

Big Shot 441

Chapter 441: What Must We Do to Earn Your Forgiveness?

With a remorseful look, she said, "I'm really sorry. Please give us a chance to redeem ourselves."

They had just received a scolding from the principal.

It was because their actions caused a lot of trouble for the school.

They offended a very powerful person.

The person was angered by their actions and requested for them to be punished.

"Apologize to Qiao Mianmian and ask for her forgiveness. If she doesn't forgive you, you guys will have to fend for yourselves."

As she recalled what the principal said, Bai Xiao tightened her resolve.

She had to do it even though she really didn't want to.

The more humble she appeared, the stronger her hatred for Qiao Mianmian grew.

"Mianmian, we're sorry. We were rash... We won't do it in the future." Zhang Yuwei apologized as well.

"We've known each other for three years already. Please forgive us."

The others heard their apology and shifted their focus to Qiao Mianmian.

They wanted to know her answer.

Jiang Luoli turned to Qiao Mianmian as well.

Qiao Mianmian stayed silent for a moment before replying coldly, "If an apology solved everything, why would we need the police for? If you really considered our friendship of three years, you wouldn't have done it. You didn't really care about our friendship at all."

"So why should I care?" Qiao Mianmian said as she glanced at the two of them. Then, she bit on her lip and continued coldly, "I believe that I have made it really clear just now. We're no longer friends. I'm sorry, I cannot forgive you both."

The other students were shocked by her reply.

They really thought that Qiao Mianmian wouldn't reject their apology so directly in front of everyone.

Hence, they were shocked by her reply.

But no one thought that she was being unreasonable.

No one would have been happy if something similar happened to them.

In fact, it would've been weird if Qiao Mianmian forgave them just like that.

Bai Xiao frowned.

She thought that Qiao Mianmian would have forgiven her after her sincere apology.

She felt humiliated.

She wanted to leave.

But thinking about what the principal said, she suppressed her anger.

The humiliation that she was going through now was nothing compared to being expelled.

No matter what happened, they could not be expelled.

“Mianmian, I understand that you’re really angry now. What we have done was really horrible. I understand if you don’t want to forgive us. But we’re really sorry. What must we do to earn your forgiveness? We’re willing to do anything to be forgiven by you.”

Zhang Yuwei nodded and agreed. “Yes, what must we do to earn your forgiveness? We’ll do it straight away.”

Zhang Yuwei was furious as well.

There were so many people watching, and everyone saw their apology to Qiao Mianmian.

But her attitude was still so cold.

She wasn’t going to accept their apology.

They were humiliated.

But no matter how angry they were, they couldn’t leave.

Chapter 442: What Else Do You Want?

If Qiao Mianmian was unwilling to forgive them, they might face expulsion. Losing some face was a much better alternative to getting expelled.

Qiao Mianmian looked at them coldly, her tone seemingly void of any room for negotiation. “I’m sorry, but no matter what you do, I won’t forgive you.”

She just didn’t see any sincerity from them. They didn’t appear to be truly remorseful.

Although she had no idea why these two came apologizing to her, she knew it wasn’t from the bottom of their hearts.

They still didn’t realize that they were wrong.

Although they appeared to be apologizing to her, they must still be scolding her in their heads.

If she hadn’t found evidence that they were the ones behind some of the meanest comments on the forum, Qiao Mianmian wouldn’t believe that they would go that far.

She was already said to be a “vixen” and a “cheap sl*t.” If she really forgave them just like that, then she really was cheap.

“Did you guys hear that.” Jiang Luoli furrowed her brows at Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei, who looked stunned. “My Baby won’t forgive you, so you can leave now. I wonder how you can bring yourselves to ask for forgiveness after doing something so despicable.

“You’d better count yourselves lucky that Mianmian has a good temper. If I was the one involved, I would’ve punched you to death.”

The people around began discussing again.

“Exactly. They actually had the face to ask for forgiveness. I would’ve punched them too.”

“Me too. They’re so b*tchy!”

“Ha. If it were me, I’d punch them once for every time I bumped into them.”

“They wouldn’t live to see tomorrow if I were the one in this scenario.”

Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei turned even paler hearing these conversations.

Their hearts got even colder as they saw Qiao Mianmian’s aloof and unforgiving expression.

They finally got it.

They realized that Qiao Mianmian wasn’t going to forgive them no matter what they did.

Both of them had been so mild-tempered and polite to Qiao Mianmian because they needed a chance to stay in school.

But now that they realized the situation was hopeless, their attitudes instantly changed.

Bai Xiao’s expression darkened. “Qiao Mianmian, are you really not willing to give us a chance? You really... want to be so heartless?”

Qiao Mianmian had no idea that the principal spoke to them.

Neither did she know about the expulsion.

She raised a brow as she found their reaction odd. “You’re the heartless ones, not me.”

“Qiao Mianmian, don’t act as if you don’t know anything.” Bai Xiao bit her lip and glared at her. The glare was so menacing, people around felt their hairs stand.

“Yes. Yuwei and I did let you down. But haven’t we already apologized in front of everyone? What else do you want? We did wrong, but are you being right for forcing us into a dead end?”

“We have six people in our room, are you only going to be satisfied after chasing each of us out? Does this mean that everyone you dislike in the future will be chased out of the school by your backing?”

“Look at the way you’re treating your schoolmates and roommates. Don’t you find yourself evil?”

Qiao Mianmian thought she’d heard wrong.

She was evil?

She couldn’t believe Bai Xiao could even utter this statement.

The person who'd gone against her in every way possible, and even took to slandering her, was calling her evil.

Chapter 443: She's Out to Destroy Us

It was a joke.

Zhang Yuwei's eyes were a little red. She wasn't as angry as Bai Xiao, but her attitude wasn't as nice as before. "Mianmian, we only have half a year to go before graduating. We really don't want to be expelled.

"Xiao Xiao and I were biased against you because of some misunderstandings. So, we ended up spouting some unkind words when the post was made on the forum. This was our mistake, and we're willing to admit it and face the consequences.

"But, isn't expulsion a little overboard?"

The moment she said that the discussions commenced once again.

"Expulsion?"

"Are Zhang Yuwei and Bai Xiao going to be expelled?"

"Isn't that like Shen Yueyue and the rest, then?"

"Whoa! Who exactly is Qiao Mianmian's new boyfriend? Is he that powerful?"

"I'm curious too! I saw him once. He's super handsome, and he dresses like a rich guy. He's probably an ultra-rich second-generation heir."

"Don't you think that man dotes on Qiao Mianmian a lot? He's always sticking up for her when something happens. And the way he does it is so imposing, it makes everyone else envious of her."

Qiao Mianmian was shocked.

She asked, "Expulsion? Why are you two going to be expelled?"

Zhang Yuwei was shocked. "You don't know about it?"

But Bai Xiao simply sneered. "How could she not know? This is her request."

Zhang Yuwei looked at Qiao Mianmian's reaction and felt like she wasn't feigning it.

She couldn't help but see some hope in this.

If Qiao Mianmian didn't know about this, then it meant that she wasn't the one who requested this of the school.

If that was the case, then they had hope.

She took a step forward. "Mianmian, this isn't your idea, right? Then, could you put in some good words for us? As long as we aren't expelled, we're willing to do anything."

Qiao Mianmian was stunned for a while before slowly processing what was going on.

No wonder Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei were so anxious to look her up.

So, this was what was going on.

She remembered Mo Yesi saying he'd settle this for her.

Since it wasn't her idea, then it should be Mo Yesi's.

She didn't have any friendship with Bai Xiao and Zhang Yuwei anymore, and she didn't want to be involved with them in any way in the future. But she felt that expulsion was too heavy a punishment for them.

She decided to ask Mo Yesi about this later.

But just as she was thinking this through, Bai Xiao said in a very unpleasant tone, "Yuwei, don't plead with her. She's out to destroy us. You're so naive, you really think she has no idea about this? Let's go, there's no use begging her.

"I'm going to expose this to the world! I want everyone to know that she's abusing her power and using it against her schoolmates, forcing each of her roommates out of school. I don't believe that her backing managed to do this all on his own!

