

Big Shot 341

Chapter 341: Chairman Su, Have You Worked With Him Before?

The hustle caught the attention of all the passers-by.

It was a pretty big deal to see two actresses fighting each other.

Especially when one of them was Qiao Anxin, who was hot news these days.

Some of them were already taking out their cell phones to record this scene on video.

*

In the changing room at a golf course.

A young man changed into his sports attire and then walked out with a 40-odd-year-old man.

"I've heard about how good Director Zhang is at golf. I'll finally get to witness it today."

They got to the golf course.

The young man took a golf club from one of the employees. He then bent over and tried out the swinging motion.

The older man beside him took a club as well and said, "It's been more than a year since I last played. I'm afraid I'll lose to you today, Chairman Su."

"Director Zhang is too humble." Su Ze smiled kindly and went on with some civilities. "It wouldn't take more than a few balls for Director Zhang to get back your momentum. Director Zhang, please show mercy later. Don't let me trail too badly."

"Hahaha." Director Zhang swung his club, and the golf ball landed right in the hole.

Su Ze immediately applauded and exclaimed, "You said you've lost it? You must be invincible if you were in your top form, then."

"There's always someone better out there. I'm really not that good."

"Oh?" Su Ze was a little shocked. "There's someone in the industry who plays better than Director Zhang? You're referring to..."

Director Zhang swung the club again and scored another hole in one swing before handing his club to the employee.

He took a sip of water and then said with a smile, "It's a young man. He's pretty impressive. I played with him once. I would've lost terribly if he hadn't shown me mercy. Well, the young will surpass us someday."

Su Ze and Director Zhang had worked together for many years, but this was the first time he'd heard Director Zhang praise someone this way.

He got curious.

“This young man Director Zhang is talking about... do I know him?”

“It’s the newly appointed Chairman of the Mo Corporation. Chairman Su, have you worked with him before?”

Su Ze was a little stunned.

The Su family did have some dealings with the Mo Corporation. But to the Mo Corporation, they were but small deals.

It didn’t require him to speak directly to the Chairman.

Hence, he never really had the chance to work with him directly before.

He did hope to have an opportunity to do so. But given the gap between the Su and Mo families, it wasn’t up to him to get to know Chairman Mo personally.

“Director Zhang, you must be kidding.” Su Ze smiled. “Given Chairman Mo’s status, not everyone has the chance to deal with him directly. I heard that he’s a young Chairman, only 20-odd years in age. Is that true?”

“Mm. He’s very young, indeed.” Director Zhang said, “He’s very good-looking and has a unique charisma and aura. He really is the son of the greatest beauty out there. I’d say he’s the most outstanding of this generation of businessmen.

“He’s flawless in terms of appearance and capability. Although he’s young, he’s a pretty impressive chap who’s managed the Mo Corporation well so far.”

Su Ze kept silent for a while as a strange glint flashed in his eyes.

Hearing the person Director Zhang described led him to think about the man he saw at the private clubhouse.

Chapter 342: Mo Corporation, Mo Yesi

That man went by the surname Mo too.

He was also extraordinarily good-looking and appeared young.

He’d driven a black Rolls Royce that day, with a plate number that Su Ze could find nothing about even after employing all his resources.

This man even managed to make Sheng Hui Corporation go bankrupt overnight.

The more Su Ze thought about the possibility, the more shocked he became. Soon, he broke out in cold sweat.

“Chairman Su, what’s the matter? Are you unwell?” Director Zhang had just given it another shot on the course when he noticed Su Ze’s paleness.

Su Ze was in a daze.

He was shocked by his own thoughts and speculations.

Upon second thought, however, it seemed unlikely.

Everyone knew that the newly appointed Chairman of the Mo Corporation was never seen with a woman. The only woman to ever have appeared close to him was Young Lady Shen.

So, there was no way Qiao Mianmian could be with him.

This thought brought Su Ze huge relief.

Regaining color on his cheeks, he wiped the sweat off his palms. He picked up the club again and walked towards Director Zhang. "It's nothing, just some gastric discomfort. I'm fine now."

Director Zhang nodded and said some kind words, then continued golfing.

*

About two hours later, Su Ze and Director Zhang signed an agreement and drew their golf game to a close.

