

Big Shot 581

Chapter 581: Going Mad With Jealousy

It was as if she'd caught him doing something wrong.

But the fact was that they had long broken up and had nothing to do with each other anymore.

She had no idea why Su Ze appeared so flustered.

Qiao Mianmian had no longing towards an ex who had disgusted her over and over.

Even those few seconds of eye contact were too much for her.

She eyed Su Ze for a while and then smiled mockingly before walking away.

Uncle Li drove her here and was planning to wait for her.

But Qiao Mianmian was afraid he'd have to wait for too long and so told him to return first.

She walked to the roadside to check for vacant cabs.

After bumping into Su Ze, she decided she needed to look for Mo Yesi to cleanse her eyes.

But before she managed to hail a cab, she heard an annoying voice from behind her.

"Mianmian, hear me out, it's not what you think it is. That woman and I have nothing to do with each other..."

Su Ze chased up and explained in a hurry.

When he first caught sight of Qiao Mianmian, he was shocked, but also a little pleasantly surprised.

He didn't expect to bump into the woman whom he thought about day and night.

But when he saw her mocking smile, the surprise evolved into panic.

He felt even more uptight when he saw that she left without hesitation.

He had pushed that woman aside, causing her to almost fall once again. She was left standing there and fuming on her own.

But Su Ze didn't have the heart to care about her anymore.

His mind and heart were full of Qiao Mianmian.

He used to think that she would end up haggard and defeated after breaking up with him. But not only did she not turn out that way, but she also ended up being even prettier and capturing his heart once again.

Su Ze's breathing was even messed up when he saw her just now.

His heart missed a beat too.

She was just like before, not fond of wearing too much makeup and always dressed simply.

But however simple she was, it could never hide her natural beauty.

She was so much more beautiful in this simple outfit than so many women out there in branded clothes and a face full of makeup.

She attracted his gaze right away.

She used to be so beautiful, but now... she was even more so.

And she seemed a little different from before.

In the past, she was brimming with youth and appeared to be a young, adorable girl. But now, she seemed a little more mature and feminine.

Su Ze had had a few women before.

He could tell right away in what aspect Qiao Mianmian had changed.

The thought of her having been touched all over by another man caused him to feel bitter and jealous. He even felt indignant.

It was as if someone had taken something that belonged to him, that he had kept with such care and protection.

Even the parts where he couldn't bear to touch in the past had been touched by someone else.

He couldn't bear to think about how the woman he'd wanted for so long was now someone else's.

She'd given her first time to another man.

Su Ze was going mad with jealousy.

He had been with her for so many years, and she had refused to give it to him.

She always said that she would only be willing to do it after marriage.

But why did she give it to someone else before marriage?

He suddenly felt like a cuckold and was filled with anger and a sense of betrayal.

He reached out, wanting so much to grab her by the shoulders and question why she could give it to another man but not him.

Chapter 582: I Really Hope You Can Give Me a Chance

But the moment he reached out, she took a step away in disgust.

Su Ze's expression stiffened.

"Mr. Su, did you get it wrong? I'm not interested at all in your relationship with that woman, and it has nothing to do with me, anyway. If you want to explain things, you've come to the wrong person."

If Qiao Mianmian was considered mildly disgusted by Su Ze previously...

She was extremely disgusted by him right now.

She questioned her past judgment once again.

How could she not have realized that this man was this much of a scum?

She couldn't believe that she once saw Su Ze as a rare good man.

And that as a rich second-generation heir, he barely had any vices that most other wealthy guys had.

She thought of him as being different from men who cheated women of their feelings and enjoyed hopping from one woman to the next.

Perhaps she really was blind in the past.

She finally believed this statement.

All men were trash.

They were all the same.

Not a single one was spared.

She hadn't realized before only because he'd hid it well.

Otherwise, given how long he and Qiao Anxin had been together, how could she not have known?

Had Qiao Anxin not come up to her back then, she'd probably still be kept in the dark.

That thought angered Qiao Mianmian.

The way she evaded his touch and glared at Su Ze agitated him.

