Chapter 331: That Man is Difficult to Coax. Do You Like This?

The man frowned, and his eyes were cold. Anyone who looked at him could not help but feel a chill down their spine.

That also meant that he was angry.

He had just woken up, and his voice was a little hoarse. His voice was a little better now compared to the light and shallow voice last night.

Although he was a little weaker than usual, it would still make others tremble in fear when he was angry.

Qin Shu knew that man would get angry, so she was mentally prepared. However, she was still shocked when the man opened his eyes and started to scold her for what had happened.

“Let’s wash up and eat first. We’ll talk about it after eating, okay?”

Fu Tingyu’s pitch-black pupils were staring at her. He did not relax the strength in his hands. Instead, he tightened his grip, but the strength was weaker than usual.

He was still afraid when he recalled Xiye Ze’s gun was pointed at her, the moment she appeared last night.

“How many lives do you think you have, which made you think you can take the risk?” The man’s voice had turned cold, and there was an imperceptible tremor in his voice.

Qin Shu looked at the man frowning with anger and saw herself in his eyes. She said word by word, “I only have one life. But I’m willing to take the risk for you.”

Fu Tingyu was stunned. He stared at the girl in front of him as if he could see through her. He looked at her for a long time, but he still couldn’t see through the girl in front of him.

Was she willing to take the risk for him because she owed him, or was it because of some other reason?

Qin Shu saw that the man didn’t speak, so she continued to coax him. “Let’s eat first. You can punish whatever you want after we finish eating, okay?”

Fu Tingyu retracted his thoughts and looked at the girl in front of him as if he was thinking about how to punish her. However, his bloodless lips opened slightly after thinking for a while, “Tell me, how should I punish you?”

Qin Shu didn’t expect that the man would throw a difficult problem at her. Who would be ruthless to themselves, right?

Of course, she would want the punishment to be as light and as easy as possible.

Fu Tingyu seemed to have seen through the girl’s thoughts and reminded her, “Your suggestion has to make me satisfied.”

Qin Shu knew that the man would not let her off so easily after seeing through her thoughts.

She thought for a while and glanced at the man. He was still staring at her.

The man would not agree with corporal punishment would not work.

The man would not allow her to not eat either.

She carefully probed, "I will copy a hundred times. I love Fu Tingyu. How about this?"

Fu Tingyu was stunned again. He probably didn't expect the girl to think of using such a method to punish herself. Moreover, it was the words that made him excited.

These words made the man not come back to his senses for a long time. He just stared at the girl and looked at her sparkling eyes.

Qin Shu saw that the man didn't say anything and thought that he thought it was too little. She hurriedly changed her words, "Punish me to copy 'I love Fu Tingyu' a thousand times. Is this enough?"

Thousand times? Fu Tingyu regained his composure after he calmed down. How was copying enough? Just because she wrote it out didn't mean it would become a fact.

However, he was still looking forward to the girl's handwriting, writing that sentence on the entire page, and only his name was on it.

"It's not enough." The man's voice was still cold.

His voice was so cold, which meant that he was still angry.

He could punish her however he wanted as long as that could subside his anger.

"Then how do you think you should punish me?"

The girl's eyes were blinking as she stared at him, looking like she would do whatever he wanted.

Fu Tingyu thought of something and held the girl's wrist tightly. He pulled her in front of him and whispered a few words into her ear.

Qin Shu heard him and immediately blushed.

Fu Tingyu turned his head to look at the girl's slightly blushed cheeks and said in a low voice, "You don't want to?"

"Yes. Yes. I can do that." Qin Shu scrambled to nod her head. She was afraid that the man might make even more excessive demands if she said no.

Although such demands were also excessive, there were no such things as too excessive to that man, only the most excessive.

Fu Tingyu's voice softened a little upon seeing that the girl agreed, "There won't be the next time."

Qin Shu was a little hesitant because she would still take the risk if something similar happened again.

"You want there to be the next time?" Fu Tingyu approached her with a sullen face. His voice turned cold again. "Do you believe that I will lock you in Bright Garden if there is a next time?"

The man's tone was full of threats.

Qin Shu immediately coaxed him upon seeing that the man was about to get angry again. "There won't be the next time. Don't be angry. Don't be angry."

She understood the man's personality too well. He would always keep his word.

He would not let her take risks no matter what, especially at the risk of her life.

It would not be a joke to say that he would lock her up.

Fu Tingyu temporarily believed Qin Shu's repeated promises.

Then, he got up and went to wash up.

Qin Shu watched the man's tall and straight figure walk into the bathroom. His face was still pale, and even the color of his lips had not returned to normal. She could not help but start to worry.

Fu Tingyu, who seemed to be fine on the surface, only knew in his heart how his health was.

Qin Shu walked out of the room and said to Shi Yan when Fu Tingyu went to wash up, "Ask the hotel to send over the lunch prepared by the hotel. He can eat when he comes out from the shower."

"I'll make a call right now."

Shi Yan took out his phone and dialed the number of the hotel staff.

Qin Shu took out her laptop from her backpack and sat down at the dining table. She placed the laptop on the dining table and opened it. As she searched, she waited for the man to come out.

Qin Shu looked at Shi Yan after he finished his call and asked, "What exactly happened yesterday? Why did Xiye Ze trap you guys at the equestrian center?"

Xiye Ze said that a woman had been kidnaped when she was about to leave. At that time, she was in a hurry to take her boyfriend away, so she didn't notice.

Shi Yan became angry when she mentioned this, "Sir and Xiye ze were having a good conversation. Xiye Ze received a phone call when it was almost evening, and then he insisted that we kidnaped his woman. He will not allow us to leave if he doesn't hand over the woman. Sir got injured when he fought with him."

Qin Shu felt that this matter was too strange when she heard of it. Why did the kidnapper not kidnap Xiye Ze's woman at other times? It just so happened that Fu Tingyu was negotiating with Xiye Ze when he kidnaped her. It was too coincidental.

It was a coincidence that she felt that someone did it on purpose.

The hotel waiter delivered the food on time.

Shi Yan did not let the waiter in. He took the dining car over instead and closed the door.

He pushed the dining car to the dining table and placed the food on it one by one.

Fu Tingyu's tall and straight figure walked out of the room and walked to the dining table. He sat down opposite the girl. He looked up at the girl and saw that she was using the computer. He did not say anything.

He didn't ask about her hacking skills.

He retracted his gaze and picked up the chopsticks in front of him. He didn't have much appetite upon looking at the food in front of him. His slender fingers clenched the chopsticks tightly, and he slowly ate a few mouthfuls.

Shi Yan recalled the news he heard today and said, "Today, Phil Equestrian Center was forced to close for reorganization. The horses ran all night and were exhausted. They will need about two to three days to recover from it."

Chapter 332: Jaw-Dropping Shock. How About Calling Her a Lovely Wife?

He couldn't help but laugh when he thought of the scene after he reported the situation.

He really couldn't be blamed for being unkind. Who asked Xiye Ze to provoke them first?

Qin Shu heard that and smiled. It was within her expectations. There was nothing to be surprised about, but she felt a little happy instead.

Horses were breathing in stimulants, not ingesting them into their stomachs. There wouldn't be any residue in their bodies, so they wouldn't be able to find anything even if Xiye Ze asked a vet to examine them.

Fu Tingyu looked at the girl opposite him. She was still as eccentric as before. Her thoughts of dealing with things would not only surprise others but also give them a headache.

He retracted his gaze and asked Shi Yan, "Do you know who kidnapped Xiye Ze's woman?"

"I've already sent someone to investigate. There should be news soon," Shi Yan said.

Ye Luo didn't say anything. He stood by the wall of the living room, with his back straight.

Boss had already been placed in the room.

Perhaps he had guessed that Fu Tingyu would be angry, so he had been hiding in the room to avoid being scolded along with Ye Luo.

Qin Shu glanced at Ye Luo, who was standing by the wall. She knew that he was waiting to receive his punishment.

A person who would rather be punished than lie to Fu Tingyu. Such a subordinate was rare.

Ye Qing walked over from the entrance at that moment. He looked at Qin Shu, who was sitting at the dining table and said hesitantly, "Madam, that horse has been neighing nonstop since last night. Many guests have complained, and the hotel manager wants us to settle it as soon as possible."