He stood at the entrance and saw Director Zhang get into his Jaguar before turning to leave.

Just as he turned around, a black figure approached him.

His expression changed slightly as he stopped in his tracks.

It was him.

The man at the private clubhouse.

Su Ze looked in shock at the man whom he'd tried to arrange an appointment with countless times but with no success. This man in black was walking in front while Chairman Chen politely followed behind.

One of them looked like the master while the other looked like the slave.

And the one who looked like the slave was Chairman Chen.

This scene shocked Su Ze.

The Chen Firm was very well established in Yuncheng City.

The Su family had to plead with them a few times too.

He even had to politely address Chairman Chen as Uncle Chen whenever he saw him.

"Eh, isn't that Young Master Su?" Chairman Chen looked up, saw him, and proceeded to greet him.

Only then did Su Ze snap out of his daze. "Uncle Chen."

"Xiao Su, you're here for an appointment too?"

Chairman Chen and Su Ze's father were rather close, so it was only natural for him to show some concern about Su Ze.

Su Ze looked at Mo Yesi's cold expression and nodded. "Mm. Uncle Chen is here to discuss a dealing too? Beside Uncle Chen here is..."

A strange surge of fury rose in Su Ze the moment he thought of this man's relationship with Qiao Mianmian.

When he looked at Mo Yesi, it was with a trace of rivalry.

As if he was looking at his love rival.

Chairman Chen hadn't intended to speak for so long, for fear that the man beside him would be upset or annoyed. He'd planned to just ask a word of concern out of formality's sake and then leave, but the man beside him took the initiative to answer Su Ze. "Mo Corporation, Mo Yesi."

Su Ze's head snapped up in astonishment.

"You're from the Mo Corporation?"

Mo Yesi smiled. "Yes."

He casually slipped his hands into his pockets, appearing prim and proper but at ease.

His presence and aura were impossible to ignore.

Chapter 343: I Can Pay It for Her

That face was especially handsome, with a young but mature aura to it. It was cold but evidently astute, and the air around him was outstanding. It didn't seem to come from such a young man at all.

Su Ze himself was a rather outstanding young man.

But if compared to Mo Yesi, they were worlds apart.

He'd be downgraded a few notches immediately.

Director Zhang's words rang in his ears as Su Ze looked at him.

Young, exceptionally good-looking, capable, and competent at golf.

And they were on the same golf course as well.

As he thought about how polite Chairman Chen was to this man, that same speculation came up again.

He looked startled and in disbelief. "May I ask which department in the Mo Corporation is Mr. Mo working in? Your position in the department is...?"

He refused to believe that Mr. Mo was the Chairman of the Mo Corporation.

Even if all the different descriptions aligned.

Qiao Mianmian wouldn't possibly have the chance to know the Chairman of the Mo Corporation.

Much less be so intimate with him.

Chairman Chen saw that Mo Yesi had responded to Su Ze of his own accord and thought that he had an interest in working with him. He considered introducing them to each other.

This young man of the Su family wasn't so bad himself.

He was willing to provide support and guidance to the younger generation if he liked them.

After some consideration, Chairman Chen smiled and said, "Xiao Su, this is Chairman Mo."

Su Ze's expression instantly changed.

"Chairman Mo?"

"Yes, Chairman Mo is..."

Chairman Chen was about to go on introducing him when he heard the man beside him say, "Just a small department in the Mo Corporation, it isn't worth mentioning. Chairman Chen, I'll make a move first."

With that, Mo Yesi walked past both of them and headed to the car park.

Su Ze stood rooted to the spot for a few seconds and then chased up to Mo Yesi, who just got to a Lamborghini not too far away.

He called out to him just before he got into the car. "Chairman Mo, please hang on."

Mo Yesi turned around and looked at him coldly. He sounded distant as he said, "Mr. Su, is anything else the matter?"

Su Ze looked at this handsome man before him quietly for a while and then said in a rather unpleasant tone, "Chairman Mo, let's talk."

Mo Yesi narrowed his eyes. "A talk? What would Mr. Su like to talk to me about?"