She could lie beneath another man and derive happiness from him, but she couldn't even bear to be touched by him?

Did she hate him that much?

"Mianmian, I know you're still angry with me." Su Ze looked at her and took a deep breath. He suppressed his anger and tried his best to remain calm. "I know I'm in the wrong. I let you down.

"No matter what I say and do, I'll never be able to make up for my mistake.

"But, I really hope you can give me a chance."

He was finally clear of something.

He still loved Qiao Mianmian.

She was the only woman who really moved him.

In his entire life, he'd probably not be able to find another woman he loved this much.

Hence, he really didn't want to give up just yet.

He wanted to get her back.

He'd already decided. Once Qiao Anxin was discharged, he would break up with her.

After the breakup, he'd be a single man again.

By then, he could openly woo her again.

He'd once made a mistake out of folly and caused her great hurt.

From now on, he'd be good to her, he'd make up for his mistake.

"That woman has nothing to do with me. She's just an uncle's daughter who came back from overseas. My mom told me to take her around and familiarize her with the surroundings. We only went for a meal, nothing more."

"When you saw us just now, she was just about to slip. I only held her out of courtesy."

Su Ze felt a need to explain things, despite how disinterested Qiao Mianmian seemed.

He didn't want her to misunderstand him.

What he said was essentially the truth.

He had no interest in the woman and only agreed to this blind date because Mother Su asked him time and again.

It was all out of formality.

His heart was with Qiao Mianmian, how could he possibly be interested in other women?

Chapter 583: I'll Take Good Care of You for the Rest of My Life

Moreover, although that woman was rather good-looking, she was still a notch below Qiao Mianmian.

Especially since that woman had even gone under the knife before.

That nose and that chin... were obviously unnatural.

Meanwhile, Qiao Mianmian was au natural.

Su Ze knew her for 10 whole years. Even 10 years ago, she already looked like a beautiful Barbie. Tons of guys liked her in school.

Qiao Mianmian could barely believe what she'd heard.

She widened her eyes. "What did you say? You want me to give you a chance?"

Was this even something a human would say?

How shameless was he?

That he could say something like that.

“Yes.” Su Ze looked at her deeply. “Mianmian, I know I’m still in your heart. You’re still in mine too. We’ve gone through so many years together, and I’ve only ever loved you. I can’t forget you or the times we’ve spent together.

“I believe that I’m not the only one who still misses those days. You do too, right?”

10 years together.

She couldn’t possibly feel nothing for him.

She was so cold to him and appeared as if she detested him only because she was still angry at how he’d hurt her.

“Mianmian, let’s reconcile.” Su Ze stepped forward and reached out passionately, about to grab her hand. “Anxin and I have already broken up. I’m single now. Give me one more chance and let me make up for my mistakes, alright?”

“I swear, I’ll take good care of you for the rest of my life.

“I’ll never do anything to let you down again.”

This time, Qiao Mianmian heard him clearly.

She was stunned to hear that Qiao Anxin and he had broken up. But soon after, her expression blanked as he went on.

Her instinct when he reached out was to evade it, and she did so with a disgusted expression.

Su Ze’s expression was a little awful now.

Qiao Mianmian’s was even more so. She was so grossed out that she almost puked.

She felt she really underestimated how shameless Su Ze was.

“Su Ze, can you not be so disgusting?” Qiao Mianmian couldn’t hold it in any longer. “What has your relationship with Qiao Anxin got to do with me? I don’t even care whether you’re single or not. From the moment we broke up, you’re practically dead to me.

“You want me to give you a chance. But what chance can I give to someone already dead?”

“I’m telling you clearly right now.” Qiao Mianmian said coldly, “Even if all other men in the world died, and I’m left to choose between you and a pig, I’d rather choose the pig. I will never get back together with you.”

Su Ze’s dignity had been trampled upon.

He was embarrassed and annoyed to hear.

“Qiao Mianmian, do you even have any self-respect? You’d rather be someone else’s mistress and be played around by him than to be my official, rightful girlfriend?”

“What’s so good about that man that you’re willing to be this loyal to him? Is he good in bed and manages to satisfy you? Is that why you can’t leave him?”

