

Big Shot 411

Chapter 411: Baby, Why Are You So Adorable

Qiao Mianmian corrected him while walking out. "Mr. Mo, you're still pursuing me. Please watch the way you address me."

He chuckled endearingly. "Mm. Thank you for correcting me, Miss Qiao. I'll watch myself."

Qiao Mianmian tried to keep herself from smiling as she closed her room door.

She headed downstairs quickly.

A sweet and fuzzy feeling crept into her heart as she thought about the man waiting for her downstairs. She was still talking to him over the phone as she made her way down. "Didn't you say you'd take 20 minutes? Why are you here so soon?"

She looked at the time. It had only been 14 minutes.

"Mm... I wanted to see you sooner, so I dashed past a few red lights to get here early."

Qiao Mianmian was stunned.

She immediately frowned when she heard this. "Mo Yesi, you beat the red light? You can't do this, it's wrong!

"How could you beat the red light, you know that's dangerous. I'd rather wait for a few hours than have you do that."

And it wasn't just one, it was a few!

That was terrible!

She was a law-abiding citizen who wouldn't approve of this.

Not even if he was her husband.

She was yelling into the phone, but when she was done, the man chuckled. The way he laughed sent electric shocks through her veins.

"What are you laughing about." Qiao Mianmian was too mad to feel attracted by that. "It's wrong, you can't do this again in the future."

"Mianmian."

The man laughed for a while before he quietened. When he said her name, it was with a hint of affection.

Qiao Mianmian's heart skipped a beat. "W-What..."

The man sounded increasingly flirtatious. "You're worried about me?"

Qiao Mianmian placed a hand on her chest and took a deep breath to maintain her composure. "Don't overthink it. I was worried about the pedestrians. They're in danger when you do that."

He was pursuing her now.

Qiao Mianmian didn't want to admit that she was worried about him.

Otherwise, he'd be so smug.

"Is it?" Mo Yesi asked in his low voice. "You aren't worried about me at all?"

"... What is there to worry about."

Qiao Mianmian realized that they had gone off-tangent from what she meant to say earlier. She firmly reiterated, "Mo Yesi, don't get cheeky with me. Did you hear what I said?"

"Mm, I did."

The man laughed again, and at that moment, she felt as if he was right by her ear.

Qiao Mianmian tried to regulate her racing heart. She bit her lip and said, "That's all that matters. Don't do that again."

"Baby, why are you so adorable."

The man sounded very happy and loving. "You believe everything I say. Do you trust me that much?"

Qiao Mianmian was shocked. "... You were kidding?"

Chapter 412: Whatever You Want, I'll Accompany You for It

"I was just teasing you. I didn't think you'd take it so seriously."

There was no response.

So, he didn't actually beat the lights?

And she actually believed him so foolishly?

"Mo Yesi, you..." She bit her lip in frustration.

Was this funny!

What an annoying man.

She was going to give it back to him when she saw him.

"Have you thought of what you want for lunch?"

She thought of how he'd just cheated her and said out of spite, "Yup, let's have hot pot. I want hot pot. The one we went to was pretty good, how about that?"

"Hot pot? Sure." The man agreed easily. He sounded gentle as he said, "Whatever you want, I'll accompany you for it."

Qiao Mianmian felt a little bad that he was agreeing to it so quickly. "But, you don't take spicy food."

He'd puked after the meal the last time.

"Mm, I can't take spicy food. But if you like it, I'll have it with you."

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

What now.

Her fire was put out immediately by his gentleness.

"Forget it. I don't want hot pot anymore. Let's think about it when I see you." Qiao Mianmian pouted and hung up.

She was out of the building soon.

And immediately saw the Lamborghini at the front of the building.

Even in a school like Yuncheng City Film Academy, where luxury cars weren't an uncommon sight, this Lamborghini was still eye-catching.

Especially when such a tall and handsome man was standing right by it.

The man's looks, figure, and charisma were outstanding even in the Film Academy full of good-looking students.

In fact, the hints of elegance and classiness he embodied really stood out in this school setting.

He was attracting glances just by standing around.

Any student passing by—whether guy or girl—would turn to look at him.