"Expulsion? On what grounds? Just because we said a few mean things to her? Someone else said it first, and for all we know, it's all true. What's the big deal about saying some stuff about her while not knowing the full picture?

"If everyone had to be expelled for saying something bad about someone else, then this school would be empty by now."

Chapter 444: Didn't He Just Give Her a Bouquet Earlier That Day?

"Qiao Mianmian, don't be too smug. We'll wait and see!"

Bai Xiao said through clenched teeth and turned around to leave.

"Qiao Mianmian, do you really want to be this heartless?" Zhang Yuwei tossed her a final question before leaving the classroom behind Bai Xiao.

The crowd of students slowly dissipated when they realized that the "show" had ended.

All of a sudden, the classroom filled to the brim emptied out.

Qiao Mianmian stood rooted to the ground with her brows furrowed, then slowly made her way out.

"Bloody hell, I really want to punch Bai Xiao in the face! She said she's going to expose you. Something's wrong with her brain." Jiang Luoli felt upset on Qiao Mianmian's behalf.

Qiao Mianmian smiled. "Let them be. I didn't do anything against my conscience, so I'm not afraid of her."

"I just think she's way too shameless."

They left the classroom.

Jiang Luoli was still murmuring unhappily. "Honestly, she deserves to be expelled. We're in the same school and faculty as such a disgusting person. If she doesn't leave school, won't we have to see her often?"

"It irks me."

Jiang Luoli seemed to detest them more than Qiao Mianmian did.

She couldn't stop complaining about them.

Qiao Mianmian listened to her silently before breaking a helpless smile. "They're really vile, and I have no intention to forgive them. But, isn't expulsion a little excessive?"

Jiang Luoli widened her eyes. "Mianmian, are you trying to be a saint?"

Qiao Mianmian said, "... I never thought that way."

"That's good." Jiang Luoli said, "Don't be too nice to them. Just think of what they did to you; if they hadn't been found out and threatened with expulsion, do you think they'd ever apologize to you?"

"Didn't you see how insincere Bai Xiao was?"

"People like them won't feel gratitude towards you at all even if you let them off."

"For all you know, they might be even more unhappy with you and find other chances to get back at you."

"Since they'll never appreciate your kindness, you might as well not treat them with any."

Qiao Mianmian went quiet for a while. "I know. But, I feel like Zhang Yuwei isn't that mean."

The person who left those mean comments about her was mainly Bai Xiao.

Zhang Yuwei took part too, but she wasn't half as bad.

"Zhang Yuwei is just that wee bit better. You can consider her words and pleas. But for Bai Xiao, I don't think there's a need to think further."

As they spoke, Qiao Mianmian's cell phone began to ring.

She saw that it was an unknown caller and picked it up. It was a male voice. "Hi, is this Miss Qiao Mianmian?"

"I am. Uh, you are..."

"I'm the florist from Love of a Lifetime. Someone has ordered a bouquet of flowers for you. May I know where you are now, so I can send it over to you?"

A while later.

Qiao Mianmian hung up.

She rubbed her temple, a little confused.

Why did Mo Yesi send her flowers again?

Didn't he just give her a bouquet earlier that day?

Although she did like flowers, receiving them a few times a day was excessive.

The flowers were inedible and non-functional. It was too much of a waste to let them rot in her room.

"Why, who was that?" Jiang Luoli asked curiously.

Chapter 445: Prince Charming Is Really One of a Kind

"A florist."

"Flowers from Prince Charming?"

"... Yeah."

"Whoa, Prince Charming is really romantic." Jiang Luoli didn't hide her envy at all. "I thought men like him wouldn't even give women flowers."

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

Giving flowers was all it took to be romantic?

Then again, she had the same reaction as Jiang Luoli when she first received flowers from Mo Yesi.

She felt that it was uncharacteristic of him to do something like that.

Qiao Mianmian gave the florist the address to her dormitory. As she and Jiang Luoli went downstairs, they saw a group of girls crowding around, as if looking at something interesting.

A few of them were even exclaiming in shock.

"What are all of them looking at?" Jiang Luoli was the sort to join in the fun whenever something seemed to be going on. She immediately dragged Qiao Mianmian along and said cheekily, "Baby, let's go take a look too."