Only after Ye Qing's reminder did Qin Shu remember that horse. She had been focusing all her attention on the man last night, so she had forgotten about that horse.

It should be thanked the most for its domineering appearance last night.

Shi Yan had heard about it that horse with red hair on its forehead, from Xiye Ze and Lord Fu during their conversation a day ago.

Even he had spent three days trying to tame the horse. How could Qin Shu tame it in such a short time when her leg was injured?

Ordinary people would not dare to try to tame an unruly wild horse unless they were horse tamers.

Qin Shu did it?

He couldn't help but ask Qin Shu, "Xiye Ze spent three days but still couldn't tame the horse. How did you manage to tame it in such a short period?"

Qin Shu glanced at Shi Yan and saw him stretching his neck out with a curious expression. She recalled the process of communicating with the horse, she couldn't help but laugh. "I communicated with it for a while and discussed the terms of the cooperation. It didn't object much, so I brought it out. It was just that it was a little arrogant at the beginning and refused to leave."

She was so anxious at that time that she almost held a dagger to the horse's neck and threatened it to leave quickly.

Fu Tingyu looked at the girl. He smiled when he saw her bright eyes and continued to eat the food in front of him.

Shi Yan's jaw almost dropped when he heard that. "You... You tamed it after communicating with it?"

Qin Shu raised her eyebrows and looked at Shi Yan. "What else can I do?"

Her calf was injured. By then, she would not be the one taming the horse, but the horse would be the one disciplining her.

Fortunately, the horse looked unruly and wild, but she could still communicate with it.

Shi Yan gave Qin Shu a thumbs up. 'You're awesome!'

Qin Shu turned to look at Ye Qing and asked, "Where did you lock it? I'll go look."

Ye Qing said, "It's in the warehouse behind the hotel."

Qin Shu closed her laptop and looked at the man opposite her. "You eat first. I'll go down and look."

"Okay." Fu Tingyu responded.

Qin Shu saw that the man had responded, so she stood up and walked towards the door. She said when she passed by Ye Luo, "Let's go. Help me out."

Ye Luo looked at Qin Shu and then at Lord Fu. Fu Tingyu's back was facing him. He was elegantly eating the food in front of him and didn't say anything to stop him.

Qin Shu also turned back to look at the man. She took the lead and walked out upon seeing that he didn't react much.

Ye Luo retracted his gaze and followed Qin Shu out.

Fifteen minutes later, in the hotel's warehouse.

Ye Qing walked in the front and passed through a cement road. He stopped in front of a winding door and pointed inside. He said to Qin Shu, "Madam, that horse is inside."

They heard the horse neighing loudly before they enter. The neigh revealed the horse's restlessness and the sound of its hooves as if it was expressing its impatience and dissatisfaction.

Qin Shu's gaze inside and walked straight in. She saw the horse spinning around on the spot when she walked in, roaring and kicking the cement floor continuously, making tapping sounds.

It must have thought that she had forgotten about it, which was why it was so agitated.

Qin Shu walked over and stopped in front of the horse. She reached out her hand to try and comfort it.

"Don't worry. I will do what I promised you."

The horse, which was originally agitated, gradually calmed down under Qin Shu's comfort. Its big eyes looked at Qin Shu, as if it was looking forward to it.

Ye Qing was dumbfounded when she saw this scene. He had even used anesthesia and called for a truck to bring it back last night.

The reason was that this horse didn't allow others to get close to it. It would swing its hooves once others got close to it.

The horse quieted down with just Qin Shu saying a few words.

Even a professional horse trainer wasn't this awesome.

He had even persuaded until he was tired. Not only did the horse not calm down, it even became more irritable.

Qin Shu observed the little red hair on the horse's forehead as she comforted it.

"Xiye Ze named you Red Hair, which is not pleasant at all. It feels like a street gangster's name. I'll give you a new name."

Qin Shu thought for a while and thought of Boss. Her eyes lit up. "Let's call you Lovely Wife, okay?"

Ye Qing, "..."

Ye Luo, "..."

The horse's nostrils flared up. It was almost about to swing its hooves as if it disliked the name 'Lovely Wife'.

Qin Shu held back her laughter and comforted it when she saw that it was unhappy. "Alright, I was just joking. Don't take it seriously."

Qin Shu thought for a moment and said, "Last night, we stepped out on the moonlight. It was domineering and mysterious. Then I shall call you Moonwalker."

“Moonwalker is not bad. It’s not only more beautiful than Red Hair, but also quite poetic,” Ye Qing couldn’t help but say.

Qin Shu turned back to look at Ye Qing and patted Moonwalker’s head with a smile. “I’ll have someone send you back now. Next time, be smart and don’t let others catch you.”

She turned back to look at Ye Luo after she said that. “Send it back to the grassland yourself.”

Ye Luo looked at Moonwalker. “I need to ask Lord Fu about that.”

Qin Shu. “Okay.”

Ye Luo looked away, took out his phone, and dialed Lord Fu’s number.

After the call connected, he said, “Master Four, Madam wants me to send the horse to its hometown, the grassland.”

Fu Tingyu, on the other end of the phone, agreed.

Ye Luo put away his phone and looked at Qin Shu. “I’ll send it.”

Qin Shu smiled and said, “You’re quite similar to Moonwalker. Your temperament is both fierce and wild. You’ll only be loyal to the person who tamed you.”

Chapter 333: Was He Jealous? She is Not for Anyone To Share

Moonwalker had a fierce personality. It was like a horse that had run loose in the grassland, similar to Ye Luo.

Qin Shu had heard a little about Ye Luo.

He had no parents and relied on fighting underground for a living.

His personality was even more irritable than now. His personality had also been tempered a little, ever since he followed Fu Tingyu and entered the Ye family, but his violence still could not be changed.

It was the same for Moonwalker. It would not let allow anyone to touch it, let alone ride it.

She didn’t plan to bring Moonwalker back because she felt that it would live happier in the grasslands.

Ye Luo was stunned for a few seconds.

Ye Luo spent some time and found a long-distance truck.

Qin Shu comforted Moonwalker for a while before it got into the truck with its strong limbs.

Ye Luo also got into the truck.

Qin Shu returned to the hotel room after sending the truck away.

She walked into the hotel room and found that Fu Tingyu was not there. She turned to look at Ye Leng. “Where did he go?”

Ye Leng said, "Sir went to look for Xiye Ze."

Qin Shu frowned slightly. "Has he found the person who kidnapped his woman?"

Ye Leng nodded. "Yes, Madam."

There shouldn't be any problems now that Xiye Ze's woman had been found. Fu Tingyu probably went to look for him for the purple pure diamond.

Qin Shu didn't bother with this matter because since Fu Tingyu went to look for him, he should have a way to get the purple pure diamond.

Qin Shu had nothing to do in the hotel room, so she went out for a while.

Ye Leng followed her and acted as her chauffeur.

However, she didn't ask Ye Leng to follow her and asked him to wait in the car when they arrived at the mall.

Ye Leng initially refused, but after a few words from Qin Shu, Ye Leng gave up the idea of following them.

Qin Shu took out a black mask from her backpack and put it on before getting out of the car. Then, she opened the car door and got out.

Xijin was much hotter than China. The people there generally had darker skin, but it was a little whiter than the black. It was somewhere in between.

There were air conditioners in the mall. She didn't feel the heat at all after walking in.

Qin Shu had come out today to buy a notebook. A notebook the size of a palm.

The mall was similar to her hometown, and there were many products from her country in it.

Qin Shu shopped while looking at the shop to see if they sell those small notebooks.

She saw a shop with stationery after walking for a while. She walked in, and not only did they sell stationery, but they also sold some other accessories.

A salesperson greeted her with a smile as soon as she entered the shop.

The salesperson was a boy. He didn't look old, but he probably recognized that she was Chinese, so he said in less fluent Chinese, "Miss, what do you want to buy? I can recommend it or introduce it."

"Thank you. I'll look for myself."

Qin Shuwan rejected the salesperson's kind offer because she had already seen where the notebooks were. She walked over.

It was rare to see a foreigner. The salesperson probably wanted to make use of the Chinese he had learned.

"Miss, are you here to study abroad? Which university are you studying at?"

Qin Shuwan picked up a few notebooks on the shelf and looked up at the salesperson. She smiled and shook her head. "I'm studying in China. I'm here just for traveling."