Su Ze didn't beat about the bush. "Chairman Mo is an intelligent man, you should be able to guess. I don't know how Chairman Mo got to know Mianmian, nor do I know what conditions you offered her to have her be with you.

"But I'd like to let Chairman Mo know that if you're just going for something novel and refreshing, and you're just playing with Mianmian because she's pretty, then I hope for Chairman Mo to let her go. I can give you the amount of money you gave her.

"Mianmian isn't suitable for you. If Chairman Mo is willing to show mercy and release her, I can help Chairman Mo get even more beautiful girls."

Su Ze guessed that Mo Yesi was a manager of some department or perhaps the Vice-Chairman.

He was probably in charge of a rather important department in the firm.

Which was why Chairman Chen had to be so polite to him.

Chapter 344: Is It Not Convenient, or Are You Too Ashamed?

Although a high post in the Mo Corporation was already considerably impressive, he was still an employee, after all.

His authority wasn't his, ultimately.

Such a position wasn't much of a threat to Su Ze.

As such, he dared to approach him and say such stuff without a second thought.

He knew that the Mo Corporation had very good welfare for their employees, and the pay was high too, especially for those of the management level. It could even go up to tens of millions in yuan.

It was more than enough for them to get a mistress outside.

But that amount of money wasn't much to him.

The Su Mandate raked in over a billion yuan each year, so Su Ze's salary far surpassed a high-post employee in the Mo Corporation.

No matter how much money Mo Yesi gave to Qiao Mianmian, he should be able to afford it.

Mo Yesi smiled silently for a few moments and then raised a brow. "Mr. Su thinks that I'm with Mianmian because I'm after her looks and some novelty?"

Although he felt that this employee wasn't much of a threat to him, it wasn't wise to offend him either.

The Su family still had some dealings with the Mo Corporation.

It wouldn't do them any good to get into this man's bad books.

He looked at Mo Yesi's strange smile and responded pleasantly, "Mr. Mo, I might've said something wrong in a fluster. Please don't hold it against me. I won't hide it from you. I made such a request because I share a special relationship with Qiao Mianmian."

Mo Yesi's fingers tightened around the door handle as his eyes darkened. "Oh? By special relationship, Mr. Su means...?"

Su Ze seemed more than happy to say, "She's my ex-girlfriend. We were close to getting married.

"We've known each other for 10 years, and we understand each other better than anyone else. Hence, I'm sure that she can't be true to you even though she's with you. Chairman Mo is so eligible, you surely aren't short of women around you. Is there a point in keeping a woman who doesn't love you by your side?"

"I believe Chairman Mo is a prideful man too and wouldn't force anything upon others. Honestly, besides being pretty, Mianmian doesn't have other strengths. She's quiet, reserved, and not fun to be around. Moreover, she's not good at that.

"If Chairman Mo wants someone fun to play with, why spend money on a dull woman who doesn't know how to make you happy?"

Su Ze felt the atmosphere change the moment he said his piece.

He felt a chill down his spine when he looked deeply into Mo Yesi's cold eyes.

"Chairman Mo, you..."

"Mr. Su." Mo Yesi squinted at him, his voice low and hoarse. "You said you and Mianmian have known each other for 10 years and understand each other best. You almost got married?"

Su Ze hesitated for a while. "... Yes."

"Ha." Mo Yesi sneered. "So, your relationship with her was very strong then. Then, may I ask, why did you break up ultimately?"

Su Ze deliberated over the question with furrowed brows. "I'm sorry, this is between her and me. It isn't convenient to discuss this with someone else."

Mo Yesi eyed him in a domineering manner. "Is it not convenient, or are you too ashamed? Mr. Su is having a good time with her sister on the one hand, and on the other hand, you wish to be Mianmian's hero. How big of a heart do you have, Mr. Su? And how many people can you hold in it?"

Chapter 345: We Really Can't Afford to Offend the Mo Family

Su Ze's expression was distorted with shock. "You..."

Mo Yesi's expression changed too as he took a step forward and grabbed his collar. "Su Ze, you bullied Mianmian so badly, and I haven't even come after you for it. You should be thanking the Heavens that I've shown you this much mercy. Who gave you such guts to make such requests of me?"

