him being the president.

After that, the shareholders who opposed him were found to have a lot of work problems and were fired.

From then on, no one dared to object anymore.

Of course, this young CEO later proved himself with his abilities, making the people who weren't satisfied with him not dare to say it out loud.

Since then, everyone in the Mo Corporation acknowledged him. No one felt that he wasn't suitable to be the Chairman anymore.

It had only been a year since he took over the Mo Corporation, but the corporation's performance increased by half.

His ability was even better than the previous president.

No one would be worried about handing the Mo Corporation to such a person.

Hence, even though Mo Yesi was still young, he was a very imposing presence in front of these seniors.

The few of them were in awe of him.

Mo Yesi looked at their uneasy expressions and said calmly, "I brought my fiancée here for a walk. What did I say to you? Who asked you guys to come over in such a big fuss? If you scare her, I don't think you have to come to work tomorrow."

Fiancée?

The few executives were stunned. They were too nervous and afraid just now, so they didn't see the person standing beside Mo Yesi.

Only then did they notice Qiao Mianmian.

The girl was wearing a black mask. Although her face couldn't be seen clearly, her eyes were very striking.

Chairman Mo had his arm wrapped around her waist possessively.

They knew that Mo Yesi had such a fiancée.

It was all over the internet some time ago.

Old people like them weren't interested in the entertainment industry's gossip, but they still knew about this.

Although they didn't like gossip, they still had to know some gossip about their boss.

They heard that Chairman Mo's fiancée was a celebrity.

Was it this person?

Chapter 2442: Untitled

So, Chairman Mo was just taking his fiancée shopping.

It wasn't a surprise check?

After thinking it through, they heaved a huge sigh of relief.

"Chairman Mo, I'm sorry. We didn't mean to scare Miss Qiao."

They quickly apologized to Qiao Mianmian. "Miss Qiao, we're really sorry for scaring you."

"It's alright, I'm not shocked." Qiao Mianmian looked at the men who were old enough to be her dad and softened her tone. "I don't mean to blame you."

Qiao Mianmian wasn't afraid of Mo Yesi.

But she knew that he was a terrifying existence in the Mo Corporation.

His subordinates were all afraid of him.

Even his right-hand man, Wei Zheng, was afraid of him.

Not to mention the high-level executives who rarely saw him.

The others also knew that their boss was here, so they hurried over to welcome him. They were afraid of being blamed for being late.

After all, if they knew that their boss was here but didn't welcome him. Did they want to quit?

Mo Yesi scared them with just a few words.

Qiao Mianmian couldn't bear to see the cold sweat on their foreheads.

Mo Yesi was too much.

Why did he scare them?

"Thank you for your understanding, Miss Qiao." The executives heaved a sigh of relief. They thought that it was a good thing that this future Madam President had a good personality and didn't deliberately make things difficult for them or put on airs in front of them.

"Alright, why are you still standing here?" Mo Yesi looked at the few executives who obviously didn't know how to read expressions and frowned in disdain. "Go and do what you have to do. Also, Mianmian and I are just here for a walk. Don't make it public."

"Yes, Chairman Mo, Miss Qiao. Then, we... we'll take our leave first." The few executives finally saw the disdain in his eyes. Although their reactions were slow, they could tell that Mo Yesi despised them for being the third wheel here and disturbing him and his fiancée.

He was on a date with his fiancée, so it didn't seem appropriate for them to follow them.

The few of them quickly left.

Qiao Mianmian couldn't help but laugh as she watched them run away. She glared at Mo Yesi. "Your image in your subordinates' hearts is too scary. They're all so afraid of you.

"What did you do to make them so afraid?"

Mo Yesi wiped the coldness off his face and patted her head. "My image isn't important to others, as long as you're not afraid of me."

Qiao Mianmian wasn't afraid of Mo Yesi anymore.

But thinking back to when she first met him, she was actually a little afraid.

But now...

She could ride on his head and do whatever she wanted.

"Alright, let's go to the stores first. There are clothes, shoes, bags, jewelry, and cosmetics that women like on this floor. Buy anything you like. Don't think of saving money, alright?"

Mo Yesi wasn't afraid of Qiao Mianmian squandering.

He was afraid that she wouldn't be willing to squander.

He enjoyed spending money on her.