The salesperson hurriedly took out his phone and turned on the camera function. His voice was a little excited. "Then can we take a photo together? This is my first time meeting a Chinese. I want to take a photo as a memory. Also, you're beautiful. I still can tell that even though you're wearing a mask. I want to take a photo and share it with my classmates."

He just wanted to show off that he had met a Chinese beauty. The photo was to prove it.

Qin Shu was about to refuse, but a clear male voice came from behind her.

"She's not a scenery that you can take photos and share."

The male voice sounded a little familiar. Qin Shu turned around and saw a slender man standing behind her. He was wearing a light-colored suit and had a sickly pale complexion. His purple eyes were flashing with a gentle light.

It was someone she knew, Jun Li.

Wasn't that too much of a coincidence?

Last time in South Asia, this time in Xijin.

Qin Shu turned around and greeted him. "What a coincidence to meet you here. What are you doing here?"

Jun Li lowered his gaze and looked at the girl wearing a black mask in front of him. His gaze became gentler. "I'm here to travel with my friends. What are you doing here?"

Jun Li's voice was light. She didn't know if it was her misperception, but she felt that it was weaker than last time.

Qin Shu looked at his face, and it seemed to be paler than before. She raised the notebook in her hand and said, "I'm here to buy something."

The salesperson was a little unhappy to be interrupted by the man. He looked at Qin Shu again and asked her opinion, "Miss, can we take a photo together?"

Jun Li spoke in fluent Xijin language this time and said, "She's not a scenery that you can take photos and share."

The salesperson was also infuriated and said in a slightly blunt tone, "I'm asking her, not you. What right do you have to reject her on her behalf?"

Jun Li's voice was still slow and steady. "Based on the fact that I know her, you don't."

The salesperson still wanted to argue.

Qin Shu was the first to speak. "Sorry, I can't."

Qin Shu took the notebook and went to settle the bill after saying that.

The salesperson was a little disappointed. She held her phone and watched Qin Shu leave for a long time.

Jun Li's purple eyes glanced at the salesperson indifferently. Then, he looked at the girl's back with a gentle gaze.

Qin Shu unzipped her backpack and put the notebook in after she paid. Then, she unzipped her bag and walked out.

She realized that Jun Li was still there when she walked to the entrance of the store. His slender figure stood outside the door. His outstanding appearance attracted the attention of many women, from a few years old to a mother.

In the era of appearance, a handsome man would inevitably be surrounded by people and receive attention, even in a foreign country.

She walked in front of Jun Li. Her voice filled with doubt. "Are you waiting for me?"

Jun Li looked at her. He showed a faint smile which was hard to detect. "Yes, it's such a coincidence to meet. It means that we're fated."

Qin Shu nodded in agreement. "It's indeed a coincidence. I came out to travel and met you three times."

Jun Li directly ignored the gazes of the people around him and walked side by side with the girl. He turned his head to look at her. "School is about to start. Do you plan to stay on campus or rent an apartment?"

Qin Shu said, "I plan to stay on campus. I heard that the dormitory of Imperial College is a room for two people. It's pretty good."

Jun Li said, "There's also a single apartment. I can arrange it for you if you like it."

Qin Shu declined Jun Li's kind offer. "It's okay. I don't mind about accommodations."

Jun Li didn't mind being rejected. His voice was still slightly gentle. "How many days are you planning to stay here?"

Qin Shu thought that Fu Tingyu would probably go back after getting the pure-colored purple diamond. She raised her head and looked at Jun Li. "I'll probably go back in two days. School is about to start. I need to go back and make some preparations."

Jun Li nodded in understanding. "Then, did you go to Phil Equestrian Center? I heard that the horses are wild, and many tourists come because of their reputation."

Chapter 334: Why always asking her for candy? A man sneaked into the room

Initially, Qin Shu was stunned when she heard this, then she shook her head. "I've never been there, but I've heard of it. It makes people yearn for it."

Something seemed to have crossed Jun Li's mind. He sounded a little regretful. "I heard that the venue was closed yesterday and it would be closed for three days from today. Otherwise, I could have gone there today. It's a bit of a pity."

“That is right. If not, I could have gone for a horse ride. I would have enjoyed it.” Qin Shu said without feeling a sense of guilt.

“There will always be another opportunity.” The corner of Jun Li’s mouth curved up with a half smile. “Do you have any candy?”

Candy? Qin Shu was stupefied. This was the first time that she encountered a man who asked her for candy. Is there a man who liked to eat candy?

“I don’t have any candy.” Qin Shu looked around and found a candy shop. She pointed to that shop and looked at Jun Li. “Look, there’s a candy shop. if you want to eat it, you can go there and buy some.”

Jun Li’s gaze followed the direction that she was pointing at and saw a candy shop. He looked at her. “Do you want to buy some?”

Qin Shu was a little tempted. In fact, she intended to buy some. After hesitating for a few seconds, she said, “Let’s go together. I’ll buy some.”

Qin Shu carried her backpack and walked briskly towards the candy store with Jun Li following her.

In the candy store, Qin Shu took out a convenience bag and began to choose her favorite flavor candies.

Jun Li stood beside her in the shop. With his slender figure, he looked at her choosing the candies. A smile unconsciously appeared on his gentle face.

Qin Shu noticed that Jun Li had been standing beside her and had no intention of buying candy. She asked, “Don’t you want to eat candy? Why don’t you buy some?”

Jun Li replied, “I don’t buy candy.”

Qin Shu stopped choosing the candies and looked at him puzzled. “If you want to eat candy, why don’t you buy some? Buy more of it so that you can eat it anytime you want.”

Jun Li chuckled. “I don’t eat the candy that I bought.”

“Why?” Qin Shu’s eyes were filled with curiosity. How could he not eating the candy he bought himself?

Jun Li’s gaze turned to the glass drawer filled with candies. He picked up one of the candies and looked at her. “Because they’re not sweet.”

“Do you mean that the candy you that you bought yourself is not sweet?” Qin Shu recalled how many times he had asked her for candy and she seemed to understand it now. “The candy that others gave you is sweeter?”

Jun Li shook his head. “No, the candy that you gave me is sweeter.”

Qin Shu was stunned. She didn’t understand what this meant. What did he mean by the candy that she gave was sweeter?

Jun Li put the candy in his hand into the pile of candy. Seeing her puzzled face, he didn’t explain because he also didn’t know why the candy that she gave was sweeter?

Qin Shu carried the convenience bag, weighed it, and then went to the counter to pay.

Jun Li followed her unhurriedly.

When she walked towards the counter, Jun Li took out his card and handed it to the cashier. "Use my card."

The cashier looked up and saw a very handsome man. Her eyes instantly lit up. He was extremely handsome.

At this moment, Qin Shu also took out her card. When she handed it to the cashier, she saw Jun Li also holding the card.

She said hurriedly, "Use my card. Thank you."

A man and a woman were shopping. The cashier naturally took the card from the man.

"Since you have a boyfriend, let him pay." The cashier thought that Qin Shu was embarrassed.

Being misunderstood, Qin Shu explained quickly, "He's not my boyfriend."

The cashier was stupefied. She couldn't believe it. A handsome guy took the initiative to pay for a girl indicated that he liked her but the girl said that he wasn't her boyfriend?

Jun Li looked at Qin Shu "Even if I am not your boyfriend, it's the money I paid for the candy. You can give me the candy later."

Qin Shu glanced at Jun Li. The candy was not expensive but she was not used to letting others pay.

The cashier had swiped his card. Jun Li entered the password, and the cashier handed the candy to Qin Shu.

"He's so handsome. If he wants to pursue you, don't reject him. Otherwise, he'll be pursued by other girls," The cashier whispered in her ear.

Qin Shu looked at the warm-hearted cashier and smiled awkwardly. "Thank you for your kindness. We are just normal friends."

She deliberately emphasized the last sentence.

The cashier was stunned.

Qin Shu held the convenience bag, smiled at the cashier, and left the shop.

Jun Li kept his card and followed her out of the shop.

When he caught up with her, he said, "She's just a stranger. You don't have to keep in the heart of what she said."

"You are right, but it's better to explain than not to."

Actually, Qin Shu did not take note of what the cashier said. She explained so that Jun Li would not be embarrassed.