They got closer.

There was a group of men in uniform, and beside them was a gigantic bouquet of pink roses. Jiang Luoli's eyes immediately lit up.

"Whoa! Baby, are these the flowers from Prince Charming?"

Jiang Luoli's eyeballs were about to fall out from the way she looked at them. She said excitedly, "This bouquet is so huge. Prince Charming is really one of a kind. And he even gave you your favorite pink roses. Seems like Prince Charming knows you well."

Qiao Mianmian didn't seem excited at all when she looked at the roses. In fact, she was frowning a little.

She didn't remember telling Mo Yesi that she liked pink roses.

So, he had been giving her red roses so far.

Besides Jiang Luoli who knew that about her, the only guys who knew were Qiao Chen and Su Ze.

The flowers couldn't have been from Qiao Chen.

But... it couldn't possibly be from Su Ze, either.

Su Ze was Qiao Anxin's boyfriend now, how could he give her flowers?

Who could it be, then?

Unless Mo Yesi found out about it from Qiao Chen just a while ago and then decided to send her pink roses instead?

She was still wondering when her cell phone rang.

She saw one of the male employees making a call on his cell phone and hence rejected the call. She walked into the crowd instead.

"Hello, I'm Qiao Mianmian. Were you calling me?" Qiao Mianmian became the center of attention the moment she walked through the crowd.

The employee was stunned in awe for a few seconds.

It was no wonder that man was willing to spend this sort of money and effort to pursue her. She was too beautiful.

This was a film academy.

There was no lack of beauties.

But this girl right here was exceptional.

Her appearance made all the other beauties appear average.

"Yes, Miss Qiao. This is from a customer, please sign here." The employee finally snapped out of his daze and handed her a pen and the collection receipt.

Whispers and murmurs instantly broke out.

"Damn, the flowers are for Qiao Mianmian."

"Is this from her boyfriend? He came to pick her up at noon just now and gave her a bouquet too. Now there's another? And it's such a huge one? I asked the guy, he said there are 999 stalks in total. It's so good to be rich, you can splurge on stuff like flowers."

"This is a huge bouquet, it must have cost a bomb."

Chapter 446: Chairman Mo Seemed to Be Getting Angry

“He drives a Lamborghini, this is peanuts to him. He can afford to do this every day.”

“Ah, Qiao Mianmian is so lucky. Her husband is so rich and handsome, and he’s so nice to her. Did she save the galaxy in her last life or something?”

“I think she must have saved the universe.”

“When I first saw the post, I thought she was a materialistic woman who dumped her ex-boyfriend for a richer man. But it turned out to be her scumbag boyfriend who dumped her and even got together with her sister. Damn, this type of man is the worst. Fortunately, she managed to get herself a rich and handsome boyfriend who’s better than that jerk.”

“He’s way better! Just his looks and figure are enough to beat that scumbag. Honestly, that man’s probably the most outstanding-looking man among all that I’ve seen before. If he joins the entertainment industry, the other men will have to back off.”

Qiao Mianmian signed the receipt before everyone’s envious eyes.

A few employees carried the 999-rose bouquet up the stairs.

The gigantic bouquet took up a huge area of the moderately-big living room.

The fragrance of the flowers dissipated all over the living room and into the kitchen, bedrooms, and every corner of the apartment.

Jiang Luoli walked one round around the flowers and said, “Baby, what are we going to do with these flowers? We don’t have enough vases to stick them into, and they’re going to wilt in a few days. It’s such a waste to throw them away.”

Qiao Mianmian was distracted. “Give them away, or maybe sell them.”

Jiang Luoli asked, “... Sell them? Are you serious? They’re flowers from Prince Charming.”

“Give them away, then.”

“To whom?”

“Anyone. There are so many people in school. If we give each person a few stalks, they’ll probably be gone soon.”

There was no response.

Qiao Mianmian looked at the huge pile of pink roses and decided to send Mo Yesi a text message.

Mo Yesi was in a meeting when he received her message.

His cell phone vibrated, and he immediately picked it up.

In the past, he would never glance at his cell phone during a meeting.