Chapter 2443: Untitled

In his opinion, he worked hard to earn money so that the person he liked could spend as she wished.

“Are you encouraging me to squander, Mr. Mo?” Qiao Mianmian blinked and asked cheekily.

“Mm.” Mo Yesi nodded and said seriously, “So, I hope Miss Qiao won’t save money. The more you spend, the better I’ll feel.”

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

“It’s satisfying to watch your woman spend your money,” Mo Yesi said.

Qiao Mianmian was speechless again.

Other men were afraid that their wives would be too wasteful.

But her husband encouraged her to squander more.

Alright.

Since he wanted her to spend his money so much, she would spend more later.

It was easy to spend money.

This was much easier than earning money.

Anyway, she had a rich and willful husband who had so much money that she wouldn’t be able to spend it all in this lifetime. She didn’t feel guilty about squandering anymore.

Qiao Mianmian didn’t stand on ceremony with Mo Yesi.

After shopping for about half an hour, she bought two pairs of shoes, two bags, two sets of jewelry, and two sets of top-notch skin care products.

Mo Yesi swiped the card.

She estimated the total to be about three million yuan.

Moreover, she tried her best to pick the cheaper ones.

For example, she didn’t choose a set that cost millions or tens of millions. She chose two sets that were suitable for her.

But a set cost hundreds of thousands.

Qiao Mianmian had never been willing to spend so much money.

But now, her view of consumption had changed a lot.

She was confident.

She could earn a lot of money now. Any of her advertisements would be worth eight-figures. Moreover, she had the assets that the Old Madam and Madam Bai gave her. Just her own family background alone was enough for her to be a rich woman with hundreds of millions.

Mo Yesi's ability to earn money was even more impressive.

Any contract he signed allowed her to spend for a lifetime.

Even Qiao Chen, the one she was most worried about, was the Young Master of the Mo family now.

She didn't need to save money for anyone anymore.

She wouldn't feel so insecure anymore.

Hence, she was willing to spend on luxury goods.

Qiao Mianmian thought that she had already spent enough, but in Mo Yesi's eyes, the amount she spent was like a hair on a cow.

"I saw that you liked the diamond jewelry. Why didn't you buy it?" Mo Yesi walked out of the jewelry store holding her hand, followed by four mall employees carrying their bags.

"That set of jewelry is nice, but I think it's too ostentatious to wear it daily."

Mo Yesi gave her a lot of expensive jewelry.

Qiao Mianmian had locked it in her safe.

She usually didn't wear such expensive jewelry.

It wasn't that she didn't like it, but she was afraid of losing it.

The most expensive jewelry she was wearing now was the bracelet he gave her.

It looked too low-profile. No one expected it to be worth tens of millions.

Qiao Mianmian wanted to take it off after finding out the real price, but Mo Yesi refused to let her.

She felt that the bracelet didn't look very valuable and wouldn't attract attention, so she kept wearing it.

But the diamond jewelry was too eye-catching.

Women loved shiny things, and she was no exception.

Chapter 2444: Untitled

She liked the diamond jewelry, but she felt that it was too ostentatious.

And that set of jewelry wasn't cheap. It was already in the eight digits.

Even if she could earn money now and had a very rich husband, she still couldn't bear to spend tens of millions on a set of jewelry.

"So what if she likes it? So what if she's flamboyant?" Mo Yesi disagreed. "My woman is flamboyant. Who else dares to say anything?"

Qiao Mianmian pursed her lips. "I think it's better to keep a low profile."

Mo Yesi suddenly chuckled.

"What are you laughing at?" Qiao Mianmian looked at him suspiciously.

"Baby, do you think you can keep a low profile with your current status?" Mo Yesi found it funny. "The precious little daughter of the Bai family, the future Madam of the Mo Corporation, and now the popular... Qiao Mianmian?"

"No matter how low-profile you want to be, how low-profile can you be? Your status makes it impossible for you to be low-profile.

"As long as you have these identities, you'll be the focus of attention anywhere you go. Don't tell me that if you don't wear expensive jewelry, others will think that you're low-key?"

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

He sounded reasonable.

She couldn't refute him.

Indeed, no matter how low-profile she was, she was still trending every day.