"If it wasn't for Mianmian, do you think you'd still be standing here well and alive? It's as easy to kill you as it is to kill an ant. I'm warning you one last time. Qiao Mianmian is my woman now. If you show her any disrespect at all, I will make sure you die a terrible death."

With that, he released his collar and got in the car.

Bam!

The door was shut, and the Lamborghini pulled out of the lot.

Su Ze hadn't moved from the spot, despite being clouded in car exhaust.

His whole body had stiffened.

He was terrified.

Mo Yesi truly looked menacing when he said: "I will make sure you die a terrible death."

At that moment, he could tell that he meant it.

"Xiao Su, what's going on here? What happened between you and Chairman Mo?"

Chairman Chen had witnessed the scene just now and quickly came over to ask about it once Mo Yesi left.

Su Ze turned around, his face pale with shock. It was only after a while that he asked with quivering lips, "Uncle Chen, who exactly is he?"

Initially, he'd guessed that Mo Yesi was the newly appointed Chairman. But he soon found reasons to deny it.

Then, he guessed that he held a high post in the Mo Corporation.

And now, he felt that his last guess was wrong too.

If he was just a manager or at an equivalent level, he wouldn't act like that.

"He isn't just anyone from a small department, right?" Su Ze asked before Chairman Chen responded to his first question. "Uncle Chen, you know who he is, right? Tell me, who exactly is he?"

Chairman Chen frowned at him and shook his head. "Xiao Su, I've only met Chairman Mo twice, this time included. I don't really know him well. Neither am I sure of what his actual post is in the Mo Corporation."

Of course, Chairman Chen knew Mo Yesi's actual identity.

But since Mo Yesi had put it that way, it was clear that he didn't want Su Ze to know who he really was.

Chairman Chen dared not reveal too much on his own accord.

But seeing how angry Mo Yesi looked when he left, Chairman Chen felt a need to offer this young man a few words of advice and caution.

After all, he and his father were friends.

And their families were working together.

It would be terrible if Su Ze offended Mo Yesi.

"Xiao Su, I don't know what post Chairman Mo holds in the Mo Corporation, but since he's a Mo himself, he might very well be a close relative of the founder of the Mo family. And since he's working in the firm, it shows that they recognize his ability.

"Don't you offend him. We really can't afford to offend the Mo family."

Chairman Chen was only reminding him about this because he considered the Su family a friend.

If it was someone else, he wouldn't even bother.

But who would've expected that instead of being grateful for his advice, Su Ze didn't take it too seriously?

He seemed so much more relieved to hear that.

"So, he's just their relative."

Chapter 346: Miss Qiao Is at the Police Station Now

Su Ze looked at the tense Chairman Chen and casually said, "Uncle Chen, aren't you a little too uptight. The Mo Corporation is so huge, they probably have a huge extended family of relatives. He's just another one of them."

No wonder he was so arrogant.

It was just because he depended on the Mo family as his backing.

What a pity that he was just a relative and not the Chairman with all the power.

Even if he offended him, the Mo family couldn't possibly make a huge move against him just because of this one relative.

Chairman Chen frowned when he realized that Su Ze wasn't paying much heed to his words, but he didn't want to say more.

He'd said what he needed to.

Whether or not Su Ze took his advice was another thing.

Given his relationship with the Su family, this was all he could do.

If this Young Master Su wanted to court death, he wouldn't stop him.

"Alright, then. I'll be off. Let your dad know we can go fishing someday when he has the time."

"Sure. I'll relay the message to my dad. See you, Uncle Chen."

Su Ze watched as Chairman Chen got into his car, then he headed to another area of the car park.

He got his keys out and pressed a button, unlocking a silver Porsche.

Su Ze walked over and got into the car.

He'd just taken his seat when his cell phone rang.

He saw that it was from a colleague and immediately picked it up. "Hello."

"Chairman Su." It was a polite greeting. "Could you immediately come to the police station?"

"Police station?" Su Ze frowned. "What happened?"

There was a pause before the other party said, "M-Miss Qiao is at the police station now."

"Anxin is at the police station?" Su Ze was confused. "What's going on? How did she end up at the police station?"

The other person hesitated again before stammering. "Miss Qiao was having a squabble with another artiste, and then... and then, they started fighting. Someone called the police, so she and the other artiste are having their statements taken now."