But now, he’d take a look the moment any notifications came in.

The employees were looking at him as he glanced at his cell phone.

They then saw Chairman Mo's default expression change a little in the next second. His brows were knitted tightly together, and he seemed serious.

The employees felt their heart sink and were getting anxious.

Who sent Chairman Mo a message? Why was he reacting this way?

Wei Zheng, who was sitting beside Mo Yesi, eyed him curiously too.

Mo Yesi's expression seemed to be getting darker, and that made Wei Zheng himself flustered.

Chairman Mo seemed to be getting angry.

Who was the person who managed to make him so angry in such a short time?

Mo Yesi pursed his lips and looked at his screen for a while more, before placing his cell phone on the table.

He went on with the meeting.

Sensing that he was in a bad mood, the employees were exceptionally apprehensive and nervous when they presented their reports. They were worried that they would be dragged into the picture.

While this boss might appear young and inexperienced, he was a lot stricter than the previous Chairman Mo.

Even as seniors, they dared not anger him.

Chapter 447: Someone Was Trying to Take Chairman Mo's Place?!

Initially, they didn't quite respect him. They thought he got the Chairman's post because of his family backing but had no substance at all.

But as time went by...

Nobody dared to underestimate him anymore after getting thrashed a few times.

The meeting ended 20 minutes later.

Mo Yesi got up and left the meeting room with a stern expression.

With his departure, everyone heaved a sigh of relief.

The tension in the air immediately vanished.

Back at the office.

Wei Zheng placed the well-documented minutes from the meeting onto his desk. He was just about to leave when Mo Yesi called him back.

"Chairman Mo?"

He turned around and waited readily for Boss's next instruction.

Mo Yesi was reading the text message from Qiao Mianmian again. His expression got even darker.

He looked up at Wei Zheng and said, "I have another meeting, I can't leave. Go to the school on my behalf."

He paused before adding, "Help me check something out."

"Chairman Mo, you mean..."

"Someone gave Mianmian 999 roses. Find out who it was. And then report that person's background to me."

Wei Zheng was left speechless.

So, Chairman Mo's sudden change in mood was because of this?

Someone was trying to take Chairman Mo's place?!

Wei Zheng was extremely curious. He wanted to get to the bottom of this as soon as possible.

Who was this fool?

Did he not know how possessive Chairman Mo was?

"Yes, Chairman Mo."

Wei Zheng left once he received his task.

Mo Yesi looked at Qiao Mianmian's message once more. After a while, he finally replied unhappily: [No.]

Qiao Mianmian's message to him read: [You sent me 999 pink roses?]

There was even an attached image of the flowers.

In the image, the tender pink roses had taken up the entire frame and were very eye-catching!

Qiao Mianmian responded immediately: [It wasn't you?! Who could it be?]

Mo Yesi looked even more awful as he read this reply.

He wanted to know who was foolish enough to pit themselves against him too.

Sending such a huge bouquet of roses to his wife.

It got even worse after Mo Yesi checked out the symbolism of 999 roses online.

"What does it mean to send a girl 999 pink roses?"

Mo Yesi saw thousands of search results.

He looked through the top few very seriously.

One netizen replied: Pink roses symbolize first love, romance, a relationship that will never be forgotten. They suit girls who look sweet and are looking for pure and innocent love. One rose symbolizes "you're my only one,” two roses mean “the world only has the both of us,” three roses mean “I love you,” nine roses mean “forever and ever.” If there are 999 roses, it means that the man really loves you and wants to spend the rest of his life with only you. If it’s 1314 roses, it means he’ll love you for the rest of eternity.

Another netizen wrote: Pink roses are less striking and appear warmer and more tender than red roses. They don’t look as eye-catching and loud as red roses, so it symbolizes a love that’s not as passionate, but sweeter, gentler, and warmer.

Chapter 448: Make Some Time Tonight

Pink roses are more suitable for a confession too.

Mo Yesi only read the first two results, and his expression was already terribly nasty.

So, someone really was trying to take his place?

He was confessing to Qiao Mianmian with the pink roses?

Qiao Mianmian was a sweet-looking girl indeed.

Mo Yesi’s mood worsened.

