

Big Shot 431

Chapter 431: Unbelievably Furious

It's true that what you want to avoid the most always comes to find you instead.

The comment section was already shut down, but it was still unable to prevent such awkward situations from happening.

Two awkward situations happening back to back in such a short time, even the best host with the best skill was struggling to regain control of the situation.

The host scrambled to delete the fan's comments while keeping an awkward smile on her face.

"Ehem, I just mentioned, let's not ask such sensitive questions, alright? My dear fan, you've broken the rules. So your question will not be answered by Anxin okay. Now, next up! Anxin is going to..."

The host was about to let Qiao Anxin pick the next fan.

But Qiao Anxin's patience had soon run out.

She bolted out from her seat among the live crew's startled looks. "Today's live-stream will end here. I'm sorry, something urgent cropped up, and I need to go handle it right now."

She immediately turned around and left the broadcasting room once she finished her sentence, without even caring about what the crew would think about it.

The host and the rest of the crew were left lost and frozen on their spots.

Outside of the broadcasting room.

Qiao Anxin grabbed hold of her assistant and asked with a hardened expression, "Did someone post something about me again on Weibo? What's going on?"

Her assistant had seen the news much earlier on.

But she felt like it wasn't the right time to let Qiao Anxin know when she was in the middle of her live broadcast.

Fearing Qiao Anxin's anger-filled face, she quickly answered, "Sister Anxin, someone posted something about you on Weibo just now. That post has been reposted and shared by many tabloids and social media platforms. Just now... just now Ms. Amy has also requested you to go back to the office once you're done with your live-stream. Oh, right. I saw many reporters waiting downstairs outside of the broadcasting station as well."

Qiao Anxin's face darkened as she whipped out her phone and logged on Weibo.

She saw that post right as she logged in.

The caption of the post was eye-catching: [Breaking news! The current heartthrob Qiao Anxin was actually a third party in a relationship, and her current boyfriend used to be her own sister's fiancé! This mistress not only snatched her sister's love, but she even posted a rumor by herself to destroy her sister's reputation!]

Qiao Anxin was unbelievably furious when she saw the caption.

She almost smashed her phone when she read the content of the post itself.

Her assistant watched her angry and pressed face from the side and didn't even dare to let out a single breath of air.

Qiao Anxin always had a bad temper and would use her as her punching bag from time to time.

Now that she was seriously furious, the consequences were far worse to imagine.

Her assistant slowly crept to a quiet corner without a word, trying to lower her profile and make herself unnoticeable.

But Qiao Anxin still noticed her.

When Qiao Anxin whipped her head around and saw the quivering assistant at the corner, she felt her anger rising once more.

Looking at her assistant who actually held resemblance with Qiao Mianmian, she stormed over out of anger and landed a slap on her face.

She spoke through gritted teeth. "Did I hire you to slack off and be useless?? Why didn't you tell me earlier about this!"

Her assistant's face swelled up from the uncalled slap.

Her face was filled with fear, and her eyes, red with tears, threatened to fall out. She held onto the swollen side of her face and said, "I'm so sorry, Sister Anxin. You were in the middle of recording, so I was afraid I would distract you with this instead."

Qiao Anxin actually knew better than anyone else that her assistant was innocent.

But she couldn't keep her anger in check while looking at the face that reminded her of Qiao Mianmian.

Chapter 432: You're Just Like That Wrench, All You Do Is Put on a Show

The more her assistant whimpered and looked pitiful, the more she felt like slapping her again to teach her a lesson.

Qiao Mianmian that wrench, all she knew to do was also to act pitiful all day to get guys' sympathy.

"You were afraid to distract me?" Qiao Anxin's expression darkened as she walked towards her assistant. Looking at her fair and chubby face, she pinched down hard on her assistant's face. Venting all her anger, she dug her long nails into her skin. "You just hope for me to fail and get destroyed, don't you? I know you're celebrating deep down."

Her nails pierced her flesh and created a fresh and red cut on her face.