Chapter 584: I Can't Do Without You

"Pah."

The moment he was done talking, he felt a tight slap to his face.

His head swung to the side.

Qiao Mianmian had made it clear to this scum time and again, but he pushed her limits repeatedly.

Just as she thought he was utterly shameless, he would do something even more absurd.

At one point, Qiao Mianmian could barely believe her eyes and ears.

She laughed mockingly. "Su Ze, I really need to thank Qiao Anxin now. If it wasn't for her, I wouldn't have realized how blind I was before."

Su Ze slowly turned back towards her.

Qiao Mianmian had been merciless with her slap and had left a red handprint on Su Ze's fair face. There was even a trace of blood at the tip of his mouth.

His eyes were red and full of hurt and anger.

Qiao Mianmian still looked at him coldly, as if he was a complete stranger. "No matter what I choose, it has nothing to do with you. Who are you to me? Does what I do concern you at all?"

"I really don't wish to see you ever again.

"You make my stomach turn!"

At that last sentence, Qiao Mianmian turned away and walked off.

He could see her determination from the way she strutted away.

It was as if they really wouldn't ever see each other again.

Su Ze already regretted what he'd said.

But it was too late to take it back.

He panicked the moment he saw Qiao Mianmian's back view.

His instinct was to chase her.

He grabbed her hand.

"Mianmian, don't go. I'm sorry, I spoke wrongly." Su Ze wouldn't let her leave. "I'm sorry, I didn't mean it. I'm just too jealous of that man, that's why I didn't think before I spoke.

"Mianmian, forgive me.

"I really do love you. I can't do without you. Give me another chance, alright. I'll surely be good to you in the future. I'll be loyal and devoted to you for the rest of my life. If you're willing, we can register our marriage right away.

“We can go right now, how’s that?”

“I’ll marry you immediately.

“If you love acting, you can sign a contract under Star Splendor. I’ll use its resources to groom you.

“Mianmian, as long as you’re willing to forgive me and get back with me... I can promise you anything.

“Tell me, what do you want? I can give you anything that he can.”

He was surely able to afford whatever that man could provide.

He could match it.

No, he could even better it.

He simply wouldn’t believe that she would rather be that man’s mistress than be the official and enviable Mrs. Su.

“Su Ze, let go of me.” Qiao Mianmian’s expression was stone cold.

But Su Ze’s grip was strong.

She simply couldn’t shake him off.

The more she wanted to, the tighter he grabbed her. “Mianmian, forgive me. Alright? Give me one more chance and let me make it up to you.”

They were getting physical in public.

And both of them were good-looking individuals who quickly attracted others’ glances.

Quite a number of passersby assumed that they were a couple quarreling on the streets.

Chapter 585: It Was Actually Gong Zeli

Su Ze realized that the public was watching them. He wasn’t embarrassed by the attention, so he raised his voice and said, “Mianmian, I was wrong. I will never do anything that would hurt you in the future. I can swear in front of everyone.

“Everyone, please be my witness. Let the heavens strike me if I don’t treat my girlfriend well in the future.”

The pedestrians thought that they were fighting.

They thought that the guy was at fault.

But because of Su Ze’s good looks and good attitude, they took his side and helped him. “Miss, you can see that your boyfriend is really sincere in his apology. He really cares about you. Just forgive him.”

“That’s right. Every couple fights. It’s a part of a healthy relationship.”

“Young lady, you should forgive your boyfriend. I feel that he’s close to tears already.”

“I agree. Young lady, you...”

The other pedestrians joined in the commotion.

Seeing that the crowd was on his side, Su Ze smiled, and a sense of smugness flashed across his eyes.

As he saw that more people were getting drawn to him, he wanted to take the opportunity to get back together with Qiao Mianmian. He then kneeled down.

“Mianmian, forgive me,” Su Ze said as he reached for something in his pocket. He then fished out a little red box.

The crowd went wild as they witnessed this scene. He handed the box to Qiao Mianmian, looked up at her, and said, “Will you marry me? Let me take care of you for the rest of your life.”

Then, he opened the box.