Jun Li just smiled and did not utter a single word.

Qin Shu opened the convenience bag and grabbed a handful of candy and handed it to him. "Didn't you want to eat candy? Here."

Jun Li looked at her hand. He took one of the candy. "Just one will do."

Qin Shu saw that he took only one candy and couldn't help but ask, "Don't you like to eat candy? Why don't you take more?"

Jun Li shook his head. "I don't like to eat candy."

Qin Shu suddenly felt that the person in front of her was a little contradictory. He was the one who wanted to eat candy but now he said he didn't like to eat candy.

"You're really different from others."

Jun Li curled his lips casually. "Are we going back now?"

Qin Shu nodded. "Yes, there's nothing else to buy."

Jun Li asked, "Do you have a car?"

"Yes, it's parked outside."

Hearing that, Jun Li didn't ask anymore and followed Qin Shu out of the shopping mall.

The sun was shining brightly.

Qin Shu turned to look at Jun Li beside her. Under the sunlight, his skin looked more pale. Each time she saw him, there would be a gentle light flashing in his purple eyes. She couldn't help but think that an extremely gentle person like him, time and fate will be kind to him.

"I'll go back first."

With that, she walked towards the parking lot.

Jun Li remained standing there, watching her until she disappeared from his view. He lowered his eyes, opened his palm, picked up a candy, peeled off the wrapping paper, and put it into his mouth.

A sweet taste spread throughout his mouth.

Why does it taste so sweet?

In the hotel room, Fu Tingyu still had not come back when Qin Shu entered the room. She sat at the table, took out the notebook and with the pen from her backpack, she began to copy that sentence, 'I love Fu Tingyu', a thousand times. This would take a long time to write.

She sat upright at the table and wrote every single word very seriously.

However, when she thought about the promise that she had made to him, her face turned red like an apple.

Just as Qin Shu was copying and concentrating, the door of the guest room which had been left ajar was pushed open. A slender figure walked in to the room, but Qin Shu was unaware of it.

Chapter 335: Filled with Joy, Well, Stay Focused

The air conditioner was turned on in the bedroom. It was so quiet that one could hear a pin dropped on the floor.

Qin Shu concentrated on her notebook as she was copying. Her mind was still recalling Fu Tingyu's request. She had never done it before, therefore, she felt that the request was too demanding.

Fu Tingyu walked in slowly and saw Qin Shu sitting at the table with her back facing him. She was holding a pen as if she was writing something. He walked over curiously and deliberately slowed down his footsteps.

It was merely three meters away, and he had now stood at her back.

Qin Shu didn't notice that a man was standing behind her. She was concentrating on writing the words I love Fu Tingyu wholeheartedly.

Fu Tingyu was tall and slender. He could easily see what she was writing standing behind her.

Holding a silver fountain pen with a notebook the size of a palm, she was writing something seriously.

He lowered his pitch-black eyes and his gaze fell on the notebook. He saw the words writing on it.

'I love Fu Tingyu'.

The words were written in block letters, and the rows were very neat.

He stared at the words for quite some time. Since the words were written in block letters, it covered up her unique handwriting.

He had seen her handwriting before. The writing was fluid, natural, and slightly ostentatious.

He watched her holding the silver pen and wrote one stroke after another. She wrote it with all her heart. After she finished writing a page, she turned it over and continued to write.

It somehow looked like a teacher watching his student doing her homework, where the former was watching attentively and the latter writing carefully.

Qin Shu held the silver pen and licked her lips. She lifted her hand from the notebook and subconsciously reached into her backpack for candy.

She paused when her fingers touched the zipper of her backpack. She felt that there was an invisible wall pressing down on her back and a constriction feeling in her chest. There was also a feeling of chill down her spine. She could sense that he was standing behind her.

She was concentrating on copying and preoccupied with his request. That was why she was not aware that he had walked into the room.

Qin Shu put her hand back to the notebook. When she looked at what she had written, her face turned red again.

She wanted to give it to him after she had written it a thousand times. She did not want to write this sentence repeatedly in front of him.

Holding the edge of the notebook, she was about to close it when a large hand pressed on it and also on her hand. She could not move it.

His hand was beautiful. His fingers were long and slender, with well-defined knuckles. His palms were huge with well-manicured nails. He could easily hold her hand in his palm.

His body temperature was relatively low. When they held each other's hands, she could feel a sense of coolness.

Qin Shu raised her head and saw him bending over. His well-defined facial features carried an irresistible charm when he bent close to her. She could smell the unique aura emitted from his body.

"When did you come back? Why didn't you say anything?"

Fu Tingyu looked at her. Her cute pink-white little face with a pair of brightly shined eyes was too attractive. He could not take his eyes off of her.

"I noticed that you were so preoccupied. Therefore, I didn't want to disturb you."

"Ugh! I bet you snuck in on purpose!" thought the girl.

"I heard from Ye Leng that you went to look for Nishinozawa again. How was it?"

"I can go back to the Jiang City the day after tomorrow."

Fu Tingyu's eyes were fixed at the notebook. When he remembered that his name was written all over it, he was delighted.

Holding the edge of the notebook with his slender fingers, he brought it closer to him.

Although they both knew it and she would show it to him sooner or later, Qin Shu still felt slightly embarrassed now that he was holding it up to read.

She wanted to grab the notebook from him. "Wait until I have finished copying, then you can read it."

He suddenly stood up straight and she could not grab the notebook from him. "I want to read it now."

He looked at the characters in the notebook closely. He felt a bit different from just now, but he was still a little excited.

It was the same feeling as when someone you had liked for quite some time actually had the same feeling towards you.

Qin Shu wanted to divert his attention as she saw him reading the notebook attentively. "Did you find out who had kidnapped Nishinozawa's woman?"

Still focusing on the notebook, Fu Tingyu answered casually, "I have no idea. The other party hid it very well."

Qin Shu frowned hearing this. They hid it so well that even he couldn't find it out. In other words, the other party was targeting him. "Could it be someone from the Crimson Sand Organization?"

Fu Tingyu looked at her soberly. He frowned slightly. "You don't have to be concerned about this. Concentrate on the writing. I want to get it in the shortest time possible."

He placed the notebook in front of her and signaled her to finish writing it as soon as possible.

As for other issues, he didn't want her to get involved.

Looking at the notebook in front of her, Qin Shu didn't continue asking, "I'll try my best to finish writing it as fast as I can."

Seeing her lowering her head, Fu Tingyu pursed his lips and suddenly stretched out his arms to hold her up.

Qin Shu was unprepared for this sudden movement and she grabbed his arms subconsciously.

This was to let her know what he was thinking.

"Rather than thinking of those trivial matters, better spend time thinking more of me ."

He whispered with his deep and magnetic male voice coupled with a little dissatisfaction.

Qin Shu explained that if she didn't think of him, she would not have thought of those other things. All these were connected to him and were hidden with dangers. If it was not dealt with carefully, he would be injured, or more seriously would...

At dinner time.

There were several dishes on the table. Fu Tingyu purposely instructed Shi Yan to order the dishes from a Chinese restaurant. One of which was spicy beef.

Qin Shu liked to eat spicy food. When she saw there was a spicy dish on the table, she used the chopsticks to pick up a piece of meat putting into her mouth.

A pair of attractive eyebrows were knitted.

The beef was spicier than she thought.

"So spicy..."

Seeing her facial expression, Fu Tingyu who was sitting opposite her, glanced at the dish and understood immediately why she frowned.

He handed a glass of cold water to her. "Drink some cold water. It would make you feel better."

Qin Shu hurriedly took and drank the glass of water. It soon eased the burning sensation.

Fu Tingyu picked some lighter dishes and placed them into her bowl. "Eat something lighter." He felt very bad seeing her frowning due to the spiciness.

Chapter 336: Running Away from Home Again, Must be Falling Sick. k

Qin Shu looked at the perpetrator who was with a pitiful expression. She couldn't get angry with him.

Forget it. He was her husband. She could only dote on him.

She looked at the dishes in her bowl which were all light food. She then glanced at the beef in the other bowl. She could not enjoy it now.

She could only quietly eat the bland dishes in her bowl.

After the dinner, Qin Shu returned to her room to continue copying the sentence.

A thousand times. Although it was only five words, it was time consuming to finish copying it.