“Sister Anxin, I wouldn’t dare to.” The assistant was too afraid to talk back, her whole body shaking from the fear with tears of pain rolling down her face.

“You don’t dare to? I bet you actually dare to!

“You’re just like that little wrench, all you do is put on a show. But too bad for you, there are no guys around here. So what even if you put on this pitiful look? Do you think some guy is going to come, save, and console you? Or you are trying to let everyone know that I’m bullying you by crying and putting on a show like this here?”

“Sister Anxin, I... I really didn’t..”

Her assistant shook her head furiously as her tears rolled down.

She was completely terrorized by Qiao Anxin.

Qiao Anxin was once again reminded of Qiao Mianmian as she looked at her, and she raised her hand as her anger rose, wanting to pinch her once again.

At this moment, one of the crew members walked out of the broadcasting room.

He froze on the spot when he saw this scene.

Qiao Anxin noticed the crew from the corner of her eye and also froze for a moment, but she quickly changed her expression in the next moment.

Her outstretched hand immediately wiped away her assistant’s tears.

Her fierce and intimidating expression completely transformed into that of a warm and caring older sister, as she spoke gently. “Xiao Ke, don’t cry anymore. If you find yourself in any trouble, you can just tell me. I will definitely help you settle it.”

“You’ve been working closely with me for so many years, I always treated you as my own little sister. You don’t have to feel sorry for asking me for help.”

The assistant was totally stunned.

Only when she realized that the broadcasting crew member was staring at them did she raise her hand to wipe away her own tears and bit down hard on her lip as she tried to play along with Qiao Anxin.

“Thank you, Sister Anxin. It’s nothing much, you don’t have to worry. I can settle it by myself.”

Qiao Anxin smiled as she wiped her tears away once more. “That’s good to hear. If you find it too much to handle, please feel free to tell me anytime.”

“Alright. I... I will.”

The crew member was completely puzzled as he watched the scene unfold before his eyes.

Did he see wrongly just now?

Qiao Anxin was actually trying to console her assistant instead of bullying her?

She took the car back to the office.

At the front entrance of the company, many reporters were already staked out waiting for her there.

The company's bodyguards had also arranged to pick her up there. Once Qiao Anxin's car stopped at the entrance, the bodyguards went up to protect and escort her out.

The reporters all rushed forwards once they saw her.

Some were holding recording devices, some with microphones, and some with cameras. If not for the bodyguards' protection, she would have been drowned out by all the reporters.

Numerous reporters rushed forward, trying to break through the bodyguards. "Qiao Anxin, can you say a few words regarding the post about you? Were you really the mistress in the relationship? Was Su Ze really your own sister's fiancé?"

"Qiao Anxin, it's been said that Su Ze was originally engaged to your sister, and the two of them almost got married."

Chapter 433: Don't Tell Me... You Don't Believe Me Too?

"He got together with you immediately after he broke off with your sister. Does this mean that you cut in between them when they were still together?"

"Did you snatch your sister's man because of jealousy? Your mother entered the Qiao family as a mistress, so you were jealous of your sister because she's the legitimate daughter of the family, and even more jealous because she found such an outstanding fiancé, so you decided to snatch her love away?"

The questions fired from the reporters grew sharper and sharper.

None of them cared about how Qiao Anxin felt in order to get the juiciest report.

"Qiao Anxin, according to my sources, you were really afraid that your sister would become more famous and popular than you after she debuted since she's really pretty and came from the same course as you. Hence, you tried to ruin her auditions and make her fail. Is this true?"

Qiao Anxin...

Qiao Anxin...

The numerous bodyguards formed a human wall between them, trying to block off all the reporters.

They quickly escorted Qiao Anxin into the lobby.

Qiao Anxin kept her head down and didn't say a single word the whole time as she rushed into the lift with hurried steps.

She slowly raised her head with hatred-filled eyes as the lift door closed.

“President Su, Miss Qiao is back.”

Zhao Kai knocked on the door of the office room and spoke slowly to the man sitting in front of the black desk.

Just as he spoke, Qiao Anxin walked in from outside in her white overalls.