It was a diamond ring. The glitter was blinding.

The crowd lost their mind as they saw its size.

“Marry him, marry him.”

“Marry him!”

Su Ze bought it yesterday.

He bought it when he wanted to get back together with Qiao Mianmian.

The diamond must have cost millions judging by its size.

It was the most expensive gift that Su Ze had ever bought.

But to him, it was all worth it. If it meant getting back together with the woman he loved.

He didn't plan to propose to her in such a condition.

He had already planned for a more romantic way to propose to her.

But it felt like the perfect situation now.

He just had to make his move.

As she heard the roaring crowd and saw the man kneeling in front of her, Qiao Mianmian fumed with anger.

Just as she was about to give Su Ze a tight slap, she heard a cold voice from afar. “I never knew that the person taking over the Su Mandate would be so despicable. He even dares to force a girl to marry him in front of a crowd.

“Isn't it obvious that she isn't willing to marry you? How could you do such laughable stuff?”

That voice...

Qiao Mianmian lifted her head in shock.

All of a sudden, the crowd split into two and created a path.

A slender figure then walked over.

Qiao Mianmian could finally recognize the person as he approached her. She was shocked.

Her jaw dropped as she exclaimed. "Gong..."

It was Gong Zeli.

Once Gong Zeli appeared, the excited crowd started to calm down.

Gong Zeli could spoil the wildest party.

His face practically screamed: "I'll kill anyone who dares to mess with me."

Chapter 586: Mr. Su, She Said She's Not Your Girlfriend

The crowd was taken aback by his aura and slowly quietened down.

Su Ze was also stunned when he saw Gong Zeli.

He was very surprised.

He was stunned for a while before slowly standing up.

Su Ze knew Gong Zeli.

He was famous for his temperament in Yuncheng City. Nobody dared to mess with him.

Others referred to Su Ze as Young Master Su.

But in front of Gong Zeli, he was a nobody.

Thinking back to how Gong Zeli helped Qiao Mianmian earlier, he turned pale with fear and looked at her with a flurry of emotions.

Did she know Gong Zeli?

How was it possible?

With Qiao Mianmian's status, how could she have known Gong Zeli?

That Gong Zeli even spoke up for her.

What exactly was their relationship?

"So it's Young Master Gong." Su Ze couldn't offend him. He politely replied, "Young Master Gong, you must be mistaken. I'm proposing to my girlfriend and not harassing a stranger."

"Girlfriend?" Gong Zeli mocked.

It was fortunate that he was the one here today.

If it was Mo Yesi, Su Ze would be unable to bear the consequences.

“Miss Qiao, he said you are his girlfriend. Are you?” Gong Zeli ignored him and turned to ask Qiao Mianmian.

Qiao Mianmian frowned. Though she couldn't guess what he was up to, she shook her head and replied, “No.”

Gong Zeli nodded.

“Mr. Su, she said she's not your girlfriend.”

He was clearly amused. Seeing Gong Zeli smiling, Su Ze felt a chill run down his spine.

He stood up, his body full of sweat.

Su Ze froze and smiled unnaturally. “I made a mistake and she's angry with me, so we're fighting. I didn't know that Young Master Gong knew Mianmian.”

As Gong Zeli was about to speak, Qiao Mianmian walked up. Bam! She slapped him.

Everyone around them was shocked.

Su Ze was also shocked by this slap.

Holding his face, he stared at Qiao Mianmian in disbelief.

He didn't expect her to slap him again.

Qiao Mianmian glared at him and said, “Su Ze, it will no longer be a slap if you continue saying nonsense about our relationship in front of others. Qiao Anxin is my sister, and you were my fiancé. But you two were having an affair before we broke up.

“Do you expect me to forgive you after doing something so revolting?”

“This is my last warning, don't ever harass me again. I won't be so polite next time.”

Hearing what she said, the quiet crowd started to discuss among themselves.

No one spoke up for Su Ze.

Everyone looked at him with contempt.

“He cheated her with his sister-in-law. It's no wonder the Young Lady did not forgive him.”

“He's gone overboard. He even dared to cheat with his sister-in-law.”