The female students were all peeping at him from a distance and turning red upon watching him. Some of them even started discussing him quietly.

But the man never turned to look at anyone.

He was scrolling through his phone, seemingly chatting with someone online.

Qiao Mianmian stopped in her tracks when she realized that Mo Yesi had driven such an attention-grabbing Lamborghini right to her block.

She furrowed her brows slightly.

Was this man being too high-profile about this?

It was going to attract everyone's attention.

But she realized that she hadn't told him not to park here before.

So... this wasn't his fault.

Actually, Qiao Mianmian wasn't afraid of letting others know that they were together. Mo Yesi had been to the school a few times, and many people had seen him around.

It was also known by many that she was with a new boyfriend now.

So, she wasn't actually trying to hide her relationship with Mo Yesi.

She just found this... a little too much.

The last two times Mo Yesi appeared, and the one time he got Uncle Li to fetch Bai Xiao and the rest in the Rolls-Royce, was already high-profile enough.

She was already getting some haters because of it.

Chapter 413: So, Do You Like It?

Qiao Mianmian looked at him for a while from a few meters away. After a moment's hesitation, she was just about to walk towards him when he looked up and faced her.

The man smiled once he saw her and immediately kept his cell phone.

Then, Qiao Mianmian saw him turn around and reach into the car, before taking out a huge bouquet of red roses.

The handsome man, the red roses, and his smile caught the attention of many around them. He then slowly walked towards her.

He stopped before her and handed the roses—still dotted with dew—to her. “Miss Qiao, I passed by a florist and got you some flowers. I hope you like it.”

All the young guys in school couldn't hold a candle to him, be it in terms of looks or other aspects.

His aura was unique and slightly cold, and it made the girls around hesitate to approach him, even if they wanted to so badly.

But now, those girls saw him handing a bouquet of flowers to Qiao Mianmian.

And giving her such an attractive and gentle smile.

He became a completely different person from the distant and cold man who'd been standing alone.

Qiao Mianmian was a little stunned by the huge bouquet of red roses and only reached out to receive it a few seconds later.

The flowers were a little heavy, so she rested it against her arm when she received it. She could feel that people around were looking at them. She whispered, “Why did you get me flowers again?”

Mo Yesi smiled. “Aren't I pursuing you now? I heard that women like receiving flowers. So, do you like it?”

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

She did like it.

Every woman liked receiving flowers.

But this was too frequent, and each time, he bought so many of them. She felt that it was such a waste.

Seeing that she was deep in thought, Mo Yesi placed a hand on her head gently. "It's just a bouquet of flowers. It's fine as long as you like it."

If she loved them, he could get her a bouquet every day.

The girls were practically squealing when they saw what he was doing.

"Woah, he dotes on her so much."

"Who knew that such a cold-looking man could have a soft and gentle side, too."

"That girl's Qiao Mianmian from the Performing Arts faculty, right? Have you seen the school forum? That man must be the rich second-generation heir that she'd just managed to get hold of. She's so capable. It hasn't been that long since her breakup, and she's managed to find another rich and handsome man already."

"She's a capable sl*t. I heard that she started going after rich heirs since her high school days. She has more than enough experience."

"Why do sl*ts like her always manage to find the good guys, and even have a way to trick them into thinking of her as such a gentle, kind, and innocent girl. Meanwhile, the truly good girls always get the jerks. This is unfair."

"That's because they're good at putting up a front and happen to be born with an innocent-looking face. Men are single-celled organisms, they can't tell the difference between what's true and what's false. Only girls know one another."

"She apparently had an abortion back when she was in high school? How could a sl*t with such a messy private life get such an outstanding man? Don't these men ever check on her background?"

Chapter 414: Mister, You Were Swindled By Qiao Mianmian

The ladies were jealous, and their comments were really nasty.

However, as they were really soft and at a distance from Qiao Mianmian and Mo Yesi, the two of them didn't hear what they said.

Mo Yesi noticed that the flowers were a bit too heavy for Qiao Mianmian and offered to carry them for her. He then said, "I'll put it in the car."

Qiao Mianmian was grateful for his gesture.