Knock, Knock.

Halfway copying, she suddenly heard two knocking sounds on the door.

Qin Shu turned to look at the door. If it was Fu Tingyu, he would have come in directly without have to knock it.

She put down the pen to open the door.

When she opened it, Ye Qing was standing outside with an anxious look.

She flashed her eyes doubtfully. "What's the matter?"

"Young Madam, your pet cat is nowhere to be found."

Ye Qing had heard Shi Yan mentioned before that Bazong, the Little Tsundere, was Qin Shu's favorite pet. How could she not be anxious it had gone missing now?

Hearing that Bazong had gone missing, Qin Shu was worried. "When did you realize that it was not there?"

Ye Qing replied, "When I wanted to go to feed it with fish, I noticed that it was not there."

Hearing that, Qin Shu hurriedly ran straight into Ye Luo's room. Since Bazong had always be taken care by Ye Luo, it would sleep in his room at night.

The door to Ye Luo's room was open, Qin Shu ran in swiftly and looked at the sofa where Bazong would normally sleep. Other than two pillows, there was nothing else on the sofa.

Ye Qing also ran in to the room. "Young Madam, I'll go out and search for it."

When Qin Shu ran out from her room just now, she didn't notice anyone was in the living room. She quickly asked Ye Qing, "Wait, where did Yu go?"

Ye Qing stopped and looked at her. He knew that she was referring to Master Si. "Master Si went out not long after you entered the room."

Went Out? Qin Shu looked at the time on her watch. It was already nine o'clock. What was he going out for?

She looked at Ye Qing. "You go and look for it."

Hearing this, Ye Qing stepped out immediately.

Looking around the room, the air-conditioning was turned on and the windows were closed tightly. Bazong couldn't have climbed out of the window.

She thought that Bazong would not have run away again after the last incident. However, at the end, it still ran out.

Although she knew that Bazong was smart and intelligent, it was still very dangerous in a foreign country with an awful public security.

Qin Shu did not want to consider too much and she was going out to search for Bazong as well.

This hotel was the best at this area in terms of decoration, equipment and service. It also covered a large area.

Qin Shu searched around the hotel rooms but she didn't find it. At the end, she stepped out of the hotel.

There were street lights on both sides of the cement roads in between the roads.

Qin Shu looked at the night sky. Although she was anxious, she could only search aimlessly.

Bazong's hair was black. Night was its best protection color. If you couldn't see its eyes, you would not have noticed that it was there.

If she ever brought it outside in the future, she would definitely install a locator on its body. If it happened that it went missing, she would have known its location.

After searching for an hour, Bazong was still nowhere to be seen. She became increasingly anxious.

When she walked to a green area, she heard a few coughing sounds. "Cough cough..."

Qin Shu heard it and saw a person sitting on a bench not far away from where she was. Under the streetlight, she could see the face clearly. It was Jun Li.

He covered his mouth with one hand as if he was holding back a cough.

She quickly ran over and stopped in front of him. Seeing him frowning, she asked worriedly, "What's wrong with you? Do you need me to call an ambulance?"

Jun Li knew who the person was when he heard the familiar voice. He held the silk handkerchief tightly and put his hand on his lap. He looked at her and shook his head. "No need."

From the moment Qin Shu saw him, she had noticed that he seemed to be sick. When she heard him coughing just now, she was even more certain that he was sick and it seemed to be quite serious.

"You seem to be pretty uncomfortable. It's better to go to the hospital to check."

Jun Li smiled at her. "Thank you for your kindness. My throat was a little itchy just now. I couldn't stand coughing for a few times. It's better now."

Qin Shu glanced at his smooth forehead which was full of beads of sweat. The weather was so hot but his face was very pale. Seeing that he insisted on not going to the hospital, she couldn't force him to go.

"Alright. Why are you sitting here? It's quite hot."

Qin Shu also sat on the bench to rest before continue looking for Bazong.

"I stayed in the air conditioner for a long time, so I wanted to get some air. What About You?" Jun Li's voice was very light.

"I came out to look for my pet. I don't know where it went." Looking at Jun Li's pale face, Qin Shu was still worried. "You don't look well. Are you sick?"

Jun Li replied with an "Um". "You went abroad bringing along your pet?"

"My pet is clingy. Anyway, it's not much of an issue. Therefore, I brought it along with me."

In fact, Bazong and her were the best partners. Between them, they had a high degree of tacit understanding and were also efficient in performing tasks.

"I'll go back first. You continue looking for your pet."

After saying that, Jun Li stood up and left.

Qin Shu looked at him walking away. He was a little hurried as if he was rushing back for something important things. He started coughing again after walking for a short distance, even his steps had become chaotic.

"Cough cough..."

It was quite a frightening sound hearing this in a silent night.

Qin Shu quickly stood up and was prepared to catch him up. Just as she was prepared to do so, she stopped when she saw a man running from a distance to support him.

If she guessed it correctly, the man who came should be his assistant or special assistant. If that is the case, she did not have to worry about him.

After Jun Li left, Qin Shu was prepared to continue looking for Bazong. However, when she turned around, she saw a pair of dark green eyes staring at her. Its small figure was blended into the night, making it difficult for others to notice.

"Where had you been? I had been looking for you for ages, but still couldn't find you. I thought someone's fish had lured you away."

Although Qin Shu was angry but was completely cooled down the moment she saw Bazong.

She took a few steps forward, squatted down in front of Bazong, and embraced it in her arms.

Bazong raised its head to look at Qin Shu and meowed at her. It was a low “meow” as if it was not happy.

“Feel aggrieved?”

Qin Shu thought of Ye Luo. During this period, Ye Luo had been looking after Bazong. It was perhaps Bazong was used to be taken care by him, so after he left, Bazong was a little upset?

Bazong curled up in Qin Shu’s arms, drooping its head and looking listless.

“Ye Luo will be back in a few more days.”

Comforting Bazong by massaging its head, Qin Shu walked towards the guest room.

After taking only a few steps, she heard a male voice coming from her back.

“Wait a minute.”

Chapter 337: Someone actually dared to steal her boss ba?

Qin Shu stopped walking. From the man’s tone, she could tell that he came with ill intentions.

Since she didn’t know what his intentions were, she could only adapt to circumstances.

She slowly turned around and saw the man who stopped her. He was wearing a black suit. He was tall and sturdy with a firm lower body. One could easily tell that he practiced martial arts.

He had an average appearance, but she was certain that she had never seen his face before.

The stranger looked at the cat in Qin Shu’s arms. His eyes lit up. “Leave the cat. You can go.”

Qin Shu hugged Bazong tightly in her arms. Her crystal clear eyes looked at the man. Her voice trembled slightly. “This is my pet. Why should I give it to you?”

The first impression that Qin Shu gave to others was that she was weak and fragile. With this impression, others would normally treat her lightly and let their guard down.

“The cat in your arms belongs to my master. I won’t hurt you if you hand it to me. Otherwise, Don’t blame me for assaulting a woman.”

As he was talking, he continued approaching her. He was not worried that she might turn around and run away.

Qin Shu frowned. “There are so many cats in the world. There are always a few that would look alike. Do you have any evidence that this cat belongs to your master?”

“I don’t need evidence. This cat indeed belongs to my master. I advise you not to get injured because of a cat.”

The strange man revealed a fierce expression. He walked in front of the girl and reached out to grab the cat in her arms. However, Qin Shu took a step back and dodged the strange man’s hand.

“Since there is no proof that it belongs to your master, don’t even think about taking it away from me.” As Qin Shu spoke, she took another two steps back, looking very scared.

The strange man seemed to be a little impatient. He took out a gun from his pocket and pointed it at the girl. As he walked towards her, he said fiercely, "Do you want to die, or let go of the cat?"

Qin Shu looked at the strange man who was walking towards her. Her eyes narrowed. When he came closer and reached out his hand again, Bazong suddenly pounced towards him.

Qin Shu took the opportunity to raise her leg and kick the strange man's hand. The strange man felt pain and the gun in his hand was kicked away. At the same time, Bazong scratched his face. Three bloody marks appeared on his wheat-colored face.

The stranger's eyes were filled with disbelief. He never thought that a weak girl like her would be so skilled. He endured the pain and reached out to grab the cat in front of him.