He suddenly felt that he’d given her the wrong flowers.

Pink roses evidently suited Qiao Mianmian more.

Even his love rival knew that, and he didn’t?!

999, forever and ever?

He smirked coldly and picked up his cell phone to make a call.

The other party picked up the phone right away.

A polite greeting was heard. “Chairman Mo.”

Mo Yesi said very seriously, “Immediately go to the florist and get a bouquet of pink roses. 1314 stalks.”

Wei Zheng kept quiet for a few seconds, then slowly said, “Yes, Chairman Mo. I got it. The flowers... are for Young Madam?”

Mo Yesi narrowed his eyes. “Who else could it be for?”

Wei Zheng was taken aback. “... Apologies, Chairman Mo. I said something wrong.”

Mo Yesi hung up but still felt unpleasant inside.

If someone like him could lay his eyes on her, why wouldn’t others?

Qiao Mianmian was still young. She was so beautiful, and her personality was great.

Surely many guys liked her.

It wasn't the least bit surprising that she had other suitors.

In fact, it'd be weird if she didn't.

He shouldn't be so uptight about it.

His Baby was so outstanding, who wouldn't like her.

But...

The thought of something like this happening again in the future irked him.

He and Qiao Mianmian had never had an agreement to keep their marriage a secret.

But given their current relationship, it was practically a secret marriage.

Besides his family and a few close friends, nobody else knew that he was already married.

Hence, they also didn't know that Qiao Mianmian was married.

In school, most people thought that Qiao Mianmian was only dating, that was probably why they still thought of pursuing her.

Mo Yesi wasn't too satisfied with this current state of things.

He had intended to make his relationship with Qiao Mianmian known but had kept to her wishes eventually.

She didn't want to make her marriage public until she graduated.

And he didn't want to make her unhappy.

So, he ended up being the one unhappy.

He heard a knock on the door.

His secretary's voice could be heard from outside. "Chairman Mo, your meeting is about to begin."

Mo Yesi looked at his chat with Qiao Mianmian again and sent her a message a few seconds later: [I've gotten Wei Zheng to go over and settle those flowers. In the future, ask who the flowers are from before you accept them. Don't accept any flowers that aren't from me.]

He then sent another message right after: [Make some time tonight. I'll go over to fetch you, then we'll go for dinner.]

...

When Qiao Mianmian received Mo Yesi's message, she had just received a call from the production crew as well. They wanted her to go down to an entertainment firm to sign a contract the next day.

After she signed the contract, her role in the show would be finalized.

Although Bai Yusheng had already confirmed her role at the auditions, Qiao Mianmian still felt a surge of joy when she got this call.

Chapter 449: Your Prince Charming Seems to Be Angry With Me

Jiang Luoli wanted to celebrate.

They made plans for a karaoke session later tonight.

But just after they confirmed it, Mo Yesi sent a message.

Qiao Mianmian froze for a moment before replying. [I've already made plans with Luo Luo for dinner and karaoke. Do you want to join us instead?]

She waited for a while after sending the message, but there was no reply from him.

Qiao Mianmian texted again. [Are you angry? But I made plans with her already. It would be hard to arrange another time. How about we have lunch together tomorrow? Or we can have supper tonight?]

Mo Yesi still didn't reply.

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

She was a hundred percent sure that Mo Yesi was angry.

His replies were normally instantaneous.

However, this time, there weren't any replies from him even after Qiao Mianmian texted twice. He must be angry.

Qiao Mianmian was speechless from his behavior.

She felt that he was being angry for no reason.

It wasn't as though she didn't want to spend time with him.

It just so happened that she already made plans with her friend. They could spend time together on another day.

Furthermore, they just had lunch together.

Qiao Mianmian always felt that their relationship was kind of weird.

It was different from other couples.

The girl would be the needy one in other relationships.

But in their relationship, he seemed to be the needy one.

"Baby, what's wrong?"

As they were heading out for a meal and karaoke, Jiang Luoli was preparing for the night. She just blew-dry her hair, and she was wearing a facial mask coming out of the washroom.

When she saw Qiao Mianmian staring at her phone, she curiously asked.