Zhao Kai greeted her and immediately turned to leave.

He closed the door behind him softly as he left.

“Brother Ah Ze...” Qiao Anxin had already explained the whole situation on her way back.

She had naturally also thought of her strategy.

She knew in her heart that Su Ze still had feelings for Qiao Mianmian. If he ever found out that she was the culprit behind the post on the online school forum page about Qiao Mianmian, he would definitely have bad opinions about her.

She always had a gentle, well-behaved, and kind image in front of him.

This was the image of her that Su Ze liked.

If she became an evil and jealous bitch in his opinion of her, it would definitely affect his feelings for her.

So, she decided that she would rather die than to admit that she was the one trying to destroy Qiao Mianmian’s reputation.

At the sound of this soft and reliant call, Su Ze didn’t look at her with a gentle and sympathetic look like before.

Instead, his look towards her at this moment made Qiao Anxin panic deep down.

Because it was scarily cold.

And it was the kind of coldness that he had never shown in front of her before.

Su Ze must be acting this way because of that post—that was Qiao Anxin’s first thought.

She scrambled to explain. “Brother Ah Ze, whatever they say online is not true. I wasn’t the one who posted about my sister on the online forum page. I know you find it hard to believe me right now, but I was really wronged. I can explain everything to you.”

Her tears started flowing out as she spoke.

“Brother Ah Ze, I can really explain everything. Why... Why are you looking so coldly at me? Don’t tell me... you don’t believe me now too?”

Whenever Qiao Anxin put up a weak and soft image in front of him in the past, Su Ze would always console her and treat her with gentleness.

But this time, Su Ze didn’t do that.

He looked like he didn't care about anything she said anymore.

His gaze was cold as ice.

As he saw Qiao Anxin sobbing and explaining, all he could think of was whether it was all a show. He grew even angrier at the thought that this woman was trying to trick him yet again.

Chapter 434: She Felt Insecure

He used to think that Qiao Anxin was weak and needed protection.

And it made him want to protect her even more.

But now, all that was left in his heart towards her was anger and disgust.

At the thought of being tricked again and again by this woman, and even breaking up with the woman he truly loved because of her, Su Ze's whole heart was filled with hatred.

This witch!

He couldn't believe she was still trying to keep him in the dark.

He won't be tricked anymore.

Qiao Anxin clearly saw the coldness and hatred written in Su Ze's eyes, and her heart sank. Panicking, her heart started beating out of control. "Brother Ah Ze, that IP address is correct. It was sent from the Qiao family.

"But I wasn't the one who sent it.

"It was my mom."

Qiao Anxin was even willing to sell her own mother out at this crucial moment. "The one who posted it was my mom. She always disliked my sister, and ever since I got together with you, she always worried that you would get back together with her. So, she decided to post that.

"She thought destroying my sister's reputation would stop you from trying to get back together with her.

"I've already given her a call just now and scolded her about it. She also admitted her mistake and promised that she wouldn't do such a thing ever again. Brother Ah Ze, I know this whole issue must have caused a lot of trouble to Sister. I'm even willing to go and apologize to her if she's still angry about it."

The Su Ze in front of her today made Qiao Anxin afraid.

Suddenly, she felt super insecure.

She could sense that Su Ze must have had some crucial evidence in his hands to act this way, so she immediately decided to admit to the use of that IP address.

In order to show her sincerity regarding this issue.

“Apologize?” Su Ze looked at her with his cold gaze and finally spoke.

But his tone was just as cold as his eyes.

“Yes... Yes.” Qiao Anxin let out a breath of relief upon seeing that Su Ze was willing to at least talk to her again. She decided to use the same tactic of speaking with an innocent and weak tone to him. “Even though my mother was the one who did this, I also share the blame since she did it for my sake.”

“If this whole issue affects my sister, I will feel really bad myself as well.

“I know Sister must be really angry right now, so, understandably, she asked someone to investigate and find the IP address. But...” Qiao Anxin bit down on her lip gently and looked at him with puppy eyes.