Seeing this, Qin Shu raised her foot again and kicked repeatedly. First, she kicked the stranger's lower abdomen. Then, she kicked his knee. There was a crisp crack. It was the sound of bones breaking.

The stranger couldn't even touch the cat's fur. He spat out a mouthful of blood, and his legs went limp as he knelt on the ground.

Bazong also landed steadily on the ground. He ran a few steps quickly and came to Qin Shu's side.

Qin Shu raised her foot again and kicked hard at the stranger's temple. Hitting this spot could be fatal if one controlled one's strength well.

When her kick landed on the stranger's temple, the man revealed a terrified expression. His eyes widened as if he had sensed the arrival of death.

The moment he fell, he still revealed a look of disbelief.

Qin Shu retracted her leg and watched the stranger fall. She did not know why he insisted that Bazong was his master's cat.

From the moment she bought Bazong, it had been her cat. There was no way she would let someone take Bazong away.

When she kicked the man's temple, she withdrew her strength. It was not enough to kill him, but it will be difficult for him continue to live.

Qin Shu bent down and picked up Bazong. She raised her hand and rubbed its head. "Let's go back. Don't run around again."

If that man saw Bazong first, he would have definitely took it away.

In the end, he would find out that it was not his master's cat. Then what would happen to Bazong..

Qin Shu was terrified just thinking about it. She carried Bazong and sped up toward the guest room.

Qin Shu took the elevator to the floor where the guest room was. When she reached the door of the guest room, she bumped into Fu Tingyu who was just walking out.

Fu Tingyu had just returned. He didn't see the girl in the room, so he hurriedly out to look for her.

Fu Tingyu hurriedly held the girl. When he saw that she came back with Bazong in her arms, he let out a sigh of relief. When he thought of the girl running in, his heart rose again. "Did someone bully you?"

Qin Shu shook her head. "No, I was just afraid that you would suddenly come back and worry about me if you didn't see me, so I ran back as fast as I could. What did you do at night?"

"I had something to do. Let's go in first."

Seeing that the girl had returned safely, Fu Tingyu's tensed nerves also relaxed. Dizziness came as a result of it. He frowned and tried to stay awake. He walked in with the girl in his arms.

Shi Yan followed closely behind and closed the door.

After entering, Qin Shu placed Bazong on the sofa. Because she knew men too well, if she didn't let Bazong go, he would definitely pick Bazong up and throw it out.

Moreover, if ye Luo wasn't around, Bazong didn't seem to like to be hugged casually.

Fu Tingyu looked down at the girl and said in a low voice, "You go take a shower and rest first. I'll come in later."

Qin Shu thought the man still had something to deal with, so she nodded obediently. "Okay."

Just as Qin Shu turned to leave, Fu Tingyu saw that there were traces of blood on the girl's pure-colored clothes. His expression changed. His big hand grabbed the girl's arm and pulled her back into his embrace. His gaze started to examine the girl from top to bottom to see if she was injured.

"Where are you injured? Quickly let me take a look."

Qin Shu lowered her gaze to look at her clothes. She saw that the light-colored clothes were stained with blood. It must have been the blood that the strange man spattered when he vomited blood.

At that time, the light was a little dim, so she didn't notice it.

Seeing that the man looked very nervous, she hurriedly shook her head. "I'm not injured, really."

Fu Tingyu raised his head when he heard that. His pitch-black eyes stared at the girl. "Then, where did the blood on your clothes come from?"

Fu Tingyu couldn't bear to see Qin Shu get hurt. That was why he was worried when he saw the blood on her.

Qin Shu saw how nervous the man was. If she said she met a man on the way back who was snatching a cat from her and even pointed a gun at her..

It would probably make the man more worried than seeing blood on her clothes.

"It was Bazong who did it. He stole some fish. I got it when I tried to carry him."

Fu Tingyu did not find any obvious wounds on the girl's body. When he heard the girl's explanation, he heaved a sigh of relief.

"Go take a shower. I'll go in later."

“Okay.”

Qin Shu nodded and walked into the room. The door closed behind her.

When Shi Yan saw Qin Shu enter, he only took a few steps forward. He looked at his master worriedly. “Fourth master, I’ll call the Doctor.”

“No need.”

Fu Tingyu’s slender figure sat down on the sofa. His back seemed to be exhausted as he leaned against the back of the sofa.

Shi Yan thought of the few people he had met that night. Their martial prowess had exceeded their levels.

“Fourth master, could those people today be from the Crimson Sand Organization?”

Chapter 338: Enjoying Bao’er’s service and probing

Before coming to Xijin, master four had led his men to wipe out all those people after learning about the actions of the red sand organization.

This could be considered revenge for Qin Shu.

This time, he suspected that the crimson sand organization had come specifically for revenge. Even Xiye ze had been instigated by them.

Fu Tingyu raised his eyelids. “Go and investigate the recent movements of the red sand organization.”

“Got it, master four.”

Shi Yan turned around and walked out. The crimson sand organization was very mysterious, and it was very difficult to find their movements. Even the person who controlled the crimson sand organization was unknown.

Every time he found out, it was the people on the periphery of the crimson sand organization, that is, those who could not get in touch with the core.

After Shi Yan left, Fu Tingyu sat on the sofa and rested for a while. He felt a little better from the dizziness and his chest was not so stuffy. Only then did he stand up and slowly walked to the front of the room. He pushed the door open and walked in.

Qin Shu had already showered and was waiting for him at the head of the bed. When she heard the sound of the door opening, she turned her head to look at the door and saw a tall and straight figure of a man walking in from outside.

Fu Tingyu saw that the girl was still awake. He opened his suitcase to get his clothes and said, “If you’re sleepy, sleep first. There’s no need to wait for me.”

Qin Shu arched her eyebrows at the man. “I’m not sleepy yet. We’ll sleep together after you’re done showering.”

Fu Tingyu looked up and saw the girl's arched eyebrows. The Girl's smile was the sweetest. He was stunned for two seconds and didn't say anything else. He took his clothes and walked straight into the bathroom.

About forty minutes passed.

Qin Shu saw that the man hadn't come out yet, and a hint of doubt flashed in her eyes. He usually takes about half an hour to shower. Why did he take so long this time?

After waiting for about ten minutes, seeing that the man hadn't come out yet, she hurriedly lifted the quilt, got out of bed, put on her slippers, and walked to the bathroom door.

The bathroom door was made out of translucent glass, and through the glass, only a blurry figure could be seen inside.

She raised her hand and knocked on the door. Before she could shout, the bathroom door opened from the inside with a "Crash". She saw the man walk out with wet hair. His face was a little pale, and his eyes were a little red. Water must have gotten into his eyes during shower.

The wet ends of his hair were still dripping with water. It fell on his pale face, slid down to his smooth jaw, and then dripped on his body.

He held the bathroom door frame with one hand, and a dry towel in the other hand. The light-colored robe he was wearing was just casually draped over his body. He didn't even tie his belt.

Qin Shu looked at the man's pale face, and her voice was full of worry. "Why did you take so long to shower? And you don't look good either. Are you feeling unwell?"

"It's too stuffy in the bathroom."

Fu Tingyu's tall and straight figure walked out from inside and wiped his wet hair with a towel.

Qin Shu also walked over. "Let me help you."

Fu Tingyu turned his head to look at the girl and nodded. "Okay."

Fu Tingyu passed the towel to her and his slender figure walked to the sofa and sat down. His back leaned against the sofa so that the girl could help him dry his hair.

Qin Shu took the towel and walked to the back of the sofa. She stood behind the man and used the towel in her hand to wipe his wet hair.

The man's hair was black and shiny. It was a little soft.

Fu Tingyu closed his eyes and pretended to sleep. It was as if he was enjoying the girl's service for him. He was indeed enjoying it.

Because this was the first time the girl was wiping his hair for him.

He raised his head. He originally wanted to look at her, but his eyelids were a little heavy.

Qin Shu was wiping her hair as she sized up the man. When she saw that his eyes were half-closed and he seemed to be a little sleepy, she quickened her hands and wiped his hair half-dry.

Then, she took out a hair dryer and dried his hair. When she felt that the wet hair had become dry and soft in her fingers, she turned off the hair dryer.