The flowers were indeed too heavy for her. Her arms were starting to ache after holding them for just a short while.

The two of them then strolled to the car.

Mo Yesi fished out the keys and opened the car. He then placed the flowers in the backseat.

After that, he went to the side and opened the doors for her. He smiled and said, "Miss Qiao, please get in."

Mo Yesi's gentlemanly behavior attracted the attention of a group of girls nearby.

Girls were attracted to gentlemen.

Girls were even more attracted if they were rich and handsome.

Qiao Mianmian walked over while others stared at her.

As she was about to get in the car, a familiar voice could be heard behind her. "Mister, you were swindled by Qiao Mianmian. She isn't who she portrays herself to be."

Qiao Mianmian was shocked by the comment and turned around.

It was Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei. They were walking towards her together.

The voice just now belonged to Bai Xiao.

This was the second time Bai Xiao met Mo Yesi, and she was really excited. Even though she tried her best to hide it, her expression was of excitement.

Mo Yesi narrowed his eyes and stared at her coldly.

As she met his cold glance, Bai Xiao felt her heartbeat speeding up. She was nervous yet excited about what was about to happen.

She walked quickly to Mo Yesi and clenched her fists. She took a deep breath and said, "Mister, we have met before. I'm Qiao Mianmian's roommate."

As he looked at the woman feeling so good about herself, Mo Yesi frowned and replied coldly, "Miss, I have no idea who you are. Please stop behaving as though we are friends."

Bai Xiao frowned at being publicly humiliated.

The girls standing nearby heard it and started to make fun of her. "Haha, who's that girl. How can she say such things with her looks?"

"Yes, why would he remember her. Does she think she's that pretty?"

"Did you realize that her eyes lit up when she saw him? Is she trying to steal the guy from her roommate?"

"But that guy is awesome. He denied knowing her straight away. Hahaha. He embarrassed her."

"You guys are thinking too much into it. He wasn't trying to embarrass her. He just simply doesn't know her. But she felt so good about herself that she thought he would remember her."

The girls' voices weren't soft.

Bai Xiao heard all of it.

At that moment, she felt embarrassed and upset.

But she needed to maintain her sweet and nice image in front of Mo Yesi. Hence, she couldn't act out in anger.

She bit her lip and suppressed her anger. After that, she smiled and said, "Mister, I'm Bai Xiao. I was Qiao Mianmian's roommate for 3 years. We used to be really close. But because of a misunderstanding..."

Chapter 415: I'll Let You See Her True Colors

"What exactly are you trying to say? If it's some meaningless bullshit, then you can just save it." Mo Yesi cut her off irritatedly even before she could finish her sentence.

Bai Xiao froze for a moment as the smile on her face hardened.

She looked at the pair of cold eyes staring at her filled with blatant annoyance and blurted out quickly, "Mister, I'm not sure if you have actually seen our online school forum page. Many people revealed things about Qiao Mianmian's high school days, like how she dated uncountable guys in high school and even went for an abortion!"

Bai Xiao felt the temperature around her drop sharply just as she finished speaking; as if they were being wrapped by a blanket of ice-cold air at once.

She was startled as she lifted her head and met the pair of dark and intimidating eyes in front of her.

If looks could kill, his icy glare could probably pose as numerous sharp daggers.

As if her whole body became a frozen iceberg, Bai Xiao felt herself being engulfed by cold air from head to toe.

Feeling the fear creep up from inside her, she couldn't help but back off a few steps as she struggled to speak in a shaking voice. "Mis- Mister, everything I said is true. You can go look at the online forum for yourself if you don't believe me, there are a lot of posts inside regarding Qiao Mianmian, and they're all written by her high school schoolmates. She's... she's really not as simple as you think she is.

"Please don't be fooled by her appearance.

"I... I just... just wanted to let you see her true colors."

Zhang Yuwei, standing beside her, was also quiet as a lamb as she saw Mo Yesi's intimidating and menacing look.

She grabbed Bai Xiao's arm tightly and spoke in a soft, trembling voice. "Xiao Xiao, don't say anything anymore. Let's just go."

But Bai Xiao didn't want to just leave like that.