“Wow, that's horrid. I didn't expect him to be such a scumbag.”

Chapter 587: He Wasn't Going to Give Up

“Not only did he cheat, but he also cheated her with his sister-in-law. If he was my boyfriend, I would've murdered him.”

“You shouldn't just murder him. You should torture him and let him suffer for the rest of his pitiful life.”

The crowd started to criticize Su Ze.

Su Ze started to frown.

He noticed that Qiao Mianmian was already far away and wanted to chase her. However, as he started to walk towards her, he saw a pair of eyes glaring coldly at him.

Su Ze was shocked and said, "Young Master Gong..."

Gong Zeli was trying to warn him with his glare. He took a deep look at Su Ze and left.

Su Ze was too scared to give chase.

His legs were frozen in fear. He slowly looked at the diamond ring that he failed to give. He then frowned and clenched his fist.

Qiao Mianmian had only left for a while before she heard Gong Zeli calling out to her.

"Miss Qiao, please stop."

She stopped and turned.

Gong Zeli stopped in his tracks and stood there, looking at her.

She wasn't sure if her perception was wrong, but she felt that Gong Zeli... was treating her a lot better compared to last time.

He wasn't behaving as though she owed him a huge sum of money.

She was a person that would reciprocate how others treated her.

Since he wasn't treating her badly, she answered politely, "What's the matter, Mr. Gong?"

Gong Zeli froze.

He was annoyed by how she addressed him.

He wasn't happy with her attitude towards him as well.

He could feel that she was being cold towards him on purpose and was trying to distance herself from him.

She didn't behave that way with Yan Shaoqing.

She was clearly more relaxed when she was with him.

Gong Zeli was aware of the reason. It was all because of him.

He had... treated her really badly previously.

Hence, it was almost impossible for her to move on from what happened.

But the issue for Gong Zeli was that he wasn't annoyed when she gave him the same attitude previously.

Why would he feel annoyed now?

“The guy just now, was he your ex-boyfriend?” Gong Zeli asked. He wasn’t sure why he wanted to look for Qiao Mianmian.

He had no reason to look for her.

But... he felt that he just had to.

Qiao Mianmian hesitated for a moment before nodding. “Yes.”

After Qiao Mianmian answered, Gong Zeli didn’t know how to continue the conversation.

As he stood in silence, Qiao Mianmian stared at him for a while before asking, “Mr. Gong, was that the reason why you approached me?”

She had a good idea for why Gong Zeli approached her.

He should be worried that she would cheat on his buddy with her ex-boyfriend?

Hence, he must have wanted to make sure it wouldn’t happen, right?

He was best buddies with Mo Yesi. It would be logical to be worried if your buddy got cheated on.

Gong Zeli was shocked by the question.

He had no good reason for approaching her.

He just... wanted to talk to her.

The afternoon sun was strong. It was like a spotlight shining on Qiao Mianmian.

Qiao Mianmian had really fair skin. Under the sun, she looked as though she was glowing.

When you combined that with her perfect facial structure, silky smooth hair, and long white dress...

Chapter 588: Ten Years Ago, Did You...

This was the first time Gong Zeli seriously observed Qiao Mianmian.

He had never properly taken a look at her before.

His only perception of her before was that she was really attractive.

But it was different this time.

He finally realized that Qiao Mianmian was really pretty after being oblivious to it for so long.

She had a really small frame. Her facial features were perfect.

Gong Zeli had seen countless beauties growing up because of his background. He was already immune to beautiful ladies.

But as he observed the lady in front of him, he could feel his heartbeat speed up.

It was a feeling... that he hadn't felt in a long time.

The last time this had happened to him was when he was in the second year of elementary school.

That time, he had fallen in love with a sweet-looking girl in his class.

That girl sat next to him. She was really good in her studies. She also had a sweet voice and a cute personality.

But Gong Zeli was the infamous school bully at that time.

Not only did he have a bad temper, but he was also bad in his studies. He was also a troublemaker.

It was the school policy at that time to partner up a bad student with a good one. Hence, he was partnered up with her.