“She fought with someone?” Su Ze couldn’t believe what he heard.

The Qiao Anxin he knew was gentle.

How could she end up fighting?

Upon thinking that she was carrying a child, Su Ze immediately went pale. “Is she hurt?”

“Miss Qiao has some scratches on her face and arms. Besides that... she seems fine.”

Qiao Anxin’s pregnancy hadn’t been made known yet.

Besides the Su and Qiao families, nobody else knew.

Su Ze was worried about the child, but he couldn’t ask him directly. He asked, “Did she say she felt unwell anywhere?”

“... No. Miss Qiao just said she wanted to see you, and got me to call you.”

Su Ze heaved a sigh of relief.

It seemed like Anxin was really alright. As the mother, she should be even more concerned about her child than him.

If she really did feel discomfort, she would surely let him know.

“Tell her not to worry. I’ll be right over.”

When Su Ze arrived at the police station, Qiao Anxin had just had her statement taken.

She hurried towards him and hugged him the moment she got out.

She looked so aggrieved with teary eyes that she began weeping as if on cue. “Brother Ah Ze, you’re finally here... I’m so afraid...”

Chapter 347: Nobody Will Dare to Hurt You Again

She shivered as if she was really in fear.

Su Ze looked down and saw her teary eyes and pale cheeks.

Her face had been scratched, and the two lines across her cheek were rather startling.

Su Ze hugged her tight and comforted her gently. “Anxin, don’t be afraid. I’m here. With me around, nobody will dare to hurt you again. Don’t be afraid...”

Qiao Anxin sobbed in his arms. “Brother Ah Ze, you’ve got to stand up for me. My face is scratched now, how will I take up future gigs?”

She depended on her face for a living. Such a wound wouldn’t recover within the week.

But her schedule was packed, and she didn’t even have enough time to rest.

Especially since she had a live appearance the day after.

A live appearance didn't pay much, but it would do much good for her popularity.

Su Ze thought about it too.

He looked at the long scratch marks on her face and said, "Don't worry about this. Take it as a vacation. I'll make sure to arrange it for you. Tell me what happened. Why did you end up fighting with that actress?"

Su Ze was very sure that it must've been the other woman who bullied her.

Qiao Anxin was such a kind and gentle woman, she wouldn't be the one to pick a fight.

Although he couldn't do much to the actress under another company, he couldn't possibly let someone bully his woman like that.

Qiao Anxin was about to say something when he frowned and asked, "Where's Linda? Why isn't she with you?"

Upon hearing that, Qiao Anxin blinked innocently, and tears rolled down her cheeks once again.

"I argued with Linda because of a minor misunderstanding, and she suddenly said she wanted to quit. She even mocked me and said my acting wasn't good, and that I wasn't suitable to be an actress. She told me to go for variety shows instead."

Su Ze was shocked. "Linda said she wants to quit?"

Linda was a long-service employee at Star Splendor. She'd been under them for about 10 years.

Why would she suddenly want to quit?

"Yes."

She glanced at him and said, "We had some arguments in the past too, over some disagreements. But we usually settle it very quickly. I'm not sure why she flared up so terribly this time and said she didn't want to be my manager anymore.

"She even said she'd tell you about this. I thought you knew."

Qiao Anxin was aggrieved.

She still hadn't figured out why Linda suddenly turned against her.

Just because she wanted to back out of "Imperial Palace"?

But she was Su Ze's girlfriend, the future Lady Boss of Star Splendor.

Breaking just one contract wasn't a big deal.

She was going to be able to have any opportunity she wanted in the future. Even if she gave up her role in "Imperial Palace," it wouldn't have much of an impact on her career.

Su Ze's expression darkened.

“Are you sure it’s over a small argument? That’s all that happened when she said she wanted to quit?”

“Brother Ah Ze, do you think I’d lie to you?” Qiao Anxin looked at him with puppy eyes. “She wanted me to stop acting and just go for variety shows. She talked about quitting just because I didn’t agree with her and rebutted her.

“Perhaps in the 10 years that she’s been in Star Splendor, all the artistes under her had listened to her obediently, but I haven’t. Maybe that’s why she doesn’t want to be my manager anymore.”