Looking at Mo Yesi's perfect and charming face, she felt indignant.

How was it possible that such a loose and cheap woman like Qiao Mianmian was able to get such an outstanding man?

And yet, she couldn't.

Even though she wasn't as pretty as Qiao Mianmian, she was definitely cleaner and purer.

Well, at least, she wouldn't do such a disgusting thing like going for abortion in high school.

But Bai Xiao knew clearly deep down, that this outstanding man in front of her would never fall for her.

So what.

Even if it was impossible between her and Mo Yesi, she couldn't bear to just let such a shameless slut like Qiao Mianmian get her way.

"Mister, I'm seriously not lying to you." Bai Xiao gave a side glare that was full of jealousy to Qiao Mianmian and broke free from Zhang Yuwei's tight grip as she rushed towards Mo Yesi. "Every single person from our school knows about the whole story.

"If you don't trust me, you can ask all of them. They know everything too."

She raised her hand and pointed at the bunch of girls crowding around them.

The girls were gossiping behind Qiao Mianmian's back just now.

However, once Bai Xiao pointed them out, all of them quickly backed off a few steps as they pretended as if they didn't know her. "Hey, look, don't spout nonsense. Whatever you heard from other people is your own business, we know nothing about anything at all."

Even though all of them were equally jealous of Qiao Mianmian, and were unhappy at the fact that she managed to find such an outstanding man for herself, they weren't idiots.

This was the man that stood up for Qiao Mianmian previously.

He even managed to get two of her roommates expelled from school.

Anyone could easily tell that this man had a considerable amount of power and authority.

They were all about to graduate, the last thing they wanted was to get themselves into trouble.

All of them immediately turned around and walked off, not wanting to get involved in any sticky situations.

Zhang Yuwei was also afraid that she would be dragged in by Bai Xiao and immediately spoke. "Xiao Xiao, please stop saying all this nonsense. That post didn't have any concrete evidence, anyway. We shouldn't rely too much on it. Food is about to be served at the canteen, we should go over now to get a seat first."

Chapter 416: She's Still the Most Precious Thing to Me in My Heart

She was just about to step forward to pull Bai Xiao away as she finished speaking.

Little did she know that Bai Xiao would lose all rationality when she saw that Mo Yesi was totally unfazed by everything she said. Bai Xiao lost control of herself and hollered. "Mister, Qiao Mianmian is really a despicable slut. She especially targets rich men and seduces them. She's really not a good woman..."

"Pah!"

A tight slap landed on her face before she could even finish.

The slap hit her cheek so hard that her head reeled to the side from the impact with a clear and red handprint on her face.

Zhang Yuwei did a double-take and froze on the spot. "Qiao Mianmian, you..."

Qiao Mianmian pulled her hand back as her palm turned red from the harsh impact, clearly showing the amount of force she used.

She stared coldly at Bai Xiao and spoke with an icy tone. "Bai Xiao, I've tolerated you enough. Just because I didn't do anything, it doesn't mean you can just bark like a crazy dog and attack me like that. From this moment on, our three-year friendship is officially over.

"If you're going to continue spouting any nonsense, don't blame me for being harsh on you."

The two of them had lived together in the same dorm for a few years without any conflict.

Qiao Mianmian never imagined that she would end up fighting with her roommate like this right before they graduated.

And all this happened just because she found an overly outstanding man.

Causing all of her roommates to be uncontrollably jealous of her.

She found it ridiculously funny just by thinking about it.

A woman's jealousy was indeed one of the scariest things on earth.

Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei stayed hidden for so many years, and now finally everything was revealed.

Their true colors were revealed.

Obviously, all their kind words and actions were just a facade all this while.

In comparison, Zhang Yuwei was still slightly better than Bai Xiao, who seemed to totally lose all control and conscience on her end.

She seemed like a completely different person from the one Qiao Mianmian knew for the past few years.

She came right before Mo Yesi and said so many degrading and ridiculous things about her, just because she wanted to make Mo Yesi believe that she was a loose and easy woman and then make him break up with her?

No matter what her true intentions were, Qiao Mianmian had enough of tolerating her at this point.