“She still shouldn’t have found someone to speak ill of us like that.

“She said that I was a mistress and that I came between both of you while you were still together with her. Isn’t she also implying that you’re a jerk that cheated on her? Brother Ah Ze, you need to quickly speak up about this issue and clear it up. Otherwise, we will both be cursed really badly by everyone online.”

Qiao Anxin decided to first admit to her mistake and lower herself.

Then, she decided to push some blame onto Qiao Mianmian with a wronged tone and expression.

She knew that Su Ze would definitely step forward and clarify this whole issue for her.

After all, this concerned his own reputation as well.

He was also someone who cared very much about his reputation, so he wouldn’t allow people to just let Qiao Mianmian accuse him of cheating on her like that.

Qiao Anxin pitifully wiped her own tears away as she finished speaking, waiting for Su Ze to soften up and come over to console her.

However, she waited for a few minutes without any movement from him at all.

She raised her head out of curiosity.

Her eyes met Su Ze’s gaze that was colder than a harsh winter. Her heart skipped another beat as her insecurity and panic rose in her heart once again. “Brother Ah Ze...”

Su Ze was acting really weird today.

Usually, he would come over to embrace her and slowly console and talk her through with a gentle and pacifying tone.

Chapter 435: Then Why Did You Seduce Me at That Time?

But the Su Ze today was indifferent towards all her tactics.

She felt a strong sense of anxiousness. “Brother Ah Ze, what’s wrong with you? Please don’t tell me you’re still suspecting that I’m the culprit behind that post? I told you I really didn’t do it. My sister is a very important person to me, why would I do such a thing to her?”

In the past, Qiao Anxin only had to drop a few tears and put up a pitiful and soft front and Su Ze would immediately believe everything she said.

Because she was always a kind, gentle, and soft woman in need of protection in his eyes.

And he was the only one that she could depend on.

Even if she lied to the whole world, she wouldn’t ever lie to him.

This was what Su Ze believed for many years.

But only for him to realize that he was a dumbass all this time.

Once there was a break in the trust, you would start suspecting everything else.

If Qiao Anxin could lie to him about her pregnancy, she could lie to him about everything else.

Maybe, she wasn’t as soft and weak as he thought.

And everything that she showed him might not be her true self.

“Mianmian is really important to you?” Su Ze coldly asked.

“Yes,” Qiao Anxin immediately answered. “I only have one sister. Of course, she’s really important to me.”

Su Ze stared straight at her. “Then, why did you seduce me at that time?”

“Wha... What?” Qiao Anxin was dumbfounded.

Su Ze narrowed his eyes. “If it wasn’t for you seducing me so aggressively again and again, I wouldn’t even consider getting together with you. You said that Mianmian is really important to you, but you actually seduced her fiancé behind her back.

“Aren’t you afraid that she would be heartbroken if she knew this? And that she would cut off all ties with you?”

Su Ze started getting more quick-witted ever since he found out that he was being tricked.

As he slowly recalled all the events that happened after he got to know Qiao Anxin, he slowly realized that he was being tricked the more he thought about it.

The first time he slept with Qiao Anxin he was really drunk, and she sent him home and took care of him the whole night.

When he woke up the next day, he saw Qiao Anxin lying beside him fully naked.

Because he was so drunk that night, he couldn’t even remember what happened.

So, naturally, when he saw that scene the moment he woke up, he immediately thought that he made a mistake while drunk and slept with his future sister-in-law.

He was even filled with guilt.

Qiao Anxin later told him that she also had too much to drink that night and everything that happened between them was mutually consented. But she didn't want to hurt Qiao Mianmian, so she told him that he didn't need to take any responsibility for it and even asked him to treat everything like a dream.

The more gentle and understanding Qiao Anxin was, the more guilty he felt.

That made him want to make it up to her even more.

That was how they started interacting a lot more privately.

Things then slowly started to get out of control.

But now Su Ze seriously suspected that they might not even have really slept together that night.

If he was so drunk that he couldn't even find the strength to walk properly, how would he even have the strength to do something like that?