In the beginning, they couldn't stand each other.

Gong Zeli even thought that he hated her. He had always thought that she was being a busybody and it annoyed him.

This was until...

That girl transferred out of the school.

On the second day of her transfer, Gong Zeli noticed that her seat was empty. As he found out that she had transferred out, he felt heartbroken.

Only after a long while did he realize he was in love with her.

He also realized that his heartbeat speed wasn't because he hated her.

It was because he was in love with her.

As he recalled this, Gong Zeli's eyes widened in shock. This familiar feeling returned.

Fear appeared on his face as he took a step back.

He stared at Qiao Mianmian in fear.

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

She touched her face.

What did Gong Zeli see?

Was there something scary on her face?

"Mr. Gong, are you..."

Qiao Mianmian took a step towards him, curious about what he saw.

But the moment she did so, Gong Zeli took a step away from her.

It was as though he was afraid of her.

She felt as though he was avoiding her like the plague.

Qiao Mianmian was speechless.

She was affected by his actions.

As she walked towards him, a gust of wind blew. Gong Zeli could smell a weak fragrance coming from Qiao Mianmian.

It smelled similar to flowers with a hint of peach.

It was a scent that he was familiar with.

The girl that swam towards him ten years ago had the same smell.

Gong Zeli clenched his fist. It was the first time he felt nervous.

He felt lost as he stared at her puzzledly.

The person that saved him that night was Shen Rou.

Why did he find that familiar scent on another girl?

“Miss Qiao, did you...” Gong Zeli stared at her for a while before asking. “Ten years ago, did you...”

Chapter 589: Even You Are Trying to Steal Gong Zeli From Me?

However, his phone suddenly rang.

It interrupted his question.

His face changed as he checked it and immediately answered the call.

“Hello.”

“Alright, I’ll be right there.”

As he hung up, Gong Zeli took a long look at Qiao Mianmian and then said, “Miss Qiao, I have something to attend to. Let’s chat another day.” He then left in a hurry.

Qiao Mianmian was still confused.

After a while, the car that she booked had also arrived.

Qiao Mianmian didn’t want to put too much thought into Gong Zeli’s strange behavior. She texted Mo Yesi and was on her way to the Mo Corporation.

Just as the car left, a red Maserati appeared. Shen Rou was inside, biting her lip as she looked coldly at the car Qiao Mianmian was in joined the traffic.

“Qiao Mianmian.”

As she bit on her lip, she clenched tightly on the steering wheel. There was a cold look in her eyes as she whispered, “You’re even trying to steal Gong Zeli from me? Don’t force me to resort to other means.”

...

When Qiao Mianmian arrived at the Mo Corporation, Wei Zheng was there to pick her up.

Wei Zheng was especially happy to see her. As she got out of the car, he greeted her enthusiastically. "Young Madam."

"Don't be so loud."

Qiao Mianmian said as she looked around. She then whispered, "Just address me as Miss Qiao in the company."

"Don't need to worry, Young Madam. No one heard it," Wei Zheng replied as he also looked around. He then smiled and whispered, "Chairman Mo is in a meeting now. But he has instructed me to bring you to the office in the meantime."

"I have prepared some snacks for you. You can have some if you're hungry. He will bring you out for dinner after he's done with the meeting."

"If it's too boring, you can shop around in the mall next door. I can accompany you."

"I think I will wait for him in the office."

Qiao Mianmian thought for a while before continuing smilingly, "There's nothing that I want to buy. I'm too lazy to shop."

Wei Zheng was left speechless.

It was the first time he encountered such a young madam.

She didn't like to shop.

If it were other women, they would've chosen shopping without hesitation.

They would have bought shoes, heels, jewelry...

They would buy anything they could get their hands on.

Money wasn't an issue for Chairman Mo, after all.

His credit cards wouldn't be rejected no matter how much they bought.

But Young Madam...

She was really trying to save money for Chairman Mo.

Any ordinary man would be really happy to have a wife like her.

But as for their Chairman Mo...

He would feel like a failure instead.