Chapter 348: Do You Feel Any Discomfort in Your Belly?

Su Ze looked at Qiao Anxin’s teary eyes for a few seconds and then gently stroked her hair. “I’m not doubting you, don’t overthink it. Linda... has been with Star Splendor for a long time and has groomed many artistes over the years. She has a place in Star Splendor.

“All the artistes respect her.

“Perhaps everyone has been too obedient, so even a minor disagreement on your part ticked her off.”

“But I really like acting.” Qiao Anxin bit her lip sadly. “She can arrange for me to have some variety show slots, but she can’t stop me from acting. I won’t be able to accept that. I can agree to everything else, but not this.

“I always thought she was easy to get along with. Who knew that she’d think of leaving Star Splendor because of such a minor issue. Brother Ah Ze, she knew about my relationship with you, but she’s still doing this. Isn’t she disrespecting me and you at the same time?

“Does she think that she’s too powerful for anyone to go against her just because she’s made her contribution?”

Qiao Anxin sounded so innocent when she said that.

But the moment she was done, she saw that Su Ze was fuming.

Qiao Anxin went on, “You’ve just taken over the Su Mandate, so a veteran like her probably doesn’t respect you yet. Perhaps that’s why she isn’t afraid of you at all. I don’t think she really wants to resign, she’s just venting on me.

“In any case, she’s so sure that you wouldn’t possibly let her leave Star Splendor.”

Since Linda didn’t wish to be her manager anymore...

She could scam.

She needed an obedient manager, not a manager who wanted her to be obedient.

She understood Su Ze well.

What triggered him the most was for employees to not respect him or be afraid of him.

Even though Linda was a long-time employee of Star Splendor, he wouldn't tolerate her if he knew that she was challenging his authority.

"Since she wants to resign, then let her be. She's just a manager, I doubt Star Splendor will be affected without her. She knew that you are my woman and still dared to treat you like that. How arrogant!

"I wonder how she treats the other artistes.

"Star Splendor doesn't need someone like her."

Su Ze's face had darkened drastically, and he immediately called the Human Resources Department at Star Splendor to get them to settle Linda's dismissal.

The Manager of the department got a shock when he heard that, and he even asked for Su Ze to repeat himself.

That reaction made Su Ze even angrier.

He got more adamant about kicking Linda out of Star Splendor.

"You didn't hear me wrong. I'm referring to Xie Linda. Get her to return to the office to finish up the paperwork. Also, tell her she doesn't have to look for me. It's an order."

Leaning against his chest, Qiao Anxin smiled smugly.

Su Ze hung up and walked her to a nearby seat.

He looked at the scratches on her face and then glanced at her stomach with a worried look. "Anxin, do you feel unwell anywhere?"

Qiao Anxin shook her head. "I'm alright, Brother Ah Ze. You don't have to worry about me."

"Do you feel any discomfort in your belly?" Su Ze asked a policeman about the situation when he arrived.

According to him, Qiao Anxin and the other actress got in a huge fight. They both hit each other while on the ground, and nobody had managed to pull them apart.

Chapter 349: If Qiao Anxin Lied to Him...

This was different from what he imagined.

Qiao Anxin was less than three months pregnant, which meant that her pregnancy was still unstable. Anything could go wrong at this point.

If she really was as physical and rough as the policeman had said, that would've been dangerous.

She might have miscarried.

Su Ze had been so caught up with comforting her over Linda's case that this danger had slipped his mind.

Seeing how unfazed and unworried she looked, he couldn't help but doubt her.

"You're really alright?" He narrowed his eyes, his gaze a little strange. "You really don't want to get it checked at the hospital?"

Qiao Anxin's heart sank.

When she looked up and saw his doubtful eyes, she felt even more conscious. It seemed like he was suspecting something about their child.

She stiffened, and her hands and feet went cold.

Only a while later did she manage to force a smile while evading his gaze. "I s-should be fine. I was protecting my belly the whole time, so our baby should be fine. Moreover, I think our baby is very strong. He's not as fragile as you think he is."

"Is it?"

Su Ze looked at her evasive eyes and that unnatural expression and began having more doubts...

He and Qiao Anxin had always used a condom.