His continuous questioning flabbergasted Qiao Anxin.

She was dazed for a moment before realizing that Su Ze was really suspecting her this time.

Qiao Anxin panicked.

She didn't expect Su Ze to lose all his trust in her over such a small matter.

And even start suspecting her for everything that happened.

Panic flashed in her eyes as she hurriedly moved forward, trying to grab his hand. "Brother Ah Ze, I just couldn't help it because I loved you too much at that time. You know how much I care for you."

She tried to grab his hand but ended up grabbing the air.

Chapter 436: Where Did You Get the Audacity to Lie to Me

Angry, Su Ze withdrew his hand. Bam! He suddenly swept the cup off the table. He stood up, looked at Qiao Anxin angrily, and asked grudgingly, "I think all you care about is lying to me about your false pregnancy!"

"What false..." Qiao Anxin was puzzled. Suddenly, her eyes widened as she understood what happened.

"Brother Ah Ze, you..."

Shocked by the realization, her mind went blank.

She couldn't think of what to say.

Her relationship with Su Ze was built upon their interactions behind closed doors.

The reason why Su Ze broke up with Qiao Mianmian and wanted to marry Qiao Anxin was because of the child she was carrying.

But now, the child was gone.

Su Ze's heart was filled with only anger and hatred toward her after he found out about the lie.

He approached Qiao Anxin with a cold look and started to strangle her. He then asked with a sullen face, "Where did you get the audacity to lie to me! Qiao Anxin, do you have any idea of the consequence?"

Su Ze felt that he was a shrewd guy.

But yet, he kept getting manipulated by his partners.

He couldn't tolerate it any further.

"Cough, Brother Ah Ze... Let, let go..." Qiao Anxin said with much difficulty. Her face was flushed, and she coughed from being choked.

She then tried to break off Su Ze's hold.

Su Ze grew mad as Qiao Anxin resisted.

He tightened his grip and said, "If it weren't for you, Mianmian and I would still be together."

"Cough, let, let me go." Qiao Anxin's eyes widened as she started losing consciousness.

She started to struggle violently, screaming, and kicking him.

As she struggled, she hit Su Ze's groin with her knee. Su Ze pushed her away in pain as his face went pale.

As Qiao Anxin fell, it created a loud sound.

She slammed onto the coffee table and fell onto the floor.

Her belly came into contact first with the floor as she fell.

Then, she felt great pain.

"Bang!"

The workers rushed in as they heard the commotion.

They were shocked when they saw Qiao Anxin laying on the ground and Su Ze holding onto his groin with a pale expression.

After a while, they approached him and asked, "Chairman Su, are you alright..."

Gosh.

Did Chairman Su and Miss Qiao fight?

Judging from the situation, it was quite violent.

This shocked the workers.

Everyone in Star Splendor thought that the two of them had a really good relationship and that Su Ze really doted on her.

He wouldn't even speak harshly to her previously.

Su Ze screamed at his approaching workers as he was embarrassed to let them witness all of it. "Who asked you to come in! Get out!"

The workers were shocked.

As they saw the anger in his eyes, they quickly turned around and started to get out of the office.

As they left, the workers' eyes widened with shock when they saw Qiao Anxin and asked fearfully, "Miss Qiao, what happened to you?"

Su Ze sensed that something was off and turned towards her in pain.

He turned pale after he saw what happened.

Chapter 437: Is It Possible That They Are Still Coming Out With a Plan?

He saw Qiao Anxin shriveled up. She was holding onto her belly in pain, and some bloodstains could be seen on her white dress.

She looked up to Su Ze tearfully and said, "Brother Ah Ze, I'm in pain. My belly hurts."

As she spoke, the bloodstains got bigger.

The patch of bright red was frightening.

Su Ze paused for a moment and frowned again as he thought of something.

"Qiao Anxin, do you think that I will ever believe in you again," Su Ze said disdainfully. "You're never going to change, are you? You're still trying to lie at this moment."