After putting away the hair dryer, she walked to the sofa and saw that the man's eyes were still closed. Even with his eyes closed, the man's peerless beauty did not diminish at all. His facial features were impeccable. However, when he was asleep, there was less hostility between his brows.

She called out softly, "Yu, wake up. Let's go to bed and sleep."

The Man's long eyelashes fluttered a few times before he slowly opened them. The sudden intrusion of the light made him squint his eyes. His pitch-black eyes paused for a moment before locking on the person in front of him. He frowned slightly as if he was annoyed.

Qin Shu saw that the man opened his eyes. There was a thick tiredness in his eyes. She reached out to pull him. "Let's go to bed and sleep."

Fu Tingyu held the soft little hand in his hand tightly while his other hand supported himself on the sofa. He got up and led the girl to the bed.

It was only two meters away. It only took him a few seconds to walk over, but it took up all of his strength.

After he laid down on the bed, he seemed to have lost all his strength and sank into the soft bed.

Qin Shu also got on the bed and turned off the lights in the room. The originally bright room instantly fell into darkness.

In the pitch-black night, a man's low voice whispered at her ear. "Babe."

"I'm here."

After Qin Shu turned off the lights, she moved closer to the man until she nestled into his arms and hugged his skinny waist.

Then, she was embraced by the man.

In the quiet room, it was so quiet that they could hear each other's heartbeat clearly.

After a while, the sound of the man's shallow breathing sounded at her ear, indicating that the man had fallen asleep.

Qin Shu then closed her eyes and went to sleep in peace.

The next morning.

When Qin Shu woke up, she saw that the man beside her was still asleep. His eyes were closed and his breathing was light, as if he was deep asleep.

However, his face was still very pale.

When she saw the man's pale face last night, she realized that something was wrong.

He did not have the habit of sleeping in. Instead, he woke up very early every day.

The more Qin Shu thought about it, the more worried she became. She lifted the blanket and got out of bed to wash up.

After washing up, she changed into a new set of clothes and walked out.

Shi Yan was already waiting outside. When he saw that the room was opened from the inside, he hurriedly took a few steps forward. When he realized that it was Qin Shu, he stopped in his tracks.

When Qin Shu saw that Shi Yan was outside this early in the morning, she knew that he must have something to discuss with Fu Tingyu.

Shi Yan knew 99% of what Fu Tingyu had to say.

Because he had followed Fu Tingyu ever since he was young, and he was also Fu Tingyu's most trusted person.

She walked in front of Shi Yan.

Shi Yan didn't know if it was because he felt guilty, but when Qin Shu walked over, he subconsciously lowered his gaze.

Qin Shu looked Shi Yan up and down and asked, "Last night, what did you guys do with Yu?"

Shi Yan replied, "We went to investigate the kidnapping incident."

Qin Shu frowned. "Did you meet someone else? He was injured too, right?"

Shi Yan raised his eyes to look at Qin Shu, wondering how she knew?

Then he lowered his head and didn't dare to say anything.

Because master four had said that he couldn't mention his injury in front of Qin Shu, as well as those dangerous and bloody things.

"Young madam, don't think too much. Master four might have been too busy recently and tired."

This answer was expected and it's definitely because there was something Fu Tingyu didn't want him to say.

It also meant that she had guessed right. She must have met some powerful people last night, and her injury could also be because she had fought with the other party.

Chapter 339: Stunning Everyone – Master Four Has Very High Standards..

Qin Shu looked at Shi Yan again. It was very difficult to find out anything about Fu Tingyu from him.

"Did you have something to tell him since you were here?"

Shi Yan nodded. "Xiye Ze sent a message saying that we can go get the purple pure diamond today."

"He's still resting inside."

When she woke up, the man was still in a deep sleep and would not wake up for a while. "Can't you go get it?"

“Xiye Ze said that he wants Master Four to go get it. He said that he wants to race with Master Four again.” Shi Yan also wanted to go get it for Master Four, but Xiye Ze was not willing. He might think that he was not qualified.

Qin Shu thought that the man was still resting because of his injury. It was so serious that it was impossible for him to race.

Now that she had retrieved the pure purple diamond, she could return to Jiang City as soon as possible and get Gu Yan to examine his injury properly.

Staying here for one more day felt very dangerous.

She looked at Shi Yan. “I’ll go.”

“No, Master Four will be angry if he finds out.”

Shi Yan was so scared that he took a step back, as if he would’ve had bad luck if he got too close to Qin Shu.

Qin Shu knew that Shi Yan would refuse, so she continued, “When he wakes up, you can tell him that you brought him here. It has nothing to do with me. His body is so weak now. Wouldn’t it be dangerous if he met those people again? If I go, many people won’t recognize me, so there won’t be any danger.”

Shi Yan was in a difficult position. “But... Xiye Ze said to let Master Four go.”

Qin Shu thought for a moment and said, “Then call Xiye Ze and tell him that Master Four’s wife is coming to pick it up personally.”

Uh!

Shi Yan looked at Qin Shu in a difficult position. Then, he took out his phone and dialed Xiye Ze’s number in front of her.

Qin Shu stood in front of him and watched him make the call. Even if Shi Yan wanted to fake it, he couldn’t.

When the call went through, Shi Yan spoke Chinese because Xiye Ze could understand.

“Mr. Xiye, my fourth master has something urgent to attend to, and my wife is here to pick it up. Is this a good time?”

Xiye Ze paused for a moment. He had never heard of Fu Tingyu having a wife and a woman, so he was a little curious about what kind of woman Fu Tingyu’s woman was?

After hesitating for a few seconds, he said, “Then come to the horse farm to pick it up.”

Shi Yan did not expect Xiye Ze to agree so easily. He looked at Qin Shu and felt even more troubled.

“Xiye Ze said to go to the horse farm to pick it up.”

“Then I’ll change my clothes again.”

Seeing that Xiye Ze agreed, Qin Shu also heaved a sigh of relief. She turned around and went back to her room to change her clothes.

Shi Yan was stunned on the spot. She was going to go just like that?

What if Master Four woke up and knew that Qin Shu was going to see Xiye Ze?

After Master Four fought with someone last night, he was indeed injured. Added to the injuries he received the day before yesterday, if he met those people from last night again, he was afraid..

Shi Yan had never encountered such a difficult and complicated situation before.

Qin Shu walked into the room and first took a look at Fu Tingyu. She walked to the bedside and looked at the man on the bed. Listening to the man's light breathing, she knew that he was sound asleep.

Seeing that the man was in deep sleep, she turned around and walked to the password box. She bent down and opened it. She took out a red riding suit from inside and walked into the bathroom.

In front of the bathroom mirror, Qin Shu took off her dress and picked up the red riding suit to put on.

Her long hair was tied into a high ponytail.

The rose-colored riding suit shone on Qin Shu. Her skin was already excessively white, and when paired with the bright red color, it gave off a touch of mesmerizing blush.

The design of the retractable waist perfectly displayed her slender waistline, and her legs were straight and long.

When Qin Shu appeared in front of Shi Yan again, he was stunned for a few minutes.

Qin Shu, who was wearing a red riding outfit, was full of energy. She was as beautiful as the blazing sun, and even more valiant and heroic.

When Shi Yan saw Qin Shu dressed like this, his first reaction was, how many love interests would she attract?

Usually, her appearance is already attractive, and she has always had lots of suiters.

It was just that she was a little more delicate, like a fragile flower raised in a greenhouse, unable to withstand any wind or rain. Although it was the result of Master Four's pampering and protection..

But the Qin Shu in front of him was like a blazing sun, attracting even more attention.

Qin Shu's gaze turned to Shi Yan. "Let's go."

As soon as she finished speaking, she had already taken the lead and walked out.

Shi Yan snapped out of his shock and followed after her with the car keys.

Ten minutes later, a black luxury car was driving quickly on the road.

Shi Yan was worried as he drove. He looked up at the rearview mirror. Qin Shu was calm and composed. She had the demeanor of the mistress of the house and didn't panic when she was in trouble.

Qin Shu only wanted to return to Jiang city with Fu Tingyu as soon as possible. As for the pure purple diamond, she didn't know what a man could use it for. She took time out of her busy schedule to come to Xi Jin, but if a man wanted it, she had no reason to stop him.