The only time they hadn't used it was when she seduced him at his bay window, and he hadn't managed to grab one in time.

But that day was during Qiao Anxin's safe period.

And he'd done it outside of her when the time came.

So, it was very unlikely that she would get pregnant with his child.

Though it wasn't impossible.

Hence, when Qiao Anxin said that she was carrying his child, he didn't doubt her.

Of course, she had shown him a pregnancy report too.

But at this point, Su Ze had too many questions.

Qiao Anxin's pregnancy was too timely.

He'd just begun discussing marriage with Qiao Mianmian when Qiao Anxin got pregnant.

Then, Qiao Mianmian found out about them.

The main reason he broke up with her and got together with Qiao Anxin was because of the child.

The moment he thought of a certain possibility, Su Ze's expression turned awful.

"Brother Ah Ze, w-what's wrong?" Qiao Anxin eyed him cautiously and tentatively.

Had Su Ze... discovered something?

Su Ze looked at her for a while and then smiled. He reached out to stroke her hair as if all was normal. "It's nothing. I just feel that it'd be safer if you get it checked at the hospital."

“Otherwise, I’ll be worried about you.”

As he thought about it now, he realized that it had always been Qiao Anxin mentioning the pregnancy.

Back then, it was also she who showed him the pregnancy report.

And from that point on, he never doubted it.

He didn’t even know why he’d trusted her so easily back then.

Su Ze felt that this was a good chance to take Qiao Anxin to the hospital to check it out.

If she lied to him...

The hand by his side clenched into a fist.

Qiao Anxin also guessed that Su Ze was beginning to suspect her and was trying to get her to the hospital to find out the truth.

If that was the case, then she had nothing to fear.

Chapter 350: Mo Yesi... You’re Back?

Since she had connections with the hospital, it wasn’t difficult at all to get a pregnancy test report.

She went to check since Su Ze wanted her to.

As long as the inspection report came out, he would naturally stop doubting her.

Speaking of which, this was a good opportunity to prove herself.

At this thought, Qiao Anxin immediately nodded happily and agreed. Looking good and obedient, she softly said, “Okay. I’ll listen to you, Brother Ah Ze. Then, we’ll go to the hospital for an examination now, okay?”

Su Ze was taken aback.

Her quick agreement made him doubt himself.

Was he thinking too much?

But since he already had doubts, no matter if he was thinking too much, he had to take Qiao Anxin to the hospital for an examination.

If he really misunderstood her, it wasn’t a big deal as he could just buy her a gift as an apology.

Soon, under the police’s cover, the two left through the police station’s other door. They avoided the group of reporters waiting at the front entrance.

*

Mo Yesi immediately drove home.

Lei En came out to greet him when he arrived at Lu Shan Gardens.

“Is Madam awake yet?” Mo Yesi took off his coat and tie before handing them to him.

Taking both items, Lei En followed a few steps behind him and respectfully replied, “Madam hasn’t come down yet. She’s probably still sleeping.”

Mo Yesi was worried after finding out about her dysmenorrhea.

He was afraid she was staying in her bedroom all day because of her discomfort.

He went straight upstairs, walking quickly and eagerly. Opening the door, he walked into the bedroom and saw a petite figure lying on the big bed motionlessly. Her posture was the same as when he left, and she was still sleeping soundly.

He couldn’t help but ease his steps.

Walking slowly to the side of the bed, he reached out to gently pull the thin blanket.

Qiao Mianmian had covered her head while sleeping.

He pulled away the thin blanket covering her head, revealing a delicate pink face.

While sleeping, the white skin of the girl lying on the big bed revealed a faint crimson color, just like that of a newborn baby.

When she opened her eyes in a daze, she saw a pair of familiar and dark eyes in the dim light.

Stunned for a few seconds, she stuttered in a slightly confused voice, “Mo Yesi... you’re back?”

Seeing that she was awake, Mo Yesi picked her up with a quilt and embraced her in his arms like a silkworm.

Looking down, he softly said, “Yes, I’m back.”

Turning around to look at the clock, Qiao Mianmian was a little surprised. “You finished socializing so early.”

It was only 5 o’clock.

She thought he would only return at 7 or 8 o’clock.