"So, there's no need to worry so much. Your current status is enough for you to live the life you want. The Young Madam of the Mo family should be more high-profile. In the past, you had to keep a low profile because you weren't strong enough. Now, you have the Bai family and me as your backing. You can do whatever you want. No one will dare to say anything about you, understand?"

Qiao Mianmian replied, "...Understood!"

It sounded awesome.

In fact, it was pretty impressive.

And he said so much just to get her to buy that set of jewelry?

Was he really uncomfortable if she didn't spend more money?

But Mo Yesi didn't persuade her to buy it.

They entered another clothing store.

When the shopkeeper saw the few employees carrying bags behind them, she knew that their spending power was extraordinary.

Seeing Mo Yesi, she could tell that he was of high status.

In their line of work, it was a basic skill to identify the customer's identity and spending ability.

Those who could come to this luxury store had some money.

They had seen many rich people.

But it was rare to see someone like Mo Yesi.

Not only was this customer rich, but he also had an extraordinary status. It was obvious that he was from a prestigious family.

The employee was very warm and even respectful. "Mister, Miss, welcome to our shop."

This mall belonged to Mo Yesi, but not to mention the employees in this store, even most of the employees in the mall didn't know him.

Because they usually didn't have the chance to see him.

Hence, how could the employee know that the customer standing in front of her was this mall's boss?

"Pick a few suitable clothes for her."

Mo Yesi was afraid that Qiao Mianmian would refuse, so he pushed her to the employee. "Pick a few more for her."

Chapter 2445: Untitled

"Alright, Mister." This customer was obviously very rich and willing to spend money. Overjoyed, the employee said to Qiao Mianmian more respectfully, "Miss, please follow me. There are many suitable clothes here."

The employee knew very well.

A customer like Mo Yesi only came once a month, and her sales were enough.

If she was lucky, it'd be enough to fill her yearly quota.

They had to be nice to such a big customer.

There was no one else in the store. The few shop assistants surrounded Qiao Mianmian and picked out five to six different styles of clothes before accompanying her to the fitting room.

Mo Yesi waited in the rest area.

He wasn't a patient person, much less when it came to shopping with women.

He shopped with Madam Mo twice, but he found an excuse to leave after half an hour.

He felt that shopping with women was the most boring and wasteful thing in the world.

He could handle a few documents with that time.

But Mo Yesi never complained about shopping with his wife.

Although he still felt bored, he was willing to do this.

Qiao Mianmian didn't intend to buy clothes.

She bought a lot of things tonight, and there were so many clothes at home that she could change into one every day. But Mo Yesi felt that she spent too little and wanted her to spend more.

She thought that it was still early and her stomach was still full, so she took the clothes recommended by the shop assistants and went to the fitting room.

It had to be said, the employees of such luxury brands had good taste.

They picked out a few matching outfits for Qiao Mianmian. The designs were all pretty good and suited her.

Qiao Mianmian tried them out one by one, and the shop assistants were full of praises. They said that these clothes were tailored for her and that she looked super good in them.

Qiao Mianmian knew that they were saying that because they wanted to sell the clothes.

But the clothes were really nice.

Even Mo Yesi, who had always been picky, found it good.

“Do you like it?” Mo Yesi stood up and looked at the dress she was wearing. His eyes darkened as he walked behind her and tidied her messy hair. “This dress suits you very well.”

“Mm, not bad.” Qiao Mianmian didn’t lie to her conscience and say that she didn’t like it.

“Then, buy them all.” Mo Yesi took out a card from his wallet skillfully. Before Qiao Mianmian could respond, he handed it to the shop assistant. “The clothes she tried on just now, we’re buying them all.”

Chapter 2446: Anyway... They’re Definitely Willing

They had seen such big customers before.

It was common for rich young masters to spend money on a beautiful woman.

But this customer was indeed different from the rich young masters they’d seen before.

They had seen many rich men, but it was rare to see someone so handsome and charismatic.

Not many people in Yuncheng City could do it.

After all, rich and good-looking men were rare.

Most of them were old and round, looking like nouveau riches.

They had a huge belly, a bald head, and a chubby face.

Following such a man, even if he was willing to spend money on her, it wasn’t something to be envious of.

But this man...

Not to mention that he was so rich, with this face, even if he didn’t have money, many women would be willing to be with him.

Anyway... they were definitely willing.