She still tried to be easy on her previously, considering they were friends for so long.

But now, it was completely unnecessary to do so anymore.

"Did you just hit me, Qiao Mianmian?" Bai Xiao only just managed to regain her senses.

She held onto her swollen cheek as she slowly turned around to face her, with her eyes showing a glint of menace.

She looked as if she was about to pounce at Qiao Mianmian and have a physical tussle with her.

Mo Yesi looked at her with his cold eyes and immediately reached forward to pull Qiao Mianmian behind him, shielding her with his body.

He cast a quick cold look at the menacing woman in front of him and spoke with a voice that was injected with cold ice. "Qiao Mianmian is my woman now. No matter what kind of past she has, it's not important to me. I don't care about all those things at all."

Bai Xiao stared at him with a blank yet shocked expression.

"So what even if she really did all those things in the past? This doesn't change the fact that I like her.

"She aborted a child. You... you don't care about that at all?" Bai Xiao's lips trembled as she spoke. She couldn't bring herself to accept his nonchalant attitude.

Mo Yesi let out a cold laugh. "So what if she had an abortion before, she's still the most precious thing to me. A woman ugly inside and out like you can't even compare to her."

Even though Mo Yesi wasn't considered the most gentlemanly guy around, he still maintained basic manners when dealing with girls.

He would rarely tell a girl straight in her face that she was ugly like this.

His words made Bai Xiao literally shake from the shock.

Chapter 417: Cast a Spell on Him

Her face was as awful as it could get.

It was a huge blow to be called ugly by a man who swept her off her feet.

Every last drop of blood had left her face.

"Also, you're her roommate and have lived with her for years. It's bad enough that you don't believe her, but you went further and spread rumors about her. Women like you disgust me."

Bai Xiao's face was pale. "Mister."

"I let you off the last time on her account. I didn't want to upset her, since you're classmates. But now it seems like there's no need to be nice to you girls."

Bai Xiao could get the subtext.

She went even paler, and her lips quivered. "I didn't say those things, it's the person who spilled it. It's nothing to do with me! I was just... I was just reminding you."

Zhang Yuwei was pale as a sheet too. "Qiao Mianmian, this really has nothing to do with us. Everything that Xiao Xiao mentioned was already on the school forum page. You can take a look if you want. It's not just us who know about this, the whole school knows now.

"You can't blame us for this!"

The two of them started panicking after hearing what Mo Yesi said.

It seemed like he wanted revenge.

Upon thinking about what happened to Shen Yueyue and Zhao Wanting, they felt a chill down their spines.

Especially Bai Xiao.

She'd thought that by revealing Qiao Mianmian's shameful past to this man, he'd fly into a rage and dump her right away.

But this turned out very differently from what she'd expected.

Not only did the man not trust them, he even told them it didn't matter, even if it was true.

He would still continue loving Qiao Mianmian.

Bai Xiao couldn't believe that he was so deeply in love with Qiao Mianmian already.

So much so that he was alright with his woman having aborted another man's child.

Qiao Mianmian must have cast a spell on him.

Mo Yesi didn't listen to anyone else at all.

He didn't even bother giving them a second glance.

After saying his piece, he wrapped an arm around Qiao Mianmian and guided her into the car.

Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei were about to dash forward and explain themselves further, but Mo Yesi slammed the door in their faces.

Soon, the Lamborghini pulled out of the lot and left.

They were gone from their sights in less than a minute.

Zhang Yuwei thought about what the man had said to them and turned around and blamed Bai Xiao. "I told you to leave, why didn't you! Bai Xiao, I'm going to be in deep trouble because of you!"

Zhang Yuwei felt aggrieved.

She actually had nothing to do with this.

And she hadn't even said a thing as she stood beside Bai Xiao.

It was Bai Xiao who stirred all this up alone.

But now, she was also getting the blame just because she was with her.

This meant that she'd be facing the same punishment and consequences.

There was only half a year left until their graduation.

If she got expelled at this time, all the years of studying would've been in vain.

And for a girl who wanted a career in the entertainment industry, her youth was especially important.

Chapter 418: Don't You Have Anything to Ask Me?