Qiao Mianmian looked at her, sighed, and replied, "Your Prince Charming seems to be angry with me."

“Huh?” Jiang Luoli asked. “Are you two arguing?”

“No.”

“So what’s happening...”

Qiao Mianmian pouted. “He texted and wanted to have dinner together. I told him about our plans and that I can’t join him. Now he isn’t replying to me.”

Jiang Luoli was speechless.

Her Prince Charming was so childish?

But it was quite cute.

Qiao Mianmian sighed and continued, “I told him that we could meet up for supper instead. But he still isn’t replying.”

“Hahaha.” Jiang Luoli laughed and replied smilingly, “Could it be that he already planned for a romantic candlelit dinner with you.”

Qiao Mianmian told Jiang Luoli that Mo Yesi was chasing after her.

Jiang Luoli was jealous and exclaimed that he was such a romantic person. She then told Qiao Mianmian to enjoy the process and not to accept Mo Yesi so quickly.

Qiao Mianmian frowned and said, “I don’t think so.”

“You should spend time with him tonight,” Jiang Luoli said as she sat next to Qiao Mianmian. She patted her shoulder and continued, “We can go out another time. It’s the best time for you two to develop your relationship. I don’t want to prevent you from doing so.

“Else I would feel so bad.

“It would be worse if Prince Charming isn’t happy with me.”

Jiang Luo had just received a bag that cost hundreds of thousands of yuan. She liked Mo Yesi even more after she found out that the bag was from him.

She would never do anything that would cause trouble for her Prince Charming.

Chapter 450: He Can Do That for the Rest of His Life

She had to let her Prince Charming know that she was on his side.

This was so that Prince Charming would be reminded of her when he was spoiling her baby.

Prince Charming was really generous.

Something that cost a little for him was a lot for her.

Jiang Luoli was happy just thinking about it.

It's great to have a best friend with such an awesome husband.

Qiao Mianmian said, "We've been meeting every day. Anyway, even if we are married, my life can't revolve around him."

She thought for a while and continued, "Let's continue with our plan."

"But..." Jiang Luoli didn't object to her proposal, but asked instead, "What about Prince Charming, then? Isn't he angry? Aren't you going to do something about it?"

"It's alright. It's easy to appease him."

Qiao Mianmian smiled as she recalled the previous times she appeased Mo Yesi. "I'll appease him when I see him tomorrow."

"Haha." Jiang Luoli laughed.

She laughed so hard that her facial mask almost felt off.

"Baby, do you know what you sound like when you mentioned Prince Charming?"

"How do I sound?"

"You sound like you're talking about appeasing your kid."

"I don't have a kid..."

"Now that you mentioned it, Prince Charming is really cute."

"Sometimes I guess?" Especially when he whined to her for favors, when he was being clingy, and when he became angry due to his childishness.

"I feel that Prince Charming really likes you."

"How can you tell?"

"It's so obvious. Hadn't you realized? Prince Charming is always so gentle with you, but he's so cold towards others."

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

She really didn't realize it.

"But he still hasn't replied to me." Qiao Mianmian frowned, getting a bit upset as well.

She felt that Mo Yesi was being too petty.

It wasn't as though she was going out with a guy.

Jiang Luoli thought for a while and suggested. "Why don't you give him a call?"

"No!"

Qiao Mianmian was prideful over the matter. She bit her lip and said angrily, "I won't send him any more messages. If he doesn't want to reply to me, he can do that for the rest of his life."

Jiang Luoli was speechless.

They were still in the honeymoon phase.

But they were fighting already.

Somehow, she felt that Prince Charming was going to have a hard time chasing after her baby.

How could he behave this way when he was the one chasing after her?

Which girl would accept a suitor like him?

Even if they accepted him, it would be because of his looks and wealth.

His personality was really bad!

Qiao Mianmian was serious when she said that she wasn't going to care about him.

She finalized on the dinner place with Jiang Luoli. She then changed and was really heading out.

...

On the other side.

The workers realized that their Chairman Mo was frequently checking his phone over the short meeting.

How frequently was he checking his phone?

He checked it every minute.

It was as though he was waiting for someone to text him.

Someone important to him.