Wei Zheng wanted to convince Qiao Mianmian to go for the shopping trip. He thought for a while before tempting her. "Young Madam, are you sure about not going to the mall? I've heard that the major brands are having an end-of-season sale. I have a VIP card for the mall which gives us up to a 50% discount. It's a steal."

Qiao Mianmian was about to enter the lift when she heard that.

She stopped in her tracks, turned around, and asked, "50% discount? Are you sure?"

Wei Zheng felt a strong sense of accomplishment at successfully sparking her interest. He immediately nodded and replied, "Yes, I'm sure. Young Madam, I think you should go on the shopping trip instead? The meeting just started, and it will take another hour before it ends. It would be really boring for you to be alone in the office. It'll be a better choice for you to shop around..."

Chapter 590: Where are you, Baby?

Qiao Mianmian had to admit that she was tempted by the 50% discount.

After hesitating for a second, she nodded. "Alright, let's head to the shopping mall."

She didn't actually have anything that she wanted to buy.

But she felt like getting some clothes or shoes for Qiao Chen.

On second thought, she had also never gotten anything for Mo Yesi.

It seemed like she really should go for a walk at the shopping mall.

After reaching the mall, Qiao Mianmian headed straight for the level exclusively for the men's wear.

She knew that Mo Yesi's clothes were all tailored and custom-made. They were all much more expensive than those branded goods even though they had no brand.

She never thought of using cheap goods to pacify him.

After browsing through a few boutiques for half an hour, she managed to pick out a tie that cost a few hundred thousand yuan, along with a black shirt that he always wore.

When it came to footing the bill.

She felt heartache for a moment when she saw the few hundred thousand being deducted from her card in just one swipe, even though the card was technically given to her by Mo Yesi and not her own.

After picking out Mo Yesi's gift, she headed to the sports and leisure section to pick out another few pieces for Qiao Chen. They were all in the style that he usually favored.

Even though Wei Zheng was there with her the whole time, he still felt slightly dazed and speechless when he looked down at the few bags in his hands as they left the mall after shopping.

It was all... men's apparel.

Qiao Mianmian didn't get a single thing for herself.

He couldn't help but ask her, "Madam, aren't you getting anything for yourself?"

After entering the lift, Qiao Mianmian immediately pressed the button for the ground floor, clearly having zero intention to continue shopping for herself.

"There's nothing I feel like buying."

Giving it a serious thought, she shrugged. "I have everything I need at home, so there's really nothing that I want to buy. Your boss can be really extravagant at times since he seems to buy everything in bulk. All the clothes, shoes, and jewelry that he got for me at home? I probably can't even finish wearing all of them in one year."

She suddenly realized that she had managed to quit her habit of shopping ever since she got together with Mo Yesi.

When she felt like buying some clothes, she would remember that whole big bunch of branded clothes lying in her own closet, with the tags still hanging on them.

When she felt like buying some shoes, she remembered all the shoes that she hadn't even worn sitting in her shoe rack.

When she felt like buying a bag, she would remember...

Anyway, no matter what she felt like buying, she would always be reminded that she didn't actually lack anything.

Naturally, her desire to go shopping would immediately disappear.

She suddenly realized that the best way to curb habitual shopping was to find a super-rich husband.

Did he just get fed a benefit?

"Oh right, special assistant Wei." Qiao Mianmian pointed towards the bag in his hands and asked unsurely, "The tie and shirt that I picked out for your boss, do you think he will like them?"

She used Wei Zheng as a temporary model for her to try the clothes on just now when she was making up her mind.

She thought it looked not bad.

But she wasn't sure if Mo Yesi would like it.

After all, that man's fashion standards were too high. He would definitely have high expectations for his clothes.

Wei Zheng answered without even thinking, "Of course, he'll love them. As long as it's your gift, President Mo will definitely like it."

"Really?"

“Please don’t worry, Madam.” Wei Zheng patted his own chest as if to say she could count on him.
“That’s a gift you specially picked for him. If he knows you got something for him, Chairman Mo will be overjoyed.”

...

Just as Qiao Mianmian left the mall, she received a call from Mo Yesi.

She picked it up.

“Where are you, Baby?”