Newbies were making their debuts one after the next, and changes were happening too quickly. Losing a few years of their youth was a big deal.

Moreover, the production crew would have second thoughts of casting someone who'd been expelled.

Zhang Yuwei was getting increasingly upset at Bai Xiao. At this point, she couldn't care less about their friendship.

"Zhang Yuwei, what do you mean by this."

Bai Xiao was currently fuming because her plan to do Qiao Mianmian in had failed. And now, with Zhang Yuwei adding fuel to fire, she was getting more enraged.

"I'm not the only one who's unhappy with Qiao Mianmian. Don't you dare tell me that you don't wish to see her get dumped by that man! I just did what you wanted to do too. So don't act all innocent here."

Zhang Yuwei was furious as well. "Don't drag me into the picture. I didn't do anything just now."

Zhang Yuwei decided that she'd look for Qiao Mianmian when she returned later.

She believed that Qiao Mianmian wouldn't be so mean, considering that they had been roommates for years.

Anyway, it was Bai Xiao who offended her, not her.

On that thought, Zhang Yuwei decided that she was going to stay away from Bai Xiao so as to protect herself.

"Bai Xiao, I suddenly feel that we've got different opinions and values on many things. We're not suitable to be friends. I think we should maintain a distance from each other in the future."

Bai Xiao's eyes widened. "Zhang Yuwei, are you fking severing ties with me right now? Do you think Qiao Mianmian will let you off like that? Don't forget, you left mean comments about her too. If I tell her about it, do you think you can get away with your responsibility?"

"How dare you!"

"Why wouldn't I dare? If I'm going to be in trouble, I'd rather drag you in with me."

"Bai Xiao, how can you be so fking b*tchy. You failed at your scheme, and now you want me to pay the price for your foolishness too?"

They were usually close as sisters, but at this point, they were scolding each other like arch-enemies.

In the car.

Qiao Mianmian looked at Mo Yesi's cold expression and sighed. "Mo Yesi, don't you have anything to ask me?"

They were waiting for the lights to turn green.

The man turned to face her, and then said, "Mm, I do."

"Ask it, then." Qiao Mianmian was ready.

She didn't believe that he wasn't the least bit curious about what Bai Xiao had said.

Even if he trusted her, he probably would still want to know about what had happened.

Mo Yesi asked, "What exactly happened, regarding what your roommates said?"

Afraid to hurt her, he quickly added, "I don't mean to doubt you whatsoever. I just want to know what happened on the forum page. Who's out to malign you?"

Qiao Mianmian knew that he wasn't the sort to trust rumors easily.

And that he had a lot of trust and confidence in her.

Hence, she wasn't actually worried that Mo Yesi would take Bai Xiao's words for real.

And as it turned out, she wasn't disappointed.

His attitude now comforted Qiao Mianmian.

It felt so good to be trusted unconditionally.

Chapter 419: I've Only Flirted With You

"You're so sure that they're just baseless rumors?" Qiao Mianmian looked at him apprehensively. "What if... they're true?"

Mo Yesi was a little stunned, but he broke into a smile a split second later. "If I don't even have that much trust in you, I'm not fit to be your husband. Moreover, Miss Qiao, I'm still pursuing you. I've got to do a little better to get into your good books.

"Even if all of those were true, they only represent your past. I like the present you. So, anything that you've done before won't change my impression of you."

Qiao Mianmian knew that Mo Yesi had a glib tongue.

He always found the right words.

And he managed to make cheesy and mushy words sound sincere.

Just like now.

Qiao Mianmian felt that he'd managed to win her over.

Even if these were just sweet nothings, they'd worked their magic.

She couldn't help but smile. "Mr. Mo, you're getting better and better with your words. Has anyone ever told you that you're good at flirting?"

Flirting wasn't exactly a difficult thing to do. But it wasn't easy to do it well.

If the flirting wasn't done right, it would end up awkward.

And if done too much, it'd end up sounding superficial.

Mo Yesi's flirting was done just right. There was a certain difficulty to it.

"No."

Mo Yesi smiled and said honestly, "You're the first."

Qiao Mianmian raised a brow. "I'm the first? You're kidding."