Qiao Anxin turned pale from the pain and cold sweat appeared on her forehead. She reached out for Su Ze's pants and said, "Brother Ah Ze, I'm not lying. My belly really hurts."

The workers saw the blood and her pale expression and hesitated for a while. "Chairman Su, I think Miss Qiao is really in pain."

"Brother Ah Ze, help me..."

Qiao Anxin's voice grew softer from the pain. When she finished the sentence, she lost consciousness.

Qiao Mianmian thought that Star Splendor would immediately respond by sending their public relations team to handle the situation for Qiao Anxin.

Their public relations team reacted really quickly in the previous incident. They helped Qiao Anxin from being perceived as a bad-behaving actress to being perceived as a victim in half a day.

It was just a matter of whether Star Splendor was willing to help her.

However, Qiao Mianmian didn't believe they didn't take any actions even after the news was out for quite a while.

There was no activity on the accounts of the studio, Star Splendor, and Qiao Anxin.

It was as though they weren't even aware of the news.

But that was impossible.

Reporters camped at Star Splendor the moment the news came out.

Someone should have informed them too.

Hence, Star Splendor and Qiao Anxin must be aware of it.

But...

Star Splendor's inactivity was puzzling.

Jiang Luoli said, surprised, "Baby, what do you think is going on with Qiao Anxin? There isn't a single response from them after so long. Are they trying to wait until the public moves on to another topic?"

Qiao Mianmian shook her head and replied, "That's impossible."

She then continued, "She must clarify this matter. Else, she'll be accepting it. It won't be good for her."

"That's true." Jiang Luoli was puzzled. "Is it possible that they are still coming out with a plan?"

"Maybe..."

Qiao Mianmian opened up Weibo and saw that three hours had passed since the news got out.

Normally, the agency would try to come out with a plan as quickly as possible.

This was because the news would be seen by more people as time passed by.

Jiang Luoli and Qiao Mianmian weren't the only ones confused. The netizens were puzzled as well.

Qiao Anxin's fans were commenting on her latest Weibo post.

Babe from Anxin's house: [Sister Anxin, is the news real? Why aren't you clarifying anything?]

Qiao Anxin supporter group: [Anxin, please clarify these things if you are really innocent. If you keep silent, your fans are going to leave you. The person alleging you has posted it everywhere and a lot of people are treating it as the truth. Things are just going to worsen if it continues.]

Chapter 438: No Response At All

I only love Anxin: [That's right, sister. If you see our comments, come forward and clarify everything. The entire situation is making me so anxious.]

After some of the netizens saw the fans' comments, they also commented to attack them: [Sis Anxin must have seen your comments and is purposely ignoring them. I didn't really believe in the entire matter. However, judging by the situation now, I think it might be true, after all.]

The fans immediately attacked back: [How dare you frame our Anxin without any evidence!]

The netizen scoffed: [Are you guys blind? Can't you see the photo that was posted?]

The fans replied: [How can the photo be considered as evidence. It can be photoshopped.]

The netizen scoffed again: [Experts have determined that the photo isn't photoshopped. I can't believe you guys can be so delusional. Remember to control your tears when the truth is confirmed.]

Things were heating up on Weibo.

The tag for #QiaoAnxinisasidechick# was on the popular list, and there were hundreds of millions commenting on it.

Normally, the agency would immediately spend money to remove the tag from the popular list.

But Star Splendor continued to remain silent.

After finishing a class, some girls went up to Qiao Mianmian and asked, "Qiao Mianmian, is Qiao Anxin your sister?"

Qiao Anxin was also from Yuncheng City Film Academy.

She signed a contract with an agency in her freshman year and became popular after a web series. As she became one of the top-rated female actresses, her popularity in school grew as well.

Every student knew her.

But few knew that Qiao Mianmian was her sister.

Qiao Mianmian also didn't mention it to anyone, except Jiang Luoli.

Qiao Anxin didn't mention Qiao Mianmian to anyone as well.

When Qiao Anxin was still in school, they wouldn't even greet each other when they met.

Who would've thought that the two of them would be sisters sharing the same father?