If her man was so good-looking, she would be willing to let them work hard to raise him.

After all, she would be in a good mood every day when she looked at his handsome face. Even if she was unhappy, looking at his face would relieve a lot of her worries.

Hence, they were really envious of Qiao Mianmian.

Because Qiao Mianmian was wearing a mask, no one recognized her. The shop assistants looked at her face again and again, curious about what the mask covered.

What sort of beauty could make such an outstanding man pamper her?

Qiao Mianmian was stunned when she heard Mo Yesi say that he would pay for all the clothes she'd tried on. She tugged at his sleeve and whispered, "I don't need so many clothes. There are still many clothes at home that I haven't worn.

"Just one or two is enough."

Qiao Mianmian was speaking the truth.

When she first moved to Mo Yesi's place, the butler had prepared a lot of clothes, shoes, and bags for her...

There were so many that it seemed like they were specially set up for her.

At least two-thirds of the clothes were brand new.

She had too many clothes to wear.

"Women's clothes change every month. How can you wear old clothing?" Mo Yesi didn't stop the shop assistant. He smiled and said, "Since they look good, why don't you buy them all?"

"We don't lack money.

"No matter how virtuous you are, if you want to save money for me, you can't do anything."

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

"Baby, I've already said we're buying them all. If I call her back now, I'll lose face," Mo Yesi said again.

"Alright." Of course, Qiao Mianmian couldn't let her husband lose face. She could only nod. "But you can't do this anymore. Otherwise, I won't shop with you anymore in the future."

It was too expensive to shop with Mo Yesi.

He didn't care about the price.

He didn't even look at the numbers.

Although he was rich, Qiao Mianmian still felt the pinch.

Earning money wasn't easy...

Although Mo Yesi didn't specify how much he spent tonight, she still felt heartache.

Chapter 2447: Tell Her I Can Increase the Price

She wanted to shop around the mall to digest her food, but this trip cost millions.

She felt that the hot pot meal today was too expensive.

“Then, I’ll go change.” Qiao Mianmian thought that she was almost done shopping and could return after paying the bill.

She turned around and went to change.

She was about to open the door when she heard a familiar voice.

“Get me the same size for the dress she’s wearing.”

Qiao Mianmian froze.

Shen Rou?

“Miss Shen, I’m so sorry. That lady’s dress is limited. The last size has been bought by her.”

“Limited?” Shen Rou sounded a little unhappy.

“Yes, Miss Shen. I’m really sorry.” The employee quickly apologized. “We still have many new designs in our store, and they’re all very popular. Miss Shen, you...”

“But I like that one.”

Shen Rou said domineeringly, “Ask her if she’s willing to give me the dress. Tell her I can increase the price.”

“This, this...” The employee seemed to be in a difficult position.

They knew Shen Rou’s identity.

She often shopped at their store and was their VIP customer.

Hence, they would always receive her.

They didn’t want to offend Shen Rou. But... The male companion of the mysterious masked lady should also be very important.

She probably wasn’t someone they could offend.

She’d already said she’d pay.

It wasn’t appropriate for them to do that.

As the employee hesitated, Shen Rou spoke again. Her tone was even colder than before. “I just want you to go over and ask, but you can’t do it? Did your shop find a bigger customer who’s more willing to spend than me, so you don’t take me seriously now?”

“No, Miss Shen, it’s not like that.” The employee hurriedly explained, “Miss Shen, you’ve misunderstood. We wouldn’t dare to do this. Then, please wait for a while. I’ll ask that lady immediately.”

The employee didn't dare to anger Shen Rou, so she had no choice but to look for Qiao Mianmian.

"Don't ask me. No matter how much you pay, I won't give you this dress."

Before the employee reached her, Qiao Mianmian turned around and looked at Shen Rou expressionlessly.

She heard everything they said.

She found it funny.

As expected, human nature couldn't be changed.

People like Shen Rou had a good background and grew up with a silver spoon in her mouth. Hence, she had a sense of superiority.

She thought she was superior because of her background, and she could get anything she wanted.

Hence, as long as it was something she liked, she had to find a way to get it, whether it had an owner or not.

Even though she heard that Qiao Mianmian had already bought the dress, she still got the employee to ask Qiao Mianmian if she could give it to her.