"I'm not kidding." Mo Yesi looked into her dark eyes and said, "I've only flirted with you."

So, she was the first.

And she would be the last.

Qiao Mianmian's heart began racing.

The red light turned green.

Mo Yesi went back to driving attentively.

But he still remembered what they were discussing. "You haven't told me, what exactly is the forum page about?"

"Oh, that." Qiao Mianmian cut the long story short. "Someone sent a post on our school forum and said that I had a very messy private life. The post said that I've had several boyfriends in high school, and had even got an abortion."

She thought for a bit and then added, "And that I've stolen my classmates' boyfriends, and I'm out to seduce rich second-generation heirs."

"You come after Su Ze, and you're the nth rich second-generation heir I've gotten together with."

She said it very calmly as if she was narrating someone else's story.

After all, she was past the angry phase.

But Mo Yesi's expression darkened. "Send the link of the post to me."

"You want to find out who posted it?"

"Yes."

"It's alright, you don't have to." Qiao Mianmian didn't want to trouble him with that.

After all, she'd given him enough problems as it was, in their very short period of marriage.

Although he didn't mind, and he would always do his best to stand up for her, it didn't mean that she felt good having him solve her problems.

Mo Yesi raised a brow. "Mm?"

“I can settle this on my own. I’ve sent the link to Chen Chen. He’ll find out who it is for me.”

Chapter 420: Turning to Hubby for Everything

Qiao Mianmian didn’t feel like there was a need to trouble him.

But Mo Yesi didn’t seem too happy with her thoughtful decision.

He frowned and paused for a moment, then said, “So, when something like this happened, your first instinct wasn’t to call me and ask for my help, but to tell your brother about it instead? And get his help?”

Qiao Mianmian: “Uh...”

Why did Mo Yesi seem a little unhappy about it?

“I just felt like there wasn’t a need to trouble you with everything. You’re already busy enough with your work in the company, and this isn’t a very huge matter, so...”

“So, there wasn’t a need to let me know?”

“... Yeah.”

She did think that way.

Mo Yesi went quiet for a few seconds. “Anything regarding you is a huge matter to me. It’s more important than my work.”

Qiao Mianmian looked at him, and her heart began beating faster.

“Also, it’s never been troublesome to me.”

Her heart rate increased...

It was so quick that Qiao Mianmian had to place a hand on her chest, just in case her heart really burst out.

Ahhh.

Why was Mo Yesi so good at making her feel this way.

She really, really... couldn’t deal with this so many times.

She was losing it.

Her heart was beating so quickly, she wanted to see if it was doing fine.

Who was going to believe that...

A man who looked so cold and distant could be so good when speaking out of love.

“Miss Qiao, please give this man pursuing you a chance to perform. Send me the link now, I’ll resolve this for you.”

This was his wife's matter, why did he need his brother-in-law to resolve it?

He was going to prove with his actions that her husband was the most reliable and trustworthy person around her.

He wanted her to get used to looking for her husband whenever something cropped up.

Not anyone else.

Mo Yesi felt that they still had a lot of time, and she could get into this habit slowly.

It was time to start inculcating the habit of "turning to Hubby for everything."

...

Qiao Mianmian eventually did send the link to Mo Yesi.

Considering Mo Yesi's preferences, she picked a French restaurant not too far away from school. It took just over 10 minutes.

They got out of the car.

Mo Yesi brought his laptop along.

Qiao Mianmian thought that he was busy with work and said, "As busy as you are, you've got to set time aside to eat. Are you very busy today? You shouldn't have come to have lunch with me."

She wasn't the sort of woman who needed her man's company all the time.

If he had work to complete, he could just let her know. She'd fully understand.

Moreover, she didn't like to spend every waking moment with him.

As close as they might be, they needed their own personal space.

She felt that the current arrangement was pretty good—spending her weekdays in school and only going to live with Mo Yesi on the weekends.

If they lived under the same roof, there wouldn't be any sense of mystery anymore, and it'd get boring.

Mo Yesi did not say anything in response.

Only after they took their seats in the restaurant did he say, "I'm not that busy. I still have time to eat with you."