Qiao Mianmian glanced at the unfamiliar faces in front of her and frowned.

She didn't like it when people gossiped in front of her, especially when she was a part of the gossip.

But she couldn't have an outburst as well.

She kept quiet for a moment before replying nonchalantly, "Yes."

The girls yelled in excitement and continued, “Are the rumors real? Did she... steal your boyfriend from you?”

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

Couldn’t they tell from her expression?

Did she look happy to answer all of their questions?

Did they think she was happy to answer all of their questions because she didn’t reject them directly?

She rubbed her head and said, “I’m sorry, but excuse me. I need to go to the bathroom.”

But the girls were dense.

They stood in front of her and continued asking, “Come on, we’re all classmates. Just tell us. Is that the reason why Qiao Anxin hasn’t replied? Is it because it’s true?”

“Yeah, if it’s true, you’re a victim. Tell us and we will scold her for you.”

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

“Hey, what’s up with you guys.”

Just as Qiao Mianmian was at a loss on how to deal with the situation, Jiang Luoli approached them and stood in front of her protectively. “Can’t you tell that Mianmian doesn’t want to answer the questions? You guys have no situational awareness.”

Chapter 440: Doing Such Despicable Things Behind Closed Doors

“If you’re so curious, you should go search it up yourself.”

The girls frowned and replied, “Why do we need to go through so much trouble when she’s just here? What’s wrong with just telling us now?”

“That’s right. She just needs to answer yes or no. It’s such an easy thing.”

Jiang Luoli rolled her eyes and said, “I’m sorry, but my baby isn’t obliged to help you with your questions. Stop blocking our path and get out of the way.”

“Hmph. Fine, then. Now that I think about it, your fiancé must have cheated on you because of your lousy personality.”

“What’s the point of having such a pretty face when you have a lousy personality? Your man would cheat on you, anyway.”

“I can’t believe that both you and Qiao Anxin are related. She is a top-rated star with a rich and powerful boyfriend. But you’re nowhere as popular as her, and your fiancé doesn’t even want you. You’re such a failure.”

The girls felt that Qiao Mianmian was too arrogant.

They couldn’t stand it.

They had to insult her.

Jiang Luoli frowned upon hearing that, and she threatened back. “If you guys aren’t moving off, I’ll have to turn physical. Also, how is my baby a failure? Her boyfriend now is ten-thousand times better than Su Ze.

“You can say all you want now. But remember to do some self-reflecting when you’re cheated on. Think about whether it is because of your lousy personality, your ugly face, or your horrendous figure.

“Even if my baby has a lousy personality, she’s a great beauty, and men will be attracted to her. As for you guys...” She took a look at the girls and scoffed. “Not only do you have a lousy personality, but you’re also nowhere as pretty as my baby. There’s a high chance you’ll be cheated on.”

Jiang Luoli was really good at insulting others.

Her insults were capable of bringing sensitive girls to tears.

The girls frowned, and just as they were about to retort, they heard a soft crying voice from the back. “Mianmian, we’re sorry. Please forgive us on the account that we were roommates for three years.”

As they saw Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei approaching Qiao Mianmian to apologize, the other students stopped in their tracks and looked at them.

Everyone was aware by now that Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei were the ones who framed Qiao Mianmian in the forum.

Everyone was appalled by their two-faced action.

Previously, Qiao Mianmian was insulted everywhere she went because of that.

Now, Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei were insulted everywhere they went.

The other students were scoffed. "I can't believe it. They look so decent. Yet, they're doing such despicable things behind closed doors."

"It's really frightening if I have a roommate like that. Fortunately, someone managed to find out the IP address and traced it back to them. Else, Qiao Mianmian's reputation would have been ruined."

"I heard that Qiao Mianmian's boyfriend came to pick her up today, but Bai Xiao insulted her in front of him. Bai Xiao was humiliated in the end, though."

"Wow, that can't be possible. Bai Xiao did such a horrible thing?"

When she heard the comments, Bai Xiao bit her lip and narrowed her eyes.