She thought that this could be resolved with money.

Just like how she knew that Mo Yesi was married, but she still didn't give up on him and wanted to ruin Qiao Mianmian and Mo Yesi's marriage.

Who did she think she was?

Qiao Mianmian felt that she had to teach Shen Rou a lesson.

Otherwise, she would really think that the world revolved around her.

Chapter 2448: But an Actress Is Still Just an Actress

"Qiao Mianmian, it's you." Shen Rou had only seen Qiao Mianmian's back, so she didn't recognize her before.

Qiao Mianmian turned around. Although she was wearing a mask, Shen Rou could still recognize her voice.

Shen Rou's expression darkened.

She pursed her lips and glared at her.

"Miss Shen, what a coincidence." Qiao Mianmian took off her mask and smiled at Shen Rou.

The employee felt the name was familiar when Shen Rou called Qiao Mianmian's name.

When Qiao Mianmian took off her mask, the employee finally recognized her.

Qiao Mianmian's "If You Can't Love" shot her to fame, and the employee had seen it before.

After knowing Qiao Mianmian's identity, the employee quickly guessed Mo Yesi's identity.

So, the big customer who seemed to have an extraordinary status was Chairman Mo?

The boss of this mall?!

The employee was shocked, but then she felt that this was normal.

If it wasn't Mo Yesi, which man could have such looks and temperament?

She'd already guessed that Mo Yesi's status was very high, but she didn't expect it to be this high.

Then, the employee recalled the gossip on Weibo and looked at Qiao Mianmian and Shen Rou meaningfully.

The two people standing in front of her.

One was Mo Yesi's childhood sweetheart who had liked him for many years.

The other was Mo Yesi's current fiancée, and they were about to get married.

Shen Rou must be very upset to see Qiao Mianmian.

The love rival was furious.

Would they... fight?

Just as the employee was worried about this, Shen Rou sneered and said coldly, "I was wondering who it was, wearing a mask and acting like a big star. So it's you."

"Yes, it's me." Qiao Mianmian smiled again and said slowly, "Miss Shen is right. A big star like me has to wear a mask when going out. After all, I have a lot of fans. I'm different from Miss Shen, who won't be chased around for autographs and photos."

"Of course, Miss Shen might not be able to experience this. It's normal that you don't understand."

Shen Rou didn't expect Qiao Mianmian to be so shameless.

She really admitted that she was a big star.

She had never seen someone so thick-skinned.

She was originally mocking Qiao Mianmian, but after being mocked in return, her expression darkened.

"Of course, I'm different from you." Shen Rou quickly thought of a counterattack. Her lips curled into a disdainful smile as she said calmly, "So what if celebrities have a lot of fans? They might sound like a big deal, but they're just actors in upper-class society."

"Only ordinary people take celebrities seriously and chase you every day to satisfy your vanity, making you feel like you're impressive. But an actress is still just an actress. It's a profession that has been looked down upon since ancient times."

"I don't want that experience."

“After all, I don’t want to be a lowly actress.”

Chapter 2449: It Seems Like an Opportunity Has Come to Her

She thought these words would anger her, but Qiao Mianmian only smiled. “Young Lady Shen, who comes from a prestigious family and is highly educated, can say such things. It’s really an eye-opener for me.”

“I’m just telling the truth.” Shen Rou smiled as if she had already won this round. “I’m sorry if I accidentally poked someone’s heart.”

“So, in Miss Shen’s opinion, everyone in the entertainment industry is an actress? You look down on them?”

Shen Rou only wanted to make Qiao Mianmian unhappy, so she didn’t think too much about it. She sneered. “That’s right.”

“Then, Qin Han, Shen Fei, Zhan Bo, and the other top celebrities are also just actors in your eyes?”

“I’ve said it before, only ordinary people take you seriously. An actress is an actress. No matter how good she is, no matter how big a celebrity she is, she’s still an actress.” She was actually insulting Qiao Mianmian.

Qiao Mianmian was very popular now. She was considered the most popular starlet.

Shen Rou wanted to tell her that even if she became a big star now, she was just a lowly actress in her eyes.

“In that case, since Young Lady Shen looks down on actresses so much, I’m sure your Shen Corporation won’t work with actresses in the future, right?” Qiao Mianmian was still calm. Shen Rou’s deliberate insults didn’t seem to cause any waves in her heart.