An hour later, at the Phil Racecourse,

Shi Yan drove the car slowly into the racecourse. He only stopped steadily at the entrance of the resting platform. Then, he pushed open the car door and got out. He went to the backseat and reached out to open the backseat door. He arched his back slightly and covered the top of the car door with one hand, waiting for Qin Shu to get out.

Before getting out of the car, Qin Shu took out a black mask and put it on. The drawer of Sheng Yuan's bedroom was full of such black masks.

After alighting from the car, Qin Shu saw the entrance to the resting area. Xiye Ze was dressed in a military green riding suit. He had a strong figure and his clothes were propped up. The material used in summer was very light, and one could see the shape of his muscles.

After Xiye Ze opened the car door, his gaze was fixed on the inside, waiting for the people to come out.

When a smear of red appeared in his eyes, Xiye Ze's first reaction was that it was gaudy.

He had seen many women before. They wore bright red sexy gowns and heavy makeup. It was very tacky.

Fu Tingyu didn't have a good taste. There were plenty of women like that at night, in bars..

Just as Xiye ze was ridiculing Fu Tingyu's taste, the woman in the car had already walked out and stood in front of the car. Under the backlight, the woman's figure was tall and her skin was as white as snow. Her bright red riding attire was as red as fire under the light.

However, she was wearing a mask, so her face could not be seen. Her eyes were exposed, as if they contained the entire sea of stars.

Xiye Ze was stunned for a few seconds. He did not expect her to straight up wear riding attire. Moreover, it was a red riding attire. He had seen many people wearing riding attire, but he had never seen anyone wearing red. However, it was surprisingly beautiful.

"Let's have a horse race first. If you win against me, I'll give you the pure purple diamond for free."

Qin Shu knew that the purple diamond was not that easy to get.

She replied with one word, "Okay."

Shi Yan glanced at Qin Shu. Although he had seen her ride a horse before, horse racing and horse-riding were two different concepts. What if she fell?

"Young Madam, horse racing is very dangerous. If you fall, Master Four will definitely be angry when he finds out," he reminded her softly.

Qin Shu looked at Shi Yan from the corner of her eyes. "Can't you just hope for me to be better?"

Shi Yan lowered his head, indicating that he had said something wrong.

"Don't worry, I won't fall. You just have to pray that I can win and not embarrass Yu."

Treading Moon had a fierce temper and was very wild. She did not fall, so she believed that she wouldn't in the future. If she could win...

Chapter 340: The Man Rushed Over, and So Did Jun Li

Fu Tingyu wanted the pure purple diamond, so she had to win against Xiye Ze.

Qin Shu, who had been a little unconfident, now had a look of certainty in her eyes.

The horse that had taken the stimulant hadn't recovered yet. The horse that had been racing this time was the horse that hadn't been in the stable that night.

A horse trainer had already led the horse over.

Xiye Ze looked at Qin Shu and said in a forthright manner, "You're a guest. Pick a horse first."

"Then I won't stand on ceremony."

Qin Shu wasn't pretentious. She looked at the two horses in front of her. They were both tamed horses. They had strong physiques and were in a good mental state.

She walked to the horse on the right side and led it out. She reached out and touched the horse's forehead. This was also a way to communicate with the horse.

She raised her head and looked at Xiye Ze. "I choose this horse."

After saying that, she pressed her hands on the saddle and stepped on the stirrups. She quickly got on the horse.

Xiye Ze saw this and was unwilling to fall behind. He quickly got on the horse and pointed at the hill ahead with his whip. "There's a hill ahead. Whoever comes back first will win."

Qin Shu's gaze looked at the hill ahead. She patted the horse's head and said, "I'll rely on you this time."

After a gunshot, Qin Shu squeezed the horse's belly and whipped it. The horse was like a sword that had left the bow as it galloped away.

Xiye Ze also whipped the horse. The horse that he sat on galloped away like a sword.

Shi Yan, who was standing on the resting platform, watched Qin Shu gallop away. His palms were full of sweat because he was anxious.

He was afraid that Qin Shu would accidentally fall off the horse's back.

Her calf was already injured. If she fell off the horse's back, she could lose her arms and legs, or even her life.

While Shi Yan was worried, Qin Shu had another feeling. The feeling that galloping on a horse was even better than racing.

Although she had never raced before, this feeling of galloping in the wind was a familiar feeling of pleasure.

It was like she had galloped on a horse like this a long time ago.

It was to the extent that she had ignored Xiye ze.

The horse's speed increased by a few points, as if it was competing with the horse on the side.

On the other side of the horse farm, Jun Li was standing in front of the fence. Under the scorching sun, his smooth forehead was covered with fine beads of sweat. His pale face did not have a trace of blood. Under the Sun, it was almost transparent, and his lips, which had lost their blood color, were tightly pursed.

His gaze looked at the vigorous figure in the racecourse, and his gaze was very gentle.

Although the distance was a bit far, it could be seen that her equestrian skills were very good.

Jun Li stood under the scorching sun, and his purple eyes stared at the figure in the racecourse for a long time, not moving an inch.

In the racecourse, Qin Shu was waving the horsewhip, enjoying the pleasure of driving the horse madly. At the same time, she didn't forget the race. When she was on the curve of the hill, she tightened the reins and slowed down the speed. Because the curve was very large, the speed was too fast, and it was easy to fall.

After going around the hill, she waved her whip again, making the horse run faster.

She was one meter away from Xiye Ze, and her horse's head was on the same level as his ponytail.

She raised her hand and patted the horse's head, as if to encourage it.

Xiye Ze was in the lead. He didn't care about a woman at all. In all of Xijin, no one could beat him on a horse.

His pure purple diamond wasn't that easy to get.

At this time, on the road, a black luxury car was driving fast.

Fu Tingyu was sitting in the back seat. He held his forehead with one hand and looked forward, frowning.

When Fu Tingyu woke up, he didn't see the girl. After asking around, he found out that she had come to Phil Racecourse.

Xiye wasn't a good person. Sometimes, what he did depended on his mood and temperament.

What if..

Ye Qing parked the carriage at the entrance of the horse farm.

Fu Tingyu opened the door and walked out. He looked at the horse farm, but his footsteps did not stop for a moment.

He strode into the horse farm and saw a figure running toward him. He stopped in his tracks.

On the back of the horse that was running toward him, he recognized the person on the back of the horse at a glance. It was his baby.

She was wearing a red riding suit and brandishing the horsewhip wantonly, looking valiant and charming.

His treasure..

Fu Tingyu stood there straight and looked at the galloping woman and horse. It was as if he could see her, also wearing a red riding suit a few years ago..

The roar of the horse brought him back to his senses. He looked at the man and horse who were already close to him and raised his eyes to look at the person on the back of the horse.

Her forehead was covered in bean-sized beads of sweat. Even though she was wearing a black mask, he could see that her cheeks were flushed and she was panting.

Her bright eyes were filled with confidence and pride.

Xiye Ze, who was following closely behind, had a bad look on his face. Victory was already in his grasp, but he had lost at the last moment. Furthermore, he had lost to a woman. If it was anyone else, they would not be happy.

Qin Shu saw Fu Tingyu coming and hurriedly dismounted. She threw the whip in her hand and walked to the man. The whip spun in the air and hung on the fence.

She raised her head and looked at the man in front of her. She smiled guiltily and said, "He said that if I won the horse ride, he'd give me the pure purple diamond for free."

Fu Tingyu looked down at the girl. His slender fingers took out a tissue from his pocket and reached to the girl's forehead to wipe her sweat. His voice was filled with anger as he said, "If you wanted to come, why didn't you wait for me?"

At this moment, Xiye Ze walked over and looked at Fu Tingyu wiping his woman's forehead. It was a little strange because the rumors said that Fu Tingyu was cold-blooded and ruthless. However, what he saw now was the opposite.

"If you're willing to bet, you must admit defeat. I'll treat that pure purple diamond as a gift to you."

Fu Tingyu looked up at Xiye Ze. "You gave up your love."

Xiye Ze looked at Qin Shu, but he asked Fu Tingyu, "Why is she wearing a mask?"

Fu Tingyu replied coldly, "I like it."

Qin Shu was a little glad that she wore a mask before coming out..

Xiye Ze couldn't help but look at Qin Shu again. Although she was wearing a mask, it wasn't hard to tell that she looked pretty good. Could it be that her face was disfigured? Was that why she was