Shen Rou frowned and said coldly, “This has nothing to do with you.”

“Alright, it has nothing to do with me.” Qiao Mianmian smiled again and said calmly, “Then, Miss Shen, what do you think about Mr. Henry? I heard that Mr. Henry was an actor for a period of time when he first entered the entertainment industry.

“He only became a designer after that.

“I wonder what Miss Shen thinks of Mr. Henry’s experience as an actor? Do you think he’s just a lowly actor?”

Qiao Mianmian deliberately lured Shen Rou to say this.

She had been a little anxious after knowing that the Shen Corporation had invited Henry Zhou.

Although Mo Yesi had always appeared confident and told her not to worry, that the Mo Corporation had a way to deal with it, how could she not be worried?

She wanted to do something.

But there was nothing she could do.

What could she do?

Unless she could find someone better than Henry Zhou and get him to design jewelry for the Mo Corporation.

But this was obviously unrealistic.

But now, there seemed to be a chance.

This opportunity was given by Shen Rou.

Qiao Mianmian's understanding of Henry Zhou was based on the official documents.

Many people knew that Henry Zhou wasn't in the jewelry design industry from the start. When he was young, he'd been in the entertainment industry for seven to eight years. Later, he accidentally got an opportunity to change his career and entered the design industry.

Chapter 2450: Untitled

Henry Zhou clearly liked his career as an actor.

Otherwise, he wouldn't have made so many guest roles.

Moreover, he said that after he retired, he wouldn't be doing jewelry design anymore. He wanted to return to his profession.

What was his profession?

He was naturally an actor.

According to Shen Rou, actors were just actors.

Qiao Mianmian actually deliberately made her say this.

And Shen Rou really fell for it.

Although Henry Zhou wasn't here and couldn't hear what she said, Qiao Mianmian had already achieved her goal.

It didn't matter if Henry Zhou didn't hear what Shen Rou said.

Qiao Mianmian had her own plans.

Shen Rou was stunned when Qiao Mianmian mentioned Henry Zhou.

She narrowed her eyes and gritted her teeth. "Of course, Mr. Henry is different. Qiao Mianmian, what are your intentions? Did you suddenly mention Mr. Henry on purpose?"

She looked around cautiously and heaved a sigh of relief when she didn't see anyone suspicious.

Qiao Mianmian was such a slut.

Why did she mention Henry Zhou?

Shen Rou knew that Henry Zhou was an actor before.

But when she said that artistes were lowly actors, she didn't think of this.

Now that she had said it, she felt that something was wrong. She seemed to have scolded Henry Zhou too.

Thankfully, it was useless no matter how cunning Qiao Mianmian was.

After all, Henry Zhou was still overseas and couldn't have heard what she said.

As long as she didn't admit it.

Although Shen Rou said that artistes were lowly actors and looked down on them, she knew very well that this era was different from before.

In the past, artistes were indeed lowly and unrepresentable. They were entertainers who could be bought with money.

But celebrities nowadays had a high social status.

Especially the popular celebrities, they were always paid to do things for them.

Even big companies had to rely on celebrities to endorse their products.

A popular celebrity with a huge volume of goods could create very good sales results for a company.

Nowadays, fans were willing to pay for their favorite celebrity's products.

Moreover, the top-tier celebrities these days had a lot of airs. They might not be hired no matter how much money they were offered. They had to be nice and ask for all sorts of things. After all, these top-tier celebrities didn't lack money, nor did they lack partners. Many businessmen gave them a lot of money.

Previously, they'd thought of getting Shen Fei to endorse the Shen Corporation's new jewelry brand.

Shen Fei was a big-shot celebrity with both popularity and capability. If she could be the spokesperson for Shen Corporation's jewelry, their jewelry would be raised a few grades.

But what frustrated Shen Rou was that Shen Fei actually rejected her.

They had offered 30 million yuan for the endorsement, but Shen Fei rejected it without hesitation.

30 million yuan for an endorsement was already a very high fee.

Even the top-tier celebrities would only be paid that amount after a few months of filming.

What angered Shen Rou even more was that Shen Fei's reason for rejecting her was that she didn't like the Shen Corporation's jewelry and felt that it didn't match her image.
